

New World Translation of the Holy Scriptures

"We should prove by the Word of God whether the things found in The Watchtower are from man or from the Lord."

The Watchtower, May 1, 1934.

"A true minister of God will welcome a sincere examination of the message that he preaches. The Bereans set a good example at Acts 17:11. "

Awake! Nov. 22, 1964

The Watchtower, Aug. 15, 1981.

Now the latter were more noble-minded than those in Thes-sa-lo-nica, for they received the word with the greatest eagerness of mind, carefully examining the Scriptures daily as to whether these things were so.

Acts 17:11 [NWT]

Publications: With Key Text

Publication	Description
1kY p. 209-10	In the year 1943 ... published the book The Truth Shall Make You Free . ... This moved forward the end of five thousand years of man's existence into the decade of the 1970s. Naturally this did away with the year 1874 c.e. as the date of the return of the Lord Jesus Christ...
1kY p. 377-78	McClintock and Strong's Cyclopaedia , Volume II, page 386, says ... 'As the Roman hierarchy was developed, the clergy came to ... be recognized as the only priesthood and the essential means of communication between man and God.'
1kY p. 346	Russell never claimed to be the faithful and wise servant.
1kY p. 347	People's Pulpit Association published The Finished Mystery . Such a book and religious attitude tended to establish a religious sect centered around a man. In 1927 the remaining stock of Studies in the Scriptures were disposed of.
AID p. 333	Adam at age 130 had a son, Seth.
AID p. 538	Eve at age 130 had a son, Seth.
AID p. 884-885	'The first recorded use of this form [Jehovah] dates from the thirteenth century C.E. Raymundus Martini, a Spanish monk of the Dominican Order, used it in his book Pugio Fidei of the year 1270 C.E.'
AID p. 1060	Lying generally involves saying something false to a person who is entitled to know the truth and doing so with the intent to deceive or to injure him or another person.
AID p. 1061	While malicious lying is definitely condemned in the Bible, this does not mean that a person is under obligation to divulge truthful information to people who are not entitled to it.
AID p. 1134	Johannes Greber cited for support for Matthew 27:52-53.
AID p. 1348	The three essentials for establishing a true prophet
AID p. 1669	Johannes Greber cited for support for John 1:1.
AP p. 26	In order for the Lord Jesus Christ to be "Lord even of the Sabbath day," his thousand-year reign would have to be the seventh in a series of thousand-year periods or millenniums.
BG p. 548	God permitted the political authorities of this world to continue as the 'higher powers' or the 'powers that be,' which are 'ordained of God.'
BM p. 54	They know that if they violate God's law on blood and the child dies in the process, they have endangered that child's opportunity for everlasting life in God's new world.
BM p. 55	It may result in the immediate and very temporary prolongation of life, but that at the cost of eternal life for a dedicated Christian.
BvE p. 30-31	It is quite another thing that God may have been, nay, evidently has been, a respecter of races, and has specially blessed and favored certain branches of the Aryan race in Europe and America.
CD p. 214	John, dear, don't you think we should have the Watchtower and study it regularly, that we might be informed of the unfolding of Jehovah's prophecies?

Publication		Description
		"Should men and women, both of whom are Jonadabs or "other sheep" of the Lord, now marry before Armageddon and bring forth children? they may chose to do so, but the admonition or advice of the scriptures appears to be against it."
CD	p. 312 313	"The prophetic picture seems to set forth the correct rule to wit: The three sons of Noah and their wives were in the ark and were saved from the flood. They did not have any children, however, until after the flood. They began to have children two years after the flood. (Genesis 11:10,11) No children were taken into the ark and none were born in the ark, and hence none were brought out of the ark. Only eight persons went in and eight came out of the ark. (1 Peter 3:20; Genesis 8:18) That would appear to indicate that it would be proper that those who will form the "great multitude" should wait until after Armageddon to bring children into the world."
CD	p. 366	We can well defer our marriage until lasting peace comes to the earth.
CPA		"In the year 1878, the dead in Christ were resurrected, as shown by number 8. It was time for them to be engaged in kingdom work. In that same year a call was issued for the saints on this side of the 'veil' to come out of Babylon. The 1845 years of fleshly Israel's disfavor ended in 1878."
CPA		"The General Call To The High Calling Ceased! Even though the general call ceased in 1881, the door to the high calling remains open, as shown by number 9. However, it is only when one who is spirit begotten has to be replaced, (on account of being overcharged with the cares of this world, or sinful living, or loss of faith), that one, desirous of doing the Father's will, is invited to enter the narrow way as a replacement. The door to the high calling will remain open until the bride has made herself ready."
CRN	p. 94	"The face of the deep, of course, would be toward the Pleiades, which are claimed to be the habitation of Jehowah."
CRN	p. 117	"Doubtless there has never been a more masterful and perfect english publication than the Authorized Version of the Bible."
CRN	p. 188.89	Will the people continue to be hoodwinked by these false prophets. or will they be guided by the plain Word of God? ...?
CRN	p. 161	"... he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross." (Phil. 2:7, 8)
CRN	p. 121, 131	God used Russell to publish the Studies in the Scriptures (early editions, p. 131; later editions p. 121)
CRN	p. 265	"Crucifixion" (picture of Christ on the cross)
CRN	p. 291	To understand 1874 one must be spiritually minded, and the clergy is not.
CRN	p. 293	"Napoleon began this Egyptian campaign in 1798, finished it, and then returned to France on October 1, 1799. The campaign is briefly, yet graphically described in the prophecy, verses 4044; and its being completed in 1799 makes, according to the prophet's own words, the beginning of "the time of the end. Twelve hundred and sixty years from 539 A.D. brings us to 1799, which is another proof that 1799 definitely marks the beginning of "the time of the end." This also shows that it is from the date 539 A.D. that the other prophetic days of Daniel must be counted." [2.175,000 edition]

CRN	p. 297	"But mention is made of some of those things that have come to light since 1874,"
CRN	p. 298	"Applying the same rule then, of a day for a year, 1335 days after 539 A.D. brings us to 1874 A.D. at which time according to Biblical chronology, the Lord's second presence was due."
CRN	p. 289, 310	The second coming of the Lord therefore began in 1874 ... [p. 289 early editions, p. 310 later editions]
CRN	p. 291, 312	To understand the events concerning the Lord's second presence from 1874 to 1914 requires one to be spiritually minded; and the clergy are not spiritually minded.
CRN	p. 291, 312	... the clergy would not understand these times and seasons, because they form a part of Satan's organization ... [p. 291 early editions, p. 312 later editions]
CRP	p. 7	The Watch Tower Society burial lots in Rosemont United Cemeteries, five miles due north of Pittsburgh City, contain ample grave space for all the members of the Bethel family ... In the exact center of the Bethel lot will be erected diagonally the Pyramid Shape Monument designed by Brother Bohner, and accepted by Brother Russell ... nine feet across the base, and its apex stone is exactly seven feet above the ground surface level.
DF	p. 74	"...while a Magdalene kneels, wash His disciples' feet or die upon the cross."
DFD	p. 60	An attack against all organized religion; Roman Catholic Church singled out

DP	p.	Today the remaining ones of the 144,000 are earthly representatives
DP	p. 68-69	Russell first taught that the faithful and wise servant was the organization; then the view was taught that Russell was the servant. This led to creature worship. After Russell died, Rutherford battled with those who still followed him.
DP	p. 17	Reference to the 1926 biography of Russell
DP	p. 19	[Other events for 1878 were the 'end of the gospel age', with God's favour being returned to the Jews and the Kingdom of God starting to exercise power.]
DP	p. 63	The organization "never published a biography of Pastor Russell."
DP	p. 91	... following World War I ... There were many false doctrines and practices that had not yet been cleaned out of the organization. ... With considerable misunderstanding they had accepted earthly political governments as the 'superior authorities' that God had ordained according to Romans 13:1 ...
EP	p. 178, 179	"This remnant of anointed ones have identified themselves on the pages of history since 1914 C.E. Before this year members of this anointed remnant had been earnestly studying God's Word apart from Christendom. They were

EP	p. 51	"Would there be another creative 'day,' a seventh 'day,' at the close of the 'morning' of which the whole earth would be populated with a human family and be a global Parable? 'Evening' of seventh creative 'day' begins, 4026 B.C.E."
EP	p. 131	"Morning' of seventh creative 'day' begins, 526 B.C.E. The first half or 'evening' period of God's seventh creative 'day' was now closing, 3,500 years from creation of Adam and Eve."
FC	p. 15	The Nazis will destroy the British.
FF	p. 46-50	"“Would it be scripturally proper for them to marry and begin to rear children? No, is the answer, which is supported by the scriptures.” "Those... who now contemplate marriage, it would seem, would do better if they wait a few years, until the fiery storm of Armageddon is gone.”"
FM	pp. 26-27	"Expecting the Lord Jesus to come in 1878 to catch them up miraculously to be with him in heaven, some who had been Second Adventists (including Barbour) were disappointed when that miracle did not occur. This moved forward the end of six thousand years of man's existence into the decade of the 1970's. Naturally this did away with the year 1874 C.E. as the date of return of the Lord Jesus Christ and the beginning of his invisible presence or parousia. HG	p. 239	"The running to and fro of people is without question a fulfillment of the prophecy testifying to the "time of the end". These physical facts cannot be disputed and are sufficient to convince any reasonable mind that we have been in "the time of the end" since 1799."

While the time prophecies thus point to and harmonize with 1874 as the date of our Lord's second presence, assuring us of the fact with mathematical precision, we find ourselves overwhelmed with evidence of another character; for certain peculiar signs, foretold by the Lord and the apostles and prophets, which were to precede his coming, are now clearly recognised as actually fulfilled. ... That period of time beginning 1575 before A.D. 1 of necessity would end in the fall of the year 1925, at which time the type ends and the great antitype must begin. What, then, should we expect to take place? The chief thing to be restored is the human race to life; and since other Scriptures definitely fix the fact that there will be a resurrection of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and other faithful ones of old, and that these will have the first favour, we may expect 1925 to witness the return of these faithful men of Israel from the condition of death , being resurrected and fully restored to perfect humanity and made the visible, legal representatives of the new order of things on earth."
MLN p. 89,98	"The church systems would have the people believe that only those who become church members can be saved. The Bible never taught any such doctrine. ... Jesus died not only for those who will constitute the members of the church, but for all. St. John plainly stated: 'He is the propitiation [satisfaction] for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world'. 1 John 2:2. It would be impossible for the human race, therefore, to accept the gift of life everlasting before it is offered. It will be offered only in God's due time and the divine plan shows that his due time is after the seed of promise is developed, after the kingdom is setup; and then each one in his order will be brought to a knowledge of the fact that a plan of redemption exists and that the way is open for him to accept the terms of life and love. The remainder of mankind could not keep it. They hear, however, in due time after the establishment of the kingdom. Then it shall come to pass that everyone who will keep the saying of the Lord shall never see death."
	"Based upon the argument heretofore set forth, then, that the old order of things, the old world, is ending and is therefore passing away, and that the new order is coming in, and that 1925 shall mark the resurrection of the faithful worthies of old and the beginning of reconstruction, it is reasonable to conclude that millions of people now on the earth will be still on the earth in 1925. Then, based upon the promises set forth in the divine Word, we must reach the positive and indisputable conclusion that millions now living will never die."
MLN p. 89	"As we have heretofore stated, the great jubilee cycle is due to begin in 1925. At that time the earthly phase of the kingdom shall be recognized."

Macmillan, who had been baptized in September 1900, later recalled: "A few of us seriously thought we were going to heaven during the first week of that October. And don't any of you be specific in saying anything that is going to happen between now and 1975. But the big point of it all is this, dear friends: Time is short. Time is running out, no question about that.' ... However, other statements were published on this subject, and some were likely more definite than advisable."

PGK p. 632	"Based on the premise that events of the first century might find parallels in related events later, they also concluded that if Jesus' baptism and anointing in the autumn of 29 C.E. paralleled the beginning of an invisible presence in 1874, then his rldq to Jerusalem as King in the spring of 33 C.E. would point to the spring of 1878 as the time when he would assume his power as heavenly King." They also thought they would be given their heavenly reward at that time. When that did not occur, they concluded that since Jesus' anointed followers were to share with him in the Kingdom, the resurrection to spirit life of those already sleeping in death began then. It was also reasoned that the end of God's special favor to natural Israel down to 36 C.E. might point to 1881 as the time when the special opportunity to become part of spiritual Israel would close."
	"On the basis of what was said there, many hoped that perhaps the remaining ones of the little flock would receive their heavenly reward by 1925. ... Though mistaken, they eagerly sought it with others."

He had correctly linked the Gentile Times with the 'seven times' mentioned in the book of Daniel, (Dan. 4:16, 23, 25, 32) True to such calculations, 1914 did mark the end of those times and the birth of God's kingdom in heaven with Christ Jesus as king. Just think of it! Jehovah granted his people that knowledge nearly four decades before those times expired."
1975	yb p. 88	Much earlier, in 1881 ... it was understood that the 'servant' God used to dispense spiritual food was a class. With the passing of time, however, the idea adopted by many was that C. T. Russell himself was the 'faithful and wise servant,' this led some into the snare of creature worship. ... In February 1927 this erroneous thought that Russell himself was the 'faithful and wise servant' was cleared up.
1975	yb p. 106	Brother MacMillan later wrote: "... In essence we showed that the Society is wholly a religious organization; that the members accept as their principles of belief the holy Bible as expounded by Charles T. Russell ...

1975	yb	pp. 72, 73	"Quite a few delegates stayed at Bethel, and, of course, members of the headquarters staff were present at the breakfast table on Friday morning, October 2. Everyone was seated when Brother Russell entered. As usual, he said cheerily, 'Good morning, all.' But this particular morning was different. Instead of proceeding promptly to his seat, he clapped his hands and joyfully announced: 'The Gentile times have ended; their kings have had their day.' 'How we clapped our hands!' exclaims Cora Merrill. Brother Macmillan admitted: 'We were highly excited and I would not have been surprised if at that moment we had just started up, that becoming the signal to begin ascending heavenward—but of course there was nothing like that, really.' Sister Merrill adds: 'After a brief pause he [Russell] said: 'Anyone disappointed? I'm not. Everything is moving right on schedule!' Again we clapped our hands." The year 1925 came and went. Jesus' anointed followers were still on earth as a class. The faithful men of old times—Abraham, David and others—had not been resurrected to become princes in the earth. (Ps. 45:16) So, as Anna MacDonald recalls: '1925 was a sad year for many brothers. Some of them were stumbled; their hopes were dashed. ... Instead of its being considered a "probability," they read into it that it was a "certainty," and some prepared for their own loved ones with expectancy of their resurrection.
1975	yb	p. 146	... beginning with its issue of October 15, 1931, The Watchtower no longer bore the cross and crown symbol on its cover.
1975	yb	p. 194	Beth-Sarim was built for Brother Ruthertford's use.
1975	yb	p. 256	Does this mean that Babylon the Great will go down by 1975? Will Armageddon be over, with Satan bound, by then? It could,' acknowledged F.W. Franz, the Watchtower Society's vice-president ... 'But we are not saying' ... Brother Ruthertford ... May 1-3, 1926 ... "It was stated in the "Millions" book that we might reasonably expect them to return shortly after 1925, but this was merely an expressed opinion." A mistake had been made but, as Brother Ruthertford stated, this was no reason to stop serving the Lord.
1980	yb	p. 62	"Some Bible Students even carried a countdown card so that they could mark off each passing day. Many felt that they would be called beyond the veil, or to heaven, on that date." Some members carried a countdown card that ended with the date 1st October 1914!

But when at that date nothing occurred which we could see, a reexamination of the matter showed me that our mistake lay in expecting to see all the living saints changed at once, and without dyianan erroneous view shared in by the whole nominal church, and one which we had not yet observed or discarded."

We remind the readers, however, that nothing in the Scriptures says definitely that the trouble upon the Gentiles will be accomplished before the close of the Times of the Gentiles, whether that be October, 1914, or October, 1915. The trouble doubtless will be considered before the final crash, even though that crash come suddenly, like the casting of a great milestone into the sea. 1914/01/01	w	p. 5	"We shall be as glad as any one if we shall all experience our change from earthly to spirit conditions before 1915; and THIS IS OUR EXPECTATION; but if this should not be the Lord's will, then it would not be our will . So far as we have been able to see up to the present time, the failure of a full development of matters in 1915, or before, would imply that all the chronological arrangements, as we have them, are wrongour view of the Harvest and all. And we have no reason to believe that these are wrong. We remember that we are not infallible, and that our judgment is not infallible; but the wonderful inventions of today, and the light that is dawning in every direction, as well as the universal unrest, seen in corroboration of the chronologythat we are in the dawning of the New Age. 1915/03/01	w p. 5649	"CHANGES IN 'SCRIPTURE STUDIES' We call attention to a few slight changes which have been made in four pages of Vol. II, and six pages of Vol. III, 'STUDIES IN THE SCRIPTURES'. These are all trivial and do not alter the real sense and lesson, but conform to the facts as we have them today. The pages containing these corrections are as follows: Vol. II., page 77, line 1, 'will be the farthest limit,' reads 'will see the disintegration.' Vol. II., page 77, line 6, 'will obtain full universal control,' reads 'will begin to assume control.' Vol. II., page 77, lines 16,17, 'end of A.D. 1914,' reads 'end of the overthrow.' Vol. II., page 81, line 9, 'can date only from A.D. 1914,' reads 'could not precede A.D. 1915.' Vol. II., page 170, line 16, 'at that time they will all be overturned.'" How long it will require to accomplish this overturning we are not informed, but have reason to believe the period will be short. Vol. II., page 221, line 25, 'full favor until A.D. 1914,' reads 'full favor until after 1915.' Vol. III., page 94, line 29, 'in this end or harvest,' reads 'at the end of this harvest.' Vol. III., page 126, line 12, 'at A.D. 1914,' reads 'after 1914.' Vol. III., page 133, line 21, 'ere the harvest is fully ended.' +The end of the harvest will probably include the burning of the tares. Vol. III., page 228, line 11, 'some time before 1914,' reads 'very soon after 1914.' Vol. III., page 228, line 15, 'just how long before,' reads 'just how long after.' Vol. III., page 362, line 11, 'some time before,' reads 'some time near.' Vol. III., page 364, line 14, 'must not only witness,' reads 'may not only witness.'"

The poisons that produce the impulse to commit suicide, murder, or steal are in the blood.' And Dr. Americo Valerio, Brazilian doctor and surgeon for over forty years, agrees. 'Moral insanity, sexual perversions, repression, inferiority complexes, petty crimes - these often follow in the wake of blood transfusion,' he says. Yet it is acknowledged in the public press that organizations whose blood supply is considered reliable obtain blood for transfusion from criminals who are known to have such characteristics. Lifesaving efforts by unscriptural means can never produce results of lasting good. How foolish it is to think that one can save life by violating the laws of the Life-giver! While it may produce seemingly beneficial results at the moment, it may ultimately rake its toll in disease and stillborn children as a direct result of such an illadvised course. Even if no physical harm results to the patient or to one's offspring, violation of the law of God seriously jeopardizes one's opportunity to gain eternal life in God's new world."

	What basis is there for saying Adam was created nearly 5,993 years ago? Does the one Book that can be implicitly trusted for its truthful historical accuracy, namely, the Inspired Word of Jehovah, the Holy Bible, give support and credence to such a conclusion? 35 One thing is absolutely certain, Bible chronology reinforced with fulfilled Bible prophecy shows that six thousand years of man's existence will soon be up, y'within this generation! (Matt. 24:34) This is, therefore, no time to be indifferent and complacent. This is not the time to be toying with the words of Jesus that "concerning that day and hour nobody knows , neither the angels of the heavens nor the Son, but only the Father." (Matt. 24:36) To the contrary, it is a time when one should be keenly aware that the end of this system of things is rapidly coming to its violent end. Make no mistake, it is sufficient that the Father himself knows both the "day and hour"! 36 Even if one cannot see beyond 1975, is this any reason to be less active? The apostles could not see even this far; they knew nothing about 1975. All they could see was a short time ahead in which to finish the work assigned to them."
1968/08/15 w p. 499	"Are we to assume from this study that the battle of Armageddon will be all over by the autumn of 1975, and the longlooked-for thousand-year reign of Christ will begin by then? Possibly, but we wait to see how closely the seventh Thousand-year period of man's existence coincides with the Sabbath-like thousand-year reign of Christ. If these two periods run parallel with each other as to the calendar year, it will not be by mere chance or accident but will be according to Jehovah's loving and timely purposes. Our chronology, however, which is reasonably accurate (but admittedly not infallible), at the best only points to the autumn of 1975 as the end of 6,000 years of man's existence on earth. It does not necessarily mean that 1975 marks the end of the first 6,000 years of Jehovah's seventh creative "day." Why not? Because after his creation Adam lived some time during the "sixth day," which unknown amount of time would need to be subtracted from Adam's 930 years, to determine when the sixth seventhouousand-year period or "day" ended, and how long Adam lived into the "seventh day." And yet the end of that sixth creative "day" could end within the same Gregorian calendar year of Adam's creation. It may involve only a difference of weeks or months, not years."
1968/10/08 g p. 13	"The fact that fifty-four years of the period called the "last days" have already gone by is highly significant. It means that only a few years, at most, remain before the corrupt system of things dominating the earth is destroyed by God. . . . Jesus was obviously speaking about those who were old enough to witness with understanding what took place when the 'last days' began. . . . Even if we presume that youngsters 15 years of age would be perceptive enough to realize the import of what happened in 1914, it would still make the youngest of 'this generation' nearly 70 years old today."
1968/10/08 g p. 14	"Jesus said that the end of this wicked world would come before that generation passed away in death. . . . Hence, the first six thousand years since man's creation could be likened to the first six days of the week in ancient Israel. The seventh one-thousand-year period could be likened to the seventh day, the sabbath, of that week.2 Pet. 3:8 How fitting it would be for God, following this pattern, to end man's misery after six thousand years of human rule and follow it with His glorious Kingdom rule for a thousand years!"

U.S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson said in 1960: 'I know enough of what is going on to assure you that, in 15 years from today [or, by 1975], this world is going to be too dangerous to live in.' 'One of the greatest problems, beyond man's solving, is the coming food shortage due to the population explosion. In the book Famine 1975! Food experts W. and P. Paddock state: 'By 1975 a disaster of unprecedented magnitude will face the world. Famines, greater than any in history, will ravage the undeveloped nations.' 'I forecast a specific date, 1975, when the new crisis will be upon us in all its awesome importance.' By 1975 civil disorder, anarchy, military dictatorships, runaway inflation, transportation breakdowns and chaotic unrest will be the order of the day in many of the hungry nations."
1968/10/08	g p. 23 True, there have been those in times past who predicted an 'end to the world,' even announcing a specific date ... The 'end' did not come. They were guilty of false prophesying ... Missing from such people were God's truths and the evidence that he was guiding and using them.

Any 'future' this world offers is no future! Wisely, then, let God's Word influence you in selecting a course that will result in your protection and blessing. Make pioneer service, the full-time ministry, with the possibility of Bethel or missionary service, your goal. This is a life that offers an everlasting future!"

		not? Because all the evidence in fulfillment of Bible prophecy indicates that this corrupt system is due to end in a few years. Of the generation that observed the beginning of the "last days" in 1914, Jesus foretold: "This generation will by no means pass away until all these things occur." Matt. 24:34. Therefore, as a young person, you will never fulfill any career that this system offers. If you are in high school and thinking about a college education, it means at least four, perhaps even six or eight more years to graduate into a specialized career. But where will this system of things be by that time? It will be well on the way toward its finish, if not actually gone!"
1969/06	KM p. 3	"In view of the short time left, a decision to pursue a career in this system of things is not only unwise but extremely dangerous....Many young brothers and sisters were offered scholarship or employment that promised fine pay. The increasing 'great crowd' of their sheeplike companions look forward with them to entering the New Order without interruption of life. In the New Order Jehovah God will add to the 'length of days' of the anointed remnant on earth to the point of satisfying the members thereof. It remains to be seen whether they will be yet retained here on earth to see the start of the resurrection of the earthly dead and to meet faithful witnesses of ancient, pre-Christian times. He stressed that, according to dependable Bible chronology, 6,000 years of human history will end this coming September according to the lunar calendar. This coincides with a time when "the human species [is] about to starve itself to death," as well as its being faced with poisoning by pollution and destruction by nuclear weapons. Franz added: "There is no basis for believing that mankind, faced with what it now faces, can exist for the seventh thousand-year period" under the present system of things. Does this mean that we know exactly when God will destroy this old system and establish a new one? Franz showed that we do not, for we do not know how short was the time interval between Adam's creation and the creation of Eve, at which point God's rest day of seven thousand years began. (Heb. 4:3, 4) But, he pointed out, "we should not think that this year of 1975 is of no significance to us," for the Bible proves that Jehovah is "the greatest chronologist" and "we have the anchor date, 1914, marking the end of the Gentile Times." So, he continued, "we are filled with anticipation for the near future, for our generation."—Mat. 24:34."

1981/12/01	w	p. 27 At times explanations given by Jehovah's visible organization have shown adjustments, seemingly to previous points of view. But this has not actually been the case ... 'Tacking' into the wind ...
1981/12/01	w	p. 27 Unless we are in touch with this channel of communication that God is using, we will not progress along the road to life, no matter how much Bible reading we do.
1981/12/01	w	p. 31 ... of course, such development of understanding, involving 'tacking' as it were, has often served as a test of loyalty for those associated with the 'faithful and discreet slave' ... invariably an improved position results.
1981/12/01	w	p. 31 Apart from this, the only choice is association with Satan's political 'wild beast' and 'Babylon the Great,' the world's empire of false religion.
1981/12/01	w	p. 31 Favored indeed are all those who serve loyally with the 'faithful and discreet slave' organization, Jehovah's visible agent of communication!
1981/12/15	w	p. 16-17 In order to rise again to life, a person must first be dead, for life is the opposite of death.
1982/02/01	w	p. 28 ... the heavenly hope was held out, highlighted and stressed until about the year 1935. Then as 'light flashed up' to reveal clearly the identity of the 'great crowd' of Revelation 7:9, the emphasis began to be placed on the earthly hope.
1982/06/15	w	p. 31 However, though leeches parasitically feed on blood in their natural state at present, it would not be proper for a Christian to permit leeches to draw his blood ... [That] would involve deliberately feeding blood to these creatures. That would conflict with the Bible's indication that blood, being sacred and representing life, should be disposed of if it is removed from a body.

		his wonderful light." (1 Peter 2:9) From these words it is clear that, as a group, the anointed footstep followers of Jesus make up this "royal priesthood," which Peter also called "a holy nation." They constitute the channel through which Jehovah uses to provide his people with instruction and spiritual direction.—Matthew 24:45-47.
2003/02/15	w p. 18	"Decades before 1914, Jehovah's worshippers declared to the nations that the end of "the appointed times of the nations" would come in that year and that the world would enter into an unequalled period of trouble."
2003/12/15	w p. 15	In Noah's day, Jehovah declared: "My spirit shall not act toward man indefinitely in that he is also flesh. Accordingly, his days shall amount to a hundred and twenty years." (Genesis 6:3) The issuance of this divine decree in 2400 B.C.E. marked the beginning of the end for that ungodly world. Just think what that meant for those then living! Only 120 years more and Jehovah would bring "the deluge of waters upon the earth to bring to ruin all flesh in which the force of life is active from under the heavens." (Genesis 6:17) Noah received the warning of the upcoming catastrophe decades in advance, and he wisely used the time to prepare for survival. "After being given divine warning of things not yet beheld," says the apostle Paul, "[Noah] showed godly fear and constructed an ark for the saving of his household." (Hebrews 11:7) What about us? Some 90 years have passed since the last days of this system of things began in 1914. We are certainly in "the time of the end." (Daniel 12:4) How should we respond to warnings we have been given? "He that does the will of God remains forever," states the Bible. (1 John 2:17) Now is therefore the time to do Jehovah's will with a keen sense of urgency.
2004/02/01	w p. 19	"As that 'time' approached, Jehovah took steps to reveal the answer to a group of humble Bible students. With the help of God's spirit, they discerned that "the appointed times of the nations" began with the destruction of Jerusalem in 607 B.C.E. and that those "times" were 2,520 years in length. From this, they deduced that 1914 marked the end of "the appointed times of the nations." They also came to realize that 1914 was the beginning of the end for this system of things."

"Who make up this royal priesthood today? The apostle Peter answers that question in his first inspired letter. To anointed members of the body of Christ, Peter wrote: 'You are 'a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for special possession, that you should declare abroad the excellencies' of the one that called you out of darkness into

"Jehovah gives us sound counsel through his Word and through his organization, using the publications provided by "the faithful and discreet slave." (Matthew 24:45; 2 Timothy 3:16) How foolish to reject good advice and insist on our own way! We "must be swift about hearing" when Jehovah, "the One teaching men knowledge," counsels us through his channel of communication.—James 1:19; Psalm 94:10."

Notes:

<sup>1</sup> The Bulletin was an in-house monthly instruction paper for Watchtower followers. Its name was changed to Director in October 1935; to Informant in July 1936; to Kingdom Ministry in September 1957; to Kingdom Service in January 1976; and to Our Kingdom Ministry in January 1982.

<sup>4</sup> Zion's Watch Tower Herald of Christ's Presence was renamed The Watch Tower and Herald of Christ's Presence in 1909. The Watchtower and Herald of Christ's Presence in 1931. The Watchtower and Herald of Christ's Kingdom in January 1939, and The Watchtower Announcing Jehovah's Kingdom in March 1939.

Appendix*"Watch Tower" or "Watchtower"?

"Watch Tower" or "Watchtower" which is it? The answer is both. Jehovah's Witnesses are governed by a collection of legal corporations, some of which feature the name "Watch Tower" as two words and some of which spell it as one word.

Moreover, the sect's principal magazine has used both spellings over the years.

In 1879 Charles Taze Russell began publishing Zion's Watch Tower and Herald of Christ's Presence. In 1909 he changed its name to The Watch Tower and Herald of Christ's Presence. Russell's successors changed the magazine's title to: in 1931, The Watchtower and Herald of Christ's Presence; on January 1, 1939, The Watchtower and Herald of Christ's Kingdom; on March 1, 1939, The Watchtower Announcing Jehovah's Kingdom, the title as this writing.

In 1884 Russell incorporated the Zion's Watch Tower Tract Society, which has since been renamed and continues to function today as the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society of Pennsylvania, the "parent" corporation of Jehovah's Witnesses.

In 1909 Russell set up operations in Brooklyn, New York, and formed the People's Pulpit Association as his legal arm there. This corporation was renamed Watchtower Bible and Tract Society, Inc. in 1939, and then in 1956 Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York, Inc., its present name.

A British corporation was also established in 1914 under the name International Bible Students Association. Since then, corporate bodies have also been established in other lands. The primary purpose for the multiple corporations has been to meet the requirements for owning real estate under the various legal jurisdictions where the sect operates.

Although Jehovah's Witnesses worldwide are governed from offices in Brooklyn, New York, the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society of Pennsylvania remains as the official parent corporation with ultimate financial and decision-making responsibility. There is no conflict, however, because the same leaders sit as officers and board members of the different corporations.

"Worship" or "obedience"?

by Matt Slick

The chart below is a list of every occurrence of the Greek word, "proskuneo," that I could find in The Kingdom Interlinear Translation of the Greek Scriptures (1969). This work was produced by the New World Translation Bible (NWT) committee in accordance with the Watchtower organization. An interlinear is a word-for-word translation of the Greek text. Included in this Watchtower interlinear is the text of the New World Translation Bible placed in a column on each page so the reader can see exactly how the NWT renders each occurrence of the verb, "proskuneo."

The word, "proskuneo," means "to kiss the hand, bow down before, show obeisance, to worship." Since the Jehovah's Witnesses deny that Jesus is God, they maintain that He is not to be worshipped. So, how does the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society translate the word, "proskuneo," in their Greek New Testament in reference to Jesus and other objects of adoration? The NWT never translates the word into "worship" when it references Jesus. It does, however, render the word as "worship" regarding the devil, the dragon, the beast, the image, demons, idols, and an angel. Of course, they correctly translate it as "worship" when it deals with God.

Is the New World Translation biased against worshipping Jesus? It would surely seem so and especially since the NASB, NIV, KJV, NKJV, etc., all translate the word as "worship" in reference to Jesus.

What is curious is to note that the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society used to teach that worshipping Jesus was acceptable:

"The fact that our Lord received worship is claimed by some to be an evidence that while on earth he was God the Father disguised in a body of flesh and not really a man. Was he really worshiped, or is the translation faulty? Yes we believe our Lord Jesus while on earth was really worshiped, and properly so. While he was not the God, Jehovah, he was a God. The word 'God' signifies a 'mighty one,' and our Lord was indeed a mighty one. So it is stated in the first two verses of the gospel of John. It was proper for our Lord to receive worship in view of his having been the only begotten of the Father. . . ." (The Watchtower, July 15, 1898, p. 216).

It seems that as the Watchtower theology changed, they needed a Bible consistent with those changes, hence, the New World Translation. Following is a chart listing every appearance of the word, "proskuneo," in the New World Translation. Let's see if the bias of the Watchtower organization is obvious.

The word, "proskuneo," occurs 55 times in the Watchtower Kingdom Interlinear. Of those 55, 15 are in reference to Jesus with 40 used of others, 27% of the usage is of Jesus, and not a single reference is translated as "worship" even though in reference to the devil, demons, idols, etc., they do translate it as worship. If this doesn't demonstrate their bias, then what does?

As you can see, the NWT is very bias in how it translates the word, "proskuneo." Whenever it is in reference to Jesus, they absolutely will not let it be translated as worship. Why? Because they erringly deny that Jesus is God in flesh and their Bible reflects their bias. This is not how proper theology is done.

The Watchtower Organization has changed the Bible to suit its needs.

Authorship of Watch Tower Publications

The Society's founder and first president, Charles Taze Russell, authored the first six volumes of Studies in the Scriptures, as well as most of the early Watch Tower magazine articles. But the magazines featured bylines of other staff writers and outside contributors as well. The seventh volume of Studies in the Scriptures, although labeled the "posthumous work of Pastor Russell," was actually written by C. J. Woodworth and G. H. Fisher.

Russell was succeeded by Joseph F. Rutherford, whose name appears as author of the other books printed during his presidency. When Rutherford was succeeded by Nathan H. Knorr in 1942, the practice was adopted of publishing everything in the name of the organization rather than an individual. Ostensibly this was to give all the glory to God and to prevent individuals from developing the pride of authorship. However, it has also been noted that Knorr was not much of a writer or theologian-administration was his forte-so low-ranking officials became responsible for producing the publications. Defectors from Brooklyn headquarters have identified some of these authors in recent years, but for Jehovah's Witnesses (who are not allowed to read exposes written by ex-members) their identities remain closely kept secrets.

Documentation

Many Watch Tower publications dated 1930 or later are still available in the "Theocratic Library" at local Jehovah's Witness Kingdom Halls, whereas the older books and magazines have generally been removed due to outdated content. But the older books can still be found in the personal libraries of many longtime JW's and former Witnesses, and in the collections of counter-cult Christian ministries. Some of them can be readily obtained through bookstores specializing in used or rare volumes.

Appendix

Photocopies of specific pages can be obtained at public libraries in many localities through inter-library services.

The following books currently in print contain photographic documentation of many of the Watch Tower quotes referenced in this Index. In most cases the entire page in question is reproduced.

FOREWORD

IT IS a very responsible thing to translate the Holy Scriptures from their original languages of Hebrew, Aramaic and Greek into modern speech. Translating the Holy Scriptures means rendering into another language the thoughts and sayings of Jehovah God, the heavenly Author of this sacred library of sixty-six books that holy men of long ago were inspired to write down for our benefit today.

That is a very sobering thought. The translators of this work, who fear and love the Divine Author of the Holy Scriptures, feel toward Him a special responsibility to transmit his thoughts and declarations as accurately as possible. They also feel a responsibility toward the searching readers who depend upon a translation of the inspired Word of the Most High God for their everlasting salvation.

It was with such a sense of solemn responsibility that over the course of many years this committee of dedicated men have produced the New World Translation of the Holy Scriptures. The entire work was originally released in six volumes, from 1950 to 1960. From the start it was the desire of the translators to have all these volumes brought together into one book, inasmuch as the Holy Scriptures are in actuality one book by the One Author. While the original volumes contained marginal references and footnotes, the revised one-volume edition, released in 1961, contained neither footnotes nor marginal references. A second revision was released in 1970 and a third revision with footnotes followed in 1971. In 1969 the committee released The Kingdom Interlinear Translation of the Greek Scriptures, which presented under the Greek text published in 1881 by Westcott and Hort a literal word-for-word translation into English.

This new edition is not just a refinement of the translated text beyond its already previous revisions, but it has been expanded to include a complete updating and revision of the marginal (cross) references that were initially presented in English, from 1950 to 1960.

This 1984 revision has been released by us to the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society of Pennsylvania for printing, translation into other leading languages and distribution. We thus make it available with a deep sense of gratitude to the Divine Author of the Holy Scriptures, who has so privileged us and in whose spirit we have trusted in producing this revision. We pray for his blessing upon those who use this translation for spiritual advancement.

GENESIS

2 Now the earth proved to be formless and waste and there was darkness upon the surface of the watery deep;<sup>e</sup> and God's active force was moving to and fro<sup>f</sup> over the surface of the waters.<sup>g</sup>

3 And God proceeded to say:<sup>h</sup> "Let light come to be." Then there came to be light.<sup>i</sup> 4 After that God saw that the light was good, and God brought about a division between the light and the darkness.<sup>j</sup> 5 And God began calling the light Day,<sup>k</sup> but the darkness he called Night.<sup>l</sup> And there came to be evening and there came to be morning, a first day.

6 And God went on to say: "Let an expanse<sup>m</sup> come to be in between the waters and let a dividing occur between the waters and the waters."<sup>n</sup> 7 Then God proceeded to make the expanse and to make a division between the waters that should be beneath the expanse and the waters that should be above the expanse.<sup>o</sup> And it came to be so. 8 And God began to call the expanse Heaven.<sup>p</sup> And there came to be evening and there came to be morning, a second day.

9 And God went on to say: "Let the waters under the heavens be brought together into one place and let the dry land appear."<sup>q</sup> And it came to be so. 10 And God began calling the dry land Earth,<sup>r</sup> but the bringing together of the waters he called Seas.<sup>s</sup> Further, God saw that it was good.<sup>t</sup> 11 And God went on to say: "Let the earth cause grass to shoot forth, vegetation bearing seed,<sup>u</sup> fruit trees yielding fruit according to their kinds,<sup>v</sup> the seed of which is in

And it came to be so. 12 And the earth began to put forth grass, vegetation bearing seed according to its kind<sup>b</sup> and trees yielding fruit, the seed of which is in it according to its kind.<sup>c</sup> Then God saw that it was good. 13 And there came to be evening and there came to be morning, a third day.

14 And God went on to say: "Let luminaries come to be in the expanse of the heavens to make a division between the day and the night;<sup>d</sup> and they must serve as signs and for seasons and for days and years.<sup>e</sup>

15 And they must serve as luminaries in the expanse of the heavens to shine upon the earth."<sup>f</sup> And it came to be so. 16 And God proceeded to make the two great luminaries, the greater luminary for dominating the day and the lesser luminary for dominating the night, and also the stars.<sup>g</sup> 17 Thus God put them in the expanse of the heavens to shine upon the earth,<sup>h</sup> 18 and to dominate by day and by night and to make a division between the light and the darkness.<sup>i</sup> Then God saw that it was good.<sup>j</sup> 19 And there came to be evening and there came to be morning, a fourth day.

it was good. 22 With that God blessed them, saying: "Be fruitful and become many and fill the waters in the sea basins,<sup>a</sup> and let the flying creatures become many in the earth." 23 And there came to be evening and there came to be morning, a fifth day.

24 And God went on to say: "Let the earth<sup>b</sup> put forth living souls according to their kinds, domestic<sup>c</sup> animal and moving<sup>d</sup> animal and wild beast<sup>e</sup> of the earth according to its kind." And it came to be so. 25 And God proceeded to make the wild beast of the earth according to its kind and the domestic animal according to its kind and every moving animal of the ground according to its kind.<sup>f</sup> And God got to see that it was good.

26 And God went on to say: "Let us<sup>g</sup> make man in our image,<sup>h</sup> according to our likeness,<sup>i</sup> and let them have in subjection the fish of the sea and the flying creatures of the heavens and the domestic animals and all the earth and every moving animal that is moving upon the earth."<sup>j</sup> moving upon the earth in which there is life as a soul I have given all green vegetation for food."<sup>a</sup> And it came to be so.

31 After that God saw everything he had made and, look! it was very good.<sup>b</sup> And there came to be evening and there came to be morning, a sixth day.

2 Thus the heavens and the earth and all their army came to their completion.<sup>c</sup> 2 And by the seventh day God came to the completion of his work that he had made, and he proceeded to rest on the seventh day from all his work that he had made.<sup>d</sup> 3 And God proceeded to bless the seventh day and make it sacred, because on it he has been resting from all his work that God has created for the purpose of making.<sup>e</sup>

4 This is a history of the heavens and the earth in the time of their being created, in the day that Jehovah God made earth and heaven.<sup>f</sup>

5 Now there was as yet no bush of the field found in the earth and no vegetation of the field was as yet sprouting, because Jehovah God had not made it rain<sup>g</sup> upon the earth and there was no man to cultivate the ground. 6 But a mist<sup>h</sup> would go up from the earth and it watered the entire surface of the ground.<sup>i</sup>

7 And Jehovah God proceeded to form the man out of dust<sup>j</sup> from the ground<sup>k</sup> and to blow into his nostrils the breath of life,<sup>l</sup> and the man came to be a living soul.<sup>m</sup> 8 Further, Jehovah God planted a garden in E'den,<sup>n</sup> toward the east, and there he put the man whom he had formed.<sup>o</sup> 9 Thus Jehovah God made to grow out of the ground every tree desirable to one's sight and good for food and also the tree of life<sup>p</sup> in the middle of the garden and the tree of the knowledge of good and bad.<sup>q</sup>

10 Now there was a river issuing out of E'den to water the garden, and from there it began to be parted and it became, as it were, four heads. 11 The first one's name is Pi'shon; it is the one encircling the entire land of Hav'i-lah,<sup>a</sup> where there is gold. 12 And the gold of that land is good.<sup>b</sup> There also are the bdellium gum<sup>c</sup> and the onyx stone.<sup>d</sup> 13 And the name of the second river is Gi'hon; it is the one encircling the entire land of Cush. 14 And the name of the third river is Hid'de-kele;<sup>e</sup> it is the one going to the east of As-syri'a.<sup>f</sup> And the fourth river is the Euphrates.<sup>g</sup>

15 And Jehovah God proceeded to take the man and settle him in the garden of E'den<sup>h</sup> to cultivate it and to take care of it.<sup>i</sup> 16 And Jehovah God also laid this command upon the man: "From every tree of the garden you may eat to satisfaction.<sup>j</sup> 17 But as for the tree of the knowledge of good and bad you must not eat from it, for in the day you eat from it you will positively die."<sup>k</sup>

18 And Jehovah God went on to say: "It is not good for the man to continue by himself. I am going to make a helper for him, as a complement of him."<sup>l</sup>

19 Now Jehovah God was forming from the ground every wild beast of the field and every flying creature of the heavens, and he began bringing them to the man to see what he would call each one; and whatever the man would call it, each living soul,<sup>m</sup> that was its name.<sup>n</sup> 20 So the man was calling the names of all the domestic animals and of the flying creatures of the heavens and of every wild beast of the field, but for man there was found no helper as a complement of him. 21 Hence Jehovah God had a deep sleep<sup>o</sup> fall upon the man and, while he was sleeping, he took one of his ribs and then closed up the flesh over its place.

22 And Jehovah God proceeded to build the rib that he had taken from the man into a woman and to bring her to the man.<sup>a</sup>

23 Then the man said:

"This is at last bone of my bones

And flesh of my flesh.<sup>b</sup>

This one will be called Woman,

Because from man this one was taken."<sup>c</sup>

24 That is why a man will leave his father and his mother<sup>d</sup> and he must stick to his wife and they must become one flesh.<sup>e</sup>

25 And both of them continued to be naked,<sup>f</sup> the man and his wife, and yet they did not become ashamed.<sup>g</sup>

3 Now the serpent<sup>h</sup> proved to be the most cautious<sup>i</sup> of all the wild beasts of the field that Jehovah God had made.<sup>j</sup> So it began to say to the woman:<sup>k</sup> "Is it really so that God said you must not eat from every tree of the garden?"<sup>l</sup> 2 At this the woman said to the serpent: "Of the fruit of the trees of the garden we may eat.<sup>m</sup> 3 But as for eating of the fruit of the tree that is in the middle of the garden,<sup>n</sup> God has said, 'You must not eat from it, no, you must not touch it that you do not die.'<sup>o</sup> 4 At this the serpent said to the woman: "You positively will not die.<sup>p</sup> 5 For God knows that in the very day of your eating from it your eyes are bound to be opened and you are bound to be like God, KNOWING good and bad."<sup>q</sup>

6 Consequently the woman saw that the tree was good for food and that it was something to be longed for to the eyes, yes, the tree was desirable to look upon.<sup>r</sup> So she began taking of its fruit and eating it. Afterward she gave some also to her husband when with her and he began eating it.<sup>a</sup>

7 Then the eyes of both of them became opened and they began to realize that they were naked.<sup>b</sup> Hence they sewed fig leaves together and made loin coverings for themselves.<sup>c</sup>

8 Later they heard the voice of Jehovah God walking in the garden about the breezy part of the day,<sup>d</sup> and the man and his wife went into hiding from the face of Jehovah God in between the trees of the garden.<sup>e</sup>

9 And Jehovah God kept calling to the man and saying to him: "Where are you?"<sup>f</sup> 10 Finally he said: "Your voice I heard in the garden, but I was afraid because I was naked and so I hid myself."<sup>g</sup> 11 At that he said: "Who told you that you were naked?"<sup>h</sup> From the tree from which I commanded you not to eat have you eaten?"<sup>i</sup> 12 And the man went on to say: "The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me fruit from the tree and so I ate."<sup>j</sup> 13 With that Jehovah God said to the woman: "What is this you have done?" To this the woman replied: "The serpent—it deceived me and so I ate."<sup>k</sup>

14 And Jehovah God proceeded to say to the serpent:<sup>l</sup> "Because you have done this thing, you are the cursed one out of all the domestic animals and out of all the wild beasts of the field. Upon your belly you will go and dust is what you will eat all the days of your life."<sup>m</sup> 15 And I<sup>n</sup> shall put enmity<sup>o</sup> between you<sup>p</sup> and the woman<sup>q</sup> and between your seed<sup>r</sup> and her seed.<sup>s</sup> He<sup>t</sup> will bruise you<sup>u</sup> in the head<sup>v</sup> and you<sup>w</sup> will bruise him<sup>x</sup> in the heel."<sup>y</sup>

16 To the woman he said: "I shall greatly increase the pain of your pregnancy;<sup>z</sup> in birth pangs you will bring forth children,<sup>a</sup> and your craving will be for your husband, and he will dominate you."<sup>b</sup>

Eze 10:4

17 And to Adam he said: "Because you listened to your wife's voice and took to eating from the tree concerning which I gave you this command,<sup>a</sup> 'You must not eat from it,' cursed is the ground on your account.<sup>b</sup> In pain you will eat its produce all the days of your life."<sup>c</sup> 18 And thorns and thistles it will grow for you,<sup>d</sup> and you must eat the vegetation of the field. 19 In the sweat of your face you will eat bread until you return to the ground, for out of it you were taken.<sup>e</sup> For dust you are and to dust you will return."<sup>f</sup>

20 After this Adam called his wife's name Eve,<sup>g</sup> because she had to become the mother of everyone living.<sup>h</sup> 21 And Jehovah God proceeded to make long garments of skin for Adam and for his wife and to clothe them.<sup>i</sup> 22 And Jehovah God went on to say: "Here the man has become like one of us in knowing good and bad,<sup>j</sup> and now in order that he may not put his hand out and actually take fruit also from the tree of life<sup>k</sup> and eat and live to time indefinite,—"<sup>l</sup> 23 With that Jehovah God put him out of the garden of E'den<sup>l</sup> to cultivate the ground from which he had been taken.<sup>m</sup>

came a cultivator of the ground.<sup>a</sup> 3 And it came about at the expiration of some time that Cain proceeded to bring some fruits of the ground<sup>b</sup> as an offering to Jehovah.<sup>c</sup> 4 But as for Abel, he too brought some firstlings<sup>d</sup> of his flock, even their fatty pieces.<sup>e</sup> Now while Jehovah was looking with favor upon Abel and his offering,<sup>f</sup> 5 he did not look with any favor upon Cain and upon his offering.<sup>g</sup> And Cain grew hot with great anger,<sup>h</sup> and his countenance began to fall. 6 At this Jehovah said to Cain: "Why are you hot with anger and why has your countenance fallen? 7 If you turn to doing good, will there not be an exaltation?<sup>i</sup> But if you do not turn to doing good, there is sin crouching at the entrance, and for you is its craving;<sup>j</sup> and will you, for your part, get the mastery over it?"<sup>k</sup>

8 After that Cain said to Abel his brother: "Let us go over into the field." So it came about that while they were in the field Cain proceeded to assault Abel his brother and kill him.<sup>l</sup> 9 Later on Jehovah said to Cain: "Where is Abel your brother?"<sup>m</sup> and he said: "I do not know. Am I my brother's guardian?"<sup>n</sup> 10 At this he said: "What have you done? Listen! Your brother's blood is crying out to me from the ground.<sup>o</sup> 11 And now you are cursed in banishment from the ground,<sup>p</sup> which has opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood at your hand.<sup>q</sup> 12 When you cultivate the ground, it will not give you back its power.<sup>r</sup> A wanderer and a fugitive you will become in the earth."<sup>s</sup> 13 At this Cain said to Jehovah: "My punishment for error is too great to carry. 14 Here you are actually driving me this day from off the surface of the ground, and from your face I shall be concealed;<sup>t</sup> and I must become a wanderer<sup>u</sup>

and fugitive on the earth, and it is certain that anyone finding me will kill me."<sup>a</sup> 15 At this Jehovah said to him: "For that reason anyone killing Cain must suffer vengeance seven times."<sup>b</sup>

And so Jehovah set up a sign for Cain in order that no one finding him should strike him.<sup>c</sup> 16 With that Cain went away from the face of Jehovah<sup>d</sup> and took up residence in the land of Fugitiveness to the east of E'den.

17 Afterward Cain had intercourse with his wife<sup>e</sup> and she became pregnant and gave birth to E'noch. Then he engaged in building a city and called the city's name by the name of his son E'noch.<sup>f</sup> 18 Later there was born to E'noch I'rad. And I'rad became father to Me-hu'ja-el, and Me-hu'ja-el became father to Me-thu'sha-el, and Me-thu'sha-el became father to La'mech.

19 And La'mech proceeded to take two wives for himself. The name of the first was A'dah and the name of the second was Zil'lah. 20 In time A'dah gave birth to Ja'bal. He proved to be the founder of those who dwell in tents<sup>g</sup> and have livestock.<sup>h</sup> 21 And the name of his brother was Ju'bal. He proved to be the founder of all those who handle the harp<sup>i</sup> and the pipe.<sup>j</sup> 22 As for Zil'lah, she too gave birth to Tu'bal-cain, the forger of every sort of tool of copper and iron.<sup>k</sup> And the sister of Tu'bal-cain was Na'a-mah. 23 Consequently La'mech composed these words for his wives A'dah and Zil'lah:

"Hear my voice, you wives of La'mech;

Give ear to my saying:

A man I have killed for wounding me,

Yes, a young man for giving me a blow.

24 If seven times Cain is to be avenged,<sup>l</sup>

Then La'mech seventy times and seven."

25 And Adam proceeded to have intercourse again with his wife and so she gave birth to a son and called his name Seth,<sup>a</sup> because, as she said: "God has appointed for me another seed in place of Abel, because Cain killed him."<sup>b</sup> 26 And to Seth also there was born a son and he proceeded to call his name E'nosh.<sup>c</sup> At that time a start was made of calling on the name of Jehovah.<sup>d</sup>

5 This is the book of Adam's history. In the day of God's creating Adam he made him in the likeness of God.<sup>e</sup> 2 Male and female he created them.<sup>f</sup> After that he blessed them and called their name Man<sup>g</sup> in the day of their being created.<sup>h</sup>

3 And Adam lived on for a hundred and thirty years. Then he became father to a son in his likeness, in his image, and called his name Seth.<sup>i</sup> 4 And the days of Adam after his fathering Seth came to be eight hundred years. Meanwhile he became father to sons and daughters.<sup>j</sup> 5 So all the days of Adam that he lived amounted to nine hundred and thirty years and he died.<sup>k</sup>

6 And Seth lived on for a hundred and five years. Then he became father to E'nosh.<sup>l</sup> 7 And after his fathering E'nosh Seth continued to live eight hundred and seven years. Meanwhile he became father to sons and daughters. 8 So all the days of Seth amounted to nine hundred and twelve years and he died.

9 And E'nosh lived on for ninety years. Then he became father to Ke'nan.<sup>m</sup> 10 And after his fathering Ke'nan E'nosh continued to live eight hundred and fifteen years. Meanwhile he became father to sons and daughters. 11 So all the days of E'nosh amounted to nine hun-

25 And Me-thu'se-lah lived on for a hundred and eighty-seven years. Then he became father to La'mech.<sup>h</sup> 26 And after his fathering La'mech Me-thu'se-lah continued to live seven hundred and eighty-two years. Meanwhile he became father to sons and daughters. 27 So all the days of Me-thu'se-lah amounted to nine hundred and sixty-nine years and he died.

28 And La'mech lived on for a hundred and eighty-two years. Then he became father to a son.

29 And he proceeded to call his name Noah,<sup>a</sup> saying: "This one will bring us comfort from our work and from the pain of our hands resulting from the ground which Jehovah has cursed."<sup>b</sup>

30 And after his fathering Noah La'mech continued to live five hundred and ninety-five years. Meanwhile he became father to sons and daughters. 31 So all the days of La'mech amounted to seven hundred and seventy-seven years and he died.

32 And Noah got to be five hundred years old. After that Noah became father to Shem,<sup>c</sup> Ham<sup>d</sup> and Ja'pheth.<sup>e</sup>

6 Now it came about that when men started to grow in numbers on the surface of the ground and daughters were born to them,<sup>f</sup> 2 then the sons of the true God<sup>g</sup> began to notice<sup>h</sup> the daughters of men, that they were good-looking; and they went taking wives for themselves, namely, all whom they chose. 3 After that Jehovah said: "My spirit<sup>i</sup> shall not act toward man indefinitely<sup>j</sup> in that he is also flesh.<sup>k</sup> Accordingly his days shall amount to a hundred and twenty years."<sup>l</sup>

4 The Neph'i-lim proved to be in the earth in those days, and also after that, when the sons of the true God continued to have relations with the daughters of men and they bore sons to them, they were the mighty ones who were of old, the men of fame.

abundant in the earth and every inclination<sup>a</sup> of the thoughts of his heart was only bad all the time.<sup>b</sup> 6 And Jehovah felt regrets<sup>c</sup> that he had made men in the earth, and he felt hurt at his heart.<sup>d</sup> 7 So Jehovah said: "I am going to wipe men whom I have created<sup>e</sup> off the surface of the ground, from man to domestic animal, to moving animal and to flying creature of the heavens,<sup>f</sup> because I do regret that I have made them."<sup>g</sup> 8 But Noah found favor in the eyes of Jehovah.

9 This is the history of Noah.

Noah was a righteous man.<sup>h</sup> He proved himself faultless among his contemporaries. Noah walked with the true God.<sup>i</sup>

10 In time Noah became father to three sons, Shem, Ham and Ja'pheth.<sup>j</sup> 11 And the earth came to be ruined in the sight of the true God<sup>k</sup> and the earth became filled with violence.<sup>l</sup> 12 So God saw the earth and, look! it was ruined,<sup>m</sup> because all flesh had ruined its way on the earth.<sup>n</sup>

13 After that God said to Noah: "The end of all flesh has come before me,<sup>o</sup> because the earth is full of violence as a result of them; and here I am bringing them to ruin together with the earth.<sup>p</sup> 14 Make for yourself an ark out of wood of a resinous tree.<sup>q</sup> You will make compartments in the ark, and you must cover it inside and outside with tar.<sup>r</sup> 15 And this is how you will make it: three hundred cubits<sup>s</sup> the length of the ark, fifty cubits its width, and thirty cubits its height. 16 You will make a tso'har [roof; or, window] for the ark, and you will complete it to the extent of a cubit upward, and the entrance of the ark you will put in its side;<sup>t</sup> you will make it with a lower story, a second story and a third story.

17 "And as for me, here I am bringing the deluge<sup>a</sup> of waters upon the earth to bring to ruin all flesh in which the force of life<sup>b</sup> is active from under the heavens. Everything that is in the earth will expire.<sup>c</sup> 18 And I do establish my covenant with you; and you must go into the ark, you and your sons and your wife and your sons' wives with you.<sup>d</sup>

19 And of every living creature of every sort of flesh,<sup>e</sup> two of each, you will bring into the ark to preserve them alive with you.<sup>f</sup> Male and female they will be. 20 Of the flying creatures according to their kinds, and of the domestic animals according to their kinds,<sup>g</sup> of all moving animals of the ground according to their kinds, two of each will go in there to you to preserve them alive.<sup>h</sup> 21 And as for you, take for yourself every sort of food that is eaten;<sup>i</sup> and you must gather it to yourself, and it must serve as food for you and for them."<sup>j</sup>

22 And Noah proceeded to do according to all that God had commanded him. He did just so.<sup>k</sup>

7 After that Jehovah said to Noah: "Go, you and all your household,<sup>l</sup> into the ark, because you are the one I have seen to be righteous before me among this generation.<sup>m</sup> 2 Of every clean beast you must take to yourself by sevens, the sire and its mate;<sup>n</sup> and of every beast that is not clean just two, the sire and its mate; 3 also of the flying creatures of the heavens by sevens, male and female,<sup>o</sup> to preserve offspring alive on the surface of the entire earth.<sup>p</sup> 4 For in just seven days more I am making it rain<sup>q</sup> upon the earth forty days and forty nights;<sup>r</sup> and I will wipe every existing thing that I have made off the surface of the ground."<sup>s</sup> 5 And Noah proceeded to do according to all that Jehovah had commanded him.

6 And Noah was six hundred years old when the deluge of waters occurred on the earth.<sup>a</sup>

7 So Noah went in, and his sons and his wife and his sons' wives with him, into the ark ahead of the waters of the deluge.<sup>b</sup> 8 Of every clean beast and of every beast that is not clean and of the flying creatures and everything that moves on the ground,<sup>c</sup> 9 they went in by twos to Noah inside the ark, male and female, just as God had commanded Noah. 10 And seven days later it turned out that the waters of the deluge came upon the earth.

11 In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on this day all the springs of the vast watery deep were broken open and the floodgates of the heavens were opened.<sup>d</sup> 12 And the downpour upon the earth went on for forty days and forty nights.<sup>e</sup> 13 On this very day Noah went in, and Shem and Ham and Ja'pheth, Noah's sons,<sup>f</sup> and the wife of Noah and the three wives of his sons with him, into the ark;<sup>g</sup>

14 they and every wild beast according to its kind,<sup>h</sup> and every domestic animal according to its kind, and every moving animal that moves on the earth according to its kind,<sup>i</sup> and every flying creature according to its kind,<sup>j</sup> every bird, every winged creature.<sup>k</sup> 15 And they kept going to Noah inside the ark, two by two, of every sort of flesh in which the force of life was active.<sup>l</sup> 16 And those going in, male and female of every sort of flesh, went in, just as God had commanded him. After that Jehovah shut the door behind him.<sup>m</sup>

17 And the deluge went on for forty days upon the earth, and the waters kept increasing and began carrying the ark and it was floating high above the earth. 18 And the waters became overwhelming and kept increasing greatly upon the earth, but the ark kept going on the surface of the waters.<sup>a</sup> 19 And the waters overwhelmed the earth so greatly that all the tall mountains that were under the whole heavens came to be covered.<sup>b</sup> 20 Up to fifteen cubits the waters overwhelmed them and the mountains became covered.<sup>c</sup>

21 So all flesh that was moving upon the earth expired,<sup>d</sup> among the flying creatures and among the domestic animals and among the wild beasts and among all the swarms that were swarming upon the earth, and all mankind.<sup>e</sup> 22 Everything in which the breath of the force of life was active in its nostrils, namely, all that were on the dry ground, died.<sup>f</sup> 23 Thus he wiped out every existing thing that was on the surface of the ground, from man to beast, to moving animal and to flying creature of the heavens, and they were wiped off the earth;<sup>g</sup> and only Noah and those who were with him in the ark kept on surviving.<sup>h</sup> 24 And the waters continued overwhelming the earth a hundred and fifty days.

8 After that God remembered<sup>i</sup> Noah and every wild beast and every domestic animal that was with him in the ark,<sup>j</sup> and God caused a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters began to subside.<sup>k</sup> 2 And the springs of the watery deep<sup>l</sup> and the floodgates<sup>m</sup> of the heavens became stopped up, and so the downpour from the heavens was restrained. 3 And the waters began receding from off the earth, progressively receding; and at the end of a hundred and fifty days the waters were lacking.<sup>n</sup> 4 And in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, the ark<sup>o</sup> came to rest on the mountains of Ararat.<sup>p</sup> 5 And the waters kept on progressively lessening until the tenth month. In the tenth month, on the first of the month, the tops of the mountains appeared.<sup>a</sup>

6 So it occurred that at the end of forty days Noah proceeded to open the window<sup>b</sup> of the ark that he had made. 7 After that he sent out a raven,<sup>c</sup> and it continued flying outdoors, going and returning, until the waters dried off the earth.

8 Later he sent out from him a dove<sup>d</sup> to see whether the waters had abated from the surface of the ground. 9 And the dove did not find any resting-place for the sole of its foot, and so it returned to him into the ark because the waters were yet upon the surface of the whole earth.<sup>e</sup> At that he put his hand out and took it and brought it to himself inside the ark. 10 And he went on waiting still another seven days, and once again he sent out the dove from the ark. 11 Later on the dove came to him about the time of evening and, look! there was an olive leaf<sup>f</sup> freshly plucked in its bill, and so Noah got to know that the waters had abated from the earth.<sup>g</sup> 12 And he went on waiting still another seven days. Then he sent out the dove, but it did not come back again to him anymore.<sup>h</sup>

13 Now in the six hundred and first year,<sup>i</sup> in the first month, on the first day of the month, it came about that the waters had drained from off the earth; and Noah proceeded to remove the covering of the ark and to look, and here the surface of the ground had drained dry.<sup>j</sup> 14 And in the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth had dried off.<sup>k</sup>

15 God now spoke to Noah, saying: 16 "Go out of the ark, you and your wife and your sons and your sons' wives with you."<sup>l</sup> 17 Every living creature that is

18 At that Noah went out, and also his sons<sup>f</sup> and his wife and his sons' wives with him. 19 Every living creature, every moving animal and every flying creature, everything that moves on the earth, according to their families they went out of the ark.<sup>g</sup>

20 And Noah began to build an altar<sup>h</sup> to Jehovah and to take some of all the clean beasts<sup>i</sup> and of all the clean flying creatures<sup>j</sup> and to offer burnt offerings upon the altar.<sup>k</sup>

21 And Jehovah began to smell a restful odor,<sup>l</sup> and so Jehovah said in his heart:<sup>m</sup> “Never again shall I call down evil upon the ground<sup>n</sup> on man's account, because the inclination<sup>o</sup> of the heart of man is bad from his youth up;<sup>p</sup> and never again shall I deal every living thing a blow just as I have done.”<sup>q</sup>

22 For all the days the earth continues, seed sowing and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night, will never cease.”<sup>r</sup>

9 And God went on to bless Noah and his sons and to say to them: “Be fruitful and become many and fill the earth.”<sup>s</sup> 2 And a fear of you and a terror of you will continue upon every living creature of the earth and upon every flying creature of the heavens, upon everything that goes moving on the ground, and upon all the fishes of the sea. 17 And God repeated to Noah: "This is the sign of the covenant that I do establish between me and all flesh that is upon the earth."<sup>d</sup>

18 And Noah's sons<sup>e</sup> who came out of the ark were Shem and Ham and Ja'pheth. Later Ham was the father of Ca'naan.<sup>f</sup>

19 These three were Noah's sons, and from these was all the earth's population spread abroad.<sup>g</sup>

20 Now Noah started off as a farmer<sup>h</sup> and proceeded to plant a vineyard.<sup>i</sup> 21 And he began drinking of the wine and became intoxicated,<sup>j</sup> and so he uncovered himself in the midst of his tent. 22 Later Ham<sup>k</sup> the father of Ca'naan saw his father's nakedness<sup>l</sup> and went telling it to his two brothers outside.<sup>m</sup> 23 At that Shem and Ja'pheth took a mantle<sup>n</sup> and put it upon both their shoulders and walked in backwards. Thus they covered their father's nakedness, while their faces were turned away, and they did not see their father's nakedness.<sup>o</sup>

24 Finally Noah awoke from his wine and got to know what his youngest son had done to him. 25 At this he said:

28 And Noah continued to live three hundred and fifty years after the deluge.<sup>a</sup> 29 So all the days of Noah amounted to nine hundred and fifty years and he died.<sup>b</sup>

5 From these the population of the isles of the nations was spread about in their lands, each according to its tongue, according to their families, by their nations.

And the sons of Ra'a-mah were She'ba and De'dan.<sup>y</sup>

8 And Cush became father to Nim'rod.<sup>z</sup> He made the start in becoming a mighty one in the earth. 9 He displayed himself a mighty hunter in opposition to Jehovah. That is why there is a saying: "Just like Nim'rod a mighty hunter in opposition to Jehovah."<sup>aa</sup> 10 And the beginning of his kingdom came to be Ba'bel<sup>b</sup> and E'rech<sup>c</sup> and Ac'cad and Cal'neh, in the land of Shi'nar.<sup>d</sup> 11 Out of that land he went forth into As-syr'i-a<sup>e</sup> and set himself to building Nin-

15 And Ca'naan became father to Si'don' his firstborn and Heth' 16 and the Jeb'u-site<sup>k</sup> and the Am'or-ite<sup>l</sup> and the Gir-ga-shite 17 and the Hi'vite<sup>m</sup> and the Ark'ite and the Si'nite 18 and the Ar'vad-ite<sup>n</sup> and the Zem'a-rite and the Ha'math-ite;<sup>o</sup> and afterward the families of the Ca'naan-ite were scattered. 19 So the boundary of the Ca'naan-ite came to be from Si'don as far as Ge'rar,<sup>p</sup> near Ga'za,<sup>q</sup> as far as Sod'om and Go-mor'rah<sup>r</sup> and Ad'mah<sup>s</sup> and Ze-boi'im,<sup>t</sup> near La'sha. 20 These were the sons of Ham according to their families, according to their tongues, in their lands, by their nations.

21 And to Shem, the forefather of all the sons of E'ber,<sup>u</sup> the brother of Ja'pheth the oldest, there was also progeny born. 22 The sons of Shem were E'lam<sup>v</sup> and As'shur<sup>w</sup> and Ar-pach'shad<sup>x</sup> and Lud and A'ram.

23 And the sons of A'ram were Uz and Hul and Ge'ther and Mash.<sup>y</sup>

24 And Ar-pach'shad became father to She'lah,<sup>z</sup> and She'lah became father to E'ber.

25 And to E'ber there were two sons born. The name of the one was Pe'leg,<sup>a</sup> because in his days the earth was divided;<sup>b</sup> and the name of his brother was Jok'tan.<sup>c</sup>

26 And Jok'tan became father to Al-mo'dad and She'leph and Ha-zar-ma'veth and Je'rah<sup>d</sup> 27 and Ha-do'-ram and U'zal and Dik'lah<sup>e</sup>

28 and O'bal and A-bim'a-el and She'ba<sup>a</sup> 29 and O'phir<sup>b</sup> and Hav'i-lah<sup>c</sup> and Jo'bab;<sup>d</sup> all these were the sons of Jok'tan.

30 And their place of dwelling came to extend from Me'sha as far as Se'phar, the mountainous region of the East.

31 These were the sons of Shem according to their families, according to their tongues, in their lands, according to their nations.<sup>e</sup>

32 These were the families of the sons of Noah according to their family descents, by their nations, and from these the nations were spread abroad in the earth after the deluge.<sup>f</sup>

11 Now all the earth continued to be of one language and of one set of words. 2 And it came about that in their journeying eastward they eventually discovered a valley plain in the land of Shi'nar,<sup>g</sup> and they took up dwelling there. 3 And they began to say, each one to the other: "Come on! Let us make bricks and bake them with a burning process." So brick served as stone for them, but bitumen served as mortar for them.<sup>h</sup> 4 They now said: "Come on! Let us build ourselves a city and also a tower with its top in the heavens,<sup>i</sup> and let us make a celebrated name for ourselves,<sup>j</sup> for fear we may be scattered over all the surface of the earth."<sup>k</sup>

5 And Jehovah proceeded to go down to see the city and the tower that the sons of men had built.<sup>l</sup> 6 After that Jehovah said: "Look! They are one people and there is one language for them all,<sup>m</sup> and this is what they start to do. Why, now there is nothing that they may have in mind to do that will be unattainable for them."<sup>n</sup> 7 Come now! Let us<sup>o</sup> go down and there confuse<sup>p</sup> their language that they may not listen to one another's language."<sup>a</sup> 8 Accordingly Jehovah scattered them from there over all the surface of the earth,<sup>b</sup> and they gradually left off building the city.<sup>c</sup> 9 That is why its name was called Ba'bel,<sup>d</sup> because there Jehovah had confused the language of all the earth, and Jehovah had scattered<sup>e</sup> them from there over all the surface of the earth.

10 This is the history of Shem.<sup>f</sup>

Shem was a hundred years old when he became father to Ar-pach'shad<sup>g</sup> two years after the deluge. 11 And after his fathering Ar-pach'shad Shem continued to live five hundred years. Meanwhile he became father to sons and daughters.<sup>h</sup>

12 And Ar-pach'shad lived thirty-five years. Then he became father to She'lah.<sup>i</sup>

13 And after his fathering She'lah Ar-pach'shad continued to live four hundred and three years. Meanwhile he became father to sons and daughters.

16 And E'ber lived on for thirty-four years. Then he became father to Pe'leg.<sup>k</sup> 17 And after his fathering Pe'leg E'ber continued to live four hundred and thirty years. Meanwhile he became father to sons and daughters.

18 And Pe'leg lived on for thirty years. Then he became father to Re'u.<sup>l</sup> 19 And after his fathering Re'u Pe'leg continued to live two hundred and nine years. Meanwhile he became father to sons and daughters.

came father to Se'rug.<sup>a</sup> 21 And after his fathering Se'rug Re'u continued to live two hundred and seven years. Meanwhile he became father to sons and daughters.

22 And Se'rug lived on for thirty years. Then he became father to Na'hor.<sup>b</sup> 23 And after his fathering Na'hor Se'rug continued to live two hundred years. Meanwhile he became father to sons and daughters.

24 And Na'hor lived on for twenty-nine years. Then he became father to Te'rah.<sup>c</sup> 25 And after his fathering Te'rah Na'hor continued to live a hundred and nineteen years. Meanwhile he became father to sons and daughters.

26 And Te'rah lived on for seventy years, after which he became father to A'bram,<sup>d</sup> Na'hor<sup>e</sup> and Ha'ran.

27 And this is the history of Te'rah.

Te'rah became father to A'bram, Na'hor and Ha'ran; and Ha'ran became father to Lot.<sup>f</sup>

28 Later Ha'ran died while in company with Te'rah his father in the land of his birth, in Ur<sup>g</sup> of the Chal-de'ans.<sup>h</sup> 29 And A'bram and Na'hor proceeded to take wives for themselves. The name of A'bram's wife was Sar'ai,<sup>i</sup> while the name of Na'hor's wife was Mil'cah,<sup>j</sup> the daughter of Ha'ran, the father of Mil'cah and father of Is'cah. 30 But Sar'ai continued to be barren;<sup>k</sup> she had no child.

31 After that Te'rah took A'bram his son and Lot, the son of Ha'ran, his grandson,<sup>l</sup> and Sar'ai<sup>m</sup> his daughter-in-law, the wife of A'bram his son, and they went with him out of Ur of the Chal-de'ans to go to the land of Ca'naan.<sup>n</sup> In time they came to Ha'ran<sup>o</sup> and took up dwelling there. 32 And the days of Te'rah came to be two hundred and five years. Then Te'rah died in Ha'ran.

12 And Jehovah proceeded to say to A'bram: "Go your way out of your country and from your relatives and from the house of your father to the country that I shall show you;"<sup>a</sup> 2 and I shall make a great nation out of you and I shall bless you and I will make your name great; and prove yourself a blessing.<sup>b</sup> 3 And I will bless those who bless you, and him that calls down evil upon you I shall curse,<sup>c</sup> and all the families of the ground will certainly bless themselves by means of you."<sup>d</sup>

4 At that A'bram went just as Jehovah had spoken to him, and Lot went with him. And A'bram was seventy-five years old when he went out from Ha'ran.<sup>e</sup> 5 So A'bram took Sar'ai his wife<sup>f</sup> and Lot the son of his brother<sup>g</sup> and all the goods that they had accumulated<sup>h</sup> and the souls whom they had acquired in Ha'ran, and they got on their way out to go to the land of Ca'naan.<sup>i</sup> Finally they came to the land of Ca'naan. 6 And A'bram went on through the land as far as the site of She'chem,<sup>j</sup> near the big trees of Mo'reh;<sup>k</sup> and at that time the Ca'naan-ite was in the land. 7 Jehovah now appeared to A'bram and said: "To your seed! I am going to give this land."<sup>m</sup> After that he built an altar there to Jehovah, who had appeared to him. 8 Later he moved from there to the mountainous region to the east of Beth'e'l<sup>n</sup> and pitched his tent with Beth'e'l on the west and A'i'o on the east. Then he built an altar there to Jehovah<sup>o</sup> and began to call on the name of Jehovah.<sup>q</sup> 9 Afterward A'bram broke camp, going then from encampment to encampment toward the Neg'eb.<sup>r</sup>

down toward Egypt to reside there as an alien,<sup>a</sup> because the famine was severe in the land.<sup>b</sup>

11 And it came about that as soon as he got near to entering Egypt, then he said to Sar'ai his wife: "Please, now! I well know you are a woman beautiful in appearance."<sup>c</sup> 12 So it is bound to happen that the Egyptians will see you and will say, 'This is his wife.' And they will certainly kill me, but you they will preserve alive. 13 Please say you are my sister,<sup>d</sup> in order that it may go well with me on your account, and my soul will be certain to live due to you."<sup>e</sup>

14 So it happened that, as soon as A'bram entered Egypt, the Egyptians got to see the woman, that she was very beautiful. 15 And the princes of Phar'aoh also got to see her and they began praising her to Phar'aoh, so that the woman was taken to the house of Phar'aoh. 16 And he treated A'bram well on her account, and he came to have sheep and cattle and asses and menservants and maid-servants and she-asses and camels.<sup>f</sup> 17 Then Jehovah touched Phar'aoh and his household with great plagues<sup>g</sup> because of Sar'ai, A'bram's wife.<sup>h</sup> 18 With that Phar'aoh called A'bram and said: "What is this you have done to me? Why did you not tell me that she was your wife?"<sup>i</sup> 19 Why did you say, 'She is my sister,' so that I was about to take her as my wife? And now here is your wife. Take her and go!" 20 And Phar'aoh issued commands to men concerning him, and they went escorting him and his wife and all that he had.<sup>k</sup>

13 Following that A'bram went up out of Egypt, he and his wife and all that he had, and Lot with him, to the Neg'eb.<sup>l</sup> 2 And A'bram was heavily stocked with herds and silver and gold.<sup>m</sup> 3 And he made his way from encampment to encampment out of the Neg'eb and to Beth'el, to the place where his tent had been at first between Beth'el and A'i,<sup>a</sup> 4 to the place of the altar that he had made there originally;<sup>b</sup> and A'bram proceeded to call there on the name of Jehovah.<sup>c</sup>

5 Now Lot, who was going along with A'bram, also owned sheep and cattle and tents. 6 So the land did not allow for them to dwell all together, because their goods had become many and they were not able to dwell all together.<sup>d</sup> 7 And a quarrel arose between the herders of A'bram's livestock and the herders of Lot's livestock; and at that time the Ca'naan-ite and the Per'izzite were dwelling in the land.<sup>e</sup> 8 Hence A'bram said to Lot:<sup>f</sup> "Please, do not let any quarreling continue between me and you and between my herdsmen and your herdsmen, for we men are brothers.<sup>g</sup> 9 Is not the whole land available to you? Please, separate from me. If you go to the left, then I will go to the right; but if you go to the right, then I will go to the left."<sup>h</sup>

10 So Lot raised his eyes and saw the whole District of the Jordan,<sup>i</sup> that all of it was a well-watered region before Jehovah brought Sod'om and Go-mor'rah to ruin, like the garden of Jehovah,<sup>j</sup> like the land of Egypt as far as Zo'ar.<sup>k</sup> 11 Then Lot chose for himself the whole District of the Jordan, and Lot moved his camp to the east. So they separated the one from the other. 12 A'bram dwelt in the land of Ca'naan, but Lot dwelt among the cities of the District.<sup>l</sup> Finally he pitched tent near Sod'om. 13 And the men of Sod'om were bad and were gross sinners against Jehovah.<sup>m</sup>

14 And Jehovah said to A'bram after Lot had separated from him: "Raise your eyes, please, and look from the place where you are, northward and southward and eastward and westward,<sup>a</sup> 15 because all the land at which you are looking, to you and to your seed I am going to give it until time indefinite.<sup>b</sup> 16 And I will constitute your seed like the dust particles of the earth, so that, if a man could be able to count the dust particles of the earth, then your seed could be numbered.<sup>c</sup> 17 Get up, go about in the land through its length and through its breadth, because to you I am going to give it."<sup>d</sup> 18 So A'bram continued to live in tents. Later on he came and dwelt among the big trees of Mam're,<sup>e</sup> which are in He'b'ron;<sup>f</sup> and there he proceeded to build an altar to Jehovah.<sup>g</sup>

4 Twelve years they had served Ched-or-la-o'mer, but the thirteenth year they rebelled. 5 And in the fourteenth year Ched-or-la-o'mer came, and also the kings who were with him, and they inflicted defeats on the Reph'a'im in Ash'te-roth-kar-na'im,<sup>t</sup> and the Zu'zim in Ham, and the E'mim<sup>u</sup> in Sha'veh-kir-i-a-tha'im, 6 and the Hor'ites<sup>v</sup> in their mountain of Se'ir,<sup>w</sup> down to El-pa'ran,<sup>x</sup> which is at the wilderness. 7 Then they turned about and came to En-mish'pat, that is, Ka'desh,<sup>y</sup> and defeated the whole field of the A-mal'ek-ites<sup>a</sup> and also the Am'or-ites<sup>b</sup> who were dwelling in Haz'a-zon-ta-mar.<sup>c</sup>

8 At this point the king of Sod'om went on the march, and also the king of Go-mor'rah and the king of Ad'mah and the king of Ze-boi'im and the king of Be-la (that is to say, Zo'ar), and they drew up in battle order against them in the Low Plain of Sid-dim.<sup>d</sup> 9 against Ched-or-la-o'-mer king of E'lam and Ti'dal king of Goi'im and Am-ra-pher king of Shi'nar and Ar'i-och king of El-la'sar;<sup>e</sup> four kings against the five. 10 Now the Low Plain of Sid-dim<sup>f</sup> was pits upon pits of bitumen;<sup>g</sup> and the kings of Sod'om and Go-mor'rah<sup>h</sup> took to flight and went falling into them, and those who remained fled to the mountainous region.<sup>i</sup> 11 Then the victors took all the goods of Sod'om and Go-mor'rah and all their food and went on their way.<sup>j</sup>

12 They also took Lot the son of A'bram's brother and his goods and continued on their way. He was then dwelling in Sod'om.<sup>k</sup>

13 After that a man who had escaped came and told A'bram the Hebrew.<sup>l</sup> He was then tabernacling among the big trees of Mam're the Am'or-ite,<sup>m</sup> the brother of Esh'col and brother of A'ner;<sup>n</sup> and they were confederates of A'bram. 14 Thus A'bram got to hear that his brother had been taken captive.<sup>o</sup> With that he mustered his trained men,<sup>p</sup> three hundred and eighteen slaves born in his household,<sup>q</sup> and went in pursuit up to Dan.<sup>r</sup> 15 And by night he resorted to dividing his forces,<sup>s</sup> he and his slaves, against them, and thus he defeated them and kept in pursuit of them up to Ho'bah, which is north of Damascus. 16 And he proceeded to recover all the goods,<sup>t</sup> and he recovered also Lot his brother and his goods and also the women and the people.<sup>u</sup>

17 Then the king of Sod'om went out to meet him after he returned from defeating Ched-or-la-o'-mer and the kings that were with him, to the Low Plain of Sha'veh, that is, the king's Low Plain.<sup>a</sup> 18 And Mel-chiz'e-dek<sup>b</sup> king of Sa'lem<sup>c</sup> brought out bread and wine,<sup>d</sup> and he was priest of the Most High God.<sup>e</sup> 19 Then he blessed him and said:

"Blessed be A'bram of the Most High God,<sup>f</sup>
Producer of heaven and earth;<sup>g</sup>

20 And blessed be the Most High God,<sup>h</sup>

Who has delivered your oppressors into your hand!"<sup>i</sup>

At that A'bram gave him a tenth of everything.<sup>j</sup>

21 After that the king of Sod'om said to A'bram: "Give me the souls,<sup>k</sup> but take the goods for yourself." 22 At this A'bram said to the king of Sod'om: "I do lift up my hand in an oath<sup>l</sup> to Jehovah the Most High God, Producer of heaven and earth, 23 that, from a thread to a sandal lace, no, I shall take nothing from anything that is yours,<sup>m</sup> in order that you may not say, 'It was I who made A'bram rich.' 24 Nothing for me!"<sup>n</sup> Only what the young men have already eaten, and the share of the men who went with me, A'ner, Esh'col and Mam're<sup>o</sup>—let them take their share."<sup>p</sup>

15 After these things the word of Jehovah came to A'bram in a vision,<sup>q</sup> saying: "Do not fear,<sup>r</sup> A'bram. I am a shield for you,<sup>s</sup> Your reward will be very great."<sup>t</sup> 2 At this A'bram said: "Sovereign Lord Jehovah, what will you give me, seeing that I am going childless and the one who will possess my house is a man of Damascus, E-li-e'zer?"<sup>u</sup> 3 And A'bram added: "Look! You have given me no seed,<sup>a</sup> and, look! a son<sup>b</sup> of my household is succeeding me as heir.”<sup>c</sup> 4 But, look! the word of Jehovah to him was in these words: “This man will not succeed you as heir, but one who will come out of your own inward parts will succeed you as heir.”<sup>c</sup>

5 He now brought him outside and said: “Look up, please, to the heavens and count the stars, if you are possibly able to count them.”<sup>d</sup> And he went on to say to him: “So your seed will become.”<sup>e</sup> 6 And he put faith in Jehovah;<sup>f</sup> and he proceeded to count it to him as righteousness.<sup>g</sup> 7 Then he added to him: “I am Jehovah, who brought you out of Ur of the Chal-de-ans to give you this land to take it in possession.”<sup>h</sup> 8 To this he said: “Sovereign Lord Jehovah, by what shall I know that I shall take it in possession?”<sup>i</sup> 9 In turn he said to him: “Take for me a three-year-old heifer and a three-year-old she-goat and a three-year-old ram and a turtle-dove and a young pigeon.”<sup>j</sup> 10 So he took all these to himself and cut them in two and put each part of them so as to match the other, but the birds he did not cut in pieces.<sup>k</sup> 11 And the birds of prey began to descend upon the carcasses,<sup>l</sup> but A'bram kept driving them away.

12 After a while the sun was about to set, and a deep sleep fell upon A'bram,<sup>m</sup> and, look! a frightfully great darkness was falling upon him. 13 And he began to say to A'bram: “You may know for sure that your seed will become an alien resident in a land not theirs,<sup>n</sup> and they will have to serve them, and these will certainly afflict them for four hundred years.”<sup>o</sup> 14 But the nation that they will serve I am judging,<sup>p</sup> and after that they will go out with many goods.<sup>q</sup> 15 As for you, you will go to your forefathers in peace; you will be buried at a good old age.<sup>a</sup>

16 But in the fourth generation they will return here,<sup>b</sup> because the error of the Am'or-ites has not yet come to completion.”<sup>c</sup>

17 The sun was now setting and a dense darkness came and, look! a smoking furnace and a fiery torch that passed in between these pieces.<sup>d</sup> 18 On that day Jehovah concluded with A'bram a covenant,<sup>e</sup> saying: “To your seed I will give this land,<sup>f</sup> from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Eu-phra-tes;<sup>g</sup> 19 the Ken'ites<sup>h</sup> and the Ken'iz-zites and the Kad'mon-ites 20 and the Hit'tites<sup>i</sup> and the Per'iz-zites<sup>j</sup> and the Reph'a-im<sup>k</sup> 21 and the Am'or-ites and the Ca'naan-ites and the Gir'gashites and the Jeb'u-sites.”<sup>l</sup>

16 Now Sar'ai, A'bram's wife, had borne him no children;<sup>m</sup> but she had an Egyptian maidservant and her name was Ha'gar.<sup>n</sup> 2 Hence Sar'ai said to A'bram: “Please now! Jehovah has shut me off from bearing children.<sup>o</sup> Please, have relations with my maidservant. Perhaps I may get children from her.”<sup>p</sup> So A'bram listened to the voice of Sar'ai.<sup>q</sup> 3 Then Sar'ai, A'bram's wife, took Ha'gar, her Egyptian maidservant, at the end of ten years of A'bram's dwelling in the land of Ca'naan, and gave her to A'bram her husband as his wife.<sup>r</sup> 4 Accordingly he had relations with Ha'gar, and she became pregnant. When she became aware that she was pregnant, then her mistress began to be despised in her eyes.<sup>s</sup>

5 At this Sar'ai said to A'bram: “The violence done me be upon you. I myself gave my maidservant over to your bosom, and she became aware that she was pregnant, and I began to be despised in her eyes. May Jehovah judge between me and you.”<sup>t</sup>

6 So A'bram said to Sar'ai:<sup>a</sup> "Look! Your maidservant is at your disposal. Do to her what is good in your eyes."<sup>b</sup> Then Sar'ai began to humiliate her so that she ran away from her.<sup>c</sup>

7 Later Jehovah's angel<sup>d</sup> found her at a fountain of waters in the wilderness, at the fountain on the way to Shur.<sup>e</sup> 8 And he began to say: "Ha'gar, maidservant of Sar'ai, just where have you come from and where are you going?" To this she said: "Why, from Sar'ai my mistress I am running away." 9 And Jehovah's angel went on to say to her: "Return to your mistress and humble yourself under her hand."<sup>f</sup> 10 Then Jehovah's angel said to her: "I shall greatly multiply your seed,<sup>g</sup> so that it will not be numbered for multitude."<sup>h</sup> 11 Further Jehovah's angel added to her: "Here you are pregnant, and you shall give birth to a son and must call his name Ish'ma-el;<sup>i</sup> for Jehovah has heard your affliction.<sup>j</sup> 12 As for him, he will become a zebra of a man. His hand will be against everyone, and the hand of everyone will be against him;<sup>k</sup> and before the face of all his brothers he will tabernacle."<sup>l</sup>

13 Then she began to call the name of Jehovah, who was speaking to her: "You are a God of sight,"<sup>m</sup> for she said: "Have I here actually looked upon him who sees me?" 14 That is why the well was called Be'er-la-hai-roi.<sup>n</sup> Here it is between Ka'desh and Be'rad. 15 Later on Ha'gar bore to A'bram a son and A'bram called the name of his son whom Ha'gar bore Ish'ma-el.<sup>o</sup> 16 And A'bram was eighty-six years old at Ha'gar's bearing Ish'ma-el to A'bram.

17 When A'bram got to be ninety-nine years old, then Jehovah appeared to A'bram and said to him:<sup>p</sup> "I am God Almighty.<sup>a</sup> Walk before me and prove yourself faultless.<sup>b</sup> 2 And I will give my covenant between me and you,<sup>c</sup> that I may multiply you very, very much."<sup>d</sup>

3 At this A'bram fell upon his face,<sup>e</sup> and God continued to speak with him, saying: 4 "As for me, look! my covenant is with you,<sup>f</sup> and you will certainly become a father of a crowd of nations.<sup>g</sup> 5 And your name will not be called A'bram anymore, and your name must become Abraham, because a father of a crowd of nations I will make you. 6 And I will make you very, very fruitful and will make you become nations, and kings will come out of you.<sup>h</sup>

7 "And I will carry out my covenant between me and you<sup>i</sup> and your seed after you according to their generations for a covenant to time indefinite,<sup>j</sup> to prove myself God to you and to your seed after you.<sup>k</sup> 8 And I will give to you and to your seed after you the land of your alien residences,<sup>l</sup> even the entire land of Ca'naan, for a possession to time indefinite; and I will prove myself God to them."<sup>m</sup>

9 And God said further to Abraham: "As for you, you are to keep my covenant, you and your seed after you according to their generations."<sup>n</sup> 10 This is my covenant that you men will keep, between me and you men, even your seed after you:<sup>o</sup> Every male of yours must get circumcised.<sup>p</sup> 11 And you must get circumcised in the flesh of your foreskins, and it must serve as a sign of the covenant between me and you.<sup>q</sup> 12 And every male of yours eight days old must be circumcised,<sup>r</sup> according to your generations, anyone born in the house and anyone purchased with money from any foreigner who is not from your seed. 13 Every man born in your house and every man purchased with money of yours must without fail get circumcised;<sup>a</sup> and my covenant in the flesh of you men must serve as a covenant to time indefinite.<sup>b</sup> 14 And an uncircumcised male who will not get the flesh of his foreskin circumcised, even that soul must be cut off from his people.<sup>c</sup> He has broken my covenant."

15 And God went on to say to Abraham: "As for Sar'ai your wife, you must not call her name Sar'ai, because Sarah is her name.<sup>d</sup> 16 And I will bless her and also give you a son from her;<sup>e</sup> and I will bless her and she shall become nations;<sup>f</sup> kings of peoples will come from her."<sup>g</sup> 17 At this Abraham fell upon his face and began to laugh and to say in his heart:<sup>h</sup> "Will a man a hundred years old have a child born, and will Sarah, yes, will a woman ninety years old give birth?"<sup>i</sup>

18 After that Abraham said to the true God: "O that Ish'mael might live before you!"<sup>j</sup> 19 To this God said: "Sarah your wife is indeed bearing you a son, and you must call his name Isaac.<sup>k</sup> And I will establish my covenant with him for a covenant to time indefinite to his seed after him.<sup>l</sup> 20 But as regards Ish'mael I have heard you. Look! I will bless him and will make him fruitful and will multiply him very, very much.<sup>m</sup> He will certainly produce twelve chieftains, and I will make him become a great nation.<sup>n</sup> 21 However, my covenant I shall establish with Isaac,<sup>o</sup> whom Sarah will bear to you at this appointed time next year."<sup>p</sup>

22 With that God finished speaking with him and went up from Abraham.<sup>q</sup> 23 Abraham then proceeded to take Ish'mael his son and all the men born in his house and everyone purchased with money of his, every male among the men of the household of Abraham, and he went to circumcising the flesh of their foreskins in this very day, just as God had spoken with him.<sup>a</sup> 24 And Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he had the flesh of his foreskin circumcised.<sup>b</sup> 25 And Ish'mael his son was thirteen years old when he had the flesh of his foreskin circumcised.<sup>c</sup> 26 In this very day Abraham got circumcised, and also Ish'mael his son.<sup>d</sup> 27 And all the men of his household, anyone born in the house and anyone purchased with money from a foreigner, got circumcised with him.<sup>e</sup>

18 Afterward Jehovah appeared<sup>f</sup> to him among the big trees of Mam're,<sup>g</sup> while he was sitting at the entrance of the tent about the heat of the day.<sup>h</sup> 2 When he raised his eyes,<sup>i</sup> then he looked and there three men were standing some distance from him. When he caught sight of them he began running to meet them from the entrance of the tent and proceeded to bow down to the earth.<sup>j</sup> 3 Then he said: "Jehovah, if, now, I have found favor in your eyes, please do not pass by your servant.<sup>k</sup> 4 Let a little water be taken, please, and you must have your feet washed.<sup>l</sup> Then recline under the tree.<sup>m</sup> 5 And let me get a piece of bread, and refresh your hearts.<sup>n</sup> Following that, you can pass on, because that is why you have passed this way to your servant." At this they said: "All right. You may do just as you have spoken."

6 So Abraham went hurrying to the tent to Sarah and said: "Hurry! Get three seah measures of fine flour, knead the dough and make round cakes."<sup>o</sup> 7 Next Abraham ran to the herd and proceeded to get a tender and good young bull and to give it to the attendant, and he went hurrying to get it ready.<sup>p</sup> 8 He then took butter and milk and the young bull that he had got ready and set it before them.<sup>a</sup> Then he himself kept standing by them under the tree as they were eating.<sup>b</sup>

9 They now said to him: "Where is Sarah your wife?"<sup>c</sup> To this he said: "Here in the tent!"<sup>d</sup>

10 So he continued: "I am surely going to return to you next year at this time, and, look! Sarah your wife will have a son."<sup>e</sup> Now Sarah was listening at the tent entrance, and it was behind the man. 11 And Abraham and Sarah were old, being advanced in years.<sup>f</sup> Sarah had stopped having menstruation.<sup>g</sup>

12 Hence Sarah began to laugh inside herself,<sup>h</sup> saying: "After I am worn out, shall I really have pleasure, my lord being old besides?"<sup>i</sup> 13 Then Jehovah said to Abraham: "Why was it that Sarah laughed, saying, 'Shall I really and truly give birth although I have become old?'"<sup>j</sup> 14 Is anything too extraordinary for Jehovah?<sup>k</sup> At the appointed time I shall return to you, next year at this time, and Sarah will have a son." 15 But Sarah began to deny it, saying: "I did not laugh!" For she was afraid. At this he said: "No! but you did laugh."<sup>l</sup>

16 Later the men got up from there and looked down toward Sod'om,<sup>m</sup> and Abraham was walking with them to escort them.<sup>n</sup> 17 And Jehovah said: "Am I keeping covered from Abraham what I am doing?"<sup>o</sup> 18 Why, Abraham is surely going to become a nation great and mighty, and all the nations of the earth must bless themselves by means of him.<sup>p</sup> 19 For I have become acquainted with him in order that he may command his sons and his household after him so that they shall keep Jehovah's way to do righteousness and judgment;<sup>q</sup> in order that Jehovah may certainly bring upon Abraham what he has spoken about him."<sup>a</sup>

20 Consequently Jehovah said: "The cry of complaint about Sod'om and Go-mor'rah,<sup>b</sup> yes, it is loud, and their sin, yes, it is very heavy.<sup>c</sup> 21 I am quite determined to go down that I may see whether they act altogether according to the outcry over it that has come to me, and, if not, I can get to know it."<sup>d</sup>

22 At this point the men turned from there and got on their way to Sod'om; but as for Jehovah,<sup>e</sup> he was still standing before Abraham.<sup>f</sup> 23 Then Abraham approached and began to say: "Will you really sweep away the righteous with the wicked?"<sup>g</sup> 24 Suppose there are fifty righteous men in the midst of the city. Will you, then, sweep them away and not pardon the place for the sake of the fifty righteous who are inside it?<sup>h</sup>

25 It is unthinkable of you that you are acting in this manner to put to death the righteous man with the wicked one so that it has to occur with the righteous man as it does with the wicked!<sup>i</sup> It is unthinkable of you.<sup>j</sup> Is the Judge of all the earth not going to do what is right?"<sup>k</sup> 26 Then Jehovah said: "If I shall find in Sod'om fifty righteous men in the midst of the city I will pardon the whole place on their account."<sup>l</sup> 27 But Abraham went on to answer and say: "Please, here I have taken upon myself to speak to Jehovah, whereas I am dust and ashes."<sup>m</sup> 28 Suppose the fifty righteous should be lacking five. Will you for the five bring the whole city to ruin?" To this he said: "I shall not bring it to ruin if I find there forty-five."<sup>n</sup>

29 But yet again he spoke further to him and said: "Suppose forty are found there." In turn he said: "I shall not do it on account of the forty." 30 But he continued: "May Jehovah, please, not grow hot with anger,<sup>a</sup> but let me go on speaking.<sup>b</sup> Suppose thirty are found there." In turn he said: "I shall not do it if I find thirty there." 31 But he continued on: "Please, here I have taken upon myself to speak to Jehovah:<sup>c</sup> Suppose twenty are found there." In turn he said: "I shall not bring it to ruin on account of the twenty."<sup>d</sup> 32 Finally he said: "May Jehovah, please, not grow hot with anger,<sup>e</sup> but let me speak just this once:<sup>f</sup> Suppose ten are found there." In turn he said: "I shall not bring it to ruin on account of the ten."<sup>g</sup> 33 Then Jehovah<sup>h</sup> went his way when he had finished speaking to Abraham, and Abraham returned to his place.

19 Now the two angels arrived at Sod'om by evening, and Lot was sitting in the gate of Sod'om.<sup>i</sup> When Lot caught sight of them, then he got up to meet them and bowed down with his face to the earth.<sup>j</sup> 2 And he proceeded to say: "Please, now, my lords, turn aside, please, into the house of your servant and stay overnight and have your feet washed.<sup>k</sup> Then you must get up early and travel on your way."<sup>l</sup> To this they said: "No, but in the public square is where we shall stay overnight."<sup>m</sup> 3 But he was very insistent with them,<sup>n</sup> so that they turned aside to him and came into his house. Then he made a feast for them,<sup>o</sup> and he baked unfermented cakes,<sup>p</sup> and they went to eating.

4 Before they could lie down, the men of the city, the men of Sod'om, surrounded the house,<sup>q</sup> from boy to old man, all the people in one mob.<sup>r</sup> 5 And they kept calling out to Lot and saying to him: "Where are the men who came in to you tonight? Bring them out to us that we may have intercourse with them."<sup>s</sup>

6 Finally Lot went out to them to the entrance, but he shut the door behind him. 7 Then he said: "Please, my brothers, do not act badly.<sup>a</sup> 8 Please, here I have two daughters who have never had intercourse with a man.<sup>b</sup> Please, let me bring them out to you. Then do to them as is good in your eyes.<sup>c</sup> Only to these men do not do a thing,<sup>d</sup> because that is why they have come under the shadow of my roof."<sup>e</sup> 9 At this they said: "Stand back there!" And they added: "This lone man came here to reside as an alien<sup>f</sup> and yet he would actually play the judge.<sup>g</sup> Now we are going to do worse to you than to them." And they came pressing heavily in on the man,<sup>h</sup> on Lot, and were getting near to break in the door.<sup>i</sup> 10 So the men thrust out their hands and brought Lot in to them, into the house, and they shut the door. 11 But they struck with blindness the men who were at the entrance of the house,<sup>j</sup> from the least to the greatest,<sup>k</sup> so that they were wearing themselves out trying to find the entrance.<sup>l</sup>

12 Then the men said to Lot: "Do you have anyone else here? Son-in-law and your sons and your daughters and all who are yours in the city, bring out of the place!<sup>m</sup> 13 For we are bringing this place to ruin, because the outcry against them has grown loud before Jehovah,<sup>n</sup> so that Jehovah sent us to bring the city to ruin."<sup>o</sup> 14 Hence Lot went on out and began to speak to his sons-in-law who were to take his daughters, and he kept on saying: "Get up! Get out of this place, because Jehovah is bringing the city to ruin!"<sup>p</sup> But in the eyes of his sons-in-law he seemed like a man who was joking.<sup>q</sup>

here,<sup>a</sup> for fear you may be swept away in the error of the city!"<sup>b</sup>
16 When he kept lingering,<sup>c</sup> then in the compassion of Jehovah upon him,<sup>d</sup> the men seized hold of his hand and of the hand of his wife and of the hands of his two daughters and they proceeded to bring him out and to station him outside the city.<sup>e</sup> 17 And it came about that, as soon as they had brought them forth to the outskirts, he began to say: "Escape for your soul!" Do not look behind you<sup>f</sup> and do not stand still in all the District!<sup>g</sup> Escape to the mountainous region for fear you may be swept away!"<sup>h</sup>

18 Then Lot said to them: "Not that, please, Jehovah! 19 Please, now, your servant has found favor in your eyes<sup>i</sup> so that you are magnifying your loving-kindness,<sup>k</sup> which you have exercised with me to preserve my soul alive,<sup>l</sup> but I—I am not able to escape to the mountainous region for fear calamity may keep close to me and I certainly die."<sup>m</sup>
20 Please, now, this city is nearby to flee there and it is a small thing.<sup>n</sup> May I, please, escape there—is it not a small thing?—and my soul will live on."<sup>o</sup>
21 So he said to him: "Here I do show you consideration to this extent also,<sup>p</sup> by my not overthrowing the city of which you have spoken.<sup>q</sup> 22 Hurry! Escape there, because I am not able to do a thing until your arriving there!"<sup>r</sup> That is why he called the name of the city Zo'ar.<sup>s</sup>

23 The sun had gone forth over the land when Lot arrived at Zo'ar.<sup>t</sup> 24 Then Jehovah made it rain sulphur and fire from Jehovah, from the heavens, upon Sod'om and upon Go-mor'rah.<sup>u</sup> 25 So he went ahead overthrowing these cities, even the entire District and all the inhabitants of the cities and the plants of the ground.<sup>v</sup> 26 And his wife began to look around from behind him, and she became a pillar of salt.<sup>a</sup>

27 Now Abraham made his way early in the morning to the place where he had stood before Jehovah.<sup>b</sup> 28 Then he looked down toward Sod'om and Go-mor'rah and toward all the land of the District and saw a sight. Why, here thick smoke ascended from the land like the thick smoke of a kiln!<sup>c</sup> 29 And it came about that when God brought the cities of the District to ruin God kept Abraham in mind in that he took steps to send Lot out of the midst of the overthrow when overthrowing the cities among which Lot had been dwelling.<sup>d</sup>

30 Later Lot went up from Zo'ar and began dwelling in the mountainous region, and his two daughters along with him,<sup>e</sup> because he got afraid of dwelling in Zo'ar.<sup>f</sup> So he began dwelling in a cave, he and his two daughters. 31 And the firstborn proceeded to say to the younger woman: "Our father is old and there is not a man in the land to have relations with us according to the way of the whole earth.<sup>g</sup> 32 Come, let us give our father wine to drink<sup>h</sup> and let us lie down with him and preserve offspring from our father."<sup>i</sup>

33 So they kept giving their father wine to drink during that night;<sup>j</sup> then the firstborn went in and lay down with her father, but he did not know when she lay down and when she got up. 34 And it came about on the next day that the firstborn then said to the younger: "Here I lay down with my father last night. Let us give him wine to drink to-night also. Then you go in, lie down with him, and let us preserve offspring from our father."<sup>k</sup> 35 So they repeatedly gave their father wine to drink during that night also; then the younger got up and lay down with him, but he did not know when she lay down and when she got up. 36 And both the daughters of Lot became pregnant from their father.<sup>a</sup> 37 In time the firstborn became mother to a son and called his name Mo'ab.<sup>b</sup> He is the father of Mo'ab, to this day.<sup>c</sup> 38 As for the younger, she too gave birth to a son and then called his name Ben-am'mi. He is the father of the sons of Am'mon,<sup>d</sup> to this day.

8 So A-bim'e-lech got up early in the morning and proceeded to call all his servants and to speak of all these things in their ears. And the men got very much afraid. 9 Then A-bim'e-lech called Abraham and said to him: "What have you done to us, and what sin have I committed against you, in that you have brought upon me and my kingdom a great sin?<sup>a</sup> Deeds that should not have been done you have done in connection with me."<sup>b</sup> 10 And A-bim'e-lech went on to say to Abraham: "What did you have in view in that you have done this thing?"<sup>c</sup> 11 To this Abraham said: "It was because I said to myself, 'Doubtless there is no fear of God in this place,<sup>d</sup> and they will certainly kill me because of my wife.'<sup>e</sup> 12 And, besides, she is truly my sister, the daughter of my father, only not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife.<sup>f</sup> 13 And it came about that, when God caused me to wander from the house of my father,<sup>g</sup> then I said to her, 'This is your loving-kindness<sup>h</sup> which you may exercise toward me: At every place where we shall come say of me: "He is my brother."<sup>i</sup>'"

14 Following that A-bim'e-lech took sheep and cattle and menservants and maidservants and gave them to Abraham and returned to him Sarah his wife.<sup>j</sup> 15 Further A-bim'e-lech said: "Here my land is available to you. Dwell where it is good in your eyes."<sup>k</sup> 16 And to Sarah he said: "Here I do give a thousand silver pieces of money to your brother.<sup>l</sup> Here it is for you a covering<sup>m</sup> of the eyes to all who are with you, and before everybody, and you are cleared of reproach."<sup>n</sup> 17 And Abraham began to make supplication to the true God;<sup>n</sup> and God proceeded to heal A-bim'e-lech and his wife and his slave girls, and they began bearing children. 18 For Jehovah had tightly shut up every womb of the house of A-bim'e-lech because of Sarah, Abraham's wife.<sup>a</sup>

21 And Jehovah turned his attention to Sarah just as he had said, and Jehovah now did to Sarah just as he had spoken.<sup>b</sup> 2 And Sarah became pregnant<sup>c</sup> and then bore a son to Abraham in his old age at the appointed time of which God had spoken to him.<sup>d</sup> 3 Accordingly Abraham called the name of his son who had been born to him, whom Sarah had borne to him, Isaac.<sup>e</sup> 4 And Abraham proceeded to circumcise Isaac his son when eight days old, just as God had commanded him.<sup>f</sup> 5 And Abraham was a hundred years old when Isaac his son was born to him. 6 Then Sarah said: "God has prepared laughter for me: everybody hearing of it will laugh at me."<sup>g</sup> 7 And she added: "Who would have uttered to Abraham, 'Sarah will certainly suckle children,' whereas I have given birth to a son in his old age?"

8 Now the child kept growing and came to be weaned;<sup>h</sup> and Abraham then prepared a big feast on the day of Isaac's being weaned. 9 And Sarah kept noticing the son of Ha'gar the Egyptian,<sup>i</sup> whom she had borne to Abraham, poking fun.<sup>j</sup> 10 So she began to say to Abraham: "Drive out this slave girl and her son, for the son of this slave girl is not going to be an heir with my son, with Isaac!"<sup>k</sup> 11 But the thing proved to be very displeasing to Abraham as regards his son.<sup>l</sup> 12 Then God said to Abraham: "Do not let anything that Sarah keeps saying to you be displeasing to you about the boy and about your slave girl. Listen to her voice, because it is by means of Isaac that what will be called your seed will be.<sup>a</sup> 13 And as for the son of the slave girl,<sup>b</sup> I shall also constitute him a nation, because he is your offspring."<sup>c</sup>

14 So Abraham got up early in the morning and took bread and a skin water bottle and gave it to Ha'gar,<sup>d</sup> setting it upon her shoulder, and the child,<sup>e</sup> and then dismissed her. And she went her way and wandered about in the wilderness of Be'er-she'ba.<sup>f</sup> 15 Finally the water became exhausted<sup>g</sup> in the skin bottle and she threw<sup>h</sup> the child under one of the bushes. 16 Then she went on and sat down by herself, about the distance of a bowshot away, because she said: "Let me not see it when the child dies."<sup>i</sup> So she sat down at a distance and began to raise her voice and weep.<sup>j</sup>

17 At that God heard the voice of the boy,<sup>k</sup> and God's angel called to Ha'gar out of the heavens and said to her:<sup>l</sup> "What is the matter with you, Ha'gar? Do not be afraid, because God has listened to the voice of the boy there where he is. 18 Get up, lift up the boy and take hold of him with your hand, because I shall constitute him a great nation."<sup>m</sup> 19 Then God opened her eyes so that she caught sight of a well of water;<sup>n</sup> and she went and began to fill the skin bottle with water and to give the boy a drink. 20 And God continued to be with the boy,<sup>o</sup> and he kept growing and dwelling in the wilderness; and he became an archer.<sup>p</sup> 21 And he took up dwelling in the wilderness of Pa'-ran,<sup>q</sup> and his mother proceeded to take a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

22 Now it came about at that time that A-bim'e-lech together with Phi'col the chief of his army said to Abraham: "God is with you in everything you are doing."<sup>r</sup> 23 So now swear to me here by God<sup>a</sup> that you will not prove false to me and to my offspring and to my posterity;<sup>b</sup> that, according to the loyal love with which I have dealt with you,<sup>c</sup> you will deal with me and with the land in which you have been residing as an alien."<sup>d</sup> 24 So Abraham said: "I shall swear."<sup>e</sup>

25 When Abraham criticized A-bim'e-lech severely as regards the well of water that the servants of A-bim'e-lech had seized by violence,<sup>f</sup> 26 then A-bim'e-lech said: "I do not know who did this thing, neither did you yourself tell it to me, and I myself have also not heard of it except today."<sup>g</sup> 27 With that Abraham took sheep and cattle and gave them to A-bim'e-lech,<sup>h</sup> and both of them proceeded to conclude a covenant.<sup>i</sup> 28 When Abraham set seven female lambs of the flock by themselves,

29 A-bim'e-lech went on to say to Abraham: "What is the meaning here of these seven female lambs that you have set by themselves?" 30 Then he said: "You are to accept the seven female lambs at my hand, that it may serve as a witness<sup>j</sup> for me that I have dug this well."<sup>k</sup> 31 That is why he called that place Be'er-she'ba,<sup>k</sup> because there both of them had taken an oath. 32 So they concluded a covenant<sup>l</sup> at Be'er-she'ba, after which A-bim'e-lech got up together with Phil-col the chief of his army and they returned to the land of the Philis'tines.<sup>m</sup> 33 After that he planted a tamarisk tree at Be'er-she'ba and called there upon the name of Jehovah<sup>n</sup> the indefinitely lasting God.<sup>o</sup> 34 And Abraham extended his residence as an alien in the land of the Philis'tines many days.<sup>p</sup>

22 Now after these things it came about that the true God put Abraham to the test.<sup>q</sup> Accordingly he said to him:

"Abraham!" to which he said: "Here I am!"<sup>a</sup> 2 And he went on to say: "Take, please, your son, your only son whom you so love,<sup>b</sup> Isaac,<sup>c</sup> and make a trip to the land of Mo-ri'ah<sup>d</sup> and there offer him up as a burnt offering on one of the mountains that I shall designate to you."<sup>e</sup>

3 So Abraham got up early in the morning and saddled his ass and took two of his attendants with him and Isaac his son;<sup>f</sup> and he split the wood for the burnt offering. Then he rose and went on the trip to the place that the true God designated to him. 4 It was first on the third day that Abraham raised his eyes and began to see the place from a distance. 5 Abraham now said to his attendants:<sup>g</sup> "You stay here with the ass, but I and the boy want to go on over there and worship<sup>h</sup> and return to you."

6 After that Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and put it upon Isaac his son<sup>i</sup> and took in his hands the fire and the slaughtering knife, and both of them went on together.<sup>j</sup> 7 And Isaac began to say to Abraham his father: "My father!"<sup>k</sup> In turn he said: "Here I am, my son!"<sup>l</sup> So he continued: "Here are the fire and the wood, but where is the sheep for the burnt offering?"<sup>m</sup> 8 To this Abraham said: "God will provide himself the sheep for the burnt offering,<sup>n</sup> my son." And both of them walked on together.

9 Finally they reached the place that the true God had designated to him, and Abraham built an altar<sup>o</sup> there and set the wood in order and bound Isaac his son hand and foot and put him upon the altar on top of the wood.<sup>p</sup> 10 Then Abraham put out his hand and took the slaughtering knife to kill his son.<sup>q</sup> 11 But Jehovah's angel began calling to him out of the heavens and saying:<sup>a</sup> "Abraham, Abraham!" to which he answered: "Here I am!" 12 And he went on to say: "Do not put out your hand against the boy and do not do anything at all to him,<sup>b</sup> for now I do know that you are God-fearing in that you have not withheld your son, your only one, from me."<sup>c</sup> 13 At that Abraham raised his eyes and looked and there, deep in the foreground, there was a ram caught by its horns in a thicket. So Abraham went and took the ram and offered it up for a burnt offering in place of his son.<sup>d</sup> 14 And Abraham began to call the name of that place Je-ho'vah-jir'e'h. This is why it is customarily said today: "In the mountain of Jehovah it will be provided."<sup>e</sup>

15 And Jehovah's angel proceeded to call to Abraham the second time out of the heavens 16 and to say: "By myself I do swear,<sup>f</sup> is the utterance of Jehovah,<sup>g</sup> 'that by reason of the fact that you have done this thing and you have not withheld your son, your only one,<sup>h</sup> 17 I shall surely bless you and I shall surely multiply your seed like the stars of the heavens and like the grains of sand that are on the seashore;<sup>i</sup> and your seed will take possession of the gate of his enemies.<sup>j</sup> 18 And by means of your seed<sup>k</sup> all nations of the earth will certainly bless themselves due to the fact that you have listened to my voice."<sup>l</sup>

20 Now it came about after these things that the report got through to Abraham: "Here Mil'cah<sup>n</sup> herself has also borne sons to Na'hor" your brother: 21 Uz his firstborn and Buz<sup>o</sup> his brother and Kem-u'el the father of A'ram, 22 and Che'sed and Ha'zo and Pil'dash and Jid'laph and Be-thu'el."<sup>a</sup> 23 And Be-thu'el became the father of Re-bek'ah.<sup>b</sup> These eight Mil'cah bore to Na'hor the brother of Abraham. 24 There was his concubine too, whose name was Reu'mah. In time she herself also gave birth to Te'bah and Ga'ham and Ta'hash and Ma'a-cah.<sup>c</sup>

23 And Sarah's life got to be a hundred and twenty-seven years long. They were the years of Sarah's life.<sup>d</sup> 2 So Sarah died in Kir'i-ath-ar'ba,<sup>e</sup> that is to say, He'bron,<sup>f</sup> in the land of Ca'naan,<sup>g</sup> and Abraham came in to bewail Sarah and to weep over her. 3 Then Abraham got up from before his dead and proceeded to speak to the sons of Heth,<sup>h</sup> saying: 4 "An alien resident and settler I am among you.<sup>i</sup> Give me the possession of a burial place among you that I may bury my dead out of my sight."<sup>j</sup> 5 At this the sons of Heth answered Abraham, saying to him: 6 "Hear us, my lord.<sup>k</sup> A chieftain of God you are in the midst of us.<sup>l</sup> In the choicest of our burial places bury your dead.<sup>m</sup> None of us will hold back his burial place from you to prevent burying your dead."<sup>n</sup>

7 Thereupon Abraham got up and bowed down to the natives,<sup>o</sup> to the sons of Heth,<sup>p</sup> 8 and spoke with them, saying: "If your souls agree to bury my dead out of my sight, listen to me and urge E'phron the son of Zo'har for me,<sup>q</sup> 9 that he may give me the cave of Mach-pe'lah,<sup>r</sup> which is his, which is at the extremity of his field. For the full amount of silver let him give it to me in the midst of you for the possession of a burial place."<sup>s</sup>

10 As it was, E'phron was sitting among the sons of Heth. So E'phron the Hit'tite<sup>t</sup> answered Abraham in the hearing of the sons of Heth with all those entering the gate of his city, saying:<sup>a</sup> 11 "No, my lord! Listen to me. The field I do give to you, and the cave that is in it to you I do give it. Before the eyes of the sons of my people I do give it to you.<sup>b</sup> Bury your dead." 12 At that Abraham bowed down before the natives 13 and spoke to E'phron in the hearing of the natives, saying: "Only if you—no, listen to me! I will give you the amount of silver for the field. Take it from me,<sup>c</sup> that I may bury my dead there."

14 Then E'phron answered Abraham, saying to him: 15 "My lord, listen to me. A land plot worth four hundred silver shekels, what is that between me and you? So bury your dead."<sup>d</sup> 16 Accordingly Abraham listened to E'phron, and Abraham weighed out to E'phron the amount of silver that he had spoken in the hearing of the sons of Heth, four hundred silver shekels current with the merchants.<sup>e</sup> 17 Thus the field of E'phron that was in Mach-pe'lah, which is in front of Mam're, the field and the cave that was in it and all the trees that were in the field,<sup>f</sup> which were within all its boundaries round about, became confirmed<sup>g</sup> 18 to Abraham as his purchased property before the eyes of the sons of Heth among all those entering the gate of his city.<sup>h</sup> 19 And after that Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Mach-pe'lah in front of Mam're, that is to say, He'bron, in the land of Ca'naan.<sup>i</sup> 20 Thus the field and the cave that was in it became confirmed to Abraham for the possession of a burial place at the hands of the sons of Heth.<sup>j</sup>

ham said to his servant, the oldest one of his household, who was managing all he had:<sup>a</sup> "Put your hand, please, under my thigh,<sup>b</sup> 3 as I must have you swear by Jehovah,<sup>c</sup> the God of the heavens and the God of the earth, that you will not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Ca'naan-ites in among whom I am dwelling,<sup>d</sup> 4 but you will go to my country and to my relatives,<sup>e</sup> and you will certainly take a wife for my son, for Isaac."

5 However, the servant said to him: "What if the woman does not wish to come with me to this land? Must I be sure to return your son to the land from where you went out?"<sup>f</sup> 6 At this Abraham said to him: "Be on your guard that you do not return my son there.<sup>g</sup> 7 Jehovah the God of the heavens, who took me from my father's house and from the land of my relatives<sup>h</sup> and who spoke to me and who swore to me,<sup>i</sup> saying, 'To your seed<sup>j</sup> I am going to give this land,<sup>k</sup> he will send his angel ahead of you,<sup>l</sup> and you will certainly take a wife for my son from there.<sup>m</sup> 8 But if the woman should not wish to come with you, you also will have become free from this oath you gave me.<sup>n</sup> Only you must not return my son there."<sup>o</sup> 9 With that the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master and swore to him concerning this matter.<sup>p</sup>

10 So the servant took ten camels from the camels of his master and proceeded to go with every sort of good thing of his master's in his hand.<sup>q</sup> Then he rose and got on his way to Mes-o-po-ta'mi-a to the city of Na'hor. 11 Eventually he had the camels kneel down outside the city at a well of water about evening time,<sup>r</sup> about the time that the women who draw water were accustomed to go out.<sup>s</sup> 12 And he went on to say: "Jehovah the God of my master Abraham,<sup>a</sup> cause it to happen, please, before me this day and perform loving-kindness<sup>b</sup> with my master Abraham.<sup>c</sup> 13 Here I am stationed at a fountain of water, and the daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water.<sup>d</sup>

14 What must occur is that the young woman to whom I shall say, 'Let your water jar down, please, that I may take a drink,' and who will indeed say, 'Take a drink, and I shall also water your camels,' this is the one you must assign to your servant,<sup>e</sup> to Isaac; and by this let me know that you have performed loyal love with my master."<sup>f</sup>

15 Well, it came about that before he had finished speaking,<sup>g</sup> why, here coming out was Rebekah, who had been born to Be-thu'el<sup>h</sup> the son of Mil'cah<sup>i</sup> the wife of Na'hor,<sup>j</sup> Abraham's brother, and her water jar was upon her shoulder.<sup>k</sup> 16 Now the young woman was very attractive in appearance,<sup>l</sup> a virgin, and no man had had sexual intercourse with her;<sup>m</sup> and she made her way down to the fountain and began to fill her water jar and then came up. 17 At once the servant ran to meet her and said: "Give me, please, a little sip of water from your jar."<sup>n</sup>

18 In turn she said: "Drink, my lord." With that she quickly lowered her jar upon her hand and gave him a drink.<sup>o</sup> 19 When she was finished giving him a drink, then she said: "For your camels too I shall draw water until they are done drinking."<sup>p</sup> 20 So she quickly emptied her jar into the drinking trough and ran yet again and again to the well to draw water,<sup>q</sup> and kept drawing for all his camels. 21 All the while the man was gazing at her in wonder, keeping silent to know whether Jehovah had made his trip successful or not.<sup>r</sup>

22 Consequently it came about that, when the camels had finished drinking, then the man took a gold nose ring<sup>a</sup> of a half shekel in weight and two bracelets<sup>b</sup> for her hands, ten shekels of gold was their weight, 23 and he went on to say: "Whose daughter are you? Tell me, please. Is there any room at the house of your father for us to spend the night?"<sup>c</sup> 24 At that she said to him: "I am the daughter of Be-thu'el<sup>d</sup> the son of Mil'cah, whom she bore to Na'hor."<sup>e</sup>

25 And she said further to him: "There is both straw and much fodder with us, also a place to spend the night."<sup>f</sup> 26 And the man proceeded to bow down and prostrate himself before Jehovah<sup>g</sup> 27 and say: "Blessed be Jehovah<sup>h</sup> the God of my master Abraham, who has not left his loving-kindness and his trustworthiness toward my master. I being on the way, Jehovah has led me to the house of the brothers of my master."<sup>i</sup>

28 And the young woman went running and telling the household of her mother about these things. 29 Now Rebekah had a brother and his name was La'ban.<sup>j</sup> So La'ban went running to the man who was outside at the fountain. 30 And it came about that on seeing the nose ring and the bracelets<sup>k</sup> on the hands of his sister and on hearing the words of Rebekah his sister, saying: "This is the way the man spoke to me," then he came to the man and there he was, standing by the camels at the fountain. 31 At once he said: "Come, you blessed one of Jehovah.<sup>l</sup> Why do you keep standing out here, when I myself have made the house ready and room for the camels?" 32 With that the man came on into the house, and he went unharnessing the camels and giving straw and fodder to the camels and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him.<sup>a</sup>

33 Then something to eat was set before him, but he said: "I shall not eat until I have spoken about my matters." Hence he said: "Speak!"<sup>b</sup>

34 Then he went on to say: "I am Abraham's servant."<sup>c</sup>

35 And Jehovah has blessed my master very much in that he goes on making him greater and giving him sheep and cattle and silver and gold and menservants and maidservants and camels and asses.<sup>d</sup>

36 Further, Sarah the wife of my master bore a son to my master after her growing old;<sup>e</sup> and he will give him everything he has.<sup>f</sup> 37 So my master made me swear, saying, "You must not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites in whose land I am dwelling."<sup>g</sup>

38 No, but you will go to the house of my father and to my family<sup>h</sup> and you must take a wife for my son.<sup>i</sup> 39 But I said to my master, "What if the woman will not come with me?"<sup>j</sup>

40 Then he said to me, "Jehovah, before whom I have walked,<sup>k</sup> will send his angel<sup>l</sup> with you and will certainly give success to your way;<sup>m</sup> and you must take a wife for my son from my family and from the house of my father."<sup>n</sup> 41 At that time you will be cleared of obligation to me by oath when you get to my family, and if they will not give her to you, then you shall become free of obligation to me by oath.<sup>o</sup>

me: "Both you take a drink, and I shall also draw water for your camels," she is the woman whom Jehovah has assigned for the son of my master.<sup>a</sup>

45 "Before I was finished speaking<sup>b</sup> in my heart,<sup>c</sup> why, there was Re-bek'ah coming out, with her jar upon her shoulder; and she made her way down to the fountain and began to draw water.<sup>d</sup> Then I said to her, 'Give me a drink, please.'<sup>e</sup> 46 So she quickly lowered her jar from off her and said, 'Take a drink,' and I shall also water your camels.'

Then I took a drink, and she also watered the camels. 47 After that I asked her and said, 'Whose daughter are you?'<sup>f</sup> to which she said, 'The daughter of Be-thu'-el the son of Na'hor, whom Mil'-cah bore to him.'<sup>g</sup> Accordingly I put the nose ring on her nostril and the bracelets on her hands.<sup>h</sup>

48 And I proceeded to bow down and prostrate myself before Jehovah and bless Jehovah the God of my master Abraham,<sup>i</sup> who had led me in the true way<sup>j</sup> to take the daughter of the brother of my master for his son. 49 And now if you are actually exercising loving-kindness and trustworthiness toward my master,<sup>k</sup> tell me; but if not, tell me, that I may turn to the right hand or to the left."<sup>l</sup>

50 Then La'ban and Be-thu'-el answered and said: "From Jehovah this thing has issued.<sup>m</sup> We are unable to speak bad or good to you.<sup>n</sup> 51 Here is Re-bek'ah before you. Take her and go, and let her become a wife to the son of your master, just as Jehovah has spoken."<sup>o</sup> 52 And it came about that when Abraham's servant had heard their words, he at once prostrated himself on the earth before Jehovah.<sup>p</sup> 53 And the servant began to bring out articles of silver and articles of gold and garments and to give them to Re-bek'ah; and he gave choice things to her brother and to her mother.<sup>a</sup> 54 After that they ate and drank, he and the men who were with him, and they spent the night there and got up in the morning.

Then he said: "SEND me off to my master."<sup>b</sup> 55 To this her brother and her mother said: "Let the young woman stay with us at least ten days. Afterward she can go." 56 But he said to them: "Do not detain me, seeing that Jehovah has given success to my way.<sup>c</sup> Send me off, that I may go to my master."<sup>d</sup> 57 So they said: "Let us call the young woman and inquire at her mouth."<sup>e</sup> 58 Then they called Re-bek'ah and said to her: "Will you go with this man?" In turn she said: "I am willing to go."<sup>f</sup>

59 At that they sent off Re-bek'ah<sup>g</sup> their sister and her nurse<sup>h</sup> and Abraham's servant and his men. 60 And they began to bless Re-bek'ah and say to her: "O you, our sister, may you become thousands times ten thousand, and let your seed take possession of the gate of those who hate it."<sup>i</sup> 61 After that Re-bek'ah and her lady attendants<sup>j</sup> rose and they went riding on the camels<sup>k</sup> and following the man; and the servant took Re-bek'ah and got on his way.

62 Now Isaac had come from the way that goes to Be'er-la-hai-roi,<sup>l</sup> for he was dwelling in the land of the Neg'eb.<sup>m</sup> 63 And Isaac was out walking in order to meditate<sup>n</sup> in the field at about the falling of evening. When he raised his eyes and looked, why, there camels were coming!<sup>o</sup> 64 When Re-bek'ah raised her eyes, she caught sight of Isaac and she swung herself down from off the camel. 65 Then she said to the servant: "Who is that man there walking in the field to meet us?" and the servant said: "It is my master." proceeded to take a headcloth and to cover herself.<sup>a</sup> 66 And the servant went relating to Isaac all the things he had done. 67 After that Isaac brought her into the tent of Sarah his mother.<sup>b</sup> Thus he took Re-bek'ah and she became his wife;<sup>c</sup> and he fell in love with her,<sup>d</sup> and Isaac found comfort after the loss of his mother.<sup>e</sup>

25 Furthermore, Abraham again took a wife, and her name was Ke-tu'rah.<sup>f</sup> 2 In time she bore him Zim'ran and Jok'shan and Me'dan and Mid'i-an<sup>g</sup> and Ish'bak and Shu'ah.<sup>h</sup>

3 And Jok'shan became father to She'ba<sup>i</sup> and De'dan.<sup>j</sup>

And the sons of De'dan became As-shu'rim and Le-tu'shim and Le-um'mim.

4 And the sons of Mid'i-an were E'phah<sup>k</sup> and E'pher and Ha'noch and A-bi'da and El-da'-ah.<sup>l</sup>

All these were the sons of Ke-tu'-rah.

5 Later on Abraham gave everything he had to Isaac,<sup>m</sup> 6 but to the sons of the concubines that Abraham had Abraham gave gifts.<sup>n</sup> Then he sent them away from Isaac his son,<sup>o</sup> while he was still alive, eastward, to the land of the East.<sup>p</sup> 7 And these are the days of the years of Abraham's life which he lived, a hundred and seventy-five years. 8 Then Abraham expired and died in a good old age, old and satisfied, and was gathered to his people.<sup>q</sup> 9 So Isaac and Ish'-ma-el his sons buried him in the cave of Mach-pe'lah in the field of E'phron the son of Zo'har the Hit'tite that is in front of Mam'-re,<sup>r</sup> 10 the field that Abraham had purchased from the sons of Heth. There Abraham was buried, and also Sarah his wife.<sup>s</sup> 11 And it developed that after Abraham's death God continued to bless Isaac his son,<sup>t</sup> and Isaac was dwelling close by Be'er-lai-hai-roi.<sup>a</sup>

19 And this is the history of Isaac the son of Abraham.<sup>p</sup>

Abraham became father to Isaac. 20 And Isaac happened to be forty years old at his taking Re-bek'ah the daughter of Be-thu-el<sup>q</sup> the Syrian<sup>r</sup> of Pad'dan-a-ram, the sister of La'ban the Syrian, as his wife. 21 And Isaac kept on entreating Jehovah especially for his wife,<sup>s</sup> because she was barren;<sup>t</sup> so Jeho-vah let himself be entreated for him,<sup>u</sup> and Re-bek'ah his wife became pregnant. 22 And the sons within her began to struggle with each other,<sup>v</sup> so that she said: "If this is the way it is, just why am I alive?" With that she went to inquire of Jehovah.<sup>w</sup> 23 And Jehovah proceeded to say to her: "Two nations are in your belly,<sup>x</sup> and two national groups will be separated from your inward parts;<sup>a</sup> and the one national group will be stronger than the other national group,<sup>b</sup> and the older will serve the younger."<sup>c</sup>

27 And the boys got bigger, and E'sau became a man knowing how to hunt,<sup>i</sup> a man of the field, but Jacob a blameless man,<sup>j</sup> dwelling in tents.<sup>k</sup> 28 And Isaac had love for E'sau, because it meant game in his mouth, whereas Re-bek'ah was a lover of Jacob.<sup>l</sup> 29 Once Jacob was boiling up some stew, when E'sau came along from the field and he was tired. 30 So E'sau said to Jacob: "Quick, please, give me a swallow of the red—the red there, for I am tired!" That is why his name was called E'dom.<sup>m</sup> 31 To this Jacob said: "Sell me, first of all, your right as firstborn!"<sup>n</sup> 32 And E'sau continued: "Here I am simply going to die, and of what benefit to me is a birthright?" 33 And Jacob added: "Swear to me first of all!"<sup>o</sup> And he proceeded to swear to him and to sell his right as firstborn to Jacob.<sup>p</sup> 34 And Jacob gave E'sau bread and lentil stew, and he went to eating and drinking.<sup>q</sup> Then he got up and went his way. So E'sau despised the birthright.<sup>r</sup>

26 Now there arose a famine in the land, besides the first famine that occurred in the days of Abraham,<sup>s</sup> so that Isaac directed himself to A-bim'e-lech, king of the Phi-lis'tines, to Ge'- rar.<sup>a</sup> 2 Then Jehovah appeared to him and said:<sup>b</sup> "Do not go down to Egypt. Tabernacle in the land that I designate to you.<sup>c</sup> 3 Reside as an alien in this land,<sup>d</sup> and I shall continue with you and bless you, because to you and to your seed I shall give all these lands,<sup>e</sup> and I will carry out the sworn statement that I swore to Abraham your father,<sup>f</sup>

4 'And I will multiply your seed like the stars of the heavens and I will give to your seed all these lands;<sup>g</sup> and by means of your seed all nations of the earth will certainly bless themselves,<sup>h</sup> 5 due to the fact that Abraham listened to my voice and continued to keep his obligations to me, my commands, my statutes, and my laws."<sup>i</sup> 6 So Isaac went on dwelling at Ge'rar.<sup>j</sup>

7 Well, the men of the place kept asking with respect to his wife, and he would say: "She is my sister."<sup>k</sup> For he was afraid to say "My wife" for fear that, to quote him, "the men of the place should kill me because of Re-bek'ah," because she was attractive in appearance.<sup>l</sup> 8 So it came about that as his days there extended themselves
A-bim'e-lech, king of the Phi-lis'- tines, was looking out of the window and taking in the sight, and there was Isaac having a good time with Re-bek'ah his wife.<sup>m</sup> 9 At once A-bim'e-lech called Isaac and said: "Why, she is no other than your wife! So how is it that you said, 'She is my sister'?" At this Isaac said to him:
"I said it for fear I should die on her account."<sup>n</sup> 10 But A-bim'- e-lech continued: "What is this you have done to us?"<sup>o</sup> A little more and certainly one of the people would have lain down with your wife, and you would have brought guilt upon us!"<sup>p</sup> 11 Then A-bim'e-lech command-body touching this man and his wife will surely be put to death!"

12 Afterward Isaac began to sow seed in that land,<sup>a</sup> and in that year he was getting up to a hundred measures to one,<sup>b</sup> as Jehovah was blessing him.<sup>c</sup> 13 Consequently the man became great and went on advancing more and more and growing great until he got very great.<sup>d</sup> 14 And he came to have flocks of sheep and herds of cattle and a large body of servants,<sup>e</sup> so that the Phi-lis'tines began to envy him.<sup>f</sup>

15 As for all the wells that the servants of his father had dug in the days of Abraham his father,<sup>g</sup> these the Phi-lis'tines stopped up and they would fill them with dry earth.<sup>h</sup> 16 Finally A-bim'e-lech said to Isaac: "Move from our neighborhood, because you have grown far stronger than we are."<sup>i</sup>

17 So Isaac moved from there and encamped in the torrent valley of Ge'rar<sup>j</sup> and took up dwelling there. 18 And Isaac proceeded to dig again the wells of water that they had dug in the days of Abraham his father but which the Phi-lis'tines went stopping up after Abraham's death;<sup>k</sup> and he resumed calling their names by the names that his father had called them.<sup>l</sup>

19 And the servants of Isaac went on digging in the torrent valley and so they found there a well of fresh water. 20 And the shepherds of Ge'rar fell to quarreling with the shepherds of Isaac,<sup>m</sup> saying: "The water is ours!" Hence he called the name of the well E'sek, because they had contended with him.
21 And they went digging another well, and they fell to quarreling over it also. Hence he called its name Sit'nah. 22 Later he moved away from there and dug another well,<sup>n</sup> but they did not quarrel over it. Hence he called its name Re-ho'both and said: "It is because now Jehovah has given us ample room<sup>a</sup> and has made us fruitful in the earth.”<sup>b</sup>

23 Then he went up from there to Be'er-she'ba.<sup>c</sup> 24 And Jehovah proceeded to appear to him during that night and to say: “I am the God of Abraham your father.<sup>d</sup> Do not be afraid,<sup>e</sup> because I am with you, and I will bless you and multiply your seed on account of Abraham my servant.”<sup>f</sup> 25 Accordingly he built an altar there and called on the name of Jehovah<sup>g</sup> and pitched his tent there,<sup>h</sup> and the servants of Isaac went excavating a well there.

26 Later on A-bim'e-lech came to him from Ge'rar with A-buz'zath his confidential friend and Phi'col the chief of his army.<sup>i</sup> 27 At this Isaac said to them: “Why have you come to me, seeing that you yourselves hated me and so sent me away from your neighborhood?”<sup>j</sup> 28 To this they said: “We have unmistakably seen that Jehovah has proved to be with you.<sup>k</sup> Hence we said, ‘Let, please, an oath of obligation occur between us,<sup>l</sup> between us and you, and let us conclude a covenant with you,<sup>m</sup> 29 that you will do nothing bad toward us just as we have not touched you and just as we have done only good toward you in that we sent you away in peace.<sup>n</sup> You now are the blessed of Jehovah.’”<sup>o</sup> 30 Then he made a feast for them and they ate and drank.<sup>p</sup> 31 Next morning they were early in rising and they made sworn statements one to the other.<sup>q</sup> After that Isaac sent them away and they went from him in peace.<sup>r</sup>

32 Now on that day it occurred that the servants of Isaac proceeded to come and report to him regarding the well that they had dug,<sup>s</sup> and to say to him: “We have found water!” 33 Hence he called its name

Shi'bah. That is why the name of the city is Be'er-she'ba,<sup>a</sup> down to this day.

34 And E'sau grew to be forty years old. Then he took as wife Ju'dith the daughter of Be'e'ri the Hit'tite and also Bas'e-math the daughter of E'lon the Hit'tite.<sup>b</sup> 35 And they were a source of bitterness of spirit to Isaac and Re-bek'ah.<sup>c</sup>

27 Now it came about that when Isaac was old and his eyes were too dim to see<sup>d</sup> he then called E'sau his older son and said to him:<sup>e</sup> “My son!” at which he said to him: “Here I am!” 2 And he went on to say: “Here, now, I have become old.<sup>f</sup> I do not know the day of my death.<sup>g</sup> 3 So at this time take, please, your implements, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field and hunt some venison for me.<sup>h</sup> 4 Then make me a tasty dish such as I am fond of and bring it to me and, ah, let me eat, in order that my soul may bless you before I die.”<sup>i</sup>

5 However, Re-bek'ah was listening while Isaac spoke to E'sau his son. And E'sau went on out into the field to hunt game and to bring it in.<sup>j</sup> 6 And Re-bek'-ah said to Jacob her son:<sup>k</sup> “Here I just heard your father speaking to E'sau your brother, saying, 7 ‘Bring me some game and make me a tasty dish and, ah, let me eat, that I may bless you before Jehovah before my death.’<sup>l</sup> 8 And now, my son, listen to my voice in what I am commanding you.<sup>m</sup> 9 Go, please, to the herd and get me from there two kids of the goats, good ones, that I may make them up into a tasty dish for your father such as he is fond of. 10 Then you must bring it to your father and he must eat it, in order that he may bless you before his death.”

11 And Jacob proceeded to say to Re-bek'ah his mother:

"But E'sau my brother is a hairy man and I am a smooth man."<sup>a</sup> 12 What if my father feels me?<sup>b</sup> Then I shall certainly become in his eyes like one making a mockery,<sup>c</sup> and I shall certainly bring upon myself a malediction and not a blessing."<sup>d</sup> 13 At this his mother said to him: "Upon me be the malediction meant for you, my son.<sup>e</sup> Only listen to my voice and go, get them for me."<sup>f</sup> 14 Accordingly he went and got them and brought them to his mother, and his mother made a tasty dish such as his father was fond of. 15 After that Rebek'ah took garments of E'sau her older son,<sup>g</sup> the most desirable ones which were with her in the house,<sup>h</sup> and put them on Jacob her younger son.<sup>i</sup> 16 And the skins of the kids of the goats she put upon his hands and upon the hairless part of his neck.<sup>j</sup> 17 Then she gave the tasty dish and the bread that she had made into the hand of Jacob her son.<sup>k</sup> 18 So he went on in to his father and said: "My father!" to which he said: "Here I am! Who are you, my son?" 19 And Jacob went on to say to his father: "I am E'sau your firstborn.<sup>l</sup> I have done just as you have spoken to me. Raise yourself up, please. Sit down and eat some of my game, in order that your soul may bless me."<sup>m</sup> 20 At that Isaac said to his son: "How is it that you have been so quick in finding it, my son?" In turn he said: "Because Jehovah your God caused it to meet up with me."<sup>n</sup> 21 Then Isaac said to Jacob: "Come near, please, that I may feel you, my son, to know whether you are really my son E'sau or not."<sup>o</sup> 22 So Jacob came near to Isaac his father, and he went feeling him, after which he said: "The voice is the voice of Jacob, but the hands are the hands of E'sau."<sup>p</sup> 23 And he did not recognize him, because his hands proved to be hairy like the hands of E'sau his brother. Hence he blessed him.<sup>a</sup>

24 After that he said: "You are really my son E'sau?" to which he said: "I am."<sup>b</sup> 25 Then he said: "Bring it near to me that I may eat some of the game of my son, to the end that my soul may bless you."<sup>c</sup> With that he brought it near to him and he began to eat, and he brought him wine and he began to drink. 26 Then Isaac his father said to him: "Come near, please, and kiss me, my son."<sup>d</sup> 27 So he came near and kissed him, and he could smell the scent of his garments.<sup>e</sup> And he proceeded to bless him and to say:

"See, the scent of my son is like the scent of the field which Jehovah has blessed. 28 And may the true God give you the dew of the heavens<sup>f</sup> and the fertile soils of the earth<sup>g</sup> and an abundance of grain and new wine.<sup>h</sup> 29 Let peoples serve you and let national groups bow low to you.<sup>i</sup> Become master over your brothers, and let the sons of your mother bow low to you.<sup>j</sup> Cursed be each one of those cursing you, and blessed be each one of those blessing you."<sup>k</sup>

30 Now it came about as soon as Isaac had finished blessing Jacob, yes, it indeed came about when Jacob had barely come out from before the face of Isaac his father, that E'sau his brother came back from his hunting.<sup>l</sup> 31 And he too went about making a tasty dish. Then he brought it to his father and said to his father: "Let my father get up and eat some of his son's game, in order that your soul may bless me."<sup>m</sup> 32 At this Isaac his father said to him: "Who are you?" to which he said: "I am your son, your firstborn, E'sau."<sup>n</sup> 33 And Isaac began to shake with a great trembling in extreme measure, and so he said: "Who, then, was it that hunted for game and came bringing it to me, so that I ate of everything before you could come in and I blessed him? Blessed too he will become!"<sup>a</sup>

34 On hearing his father's words E'sau began to cry out in an extremely loud and bitter manner and to say to his father:<sup>b</sup> "Bless me, even me too, my father!"<sup>c</sup> 35 But he went on to say: "Your brother came with deception that he might get the blessing meant for you."<sup>d</sup> 36 At this he said: "Is that not why his name is called Jacob, in that he should supplant me these two times?"<sup>e</sup> My birthright he has already taken,<sup>f</sup> and here at this time he has taken my blessing!"<sup>g</sup> Then he added: "Have you not reserved a blessing for me?" 37 But in answer to E'sau Isaac continued: "Here I have appointed him master over you,<sup>h</sup> and all his brothers I have given to him as servants,<sup>i</sup> and grain and new wine I have bestowed for his support,<sup>j</sup> and where is there anything I can do for you, my son?"

38 Then E'sau said to his father: "Is there just one blessing that you have, my father? Bless me, even me too, my father!"<sup>k</sup> With that E'sau raised his voice and burst into tears.<sup>l</sup> 39 So in answer Isaac his father said to him:

"Behold, away from the fertile soils of the earth your dwelling will be found, and away from the dew of the heavens above."<sup>m</sup> 40 And by your sword you will live,<sup>n</sup> and your brother you will serve.<sup>o</sup> But it will certainly occur that, when you grow restless, you will indeed break his yoke off your neck."<sup>p</sup>

days of the period of mourning for my father are getting closer.<sup>a</sup> After that I am going to kill Jacob my brother."<sup>b</sup> 42 When the words of E'sau her older son were told to Re-bek'ah, she at once sent and called Jacob her younger son and said to him: "Look! E'sau your brother is comforting himself in regard to you—to kill you."<sup>c</sup> 43 Now, then, my son, listen to my voice and get up,<sup>d</sup> run away to La'ban my brother at Ha'ran.<sup>e</sup> 44 And you must dwell with him for some days until the rage of your brother calms down,<sup>f</sup> 45 until the anger of your brother turns away from you and he has forgotten what you have done to him.<sup>g</sup> And I shall certainly send and get you from there. Why should I be bereaved also of both of you in one day?"

46 After that Re-bek'ah kept saying to Isaac: "I have come to abhor this life of mine because of the daughters of Heth.<sup>h</sup> If Jacob ever takes a wife from the daughters of Heth like these from the daughters of the land, of what good is life to me?"<sup>i</sup>

28 Consequently Isaac called Jacob and blessed him and commanded him and said to him: "You must not take a wife from the daughters of Ca'naan.<sup>j</sup> 2 Get up, go to Pad'dan-a'ram to the house of Be-thu'el the father of your mother and from there take yourself a wife from the daughters of La'ban the brother of your mother.<sup>k</sup> 3 And God Almighty will bless you and make you fruitful and multiply you, and you will certainly become a congregation of peoples.<sup>l</sup> 4 And he will give to you the blessing of Abraham,<sup>m</sup> to you and to your seed with you,<sup>n</sup> that you may take possession of the land of your alien residences,<sup>o</sup> which God has given to Abraham."<sup>p</sup>

5 So Isaac sent Jacob away, and he struck out for Pad'dan-a'ram, for La'ban the son of Be-thu'el the Syrian,<sup>a</sup> the brother of Re-bek'ah,<sup>b</sup> mother of Jacob and E'sau.<sup>c</sup>

6 When E'sau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and had sent him away to Pad'dan-a'ram to take from there a wife for himself, and that when he blessed him he laid the command upon him, saying: "Do not take a wife from the daughters of Ca'naan";<sup>d</sup> 7 and that Jacob was obeying his father and his mother and was on his way to Pad'dan-a'ram;<sup>e</sup> 8 then E'sau saw that the daughters of Ca'naan were displeasing in the eyes of Isaac his father.<sup>f</sup> 9 Hence E'sau went to Ish'ma-el and took as wife Ma'ha-lath the daughter of Ish'ma-el the son of Abraham, the sister of Ne-ba'-ioth, besides his other wives.<sup>g</sup>

10 And Jacob continued on his way out from Be'er-she'ba and kept going to Ha'ran.<sup>h</sup> 11 In time he came across a place and set about spending the night there because the sun had set. So he took one of the stones of the place and set it as his head supporter and lay down in that place.<sup>i</sup> 12 And he began to dream,<sup>j</sup> and, look! there was a ladder stationed upon the earth and its top reaching up to the heavens; and, look! there were God's angels ascending and descending on it.<sup>k</sup> 13 And, look! there was Jehovah stationed above it, and he proceeded to say:<sup>l</sup>

"I am Jehovah the God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac.<sup>m</sup> The land upon which you are lying, to you I am going to give it and to your seed.<sup>n</sup>

14 And your seed will certainly become like the dust particles of the earth,<sup>o</sup> and you will certainly spread abroad to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south,<sup>p</sup> and by means of you and by means of your seed all the families of the ground will certainly bless themselves.<sup>a</sup>

15 And here I am with you and I will keep you in all the way you are going and I will return you to this ground,<sup>b</sup> because I am not going to leave you until I have actually done what I have spoken to you."<sup>c</sup>

16 Then Jacob awoke from his sleep and said: "Truly Jehovah is in this place and I myself did not know it." 17 And he grew fearful and added:<sup>d</sup> "How fear-inspiring this place is!"<sup>e</sup> This is nothing else but the house of God<sup>f</sup> and this is the gate of the heavens." 18 So Jacob got up early in the morning and took the stone that was there as his head supporter and he set it up as a pillar and poured oil on the top of it.<sup>g</sup> 19 Further, he called the name of that place Beth'el;<sup>h</sup> but the fact is, Luz was the city's name formerly.<sup>i</sup>

20 And Jacob went on to vow a vow,<sup>j</sup> saying: "If God will continue with me and will certainly keep me on this way on which I am going and will certainly give me bread to eat and garments to wear<sup>k</sup> 21 and I shall certainly return in peace to the house of my father, then Jehovah will have proved to be my God.<sup>l</sup> 22 And this stone that I have set up as a pillar will become a house of God,<sup>m</sup> and as for everything that you will give me I shall without fail give the tenth of it to you."<sup>n</sup>

29 After that Jacob set his feet in motion and traveled on to the land of the Orientals.<sup>o</sup>

2 Now he looked, and here there was a well in the field and here three droves of sheep were lying down there by it, because from that well they were accustomed to water the droves;<sup>p</sup> and there was a great stone over the mouth of the well.<sup>q</sup> 3 When all the droves had been gathered there, they rolled away the stone from off the mouth of the well, and they watered the flocks, after which they returned the stone over the mouth of the well to its place.

4 So Jacob said to them: "My brothers, from what place are you?" to which they said: "We are from Ha'ran."<sup>a</sup> 5 Then he said to them: "Do you know La'ban<sup>b</sup> the grandson of Na'hor?"<sup>c</sup> to which they said: "We know him." 6 At this he said to them: "Is it all right with him?"<sup>d</sup> In turn they said: "It is all right. And here is Rachel<sup>e</sup> his daughter coming with the sheep!"<sup>f</sup> 7 And he went on to say: "Why, it is yet full day. It is not the time for gathering the herds. WATER the sheep, then go feed them."<sup>g</sup> 8 To this they said: "We are not allowed to do so until all the droves are gathered and they actually roll away the stone from off the mouth of the well. Then we must water the sheep."

9 While he was yet speaking with them, Rachel<sup>h</sup> came with the sheep that belonged to her father, for she was a shepherdess.<sup>i</sup> 10 And it came about that when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of La'ban his mother's brother and the sheep of La'ban his mother's brother, Jacob immediately approached and rolled away the stone from off the mouth of the well and watered the sheep of La'ban his mother's brother.<sup>j</sup> 11 Then Jacob kissed<sup>k</sup> Rachel and raised his voice and burst into tears.<sup>l</sup> 12 And Jacob began to tell Rachel that he was the brother<sup>m</sup> of her father and that he was the son of Re-bek'ah. And she went running and telling her father.<sup>n</sup>

13 Now it came about that as soon as La'ban heard the report about Jacob the son of his sister, he went running to meet him.<sup>o</sup> Then he embraced him and kissed him and brought him on into his house.<sup>a</sup> And he began to relate to La'ban all these things.

14 After that La'ban said to him: "You are indeed my bone and my flesh."<sup>b</sup> So he dwelt with him a full month.

15 After that La'ban said to Jacob: "Are you my brother,<sup>c</sup> and must you serve me for nothing?<sup>d</sup> Tell me, What are your wages to be?"<sup>e</sup> 16 As it was, La'ban had two daughters. The name of the older was Le'ah<sup>f</sup> and the name of the younger Rachel. 17 But the eyes of Le'ah had no luster, whereas Rachel<sup>g</sup> had become beautiful in form and beautiful of countenance.<sup>h</sup> 18 And Jacob was in love with Rachel. So he said: "I am willing to serve you seven years for Rachel your younger daughter."<sup>i</sup> 19 To this La'ban said: "It is better for me to give her to you than for me to give her to another man.<sup>j</sup> Keep dwelling with me." 20 And Jacob proceeded to serve seven years for Rachel,<sup>k</sup> but in his eyes they proved to be like some few days because of his love for her.<sup>l</sup>

21 Then Jacob said to La'ban: "Give over my wife, because my days are up, and let me have relations with her."<sup>m</sup> 22 With that La'ban gathered all the men of the place and made a feast.<sup>n</sup> 23 But it turned out that during the evening he resorted to taking Le'ah his daughter and bringing her to him that he might have relations with her. 24 Moreover, La'ban gave to her Zil'pah<sup>o</sup> his maidservant, even to Le'ah his daughter, as a maidservant. 25 So it followed in the morning that here it was Le'ah! Consequently he said to La'ban: "What is this you have done to me? Was it not for Rachel that I served with you? So why have you tricked me?"<sup>p</sup> 26 To this La'ban said: "It is not customary to do this way in our place, to give the younger woman before the firstborn. 27 Celebrate<sup>q</sup> to

After that there shall be given to you also this other woman for the service that you can serve with me for seven years more."<sup>a</sup> 28 Accordingly Jacob did so and celebrated fully the week of this woman, after which he gave him Rachel his daughter as his wife. 29 Besides, La'ban gave Bil'hah<sup>b</sup> his maidservant to Rachel his daughter as her maidservant.

30 Then he had relations also with Rachel and also expressed more love for Rachel than for Le'ah,<sup>c</sup> and he went serving with him for yet seven years more.<sup>d</sup> 31 When Jehovah came to see that Le'ah was hated, he then opened her womb,<sup>e</sup> but Rachel was barren.<sup>f</sup> 32 And Le'ah became pregnant and brought a son to birth and then called his name Reu'ben,<sup>g</sup> for she said: "It is because Jehovah has looked upon my wretchedness,<sup>h</sup> in that now my husband will begin to love me." 33 And she became pregnant again and brought a son to birth and then said: "It is because Jehovah has listened,<sup>i</sup> in that I was hated and so he gave me also this one." Hence she called his name Sim'e-on.<sup>j</sup> 34 And she became pregnant yet again and brought a son to birth and then said: "Now this time my husband will join himself to me, because I have borne him three sons." His name was therefore called Le'vi.<sup>k</sup> 35 And she became pregnant once more and brought a son to birth and then said: "This time I shall laud Jehovah." She therefore called his name Judah.<sup>l</sup> After that she left off giving birth.

cob's anger burned against Rachel and he said:<sup>a</sup> "Am I in the place of God, who has held back the fruit of the belly from you?"<sup>b</sup> 3 So she said: "Here is my slave girl Bil'hah.<sup>c</sup> Have relations with her, that she may give birth upon my knees and that I, even I, may get children from her."<sup>d</sup> 4 With that she gave him Bil'hah her maidservant as wife, and Jacob had relations with her.<sup>e</sup> 5 And Bil'hah became pregnant and in time bore Jacob a son.<sup>f</sup> 6 Then Rachel said: "God has acted as my judge<sup>g</sup> and has also listened to my voice, so that he gave me a son." That is why she called his name Dan.<sup>h</sup> 7 And Bil'hah, Rachel's maidservant, became pregnant once more and in time bore a second son to Jacob. 8 Then Rachel said: "With strenuous wrestlings I have wrestled with my sister. I have also come off winner!" So she called his name Naph'ta-li.<sup>i</sup>

9 When Le'ah came to see that she had left off giving birth, she proceeded to take Zil'pah her maidservant and to give her to Jacob as wife.<sup>j</sup> 10 In time Zil'pah, Le'ah's maidservant, bore a son to Jacob. 11 Then Le'ah said: "With good fortune!" So she called his name Gad.<sup>k</sup> 12 After that Zil'pah, Le'ah's maidservant, bore a second son to Jacob. 13 Then Le'ah said: "With my happiness! For the daughters will certainly pronounce me happy."<sup>l</sup> So she called his name Ash'er.<sup>m</sup>

14 Now Reu'ben<sup>n</sup> went walking in the days of the wheat harvest<sup>o</sup> and got to find mandrakes in the field. So he brought them to Le'ah his mother. Then Rachel said to Le'ah: "Give me, please, some of your son's mandrakes."<sup>p</sup> 15 At this she said to her: "Is this a little thing, your having taken my husband,<sup>a</sup> with your now taking also my son's mandrakes?" So Rachel said: "For that reason he is going to lie down with you tonight in exchange for your son's mandrakes."

16 When Jacob was coming from the field in the evening,<sup>b</sup> Le'ah went on out to meet him and then said: "It is with me you are going to have relations, because I have hired you outright with my son's mandrakes." Accordingly he lay down with her that night.<sup>c</sup> 17 And God heard and answered Le'ah and she became pregnant and in time bore to Jacob a fifth son.<sup>d</sup> 18 Then Le'ah said: "God has given me a hireling's wages, because I have given my maidservant to my husband." So she called his name Is'sa-char.<sup>e</sup> 19 And Le'ah became pregnant once more and in time bore a sixth son to Jacob.<sup>f</sup> 20 Then Le'ah said: "God has endowed me, yes, me, with a good endowment. At last my husband will tolerate me,<sup>g</sup> because I have borne him six sons."<sup>h</sup> So she called his name Zeb'u-lun.<sup>i</sup> 21 And afterward she bore a daughter and then called her name Di'nah.<sup>j</sup>

22 Finally God remembered Rachel, and God heard and answered her in that he opened her womb.<sup>k</sup> 23 And she became pregnant and brought a son to birth. Then she said: "God has taken away my reproach!"<sup>l</sup> 24 So she called his name Joseph,<sup>m</sup> saying: "Jehovah is adding another son to me."

27 Then La'ban said to him: "If, now, I have found favor in your eyes,—I have taken the omens to the effect that Jehovah is blessing me due to you."<sup>a</sup> 28 And he added: "Stipulate your wages to me and I shall give them."<sup>b</sup> 29 So he said to him: "You yourself must know how I have served you and how your herd has fared with me;<sup>c</sup> 30 that it was little that you actually had before my coming, and it went expanding to a multitude, in that Jehovah blessed you since I stepped in.<sup>d</sup> So now when am I to do something also for my own house?"<sup>e</sup>

31 Then he said: "What shall I give you?" And Jacob went on to say: "You will give me nothing whatsoever!<sup>f</sup> If you will do this thing for me, I shall resume shepherding your flock.<sup>g</sup> I shall continue guarding it.<sup>h</sup> 32 I will pass among your whole flock to-day. You set aside from there every sheep speckled and with color patches, and every dark-brown sheep among the young rams and any color-patched and speckled one among the she-goats. Hereafter such must be my wages.<sup>i</sup> 33 And my right-doing must answer for me on whatever future day you may come to look over my wages;<sup>j</sup> every one that is not speckled and color-patched among the she-goats and dark brown among the young rams is something stolen if it is with me."<sup>k</sup>

34 To this La'ban said: "Why, that is fine! Let it be according to your word."<sup>l</sup> 35 Then he set aside on that day the he-goats striped and color-patched and all the she-goats speckled and color-patched, every one in which there was any white and every one dark brown among the young rams, but he gave them over into the hands of his sons. 36 After that he set a distance of three days' journey between himself and Jacob, and Jacob was shepherding the flocks of La'ban that remained over.

37 Then Jacob took for his use staffs still moist of the storax tree<sup>a</sup> and of the almond tree<sup>b</sup> and of the plane tree<sup>c</sup> and peeled in them white peeled spots by laying bare white places which were upon the staffs.<sup>d</sup> 38 Finally the staffs that he had peeled he placed in front of the flock, in the gutters, in the water drinking troughs,<sup>e</sup> where the flocks would come to drink, that they might get into a heat before them when they came to drink.

39 Consequently the flocks would get in heat before the staffs, and the flocks would produce striped, speckled and color-patched ones.<sup>f</sup> 40 And Jacob separated the young rams and then turned the faces of the flocks to the striped ones and all the dark-brown ones among the flocks of La'ban. Then he set his own droves by themselves and did not set them by the flocks of La'ban. 41 And it always occurred that whenever the robust<sup>g</sup> flocks would get in heat, Jacob would locate the staffs in the gutters<sup>h</sup> before the eyes of the flocks, that they might get in heat by the staffs. 42 But when the flocks showed feebleness he would not locate them there. So the feeble ones always came to be La'ban's, but the robust ones Jacob's.<sup>i</sup>

43 And the man went on increasing more and more, and great flocks and maidservants and menservants and camels and asses came to be his.<sup>j</sup>

31 In time he got to hear the words of the sons of La'ban, saying: "Jacob has taken everything that belonged to our father; and from what belonged to our father he has amassed all this wealth."<sup>k</sup> 2 When Jacob would look at the face of La'ban, here it was not with him as formerly.<sup>a</sup> 3 Finally Jehovah said to Jacob: "Return to the land of your fathers and to your relatives,<sup>b</sup> and I shall continue with you."<sup>c</sup> 4 Then Jacob sent and called Rachel and Le'ah out to the field to his flock, 5 and he said to them:

"I am seeing the face of YOUR father, that he is not the same toward me as formerly;<sup>d</sup> but the God of my father has proved to be with me."<sup>e</sup> 6 And you yourselves certainly know that with all my power I have served your father.<sup>f</sup> 7 And YOUR father has trifled with me and he has changed my wages ten times, but God has not allowed him to do me harm.<sup>g</sup> 8 If on the one hand he would say, 'The speckled ones will become your wages,' then the whole flock produced speckled ones; but if on the other hand he would say, 'The striped ones will become your wages,' then the whole flock produced striped ones.<sup>h</sup> 9 So God kept taking the herd of YOUR father away and giving it to me.<sup>i</sup> 10 At last it came about at the time when the flock got in heat that I raised my eyes and saw a sight in a dream<sup>j</sup> and here the he-goats springing upon the flock were striped, speckled and spotty.<sup>k</sup> 11 Then the angel of the true God said to me in the dream, 'Jacob!' to which I said, 'Here I am.'<sup>l</sup> 12 And he continued, 'Raise your eyes, please, and see all the he-goats springing upon the flock are striped, speckled and spotty, for I have seen all that La'ban is doing to you.<sup>m</sup> 13 I am the true God of Beth'el,<sup>n</sup> where you anointed a pillar<sup>o</sup> and where you vowed a vow to me.<sup>p</sup> Now get up, go out of this land and return to the land of your birth.'<sup>q</sup>

14 At this Rachel and Le'ah answered and said to him: "Is there a share of inheritance for us anymore in the house of our father?<sup>a</sup> 15 Are we not really considered as foreigners to him since he has sold us, so that he keeps eating continually even from the money given for us?<sup>b</sup> 16 For all the riches that God has taken away from our father are ours and our children's.<sup>c</sup> So now everything God has said to you do."<sup>d</sup>

17 Then Jacob got up and lifted his children and his wives onto the camels;<sup>e</sup> 18 and he began driving all his herd and all the goods that he had accumulated,<sup>f</sup> the herd of his acquisition that he had accumulated in Pad'dan-a-ram, in order to go to Isaac his father to the land of Ca'naan.<sup>g</sup>

19 Now La'ban had gone to shear his sheep. Meantime Rachel stole the teraphim<sup>h</sup> that belonged to her father. 20 So Jacob outwitted La'ban the Syrian, because he had not told him that he was running away. 21 And he proceeded to run away and to get up and cross the River,<sup>i</sup> he and all he had. After that he directed his face to the mountainous region of Gil'e-ad.<sup>j</sup> 22 Later, on the third day, it was told to La'ban that Jacob had run away. 23 With that he took his brothers with him and went chasing<sup>k</sup> after him for a distance of seven days' journey and caught up with him in the mountainous region of Gil'e-ad. 24 Then God came to La'ban the Syrian<sup>l</sup> in a dream by night<sup>m</sup> and said to him: "Watch yourself that you do not go speaking either good or bad with Jacob."<sup>n</sup>

25 So La'ban approached Jacob, as Jacob had pitched his tent in the mountain and La'ban had encamped his brothers in the mountainous region of Gil'e-ad. 26 Then La'ban said to Jacob: "What have you done, in that you resorted to outwitting me and driving my daughters off like captives taken by the sword?<sup>a</sup> 27 Why did you have to run away secretly and outwit me and not tell me, that I might send you away with rejoicing and with songs,<sup>b</sup> with tambourine and with harp?<sup>c</sup> 28 And you did not give me a chance to kiss my children and my daughters.<sup>d</sup> Now you have acted foolishly. 29 It is in the power of my hand to do harm to you people,<sup>e</sup> but the God of your father talked to me last night, saying, 'Watch yourself against speaking either good or bad with Jacob.'<sup>f</sup> 30 While you have actually gone now because you have been yearning intensely for the house of your father, why, though, have you stolen my gods?<sup>g</sup>

31 In answer Jacob proceeded to say to La'ban: "It was because I was afraid.<sup>h</sup> For I said to myself, 'You might tear your daughters away from me.' 32 Whoever it is with whom you may find your gods, let him not live.<sup>i</sup> Before our brothers, examine for yourself what is with me and take them for yourself."<sup>j</sup> But Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen them.<sup>k</sup> 33 So La'ban went on into the tent of Jacob and into the tent of Le'ah and into the tent of the two slave girls,<sup>l</sup> but did not find them. Finally he went out of Le'ah's tent and went on into Rachel's tent. 34 Now Rachel had taken the teraphim, and she resorted to putting them in the woman's saddle basket of the camel, and she kept sitting upon them. So La'ban went feeling through the whole tent, but did not find them. 35 Then she said to her father: "Do not let anger gleam in the eyes of my lord,<sup>m</sup> because I am not able to get up before you, for the customary thing with women is upon me."<sup>n</sup> So he searched on carefully, but did not find the teraphim.<sup>o</sup>

on to say to La'ban: "What is the revolt on my part,<sup>a</sup> what the sin of mine, as a reason why you have hotly pursued after me?"<sup>b</sup> 37 Now that you have felt through all my goods, what of all the goods of your house have you found?<sup>c</sup> Put it here in front of my brothers and your brothers,<sup>d</sup> and let them decide between us two.<sup>e</sup> 38 These twenty years I have been with you. Your female sheep and your she-goats did not suffer abortions,<sup>f</sup> and the rams of your flock I never ate. 39 Any animal torn to pieces I did not bring to you.<sup>g</sup> I myself would stand the loss of it. Whether one was stolen by day or was stolen by night, you would put in a claim for it from my hand.<sup>h</sup> 40 It has been my experience that by day the heat consumed me and the cold by night, and my sleep would flee from my eyes.<sup>i</sup> 41 This makes twenty years for me in your house. I have served you fourteen years for your two daughters and six years for your flock, and you kept changing my wages ten times.<sup>j</sup> 42 If the God of my father,<sup>k</sup> the God of Abraham and the Dread of Isaac,<sup>l</sup> had not proved on my side, you would now have sent me away empty-handed. My wretchedness and the toil of my hands God has seen, and so he reproved you last night.<sup>m</sup>

43 Then La'ban in answer said to Jacob: "The daughters are my daughters and the children my children and the flock my flock, and everything you are looking at is mine and my daughters'. What can I do against these today or against their children whom they have borne?" 44 And now, come, let us conclude a covenant,<sup>n</sup> I and you, and it must serve as a witness between me and you.<sup>o</sup> 45 Accordingly Jacob took a stone and set it up as a pillar.<sup>p</sup> 46 Then Jacob said to his brothers: "Pick up stones!" And they went taking stones and making a heap.<sup>a</sup> After that they ate there on the heap. 47 And La'ban began calling it Je'gar-sa-ha-du'tha, but Jacob called it Ga'e-ed.

48 And La'ban proceeded to say: "This heap is a witness between me and you today." That is why he called its name Ga'e-ed.<sup>b</sup> 49 and The Watchtower, because he said: "Let Jehovah keep watch between me and you when we are situated unseen the one from the other.<sup>c</sup> 50 If you go to afflicting my daughters<sup>d</sup> and if you go to taking wives in addition to my daughters, there is no man with us. See! God is a witness between me and you."<sup>e</sup> 51 And La'ban went on to say to Jacob: "Here is this heap and here is the pillar that I have erected between me and you. 52 This heap is a witness, and the pillar is something that bears witness,<sup>f</sup> that I will not pass this heap against you and that you will not pass this heap and this pillar against me for harm.<sup>g</sup> 53 Let the god of Abraham<sup>h</sup> and the god of Na'hor<sup>i</sup> judge between us, the god of their father." But Jacob swore by the Dread of his father Isaac.<sup>j</sup>

54 After that Jacob sacrificed a sacrifice in the mountain and invited his brothers to eat bread.<sup>k</sup> Accordingly they ate bread and passed the night in the mountain. 55 However, La'ban got up early in the morning and kissed<sup>l</sup> his children and his daughters and blessed them.<sup>m</sup> Then La'ban got on his way that he might return to his own place.<sup>n</sup>

32 And as for Jacob, he got on his way, and the angels of God now met up with him.<sup>o</sup> 2 Immediately Jacob said, when he saw them: "The camp of God this is!"<sup>p</sup> Hence he called the name of that place Ma-ha-na'im.<sup>q</sup> 3 Then Jacob sent messengers<sup>r</sup> ahead of him to E'sau his brother of the land of Se'ir,<sup>a</sup> the field of E'dom.<sup>b</sup> 4 And he commanded them, saying: "This is what you will say to my lord,<sup>c</sup> to E'sau, 'This is what your servant Jacob has said: "With La'ban I have resided as an alien and I have stayed for a long time till now."<sup>d</sup> 5 And I have come to have bulls and asses, sheep, and menservants and maidservants,<sup>e</sup> and I would like to send to notify my lord, that I may find favor in your eyes."<sup>f</sup>

6 In time the messengers returned to Jacob, saying: "We got to your brother E'sau, and he is also on his way to meet you, and four hundred men with him."<sup>g</sup> 7 And Jacob became very much afraid and grew anxious.<sup>h</sup> So he divided the people who were with him, and the flocks and the cattle and the camels into two camps.<sup>i</sup> 8 And he said: "If E'sau should come to the one camp and assault it, then there is certain to be a camp remaining to make an escape."<sup>j</sup>

9 After that Jacob said: "O God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac,<sup>k</sup> O Jehovah, you who are saying to me, 'Return to your land and to your relatives and I will deal well with you,'<sup>l</sup> 10 I am unworthy of all the loving-kindnesses and of all the faithfulness that you have exercised toward your servant,<sup>m</sup> for with but my staff I crossed this Jordan and now I have become two camps."<sup>n</sup> 11 Deliver me, I pray you,<sup>o</sup> from my brother's hand, from E'sau's hand, because I am afraid of him that he may come and certainly assault me,<sup>p</sup> mother together with children. 12 And you, you have said, 'Unquestionably I shall deal well with you and I will constitute your seed like the grains of sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.'<sup>q</sup>

13 And he kept lodging there on that night. And from what came to his hand he proceeded to take a gift for E'sau his brother:<sup>a</sup> 14 two hundred she-goats and twenty he-goats, two hundred female sheep and twenty rams, 15 thirty camels giving suck and their young ones, forty cows and ten bulls, twenty she-asses and ten full-grown asses.<sup>b</sup>

16 Then he handed over to his servants one drove after another by itself and repeatedly said to his servants: "Cross over ahead of me, and you are to set an interval between drove and drove."<sup>c</sup>

17 Further he commanded the first one, saying: "In case that E'sau my brother should meet you and ask you, saying, 'To whom do you belong, and where are you going and to whom do these ahead of you belong?'

18 then you must say, 'To your servant, to Jacob. A gift it is,<sup>d</sup> sent to my lord,<sup>e</sup> to E'sau, and look! he himself is also behind us.'<sup>f</sup> 19 And he went on to command also the second, also the third, also all those following the droves, saying: "According to this word you are to speak to E'sau on your encountering him."<sup>g</sup>

20 And you must say also, 'Here is your servant Jacob behind us.'<sup>h</sup> For he said to himself: "I may appease him by the gift going ahead of me,<sup>i</sup> and afterward I shall see his face. Perhaps he will give a kindly reception."<sup>j</sup> 21 So the gift went crossing over ahead of him, but he himself lodged that night in the camp.<sup>k</sup>

24 Finally Jacob was left by himself. Then a man began to grapple with him until the dawn ascended.<sup>q</sup> 25 When he got to see that he had not prevailed over him,<sup>a</sup> then he touched the socket of his thigh joint; and the socket of Jacob's thigh joint got out of place during his grappling with him.<sup>b</sup> 26 After that he said: "Let me go, for the dawn has ascended." To this he said: "I am not going to let you go until you first bless me."<sup>c</sup> 27 So he said to him: "What is your name?" to which he said: "Jacob."<sup>d</sup> 28 Then he said: "Your name will no longer be called Jacob but Israel,<sup>d</sup> for you have contended<sup>e</sup> with God and with men so that you at last prevailed." 29 In turn Jacob inquired and said: "Tell me, please, your name." However, he said: "Why is it that you inquire for my name?"<sup>f</sup> With that he blessed him there. 30 Hence Jacob called the name of the place Pe-ni-el,<sup>g</sup> because, to quote him, "I have seen God face to face and yet my soul was delivered."<sup>h</sup>

31 And the sun began to flash upon him as soon as he passed by Pe-nu'el, but he was limping upon his thigh.<sup>i</sup> 32 That is why the sons of Israel are not accustomed to eat the sinew of the thigh nerve, which is on the socket of the thigh joint, down to this day, because he touched the socket of Jacob's thigh joint by the sinew of the thigh nerve.<sup>j</sup>

33 In time Jacob raised his eyes and looked, and here E'sau was coming and with him four hundred men.<sup>k</sup> Consequently he divided off the children to Le'ah and to Rachel and to the two maidservants,<sup>l</sup> 2 and he put the maidservants and their children foremost<sup>m</sup> and Le'ah and her children after them<sup>n</sup> and Rachel and Joseph to the rear of them.<sup>o</sup> 3 And he himself passed on ahead of them and proceeded to bow down to the earth seven times until he got near to his brother.<sup>p</sup>

4 And E'sau went running to meet him,<sup>a</sup> and he began to embrace him<sup>b</sup> and fall upon his neck and kiss him, and they burst into tears. 5 Then he raised his eyes and saw the women and the children and said: "Who are these with you?" to which he said: "The children with whom God has favored your servant."<sup>c</sup> 6 At that the maidservants came forward, they and their children, and bowed down; 7 and Le'ah too came forward, and her children, and they bowed down, and afterward Joseph came forward, and Rachel, and they bowed down.<sup>d</sup>

8 He now said: "What do you mean by all this camp of travelers that I have met?"<sup>e</sup> To this he said: "In order to find favor in the eyes of my lord."<sup>f</sup> 9 Then E'sau said: "I have a great many, my brother.<sup>g</sup> Let continue yours what is yours." 10 However, Jacob said: "No, please. If, now, I have found favor in your eyes,<sup>h</sup> then you must take my gift at my hand, because in harmony with its purpose I have seen your face as though seeing God's face in that you received me with pleasure.<sup>i</sup> 11 Take, please, the gift conveying my blessing which was brought to you,<sup>j</sup> because God has favored me and because I have everything."<sup>k</sup> And he continued to urge him, so that he took it.<sup>l</sup>

12 Later on he said: "Let us pull out and go, and let me go in advance of you." 13 But he said to him: "My lord is aware that the children are delicate and sheep and cattle that are giving suck are in my charge,<sup>m</sup> and should they drive them too quickly for one day, then the whole flock will certainly die."<sup>n</sup> 14 Let my lord, please, pass on ahead of his servant, but may I myself continue the journey at my leisure according to the pace of the livestock<sup>o</sup> that is before me and according to the pace of the children<sup>p</sup> until I shall come to my lord at Se'ir."<sup>a</sup> 15 Then E'sau said: "Let me, please, put at your disposal some of the people who are with me." To this he said: "Why this? Let me find favor in the eyes of my lord."<sup>b</sup> 16 So on that day E'sau turned back on his way to Se'ir.

17 And Jacob pulled out for Suc'coth,<sup>c</sup> and he proceeded to build himself a house and for his herd he made booths.<sup>d</sup> That was why he called the name of the place Suc'coth.

18 In time Jacob came safe and sound to the city of She'chem,<sup>e</sup> which is in the land of Ca'naan,<sup>f</sup> while he was coming from Pad'dan-a'ram;<sup>g</sup> and he pitched camp in front of the city. 19 Then he acquired a tract of the field where he pitched his tent at the hand of the sons of Ha'mor the father of She'chem, for a hundred pieces of money.<sup>h</sup> 20 After that he set up there an altar and called it God the God of Israel.<sup>i</sup>

34 Now Di'nah the daughter of Le'ah,<sup>j</sup> whom she had borne to Jacob, used to go out to see<sup>k</sup> the daughters of the land.<sup>l</sup> 2 And She'chem the son of Ha'mor the Hi'vite,<sup>m</sup> a chieftain of the land, got to see her and then took her and lay down with her and violated her.<sup>n</sup> 3 And his soul began clinging to Di'nah the daughter of Jacob, and he fell in love with the young woman and kept speaking persuasively to the young woman. 4 Finally She'chem said to Ha'mor his father: "Get me this young lady as a wife."<sup>p</sup>

5 And Jacob heard that he had defiled Di'nah his daughter. And his sons happened to be with his herd in the field;<sup>q</sup> and Jacob kept silent until they should come in.<sup>r</sup> 6 Later Ha'mor, She'chem's father, went out to Jacob to speak with him.<sup>s</sup>

7 And the sons of Jacob came in from the field as soon as they heard of it; and the men became hurt in their feelings and they grew very angry,<sup>a</sup> because he had committed a disgraceful folly against Israel in lying down with Jacob's daughter,<sup>b</sup> where-as nothing like that ought to be done.<sup>c</sup>

8 And Ha'mor proceeded to speak with them, saying: "As for She'chem my son, his soul is attached to your daughter.<sup>d</sup> Give her, please, to him as a wife,<sup>e</sup>

9 and form marriage alliances with us.<sup>f</sup> Your daughters you are to give to us, and our daughters you are to take for yourselves.<sup>g</sup>

10 And with us you may dwell, and the land will become available for you. Dwell and carry on business in it and get settled in it."<sup>h</sup> 11 Then She'chem said to her father and to her brothers:

"Let me find favor in your eyes, and whatever you will say to me I shall give it. 12 Raise very high the marriage money and gift imposed upon me,<sup>i</sup> and I stand willing to give according to what you may say to me; only give me the young woman as a wife."

13 And Jacob's sons began to answer She'chem and Ha'mor his father with deceit and to speak so because he had defiled Di'nah their sister.<sup>j</sup> 14 And they went on to say to them: "We cannot possibly do such a thing, to give our sister to a man who has a foreskin,<sup>k</sup> because that is a reproach to us. 15 Only on this condition can we give consent to you, that you become like us, by every male of yours getting circumcised.<sup>l</sup> 16 Then we shall certainly give our daughters to you, and your daughters we shall take for ourselves, and we shall certainly dwell with you and become one people.<sup>m</sup> 17 But if you do not listen to us to get circumcised, then we will take our daughter and go."

18 And their words seemed good in the eyes of Ha'mor and in the eyes of She'chem, Ha'mor's son,<sup>a</sup> 19 and the young man did not delay to perform the condition,<sup>b</sup> because he did find delight in Jacob's daughter and he was the most honorable<sup>c</sup> of the whole house of his father.<sup>d</sup>

20 So Ha'mor and She'chem his son went to the gate of their city and began to speak to the men of their city,<sup>e</sup> saying: 21 "These men are peace-loving toward us.<sup>f</sup> Hence let them dwell in the land and carry on business in it, as the land is quite wide before them.<sup>g</sup> Their daughters we can take as wives for ourselves and our own daughters we can give to them.<sup>h</sup> 22 Only on this condition will the men give us their consent to dwell with us so as to become one people, that every male of ours gets circumcised just the way they are circumcised.<sup>i</sup> 23 Then their possessions and their wealth and all their livestock, will they not be ours?<sup>j</sup> Only let us give them our consent that they may dwell with us."<sup>k</sup> 24 Then all those going out by the gate of his city listened to Ha'mor and to She'chem his son, and all the males got circumcised, all those going out by the gate of his city.

25 However, it came about that on the third day, when they got to be aching,<sup>l</sup> the two sons of Jacob, Sim'e-on and Le'vi,<sup>m</sup> brothers of Di'nah,<sup>n</sup> proceeded to take each one his sword and to go unsuspectingly to the city and to kill every male.<sup>o</sup> 26 And Ha'mor and She'chem his son they killed with the edge of the sword.<sup>p</sup> Then they took Di'nah from She'chem's house and went on out.<sup>q</sup> 27 The other sons of Jacob attacked the fatally wounded men and went plundering the city, because they had defiled their sister.<sup>r</sup> 28 Their flocks and their herds and their asses and what was in the city and what was in the field they took.<sup>a</sup> 29 And all their means of maintenance and all their little children and their wives they carried off captive, so that they plundered all that was in the houses.<sup>b</sup>

30 At this Jacob said to Sim'e-on and to Le'vi:<sup>c</sup> "You have brought ostracism upon me in making me a stench to the inhabitants of the land,<sup>d</sup> with the Ca'naan-ites and the Per'iz-zites; whereas I am few in number,<sup>e</sup> and they will certainly gather together against me and assault me and I must be annihilated, I and my house." 31 In turn they said: "Ought anyone to treat our sister like a prostitute?"<sup>f</sup>

35 After that God said to Jacob: "Rise, go up to Beth'el and dwell there,<sup>g</sup> and make an altar there to the true God who appeared to you when you were running away from E'sau your brother."<sup>h</sup>

2 Then Jacob said to his household and to all who were with him: "Put away the foreign gods that are in the midst of you<sup>i</sup> and cleanse yourselves and change YOUR mantles,<sup>j</sup> 3 and let us rise and go up to Beth'el. And there I shall make an altar to the true God who answered me in the day of my distress<sup>k</sup> in that he proved to be with me in the way that I have gone."<sup>l</sup> 4 So they gave Jacob all the foreign gods<sup>m</sup> that were in their hands and the earrings that were in their ears, and Jacob hid<sup>n</sup> them under the big tree that was close by She'chem.

5 After that they pulled away, and the terror of God came to be upon the cities that were round about them,<sup>o</sup> so that they did not chase after the sons of Jacob. 6 Eventually Jacob came to Luz,<sup>p</sup> which is in the land of Ca'naan, that is to say, Beth'el, he and all the people who were with him. 7 Then he built an altar there and began to call the place El-beth'el, because there the true God had revealed himself to him at the time of his running away from his brother.<sup>a</sup> 8 Later Deb'o-rah<sup>b</sup> the nursing woman of Re-bek'ah died and was buried at the foot of Beth'el under a massive tree. Hence he called its name Al'lon-bac'uth.

9 God now appeared to Jacob once again during his coming from Pad'dan-a'ram<sup>c</sup> and blessed him.<sup>d</sup> 10 And God went on to say to him: "Your name is Jacob.<sup>e</sup> No longer is your name to be called Jacob, but Israel will your name become." And he began to call his name Israel.<sup>f</sup>

11 And God said further to him: "I am God Almighty.<sup>g</sup> Be fruitful and become many. Nations and a congregation of nations will proceed out of you, and kings will come out of your loins.<sup>h</sup> 12 As for the land that I have given to Abraham and to Isaac, to you I shall give it, and to your seed<sup>i</sup> after you I shall give the land."<sup>j</sup> 13 After that God went up from above him at the place where he had spoken with him.<sup>k</sup>

14 Consequently Jacob stationed a pillar in the place where he had spoken with him,<sup>l</sup> a pillar of stone, and he poured a drink offering upon it and poured oil upon it.<sup>m</sup> 15 And Jacob continued to call the name of the place where God had spoken with him Beth'el.<sup>n</sup>

16 Then they pulled away from Beth'el. And while there was yet a good stretch of land before coming to Eph'rath,<sup>o</sup> Rachel proceeded to give birth, and it was going hard with her in making the delivery.<sup>p</sup> 17 But so it was that while she had difficulty in making the delivery the midwife said to her: "Do not be afraid, for you will have this son also."<sup>a</sup> 18 And the result was that as her soul<sup>b</sup> was going out (because she died)<sup>c</sup> she called his name Ben-o'ni; but his father called him Benjamin.<sup>d</sup> 19 Thus Rachel died and was buried on the way to Eph'rath, that is to say, Beth'le-hem.<sup>e</sup> 20 Hence Jacob stationed a pillar over her grave. This is the pillar of Rachel's grave down to this day.<sup>f</sup>

21 After that Israel pulled away and pitched his tent a distance beyond the tower of E'der.<sup>g</sup> 22 And it came about while Israel was tabernacling<sup>h</sup> in that land that once Reu'ben went and lay down with Bil'hah his father's concubine, and Israel got to hear of it.<sup>i</sup>

So there came to be twelve sons of Jacob. 23 The sons by Le'ah were Jacob's firstborn Reu'ben<sup>j</sup> and Sim'e-on and Le'vi and Judah and Is'sa-char and Zeb'u-lun. 24 The sons by Rachel were Joseph and Benjamin. 25 And the sons by Bil'hah, Rachel's maidservant, were Dan and Naph'ta-li. 26 And the sons by Zil'pah, Le'ah's maidservant, were Gad and Ash'er. These are Jacob's sons who were born to him in Pad'dan-a'ram.

36 And this is the history of E'sau, that is to say, E'dom.<sup>q</sup>

daughter of A'nah, the granddaughter of Zib'e-on the Hivite, 3 and Bas'e-math.<sup>a</sup> Ish'ma-el's daughter, the sister of Ne-ba'ioth.<sup>b</sup>

4 And A'dah proceeded to bear El'i-phaz to E'sau, and Bas'e-math bore Reu'el,

5 and O-hol-i-ba'mah bore Je'ush and Ja'lam and Ko'rah.<sup>c</sup>

These are the sons of E'sau who were born to him in the land of Ca'naan. 6 After that E'sau took his wives and his sons and his daughters and all the souls of his house and his herd and all his other beasts and all his wealth,<sup>d</sup> which he had accumulated in the land of Ca'naan, and went to a land away from Jacob his brother,<sup>e</sup> 7 because their goods had become too great for them to dwell together and the land of their alien residences was not able to sustain them as a result of their herds.<sup>f</sup> 8 So E'sau took up dwelling in the mountainous region of Se'ir.<sup>g</sup> E'sau is E'dom.<sup>h</sup>

9 And this is the history of E'sau the father of E'dom in the mountainous region of Se'ir.<sup>i</sup>

10 These are the names of the sons of E'sau: El'i-phaz the son of A'dah, E'sau's wife; Reu'el the son of Bas'e-math, E'sau's wife.<sup>j</sup>

11 And the sons of El'i-phaz came to be Te'man,<sup>k</sup> O'mar, Ze'pho and Ga'tam and Ke'naz.<sup>l</sup>

12 And Tim'na<sup>m</sup> became the concubine of El'i-phaz, E'sau's son. In time she bore to El'i-phaz Am'a-lek.<sup>n</sup> These are the sons of A'dah, E'sau's wife.

13 These are the sons of Reu'el: Na'hath and Ze'rah, Sham'mah and Miz'zah.<sup>o</sup> These came to be the sons of Bas'e-math,<sup>p</sup> E'sau's wife.

14 And these came to be the sons of O-hol-i-ba'mah the daughter of A'nah, the granddaughter of Zib'e-on, E'sau's wife, in that she bore to E'sau Je'ush and Ja'lam and Ko'rah.<sup>q</sup>

15 These are the sheikhs<sup>a</sup> of the sons of E'sau: The sons of El'i-phaz, E'sau's first-born: Sheik Te'man,<sup>b</sup> sheik O'mar, sheik Ze'pho, sheik Ke'naz, 16 sheik Ko'rah, sheik Ga'tam, sheik Am'a-lek. These are the sheikhs of El'i-phaz<sup>c</sup> in the land of E'dom. These are the sons by A'dah.

17 These are the sons of Reu'el, E'sau's son: Sheik Na'hath, sheik Ze'rah, sheik Sham'mah, sheik Miz'zah. These are the sheikhs of Reu'el in the land of E'dom.<sup>d</sup> These are the sons by Bas'e-math, E'sau's wife.

18 Finally these are the sons of O-hol-i-ba'mah, E'sau's wife: Sheik Je'ush, sheik Ja'lam, sheik Ko'rah. These are the sheikhs of O-hol-i-ba'mah the daughter of A'nah, E'sau's wife.

19 These are the sons of E'sau, and these are their sheikhs. He is E'dom.<sup>e</sup>

20 These are the sons of Se'ir the Hor'ite, the inhabitants of the land:<sup>f</sup> Lo'tan and Sho'bal and Zib'e-on and A'nah<sup>g</sup> 21 and Di'shon and E'zer and Di'shan.<sup>h</sup> These are the sheikhs of the Hor'ite, the sons of Se'ir, in the land of E'dom.

22 And the sons of Lo'tan came to be Ho'ri and He'mam; and Lo'tan's sister was Tim'na.<sup>i</sup>

23 And these are the sons of Sho'bal: Al'van and Man'a-hath and E'bal, She'pho and O'nam.

24 And these are the sons of Zib'e-on: A'iah and A'nah. This is the A'nah who found the hot springs in the wilderness while he was tending the asses for Zib'e-on his father.<sup>j</sup>

25 And these are the children of A'nah: Di'shon and O-hol-i-ba'mah the daughter of A'nah.

26 And these are the sons of Di'shon: Hem'dan and Esh'ban and Ith'ran and Che'ran.<sup>k</sup>

27 These are the sons of E'zer: Bil'han and Za'a-van and A'kan.

28 These are the sons of Di'shan: Uz and A'ran.<sup>a</sup>

29 These are the sheiks of the Hor'ite: Sheik Lo'tan, sheik Sho'bal, sheik Zib'e-on, sheik A'nah, 30 sheik Di'shon, sheik E'zer, sheik Di'shan.<sup>b</sup> These are the sheiks of the Hor'ite according to their sheiks in the land of Se'ir.

31 Now these are the kings who reigned in the land of E'dom<sup>c</sup> before any king reigned over the sons of Israel.<sup>d</sup> 32 And Be'la son of Be'or proceeded to reign in E'dom,<sup>e</sup> and the name of his city was Din'ha-bah. 33 When Be'la died, Jo'bab son of Ze'rah from Boz'rah<sup>f</sup> began to reign instead of him.<sup>g</sup>

34 When Jo'bab died, Hu'sham from the land of the Te'man-ites<sup>h</sup> began to reign instead of him.<sup>i</sup> 35 When Hu'sham died, Ha'dad son of Be'dad, who defeated the Mid'i-an-ites<sup>j</sup> in the field of Mo'ab,<sup>k</sup> began to reign instead of him, and the name of his city was A'vith.<sup>l</sup> 36 When Ha'dad died, Sam'lah from Mas're'kah began to reign instead of him.<sup>m</sup>

37 When Sam'lah died, Sha'ul from Re-ho'both by the River began to reign instead of him.<sup>n</sup> 38 When Sha'ul died, Ba'al-ha-nan son of Ach'bor began to reign instead of him.<sup>o</sup> 39 When Ba'al-ha-nan son of Ach'bor died, Ha'dar began to reign instead of him; and the name of his city was Pa'u, and the name of his wife was Me-het'a-bel the daughter of Ma'tred the daughter of Me'za-hab.<sup>p</sup>

40 So these are the names of the sheiks of E'sau according to their families, according to their places, by their names: Sheik Tim'na, sheik Al'vah, sheik Je'theth,<sup>q</sup> 41 sheik O-hol-i-ba'mah, sheik E'lah, sheik Pi'non,<sup>r</sup> 42 sheik Ke'naz, sheik Te'man, sheik Mib'zar,<sup>a</sup> 43 sheik Mag'di-el, sheik I'ram. These are the sheiks of E'dom<sup>b</sup> according to their dwellings in the land of their possession.<sup>c</sup> This is E'sau the father of E'dom.<sup>d</sup>

37 And Jacob continued to dwell in the land of the alien residences of his father,<sup>e</sup> in the land of Ca'naan.<sup>f</sup>

2 This is the history of Jacob.

Joseph,<sup>g</sup> when seventeen years old, happened to be tending sheep with his brothers among the flock,<sup>h</sup> and, being but a boy, he was with the sons of Bil'hah<sup>i</sup> and the sons of Zil'pah,<sup>j</sup> the wives of his father. So Joseph brought a bad report about them to their father.<sup>k</sup> 3 And Israel loved Joseph more than all his other sons,<sup>l</sup> because he was the son of his old age; and he had a long, striped shirtlike garment made for him.<sup>m</sup> 4 When his brothers came to see that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they began to hate him,<sup>n</sup> and they were not able to speak peacefully to him.<sup>o</sup>

5 Later on Joseph had a dream and told it to his brothers,<sup>p</sup> and they found further reason to hate him. 6 And he went on to say to them: "Listen, please, to this dream that I have dreamed.<sup>q</sup> 7 Well, here we were binding sheaves in the middle of the field when here my sheaf got up and also stood erect and here your sheaves proceeded to encircle and bow down to my sheaf."<sup>r</sup>

8 And his brothers began to say to him: "Are you going to be king over us for certain?"<sup>s</sup> or, "Are you going to dominate over us for certain?"<sup>t</sup> So they found fresh reason to hate him over his dreams and over his words.

9 After that he had still another dream, and he related it to his brothers and said: "Here I have had a dream once more, and here the sun and the moon and eleven stars were bowing down to me.<sup>a</sup> 10 Then he related it to his father as well as his brothers, and his father began to rebuke him and say to him:<sup>b</sup> "What does this dream that you have dreamed mean? Am I and also your mother and your brothers for certain going to come and bow down to the earth to you?" 11 And his brothers grew jealous of him,<sup>c</sup> but his father observed the saying.<sup>d</sup>

12 His brothers now went to feed the flock of their father close by She'chem.<sup>e</sup> 13 After a while Israel said to Joseph: "Your brothers are tending flocks close by She'chem, are they not? Come, and let me send you to them." At this he said to him: "Here I am!"<sup>f</sup> 14 So he said to him: "Go, please. See whether your brothers are safe and sound and whether the flock is safe and sound, and bring me back word."<sup>g</sup> With that he sent him away from the low plain of He'bron,<sup>h</sup> and he went on toward She'chem. 15 Later a man found him and here he was wandering in a field. Then the man inquired of him, saying: "What are you looking for?" 16 To this he said: "It is my brothers I am looking for. Tell me, please, Where are they tending flocks?" 17 And the man continued: "They have pulled away from here, because I heard them saying, 'Let us go to Do'than.'" So Joseph kept on after his brothers and found them at Do'than.

18 Well, they caught sight of him from a distance, and before he could get close by them they began plotting cunningly against him to put him to death.<sup>i</sup> 19 So they said to one another: "Look! Here comes that dreamer.<sup>j</sup> 20 And now come and let us kill him and pitch him into one of the waterpits;<sup>k</sup> and we must say a vicious wild beast devoured him.<sup>a</sup> Then let us see what will become of his dreams." 21 When Reu'ben heard this he tried to deliver him out of their hand.<sup>b</sup> So he said: "Let us not strike his soul fatally."<sup>c</sup> 22 And Reu'ben went on to say to them: "Do not spill blood.<sup>d</sup> Pitch him into this waterpit which is in the wilderness and do not lay a violent hand upon him."<sup>e</sup> His purpose was to deliver him out of their hand in order to return him to his father.

23 So it came about that as soon as Joseph came to his brothers, they went stripping Joseph of his long garment, even the long striped garment that was upon him;<sup>f</sup> 24 after which they took him and pitched him into the waterpit.<sup>g</sup> At the time the pit was empty; there was no water in it.

25 Then they sat down to eat bread.<sup>h</sup> When they raised their eyes and took a look, why, here was a caravan of Ish'ma-el-ites<sup>i</sup> that was coming from Gil'e-ad, and their camels were carrying labdanum and balsam and resinous bark,<sup>j</sup> on their way to take it down to Egypt. 26 At this Judah said to his brothers: "What profit would there be in case we killed our brother and did cover over his blood?"<sup>k</sup> 27 Come and let us sell him to the Ish'ma-el-ites,<sup>l</sup> and do not let our hand be upon him.<sup>m</sup> After all, he is our brother, our flesh." So they listened to their brother.<sup>n</sup> 28 Now men, Mid'i-an-ite merchants,<sup>o</sup> went passing by. Hence they drew and lifted up Joseph out of the waterpit<sup>p</sup> and then sold Joseph to the Ish'ma-el-ites for twenty silver pieces.<sup>q</sup> Eventually these brought Joseph into Egypt.

29 Later Reu'ben returned to the waterpit and here Joseph was not in the waterpit. Consequently he ripped his garments apart.<sup>r</sup> 30 When he returned to his other brothers he exclaimed: "The child is gone! And I—where am I really to go?"<sup>a</sup>

31 However, they took Joseph's long garment and slaughtered a male goat and repeatedly dipped the long garment in the blood.<sup>b</sup> 32 After that they sent the long striped garment and had it brought to their father and said: "This is what we found. Examine,<sup>c</sup> please, whether it is your son's long garment or not."<sup>d</sup> 33 And he went examining it and exclaimed: "It is my son's long garment! A vicious wild beast must have devoured him!"<sup>e</sup> Joseph is surely torn to pieces!"<sup>f</sup> 34 With that Jacob ripped his mantles apart and put sackcloth upon his hips and carried on mourning over his son for many days.<sup>g</sup> 35 And all his sons and all his daughters kept rising up to comfort him,<sup>h</sup> but he kept refusing to take comfort and saying:<sup>i</sup> "For I shall go down mourning to my son into She'ol!" And his father continued weeping for him.

36 However, the Mid'i-an-ites sold him into Egypt to Pot'i-phar a court official of Phar'aoth,<sup>j</sup> the chief of the bodyguard.<sup>k</sup>

38 Now in the meantime it came about that when Judah went down from his brothers he pitched his tent near a man, an A-dul'lam-ite,<sup>l</sup> and his name was Hi'rah. 2 And there Judah got to see a daughter of a certain Ca'naan-ite,<sup>m</sup> and his name was Shu'a. So he took her and had relations with her. 3 And she became pregnant. Later she bore a son and he called his name Er.<sup>n</sup> 4 Again she became pregnant. In time she bore a son and called his name O'nan. 5 Yet another time she went on to bear a son and then called his name She'lah. Now he happened to be in Ach'zib at the time she bore him.<sup>o</sup>

6 In time Judah took a wife for Er his firstborn, and her name was Ta'mar.<sup>a</sup> 7 But Er, Judah's firstborn, proved to be bad in the eyes of Jehovah;<sup>b</sup> hence Jehovah put him to death.<sup>c</sup> 8 In view of that Judah said to O'nan: "Have relations with your brother's wife and perform brother-in-law marriage with her and raise up offspring for your brother."<sup>d</sup> 9 But O'nan knew that the offspring would not become his;<sup>e</sup> and it occurred that when he did have relations with his brother's wife he wasted his semen on the earth so as not to give offspring to his brother.<sup>f</sup> 10 Now what he did was bad in the eyes of Jehovah;<sup>g</sup> hence he put him also to death.<sup>h</sup> 11 So Judah said to Ta'mar his daughter-in-law: "Dwell as a widow in the house of your father until She'lah my son grows up."<sup>i</sup> For he said to himself: "He too may die like his brothers."<sup>j</sup> Accordingly Ta'mar went and continued to dwell at her own father's house.<sup>k</sup>

12 Thus the days became many and the daughter of Shu'a, Judah's wife,<sup>l</sup> died; and Judah kept the period of mourning.<sup>m</sup> After that he went up to the shearers of his sheep, he and Hi'rah his companion the A-dul'lam-ite,<sup>n</sup> to Tim'nah.<sup>o</sup> 13 Then it was told to Ta'mar: "Here your father-in-law is going up to Tim'nah to shear his sheep."<sup>p</sup> 14 With that she removed the garments of her widowhood from her and covered herself with a shawl and veiled herself and sat down at the entrance of E-na'im, which is along the road to Tim'nah. For she saw that She'lah had grown up and yet she had not been given as a wife to him.<sup>q</sup>

relations with you.<sup>a</sup> For he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law.<sup>b</sup> However, she said: "What will you give me that you may have relations with me?"<sup>c</sup> 17 To this he said: "I myself shall send a kid of the goats from the herd." But she said: "Will you give a security until you send it?"<sup>d</sup> 18 And he continued: "What is the security that I shall give you?" to which she said: "Your seal ring<sup>e</sup> and your cord and your rod that is in your hand." Then he gave them to her and had relations with her, so that she became pregnant by him. 19 After that she got up and went and removed her shawl off her and clothed herself with the garments of her widowhood.<sup>f</sup>

20 And Judah proceeded to send the kid of the goats by the hand of his companion the A-dul-lam-ite<sup>g</sup> in order to get back the security from the hand of the woman, but he never found her. 21 And he went inquiring of the men of her place, saying: "Where is that temple prostitute in E-na'im along the road?" But they kept saying: "No temple prostitute<sup>h</sup> has ever been in this place." 22 Finally he returned to Judah and said: "I never found her and, besides, the men of the place said, 'No temple prostitute has ever been in this place.'" 23 So Judah said: "Let her take them for herself, in order that we may not fall into contempt.<sup>i</sup> At any rate, I have sent this kid, but you—you never found her."

24 However, about three months later it happened that it was told to Judah: "Ta'mar your daughter-in-law has played the harlot,<sup>j</sup> and here she is also pregnant<sup>k</sup> by her harlotry." At that Judah said: "BRING her out and let her be burned."<sup>l</sup> 25 As she was being brought out she herself sent to her father-in-law, saying: "By the man to whom these belong I am pregnant."<sup>a</sup> And she added: "Examine,<sup>b</sup> please, to whom these belong, the seal ring and the cord and the rod."<sup>c</sup> 26 Then Judah examined them and said:<sup>d</sup> "She is more righteous than I am,<sup>e</sup> for the reason that I did not give her to She'lah my son."<sup>f</sup> And he had no further intercourse with her after that.<sup>g</sup>

27 Now it developed that in the time of her giving birth, why, here there were twins in her belly. 28 Further, it turned out that when she was giving birth one extended his hand, and the midwife at once took and tied a scarlet piece about his hand, saying: "This one came out first." 29 Finally it developed that as soon as he drew back his hand, why, here his brother came out, so that she exclaimed: "What do you mean by this, that you have produced a perineal rupture for yourself?" Hence his name was called Pe'rez.<sup>h</sup> 30 And afterward his brother upon whose hand the scarlet piece was came out and his name came to be called Ze'rah.<sup>i</sup>

39 As for Joseph, he was brought down to Egypt,<sup>j</sup> and Pot'i-phar,<sup>k</sup> a court official of Phar'ao, the chief of the bodyguard, an Egyptian, got to buy him from the hand of the Ish'ma-el-ites<sup>l</sup> who had brought him down there. 2 But Jehovah proved to be with Joseph, so that he turned out a successful man<sup>m</sup> and came to be over the house of his master, the Egyptian. 3 And his master got to see that Jehovah was with him and that everything he was doing Jehovah was making turn out successful in his hand.

4 And Joseph kept finding favor in his eyes and waited upon him continually, so that he appointed him over his house,<sup>n</sup> and all that was his he gave into his hand. 5 And it followed that from the time he appointed him over his house and in charge of all that was his Jehovah kept blessing the house of the Egyptian due to Joseph, and Jehovah's blessing came to be upon all that he had in the house and in the field.<sup>a</sup> 6 Finally he left everything that was his in Joseph's hand;<sup>b</sup> and he did not know what was with him at all except the bread he was eating. Moreover, Joseph grew to be beautiful in form and beautiful in appearance.

7 Now after these things it came about that the wife of his master began to raise her eyes<sup>c</sup> toward Joseph and say: "Lie down with me."<sup>d</sup> 8 But he would refuse<sup>e</sup> and would say to his master's wife: "Here my master does not know what is with me in the house, and everything he has he has given into my hand.<sup>f</sup> 9 There is no one greater in this house than I am, and he has not withheld from me anything at all except you, because you are his wife.<sup>g</sup> So how could I commit this great badness and actually sin against God?"<sup>h</sup>

10 So it turned out that as she spoke to Joseph day after day he never listened to her to lie alongside her, to continue with her.<sup>i</sup>

11 But it happened that on this day as other days he went into the house to do his business, and there was none of the men of the house there in the house.<sup>j</sup>

12 Then she grabbed hold of him by his garment,<sup>k</sup> saying: "Lie down with me!"<sup>l</sup> But he left his garment in her hand and took to flight and went on outside.<sup>m</sup>

13 So it occurred that as soon as she saw that he had left his garment in her hand that he might flee outside, 14 she began to cry out to the men of her house and to say to them: "Look! He brought to us a man, a Hebrew, to make us a laughingstock. He came to me to lie down with me, but I began to cry out at the top of my voice.<sup>a</sup> 15 And it followed that as soon as he heard that I raised my voice and began crying out, he then left his garment beside me and took to flight and went on outside."<sup>b</sup> 16 After that she kept his garment laid up beside her until his master came to his house.<sup>b</sup>

17 Then she spoke to him according to these words, saying: "The Hebrew servant whom you brought to us came to me to make me a laughingstock.

18 But it followed that as soon as I raised my voice and began to cry out, he then left his garment beside me and went fleeing outside."<sup>c</sup> 19 The result was that as soon as his master heard the words of his wife which she spoke to him, saying: "Like this and this your servant did to me," his anger blazed.<sup>d</sup>

20 So Joseph's master took him and gave him over to the prison house, the place where the prisoners of the king were kept under arrest, and he continued there in the prison house.<sup>e</sup>

21 However, Jehovah continued with Joseph and kept extending loving-kindness to him and granting him to find favor in the eyes of the chief officer of the prison house.<sup>f</sup> 22 So the chief officer of the prison house gave over into Joseph's hand all the prisoners who were in the prison house; and everything that they were doing there he proved to be the one having it done.<sup>g</sup> 23 The chief officer of the prison house was looking after absolutely nothing that was in his hand, because Jehovah was with Joseph and what he was doing Jehovah was making it turn out successful.<sup>h</sup>

40 Now after these things it came about that the cup-bearer<sup>i</sup> of the king of Egypt and the baker sinned against their lord the king of Egypt.<sup>a</sup> 2 And Pharaoh grew indignant at his two officers,<sup>b</sup> at the chief of the cupbearers and at the chief of the bakers.<sup>c</sup> 3 So he committed them to the jail of the house of the chief of the bodyguard,<sup>d</sup> to the prison house,<sup>e</sup> the place where Joseph was a prisoner. 4 Then the chief of the bodyguard assigned Joseph to be with them that he might wait upon them;<sup>f</sup> and they continued in jail for some days.

5 And both of them proceeded to dream a dream,<sup>g</sup> each one his own dream in the one night,<sup>h</sup> each one his dream with its own interpretation.<sup>i</sup> the cupbearer and the baker who belonged to the king of Egypt who were prisoners in the prison house.<sup>j</sup> 6 When Joseph came in to them in the morning and saw them, why, here they were looking dejected.<sup>k</sup> 7 And he began to inquire of the officers of Pharaoh who were with him in the jail of his master's house, saying: "For what reason are your faces gloomy today?"<sup>l</sup> 8 At this they said to him: "We have dreamed a dream, and there is no interpreter with us." So Joseph said to them: "Do not interpretations belong to God?"<sup>m</sup> Relate it to me, please."

9 And the chief of the cupbearers went on to relate his dream to Joseph and to say to him: "In my dream, why, here there was a vine before me. 10 And on the vine there were three twigs, and it was apparently sprouting shoots.<sup>n</sup> Its blossoms pushed forth. Its clusters ripened their grapes. 11 And Pharaoh's cup was in my hand, and I proceeded to take the grapes and squeeze them out into Pharaoh's cup.<sup>o</sup> After that I gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand."<sup>p</sup> 12 Then Joseph said to him: "This is its interpretation:<sup>q</sup> The three twigs are three days.

13 In three days from now Pharaoh will lift up your head and he will certainly return you to your office;<sup>s</sup> and you will certainly give Pharaoh's cup into his hand, according to the former custom when you acted as his cupbearer.<sup>t</sup> 14 Nevertheless, you must keep me in your remembrance as soon as it goes well with you,<sup>e</sup> and you must, please, perform loving-kindness with me and mention me to Pharaoh,<sup>d</sup> and you must get me out of this house. 15 For I was in fact kidnapped from the land of the Hebrews;<sup>e</sup> and here also I have done nothing at all for which they should put me in the prison hole."<sup>f</sup>

16 When the chief of the bakers saw that he had interpreted something good, he, in turn, said to Joseph: "I too was in my dream, and here there were three baskets of white bread upon my head, 17 and in the topmost basket there were all sorts of eatables for Pharaoh,<sup>g</sup> the product of a baker, and there were fowls<sup>h</sup> eating them out of the basket on top of my head." 18 Then Joseph answered and said: "This is its interpretation:<sup>i</sup> The three baskets are three days. 19 In three days from now Pharaoh will lift up your head from off you and will certainly hang you upon a stake;<sup>j</sup> and the fowls will certainly eat your flesh from off you."<sup>k</sup>

20 Now on the third day it turned out to be Pharaoh's birthday,<sup>l</sup> and he proceeded to make a feast for all his servants and to lift up the head of the chief of the cupbearers and the head of the chief of the bakers in the midst of his servants.<sup>m</sup> 21 Accordingly he returned the chief of the cupbearers to his post of cupbearer,<sup>n</sup> and he continued to give the cup into Pharaoh's hand. 22 But the chief of the bakers he hung up,<sup>o</sup> just as Joseph had given them the interpretation.<sup>a</sup> 23 However, the chief of the cupbearers did not remember Joseph and went on forgetting him.<sup>b</sup>

41 And it came about at the end of two full years that Phar'aoh was dreaming<sup>c</sup> and here he was standing by the river Nile. 2 And here ascending out of the river Nile were seven cows beautiful in appearance and fat-fleshed, and they went feeding among the Nile grass.<sup>d</sup> 3 And here there were seven other cows ascending after them out of the river Nile, ugly in appearance and thin-fleshed,<sup>e</sup> and they took their stand alongside the cows by the bank of the river Nile. 4 Then the cows that were ugly in appearance and thin-fleshed began to eat up the seven cows that were beautiful in appearance and fat.<sup>f</sup> At this Phar'aoh woke up.<sup>g</sup>

5 However, he went back to sleep and dreamed a second time. And here there were seven ears of grain coming up on one stalk, fat and good.<sup>h</sup> 6 And here there were seven ears of grain, thin and scorched by the east wind,<sup>i</sup> growing up after them.<sup>j</sup> 7 And the thin ears of grain began to swallow up the seven fat and full ears of grain.<sup>k</sup> At this Phar'aoh woke up and here it was a dream.

8 And it developed in the morning that his spirit became agitated.<sup>l</sup> So he sent and called all the magic-practicing priests of Egypt<sup>m</sup> and all her wise men,<sup>n</sup> and Phar'aoh went on to relate his dreams to them.<sup>o</sup> But there was no interpreter of them for Phar'aoh.

9 Then the chief of the cupbearers spoke with Phar'aoh,<sup>p</sup> saying: "My sins I am mentioning today.<sup>q</sup> 10 Phar'aoh was indignant at his servants.<sup>r</sup> So he committed me to the jail of the house of the chief of the bodyguard,<sup>a</sup> both me and the chief of the bakers. 11 After that we both dreamed a dream in the one night, both I and he. We dreamed each one his dream with its own interpretation.<sup>b</sup> 12 And there was with us there a young man, a Hebrew,<sup>c</sup> a servant of the chief of the bodyguard.<sup>d</sup> When we related them to him,<sup>e</sup> he proceeded to interpret our dreams to us. He interpreted to each according to his dream. 13 And it turned out that just as he had interpreted to us so it happened. Me he returned to my office,<sup>f</sup> but him he hanged.<sup>g</sup>

14 And Phar'aoh proceeded to send and to call Joseph,<sup>h</sup> that they might bring him quickly from the prison hole.<sup>i</sup> Hence he shaved<sup>j</sup> and changed his man-tles<sup>k</sup> and went in to Phar'aoh. 15 Then Phar'aoh said to Joseph: "I have dreamed a dream, but there is no interpreter of it. Now I myself have heard it said about you that you can hear a dream and interpret it."<sup>l</sup> 16 At this Joseph answered Phar'aoh, saying: "I need not be considered! God will announce welfare to Phar'aoh."<sup>m</sup>

17 And Phar'aoh went on to speak to Joseph: "In my dream here I was standing on the bank of the river Nile. 18 And here ascending out of the river Nile were seven cows fat-fleshed and beautiful in form, and they began to feed among the Nile grass.<sup>n</sup> 19 And here there were seven other cows ascending after them, poor and very bad in form and thin-fleshed.<sup>o</sup> For badness I have not seen the like of them in all the land of Egypt. 20 And the skinny and bad cows began to eat up the first seven fat cows.<sup>p</sup> 21 So these came into their bellies, and yet it could not be known that they had come into their bellies, as their appearance was bad just as at the start.<sup>q</sup> At that I woke up.

22 "After that I saw in my dream and here there were seven ears of grain coming up on one stalk, full and good.<sup>a</sup> 23 And here there were seven ears of grain shriveled, thin, scorched by the east wind,<sup>b</sup> growing up after them. 24 And the thin ears of grain began to swallow up the seven good ears of grain.<sup>c</sup> So I stated it to the magic-practicing priests,<sup>d</sup> but there was none telling me."<sup>e</sup>

25 Then Joseph said to Pharaoh: "The dream of Pharaoh is but one. What the true God is doing he has told to Pharaoh.<sup>f</sup> 26 The seven good cows are seven years. Likewise the seven good ears of grain are seven years. The dream is but one. 27 And the seven skinny and bad cows that came up after them are seven years; and the seven empty ears of grain, scorched by the east wind,<sup>g</sup> will prove to be seven years of famine.<sup>h</sup> 28 This is the thing that I have spoken to Pharaoh: What the true God is doing he has caused Pharaoh to see.<sup>i</sup>

29 "Here there are seven years coming with great plenty in all the land of Egypt. 30 But seven years of famine will certainly arise after them, and all the plenty in the land of Egypt will certainly be forgotten and the famine will simply consume the land.<sup>j</sup> 31 And the plenty once in the land will not be known as a result of that famine afterward, because it will certainly be very severe. 32 And the fact that the dream was repeated to Pharaoh twice means that the thing is firmly established on the part of the true God,<sup>k</sup> and the true God is speeding to do it.<sup>l</sup>

33 "So now let Pharaoh look for a man discreet and wise and set him over the land of Egypt.<sup>m</sup> 34 Let Pharaoh act and appoint overseers over the land,<sup>n</sup> and he must take up one fifth of the land of Egypt during the seven years of plenty.<sup>a</sup> 35 And let them collect all the foodstuffs of these coming good years, and let them pile up grain under Pharaoh's hand as foodstuffs in the cities,<sup>b</sup> and they must safeguard it. 36 And the foodstuffs must serve as a supply for the land for the seven famine years, which will develop in the land of Egypt,<sup>c</sup> in order that the land may not be cut off by the famine."<sup>d</sup>

37 Well, the thing proved to be good in the eyes of Pharaoh and of all his servants.<sup>e</sup> 38 So Pharaoh said to his servants: "Can another man be found like this one in whom the spirit of God is?"<sup>f</sup> 39 After that Pharaoh said to Joseph: "Since God has caused you to know all this,<sup>g</sup> there is no one as discreet and wise as you are.<sup>h</sup> 40 You will personally be over my house,<sup>i</sup> and all my people will obey you implicitly.<sup>j</sup> Only as to the throne shall I be greater than you."<sup>k</sup> 41 And Pharaoh added to Joseph: "See, I do place you over all the land of Egypt."<sup>l</sup> 42 With that Pharaoh removed his signet ring<sup>m</sup> from his own hand and put it upon Joseph's hand and clothed him with garments of fine linen and placed a necklace of gold about his neck.<sup>n</sup> 43 Moreover, he had him ride in the second chariot of honor that he had,<sup>o</sup> so that they should call out ahead of him, "A-vrēkhi!" thus putting him over all the land of Egypt.

44 And Pharaoh further said to Joseph: "I am Pharaoh, but without your authorization no man may lift up his hand or his foot in all the land of Egypt."<sup>p</sup> 45 After that Pharaoh called Joseph's name Zaph'e-nath-pa-ne'ah and gave him As'e-nath<sup>q</sup> the daughter of Pot'i-phe-ra the priest of On<sup>r</sup> as a wife. And Joseph began to go out over the land of Egypt.<sup>s</sup> 46 And Joseph was thirty years old<sup>a</sup> when he stood before Phar'aoth the king of Egypt.

Then Joseph went out from before Phar'aoth and toured about in all the land of Egypt. 47 And during the seven years of plenty the land went on producing by the handfuls.<sup>b</sup> 48 And he kept collecting all the foodstuffs of the seven years that came upon the land of Egypt and he would put the foodstuffs in the cities.<sup>c</sup> The foodstuffs of the field that was round about a city he put in the midst of it.<sup>d</sup> 49 And Joseph continued piling up grain in very great quantity,<sup>e</sup> like the sand of the sea, until finally they gave up counting it, because it was without number.<sup>f</sup>

50 And before the year of the famine arrived there were born to Joseph two sons,<sup>g</sup> whom As'e-nath the daughter of Pot'i'phe-ra the priest of On bore to him. 51 So Joseph called the name of the firstborn Ma-nas'seh,<sup>h</sup> because, to quote him, "God has made me forget all my trouble and all the house of my father."<sup>i</sup> 52 And the name of the second he called E'phra-im,<sup>j</sup> because, to quote him, "God has made me fruitful in the land of my wretchedness."<sup>k</sup>

53 And the seven years of the plenty that had obtained in the land of Egypt gradually ended.<sup>l</sup> 54 and, in turn, the seven years of the famine started to come, just as Joseph had said.<sup>m</sup> And the famine developed in all the lands, but in all the land of Egypt there was found bread.<sup>n</sup> 55 Finally all the land of Egypt became famished and the people began to cry to Phar'aoth for bread.<sup>o</sup> Then Phar'aoth said to all the Egyptians: "Go to Joseph. Whatever he says to you, you are to do."<sup>p</sup> 56 And the famine obtained over all the surface of the earth.<sup>q</sup> Then Joseph began to open up all the grain depositories that were among them and to sell to the Egyptians,<sup>a</sup> as the famine got a strong grip on the land of Egypt. 57 Moreover, people of all the earth came to Egypt to buy from Joseph, because the famine had a strong grip on all the earth.<sup>b</sup>

42 Eventually Jacob got to see that there were cereals in Egypt.<sup>c</sup> Then Jacob said to his sons: "Why do you keep looking at one another?" 2 And he added: "Here I have heard that there are cereals in Egypt.<sup>d</sup> Go down there and buy for us from there, that we may keep alive and not die off." 3 Accordingly ten brothers<sup>e</sup> of Joseph went down to buy grain from Egypt. 4 But Jacob did not send Benjamin,<sup>f</sup> Joseph's brother, with his other brothers, because he said: "Otherwise a fatal accident may befall him."<sup>g</sup>

5 So Israel's sons came along with the others who were coming to buy, because the famine existed in the land of Ca'naan.<sup>h</sup> 6 And Joseph was the man in power over the land.<sup>i</sup> He was the one that did the selling to all people of the earth.<sup>j</sup> Consequently Joseph's brothers came and bowed low to him with their faces to the earth.<sup>k</sup> 7 When Joseph got to see his brothers, he at once recognized them, but he made himself unrecognizable to them.<sup>l</sup> So he spoke harshly with them and said to them: "Where have you come from?" to which they said: "From the land of Ca'naan to buy foodstuffs."<sup>m</sup>

8 Thus Joseph recognized his brothers, but they themselves did not recognize him. 9 Immediately Joseph remembered the dreams that he had dreamed respecting them,<sup>n</sup> and he went on to say to them: "You are spies! You have come to see the exposed condition of the land!"<sup>o</sup> 10 Then they said to him: "No, my lord,<sup>a</sup> but your servants<sup>b</sup> have come to buy foodstuffs. 11 We are all of us sons of but one man. We are upright men. Your servants do not act as spies."<sup>c</sup> 12 But he said to them: "Not so! Because you have come to see the exposed condition of the land!"<sup>d</sup> 13 At this they said: "Your servants are twelve brothers.<sup>e</sup> We are the sons of but one man<sup>f</sup> in the land of Ca'naan; and here the youngest is with our father today,<sup>g</sup> whereas the other one is no more."<sup>h</sup>

14 However, Joseph said to them: "It is what I have spoken to you, saying, 'You are spies!' 15 By this you will be tested out. As Phar'aoth lives, you will not go out of here except when your youngest brother comes here.<sup>i</sup> 16 Send one of you that he may get your brother while you have been bound, that your words may be tested out as the truth in your case.<sup>j</sup> And if not, then, as Phar'aoth lives, you are spies." 17 With that he put them together in custody for three days.

18 After that Joseph said to them on the third day: "Do this and keep alive. I fear<sup>k</sup> the true God. 19 If you are upright, let one of your brothers be kept bound in your house of custody,<sup>l</sup> but the rest of you go, take cereals for the famine in your houses.<sup>m</sup> 20 Then you will bring your youngest brother to me, that your words may be found trustworthy; and you will not die."<sup>n</sup> And they proceeded to do so.

21 And they began to say one to the other: "Unquestionably we are guilty with regard to our brother,<sup>o</sup> because we saw the distress of his soul when he implored compassion on our part, but we did not listen. That is why this distress has come upon us."<sup>p</sup> 22 Then Reu'ben answered them, saying: "Did not I say to you, 'Do not sin against the child,<sup>a</sup> but you did not listen?<sup>a</sup> And now his blood, here it is certainly asked back."<sup>b</sup> 23 As for them, they did not know that Joseph was listening, because there was an interpreter between them. 24 Consequently he turned away from them and began to weep.<sup>c</sup> Then he returned to them and spoke to them and took Sim'e-on<sup>d</sup> from them and bound him before their eyes.<sup>e</sup> 25 After that Joseph gave the command, and they went filling up their receptacles with grain. Also, they were to return the money of the men to each one's individual sack<sup>f</sup> and to give them provisions for the journey.<sup>g</sup> Accordingly it was done so to them.

26 So they loaded their cereals upon their asses and got on their way from there. 27 When one opened his sack to give fodder to his ass at the lodging place,<sup>h</sup> he got to see his money, and here it was in the mouth of his bag.<sup>i</sup> 28 At that he said to his brothers: "My money has been returned and now here it is in my bag!" Then their hearts sank, so that they turned trembling to one another,<sup>j</sup> saying: "What is this God has done to us?"<sup>k</sup>

29 At length they came to Jacob their father to the land of Ca'naan and told him all the things that had befallen them, saying: 30 "The man who is the lord of the country spoke harshly with us,<sup>l</sup> since he took us for men spying on the country.<sup>m</sup> 31 But we said to him, 'We are upright men.'<sup>n</sup> We do not act as spies. 32 We are twelve brothers,<sup>o</sup> the sons of our father.<sup>p</sup> One is no more,<sup>q</sup> and the youngest is today with our father in the land of Ca'naan.'<sup>r</sup> 33 But the man who is the lord of the country said to us,<sup>s</sup> 'By this I am going to know you are upright.'<sup>t</sup> Have one brother of yours stay with me."<sup>u</sup>

Then you take something for the famine in your houses and go.<sup>a</sup> 34 And bring your youngest brother to me, that I may know that you are no spies but you are upright. Your brother I shall give back to you, and you may carry on business in the land.”<sup>b</sup>

35 And it came about that when they were emptying their sacks here was each one's bundle of money in his sack. And they as well as their father got to see their bundles of money, and they became afraid. 36 Then Jacob their father exclaimed to them: “It is I you have bereaved!” Joseph is no more and Sim'e-on is no more,<sup>d</sup> and Benjamin you are going to take! It is upon me that all these things have come!”

37 But Reu'ben said to his father: “My own two sons you may put to death if I do not bring him back to you.” Give him over to my care, and I shall be the one to return him to you.”<sup>f</sup> 38 However, he said: “My son will not go down with you men, because his brother is dead and he has been left by himself.<sup>g</sup> If a fatal accident should befall him on the way on which you would go, then you would certainly bring down my gray hairs with grief to She'ol.”<sup>h</sup>

43 And the famine was severe in the land.<sup>i</sup> 2 And it came about that as soon as they had finished eating up the cereals they had brought from Egypt,<sup>j</sup> their father proceeded to say to them: “Return, buy a little food for us.”<sup>k</sup> 3 Then Judah said to him:<sup>l</sup> “The man unmistakably bore witness to us, saying, ‘You must not see my face again unless your brother is with you.’”<sup>m</sup> 4 If you are sending our brother with us,<sup>n</sup> we are willing to go down and buy food for you. 5 But if you are not sending him, we shall not go down, because the man did say to us, ‘You must not see my face again unless your brother is with you.”<sup>a</sup> 6 And Israel exclaimed:<sup>b</sup> “Why did you have to do harm to me by telling the man you had another brother?” 7 At this they said: “The man directly inquired concerning us and our relatives, saying, ‘Is your father yet alive?’<sup>c</sup> Do you have another brother?” and we went on to tell him according to these facts.<sup>d</sup> How could we know for certain that he would say, ‘Bring your brother down?’”<sup>e</sup>

8 Finally Judah said to Israel his father: “Send the boy with me,<sup>f</sup> that we may get up and go and that we may keep alive and not die off,<sup>g</sup> both we and you and our little children.” 9 I shall be the one to be surety for him.<sup>h</sup> 10 Out of my hand you may exact the penalty for him.<sup>i</sup> If I fail to bring him to you and present him to you, then I shall have sinned against you for all time. 11 But if we had not lingered around, we should by now have been there and back these two times.”<sup>k</sup>

11 So Israel their father said to them: “If, then, that is the case,<sup>l</sup> do this: Take the finest products of the land in your receptacles and carry them down to the man as a gift;<sup>m</sup> a little balsam,<sup>n</sup> and a little honey,<sup>o</sup> labdanum and resinous bark,<sup>p</sup> pistachio nuts and almonds.<sup>q</sup> 12 Also, take double the money in your hand; and the money that was returned in the mouth of your bags you will take back in your hand.<sup>r</sup> Maybe it was a mistake.<sup>s</sup> 13 And take your brother and get up, return to the man. 14 And may God Almighty give you pity before the man,<sup>t</sup> that he may certainly release to you your other brother and Benjamin. But I, in case I must be bereaved, I shall certainly be bereaved!”<sup>u</sup>

15 Accordingly the men took this gift, and they took double the money in their hand and Benjamin. Then they rose and went their way down to Egypt and got to stand before Joseph.<sup>a</sup>

16 When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he at once said to the man who was over his house: "Take the men to the house and slaughter animals and make preparation,<sup>b</sup> because the men are to eat with me at noon."

17 Immediately the man did just as Joseph had said.<sup>c</sup> So the man took the men to Joseph's house.

18 But the men got afraid because they had been taken to Joseph's house,<sup>d</sup> and they began to say: "It is because of the money that went back with us in our bags at the start that we are being brought here for them to fall upon us and attack us and to take us for slaves and also our asses!"<sup>e</sup>

19 Hence they approached the man who was over Joseph's house and spoke to him at the entrance of the house. 20 and they said: "Excuse us, my lord! We surely did come down at the start to buy food.<sup>f</sup> 21 But what occurred was that when we came to the lodging place<sup>g</sup> and began opening our bags, why, here was the money of each one in the mouth of his bag, our money in full weight. So we would like to return it with our own hands.<sup>h</sup> 22 And more money we have brought down in our hands to buy food. We certainly do not know who placed our money in our bags."<sup>i</sup> 23 Then he said: "It is all right with you. Do not be afraid.<sup>j</sup> YOUR God and the God of your father gave you treasure in your bags.<sup>k</sup> YOUR money came first to me." After that he brought out Sim'e-on to them.<sup>l</sup>

24 Then the man brought the men into Joseph's house and gave water that they might have their feet washed,<sup>m</sup> and he gave fodder for their asses.<sup>n</sup> 25 And they proceeded to get the gift<sup>o</sup> ready for Joseph's coming at noon, because they had heard that it was there they were going to eat bread.<sup>a</sup> 26 When Joseph went on into the house, then they brought the gift that was in their hand to him into the house, and prostrated themselves to him to the earth.<sup>b</sup> 27 After this he inquired whether they were getting along well and said:<sup>c</sup> "Is your father, the aged man of whom you have spoken, getting along well? Is he still alive?"<sup>d</sup> 28 To this they said: "Your servant our father is getting along well. He is still alive." Then they bowed down and prostrated themselves.<sup>e</sup>

29 When he raised his eyes and saw Benjamin his brother, the son of his mother,<sup>f</sup> he went on to say: "Is this your brother, the youngest one of whom you have spoken to me?"<sup>g</sup> And he added: "May God show you his favor,<sup>h</sup> my son." 30 Joseph was now in a hurry, because his inward emotions were excited toward his brother,<sup>i</sup> so that he looked for a place to weep and he went into an interior room and gave way to tears there.<sup>j</sup> 31 After that he washed his face and went out and kept control of himself and said:<sup>k</sup> "Set on the meal."<sup>l</sup> 32 And they proceeded to set it on for him by himself and for them by themselves and for the Egyptians who were eating with him by themselves; for the Egyptians were not able to eat a meal with the Hebrews, because that is a detestable thing to the Egyptians.<sup>m</sup>

ing and drinking with him to the full.<sup>a</sup>

44 Later on he commanded the man who was over his house,<sup>b</sup> saying: "Fill the bags of the men with food to the extent they are able to carry it and place the money of each one in the mouth of his bag."<sup>c</sup> 2 But you must place my cup, the silver cup, in the mouth of the bag of the youngest and the money for his cereals." So he did according to the word of Joseph which he had spoken.<sup>d</sup>

3 The morning had become light when the men were sent away,<sup>e</sup> both they and their asses.

4 They went out of the city. They had not gone far when Joseph said to the man who was over his house: "Get up! Chase after the men and be certain to overtake them and to say to them, 'Why have you repaid bad for good?'<sup>f</sup> 5 Is not this the thing that my master drinks from and by means of which he expertly reads omens?"<sup>g</sup> It is a bad deed you have committed."

6 Eventually he overtook them and spoke these words to them. 7 But they said to him: "Why does my lord speak with such words as these? It is unthinkable that your servants should do anything like this.

8 Why, the money that we found in the mouth of our bags we brought back to you from the land of Ca'naan.<sup>h</sup> How, then, could we steal silver or gold from the house of your master?"<sup>i</sup>

9 Let the one of your slaves with whom it may be found die and let us ourselves also become slaves to my master."<sup>j</sup> 10 So he said: "Let it be now exactly according to your words.<sup>k</sup> Thus the one with whom it may be found will become a slave to me,<sup>l</sup> but you yourselves will be proved innocent."<sup>m</sup> 11 With that they quickly let down each one his bag to the earth and they opened each one his own bag. 12 And he went searching carefully. He started with the oldest and finished with the youngest. At last the cup was found in Benjamin's bag.<sup>a</sup>

13 Then they ripped their mantles<sup>b</sup> apart and lifted each one his load back onto his ass and returned to the city.

14 And Judah<sup>c</sup> and his brothers went on into Joseph's house, and he was still there; and they proceeded to fall before him to the earth.<sup>d</sup>

15 Joseph now said to them: "What sort of deed is this that you have done? Did you not know that such a man as I am can expertly read omens?"<sup>e</sup> 16 At this Judah exclaimed: "What can we say to my master? What can we speak?

And how can we prove ourselves righteous?"<sup>f</sup> The true God has found out the error of your slaves.<sup>g</sup> Here we are slaves to my master,<sup>h</sup> both we and the one in whose hand the cup was found!"

17 However, he said: "It is unthinkable for me to do this! The man in whose hand the cup was found is the one who will become a slave to me.<sup>i</sup> As for the rest of you, go up in peace to your father."<sup>k</sup>

me that I may set my eye upon him.<sup>a</sup> 22 But we said to my master, 'The boy is not able to leave his father. If he did leave his father, he would certainly die.'<sup>b</sup> 23 Then you said to your slaves, 'Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you may not see my face anymore.'<sup>c</sup>

24 "And it came about that we went up to your slave my father and then told him the words of my master. 25 Later our father said, 'Return, buy a little food for us.'<sup>d</sup> 26 But we said, 'We are not able to go down. If our youngest brother is with us we will go down, because we are not able to see the man's face in case our youngest brother is not with us.'<sup>e</sup> 27 Then your slave my father said to us, 'You yourselves well know that my wife bore but two sons to me.'<sup>f</sup> 28 Later the one went out from my company and I exclaimed: 'Ah, he must surely be torn to pieces!'<sup>g</sup> and I have not seen him till now. 29 If you were to take this one also out of my sight and a fatal accident were to befall him, you would certainly bring down my gray hairs with calamity to She'-ol.'<sup>h</sup>

30 "And now, as soon as I should come to your slave my father without the boy along with us, when that one's soul is bound up with this one's soul,<sup>i</sup> 31 then it is certain to occur that as soon as he sees that the boy is not there he will simply die, and your slaves will indeed bring down the gray hairs of your slave our father with grief to She'-ol. 32 For your slave became surety<sup>j</sup> for the boy when away from his father, saying, 'If I fail to bring him back to you, then I shall have sinned against my father forever.'<sup>k</sup> 33 So now, please, let your slave stay instead of the boy as a slave to my master, that the boy may go up with his brothers.<sup>l</sup> 34 For how can I go up to my father without the boy along with me, for fear that then I may look upon the calamity that will find out my father?"<sup>a</sup>

45 At this Joseph was no longer able to control himself before all those who were stationed by him.<sup>b</sup> So he cried out: "HAVE everybody go out from me!" And no one else stood with him while Joseph made himself known to his brothers.<sup>c</sup>

2 And he began to raise his voice in weeping,<sup>d</sup> so that the Egyptians got to hear it and Phar'ao's house got to hear it. 3 Finally Joseph said to his brothers: "I am Joseph. But his brothers were unable to answer him at all, because they were disturbed by reason of him.<sup>e</sup> 4 So Joseph said to his brothers: "Come close to me, please." With that they came close to him.

Then he said: "I am Joseph YOUR brother, whom you sold into Egypt."<sup>f</sup> 5 But now do not feel hurt<sup>g</sup> and do not be angry with yourselves because you sold me here; because for the preservation of life God has sent me ahead of you.<sup>h</sup> 6 For this is the second year of the famine in the midst of the earth,<sup>i</sup> and there are yet five years in which there will be no plowing time or harvest.<sup>j</sup> 7 Consequently God sent me ahead of you in order to place a remnant<sup>k</sup> for you men in the earth and to keep you alive by a great escape. 8 So now it was not you who sent me here,<sup>l</sup> but it was the true God, that he might appoint me a father<sup>m</sup> to Phar'ao and a lord for all his house and as one dominating over all the land of Egypt.

9 "Go up quickly to my father, and you must say to him, 'This is what your son Joseph has said: "God has appointed me lord for all Egypt."<sup>n</sup> Come down to me. Do not delay. 10 And you must dwell in the land of Go'shen,<sup>a</sup> and you must continue near me, you and your sons and the sons of your sons and your flocks and your herds and everything you have. 11 And I will supply you with food there, for there are yet five years of famine;<sup>b</sup> for fear you and your house and everything you have may come to poverty." 12 And here your eyes and the eyes of my brother Benjamin are seeing that it is my mouth that is speaking to you.<sup>c</sup> 13 So you must tell my father about all my glory in Egypt and everything you have seen; and you must hurry and bring my father down here."

14 Then he fell upon the neck of Benjamin his brother and gave way to weeping, and Benjamin wept upon his neck.<sup>d</sup> 15 And he proceeded to kiss all his brothers and to weep over them,<sup>e</sup> and after that his brothers spoke with him.

16 And the news was heard at the house of Phar'aoth, saying: "Joseph's brothers have come!" And it proved to be good in the eyes of Phar'aoth and of his servants.<sup>f</sup> 17 Accordingly Phar'aoth said to Joseph: "Say to your brothers, 'Do this: Load your beasts of burden and go enter the land of Ca'naan,<sup>g</sup> 18 and take your father and your households and come here to me, that I may give you the good of the land of Egypt; and eat the fat part of the land.<sup>h</sup> 19 And you yourself are commanded:<sup>i</sup> "Do this: TAKE for yourselves wagons! from the land of Egypt for your little ones and your wives, and you must lift your father on one and come here.<sup>k</sup> 20 And do not let your eye feel sorry over your equipment,<sup>l</sup> because the good of all the land of Egypt is yours."<sup>m</sup>

provisions<sup>a</sup> for the way. 22 To each of them he gave individual changes of mantles,<sup>b</sup> but to Benjamin he gave three hundred silver pieces and five changes of mantles.<sup>c</sup> 23 And to his father he sent as follows: ten asses carrying good things of Egypt and ten she-asses carrying grain and bread and sustenance for his father for the way. 24 Thus he sent his brothers off, and they proceeded to go. However, he said to them: "Do not get exasperated at one another on the way."<sup>d</sup>

25 And they began going up out of Egypt and at length came into the land of Ca'naan to Jacob their father. 26 Then they reported to him, saying: "Joseph is still alive, and he is the one dominating over all the land of Egypt!"<sup>e</sup> But his heart grew numb, because he did not believe them.<sup>f</sup> 27 When they went on speaking to him all of Joseph's words that he had spoken to them and he got to see the wagons that Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob their father began to revive.<sup>g</sup> 28 Then Israel exclaimed: "It is enough! Joseph my son is still alive! Ah, let me go and see him before I die!"<sup>h</sup>

46 Accordingly Israel and all who were his pulled out and came to Be'er-she'ba,<sup>i</sup> and he proceeded to sacrifice sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac.<sup>j</sup> 2 Then God talked to Israel in visions of the night and said:<sup>k</sup> "Jacob, Jacob!" to which he said: "Here I am!"<sup>l</sup> 3 And he went on to say: "I am the true God,<sup>m</sup> the God of your father.<sup>n</sup> Do not be afraid to go down to Egypt, for I shall constitute you there into a great nation.<sup>o</sup> 4 I myself shall go down with you to Egypt and I myself shall surely bring you up also;<sup>p</sup> and Joseph will lay his hand upon your eyes."<sup>q</sup>

5 After that Jacob got up out of Be'er-she'ba, and the sons of Israel continued transporting Jacob their father and their little ones and their wives in the wagons that Phar'ao'h had sent to transport him.<sup>a</sup> 6 Further, they took along their herds and their goods, which they had accumulated in the land of Ca'-naan.<sup>b</sup> Eventually they came into Egypt, Jacob and all his offspring with him. 7 He brought his sons and his sons' sons with him, his daughters and his sons' daughters, even all his offspring, with him into Egypt.<sup>c</sup>

8 Now these are the names of Israel's sons who came into Egypt:<sup>d</sup> Jacob and his sons: Jacob's firstborn was Reu'ben.<sup>e</sup>

9 And the sons of Reu'ben were Ha'noch and Pal'lu and Hez'ron and Car'mi.<sup>f</sup>

14 And the sons of Zeb'u-lun<sup>a</sup> were Se'red and E'lon and Jah'-le-el.<sup>b</sup>

17 And the sons of Ash'e-ra<sup>a</sup> were Im'nah and Ish'vah and Ish'vi and Be-ri'ah,<sup>b</sup> and there was Se'rah their sister.

And the sons of Be-ri'ah were He'ber and Mal'chi-el.<sup>c</sup>

20 And there came to be born to Joseph in the land of Egypt Ma-nas'seh<sup>h</sup> and E'phra-im,<sup>i</sup> whom As'e-nath<sup>j</sup> the daughter of Pot'i'phe-ra the priest of On bore to him.

22 These are the sons of Rachel who were born to Jacob. All the souls were fourteen.

24 And the sons of Naph'tali<sup>s</sup> were Jah'ze-el and Gu'ni<sup>t</sup> and Je'zer and Shil'lem.<sup>u</sup>

25 These are the sons of Bil'-hah,<sup>v</sup> whom La'ban gave to his daughter Rachel. In time she bore these to Jacob; all the souls were seven.

26 All the souls who came to Jacob into Egypt were those who issued out of his upper thigh,<sup>w</sup> aside from the wives of Jacob's sons. All the souls were sixty-six. 27 And Joseph's sons who were born to him in Egypt were two souls. All the souls of the house of Jacob who came into Egypt were seventy.<sup>x</sup>

28 And he sent Judah<sup>y</sup> in advance of him to Joseph to impart information ahead of him to Go'-shen. After that they came into the land of Go'shen.<sup>a</sup> 29 Then Joseph had his chariot made ready and went up to meet Israel his father at Go'shen.<sup>b</sup> When he appeared to him he at once fell upon his neck and gave way to tears upon his neck again and again.<sup>c</sup> 30 Finally Israel said to Joseph: "This time I am willing to die,<sup>d</sup> now that I have seen your face, since you are still alive."

31 Then Joseph said to his brothers and to his father's household: "Let me go up and report to Phar'ah and say to him,<sup>e</sup> 'My brothers and my father's household who were in the land of Ca'naan have come here to me.'<sup>f</sup> 32 And the men are shepherds,<sup>g</sup> because they became stock raisers;<sup>h</sup> and their flocks and their herds and all they have they have brought here."<sup>i</sup> 33 And what must occur is that when Phar'ah will call you and actually say, 'What is your occupation?' 34 You must say, 'Your servants have continued to be stock raisers from our youth until now, both we and our forefathers,<sup>j</sup> in order that you may dwell in the land of Go'shen,<sup>k</sup> because every herder of sheep is a detestable thing to Egypt."<sup>l</sup>

47 Accordingly Joseph came and reported to Phar'ah and said:<sup>m</sup> "My father and my brothers and their flocks and their herds and all they have have come from the land of Ca'naan, and here they are in the land of Go'shen."<sup>n</sup> 2 And from the whole number of his brothers he took five men, that he might present them to Phar'ah.<sup>o</sup>

3 Then Phar'ah said to his brothers: "What is your occupation?"<sup>p</sup> So they said to Phar'ah: "Your servants are herders of sheep,<sup>q</sup> both we and our forefathers."<sup>r</sup> 4 After that they said to Phar'ah: "We have come to reside as aliens in the land,<sup>s</sup> because there is no pasture for the flock that your servants have,<sup>a</sup> for the famine is severe in the land of Ca'naan.<sup>b</sup> And now let your servants dwell, please, in the land of Go'shen."<sup>c</sup> 5 At that Phar'ah said to Joseph: "Your father and your brothers have come here to you. 6 The land of Egypt is at your disposal.<sup>d</sup> Have your father and your brothers dwell in the very best of the land.<sup>e</sup> Let them dwell in the land of Go'shen,<sup>f</sup> and if you know that there are among them courageous men,<sup>g</sup> you must appoint them cattle chiefs over what is mine."<sup>h</sup>

7 Then Joseph brought in Jacob his father and introduced him to Phar'ah, and Jacob proceeded to bless Phar'ah.<sup>i</sup> 8 Phar'ah now said to Jacob: "How many are the days of the years of your life?" 9 So Jacob said to Phar'ah: "The days of the years of my alien residences are a hundred and thirty years.<sup>j</sup> Few and distressing the days of the years of my life have proved,<sup>k</sup> and they have not reached the days of the years of the lives of my fathers in the days of their alien residences."<sup>l</sup> 10 After that Jacob blessed Phar'ah and went out from before Phar'ah.<sup>m</sup>

11 Thus Joseph had his father and his brothers dwell and he gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the very best of the land, in the land of Ram'esses,<sup>n</sup> just as Phar'ah had commanded. 12 And Joseph kept supplying his father and his brothers and the entire household of his father with bread,<sup>o</sup> according to the number of the little ones.<sup>p</sup>

13 Now there was no bread in all the land, because the famine was very severe;<sup>q</sup> and the land of Egypt and the land of Ca'naan became exhausted as a result of the famine.<sup>r</sup> 14 And Joseph went on picking up all the money that was to be found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Ca'naan for the cereals which people were buying;<sup>a</sup> and Joseph kept bringing the money into Phar'ao's house. 15 In time the money from the land of Egypt and the land of Ca'naan was spent, and all the Egyptians began coming to Joseph, saying: "Give us bread!<sup>b</sup> And why should we die in front of you because money has run out?"<sup>c</sup> 16 Then Joseph said: "Hand over YOUR livestock and I shall give YOU bread in exchange for your livestock, if money has run out." 17 And they began bringing their livestock to Joseph; and Joseph kept giving them bread in exchange for their horses and the livestock of the flock and the livestock of the herd and the asses,<sup>d</sup> and he kept providing them with bread in exchange for all their livestock during that year.

18 Gradually that year came to its close, and they began coming to him in the next year and saying to him: "We shall not hide it from my lord but the money and the stock of domestic animals have been spent to my lord.<sup>e</sup> There remains nothing before my lord but our bodies and our land.<sup>f</sup> 19 Why should we die before your eyes,<sup>g</sup> both we and our land? Buy us and our land for bread,<sup>h</sup> and we together with our land will become slaves to Phar'ao; and give us seed that we may live and not die and our land not be laid desolate."<sup>i</sup> 20 So Joseph bought all the land of the Egyptians for Phar'ao,<sup>j</sup> because the Egyptians sold each one his field, for the famine had got a strong grip on them; and the land came to be Phar'ao's.

21 As for the people, he removed them into cities from one end of the territory of Egypt to its other end.<sup>k</sup> 22 Only the land of the priests he did not buy,<sup>l</sup> because the rations for the priests were from Phar'ao and they ate their rations that Phar'ao had gave them.<sup>a</sup> That is why they did not sell their land.<sup>b</sup> 23 Then Joseph said to the people: "See, I have today bought you and YOUR land for Phar'ao. Here is seed for you, and you must sow the land with it.<sup>c</sup> 24 When it has resulted in produce,<sup>d</sup> then you must give a fifth to Phar'ao,<sup>e</sup> but four parts will become YOURS as seed for the field and as food for you and for those who are in your houses and for your little ones to eat."<sup>f</sup> 25 Consequently they said: "You have preserved our lives.<sup>g</sup> Let us find favor in the eyes of my lord, and we will become slaves to Phar'ao."<sup>h</sup> 26 And Joseph proceeded to make it a decree down to this day over the landed estate of Egypt for Phar'ao to have to the amount of a fifth. Only the land of the priests as a distinct group did not become Phar'ao's.<sup>i</sup>

27 And Israel continued to dwell in the land of Egypt, in the land of Go'shen;<sup>j</sup> and they became settled in it and were fruitful and grew to be very many.<sup>k</sup> 28 And Jacob lived on in the land of Egypt for seventeen years, so that Jacob's days, the years of his life, came to be a hundred and forty-seven years.<sup>l</sup>

29 Gradually the days approached for Israel to die.<sup>m</sup> So he called his son Joseph and said to him: "If, now, I have found favor in your eyes, place your hand, please, under my thigh,<sup>n</sup> and you must exercise loving-kindness and trustworthiness toward me.<sup>o</sup> (Please, do not bury me in Egypt.)<sup>p</sup> 30 And I must lie with my fathers,<sup>q</sup> and you must carry me out of Egypt and bury me in their grave."<sup>r</sup> Accordingly he said: "I myself shall do in keeping with your word."<sup>s</sup> 31 Then he said: "Swear to me."<sup>t</sup> So he swore to him.<sup>u</sup> At that Israel prostrated himself over the head of the couch.<sup>v</sup>

48 And it came about after these things that it was said to Joseph: "Look, your father is becoming weak." At that he took with him his two sons Ma-nas'seh and E'phra-im.<sup>a</sup> 2 Then it was reported to Jacob and said: "Here your son Joseph has come to you." So Israel exerted his strength and sat up on his couch. 3 And Jacob proceeded to say to Joseph:

"God Almighty appeared to me at Luz<sup>b</sup> in the land of Ca'naan that he might bless me.<sup>c</sup> 4 And he went on to say to me, 'Here I am making you fruitful,<sup>d</sup> and I will make you many and I will transform you into a congregation of peoples<sup>e</sup> and I will give this land to your seed after you for a possession to time indefinite.'<sup>f</sup> 5 And now your two sons who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came here to you into Egypt, they are mine.<sup>g</sup> E'phra-im and Ma-nas'seh will become mine like Reu'-ben and Sim'e-on.<sup>h</sup> 6 But your progeny to which you shall become father after them will become yours. Together with the name of their brothers they will be called in their inheritance.<sup>i</sup> 7 And as for me, when I was coming from Pad'dan,<sup>j</sup> Rachel died<sup>k</sup> alongside me in the land of Ca'naan on the way while there was yet a good stretch of land before coming to Eph'rath,<sup>l</sup> so that I buried her there on the way to Eph'rath, that is to say, Beth'le-hem."<sup>m</sup>

8 Then Israel saw Joseph's sons and said: "Who are these?"<sup>n</sup> 9 So Joseph said to his father: "They are my sons whom God has given me in this place."<sup>o</sup> At this he said: "Bring them, please, to me that I may bless them."<sup>p</sup> 10 Now the eyes of Israel were dull from old age.<sup>q</sup> He was unable to see. Accordingly he brought them close to him, and he then kissed them and embraced them.<sup>a</sup> 11 And Israel went on to say to Joseph: "I had no idea of seeing your face,<sup>b</sup> but here God has let me see also your offspring." 12 After that Joseph brought them out away from his knees, and he bowed down with his face to the earth.<sup>c</sup>

"The true God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked,<sup>k</sup>

The true God who has been shepherding me during all my existence until this day,<sup>l</sup>

16 The angel who has been recovering me from all calamity,<sup>m</sup> bless the boys.<sup>n</sup>

And let my name be called upon them and the name of my fathers, Abraham and Isaac.<sup>o</sup>

And let them increase to a multitude in the midst of the earth."<sup>p</sup>

17 When Joseph saw that his father kept his right hand placed on E'phra-im's head, it was displeasing to him,<sup>q</sup> and he tried to take hold of his father's hand to remove it from E'phra-im's head to Ma-nas'seh's head.<sup>r</sup> 18 Hence Joseph said to his father: "Not so, my father, because this is the firstborn.<sup>s</sup> Put your right hand on his head."<sup>t</sup> 19 But his father kept refusing and said: "I know it, my son, I know it.

He too will become a people and he too will become great.<sup>a</sup> But, just the same, his younger brother will become greater than he will,<sup>b</sup> and his offspring will become the full equivalent of nations.<sup>c</sup> 20 And he continued to bless them on that day,<sup>d</sup> saying:

"By means of you let Israel repeatedly pronounce blessing, saying,

'May God constitute you like E'phra-im and like Ma-nas'seh.'<sup>e</sup>"

Thus he kept putting E'phra-im before Ma-nas'seh.<sup>f</sup>

21 After that Israel said to Joseph: "Look, I am dying,<sup>g</sup> but God will certainly continue with you people and return you to the land of your forefathers.<sup>h</sup>

22 As for me, I do give you one shoulder of land more than to your brothers,<sup>i</sup> which I took from the hand of the Am'or-ites by my sword and by my bow."

49 Later on Jacob called his sons and said: "Gather yourselves together that I may tell you what will happen to you in the final part of the days. 2 Assemble yourselves and listen, you sons of Jacob, yes, listen to Israel your father.<sup>j</sup>

3 "Reu'ben, you are my first-born,<sup>k</sup> my vigor and the beginning of my generative power,<sup>l</sup> the excellence of dignity and the excellence of strength. 4 With reckless license like waters, do not you excel,<sup>m</sup> because you have gone up to your father's bed.<sup>n</sup> At that time you profaned my lounge.<sup>o</sup> He went up to it!

29 After that he commanded them and said to them: "I am being gathered to my people.<sup>a</sup> Bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of E'phron the Hit'tite.<sup>b</sup>

30 In the cave that is in the field of Mach-pe'lah that is in front of Mam're in the land of Ca'naan, the field that Abraham purchased from E'phron the Hit'tite for the possession of a burial place.<sup>c</sup>

32 The field purchased and the cave that is in it were from the sons of Heth.<sup>g</sup>

33 Thus Jacob finished giving commands to his sons. Then he gathered his feet up onto the couch and expired and was gathered to his people.<sup>h</sup>

50 Then Joseph fell upon the face of his father<sup>i</sup> and burst into tears over him and kissed him.<sup>j</sup>

2 After that Joseph commanded his servants, the physicians, to embalm<sup>k</sup> his father. So the physicians embalmed Israel.<sup>l</sup>

3 and they took fully forty days for him, for this many days they customarily take for the embalming, and the Egyptians continued to shed tears for him seventy days.<sup>m</sup>

4 Finally the days of weeping for him passed, and Joseph spoke to Phar'ao's household, saying: "If, now, I have found favor in your eyes,<sup>n</sup> speak, please, in the hearing of Phar'ao, saying, 5 'My father made me swear,<sup>o</sup> saying: "Look! I am dying.<sup>p</sup> In my burial place which I have excavated for myself in the land of Ca'naan<sup>q</sup> is where you are to bury me."<sup>r</sup> And now, please, let me go up and bury my father, after which I am willing to return."<sup>s</sup>

o Ge 23:17; Ge 49:30; p Ge 46:4; Ge 47:29; Joh 19:38.

said: "Go up and bury your father just as he made you swear."<sup>a</sup>

7 So Joseph went up to bury his father, and there went up with him all of Pharaoh's servants, the older men<sup>b</sup> of his household and all the older men of the land of Egypt, 8 and all of Joseph's household and his brothers and the household of his father.<sup>c</sup> Only their little children and their flocks and their herds they left in the land of Go'shen. 9 There also went up with him both chariots<sup>d</sup> and horsemen, and the camp came to be very numerous. 10 Then they came to the threshing floor<sup>e</sup> of A'tad, which is in the region of the Jordan,<sup>f</sup> and there they carried on a very great and heavy wailing and he kept up the mourning rites for his father seven days.<sup>g</sup> 11 And the inhabitants of the land, the Canaan-ites, got to see the mourning rites in the threshing floor of A'tad, and they exclaimed: "This is a heavy mourning for the Egyptians!" That is why its name was called A'bel-miz'ra-im, which is in the region of the Jordan.<sup>h</sup>

12 And his sons proceeded to do for him exactly as he had commanded them.<sup>i</sup> 13 So his sons carried him into the land of Canaan and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, the field that Abraham had purchased for the possession of a burial place from E'phron the Hittite in front of Mam're.<sup>j</sup> 14 Afterward Joseph returned to Egypt, he and his brothers and all those who went up with him to bury his father, after he had buried his father.

15 When the brothers of Joseph saw that their father was dead, they began to say: "It may be that Joseph is harboring animosity against us<sup>k</sup> and he will be sure to repay us for all the evil that we have rendered him."<sup>a</sup>

16 So they expressed a command to Joseph in these words: "Your father gave the command before his death, saying, 17 'This is what you are to say to Joseph: "I beseech you, pardon,<sup>b</sup> please, the revolt of your brothers and their sin in that they have rendered evil to you."<sup>c</sup> And now pardon, please, the revolt of the servants of your father's God."<sup>d</sup> And Joseph burst into tears when they spoke to him. 18 Following that his brothers also came and fell down before him and said: "Here we are as slaves to you!"<sup>e</sup> 19 Then Joseph said to them: "Do not be afraid, for am I in the place of God?"<sup>f</sup> 20 As for you, you had evil in mind against me. God had it in mind for good for the purpose of acting as at this day to preserve many people alive.<sup>g</sup> 21 So now do not be afraid. I myself shall keep supplying you and your little children with food."<sup>h</sup> Thus he comforted them and spoke reassuringly to them.

Second Col.

22 And Joseph continued to dwell in Egypt, he and the house of his father; and Joseph lived for a hundred and ten years. 23 And Joseph got to see E'phraim's sons of the third generation,<sup>i</sup> also the sons of Ma'chir,<sup>j</sup> Manasseh's son. They were born upon Joseph's knees.<sup>k</sup> 24 At length Joseph said to his brothers: "I am dying; but God will without fail turn his attention to you,<sup>l</sup> and he will certainly bring you up out of this land to the land about which he swore to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob."<sup>m</sup> 25 Hence Joseph made the sons of Israel swear, saying: "God will without fail turn his attention to you. Accordingly you must take my bones up out of here."<sup>n</sup> 26 After that Joseph died at the age of a hundred and ten years; and they had him embalmed,<sup>o</sup> and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

EXODUS

8 In time there arose over Egypt a new king who did not know Joseph.<sup>q</sup> 9 And he proceeded to say to his people: "Look! The people of the sons of Israel are more numerous and mightier than we are."<sup>r</sup> 10 Come on! Let us deal shrewdly with them,<sup>s</sup> for fear they may multiply, and it must turn out that, in case war should befall us, then they certainly will also be added to those who hate us and will fight against us and go up out of the country.<sup>t</sup>

11 So they set over them chiefs of forced labor for the purpose of oppressing them in their burden-bearing;<sup>u</sup> and they went building cities as storage places for Phar'ah, namely, Pi'thom and Ra-am'ses.<sup>v</sup> 12 But the more they would oppress them, the more they would multiply and the more they kept spreading abroad, so that they felt a sickening dread as a result of the sons of Israel.<sup>w</sup> 13 Consequently the Egyptians made the sons of Israel slave under tyranny.<sup>x</sup> 14 And they kept making their life bitter with hard slavery at clay mortar<sup>a</sup> and bricks and with every form of slavery in the field,<sup>b</sup> yes, every form of slavery of theirs in which they used them as slaves under tyranny.<sup>c</sup>

15 Later on the king of Egypt said to the Hebrew midwives,<sup>d</sup> the name of one of whom was Shiph'rah and the name of the other Pu'ah, 16 yes, he went so far as to say: "When you help the Hebrew women to give birth and you do see them on the stool for childbirth, if it is a son, you must also put it to death; but if it is a daughter, it must also live."

17 However, the midwives feared the true God,<sup>e</sup> and they did not do as the king of Egypt had spoken to them,<sup>f</sup> but they would preserve the male children alive.<sup>g</sup> 18 In time the king of Egypt called the midwives and said to them: "Why is it you have done this thing, in that you preserved the male children alive?"<sup>h</sup>

19 In turn the midwives said to Phar'ah: "Because the Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women. Because they are lively, they have already given birth before the midwife can come in to them."

20 So God dealt well with the midwives;<sup>i</sup> and the people kept growing more numerous and becoming very mighty. 21 And it came about that because the midwives had feared the true God he later presented them with families.<sup>j</sup> 22 Finally Phar'ah commanded all his people, saying: "Every newborn son you are to throw into the river Nile, but every daughter you are to preserve alive."<sup>k</sup>

2 Meantime, a certain man of the house of Le'vi went ahead and took a daughter of Le'vi.<sup>l</sup> 2 And the woman became pregnant and brought a son to birth. When she saw how good-looking he was, she kept him concealed<sup>a</sup> for three lunar months.<sup>b</sup> 3 When she was no longer able to conceal him,<sup>c</sup> she then took for him an ark of papyrus and coated it with bitumen and pitch<sup>d</sup> and put the child in it and put it among the reeds<sup>e</sup> by the bank of the river Nile. 4 Further, his sister stationed herself at a distance to find out what would be done with him.<sup>f</sup>

5 After a while Phar'ao'h's daughter came down to bathe in the Nile River, and her female attendants were walking by the side of the Nile River. And she caught sight of the ark in the middle of the reeds. Immediately she sent her slave girl that she might get it.<sup>g</sup> 6 When she opened it she got to see the child, and here the boy was weeping. At that she felt compassion for him,<sup>h</sup> although she said: "This is one of the children of the Hebrews." 7 Then his sister said to Phar'ao'h's daughter: "Shall I go and specially call for you a nursing woman from the Hebrew women that she may nurse the child for you?" 8 So Phar'ao'h's daughter said to her: "Go!" At once the maiden went and called the child's mother.<sup>i</sup> 9 Phar'ao'h's daughter then said to her: "Take this child with you and nurse him for me, and I myself shall give you your wages."<sup>j</sup> Accordingly the woman took the child and nursed him. 10 And the child grew up. Then she brought him to Phar'ao'h's daughter, so that he became a son to her;<sup>k</sup> and she proceeded to call his name Moses and to say: "It is because I have drawn him out of the water."<sup>l</sup>

11 Now it came about in those days, as Moses was becoming strong, that he went out to his brothers that he might look at the burdens they were bearing;<sup>a</sup> and he caught sight of a certain Egyptian striking a certain Hebrew of his brothers.<sup>b</sup> 12 So he turned this way and that and saw there was nobody in sight. Then he struck the Egyptian down and hid him in the sand.<sup>c</sup>

13 However, he went out on the following day and here there were two Hebrew men struggling with each other. So he said to the one in the wrong: "Why should you strike your companion?"<sup>d</sup> 14 At this he said: "Who appointed you as a prince and judge over us?"<sup>e</sup> Are you intending to kill me just as you killed the Egyptian?"<sup>f</sup> Moses now got afraid and said: "Surely the thing has become known!"<sup>g</sup>

15 Subsequently Phar'ao'h got to hear of this thing, and he attempted to kill Moses;<sup>h</sup> but Moses ran away<sup>i</sup> from Phar'ao'h that he might dwell in the land of Mid'i-an;<sup>j</sup> and he took a seat by a well. 16 Now the priest<sup>k</sup> of Mid'i-an had seven daughters, and as usual they came and drew water and filled the gutters to water their father's flock.<sup>l</sup> 17 And as usual the shepherds came and drove them away. At this Moses got up and helped the women out and watered their flock.<sup>m</sup> 18 So when they came home to Reu'el<sup>n</sup> their father he exclaimed: "How is it you have come home so quickly today?" 19 To this they said: "A certain Egyptian<sup>o</sup> delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds and, besides, he actually drew water for us that he might water the flock."<sup>p</sup> 20 Then he said to his daughters: "But where is he? Why is it that you have left the man behind? Call him, that he may eat bread."<sup>q</sup> 21 After that Moses showed willingness to dwell with the man, and he gave Zip-po'rah<sup>r</sup> his daughter to Moses. 22 Later she bore a son and he called his name Ger'shom,<sup>s</sup> because, he

23 And it came about during those many days that the king of Egypt finally died,<sup>b</sup> but the sons of Israel continued to sigh because of the slavery and to cry out in complaint,<sup>c</sup> and their cry for help kept going up to the true God because of the slavery.<sup>d</sup> 24 In time God heard<sup>e</sup> their groaning<sup>f</sup> and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.<sup>g</sup> 25 So God looked on the sons of Israel and God took notice.

3 And Moses became a shepherd of the flock of Jeth'ro,<sup>h</sup> the priest of Mid'i-an, whose son-in-law he was.<sup>i</sup> While he was driving the flock to the west side of the wilderness, he came at length to the mountain of the true God,<sup>j</sup> to Ho'reb.<sup>k</sup> 2 Then Jehovah's angel appeared to him in a flame of fire in the midst of a thornbush.<sup>l</sup> As he kept looking, why, here the thornbush was burning with the fire and yet the thornbush was not consumed. 3 At this Moses said: "Let me just turn aside that I may inspect this great phenomenon, as to why the thornbush is not burnt up."<sup>m</sup> 4 When Jehovah saw that he turned aside to inspect, God at once called to him out of the midst of the thornbush and said: "Moses! Moses!" to which he said: "Here I am."<sup>n</sup> 5 Then he said: "Do not come near here. Draw your sandals from off your feet, because the place where you are standing is holy ground."<sup>o</sup>

6 And he went on to say: "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob."<sup>p</sup> Then Moses concealed his face, because he was afraid to look at the true God. 7 And Jehovah added: "Unquestionably I have seen the affliction of my people who are in Egypt, and I have heard

11 However, Moses said to the true God: "Who am I that I should go to Phar'aoth and that I have to bring the sons of Israel out of Egypt?"<sup>g</sup> 12 To this he said: "Because I shall prove to be with you,<sup>h</sup> and this is the sign for you that it is I who have sent you:<sup>i</sup> After you have brought the people out of Egypt, you people will serve the true God on this mountain."<sup>j</sup>

13 Nevertheless, Moses said to the true God: "Suppose I am now come to the sons of Israel and I do say to them, 'The God of your forefathers has sent me to you,' and they do say to me, 'What is his name?'<sup>k</sup> What shall I say to them?" 14 At this God said to Moses: "I SHALL PROVE TO BE WHAT I SHALL PROVE TO BE."<sup>l</sup> And he added: "This is what you are to say to the sons of Israel, 'I SHALL PROVE TO BE has sent me to you.'"<sup>m</sup> 15 Then God said once more to Moses:

4 However, Moses in answering said: "But suppose they do not believe me and do not listen to my voice,<sup>a</sup> because they are going to say, 'Jehovah did not appear to you.'<sup>b</sup> 2 Then Jehovah said to him: "What is that in your hand?" to which he said: "A rod."<sup>b</sup> 3 Next he said: "Throw it on the earth." So he threw it on the earth, and it became a serpent;<sup>c</sup> and Moses began to flee from it. 4 Jehovah now said to Moses: "Thrust your hand out and grab hold of it by the tail." So he thrust his hand out and grabbed hold of it, and it became a rod in his palm. 5 "In order that," to quote him, "they may believe that Jehovah the God of their forefathers,<sup>d</sup> the God of Abraham,<sup>e</sup> the God of Isaac<sup>f</sup> and the God of Jacob,<sup>g</sup> has appeared to you."<sup>h</sup>

6 Then Jehovah said to him once more: "Stick your hand, please, into the upper fold of your garment." So he stuck his hand into the upper fold of his garment. When he drew it out, why, here his hand was stricken with leprosy like snow!<sup>i</sup> 7 After that he said: "Return your hand into the upper fold of your garment." So he returned his hand into the upper fold of his garment. When he drew it out of the upper fold of his garment, why, here it was restored like the rest of his flesh!<sup>j</sup> 8 "And it must occur that," to quote him, "if they will not believe you and will not listen to the voice of the first sign, then they will certainly believe the voice of the later sign."<sup>k</sup> 9 Still, it must occur that, if they will not believe even these two signs and will not listen to your voice,<sup>l</sup> then you will have to take some water from the Nile River and pour it out on the dry land; and the water that you will take from the Nile River will certainly become, yes, it will indeed become blood on the dry land."<sup>m</sup>

10 Moses now said to Jehovah: "Excuse me, Jehovah, but I am not a fluent speaker, neither since yesterday nor since before that nor since your speaking to your servant, for I am slow of mouth and slow of tongue."<sup>a</sup>

11 At that Jehovah said to him: "Who appointed a mouth for man or who appoints the speechless or the deaf or the clear-sighted or the blind? Is it not I, Jehovah?"<sup>b</sup>

12 So now go, and I myself shall prove to be with your mouth and I will teach you what you ought to say."<sup>c</sup>

13 But he said: "Excuse me, Jehovah, but send, please, by the hand of the one whom you are going to send."<sup>d</sup>

14 Then Jehovah's anger grew hot against Moses and he said: "Is not Aaron the Levite your brother?"<sup>e</sup> I do know that he can really speak. And, besides, here he is on his way out to meet you. When he does see you, he will certainly rejoice in his heart."<sup>f</sup>

15 And you must speak to him and put the words in his mouth;<sup>g</sup> and I myself shall prove to be with your mouth and his mouth,<sup>h</sup> and I will teach you men what you are to do."<sup>i</sup>

16 And he must speak for you to the people; and it must occur that he will serve as a mouth to you,<sup>j</sup> and you will serve as God to him.<sup>k</sup>

17 And this rod you will take in your hand that you may perform the signs with it."<sup>l</sup>

18 Accordingly Moses went and returned to Jeth'ro his father-in-law and said to him: "I want to go, please, and return to my brothers who are in Egypt that I may see whether they are still alive."<sup>m</sup> So Jeth'ro said to Moses: "Go in peace."<sup>n</sup>

19 After that Jehovah said to Moses in Mid'i-an: "Go, return to Egypt, because all the men who were hunting for your soul are dead."<sup>o</sup>

ceeded to return to the land of Egypt. Moreover, Moses took the rod of the true God in his hand.<sup>a</sup>

21 And Jehovah went on to say to Moses: "After you have gone and returned to Egypt see that you actually perform all the miracles that I have put in your hand before Phar'aoth.<sup>b</sup> As for me, I shall let his heart become obstinate;<sup>c</sup> and he will not send the people away.<sup>d</sup>

22 And you must say to Phar'aoth, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "Israel is my son, my firstborn."<sup>e</sup>

23 And I say to you: Send my son away that he may serve me. But should you refuse to send him away, here I am killing your son, your firstborn."<sup>f</sup>

25 Finally Zip-po'rah<sup>j</sup> took a flint and cut off her son's foreskin<sup>k</sup> and caused it to touch his feet and said: "It is because you are a bridegroom of blood to me."<sup>l</sup>

26 Consequently he let go of him. At that time she said: "A bridegroom of blood," because of the circumcision.

27 Then Jehovah said to Aaron: "Go to meet Moses into the wilderness."<sup>m</sup> With that he went and met him in the mountain of the true God<sup>n</sup> and kissed him.

28 And Moses proceeded to tell Aaron all the words of Jehovah, who had sent him,<sup>o</sup> and all the signs that he had commanded him to do.<sup>p</sup>

29 After that Moses and Aaron went and gathered all the older men of the sons of Israel.<sup>q</sup>

30 Then Aaron spoke all the words that Jehovah had spoken to Moses,<sup>r</sup> and he performed the signs<sup>s</sup> under the eyes of the people.

5 And afterward Moses and Aaron went in and proceeded to say to Phar'aoth: "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, 'Send my people away that they may celebrate a festival to me in the wilderness.'<sup>d</sup> 2 But Phar'aoth said: "Who is Jehovah," so that I should obey his voice to send Israel away?<sup>f</sup> I do not know Jehovah at all<sup>g</sup> and, what is more, I am not going to send Israel away."<sup>h</sup> 3 However, they went on to say: "The God of the Hebrews has come in touch with us.<sup>i</sup> We want to go, please, a journey of three days into the wilderness and sacrifice to Jehovah our God;<sup>j</sup> otherwise he may strike at us with pestilence or with sword."<sup>k</sup> 4 At this the king of Egypt said to them: "Why is it, Moses and Aaron, that you cause the people to leave off from their works?<sup>l</sup> Go bearing your burdens!"<sup>m</sup> 5 And Phar'aoth continued: "Look! The people of the land are now many,<sup>n</sup> and you indeed make them desist from their bearing of burdens."<sup>o</sup>

6 Immediately on that day Phar'aoth commanded those who drove the people to work and their officers,<sup>p</sup> saying: 7 "You must not gather straw to give to the people to make bricks<sup>q</sup> as formerly. Let them themselves go and gather straw for themselves. 8 Moreover, the required amount of bricks that they were making formerly, you will further impose upon them. 10 So those who drove the people to work<sup>a</sup> and their officers went out and said to the people: "Here is what Phar'aoth has said, 'I am giving you no more straw. 11 You yourselves go, get straw for yourselves wherever you may find it, because there is to be no reducing of your services one bit.'<sup>b</sup> 12 Consequently the people scattered about over all the land of Egypt to gather stubble for straw. 13 And those who drove them to work kept urging them,<sup>c</sup> saying: "Finish your works, each one his work, day for day, just as when straw was available."<sup>d</sup> 14 Later on the officers<sup>e</sup> of the sons of Israel, whom Phar'aoth's taskmasters had set over them, were beaten,<sup>f</sup> these saying: "Why is it you did not finish your prescribed task in making bricks<sup>g</sup> as formerly, both yesterday and today?"<sup>h</sup>

15 Consequently the officers<sup>i</sup> of the sons of Israel went in and began to cry out to Phar'aoth, saying: "Why do you deal this way with your servants? 16 There is no straw given to your servants and yet they are saying to us, 'Make bricks!' and here your servants are beaten, whereas your own people are at fault."<sup>j</sup>

17 But he said: "You are relaxing, you are relaxing!<sup>k</sup> That is why you are saying, 'We want to go, we want to sacrifice to Jehovah.'<sup>l</sup> 18 And now go, serve! Though no straw will be given to you, yet you are to give the fixed amount of bricks."<sup>m</sup>

19 Then the officers of the sons of Israel saw themselves in an evil plight at the saying:<sup>n</sup> "You must not deduct from your bricks one bit of anyone's daily rate."<sup>o</sup> 20 After that they encountered Moses and Aaron,<sup>p</sup> who were standing there to meet them as they came out from Phar'aoth. 21 At once they said to them: "May Jehovah look upon you and judge,<sup>a</sup> since you have made us small offensive<sup>b</sup> before Phar'aoh and before his servants so as to put a sword in their hand to kill us.<sup>c</sup> 22 Then Moses turned to Jehovah<sup>d</sup> and said: "Jehovah, why have you caused evil to this people?<sup>e</sup> Why is it that you have sent me?<sup>f</sup> 23 For from the time that I went in before Phar'aoh to speak in your name,<sup>g</sup> he has done evil to this people,<sup>h</sup> and you have by no means delivered your people."<sup>i</sup>

6 So Jehovah said to Moses: "Now you will see what I shall do to Phar'aoh,<sup>j</sup> because on account of a strong hand he will send them away and on account of a strong hand he will drive them out of his land."<sup>k</sup>

2 And God went on to speak to Moses and to say to him: "I am Jehovah.<sup>l</sup> 3 And I used to appear to Abraham,<sup>m</sup> Isaac<sup>n</sup> and Jacob<sup>o</sup> as God Almighty,<sup>p</sup> but as respects my name Jehovah<sup>q</sup> I did not make myself known<sup>r</sup> to them. 4 And I also established my covenant with them to give them the land of Ca'naan, the land of their alien residences in which they resided as aliens.<sup>s</sup> 5 And I, even I, have heard the groaning of the sons of Israel,<sup>t</sup> whom the Egyptians are enslaving, and I remember my covenant."<sup>u</sup>

6 "Therefore say to the sons of Israel, 'I am Jehovah, and I shall certainly bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians and deliver you from their slavery,<sup>v</sup> and I shall indeed reclaim you with an outstretched arm and with great judgments.<sup>w</sup> 7 And I shall certainly take you to me as a people,<sup>x</sup> and I shall indeed prove to be God to you;<sup>y</sup> and you will certainly know that I am Jehovah your God who is bringing you out from under the burdens of Egypt.<sup>z</sup> 8 And I shall certainly bring you into the land

9 Afterward Moses spoke to this effect to the sons of Israel, but they did not listen to Moses out of discouragement and for the hard slavery.<sup>d</sup>

10 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying: 11 "Go in, speak to Phar'aoh, Egypt's king,<sup>e</sup> that he should send the sons of Israel away out of his land."<sup>f</sup> 12 However, Moses spoke before Jehovah, saying: "Look! The sons of Israel have not listened to me;<sup>g</sup> and how will Phar'aoh ever listen to me,<sup>h</sup> as I am uncircumcised in lips?"<sup>i</sup> 13 But Jehovah continued to speak to Moses and Aaron and to issue the command by them to the sons of Israel and to Phar'aoh, Egypt's king, in order to bring the sons of Israel out from the land of Egypt.<sup>j</sup> circumcised in lips, so how will Phar'aoth ever listen to me?"<sup>a</sup>

7 Consequently Jehovah said to Moses: "See, I have made you God to Phar'aoth,<sup>b</sup> and Aaron your own brother will become your prophet.<sup>c</sup> 2 You—you will speak all that I shall command you;<sup>d</sup> and Aaron your brother will do the speaking to Phar'aoth,<sup>e</sup> and he must send the sons of Israel away from his land.<sup>f</sup> 3 As for me, I shall let Phar'aoth's heart become obstinate,<sup>g</sup> and I shall certainly multiply my signs and my miracles in the land of Egypt.<sup>h</sup> 4 And Phar'aoth will not listen to you men;<sup>i</sup> and I shall have to lay my hand upon Egypt and bring my armies,<sup>j</sup> my people,<sup>k</sup> the sons of Israel,<sup>l</sup> out from the land of Egypt with great judgments.<sup>m</sup> 5 And the Egyptians will certainly know that I am Jehovah when I stretch out my hand against Egypt,<sup>n</sup> and I shall indeed bring the sons of Israel out from their midst."<sup>o</sup> 6 And Moses and Aaron went ahead doing as Jehovah had commanded them.<sup>p</sup> They did just so.<sup>q</sup> 7 And Moses was eighty years old and Aaron was eighty-three years old at the time of their speaking to Phar'aoth.<sup>r</sup>

8 Jehovah now said to Moses and Aaron: 9 "In case that Phar'aoth speaks to you, saying, 'Produce a miracle for yourselves,'<sup>s</sup> then you must say to Aaron, 'Take your rod<sup>t</sup> and throw it down before Phar'aoth.' It will become a big snake."<sup>u</sup> 10 So Moses and Aaron went on in to Phar'aoth and did exactly as Jehovah had commanded. Accordingly Aaron threw his rod down before Phar'aoth and his servants and it became a big snake. 11 However, Phar'aoth also called for the wise men and the sorcerers;<sup>a</sup> and the magic-practicing priests of Egypt themselves also proceeded to do the same thing with their magic arts.<sup>b</sup> 12 So they threw down each one his rod, and they became big snakes; but Aaron's rod swallowed up their rods. 13 Still, Pharaoh's heart became obstinate,<sup>c</sup> and he did not listen to them, just as Jehovah had spoken.

14 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Pharaoh's heart is unresponsive.<sup>d</sup> He has refused to send the people away.<sup>e</sup> 15 Go to Pharaoh in the morning. Look! He is going out to the water!<sup>f</sup> And you must put yourself in position to meet him by the edge of the Nile River,<sup>g</sup> and the rod that turned into a serpent you are to take in your hand.<sup>h</sup> 16 And you must say to him, 'Jehovah the God of the Hebrews has sent me to you,<sup>i</sup> saying: "Send my people away that they may serve me in the wilderness,"<sup>j</sup> but here you have not obeyed until now. 17 This is what Jehovah has said:<sup>k</sup> "By this you will know that I am Jehovah.<sup>l</sup> Here I am striking with the rod that is in my hand upon the water that is in the Nile River,<sup>m</sup> and it will certainly turn into blood.<sup>n</sup> 18 And the fish that are in the Nile River will die,<sup>o</sup> and the Nile River will actually stink,<sup>p</sup> and the Egyptians will simply have no stomach for drinking water from the Nile River."<sup>q</sup>

19 Subsequently Jehovah said to Moses: "Say to Aaron, 'Take your rod and stretch your hand<sup>r</sup> out over the waters of Egypt, over their rivers, over their Nile canals and over their reedy pools<sup>s</sup> and over all their impounded waters, that they may become blood.' And there will certainly be blood in all the land of Egypt and in the wooden vessels and in the stone vessels." 20 Immediately Moses and Aaron did so,<sup>t</sup>

just as Jehovah had commanded,<sup>a</sup> and he lifted up the rod and struck the water that was in the Nile River under the eyes of Pharaoh and his servants,<sup>b</sup> and all the water that was in the Nile River was turned into blood.<sup>c</sup> 21 And the fish that were in the Nile River died,<sup>d</sup> and the Nile River began to stink; and the Egyptians were unable to drink water from the Nile River;<sup>e</sup> and the blood came to be in all the land of Egypt.

22 Nevertheless, the magic-practicing priests of Egypt proceeded to do the same thing with their secret arts;<sup>f</sup> so that Pharaoh's heart continued to be obstinate,<sup>g</sup> and he did not listen to them, just as Jehovah had spoken.<sup>h</sup> 23 Hence Pharaoh turned and went into his house, and he did not set his heart to have any regard for this either.<sup>i</sup> 24 And all the Egyptians went digging round about the Nile River for water to drink, because they were unable to drink any water of the Nile River.<sup>j</sup> 25 And seven days came to be fulfilled after Jehovah's striking the Nile River.

8 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Go in to Pharaoh, and you must say to him, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "Send my people away that they may serve me."<sup>k</sup> 2 And if you keep refusing to send them away, here I am plaguing all your territory with frogs.<sup>l</sup> 3 And the Nile River will fairly teem with frogs, and they will certainly come up and enter into your house and your inner bedroom and upon your couch and into the houses of your servants and on your people and into your ovens and into your kneading troughs.<sup>m</sup> 4 And on you and on your people and on all your servants the frogs will come up."<sup>n</sup> your hand with your rod<sup>a</sup> out over the rivers, the Nile canals and the reedy pools and make the frogs come up over the land of Egypt.” 6 At that Aaron stretched his hand out over the waters of Egypt, and the frogs began to come up and to cover the land of Egypt. 7 However, the magic-practicing priests did the same thing by their secret arts and made the frogs come up over the land of Egypt.<sup>b</sup> 8 In time Phar’ah called Moses and Aaron and said: “Entreat Jehovah<sup>c</sup> that he may remove the frogs from me and my people, as I want to send the people away that they may sacrifice to Jehovah.”<sup>d</sup> 9 Then Moses said to Phar’ah: “You take the glory over me to say when I shall make entreaty for you and your servants and your people in order to cut the frogs off from you and your houses. Only in the Nile River will they be left.” 10 To this he said: “Tomorrow.” So he said: “It will be according to your word, in order that you may know that there is no one else like Jehovah our God.”<sup>e</sup> 11 In that the frogs will certainly turn away from you and your houses and your servants and your people. Only in the Nile River will they be left.”<sup>f</sup>

12 Accordingly Moses and Aaron went out from Phar’ah, and Moses cried out to Jehovah<sup>g</sup> because of the frogs that he had put upon Phar’ah. 13 Then Jehovah did according to Moses’ word,<sup>h</sup> and the frogs began to die off from the houses, the courtyards and the fields. 14 And they went piling them up, heaps upon heaps, and the land began to stink.<sup>i</sup> 15 When Phar’ah got to see that relief had taken place, he made his heart unresponsive;<sup>j</sup> and he did not listen to them, just as Jehovah had spoken.<sup>k</sup>

16 Jehovah now said to Moses: “Say to Aaron, ‘Stretch your rod<sup>a</sup> out and strike the dust of the earth, and it must become gnats in all the land of Egypt.’”

17 And they proceeded to do this. So Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod and struck the dust of the earth, and the gnats came to be on man and beast. All the dust of the earth became gnats in all the land of Egypt.<sup>b</sup>

18 And the magic-practicing priests tried to do the same by their secret arts,<sup>c</sup> in order to bring forth gnats, but they were unable.<sup>d</sup> And the gnats came to be on man and beast. 19 Hence the magic-practicing priests said to Phar’ah: “It is the finger<sup>e</sup> of God!”<sup>f</sup> But Phar’ah’s heart continued to be obstinate,<sup>g</sup> and he did not listen to them, just as Jehovah had spoken.

20 Then Jehovah said to Moses: “Get up early in the morning and take a position in front of Phar’ah.<sup>h</sup> Look! He is coming out to the water! And you must say to him, ‘This is what Jehovah has said: “Send my people away that they may serve me.”’ 21 But if you are not sending my people away, here I am sending upon you and your servants and your people and into your houses the gadfly;<sup>i</sup> and the houses of Egypt will simply be full of the gadfly, and also the ground upon which they are. 22 And on that day I shall certainly make the land of Go’shen upon which my people are standing distinct, that no gadfly may exist there;<sup>k</sup> in order that you may know that I am Jehovah in the midst of the earth.<sup>l</sup> 23 And I shall indeed set a demarcation between my people and your people.<sup>m</sup> Tomorrow this sign will take place.”<sup>n</sup>

of Phar'aoth and the houses of his servants and all the land of Egypt.<sup>a</sup> The land came to ruin as a result of the gadflies.<sup>b</sup> 25 Finally Phar'aoth called Moses and Aaron and said: "Go, sacrifice to YOUR God in the land."<sup>c</sup> 26 But Moses said: "It is not admissible to do so, because we would sacrifice to Jehovah our God a thing detestable to the Egyptians.<sup>d</sup> Suppose we would sacrifice a thing detestable to the Egyptians before their eyes; would they not stone us?" 27 We shall go a journey of three days into the wilderness and we shall definitely sacrifice to Jehovah our God just as he has said to us."<sup>e</sup>

28 Phar'aoth now said: "I—I shall send you away,<sup>f</sup> and you will indeed sacrifice to Jehovah YOUR God in the wilderness.<sup>g</sup> Only do not make it quite so far away that you are going. Make entreaty in my behalf."<sup>h</sup> 29 Then Moses said: "Here I am going forth from you, and I shall indeed make entreaty to Jehovah, and the gadflies will certainly turn away from Phar'aoth, his servants and his people tomorrow. Only let not Phar'aoth trifle again in not sending the people away to sacrifice to Jehovah."<sup>i</sup> 30 After that Moses went out from Phar'aoth and made entreaty to Jehovah.<sup>j</sup> 31 So Jehovah did according to Moses' word,<sup>k</sup> and the gadflies turned away from Phar'aoth, his servants and his people.<sup>l</sup> Not one was left. 32 However, Phar'aoth made his heart unresponsive this time also and did not send the people away.<sup>m</sup> keeping hold of them,<sup>a</sup> 3 look! Jehovah's hand<sup>b</sup> is coming upon your livestock<sup>c</sup> that is in the field. On the horses, the asses, the camels, the herd and the flock there will be a very heavy pestilence.<sup>d</sup> 4 And Jehovah will certainly make a distinction between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt, and not a thing of all that belongs to the sons of Israel will die."<sup>e</sup> 5 Moreover, Jehovah set an appointed time, saying: "Tomorrow Jehovah will do this thing in the land."<sup>f</sup>

6 Accordingly Jehovah did this thing on the next day, and all sorts of livestock of Egypt began to die;<sup>g</sup> but not one of the livestock of the sons of Israel died. 7 Then Phar'aoth sent, and, look! not so much as one of Israel's livestock had died. Nevertheless, Phar'aoth's heart continued to be unresponsive,<sup>h</sup> and he did not send the people away.

8 After that Jehovah said to Moses and Aaron: "Take for yourselves both hands full of soot from a kiln,<sup>i</sup> and Moses must toss it toward the heavens in Phar'aoth's sight. 9 And it must become a powder upon all the land of Egypt, and it must become boils breaking out with blisters<sup>j</sup> upon man and beast in all the land of Egypt."

10 So they took the soot of a kiln and stood before Phar'aoth, and Moses tossed it toward the heavens, and it became boils with blisters,<sup>k</sup> breaking out on man and beast. 11 And the magic-practicing priests were unable to stand before Moses as a result of the boils, because the boils had developed on the magic-practicing priests and on all the Egyptians.<sup>l</sup> 12 But Jehovah let Phar'aoth's heart become obstinate, and he did not listen to them, just as Jehovah had stated to Moses.<sup>m</sup>

13 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Get up early in the morning and take a position in front of Phar'aoth,<sup>a</sup> and you must say to him, 'This is what Jehovah the God of the Hebrews has said: "Send my people away that they may serve me."<sup>b</sup> 14 For at this time I am sending all my blows against your heart and upon your servants and your people, to the end that you may know that there is none like me in all the earth.<sup>c</sup> 15 For by now I could have thrust my hand out that I might strike you and your people with pestilence and that you might be effaced from the earth.<sup>d</sup> 16 But, in fact, for this cause I have kept you in existence,<sup>e</sup> for the sake of showing you my power and in order to have my name declared in all the earth.<sup>f</sup> 17 Are you still behaving haughtily against my people in not sending them away?<sup>g</sup> 18 Here I am causing it to rain down tomorrow about this time a very heavy hail, the like of which has never occurred in Egypt from the day it was founded until now.<sup>h</sup> 19 And now send, bring all your livestock and all that is yours in the field under shelter. As for any man and beast that will be found in the field and not gathered into the house, the hail<sup>i</sup> will have to come down upon them, and they will have to die."<sup>j</sup> 20 Anyone who feared Jehovah's word among Phar'aoth's servants caused his own servants and his livestock to flee into the houses,<sup>j</sup> 21 but whoever did not set his heart to have any regard for Jehovah's word left his servants and his livestock in the field.<sup>k</sup> 22 Jehovah now said to Moses: "Stretch out your hand<sup>l</sup> toward the heavens, that hail<sup>m</sup> may come on all the land of Egypt, upon man and beast and all vegetation of the field in the land of Egypt." 23 So Moses stretched out his rod toward the heavens; and Jehovah gave thunders and hail,<sup>a</sup> and fire would run down to the earth, and Jehovah kept making it rain down hail upon the land of Egypt. 24 Thus there came hail, and fire quivering in among the hail. It was very heavy, so that there had not occurred any like it in all the land of Egypt from the time it became a nation.<sup>b</sup> 25 And the hail went striking at all the land of Egypt. The hail struck everything that was in the field, from man to beast, and all sorts of vegetation of the field; and it shattered all sorts of trees of the field.<sup>c</sup> 26 Only in the land of Go'shen, where the sons of Israel were, there occurred no hail.<sup>d</sup>

27 Eventually Phar'aoth sent and called Moses and Aaron and said to them: "I have sinned this time.<sup>e</sup> Jehovah is righteous,<sup>f</sup> and I and my people are in the wrong. 28 Entreat Jehovah that this may be enough of the occurring of God's thunders and hail.<sup>g</sup> Then I am willing to send you away, and you will not stay any longer." 29 So Moses said to him: "As soon as I go out of the city I shall spread my hands up to Jehovah.<sup>h</sup> The thunders will stop and the hail will not continue any longer, in order that you may know that the earth belongs to Jehovah.<sup>i</sup> 30 As for you and your servants, I know already that you will not even then show fear because of Jehovah God."<sup>j</sup>

31 As it was, the flax and the barley had been struck, because the barley was in the ear and the flax had flower buds.<sup>k</sup> 32 But the wheat and the spelt<sup>l</sup> had not been struck, because they were seasonally late. 33 Moses now went out of the city from Phar'aoth and spread his hands up to Jehovah, and the thunders and the hail began to stop and rain did not pour down on the earth.<sup>m</sup> 34 When Phar'aoth got to see that the rain and the hail and the thunders had stopped, he went sinning again and making his heart unresponsive,<sup>a</sup> he as well as his servants. 35 And Pharaoh's heart continued obstinate, and he did not send the sons of Israel away, just as Jehovah had stated by means of Moses.<sup>b</sup>

10 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Go in to Pharaoh, because I—I have let his heart and the hearts of his servants become unresponsive,<sup>c</sup> in order that I may set these signs of mine right before him,<sup>d</sup> 2 and in order that you may declare in the ears of your son and your son's son how severely I have dealt with Egypt and my signs that I have established among them;<sup>e</sup> and you will certainly know that I am Jehovah."<sup>f</sup>

3 So Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh and said to him: "This is what Jehovah the God of the Hebrews has said, 'How long must you refuse to submit yourself to me?'<sup>g</sup> Send my people away that they may serve me. 4 For if you continue refusing to send my people away, here I am bringing locusts within your boundaries tomorrow.<sup>h</sup>

5 And they will actually cover the visible surface of the earth and it will not be possible to see the earth; and they will simply eat up the rest of what has escaped, what has been left to you people by the hail, and they will certainly eat every sprouting tree of yours out of the field.<sup>i</sup> 6 And your houses and the houses of all your servants and the houses of all Egypt will be filled to an extent that your fathers and your fathers' fathers have not seen it from the day of their existing upon the ground until this day."<sup>j</sup> With that he turned and went out from Pharaoh.<sup>k</sup>

this man prove to be as a snare to us?"<sup>a</sup> Send the men away that they may serve Jehovah their God. Do you not yet know that Egypt has perished?"<sup>b</sup> 8 So Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh, and he said to them: "Go, serve Jehovah YOUR God.<sup>c</sup> Who in particular are the ones going?" 9 Then Moses said: "With our young people and our old people we shall go. With our sons and our daughters,<sup>d</sup> with our sheep and our cattle we shall go,<sup>e</sup> for we have a festival to Jehovah."<sup>f</sup> 10 In turn he said to them: "Let it prove to be so, that Jehovah is with you when I shall send you and your little ones away!"<sup>g</sup> See, on the contrary, something evil is your aim.<sup>h</sup> 11 Not so! Go, please, you who are able-bodied men, and serve Jehovah, because that is what you are seeking to secure." With that they were driven out from before Pharaoh.<sup>i</sup>

12 Jehovah now said to Moses: "Stretch" your hand out over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up over the land of Egypt and eat up all the vegetation of the land, everything that the hail has let remain."<sup>k</sup> 13 At once Moses stretched his rod out over the land of Egypt, and Jehovah caused an east wind<sup>l</sup> to blow upon the land all that day and all night. The morning came and the east wind carried the locusts. 14 And the locusts began to come up over all the land of Egypt and to settle down upon all the territory of Egypt.<sup>m</sup> They were very burdensome.<sup>n</sup> Before them there had never turned up in this way locusts like them, and there will never turn up any in this way after them. 15 And they went covering the visible surface of the entire land,<sup>o</sup> and the land grew dark;<sup>p</sup> and they went on eating up all the vegetation of the land and all the fruit

16 So Phar'aoth hurriedly called Moses and Aaron and said: "I have sinned against Jehovah your God and against you.<sup>c</sup>

17 And now pardon,<sup>d</sup> please, my sin just this once and ENTREAT<sup>e</sup> Jehovah your God that he may turn away just this deadly plague from upon me." 18 So he went out from Phar'aoth and made entreaty to Jehovah.<sup>f</sup> 19 Then Jehovah made a shift to a very stiff west wind, and it carried the locusts away and drove them into the Red Sea. Not a single locust was left remain in all the territory of Egypt. 20 However, Jehovah let Phar'aoth's heart become obstinate,<sup>g</sup> and he did not send the sons of Israel away.

21 Jehovah then said to Moses: "Stretch your hand out toward the heavens,<sup>h</sup> that darkness may occur over the land of Egypt and the darkness may be felt." 22 Moses immediately stretched his hand out toward the heavens, and a gloomy darkness began to occur in all the land of Egypt for three days.<sup>i</sup> 23 They did not see one another, and none of them got up from his own place three days; but for all the sons of Israel there proved to be light in their dwellings.<sup>j</sup> 24 After that Phar'aoth called Moses and said: "Go, SERVE Jehovah.<sup>k</sup> Only YOUR sheep and YOUR cattle will be detained. Your little ones also may go with you."<sup>l</sup> 25 But Moses said: "You yourself will also give into our hands sacrifices and burnt offerings, as we must render them to Jehovah our God."<sup>m</sup> 26 And our livestock will also go with us.<sup>n</sup> Not a hoof will be allowed to remain, because it is from them that we shall take some to worship Jehovah our God,<sup>a</sup> and we ourselves do not know what we shall render in worship to Jehovah until our arriving there."<sup>b</sup> 27 At this Jehovah let Phar'aoth's heart become obstinate, and he did not consent to send them away.<sup>c</sup> 28 So Phar'aoth said to him: "Get out from me!<sup>d</sup> Watch yourself! Do not try to see my face again, because on the day of your seeing my face you will die."<sup>e</sup> 29 To this Moses said: "That is the way you have spoken. I shall not try to see your face anymore."<sup>f</sup>

11 And Jehovah proceeded to say to Moses: "One plague more I am going to bring upon Phar'aoth and Egypt. After that he will send you away from here.<sup>g</sup> At the time he sends you away altogether, he will literally drive you out from here.<sup>h</sup> 2 Speak, now, in the ears of the people, that they should ask every man of his companion and every woman of her companion articles of silver and articles of gold."<sup>i</sup> 3 Accordingly Jehovah gave the people favor in the eyes of the Egyptians.<sup>j</sup> The man Moses too was very great in the land of Egypt, in the eyes of Phar'aoth's servants and in the eyes of the people.<sup>k</sup>

4 And Moses went on to say: "This is what Jehovah has said, 'About midnight I am going out into the midst of Egypt.'<sup>l</sup> 5 And every firstborn<sup>m</sup> in the land of Egypt must die, from the firstborn of Phar'aoth who is sitting on his throne to the firstborn of the maidservant who is at the hand mill and every firstborn of beast.<sup>n</sup> 6 And there will certainly occur a great outcry in all the land of Egypt, the like of which has never yet occurred, and the like of which will never be brought about again.<sup>o</sup> 7 But against any of the sons of Israel will no dog move eagerly its tongue, from man to beast;<sup>p</sup> in order that you people may know that Jehovah can make a distinction between the Egyptians and the sons of Israel.<sup>a</sup> 8 And all these servants of yours will certainly come down to me and prostrate themselves to me,<sup>b</sup> saying, 'Go, you and all the people who follow your steps.' And after that I shall go out." With that he went out from Phar'ah in the heat of anger.

9 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Phar'ah will not listen to you men,<sup>c</sup> in order for my miracles to be increased in the land of Egypt."<sup>d</sup> 10 And Moses and Aaron performed all these miracles before Phar'ah;<sup>e</sup> but Jehovah would let Phar'ah's heart become obstinate, so that he did not send the sons of Israel away from his land.<sup>f</sup>

12 Jehovah now said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt: 2 "This month will be the start of the months for you. It will be the first of the months of the year for you.<sup>g</sup> 3 Speak to the entire assembly of Israel, saying, 'On the tenth day of this month they are to take for themselves each one a sheep<sup>h</sup> for the ancestral house, a sheep to a house. 4 But if the household proves to be too small for the sheep, then he and his neighbor close by must take it into his house according to the number of souls; you should compute each one proportionate to his eating as regards the sheep. 5 The sheep should prove to be sound,<sup>i</sup> a male, a year old, for you.<sup>j</sup> You may pick from the young rams or from the goats. 6 And it must continue under safeguard by you until the fourteenth day of this month,<sup>k</sup> and the whole congregation of the assembly of Israel must slaughter it between the two evenings.<sup>l</sup> 7 And they must take some of the blood and splash it upon stated, then you must keep this service.<sup>a</sup> 26 And it must occur that when your sons say to you, ‘What does this service mean to you?’<sup>b</sup> 27 then you must say, ‘It is the sacrifice of the passover to Jehovah,<sup>c</sup> who passed over the houses of the sons of Israel in Egypt when he plagued the Egyptians, but he delivered our houses.’”

Then the people bowed low and prostrated themselves.<sup>d</sup> 28 Subsequently the sons of Israel went and did just as Jehovah had commanded Moses and Aaron.<sup>e</sup> They did just so.

29 And it came about that at midnight Jehovah struck every firstborn in the land of Egypt,<sup>f</sup> from the firstborn of Pharaoh sitting on his throne to the firstborn of the captive who was in the prison hold, and every firstborn of beast.<sup>g</sup> 30 Then Pharaoh got up at night, he and all his servants and all other Egyptians; and there began arising a great outcry among the Egyptians,<sup>h</sup> because there was not a house where there was not one dead. 31 At once he called<sup>i</sup> Moses and Aaron by night and said: “Get up, get out from the midst of my people, both you and the other sons of Israel, and go, serve Jehovah, just as you have stated.<sup>j</sup> 32 Take both your flocks and your herds, just as you have stated,<sup>k</sup> and go. Also, you must bless me besides.”

33 And the Egyptians began to urge the people in order to send them away quickly<sup>l</sup> out of the land, “because,” they said, “we are all as good as dead!”<sup>m</sup> 34 Consequently the people carried their flour dough before it was leavened, with their kneading troughs wrapped up in their mantles upon their shoulder. 35 And the sons of Israel did according to the word of Moses in that they went asking from the Egyptians articles of silver and articles of gold and man-tles.<sup>a</sup> 36 And Jehovah gave the people favor in the eyes of the Egyptians,<sup>b</sup> so that these granted them what was asked;<sup>c</sup> and they stripped the Egyptians.<sup>d</sup>

37 And the sons of Israel proceeded to depart from Ram'e-ses<sup>e</sup> for Suc'oth,<sup>f</sup> to the number of six hundred thousand able-bodied men on foot, besides little ones.<sup>g</sup> 38 And a vast mixed company<sup>h</sup> also went up with them, as well as flocks and herds, a very numerous stock of animals. 39 And they began to bake the flour dough that they had brought out from Egypt into round cakes, unfermented cakes, because it had not leavened, for they had been driven out of Egypt and had not been able to linger and too they had not prepared any provisions for themselves.<sup>i</sup>

40 And the dwelling of the sons of Israel, who had dwelt in Egypt,<sup>k</sup> was four hundred and thirty years.<sup>l</sup> 41 And it came about at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, it even came about on this very day that all the armies of Jehovah went out of the land of Egypt.<sup>m</sup> 42 It is a night for observance with regard to Jehovah for bringing them out of the land of Egypt. With regard to Jehovah this night is one for observance on the part of all the sons of Israel throughout their generations.<sup>n</sup>

43 And Jehovah went on to say to Moses and Aaron: "This is the statute of the pass-over:<sup>o</sup> No foreigner may eat of it.<sup>p</sup> 44 But where there is any slave man purchased with money, you must circumcise him.<sup>q</sup> Then first he may share in eating it. 45 A settler and a hired laborer may not eat of it. 46 In one house it is to be eaten. You must not take any of the flesh out of the house to some place outside. And you must not break a bone in it.<sup>a</sup> 47 All the assembly of Israel are to celebrate it.<sup>b</sup> 48 And in case an alien resident resides as an alien with you and he will actually celebrate the passover to Jehovah, let there be a circumcising of every male of his.<sup>c</sup> First then he may come near to celebrate it; and he must become like a native of the land. But no uncircumcised man may eat of it. 49 One law is to exist for the native and for the alien resident who is residing as an alien in your midst."<sup>d</sup>

50 So all the sons of Israel did just as Jehovah had commanded Moses and Aaron. They did just so.<sup>e</sup> 51 And it came about on this very day that Jehovah brought the sons of Israel together with their armies<sup>f</sup> out of the land of Egypt.

13 And Jehovah spoke further to Moses, saying: 2 "Sanctify to me every male firstborn that opens each womb among the sons of Israel, among men and beasts. It is mine."<sup>g</sup>

3 And Moses went on to say to the people: "Let there be a remembering of this day on which you went out of Egypt,<sup>h</sup> from the house of slaves, because by strength of hand Jehovah brought you out from here.<sup>i</sup> So nothing leavened may be eaten.<sup>j</sup> 4 Today you are going out in the month of A'bib.<sup>k</sup> 5 And it must occur that when Jehovah will have brought you into the land of the Ca'naan-ites and the Hit'tites and the Am'or-ites and the Hi'vites and the Jeb'u-sites,<sup>l</sup> which he swore to your forefathers to give you,<sup>m</sup> a land flowing with milk and honey,<sup>n</sup> then you must render this service in this month. 6 Seven days you are to eat unfermented cakes,<sup>o</sup> and on the seventh day is a festi-

as a sign upon your hand and as a frontlet band between your eyes,<sup>a</sup> because by strength of hand Jehovah brought us out of Egypt."<sup>b</sup>

17 And it came about at the time of Phar'aoth's sending the people away that God did not lead them by the way of the land of the Phi-listines just because it was near, for God said: "It might be the people will feel regret when they see war and will certainly return to Egypt."<sup>c</sup> 18 Hence God made the people go round about by the way of the wilderness of the Red Sea.<sup>d</sup> But it was in battle formation that the sons of Israel went up out of the land of Egypt.<sup>e</sup> 19 And Moses was taking Joseph's bones with him, because he had made the sons of Israel solemnly swear, saying: "God will without fail turn his attention to you,<sup>f</sup> and you must take my bones up out of here with you."<sup>g</sup> 20 And they proceeded to depart from Succoth and to encamp at E'tham at the edge of the wilderness.<sup>h</sup>

21 And Jehovah was going ahead of them in the daytime in a pillar of cloud to lead them by the way,<sup>i</sup> and in the nighttime in a pillar of fire to give them light to go in the daytime and nighttime.<sup>j</sup> 22 The pillar of cloud would not move away from before the people in the daytime nor the pillar of fire in the nighttime.<sup>k</sup>

14 Jehovah now spoke to Moses, saying: 2 "Speak to the sons of Israel, that they should turn back and encamp before Pi-ha-hi'roth between Mig'dol and the sea in view of Ba'al-ze'phon.<sup>l</sup> In front of it you are to encamp by the sea. 3 Then Phar'aoth will certainly say respecting the sons of Israel, 'They are wandering in confusion in the land. The wilderness has closed in upon them.'<sup>m</sup> 4 So I shall indeed let Phar'aoth's heart become obstinate,<sup>n</sup> and he will certainly chase after them and I shall get glory for myself by means of Phar'aoth and all his military forces;<sup>a</sup> and the Egyptians will certainly know that I am Jehovah."<sup>b</sup> Accordingly they did just that.

5 Later it was reported to the king of Egypt that the people had run away. Immediately the heart of Phar'aoth as well as his servants was changed regarding the people,<sup>c</sup> so that they said: "What is this that we have done, in that we have sent Israel away from slaving<sup>d</sup> for us?" 6 So he proceeded to make his war chariots ready, and he took his people with him.<sup>e</sup> 7 And he proceeded to take six hundred chosen chariots<sup>f</sup> and all the other chariots of Egypt and warriors upon every one of them. 8 Thus Jehovah let the heart of Phar'aoth the king of Egypt become obstinate,<sup>g</sup> and he went chasing after the sons of Israel, while the sons of Israel were going out with uplifted hand.<sup>h</sup> 9 And the Egyptians went chasing after them, and all the chariot horses of Phar'aoth and his cavalymen<sup>i</sup> and his military forces were overtaking them while camping by the sea, by Pi-ha-hi'roth in view of Ba'al-ze'phon.<sup>j</sup>

10 When Phar'aoth got close by, the sons of Israel began to raise their eyes and here the Egyptians were marching after them; and the sons of Israel got quite afraid and began to cry out to Jehovah.<sup>k</sup> 11 And they proceeded to say to Moses: "Is it because there are no burial places at all in Egypt that you have taken us here to die in the wilderness?"<sup>l</sup> What is this that you have done to us in leading us out of Egypt? 12 Is this not the word we spoke to you in Egypt, saying, 'Let us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians'? For it is better for us to serve the Egyptians than for us to die in the wilderness."<sup>m</sup> 13 Then Moses said to the people: "Do not be afraid.<sup>a</sup> Stand firm and see the salvation of Jehovah, which he will perform for you today.<sup>b</sup> For the Egyptians whom you do see today you will not see again, no, never again.<sup>c</sup> 14 Jehovah will himself fight for you,<sup>d</sup> and you yourselves will be silent."<sup>e</sup>

15 Jehovah now said to Moses: "Why do you keep crying out to me?"<sup>f</sup> Speak to the sons of Israel that they should break camp. 16 As for you, lift up your rod<sup>g</sup> and stretch your hand out over the sea and split it apart,<sup>h</sup> that the sons of Israel may go through the midst of the sea on dry land.<sup>i</sup> 17 As for me, here I am letting the hearts of the Egyptians become obstinate,<sup>j</sup> that they may go in after them and that I may get glory for myself by means of Phar'aoth and all his military forces, his war chariots and his cavalymen.<sup>k</sup> 18 And the Egyptians will certainly know that I am Jehovah when I get glory for myself by means of Phar'aoth, his war chariots and his cavalymen."<sup>l</sup>

19 Then the angel<sup>l</sup> of the true God who was going ahead of the camp of Israel departed and went to their rear, and the pillar of cloud departed from their van and stood in the rear of them.<sup>m</sup> 20 So it came in between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel.<sup>n</sup> On the one hand it proved to be a cloud together with darkness. On the other hand it kept lighting up the night.<sup>o</sup> And this group did not come near that group all night long.

21 Moses now stretched his hand out over the sea;<sup>p</sup> and Jehovah began making the sea go back by a strong east wind all night long and converting the sea basin into dry ground,<sup>q</sup> and the waters were being split apart.<sup>a</sup> 22 At length the sons of Israel went through the midst of the sea on dry land,<sup>b</sup> while the waters were a wall to them on their right hand and on their left.<sup>c</sup> 23 And the Egyptians took up the pursuit, and all the horses of Phar'ao, his war chariots and his cavalymen began going in after them,<sup>d</sup> into the midst of the sea. 24 And it came about during the morning watch that Jehovah began to look out upon the camp of the Egyptians from within the pillar of fire and cloud,<sup>e</sup> and he went throwing the camp of the Egyptians into confusion.<sup>f</sup> 25 And he kept taking wheels off their chariots so that they were driving them with difficulty;<sup>g</sup> and the Egyptians began to say: "Let us flee from any contact with Israel, because Jehovah certainly fights for them against the Egyptians."<sup>h</sup>

26 Finally Jehovah said to Moses: "Stretch your hand out over the sea,<sup>i</sup> that the waters may come back over the Egyptians, their war chariots and their cavalymen." 27 Moses at once stretched his hand out over the sea, and the sea began to come back to its normal condition at the approaching of morning. All the while the Egyptians were fleeing from encountering it, but Jehovah shook the Egyptians off into the midst of the sea.<sup>j</sup> 28 And the waters kept coming back.<sup>k</sup> Finally they covered the war chariots and the cavalymen belonging to all of Phar'ao's military forces and who had gone into the sea after them.<sup>l</sup> Not so much as one among them was let remain.<sup>m</sup>

- 16 Fright and dread will fall upon them.<sup>a</sup>

Because of the greatness of your arm they will be motionless like a stone, Until your people<sup>b</sup> pass by, O Jehovah,

- 17 You will bring them and plant them in the mountain of your inheritance,<sup>e</sup>

An established place that you have made ready for you to inhabit,<sup>f</sup> O Jehovah,

A sanctuary,<sup>g</sup> O Jehovah, that your hands have established.

- 18 Jehovah will rule as king to time indefinite, even forever.<sup>h</sup>

- 19 When Phar'aoh's horses<sup>i</sup> with his war chariots and his cavalymen went into the sea,<sup>j</sup>

Then Jehovah brought back the waters of the sea upon them.<sup>k</sup>

- 20 And Mir'i-am the proph-

"Sing to Jehovah,<sup>q</sup> for he has become highly exalted.<sup>r</sup>

The horse and its rider he has pitched into the sea."<sup>s</sup>

- 22 Later Moses caused Israel to depart from the Red Sea and they went out to the wilderness of Shur<sup>t</sup> and marched on for three days in the wilderness, but they did not find water.<sup>u</sup>

- 23 In time they came to Ma'rah,<sup>v</sup> but they were not able to drink the water from Ma'rah because it was bitter. That is why he called its name Ma'rah.<sup>a</sup> 24 And the people began to murmur against Moses,<sup>b</sup> saying: "What are we to drink?" 25 Then he cried out to Jehovah.<sup>c</sup> So Jehovah directed him to a tree, and he threw it into the water and the water became sweet.<sup>d</sup>

There He established for them a regulation and a case for judgment and there he put them to the test.<sup>e</sup> 26 And he went on to say: "If you will strictly listen to the voice of Jehovah your God and will do what is right in his eyes and will indeed give ear to his commandments and keep all his regulations,<sup>f</sup> I shall put none of the maladies upon you that I put upon the Egyptians;<sup>g</sup> because I am Jehovah who is healing you."<sup>h</sup>

27 After that they came to E'lim, where there were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees.<sup>i</sup> So they went camping there by the water.

16 Later they departed from E'lim,<sup>j</sup> and the entire assembly of the sons of Israel finally came to the wilderness of Sin,<sup>k</sup> which is between E'lim and Si'nai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after their coming out of the land of Egypt.

2 And the entire assembly of the sons of Israel began to murmur against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness.<sup>l</sup> 3 And the sons of Israel kept saying to them: "If only we had died<sup>m</sup> by Jehovah's hand in the land of Egypt while we were sitting by the pots of meat,<sup>n</sup> while we were eating bread to satisfaction, because you have brought us out into this wilderness to put this whole congregation to death by famine."<sup>o</sup>

4 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Here I am raining down bread for you from the heavens;<sup>p</sup> and the people must go out and

pick up each his amount day for day,<sup>a</sup> in order that I may put them to the test as to whether they will walk in my law or not.<sup>b</sup> 5 And it must occur on the sixth day<sup>c</sup> that they must prepare what they will bring in, and it must prove double what they keep picking up day by day."<sup>d</sup>

6 So Moses and Aaron said to all the sons of Israel: "At evening you will certainly know that it is Jehovah who has brought you out from the land of Egypt."<sup>e</sup> 7 And in the morning you will indeed see Jehovah's glory,<sup>f</sup> because he has heard your murmurings against Jehovah. And what are we that you should murmur against us?" 8 And Moses continued: "It will be when Jehovah gives you in the evening meat to eat and in the morning bread to satisfaction, because Jehovah has heard your murmurings that you are murmuring against him. And what are we? Your murmurings are not against us, but against Jehovah."<sup>g</sup>

9 And Moses went on to say to Aaron: "Say to the entire assembly of the sons of Israel, 'Come near before Jehovah, because he has heard your murmurings.'"<sup>h</sup> 10 Then it occurred that as soon as Aaron had spoken to the entire assembly of the sons of Israel, they turned and faced toward the wilderness, and, look! Jehovah's glory appeared in the cloud.<sup>i</sup>

11 And Jehovah spoke further to Moses, saying: 12 "I have heard the murmurings of the sons of Israel.<sup>j</sup> Speak to them, saying, 'Between the two evenings you will eat meat and in the morning you will be satisfied with bread;<sup>k</sup> and you will certainly know that I am Jehovah your God.'"<sup>l</sup>

camp, and in the morning there had developed a layer of dew round about the camp.<sup>a</sup> 14 In time the layer of dew evaporated and here upon the surface of the wilderness there was a fine flaky thing,<sup>b</sup> fine like hoarfrost<sup>c</sup> upon the earth. 15 When the sons of Israel got to see it, they began to say to one another: "What is it?" For they did not know what it was. Hence Moses said to them: "It is the bread that Jehovah has given you for food."<sup>d</sup> 16 This is the word that Jehovah has commanded, 'Pick up some of it, each one in proportion to his eating. You are to take an omer<sup>e</sup> measure for each individual according to the number of the souls that each of you has in his tent.'<sup>f</sup> 17 And the sons of Israel began to do so; and they went picking it up, some gathering much and some gathering little. 18 When they would measure it by the omer, he that had gathered much had no surplus and he that had gathered little had no shortage.<sup>g</sup> They picked it up each one in proportion to his eating.

19 Then Moses said to them: "Let nobody leave any of it until the morning."<sup>h</sup> 20 But they did not listen to Moses. When some men would leave some of it until the morning, it would breed worms and stink;<sup>i</sup> so that Moses became indignant at them.<sup>j</sup> 21 And they would pick it up morning<sup>k</sup> by morning, each one in proportion to his eating. When the sun got hot, it melted.

22 And it came about on the sixth day that they picked up twice as much bread,<sup>k</sup> two omer measures for one person. So all the chieftains of the assembly came and reported it to Moses. 23 At that he said to them: "It is what Jehovah has spoken. Tomorrow there will be a sabbath observance of a holy sabbath to Jehovah.<sup>l</sup> What you can bake, bake, and what you can boil, boil,<sup>a</sup> and all the surplus that there is save it up for you as something to be kept until the morning." 24 Accordingly they saved it up until the morning, just as Moses had commanded; and it did not stink nor did maggots develop in it.<sup>b</sup> 25 Then Moses said: "Eat it today, because today is a sabbath<sup>c</sup> to Jehovah. Today you will not find it in the field. 26 Six days you will pick it up, but on the seventh day is a sabbath.<sup>d</sup> On it none will form." 27 However, it came about on the seventh day that some of the people did go out to pick it up, but they found none.

28 Consequently Jehovah said to Moses: "How long must you people refuse to keep my commandments and my laws?"<sup>e</sup> 29 Mark the fact that Jehovah has given you the sabbath.<sup>f</sup> That is why he is giving you on the sixth day the bread of two days. Keep sitting each one in his own place.<sup>g</sup> Let nobody go out from his locality on the seventh day." 30 And the people proceeded to observe the sabbath on the seventh day.<sup>h</sup>

31 And the house of Israel began to call its name "manna." And it was white like coriander seed, and its taste was like that of flat cakes with honey.<sup>i</sup> 32 Then Moses said: "This is the word that Jehovah has commanded, 'Fill an omer measure of it as something to be kept throughout your generations,'<sup>j</sup> in order that they may see the bread that I made you eat in the wilderness when I was bringing you out of the land of Egypt."<sup>k</sup> 33 So Moses said to Aaron: "Take a jar and put in it an omerful of manna and deposit it before Jehovah as something to be kept throughout your generations."<sup>l</sup> 34 Just as Jehovah had commanded Moses, Aaron proceeded to deposit it before the Testimony<sup>a</sup> as something to be kept. 35 And the sons of Israel ate the manna forty years,<sup>b</sup> until their coming to a land inhabited.<sup>c</sup> The manna was what they ate until their coming to the frontier of the land of Ca'naan.<sup>d</sup> 36 Now an omer is a tenth of an e'phah measure.

17 And the entire assembly of the sons of Israel proceeded to depart from the wilderness of Sin<sup>e</sup> by stages, which they took according to the order of Jehovah,<sup>f</sup> and went camping at Reph'i-dim.<sup>g</sup> But there was no water for the people to drink.

2 And the people fell to quarreling with Moses and saying:<sup>h</sup> "Give us water that we may drink." But Moses said to them: "Why are you quarreling with me? Why do you keep putting Jehovah to the test?"<sup>i</sup> 3 And the people went on thirsting there for water, and the people kept murmuring against Moses and saying: "Why is it that you have brought us up out of Egypt to put us and our sons and our livestock to death by thirst?"<sup>j</sup>

4 Finally Moses cried out to Jehovah, saying: "What shall I do with this people? A little longer and they will stone me!"<sup>k</sup>

5 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Pass in front of the people<sup>l</sup> and take with you some of the older men of Israel and your rod with which you struck the Nile River.<sup>m</sup> Take it in your hand and you must walk on. 6 Look! I am standing before you there on the rock in Ho'reb. And you must strike on the rock, and water must come out of it, and the people must drink it."<sup>n</sup> Subsequently Moses did so under the eyes of the older men of Israel. 7 So he called the name of the place Mas'sah<sup>o</sup> and Mer'i-bah,<sup>p</sup> because of the quarreling of the sons of Israel and because of their putting Jehovah to the test,<sup>a</sup> saying: "Is Jehovah in our midst or not?"<sup>b</sup>

8 And the A-mal'ek-ites<sup>c</sup> proceeded to come and fight against Israel in Reph'i-dim.<sup>d</sup> 9 At this Moses said to Joshua:<sup>e</sup> "Choose men for us and go out,<sup>f</sup> fight against the A-mal'ek-ites. Tomorrow I am stationing myself upon the top of the hill, with the rod of the true God in my hand."<sup>g</sup>

10 Then Joshua did just as Moses had said to him,<sup>h</sup> in order to fight against the A-mal'ek-ites; and Moses, Aaron and Hur<sup>i</sup> went up to the top of the hill.

11 And it occurred that as soon as Moses would lift his hand up, the Israelites proved superior;<sup>j</sup> but as soon as he would let down his hand, the A-mal'ek-ites proved superior. 12 When the hands of Moses were heavy, then they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat upon it; and Aaron and Hur supported his hands, one on this side and the other on that side, so that his hands held steady until the sun set. 13 Hence Joshua vanquished Am'a-lek and his people with the edge of the sword.<sup>k</sup>

14 Jehovah now said to Moses: "Write this as a memorial in the book<sup>l</sup> and propound it in Joshua's ears, 'I shall completely wipe out the remembrance of Am'a-lek from under the heavens.'<sup>m</sup> 15 And Moses proceeded to build an altar and to call its name Je-ho'vah-nis'si,<sup>n</sup> 16 saying: "Because a hand is against the throne<sup>o</sup> of Jah,<sup>o</sup> Jehovah will have war with Am'a-lek from generation to generation."<sup>p</sup>

18 Now Jeth'ro the priest of Mid'i-an, Moses' father-in-law,<sup>q</sup> got to hear about all that God had done for Moses and for Israel his people, how Jehovah had brought Israel out of Egypt.<sup>r</sup>

2 So Jeth'ro, Moses' father-in-law, took Zip-po'rah, Moses' wife, after the sending of her away, 3 and her two sons,<sup>a</sup> the name of one of whom was Ger'shom,<sup>b</sup> "because," he said, "an alien resident I have come to be in a foreign land"; 4 and the name of the other was Eli-e'zer,<sup>c</sup> "because," to quote him, "the God of my father is my helper in that he delivered me from Phar'aoh's sword."<sup>d</sup>

5 So Jeth'ro, Moses' father-in-law, and his sons and his wife came to Moses into the wilderness where he was camping, at the mountain of the true God.<sup>e</sup> 6 Then he sent word to Moses: "I, your father-in-law, Jeth'ro,<sup>f</sup> am come to you, and also your wife and her two sons with her." 7 At once Moses went on out to meet his father-in-law, and he proceeded to prostrate himself and to kiss him;<sup>g</sup> and they each one began asking how the other was getting along. After that they went into the tent.

8 And Moses went to relating to his father-in-law all that Jehovah had done to Phar'aoh and Egypt on account of Israel,<sup>h</sup> and all the hardship that had befallen them in the way,<sup>i</sup> and yet Jehovah was delivering them.<sup>j</sup> 9 Then Jeth'ro felt glad over all the good that Jehovah had done for Israel in that he had delivered them from the hand of Egypt.<sup>k</sup> 10 Consequently Jeth'ro said: "Blessed be Jehovah, who has delivered you from the hand of Egypt and from the hand of Phar'aoh, and who has delivered the people from under the hand of Egypt."<sup>l</sup> 11 Now I do know that Jehovah is greater than all the other gods<sup>m</sup> by reason of this affair in which they acted presumptuously against them." 12 Then Jeth'ro, Moses' father-in-law, took a burnt offering and sacrifices for God;<sup>n</sup> and Aaron and all the older men of Israel came to eat bread with Moses' father-in-law, before the true God.<sup>a</sup>

13 And it came about on the next day that Moses sat down as usual to serve as judge for the people,<sup>b</sup> and the people kept standing before Moses from the morning till the evening. 14 And Moses' father-in-law got to see all that he was doing for the people. So he said: "What kind of business is this that you are doing for the people? Why do you alone continue sitting and all the people continue taking their stand before you from morning till evening?" 15 Then Moses said to his father-in-law: "Because the people keep coming to me to inquire of God."<sup>c</sup> 16 In the event that they have a case arise,<sup>d</sup> it must come to me and I must judge between the one party and the other, and I must make known the decisions of the true God and his laws."<sup>e</sup>

17 At this Moses' father-in-law said to him: "It is not good the way you are doing. 18 You will surely wear out, both you and this people who are with you, because this business is too big a load for you.<sup>f</sup> You are unable to do it by yourself."<sup>g</sup> 19 Now listen to my voice.<sup>h</sup> I shall advise you, and God will prove to be with you.<sup>i</sup> You yourself serve as representative for the people before the true God,<sup>j</sup> and you yourself must bring the cases to the true God.<sup>k</sup> 20 And you must warn them of what the regulations and the laws are,<sup>l</sup> and you must make known to them the way in which they should walk and the work that they should do.<sup>m</sup> 21 But you yourself should select out of all the people capable men,<sup>n</sup> fearing God,<sup>o</sup> trustworthy men,<sup>p</sup> hating unjust profit;<sup>q</sup> and you must set these over them as chiefs over thousands,<sup>r</sup> chiefs over hundreds, chiefs over fifties and chiefs over tens.<sup>a</sup> 22 And they must judge the people on every proper occasion; and it must occur that every big case they will bring to you,<sup>b</sup> but every small case they themselves will handle as judges. So make it lighter for yourself, and they must carry the load with you.<sup>c</sup> 23 If you do this very thing, and God has commanded you, you will then certainly be able to stand it and, besides, this people will all come to their own place in peace."<sup>d</sup> voice and will indeed keep my covenant,<sup>a</sup> then you will certainly become my special property out of all other peoples,<sup>b</sup> because the whole earth belongs to me.<sup>c</sup> 6 And you yourselves will become to me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation."<sup>d</sup> These are the words that you are to say to the sons of Israel."

24 Immediately Moses listened to the voice of his father-in-law and did all that he had said.<sup>e</sup> 25 And Moses proceeded to choose capable men out of all Israel and to give them positions as heads over the people,<sup>f</sup> as chiefs of thousands, chiefs of hundreds, chiefs of fifties and chiefs of tens. 26 And they judged the people on every proper occasion. A hard case they would bring to Moses,<sup>g</sup> but every small case they themselves would handle as judges. 27 After that Moses saw his father-in-law off,<sup>h</sup> and he went his way to his land.

7 So Moses came and called the older men<sup>e</sup> of the people and set before them all these words that Jehovah had commanded him.<sup>f</sup> 8 After that all the people answered unanimously and said: "All that Jehovah has spoken we are willing to do."<sup>g</sup> Immediately Moses took back the words of the people to Jehovah.<sup>h</sup> 9 At this Jehovah said to Moses: "Look! I am coming to you in a dark cloud,<sup>i</sup> in order that the people may hear when I speak with you,<sup>j</sup> and that in you also they may put faith to time indefinite."<sup>k</sup> Then Moses reported the words of the people to Jehovah.

10 And Jehovah went on to say to Moses: "Go to the people, and you must sanctify them today and tomorrow, and they must wash their mantles.<sup>l</sup> 11 And they must prove ready for the third day, because on the third day Jehovah will come down before the eyes of all the people upon Mount Si'nai.<sup>m</sup> 12 And you must set bounds for the people round about, saying, 'Guard yourselves against going up into the mountain, and do not touch the edge of it. Anybody touching the mountain will positively be put to death.<sup>n</sup> 13 No hand is to touch him, because he will positively be stoned or will positively be shot through. Whether beast or man, he will not live."<sup>o</sup> At the blowing of the ram's horn<sup>p</sup> they themselves may come up to the mountain."

14 Then Moses went down from the mountain to the people, and he set about sanctifying the people; and they engaged in washing their mantles.<sup>a</sup> 15 Accordingly he said to the people: "Get ready<sup>b</sup> during the three days. Do not you men come near a woman."<sup>c</sup>

16 And on the third day when it became morning it came about that thunders and lightnings began occurring,<sup>d</sup> and a heavy cloud<sup>e</sup> upon the mountain and a very loud sound of a horn,<sup>f</sup> so that all the people who were in the camp began to tremble.<sup>g</sup> 17 Moses now brought the people out of the camp to meet the true God, and they went taking their stand at the base of the mountain.<sup>h</sup> 18 And Mount Si'nai smoked all over,<sup>i</sup> due to the fact that Jehovah came down upon it in fire;<sup>j</sup> and its smoke kept ascending like the smoke of a kiln,<sup>k</sup> and the whole mountain was trembling very much.<sup>l</sup> 19 When the sound of the horn became continually louder and louder, Moses began to speak, and the true God began to answer him with a voice.<sup>m</sup>

20 So Jehovah came down upon Mount Si'nai to the top of the mountain. Then Jehovah called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went on up.<sup>n</sup> 21 Jehovah now said to Moses: "Go down, warn the people, that they do not try to break through to Jehovah to take a look and many of them have to fall."<sup>o</sup> 22 And let the priests also who regularly come near to Jehovah sanctify themselves,<sup>p</sup> that Jehovah may not break out upon them.<sup>q</sup> 23 At this Moses said to Jehovah: "The people are not able to come up to Mount Si'nai, because you yourself already warned us, saying, 'Set bounds for the mountain and make it sacred.'"<sup>r</sup> 24 However, Jehovah said to him: "Go, descend, and you must come up, you and Aaron with you; but let not the priests and the people break through to come up to Jehovah, that he may not break out upon them."<sup>a</sup> 25 Accordingly Moses descended to the people and told them.<sup>b</sup>

20 And God proceeded to speak all these words, saying:<sup>c</sup>

2 "I am Jehovah your God,<sup>d</sup> who have brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slaves."<sup>e</sup> 3 You must not have any other gods<sup>f</sup> against my face.

4 "You must not make for yourself a carved image or a form like anything that is in the heavens above or that is on the earth underneath or that is in the waters under the earth."<sup>g</sup> 5 You must not bow down to them nor be induced to serve them,<sup>h</sup> because I Jehovah your God am a God exacting exclusive devotion,<sup>i</sup> bringing punishment for the error of fathers upon sons, upon the third generation and upon the fourth generation, in the case of those who hate me;<sup>j</sup> 6 but exercising loving-kindness toward the thousandth generation in the case of those who love me and keep my commandments.<sup>k</sup>

7 "You must not take up the name of Jehovah your God in a worthless way,<sup>l</sup> for Jehovah will not leave the one unpunished who takes up his name in a worthless way.<sup>m</sup>

8 "Remembering the sabbath day to hold it sacred,"<sup>n</sup> 9 you are to render service and you must do all your work six days.<sup>o</sup> 10 But the seventh day is a sabbath to Jehovah your God.<sup>p</sup> You must not do any work, you nor your son nor your daughter, your slave man nor your slave girl nor your domestic animal nor your alien resident who is inside your gates.<sup>q</sup> 11 For in six days Jehovah made the heav-

19 "Anyone lying down with a beast is positively to be put to death.<sup>f</sup>

20 "One who sacrifices to any gods but Jehovah alone is to be devoted to destruction.<sup>g</sup>

21 "And you must not maltreat an alien resident or oppress him,<sup>h</sup> for you people became alien residents in the land of Egypt.<sup>i</sup>

22 "You people must not afflict any widow or fatherless boy.<sup>j</sup>

23 If you should afflict him at all, then if he cries out to me at all, I shall unfailingly hear his outcry;<sup>k</sup> 24 and my anger will indeed blaze,<sup>l</sup> and I shall certainly kill you with the sword, and your wives must become widows and your sons fatherless boys.<sup>m</sup>

25 "If you should lend money to my people, to the afflicted alongside you,<sup>n</sup> you must not become like a usurer to him. You must not lay interest upon him.<sup>o</sup>

26 "If you should at all seize the garment of your fellow as a pledge,<sup>p</sup> you are to return it to him at the setting of the sun. 27 For it is his only covering.<sup>q</sup> It is his mantle for his skin. In what will he lie down? And it must occur that he will cry out to me, and I shall certainly hear, because I am gracious.<sup>r</sup>

24 You must not bow down to their gods or be induced to serve them, and you must not make anything like their works,<sup>k</sup> but you will without fail throw them down and you will without fail break down their sacred pillars.<sup>l</sup>

foot of the mountain an altar and twelve pillars corresponding with the twelve tribes of Israel.<sup>a</sup> 5 After that he sent young men of the sons of Israel and they offered up burnt offerings and sacrificed bulls as sacrifices, as communion<sup>b</sup> sacrifices to Jehovah. 6 Then Moses took half the blood and put it in bowls,<sup>c</sup> and half the blood he sprinkled upon the altar.<sup>d</sup> 7 Finally he took the book of the covenant<sup>e</sup> and read it in the ears of the people.<sup>f</sup> Then they said: "All that Jehovah has spoken we are willing to do and be obedient."<sup>g</sup> 8 So Moses took the blood and sprinkled it upon the people<sup>h</sup> and said: "Here is the blood of the covenant<sup>i</sup> that Jehovah has concluded with you as respects all these words."

9 And Moses and Aaron, Na'dab and A-bi'hu and seventy of the older men of Israel proceeded to go up, 10 and they got to see the God of Israel.<sup>j</sup> And under his feet there was what seemed like a work of sapphire flagstones and like the very heavens for purity.<sup>k</sup> 11 And he did not put out his hand against the distinguished men of the sons of Israel,<sup>l</sup> but they got a vision of the true God<sup>m</sup> and ate and drank.<sup>n</sup>

12 Jehovah now said to Moses: "Come up to me in the mountain and stay there, as I want to give you the stone tablets and the law and the commandment that I must write in order to teach them."<sup>o</sup> 13 So Moses and Joshua his minister got up and Moses went up into the mountain of the true God.<sup>p</sup> 14 But to the older men he had said: "You wait for us in this place until we return to you."<sup>q</sup> And, look! Aaron and Hur<sup>r</sup> are with you. Whoever has a case at law, let him approach them."<sup>s</sup> 15 Thus Moses went up into the mountain while the cloud was covering the mountain.<sup>t</sup>

16 And Jehovah's glory<sup>a</sup> continued to reside upon Mount Si'nai,<sup>b</sup> and the cloud continued to cover it for six days. At length on the seventh day he called to Moses from the midst of the cloud.<sup>c</sup> 17 And to the eyes of the sons of Israel the sight of Jehovah's glory was like a devouring fire<sup>d</sup> on the mountaintop. 18 Then Moses entered into the midst of the cloud and went on up the mountain.<sup>e</sup> And Moses continued in the mountain forty days and forty nights.<sup>f</sup>

25 And Jehovah proceeded to speak to Moses,<sup>g</sup> saying: 2 "Speak to the sons of Israel, that they may take up a contribution for me: From every man whose heart incites him you people are to take up the contribution of mine.<sup>h</sup> 3 And this is the contribution that you are to take up from them: gold<sup>i</sup> and silver<sup>j</sup> and copper,<sup>k</sup> 4 and blue thread, and wool dyed reddish purple, and coccus scarlet material, and fine linen, and goat's hair,<sup>l</sup> 5 and ram skins dyed red, and sealskins, and acacia wood;<sup>m</sup> 6 oil for the luminary,<sup>n</sup> balsam<sup>o</sup> oil for the anointing oil<sup>p</sup> and for perfumed incense;<sup>q</sup> 7 and onyx stones and setting stones for the eph'od<sup>r</sup> and for the breastpiece.<sup>s</sup> 8 And they must make a sanctuary for me, as I must tabernacle in the midst of them.<sup>t</sup> 9 According to all that I am showing you as the pattern of the tabernacle and pattern of all its furnishings, that is the way you are to make it.<sup>u</sup>

You will make eleven tent cloths. 8 The length of each tent cloth is thirty cubits,<sup>m</sup> and the width of each tent cloth is four cubits. There is one measure for the eleven tent cloths. 9 And you must join five tent cloths by themselves and six tent cloths by themselves,<sup>a</sup> and you must fold double the sixth tent cloth at the forefront of the tent. 10 And you must make fifty loops upon the edge of the one tent cloth, the outermost one in the series, and fifty loops upon the edge of the tent cloth at the other place of junction. 11 And you must make fifty hooks of copper<sup>b</sup> and put the hooks in the loops and join the tent together, and it must become one.<sup>c</sup> 12 And what remains over of the cloths of the tent is an overhanging. Half of the tent cloth that remains over is to hang over the back of the tabernacle. 13 And the cubit on this side and the cubit on that side in what remains over in the length of the cloths of the tent will serve as an overhanging on the sides of the tabernacle, to cover it on this side and on that.

15 "And you must make the panel frames<sup>d</sup> for the tabernacle of acacia wood, standing on end. 16 Ten cubits is the length of a panel frame, and a cubit and a half is the width of each panel frame. 17 Each panel frame has two tenons joined one to the other. That is the way you will do with all the panel frames of the tabernacle. 18 And you must make the panel frames for the tabernacle, twenty panel frames for the side toward the Neg'eb, to the south.

19 "And you will make forty socket pedestals<sup>e</sup> of silver under the twenty panel frames; two socket pedestals under the one panel frame with its two tenons, and two socket pedestals under the other panel frame with its two tenons. 20 And for the other side of the taber-

That is the way it should be for the two of them. They will serve as two corner posts. 25 And there must be eight panel frames and their socket pedestals of silver, sixteen pedestals, two socket pedestals under the one panel frame and two socket pedestals under the other panel frame.

26 "And you must make bars of acacia<sup>e</sup> wood, five for the panel frames of the one side of the tabernacle, 27 and five bars for the panel frames of the other side of the tabernacle and five bars for the panel frames of the side of the tabernacle for the two rear sections to the west.<sup>f</sup> 28 And the middle bar at the center of the panel frames is running through from end to end.

35 "And you must set the table outside the curtain, and the lampstand<sup>d</sup> opposite the table on the side of the tabernacle toward the south; and the table you will put on the north side. 36 And you must make a screen<sup>e</sup> for the entrance of the tent of blue thread and wool dyed reddish purple and coccus scarlet material and fine twisted linen, the work of a weaver. 37 And you must make for the screen five pillars of acacia and overlay them with gold. Their pegs are of gold. And you must cast for them five socket pedestals of copper.

27 "And you must make the altar of acacia wood, five cubits its length and five cubits its width. The altar<sup>f</sup> should be foursquare, and its height three cubits. 2 And you must make its horns<sup>g</sup> upon its four corners. Its horns will proceed out of it, and you must overlay it with copper.<sup>h</sup> 3 And you must make its cans for clearing away its fatty ashes, and its shovels, and its bowls, and its forks, and its fire holders; and you will make all its utensils of copper.<sup>i</sup> 4 And you must make a grating for it, a network<sup>j</sup> of copper; and you must make upon the net four rings of copper at its four extremities. 5 And you must put it under the altar's rim down within, and the net must be toward the center of the altar.<sup>k</sup> 6 And you must make poles for the altar, its which is for Aaron, and wave it to and fro as a wave offering before Jehovah, and it must become your portion. 27 And you must sanctify the breast<sup>a</sup> of the wave offering and the leg of the sacred portion that was waved and that was contributed from the ram of installation,<sup>b</sup> from what was for Aaron and from what was for his sons. 28 And it must become Aaron's and his sons' by a regulation to time indefinite to be performed by the sons of Israel, because it is a sacred portion;<sup>c</sup> and it will become a sacred portion to be rendered by the sons of Israel. From their communion sacrifices<sup>d</sup> it is their sacred portion for Jehovah.

31 "And you will take the ram of installation, and you must boil its flesh in a holy place.<sup>j</sup>

32 And Aaron and his sons must eat<sup>k</sup> the flesh of the ram and the bread that is in the basket at the entrance of the tent of meeting.

33 And they must eat the things with which atonement has been made to fill their hand with power, in order to sanctify them.<sup>l</sup> But a stranger may not eat them, because they are something holy.<sup>m</sup>

34 And if any of the flesh of the installation sacrifice and of the bread should be left over until the morning, then you must burn what is left over with fire.<sup>n</sup> It must not be eaten, because it is something holy.

35 "And you must do this way to Aaron and his sons according to all that I have commanded you.<sup>o</sup> You will take seven days to fill their hand with power.<sup>a</sup> 36 And you will offer the bull of the sin offering daily for an atonement,<sup>b</sup> and you must purify the altar from sin by your making atonement over it, and you must anoint<sup>c</sup> it to sanctify it. 37 You will take seven days to make atonement over the altar, and you must sanctify<sup>d</sup> it that it may indeed become a most holy altar.<sup>e</sup> Anyone who touches the altar is to be holy.<sup>f</sup>

38 "And this is what you will offer upon the altar: young rams each a year old, two a day constantly.<sup>g</sup> 39 And you will offer the one young ram in the morning,<sup>h</sup> and you will offer the other young ram between the two evenings.<sup>i</sup> 40 And a tenth part of an e'phah measure of fine flour<sup>j</sup> moistened with the fourth of a hin of beaten oil, and a drink offering<sup>k</sup> of the fourth of a hin of wine, will go for the first young ram. 41 And you will offer the second young ram between the two evenings. With a grain offering<sup>l</sup> like that of the morning and with a drink offering like its, you will render it as a restful odor, an offering made by fire to Jehovah. 42 It is a constant<sup>m</sup> burnt offering throughout your generations at the entrance of the tent of meeting before Jehovah, where I shall present myself to you people to speak to you there.<sup>n</sup>

43 "And I will present myself there to the sons of Israel, and it will certainly be sanctified by my glory.<sup>o</sup> 44 And I will sanctify the tent of meeting and the altar; and I shall sanctify<sup>p</sup> Aaron and his sons for them to act as priests to me. 45 And I will tabernacle in the midst of the sons of Israel, and I will prove to be their God.<sup>q</sup> 46 And they will certainly know that I am Jehovah their God, who brought them out of the land of Egypt that I may tabernacle in the midst of them.<sup>r</sup> I am Jehovah their God.<sup>s</sup>

30 "And you must make an altar as a place for burning incense;<sup>a</sup> out of acacia wood you will make it. 2 A cubit in length and a cubit in width, it should be foursquare, and its height two cubits. Its horns extend out of it.<sup>b</sup> 3 And you must overlay it with pure gold, its top surface and its sides round about and its horns; and you must make a border of gold round about for it.<sup>c</sup> 4 You will also make for it two rings of gold. Down below its border upon two of its sides you will make them, upon two opposite sides of it, as they must serve as supports for the poles with which to carry it.<sup>d</sup> 5 And you must make the poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold.<sup>e</sup> 6 And you must put it before the curtain that is near the ark of the testimony,<sup>f</sup> before the cover that is over the Testimony, where I shall present myself to you.<sup>g</sup>

7 "And Aaron must make perfumed incense<sup>h</sup> smoke upon it.<sup>i</sup> Morning by morning, when he dresses the lamps,<sup>j</sup> he will make it smoke. 8 And when Aaron lights up the lamps between the two evenings, he will make it smoke. It is an incense constantly before Jehovah during your generations. 9 You must not offer upon it illegitimate incense<sup>k</sup> or a burnt offering or a grain offering; and you must not pour a drink offering upon it. 10 And Aaron must make atonement upon its horns once a year.<sup>l</sup> With some of the blood of the sin offering<sup>m</sup> of the atonement he will make atonement for it once a year during your generations. It is most holy to Jehovah.<sup>n</sup>

11 And Jehovah went on to speak to Moses, saying: 12 "Whenever you take the sum of the sons of Israel as a census of them,<sup>o</sup> then they must each give a ransom for his soul to Jehovah when taking a census of them,<sup>a</sup> that there may come to be no plague upon them when taking a census of them.<sup>b</sup> 13 This is what all those will give who pass over to those numbered: a half shekel by the shekel of the holy place.<sup>c</sup> Twenty gerahs equal a shekel. A half shekel is the contribution to Jehovah.<sup>d</sup> 14 Everyone passing over to those registered from twenty years old and upward will give Jehovah's contribution.<sup>e</sup> 15 The rich should not give more, and the lowly must not give less than the half shekel,<sup>f</sup> in order to give Jehovah's contribution so as to make atonement for your souls.<sup>g</sup> 16 And you must take the silver money of the atonement from the sons of Israel and give it in behalf of the service of the tent of meeting,<sup>h</sup> that it may indeed serve as a memorial before Jehovah for the sons of Israel, to make atonement for your souls.<sup>i</sup>

17 And Jehovah spoke further to Moses, saying: 18 "You must make a basin of copper and its stand of copper for washing,<sup>j</sup> and you must put it between the tent of meeting and the altar and put water into it.<sup>k</sup> 19 And Aaron and his sons must wash their hands and their feet at it.<sup>l</sup> 20 When they go into the tent of meeting they will wash with water that they may not die, or when they go near the altar to minister in order to make an offering made by fire smoke to Jehovah.<sup>m</sup> 21 And they must wash their hands and their feet that they may not die,<sup>n</sup> and it must serve as a regulation to time indefinite for them, for him and his offspring throughout their generations."<sup>n</sup>

keep,<sup>a</sup> for it is a sign between me and you during your generations that you may know that I Jehovah am sanctifying you.<sup>b</sup> 14 And you must keep the sabbath, for it is something holy to you.<sup>c</sup> A profaner of it will positively be put to death.<sup>d</sup> In case there is anyone doing work on it, then that soul must be cut off from the midst of his people.<sup>e</sup> 15 Six days may work be done, but on the seventh day is a sabbath of complete rest.<sup>f</sup> It is something holy to Jehovah. Anyone doing work on the sabbath day will positively be put to death. 16 And the sons of Israel must keep the sabbath, so as to carry out the sabbath during their generations. It is a covenant to time indefinite.<sup>g</sup> 17 Between me and the sons of Israel it is a sign to time indefinite,<sup>h</sup> because in six days Jehovah made the heavens and the earth and on the seventh day he rested and proceeded to refresh himself.<sup>i</sup> 18 Now as soon as he had finished speaking with him on Mount Si’nai he proceeded to give Moses two tablets of the Testimony,<sup>j</sup> tablets of stone written on by God’s finger.<sup>k</sup>

32 Meanwhile the people got to see that Moses was taking a long time about coming down from the mountain.<sup>l</sup> So the people congregated themselves about Aaron and said to him: “Get up, make for us a god who will go ahead of us,<sup>m</sup> because as regards this Moses, the man who led us up out of the land of Egypt,<sup>n</sup> we certainly do not know what has happened to him.” 2 At this Aaron said to them: “Tear off the gold earrings<sup>o</sup> that are in the ears of your wives, of your sons and of your daughters and bring them to me.” 3 And all the people began tearing off the gold earrings that were in their ears and bringing them to

Aaron. 4 Then he took the gold from their hands, and he formed it<sup>a</sup> with a graving tool and proceeded to make it into a molten statue of a calf.<sup>b</sup> And they began to say: "This is your God, O Israel, who led you up out of the land of Egypt."<sup>c</sup>

5 When Aaron got to see this, he went to building an altar before it. Finally Aaron called out and said: "There is a festival to Jehovah tomorrow." 6 So on the next day they were early in rising, and they began offering up burnt offerings and presenting communion sacrifices. After that the people sat down to eat and drink. Then they got up to have a good time.<sup>d</sup>

7 Jehovah now said to Moses: "Go, descend, because your people whom you led up out of the land of Egypt have acted ruinously."<sup>e</sup> 8 They have turned aside in a hurry from the way I have commanded them to go.<sup>f</sup> They have made a molten statue of a calf for themselves and keep bowing down to it and sacrificing to it and saying, "This is your God, O Israel, who led you up out of the land of Egypt."<sup>g</sup> 9 And Jehovah went on to say to Moses: "I have looked at this people and here it is a stiff-necked people.<sup>h</sup> 10 So now let me be, that my anger may blaze against them and I may exterminate them,<sup>i</sup> and let me make you into a great nation."<sup>j</sup>

11 And Moses proceeded to soften the face of Jehovah his God<sup>k</sup> and to say: "Why, O Jehovah, should your anger<sup>l</sup> blaze against your people whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a strong hand? 12 Why should the Egyptians<sup>m</sup> say, 'With evil intent he brought them out in order to kill them among the mountains and to exterminate them from the surface of the ground?<sup>a</sup> Turn from your burning anger<sup>b</sup> and feel regret<sup>c</sup> over the evil against your people. 13 Remember Abraham, Isaac and Israel your servants, to whom you swore by yourself,<sup>d</sup> in that you said to them, 'I shall multiply YOUR seed like the stars of the heavens,'<sup>e</sup> and all this land that I have designated I shall give to YOUR seed,<sup>f</sup> that they may indeed take possession of it to time indefinite.'<sup>g</sup>

14 And Jehovah began to feel regret over the evil that he had spoken of doing to his people.<sup>h</sup>

15 After that Moses turned and went down from the mountain<sup>i</sup> with the two tablets of the Testimony<sup>j</sup> in his hand, tablets written upon on both their sides. On this side and on that they were written upon. 16 And the tablets were the workmanship of God, and the writing was the writing of God engraved upon the tablets.<sup>k</sup> 17 And Joshua began to hear the noise of the people because of their shouting, and he proceeded to say to Moses: "There is a noise of battle<sup>l</sup> in the camp." 18 But he said:

"It is not the sound of the singing over mighty performance,<sup>m</sup>

And it is not the sound of the singing of defeat;

It is the sound of other singing that I am hearing."

19 So it came about that as soon as he got near the camp and could see the calf<sup>n</sup> and the dances, Moses' anger began to blaze, and he at once threw the tablets from his hands and shattered them at the foot of the mountain.<sup>o</sup> 20 Then he took the calf that they had made and he burnt it with fire and crushed it till it was fine,<sup>p</sup> after which he scattered it upon the surface of the waters<sup>q</sup> and made the sons of Israel drink it.<sup>r</sup> 21 After that

Moses said to Aaron: "What did this people do to you that you have brought a great sin upon it?" 22 To this Aaron said: "Do not let the anger of my lord blaze. You yourself well know the people, that they are evil-inclined.<sup>a</sup> 23 So they said to me, 'Make for us a god who will go ahead of us,<sup>b</sup> because as regards this Moses, the man who led us up out of the land of Egypt, we certainly do not know what has happened to him.' 24 Hence I said to them, 'Who have any gold? They must tear it off themselves that they may give it to me.' And I proceeded to throw it into the fire and this calf came on out."

25 And Moses got to see that the people went unrestrained, because Aaron had let them go unrestrained<sup>c</sup> for a disgrace among their opposers.<sup>d</sup> 26 Then Moses took his stand in the gate of the camp and said: "Who is on Jehovah's side? To me!"<sup>e</sup> And all the sons of Le'vi began gathering themselves to him. 27 He now said to them: "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, 'Put each one of you his sword on his side. Pass through and return from gate to gate in the camp and kill each one his brother and each one his fellow and each one his intimate acquaintance.'"<sup>f</sup> 28 And the sons of Le'vi<sup>g</sup> proceeded to do as Moses had said, so that there fell of the people on that day about three thousand men. 29 And Moses went on to say: "Fill your hand today with power for Jehovah,<sup>h</sup> because each one of you is against his own son and his own brother,<sup>i</sup> and that he may confer a blessing upon you today."<sup>j</sup>

30 And it came about on the very next day that Moses proceeded to say to the people: "You—you have sinned with a great sin,<sup>k</sup> and now I shall go up to Jehovah. Perhaps I can make amends for your sin."<sup>l</sup> 31 So

Moses returned to Jehovah and said: "Ah, but this people has sinned with a great sin, in that they made a god of gold for themselves!<sup>a</sup> 32 But now if you will pardon their sin,<sup>b</sup>—and if not, wipe me out,<sup>c</sup> please, from your book<sup>d</sup> that you have written." 33 However, Jehovah said to Moses: "Whoever has sinned against me, I shall wipe him out of my book.<sup>e</sup> 34 And now, come, lead the people to where I have spoken to you of. Look! My angel will go ahead of you,<sup>f</sup> and on the day of my bringing punishment I shall certainly bring punishment upon them for their sin."<sup>g</sup> 35 And Jehovah began plaguing the people because they had made the calf, which Aaron had made.<sup>h</sup>

33 And Jehovah said further to Moses: "Go, move up from here, you and the people whom you led up out of the land of Egypt,<sup>i</sup> to the land about which I swore to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, saying, 'To your seed I shall give it.'<sup>j</sup> 2 And I will send an angel ahead of you<sup>k</sup> and drive out the Ca'naan-ites, the Am'-or-ites, and the Hit'tites and the Per'iz-zites, the Hi'vites and the Jeb'u-sites;<sup>l</sup> 3 to a land flowing with milk and honey,<sup>m</sup> for I shall not go up in the midst of you, because you are a stiff-necked people,<sup>n</sup> that I may not exterminate you on the way."<sup>o</sup>

7 As for Moses, he proceeded to take his tent away and he pitched it outside the camp, far away from the camp; and he called it a tent of meeting. And it occurred that everyone inquiring<sup>b</sup> of Jehovah would go out to the tent of meeting, which was outside the camp. 8 And it occurred that as soon as Moses went out to the tent, all the people would rise,<sup>c</sup> and they stationed themselves each one at the entrance of his own tent, and they gazed after Moses until he went into the tent. 9 It also occurred that as soon as Moses had gone into the tent, the pillar of cloud<sup>d</sup> would come down, and it stood at the entrance of the tent and he spoke<sup>e</sup> with Moses. 10 And all the people saw the pillar of cloud<sup>f</sup> standing at the entrance of the tent, and all the people rose and bowed down each one at the entrance of his own tent.<sup>g</sup> 11 And Jehovah spoke to Moses face to face,<sup>h</sup> just as a man would speak to his fellow. When he returned to the camp, his minister<sup>i</sup> Joshua, the son of Nun,<sup>j</sup> as attendant, would not withdraw from the midst of the tent.

12 Now Moses said to Jehovah: "See, you are saying to me, 'Lead this people up,' but you yourself have not let me know whom you will send with me. Moreover, you yourself have said, 'I do know you by name<sup>k</sup> and, besides, you have found favor in my eyes.' 13 And now, if, please, I have found favor in your eyes,<sup>l</sup> make me know, please, your ways,<sup>m</sup> that I may know you, in order that I may find favor in your eyes. And consider that this nation is your people."<sup>n</sup> 14 So he said: "My own person will go along<sup>o</sup> and I shall certainly give you rest."<sup>p</sup> 15 At this he said to him: "If your own person is not going along, do not lead us up from here. 16 And by what, now, will it be known that I have found favor in your eyes, I and your people? Is it not by your going along with us,<sup>a</sup> in that I and your people have been made distinct from all the other people who are upon the surface of the ground?"<sup>b</sup>

17 And Jehovah went on to say to Moses: "This thing, too, of which you have spoken, I shall do,<sup>c</sup> because you have found favor in my eyes and I know you by name." 18 At this he said: "Cause me to see, please, your glory."<sup>d</sup> 19 But he said: "I myself shall cause all my goodness to pass before your face,<sup>e</sup> and I will declare the name of Jehovah before you;<sup>f</sup> and I will favor the one whom I may favor, and I will show mercy to the one to whom I may show mercy."<sup>g</sup> 20 And he added: "You are not able to see my face, because no man may see me and yet live."<sup>h</sup>

21 And Jehovah said further: "Here is a place with me, and you must station yourself upon the rock. 22 And it has to occur that while my glory is passing by I must place you in a hole in the rock, and I must put my palm over you as a screen until I have passed by. 23 After that I must take my palm away, and you will indeed see my back. But my face may not be seen."<sup>i</sup>

4 Accordingly Moses carved out two tablets of stone like the first ones and got up early in the morning and went on up into Mount Si’nai, just as Jehovah had commanded him, and he was taking the two tablets of stone in his hand. 5 And Jehovah proceeded to come down<sup>c</sup> in the cloud and station himself with him there and declare the name of Jehovah.<sup>d</sup> 6 And Jehovah went passing by before his face and declaring: “Jehovah, Jehovah, a God merciful<sup>e</sup> and gracious,<sup>f</sup> slow to anger<sup>g</sup> and abundant in loving-kindness<sup>h</sup> and truth,<sup>i</sup> 7 preserving loving-kindness for thousands,<sup>j</sup> pardoning error and transgression and sin,<sup>k</sup> but by no means will he give exemption from punishment,<sup>l</sup> bringing punishment for the error of fathers upon sons and upon grandsons, upon the third generation and upon the fourth generation.”<sup>m</sup>

8 Moses at once hurried to bow low to the earth and prostrate himself.<sup>n</sup> 9 Then he said: “If, now, I have found favor in your eyes, O Jehovah, let Jehovah, please, go along in the midst of us,<sup>o</sup> because it is a stiff-necked people,<sup>p</sup> and you have to forgive our error and our sin,<sup>q</sup> and you must take us as your possession.”<sup>r</sup> 10 In turn he said: “Here I am concluding a covenant: Before all your people I shall do wonderful things that have never been created in all the earth or among all the nations;<sup>s</sup> and all the people in the midst of whom you are will indeed see the work of Jehovah, because it is a fear-inspiring thing that I am doing with you.”<sup>t</sup>

Testimony were in the hand of Moses when he came down from the mountain,<sup>a</sup> and Moses did not know that the skin of his face emitted rays because of his having spoken with him.<sup>b</sup> 30 When Aaron and all the sons of Israel got to see Moses, why, look! the skin of his face emitted rays and they grew afraid of coming near to him.<sup>c</sup>

31 And Moses proceeded to call them. So Aaron and all the chieftains among the assembly came back to him, and Moses began to speak to them. 32 First after that all the sons of Israel came near to him, and he began commanding them all that Jehovah had spoken with him on Mount Si'nai.<sup>d</sup> 33 When Moses would finish speaking with them, he would put a veil over his face.<sup>e</sup> 34 But when Moses would go in before Jehovah to speak with him, he would take away the veil until his going out.<sup>f</sup> And he went out and spoke to the sons of Israel what he would be commanded.<sup>g</sup> 35 And the sons of Israel saw Moses' face, that the skin of Moses' face emitted rays;<sup>h</sup> and Moses put the veil back over his face until he went in to speak with him.<sup>i</sup>

35 Later Moses called the entire assembly of the sons of Israel together and said to them: "These are the words that Jehovah has commanded, to do them:<sup>j</sup> 2 Six days may work be done,<sup>k</sup> but on the seventh day it will become something holy to you, a sabbath of complete rest to Jehovah. Anybody doing work on it will be put to death.<sup>l</sup> 3 You must not light a fire in any of your dwelling places on the sabbath day."<sup>m</sup>

4 And Moses went on to say to the entire assembly of the sons of Israel: "This is the word that Jehovah has commanded, saying, 5 'From among yourselves take up a contribution for Jehovah.<sup>a</sup> Let every willing-hearted one<sup>b</sup> bring it as Jehovah's contribution, namely, gold and silver and copper<sup>c</sup> 6 and blue thread and wool dyed reddish purple and coccus scarlet material and fine linen and goat's hair<sup>d</sup> 7 and ram skins dyed red and sealskins and acacia wood 8 and oil for the luminary and balsam oil for the anointing oil and for the perfumed incense<sup>e</sup> 9 and onyx stones and setting stones for the eph'od<sup>f</sup> and for the breastpiece.<sup>g</sup>

10 "And let all the wise-hearted ones<sup>h</sup> among you come and make all that Jehovah has commanded, 11 namely, the tabernacle with its tent and its covering, its hooks and its panel frames, its bars, its pillars and its socket pedestals; 12 the Ark<sup>i</sup> and its poles,<sup>j</sup> the cover<sup>k</sup> and the curtain<sup>l</sup> of the screen; 13 the table<sup>m</sup> and its poles and all its utensils and the showbread;<sup>n</sup> 14 and the lampstand<sup>o</sup> of illumination and its utensils and its lamps and the oil<sup>p</sup> for illumination; 15 and the altar of incense<sup>q</sup> and its poles; and the anointing oil and the perfumed incense;<sup>r</sup> and the screen of the entrance for the tabernacle's entrance; 16 the altar<sup>s</sup> of burnt offering and the copper grating that is for it, its poles and all its utensils; the basin<sup>t</sup> and its stand; 17 the hangings of the courtyard,<sup>u</sup> its pillars and its socket pedestals; and the screen of the gate of the courtyard; 18 the tent pins of the tabernacle and the tent pins of the courtyard and their cords;<sup>v</sup> 19 the garments<sup>w</sup> of knitted work for ministering in the sanctuary, the holy garments<sup>x</sup> for Aaron the priest and the garments of his sons for acting as priests."

20 Accordingly all the assembly of the sons of Israel went out from before Moses. 21 Then

27 And the chieftains brought onyx stones and setting stones for the eph'od and the breastpiece.<sup>e</sup> 28 and the balsam oil and the oil for illumination and for the anointing oil and for the perfumed incense.<sup>f</sup> 29 Every man and woman whose hearts incited them to bring something for all the work that Jehovah had commanded to make by means of Moses did so; the sons of Israel brought a voluntary offering to Jehovah.<sup>g</sup>

30 Then Moses said to the sons of Israel: "See, Jehovah has called by name Bez'al-el<sup>a</sup> the son of U'ri the son of Hur of the tribe of Judah. 31 And he proceeded to fill him with the spirit of God in wisdom, in understanding and in knowledge and in every sort of craftsmanship 32 and for designing devices, for working in gold and silver and copper,<sup>b</sup> 33 and in working of stones to set them and in working of wood to make ingenious products of every sort.<sup>c</sup> 34 And he has put it into his heart that he should teach, he and O-ho'liab<sup>d</sup> the son of A-his'a-mach of the tribe of Dan. 35 He has filled them with wisdom of heart<sup>e</sup> to do all the work of a craftsman and an embroiderer<sup>f</sup> and of a weaver in blue thread and wool dyed reddish purple, in coccus scarlet material and fine linen, and of a loom worker, men doing every sort of work and designing devices.

36 "And Bez'al-el must work, also O-ho'liab<sup>g</sup> and every wise-hearted man to whom Jehovah has given wisdom<sup>h</sup> and understanding<sup>i</sup> in these things in order to know how to do all the work of the holy service according to all that Jehovah has commanded."<sup>j</sup>

2 And Moses proceeded to call Bez'al-el and O-ho'liab and every wise-hearted man into whose heart Jehovah had put wisdom,<sup>k</sup> everyone whose heart impelled him to approach the work in order to do it.<sup>l</sup> 3 Then they took from before Moses all the contribution<sup>m</sup> that the sons of Israel had brought for the work of the holy service so as to do it, and, as for the latter, they still brought to him a voluntary offering morning after morning.

4 And all the wise ones who were doing all the holy work began to come, one man after another, from their work that they were doing, 5 and to say to Moses: "The people are bringing much more than what the service needs for the work that Jehovah has commanded to be done." 6 So Moses commanded that they should cause an announcement to pass through the camp, saying: "Men and women, do not produce any more stuff for the holy contribution." With that the people were restrained from bringing it in. 7 And the stuff proved to be enough for all the work to be done, and more than enough.

8 And all the wise-hearted<sup>a</sup> among those doing the work went making the tabernacle,<sup>b</sup> the ten tent cloths of fine twisted linen and blue thread and wool dyed reddish purple and coccus scarlet material; with cherubs, the work of an embroiderer, he made them. 9 The length of each tent cloth was twenty-eight cubits, and the width of each tent cloth four cubits. There was one measure for all the tent cloths. 10 Then he joined five tent cloths one to another,<sup>c</sup> and the five other tent cloths he joined one to another. 11 After that he made loops of blue thread upon the edge of the one tent cloth at the junction end. He did the same on the edge of the outermost tent cloth at the other place of junction.<sup>d</sup> 12 He made fifty loops on the one tent cloth, and he made fifty loops on the extremity of the tent cloth that was at the other place of junction, the loops being opposite one another.<sup>e</sup> 13 Finally he made fifty hooks of gold and joined the tent cloths to one another by the hooks, so that it became one tabernacle.<sup>f</sup>

14 And he went on to make tent cloths of goat's hair for the tent upon the tabernacle. Eleven tent cloths were what he made.<sup>g</sup> 15 The length of each tent cloth was thirty cubits, and the width of each tent cloth four cubits.

There was one measure for the eleven tent cloths.<sup>a</sup> 16 Then he joined five tent cloths together by themselves and the six other tent cloths by themselves.<sup>b</sup> 17 Next he made fifty loops upon the edge of the outermost tent cloth at the place of junction, and he made fifty loops upon the edge of the other tent cloth that joined with it.<sup>c</sup> 18 After that he made fifty hooks of copper for joining the tent together to become one piece.<sup>d</sup>

20 Then he made the panel frames for the tabernacle out of acacia wood,<sup>g</sup> standing on end.

21 Ten cubits was the length of a panel frame, and one cubit and a half the width of each panel frame.<sup>h</sup> 22 Each panel frame had two tenons fitted one to the other. That is the way he did to all the panel frames of the tabernacle.<sup>i</sup> 23 So he made the panel frames for the tabernacle, twenty panel frames for the side toward the Neg'eb, to the south.<sup>j</sup> 24 And he made forty socket pedestals of silver for beneath the twenty panel frames, two socket pedestals beneath the one panel frame with its two tenons and two socket pedestals beneath the other panel frame with its two tenons.<sup>k</sup> 25 And for the other side of the tabernacle, the northern side, he made twenty panel frames.<sup>l</sup> 26 And their forty socket pedestals of silver, two socket pedestals beneath the one panel frame and two socket pedestals beneath the other panel frame.<sup>m</sup>

That is what he did to them both, to the two corner posts.<sup>a</sup> 30 So they amounted to eight panel frames and their socket pedestals of silver to sixteen, two socket pedestals next to two socket pedestals beneath each panel frame.<sup>b</sup>

31 And he went on to make bars of acacia wood, five for the panel frames of the one side of the tabernacle.<sup>c</sup> 32 and five bars for the panel frames of the other side of the tabernacle and five bars for the panel frames of the tabernacle for the two rear sections to the west.<sup>d</sup> 33 Then he made the middle bar to run through at the middle of the panel frames from one end to the other.<sup>e</sup> 34 And he overlaid the panel frames with gold, and he made their rings of gold as supports for the bars, and he went on to overlay the bars with gold.<sup>f</sup>

35 And he proceeded to make a curtain<sup>g</sup> of blue thread and wool dyed reddish purple and coccus scarlet material and fine twisted linen. With the work of an embroiderer he made it with cherubs.<sup>h</sup> 36 Then he made for it four acacia pillars and overlaid them with gold, their pegs being of gold, and cast four socket pedestals of silver for them.<sup>i</sup> 37 And he went on to make a screen for the entrance of the tent out of blue thread and wool dyed reddish purple and coccus scarlet material and fine twisted linen, the work of a weaver,<sup>j</sup> 38 and its five pillars and their pegs. And he overlaid their tops and their joints with gold, but their five socket pedestals were of copper.<sup>k</sup>

and a cubit and a half its height.<sup>a</sup> 2 Then he overlaid it with pure gold inside and outside and made a border of gold round about for it.<sup>b</sup> 3 After that he cast four rings of gold for it, for above its four feet, with two rings on its one side and two rings on its other side.<sup>c</sup> 4 He next made poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold.<sup>d</sup> 5 Then he put the poles through the rings on the sides of the Ark for carrying the Ark.<sup>e</sup>

6 And he went on to make the cover<sup>f</sup> of pure gold. Two cubits and a half was its length, and a cubit and a half its width.<sup>g</sup> 7 He further made two cherubs of gold. Of hammered work he made them on both ends of the cover.<sup>h</sup> 8 One cherub was on the end over there, and the other cherub on the end over here. He made the cherubs on the cover on both of its ends.<sup>i</sup> 9 And they came to be cherubs spreading out two wings upward, screening over the cover with their wings,<sup>j</sup> and their faces were one to the other. The faces of the cherubs proved to be toward the cover.<sup>k</sup>

10 And he proceeded to make the table of acacia wood.<sup>l</sup> Two cubits was its length, and a cubit its width, and a cubit and a half its height.<sup>m</sup> 11 Then he overlaid it with pure gold and made a border of gold round about for it.<sup>n</sup> 12 Next he made for it a rim of a handbreadth round about and made a border of gold for its rim round about.<sup>o</sup> 13 Further, he cast four rings of gold for it and put the rings upon the four corners that were for the four feet.<sup>p</sup> 14 The rings proved to be near the rim, as supports for the poles for carrying the table.<sup>q</sup> 15 Then he made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold for carrying the table.<sup>r</sup> 16 After that he made the utensils that are upon the table, its

17 Then he made the lampstand<sup>b</sup> of pure gold. Of hammered work he made the lampstand. Its sides and its branches, its cups, its knobs and its blossoms proceeded out of it.<sup>c</sup>

18 And six branches were running out from its sides, three branches of the lampstand out from its one side and three branches of the lampstand out from its other side.<sup>d</sup> 19 Three cups shaped like flowers of almond were on the one set of branches, with knobs and blossoms alternating; and three cups shaped like flowers of almond were on the other set of branches, with knobs and blossoms alternating. That is the way it was for the six branches running out from the lampstand.<sup>e</sup> 20 And on the lampstand there were four cups shaped like flowers of almond, with its knobs and its blossoms alternating.<sup>f</sup> 21 And the knob under two branches was out of it, and the knob under two other branches was out of it, and the knob under two more branches was out of it, for the six branches running out from the lampstand.<sup>g</sup> 22 Their knobs and their branches proceeded out from it. All of it was one piece of hammered work, of pure gold.<sup>h</sup> 23 Then he made its seven lamps and its snuffers and its fire holders out of pure gold.<sup>i</sup> 24 Of a talent of pure gold he made it and all its utensils.

25 He now made the altar of incense<sup>j</sup> out of acacia wood.<sup>k</sup> A cubit was its length and a cubit its width, it being foursquare, and two cubits was its height. Its horns proceeded out of it.<sup>l</sup> 26 Then he overlaid it with pure gold, its top surface and its sides

38 And he went on to make the altar of burnt offering out of acacia wood. Five cubits was its length, and five cubits its width, it being foursquare, and three cubits was its height.<sup>f</sup> 2 Then he made its horns<sup>g</sup> upon its four corners. Its horns proceeded out of it. Next he overlaid it with copper.<sup>h</sup> 3 After that he made all the utensils of the altar, the cans and the shovels and the bowls, the forks and the fire holders. All its utensils he made of copper.<sup>i</sup> 4 He further made for the altar a grating, a network of copper, under its rim, down toward its center.<sup>j</sup> 5 Then he cast four rings on the four extremities near the grating of copper, as supports for the poles.<sup>k</sup> 6 After that he made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with copper.<sup>l</sup> 7 Then he put the poles into the rings on the sides of the altar for carrying it with them.<sup>m</sup> He made it a hollow chest of planks.<sup>n</sup>

24 All the gold that was used for the work in all the work of the holy place came to the amount of the gold of the wave offering,<sup>f</sup> twenty-nine talents and seven hundred and thirty shekels by the shekel<sup>g</sup> of the holy place.<sup>h</sup> 25 And the silver of the ones registered of the assembly was a hundred talents and one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five shekels by the shekel of the holy place. 26 The half shekel for an individual was the half of a shekel by the shekel of the holy place, for every man who was passing over to those who were registered from twenty years of age and upward,<sup>i</sup> amounting to six hundred and three thousand five hundred and fifty.<sup>j</sup>

27 And a hundred talents of silver went into the casting of the socket pedestals of the holy place and the socket pedestals of the curtain. A hundred socket pedestals equaled a hundred talents, a talent to a socket pedestal.<sup>k</sup> 28 And out of the thousand seven hundred and seventy-five shekels he made pegs for the pillars and overlaid their tops and joined them together.

ents and two thousand four hundred shekels. 30 And with this he proceeded to make the socket pedestals of the entrance of the tent of meeting and the copper altar and the copper grating that belonged to it, and all the utensils of the altar, 31 and the socket pedestals of the courtyard round about, and the socket pedestals of the gate of the courtyard, and all the tent pins of the tabernacle and all the tent pins<sup>a</sup> of the courtyard round about.

39 And out of the blue thread and wool dyed reddish purple and coccus scarlet material<sup>b</sup> they made garments<sup>c</sup> of knitted work for ministering in the holy place.<sup>d</sup> So they made the holy garments<sup>e</sup> that were for Aaron, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

2 Accordingly he made the eph'od<sup>f</sup> of gold, blue thread and wool dyed reddish purple and coccus scarlet material and fine twisted linen. 3 Then they beat plates of gold to thin sheets, and he cut out threads to work in among the blue thread and the wool dyed reddish purple and the coccus scarlet material and the fine linen, as the work of an embroiderer.<sup>g</sup> 4 They made shoulder pieces for it that were joined. It was joined at its two extremities. 5 And the girdle, which was upon it for tying it close, was of the same material according to its workmanship, of gold, blue thread, and wool dyed reddish purple and coccus scarlet material and fine twisted linen,<sup>h</sup> just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

6 Then they made the onyx<sup>i</sup> stones set with settings of gold, engraved with the engravings of a seal according to the names of the sons of Israel.<sup>j</sup> 7 So he placed them upon the shoulder pieces of the eph'od as memorial<sup>k</sup> stones for the sons of Israel,

They made the breastpiece, when doubled, a span of the hand in its length and a span in its width.<sup>c</sup>

27 Next they made the robes of fine linen,<sup>h</sup> the workmanship of a loom worker, for Aaron and his sons, 28 and the turban<sup>i</sup> of fine linen and the ornamental headgears<sup>j</sup> of fine linen and the linen drawers<sup>k</sup> of fine twisted linen, 29 and the sash<sup>l</sup> of fine twisted linen and blue thread and wool dyed reddish purple and coccus scarlet material, the work of a weaver, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

30 Finally they made the shining plate, the holy sign of dedication, out of pure gold and inscribed upon it an inscription with the engravings of a seal: "Holiness belongs to Jehovah."<sup>m</sup>

31 Then they put a string of blue thread to it in order to put it upon the turban up above,<sup>a</sup> just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

32 So the work for the tabernacle of the tent of meeting all came to its completion, in that the sons of Israel kept doing according to all that Jehovah had commanded Moses.<sup>b</sup> They did just so.

42 According to all that Jehovah had commanded Moses, that was the way the sons of Israel did all the service.<sup>p</sup> 43 And Moses got to see all the work, and, look! they had done it just as Jehovah

16 And Moses proceeded to do according to all that Jehovah had commanded him.<sup>d</sup> He did just so.

17 Accordingly it came about that in the first month, in the second year, on the first day of the month, the tabernacle was set up.<sup>e</sup> 18 When Moses proceeded to set up the tabernacle, he went putting its socket pedestals<sup>f</sup> down and placing its panel frames<sup>g</sup> and putting its bars<sup>h</sup> in and setting up its pillars.<sup>i</sup> 19 Then he spread out the tent<sup>j</sup> over the tabernacle and placed the covering<sup>k</sup> of the tent above upon it, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

en altar<sup>a</sup> in the tent of meeting before the curtain, 27 that he might make perfumed incense smoke upon it,<sup>b</sup> just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

28 Finally he put the screen<sup>c</sup> of the entrance of the tabernacle in place.

29 And he placed the altar<sup>d</sup> of burnt offering at the entrance of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting, that he might offer up the burnt offering<sup>e</sup> and the grain offering upon it, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

30 Then he placed the basin between the tent of meeting and the altar and put water in it for washing.<sup>f</sup> 31 And Moses and Aaron and his sons washed their hands and their feet at it. 32 When they went into the tent of meeting and when they went near to the altar they would wash,<sup>g</sup> just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

34 And the cloud<sup>j</sup> began to cover the tent of meeting, and Jehovah's glory filled the tabernacle. 35 And Moses was not able to go into the tent of meeting, because the cloud<sup>k</sup> resided over it and Jehovah's glory filled the tabernacle.<sup>l</sup>

36 And when the cloud lifted itself up from over the tabernacle the sons of Israel would break camp during all their stages of journey.<sup>m</sup> 37 However, if the cloud did not lift itself up, then they would not break camp until the day when it lifted itself up.<sup>n</sup>

38 For Jehovah's cloud was over the tabernacle by day, and a fire continued upon it by night in the sight of all the house of Israel during all their stages of journey.<sup>o</sup>

1 And Jehovah proceeded to call Moses and speak to him out of the tent of meeting,<sup>a</sup> saying: 2 "Speak to the sons of Israel,<sup>b</sup> and you must say to them, 'In case some man of you would present an offering to Jehovah from the domestic animals, you should present your offering from the herd and from the flock.

5 "Then the young bull must be slaughtered before Jehovah; and the sons of Aaron, the priests,<sup>h</sup> must present the blood and sprinkle the blood round about upon the altar,<sup>i</sup> which is at the entrance of the tent of meeting. 6 And the burnt offering must be skinned and cut up into its parts.<sup>j</sup> 7 And the sons of Aaron, the priests, must put fire on the altar<sup>k</sup> and set wood in order on the fire.<sup>l</sup> 8 And the sons of Aaron, the priests, must set the pieces<sup>m</sup> in order with the head and the suet over the wood that is on the fire that is on the altar. 9 And its intestines<sup>n</sup> and its shanks will be washed with water; and the priest must make all of it smoke on the altar as a burnt offering, an offering made by fire of a restful odor to Jehovah.<sup>o</sup> its head and its shanks and its intestines and its dung,<sup>a</sup> 12 he must have the entire bull taken out to the outskirts of the camp<sup>b</sup> to a clean place where the fatty ashes<sup>c</sup> are poured out, and he must burn it upon wood in the fire.<sup>d</sup> Where the fatty ashes are poured out it should be burned.

13 "Now if the entire assembly of Israel makes a mistake<sup>e</sup> and the matter has been hidden from the eyes of the congregation in that they have done one of all the things that Jehovah commands should not be done and so have become guilty,<sup>f</sup> 14 and the sin that they have committed against it has become known,<sup>g</sup> then the congregation must present a young bull for a sin offering and must bring it before the tent of meeting. 15 And the older men of the assembly must lay their hands upon the bull's head<sup>h</sup> before Jehovah, and the bull must be slaughtered before Jehovah.

16 "Then the priest, the anointed one,<sup>i</sup> must bring some of the bull's blood into the tent of meeting.<sup>j</sup> 17 And the priest must dip his finger into some of the blood and spatter it seven times before Jehovah in front of the curtain.<sup>k</sup> 18 And he will put some of the blood upon the horns of the altar<sup>l</sup> that is before Jehovah, which is in the tent of meeting; and all the rest of the blood he will pour at the base of the altar of burnt offering,<sup>m</sup> which is at the entrance of the tent of meeting. 19 And he will lift up all its fat from it, and he must make it smoke on the altar.<sup>n</sup> 20 And he must do to the bull just as he did to the other bull of the sin offering. That is the way he will do to it; and the priest must make an atonement<sup>o</sup> for them, and so it must be forgiven them. 21 And he must have the bull taken out to the outskirts of the camp and

35 “‘This was the priestly share of Aaron and the priestly share of his sons from Jehovah’s offerings made by fire, on the day that he presented<sup>c</sup> them to act as priests to Jehovah. 36 just as Jehovah had commanded to give it to them on the day of his anointing<sup>d</sup> them from among the sons of Israel. It is a statute to time indefinite for their generations.’”<sup>e</sup>

8 And Jehovah proceeded to speak to Moses, saying: 2 “Take Aaron and his sons with him<sup>n</sup> and the garments<sup>o</sup> and the anointing oil<sup>p</sup> and the bull of the sin offering<sup>q</sup> and the two rams and the basket of unfermented cakes,<sup>r</sup> 3 and make all the assembly congregate<sup>s</sup> at the entrance of the tent of meeting.”<sup>t</sup>

thing that Jehovah has given command to do.<sup>a</sup> 6 So Moses brought Aaron and his sons near and washed<sup>b</sup> them with water.<sup>c</sup> 7 After that he put the robe<sup>d</sup> upon him and girded him with the sash<sup>e</sup> and clothed him with the sleeveless coat<sup>f</sup> and put the eph'od<sup>g</sup> upon him and girded him with the girdle<sup>h</sup> of the eph'od and bound it closely to him with it. 8 Next he placed the breastpiece<sup>i</sup> upon him and put in the breastpiece the U'rim and the Thum'mim.<sup>j</sup> 9 Then he placed the turban<sup>k</sup> upon his head and placed upon the turban at the forefront of it the shining plate of gold, the holy sign of dedication,<sup>l</sup> just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

10 Moses now took the anointing oil and anointed the tabernacle<sup>m</sup> and all that was in it and sanctified them. 11 After that he spattered some of it seven times upon the altar and anointed the altar<sup>n</sup> and all its utensils and the basin and its stand so as to sanctify them. 12 Finally he poured some of the anointing oil upon Aaron's head and anointed him so as to sanctify him.<sup>o</sup>

14 Then he led up the bull<sup>s</sup> of the sin offering and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head<sup>t</sup> of the bull of the sin offering. 15 And Moses proceeded to slaughter<sup>u</sup> it and take the blood<sup>v</sup> and put it with his finger upon the horns of the altar round about and purify the altar from sin, but the rest of the blood he poured at the base of the altar, that he might sanctify it to make atonement<sup>w</sup> upon it. 16 After that he took all the fat that was upon the intestines, and the appendage of the liver and the two kidneys and their fat and Moses made them smoke upon the altar.<sup>a</sup> 17 And he had the bull and its skin and its flesh and its dung burned with fire outside the camp,<sup>b</sup> just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

18 He now brought the ram of the burnt offering near, and Aaron and his sons then laid their hands upon the head of the ram.<sup>c</sup>

19 After that Moses slaughtered it and sprinkled the blood round about upon the altar.<sup>d</sup> 20 And he cut up the ram into its pieces,<sup>e</sup> and Moses proceeded to make the head and the pieces and the suet smoke. 21 And the intestines and the shanks he washed with water, and Moses then made the entire ram smoke upon the altar.<sup>f</sup> It was a burnt offering for a restful odor.<sup>g</sup> It was an offering made by fire to Jehovah, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

22 Then he brought the second ram, the ram of the installation,<sup>h</sup> near, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the ram's head. 23 After that Moses slaughtered it and took some of its blood and put it upon the lobe of Aaron's right ear and upon the thumb of his right hand and upon the big toe of his right foot.<sup>i</sup> 24 Next Moses brought Aaron's sons near and put some of the blood upon the lobe of their right ear and upon the thumb of their right hand and upon the big toe of their right foot; but Moses sprinkled the rest of the blood round about upon the altar.<sup>j</sup>

25 Then he took the fat and the fat tail and all the fat that was upon the intestines,<sup>k</sup> and the appendage of the liver and the two kidneys and their fat and the right leg.<sup>l</sup> 26 And out of the basket of unfermented cakes that was before Jehovah he took one unfermented

29 And Moses proceeded to take the breast<sup>i</sup> and to wave it to and fro as a wave offering before Jehovah.<sup>j</sup> From the installation ram it became the portion<sup>k</sup> for Moses, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

ing day and night for seven days,<sup>a</sup> and you must keep the obligatory watch of Jehovah,<sup>b</sup> that you may not die; for so I have been commanded."

36 And Aaron and his sons proceeded to do all the things that Jehovah had commanded by means of Moses.

9 And it came about on the eighth<sup>c</sup> day that Moses called Aaron and his sons and the older men of Israel. 2 Then he said to Aaron: "Take for yourself a young calf for a sin offering<sup>d</sup> and a ram for a burnt offering,<sup>e</sup> sound ones, and present them before Jehovah.<sup>f</sup> 3 But to the sons of Israel you will speak, saying, 'Take a male goat<sup>g</sup> for a sin offering and a calf and a young ram,<sup>h</sup> each a year old, sound ones, for a burnt offering, 4 and a bull and a ram for communion sacrifices<sup>i</sup> to sacrifice them before Jehovah, and a grain offering<sup>j</sup> moistened with oil, because today is when Jehovah will certainly appear to you.'<sup>k</sup>

5 Accordingly they took what Moses had commanded before the tent of meeting. Then the whole assembly came near and stood before Jehovah.<sup>l</sup> 6 And Moses went on to say: "This is the thing that Jehovah has commanded you should do, that the glory of Jehovah may appear to you."<sup>m</sup> 7 Then Moses said to Aaron: "Go near to the altar and render up your sin offering<sup>n</sup> and your burnt offering, and make atonement<sup>o</sup> in your own behalf and in behalf of your house; and render up the offering of the people<sup>p</sup> and make atonement<sup>q</sup> in their behalf, just as Jehovah has commanded."

8 Aaron immediately went near to the altar and slaughtered the calf of the sin offering that was for him.<sup>r</sup> 9 Then Aaron's sons presented the blood<sup>s</sup> to him and he dipped his finger in the blood<sup>a</sup> and put it upon the horns of the altar,<sup>b</sup> and the rest of the blood he poured at the base of the altar. 10 And he made the fat<sup>c</sup> and the kidneys and the appendage of the liver from the sin offering smoke upon the altar,<sup>d</sup> just as Jehovah had commanded Moses. 11 And he burned the flesh and the skin with fire outside the camp.<sup>e</sup>

12 Then he slaughtered the burnt offering and Aaron's sons handed him the blood and he sprinkled it round about upon the altar.<sup>f</sup> 13 And they handed him the burnt offering in its pieces and the head, and he proceeded to make them smoke upon the altar.<sup>g</sup> 14 Further, he washed the intestines and the shanks and made them smoke upon the burnt offering on the altar.<sup>h</sup>

15 He now went presenting the offering of the people<sup>i</sup> and took the goat of the sin offering that was for the people and slaughtered it and made an offering for sin with it as with the first. 16 Then he presented the burnt offering and handled it according to the regular procedure.<sup>j</sup>

17 He next presented the grain offering<sup>k</sup> and filled his hand with some of it and made it smoke upon the altar, apart from the burnt offering of the morning.<sup>l</sup>

18 After that he slaughtered the bull and the ram of the communion sacrifice<sup>m</sup> that was for the people. Then Aaron's sons handed him the blood and he sprinkled it round about upon the altar.<sup>n</sup> 19 As for the fatty pieces<sup>o</sup> of the bull and the fat tail<sup>p</sup> of the ram and the fat covering and the kidneys and the appendage of the liver, 20 they now placed the fatty pieces upon the breasts,<sup>q</sup> after which he made the fatty pieces smoke upon the altar. 21 But the breasts and the right leg Aaron waved to and fro as a wave offering<sup>a</sup> before Jehovah, just as Moses had commanded.

22 Then Aaron raised his hands toward the people and blessed them<sup>b</sup> and came down<sup>c</sup> from rendering the sin offering and the burnt offering and the communion sacrifices. 23 Finally Moses and Aaron went into the tent of meeting and came out and blessed the people.<sup>d</sup>

Then Jehovah's glory<sup>e</sup> appeared to all the people, 24 and fire came out from before Jehovah<sup>f</sup> and began consuming the burnt offering and the fatty pieces upon the altar. When all the people got to see it, they broke out into shouting<sup>g</sup> and went falling upon their faces.

10 Later on Aaron's sons Nadab and Abihu<sup>h</sup> took up and brought each one his fire holder<sup>i</sup> and put fire in them and placed incense<sup>j</sup> upon it, and they began offering before Jehovah illegitimate fire,<sup>k</sup> which he had not prescribed for them. 2 At this a fire came out from before Jehovah and consumed them,<sup>l</sup> so that they died before Jehovah.<sup>m</sup> 3 Then Moses said to Aaron: "This is what Jehovah has spoken, saying, 'Among those near to me<sup>n</sup> let me be sanctified,<sup>o</sup> and before the face of all the people let me be glorified.'<sup>p</sup>" And Aaron kept silent.

4 So Moses called Mishael and Elza'phan, the sons of Uzziel,<sup>q</sup> Aaron's uncle, and said to them: "Come near, carry your brothers from in front of the holy place to outside the camp."<sup>r</sup> 5 They accordingly came near and carried them in their robes to outside the camp, just as Moses had spoken.

6 Subsequently Moses said to Aaron and to El-e-a'zar and Ith'-a-mar his other sons: "Do not let YOUR heads go ungroomed,<sup>a</sup> and you must not tear YOUR garments, that you may not die and that he may not become indignant against all the assembly;<sup>b</sup> but YOUR brothers of the whole house of Israel will do the weeping over the burning, which Jehovah has made burn. 7 And from the entrance of the tent of meeting you must not go out for fear you may die,<sup>c</sup> because Jehovah's anointing oil is upon you."<sup>d</sup> So they did according to Moses' word.

8 And Jehovah proceeded to speak to Aaron, saying: 9 "Do not drink wine or intoxicating liquor,<sup>e</sup> you and your sons with you, when you come into the tent of meeting, that you may not die. It is a statute to time indefinite for YOUR generations, 10 both in order to make a distinction between the holy thing and the profane and between the unclean thing and the clean,<sup>f</sup> 11 and in order to teach the sons of Israel<sup>g</sup> all the regulations that Jehovah has spoken to them by means of Moses."

12 Then Moses spoke to Aaron and to El-e-a'zar and Ith'-a-mar, his sons that were left: "Take the grain offering<sup>h</sup> that was left over from Jehovah's offerings made by fire and eat it unfermented near the altar, because it is something most holy.<sup>i</sup> 13 And you must eat it in a holy place,<sup>j</sup> because it is your allowance and the allowance of your sons from Jehovah's offerings made by fire; for so I have been commanded. 14 And you will eat the breast of the wave offering<sup>k</sup> and the leg of the sacred portion<sup>l</sup> in a clean place, you and your sons and your daughters with you,<sup>m</sup> because they have been given as your allowance and the allowance of your sons from

16 And Moses searched thoroughly for the goat of the sin offering,<sup>c</sup> and look! it had been burned up. So he grew indignant at El-e-a'zar and Ith'-a-mar, Aaron's sons that were left, saying: 17 "Why did you not eat the sin offering in the place that is holy,<sup>d</sup> since it is something most holy and he has given it to you that you may answer for the error of the assembly so as to make atonement for them before Jehovah?<sup>e</sup> 18 Look! Its blood has not been brought into the holy place within.<sup>f</sup> You should have eaten it without fail in the holy place, just as I had been commanded."<sup>g</sup> 19 At this Aaron spoke to Moses: "Look! Today they have presented their sin offering and their burnt offering before Jehovah,<sup>h</sup> while such things as these began to befall me; and had I eaten the sin offering today, would it prove satisfactory in Jehovah's eyes?"<sup>i</sup> 20 When Moses got to hear that, then it proved satisfactory in his eyes.

11 And Jehovah proceeded to speak to Moses and Aaron, saying to them: 2 "Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, 'This is the living creature that you may eat<sup>j</sup> of all the beasts that are upon the earth: 3 Every creature that splits the hoof and forms a cleft in the hoofs and chews the cud among the beasts, that is what you may eat.<sup>k</sup>

It is unclean for you. 7 Also the pig,<sup>d</sup> because it is a splitter of the hoof and a former of a cleft in the hoof, but it itself does not chew the cud. It is unclean for you. 8 You must not eat any of their flesh, and you must not touch their dead body.<sup>e</sup> They are unclean for you.<sup>f</sup>

9 "This is what you may eat of everything that is in the waters:<sup>g</sup> Everything that has fins and scales<sup>h</sup> in the waters, in the seas and in the torrents, those you may eat. 10 And everything in the seas and the torrents that has no fins and scales, out of every swarming creature of the waters and out of every living soul that is in the waters, they are a loathsome thing for you. 11 Yes, they will become a loathsome thing to you. You must not eat any of their flesh,<sup>i</sup> and you are to loathe their dead body. 12 Everything in the waters that has no fins and scales is a loathsome thing to you.

13 "And these are what you will loathe among the flying creatures.<sup>j</sup> They should not be eaten. priest must also quarantine<sup>a</sup> him another seven days.

6 “And the priest must look at him on the seventh day the second time, and if the plague has grown dull and the plague has not spread in the skin, the priest must also pronounce him clean. It was a scab. And he must wash his garments and be clean. 7 But if the scab has unquestionably spread in the skin after his appearing before the priest for the establishment of his purification, he must then appear the second time before the priest,<sup>b</sup> 8 and the priest must take a look; and if the scab has spread in the skin, the priest must then declare him unclean. 18 "As for the flesh, in case a boil<sup>b</sup> develops in its skin and it does get healed, 19 and in the place of the boil a white eruption has developed or a reddish-white blotch, he must then show himself to the priest. 20 And the priest must look,<sup>c</sup> and if its appearance is lower than the skin and its hair has turned white, the priest must then declare him unclean. It is the plague of leprosy. It has broken out in the boil. 21 But if the priest looks at it, and, there now, there is no white hair in it and it is not deeper than the skin and it is dull, the priest must then quarantine<sup>d</sup> him seven days. 22 And if it unmistakably spreads in the skin, the priest must then declare him unclean. It is a plague. 23 But if in its place the blotch should stand, it has not spread, it is the inflammation<sup>e</sup> of the boil; and the priest must pronounce him clean.<sup>f</sup>

24 "Or in case there comes to be a scar in the skin of the flesh from the fire, and the raw flesh of the scar does become a reddish-white blotch or a white one, 25 the priest must then look at it; and if the hair has been changed white in the blotch and its appearance is deeper than the skin, it is leprosy. It has broken out in the scar, and the priest must declare him unclean. It is the plague of leprosy. 26 But if the priest looks at it, and, there now, there is no white hair in the blotch and it is not lower than the skin and it is dull, the priest must then quarantine him seven days. 27 And the priest must look at him on the seventh day. You should burn<sup>j</sup> in the fire whatever it is in which the plague is. 58 As for the garment or the warp or the woof or any article of skin that you may wash, when the plague has disappeared from them, it must then be washed a second time; and it must be clean.

59 "This is the law of the plague of leprosy in a garment of wool or of linen,<sup>a</sup> or in the warp or in the woof, or in any article of skin, in order to pronounce it clean or to declare it unclean."

14 And Jehovah continued to speak to Moses, saying: 2 "This will become the law of the leper<sup>b</sup> in the day for establishing his purification, when he must be brought to the priest.<sup>c</sup> 3 And the priest must go forth outside the camp, and the priest must look; and if the plague of leprosy has been cured<sup>d</sup> in the leprous one, 4 the priest must then give command; and he must take for cleansing himself two live clean birds<sup>e</sup> and cedarwood<sup>f</sup> and coccus scarlet material<sup>g</sup> and hyssop.<sup>h</sup> 5 And the priest must give command, and the one bird must be killed in an earthenware vessel over running water.<sup>i</sup> 6 As for the living bird, he should take it and the cedarwood and the coccus scarlet material and the hyssop, and he must dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water. 7 Then he must spatter<sup>j</sup> it seven times<sup>k</sup> upon the one cleansing himself from the leprosy and he must pronounce him clean,<sup>l</sup> and he must send away the living bird over the open field.<sup>m</sup>

8 "And the one cleansing himself must wash his garments<sup>n</sup> and shave off all his hair and bathe<sup>o</sup> in water and must be clean, and afterward he may come into the camp. And he must dwell outside his tent seven days.<sup>p</sup> 9 And it must occur on the seventh day that he should shave off all his hair on his head<sup>q</sup> and his chin and his eyebrows.

32 "This is the law for the one in whom the plague of leprosy was who may not have the means when establishing his purification."

33 And Jehovah proceeded to speak to Moses and Aaron, saying: 34 "When you come into the land of Ca'naan,<sup>g</sup> which I am giving you as a possession,<sup>h</sup> and I do put the plague of leprosy in a house of the land of your possession,<sup>i</sup> 35 the one to whom the house belongs must then come and tell the priest, saying, 'Something like a plague has appeared to me in the house.' 36 And the priest must give orders, and they must clear out the house before the priest may come in to see the plague, that he may not declare unclean everything that is in the house; and after that the priest will come in to see the house. 37 When he has seen the plague, then if the plague is in the walls of the house, with yellowish-green or reddish depressions, and their appearance is lower than the wall surface, 43 "If, though, the plague returns and it does break out in the house after having torn out the stones and after having cut off the house and plastered it, 44 the priest<sup>d</sup> must then come in and take a look; and if the plague has spread in the house, it is malignant leprosy<sup>e</sup> in the house. It is unclean. 45 And he must have the house pulled down with its stones and its timbers and all the clay mortar of the house and must have it carried forth outside the city to an unclean place.<sup>f</sup> 46 But whoever comes into the house any of the days of quarantining<sup>g</sup> it will be unclean until the evening;<sup>h</sup> 47 and whoever lies down in the house should wash his garments,<sup>i</sup> and whoever eats in the house should wash his garments.

18 "And where a man lies down with a menstruating woman and does lay bare her nakedness, he has exposed her source, and she herself has laid bare the source of her blood.<sup>a</sup> So both of them must be cut off from among their people.

19 "And the nakedness of your mother's sister<sup>b</sup> and of your father's sister<sup>c</sup> you must not lay bare, because it is his blood relation that one has exposed.<sup>d</sup> They should answer for their error. 20 And a man who lies down with his uncle's wife has laid bare the nakedness of his uncle.<sup>e</sup> They should answer for their sin. 21 And Jehovah went on to say to Moses: “Talk to the priests, Aaron’s sons, and you must say to them, ‘For a deceased soul no one may defile himself among his people.’<sup>g</sup>

2 But for a blood relation of his who is close to him, for his mother and for his father and for his son and for his daughter and for his brother 3 and for his sister, a virgin who is close to him, who has not become a man’s, for her he may defile himself. 4 He may not defile himself for a woman possessed by an owner among his people so as to make himself profane. 5 They should not produce baldness upon their heads,<sup>h</sup> and the extremity of their beard they should not shave,<sup>i</sup> and on their flesh they should not make an incision.<sup>j</sup>

9 “Now in case the daughter of a priest should make herself profane by committing prostitution, it is her father that she is profaning. She should be burned in the fire.<sup>c</sup>

10 “And as for the high priest of his brothers upon whose head the anointing oil would be poured<sup>d</sup> and whose hand was filled with power to wear the garments,<sup>e</sup> he should not let his head go ungroomed,<sup>f</sup> and he should not tear his garments.<sup>g</sup>

16 And Jehovah continued to speak to Moses, saying: 17 “Speak to Aaron, saying, ‘No man of your seed throughout their generations in whom there proves to be a defect<sup>n</sup> may come near to present the bread of his God.’<sup>o</sup>

18 In case there is any man in whom there is a defect, he may not come near: a man blind or lame or with his nose slit or with one member too long,<sup>p</sup> 19 or a man in whom there proves to be a fracture of the foot or a fracture of the hand, 20 or hunchback or thin or dis-

24 Accordingly Moses spoke to Aaron and his sons and all the sons of Israel.

22 “And when you people reap the harvest of your land, you must not do completely the edge of your field when you are reaping, and the gleaning of your harvest you must not pick up.<sup>g</sup> You should leave them for the afflicted one<sup>h</sup> and the alien resident.<sup>i</sup> I am Jehovah your God.”

23 And Jehovah went on speaking to Moses, saying:

24 “Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘In the seventh month,<sup>j</sup> on the first of the month, there should occur for you a complete rest, a memorial by the trumpet blast,<sup>k</sup> a holy convention.<sup>l</sup> 25 No sort of laborious work may you do, and you must present an offering made by fire to Jehovah.’”

26 And Jehovah spoke further to Moses, saying: 27 “However, on the tenth of this seventh month is the day of atonement.<sup>m</sup> A holy convention should take place for you, and you must afflict your souls<sup>n</sup> and present an offering" made by fire to Jehovah. 28 And you must do no sort of work on this very day, because it is a day of atonement to make atonement<sup>b</sup> for you before Jehovah YOUR God; 29 because every soul that will not be afflicted on this very day must be cut off from his people.<sup>c</sup> 30 As for any soul that will do any sort of work on this very day, I must destroy that soul from among his people.<sup>d</sup> 31 You must do no sort of work.<sup>e</sup> It is a statute to time indefinite for your generations in all places where you dwell. 32 It is a sabbath of complete rest for you,<sup>f</sup> and you must afflict<sup>g</sup> your souls on the ninth of the month in the evening. From evening to evening you should observe your sabbath.<sup>h</sup>

33 And Jehovah continued to speak to Moses, saying: 34 "Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, 'On the fifteenth day of this seventh month is the festival of booths for seven days to Jehovah.<sup>i</sup> 35 On the first day is a holy convention. No sort of laborious work may you do. 36 Seven days you should present an offering made by fire to Jehovah. On the eighth day there should occur a holy convention for you,<sup>j</sup> and you must present an offering made by fire to Jehovah. It is a solemn assembly. No sort of laborious work may you do.

when you have gathered the produce of the land, you should celebrate the festival<sup>a</sup> of Jehovah seven days.<sup>b</sup>

On the first day is a complete rest and on the eighth day is a complete rest.<sup>c</sup>

40 And you must take for yourselves on the first day the fruit of splendid trees, the fronds of palm trees<sup>d</sup> and the boughs of branchy trees and poplars of the torrent valley, and you must rejoice<sup>e</sup> before Jehovah YOUR God seven days.

41 And you must celebrate it as a festival to Jehovah seven days in the year.<sup>f</sup>

As a statute to time indefinite during your generations, you should celebrate it in the seventh month.

42 It is in the booths you should dwell seven days.<sup>g</sup>

All the natives in Israel should dwell in the booths,<sup>h</sup>

I am Jehovah YOUR God.<sup>k</sup>

44 Accordingly Moses spoke of the seasonal festivals<sup>l</sup> of Jehovah to the sons of Israel.

24 And Jehovah proceeded to speak to Moses, saying:

23 After that Moses spoke to the sons of Israel, and they brought forth the one who had called down evil to the outside of the camp, and they pelted him with stones.<sup>k</sup> Thus the sons of Israel did just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

25 And Jehovah spoke further to Moses in Mount Si'nai, saying: 2 "Speak to the sons of Israel, and you must say to them, 'When you eventually come into the land that I am giving you,<sup>l</sup> then the land must observe a sabbath to Jehovah.<sup>m</sup> 3 Six years you should sow your field with seed, and six years you should prune your vineyard, and you must gather the land's produce.<sup>n</sup> 4 But in the seventh year there should occur a sabbath of complete rest for the land,<sup>o</sup> a sabbath to Jehovah. associate; by the number of the years of the crops he should sell to you.<sup>a</sup> 16 In proportion to the great number of years he should increase its purchase value,<sup>b</sup> and in proportion to the fewness of years he should reduce its purchase value, because the number of the crops is what he is selling to you. 17 And you must not wrong anyone his associate,<sup>c</sup> and you must be in fear of your God,<sup>d</sup> because I am Jehovah your God.<sup>e</sup> 18 So you must carry out my statutes and you should keep my judicial decisions and you must carry them out. Then you will certainly dwell on the land in security.<sup>f</sup> 19 And the land will indeed give its fruitage,<sup>g</sup> and you will certainly eat to satisfaction and dwell in security on it.<sup>h</sup>

20 "But in case you should say: "What are we going to eat in the seventh year seeing that we may not sow seed or gather our crops?"<sup>i</sup> 21 In that case I shall certainly command my blessing for you in the sixth year, and it must yield its crop for three years.<sup>j</sup> 22 And you must sow seed the eighth year and you must eat from the old crop until the ninth year. 28 "But if his hand does not find enough to give back to him, what he sold must also continue in the hand of its purchaser until the Jubilee year;<sup>b</sup> and it must go out in the Jubilee, and he must return to his possession.<sup>c</sup>

29 "Now in case a man should sell a dwelling house in a walled city, his right of repurchase must also continue till the year from the time of his sale finishes out; his right of repurchase<sup>d</sup> should continue a whole year. 30 But if it should not be bought back before the complete year has come to the full for him, the house that is in the city that has a wall must also stand in perpetuity as the property of its purchaser during his generations. It should not go out in the Jubilee. 31 However, the houses of settlements that have no wall about them should be accounted as part of the field of the country. Right of repurchase<sup>e</sup> should continue for it, and in the Jubilee<sup>f</sup> it should go out.

32 "As for cities of the Levites with the houses of the cities of their possession,<sup>g</sup> the right of repurchase should continue to time indefinite for the Levites.<sup>h</sup> 33 And where property of the Levites is not bought back, the house sold in the city of his possession must also go out in the Jubilee;<sup>i</sup> because the houses of the cities of the Levites are their possession in the midst of the sons of Israel.<sup>j</sup> 34 Moreover, the field of pasture ground<sup>k</sup> of their cities may not be sold, because it is a possession to time indefinite for them.

39 "And in case your brother grows poor alongside you and he has to sell himself to you,<sup>g</sup> you must not use him as a worker in slavish service.<sup>h</sup> 40 He should prove to be with you like a hired laborer,<sup>i</sup> like a settler. "Perhaps at that time their uncircumcised heart<sup>a</sup> will be humbled,<sup>b</sup> and at that time they will pay off their error. 42 And I shall indeed remember my covenant with Jacob;<sup>c</sup> and even my covenant with Isaac<sup>d</sup> and even my covenant with Abraham<sup>e</sup> I shall remember, and the land I shall remember. 43 All the while the land was left abandoned by them and was paying off its sabbaths<sup>f</sup> while it was lying desolated without them and they themselves were paying for their error,<sup>g</sup> because, even because, they had rejected my judicial decisions,<sup>h</sup> and their souls had abhorred my statutes.<sup>i</sup> 44 And yet for all this, while they continue in the land of their enemies, I shall certainly not reject them<sup>j</sup> nor abhor them<sup>k</sup> so as to exterminate them, to violate my covenant<sup>l</sup> with them; for I am Jehovah their God. 45 And I will remember in their behalf the covenant of the ancestors<sup>m</sup> whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt under the eyes of the nations,<sup>n</sup> in order to prove myself their God. I am Jehovah."

46 These are the regulations and the judicial decisions<sup>o</sup> and the laws that Jehovah set between himself and the sons of Israel in Mount Si'nai by means of Moses.<sup>p</sup>

27 And Jehovah continued to speak to Moses, saying: 2 "Speak to the sons of Israel, and you must say to them, 'In case a man makes a special vow<sup>q</sup> offering of souls to Jehovah according to the estimated value, 3 and the estimated value has to be of a male from twenty years old up to sixty years old, the estimated value must then become fifty shekels of silver by the shekel of the holy place. 4 But if it is a female, the estimated value must then become

7 “Now if the age is from sixty years old upward, if it is a male, the estimated value must then become fifteen shekels and for the female ten shekels. 8 But if he has become too poor for the estimated value,<sup>b</sup> he must then stand the person before the priest, and the priest must put a valuation upon him.<sup>c</sup> According to what the vower can afford,<sup>d</sup> the priest will put a valuation upon him.

9 “And if it is a beast such as one presents in offering to Jehovah, everything of what he may give to Jehovah will become something holy.<sup>e</sup> 10 He may not replace it, and he may not exchange it with good for bad or with bad for good. But if he should exchange it at all with beast for beast, it itself must then become and what is exchanged for it should become something holy. 11 And if it is any unclean<sup>f</sup> beast such as one may not present in offering to Jehovah,<sup>g</sup> he must then stand the beast before the priest.<sup>h</sup> 12 And the priest must put a valuation upon it whether it is good or bad. # NUMBERS

1 And Jehovah proceeded to speak to Moses in the wilderness of Si’nai,<sup>a</sup> in the tent of meeting,<sup>b</sup> on the first day of the second month in the second year of their coming out of the land of Egypt,<sup>c</sup> and he said: 2 “TAKE the sum<sup>d</sup> of the whole assembly of the sons of Israel according to their families, according to the house of their fathers, by the number of names, all the males, head by head of them, 3 from twenty years old upward,<sup>e</sup> everyone going out to the army in Israel.<sup>f</sup> You should register them according to their armies, you and Aaron.

4 “And some men should be with you, one man to a tribe; each 35 And the chieftain of the paternal house for the families of Me-rar'i was Zu'ri-el the son of Ab'i-ha-il. They were encamped on the side of the tabernacle toward the north.<sup>b</sup> 36 And the oversight for which the sons of Me-rar'i were obligated was over the panel frames<sup>c</sup> of the tabernacle and its bars<sup>d</sup> and its pillars<sup>e</sup> and its socket pedestals and all its utensils<sup>f</sup> and all its service,<sup>g</sup> 37 and the pillars<sup>h</sup> of the courtyard round about and their socket pedestals<sup>i</sup> and their tent pins and their tent cords.

38 And those camping before the tabernacle toward the east, before the tent of meeting toward the sunrising, were Moses and Aaron and his sons, those taking care of the obligation to the sanctuary,<sup>j</sup> as the obligation for the sons of Israel. And any stranger coming near would be put to death.<sup>k</sup>

39 All the registered ones of the Levites whom Moses and Aaron registered at the order of Jehovah by their families, all the males from a month old upward, were twenty-two thousand.

40 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Register all the firstborn males of the sons of Israel from a month old upward,<sup>l</sup> and take the number of their names.

41 And you must take the Levites for me—I am Jehovah—in place of all the firstborn among the sons of Israel,<sup>m</sup> and the domestic animals of the Levites in place of all the firstborn among the domestic animals of the sons of Israel."<sup>n</sup> 42 And Moses proceeded, just as Jehovah had commanded him, to register all the firstborn among the sons of Israel. 43 And all the firstborn males by the number of the names from a month old upward of their registered ones came to be twenty-two thousand two hundred and seventy-three.

44 And Jehovah continued to speak to Moses, saying: 45 "Take the Levites in place of all the firstborn among the sons of Israel, and the domestic animals of the Levites in place of their domestic animals; and the Levites must become mine.<sup>a</sup> I am Jehovah. 46 And as the ransom price<sup>b</sup> of the two hundred and seventy-three from the firstborn of the sons of Israel, who are in excess of the Levites,<sup>c</sup> 47 you must take five shekels for each individual.<sup>d</sup> In the shekel of the holy place you should take it. A shekel is twenty ge'rahs.<sup>e</sup> 48 And you must give the money to Aaron and his sons as the ransom price of those who are in excess of them." 49 So Moses took the money of the redemption price from those who were in excess of the ransom price of the Levites. 50 From the firstborn of the sons of Israel he took the money, a thousand three hundred and sixty-five shekels, in the shekel of the holy place. 51 Then Moses gave the money of the ransom price to Aaron and his sons according to the order of Jehovah, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

4 Jehovah now spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying: 2 "There will be a taking of the sum of the sons of Ko'hath<sup>f</sup> from among the sons of Le'vi, according to their families in the house of their fathers, 3 from thirty years old<sup>g</sup> upward to fifty years old,<sup>h</sup> all those going into the service group<sup>i</sup> to do the work in the tent of meeting.

of Ko'hath will come in to carry them,<sup>a</sup> but they must not touch<sup>b</sup> the holy place so that they have to die. These things are the load of the sons of Ko'hath in the tent of meeting.<sup>c</sup>

17 And Jehovah spoke further to Moses and Aaron, saying: 18 "Do not let the tribe of the families of the Ko'hath-ites<sup>i</sup> be cut off from among the Levites. 19 But do this for them that they may indeed keep alive and may not die for their approaching the most holy things.<sup>j</sup> Aaron and his sons will come in, and they must assign them each one to his service and to his load. 20 And they must not come in to see the holy things for the least moment of time, and so they have to die."<sup>k</sup>

5 And Jehovah spoke further to Moses, saying: 2 "Command the sons of Israel that they send out of the camp every leprous person<sup>c</sup> and everyone having a running discharge<sup>d</sup> and everyone unclean by a deceased soul.<sup>e</sup> 3 Whether a male or a female you should send them out. Just as Jehovah had spoken to Moses, so the sons of Israel did.

5 And Jehovah continued speaking to Moses, saying: 6 "Speak to the sons of Israel, 'As for a man or a woman, in case they do any of all the sins of mankind in committing an act of unfaithfulness against Jehovah, that soul has also become guilty.<sup>i</sup> 7 And they must confess<sup>j</sup> their sin that they have done, and he must return the amount of his guilt in its principal, also adding a fifth of it to it,<sup>k</sup> and he must give it to the one against whom he did wrong. 8 But if the latter has no near relative to whom to return the amount of the guilt, the amount of the guilt that is being returned to Jehovah belongs to the priest, except the ram of atonement with which he will make atonement for him.<sup>l</sup> lain down with you and if while under your husband<sup>a</sup> you have not turned aside in any uncleanness, be free of the effect of this bitter water that brings a curse. 20 But you, in case you have turned aside while under your husband<sup>b</sup> and in case you have defiled yourself and some man has put in you his seminal emission,<sup>c</sup> besides your husband,—21 The priest must now make the woman swear with an oath involving cursing,<sup>d</sup> and the priest must say to the woman: "May Jehovah set you for a cursing and an oath in the midst of your people by Jehovah's letting your thigh<sup>e</sup> fall away, and your belly swell. 22 And this water that brings a curse must enter into your intestines to cause your belly to swell and the thigh to fall away." To this the woman must say: "Amen! Amen!"

23 "And the priest must write these cursings in the book<sup>f</sup> and must wipe<sup>g</sup> them out into the bitter water. 24 And he must make the woman drink the bitter water that brings a curse,<sup>h</sup> and the water that brings a curse must enter into her as something bitter. 25 And the priest must take the grain offering<sup>i</sup> of jealousy from the woman's hand and wave the grain offering to and fro before Jehovah, and he must bring it near the altar. 26 And the priest must grasp some of the grain offering as a remembrancer<sup>j</sup> of it and must make it smoke upon the altar, and afterward he will make the woman drink the water. 27 When he has made her drink the water, it must also occur that if she has defiled herself in that she committed an act of unfaithfulness toward her husband,<sup>k</sup> the water that brings a curse must then enter into her as something bitter, and her belly must swell, and her thigh must fall away, and the woman must become a cursing in among her people.<sup>a</sup> 28 However, if the woman has not defiled herself but she is clean, she must then be free from such punishment;<sup>b</sup> and she must be made pregnant with semen.

6 And Jehovah spoke further to Moses, saying: 2 "Speak to the sons of Israel and you must say to them, 'In case a man or a woman takes a special vow to live as a Naz'i-rite<sup>f</sup> to Jehovah, 3 he should keep away from wine and intoxicating liquor. He should not drink the vinegar of wine or the vinegar of intoxicating liquor,<sup>g</sup> nor drink any liquid made from grapes, nor eat grapes either fresh or dried. 4 All the days of his Naziriteship he should not eat anything at all that is made from the wine vine, from the unripe grapes to the skins.

89 Now whenever Moses went into the tent of meeting to speak with him,<sup>b</sup> then he would hear the voice conversing with him from above the cover<sup>c</sup> that was upon the ark of the testimony, from between the two cherubs;<sup>d</sup> and he would speak to him.

8 And Jehovah proceeded to speak to Moses, saying: 2 "Speak to Aaron, and you must say to him, 'Whenever you light up the lamps, the seven lamps should shine on the area in front of the lampstand.'"<sup>e</sup> 3 And Aaron began to do so. He lit up its lamps for the area in front of the lampstand,<sup>f</sup> just as Jehovah had commanded Moses. 4 Now this was the workmanship of the lampstand. It was hammered work of gold. Up to its sides and up to its blossoms it was hammered work.<sup>g</sup> According to the vision<sup>h</sup> that Jehovah had shown Moses, so he had made the lampstand.

5 And Jehovah spoke further to Moses, saying: 6 "Take the Levites from among the sons of Israel, and you must cleanse them.<sup>i</sup> 7 And this is what you should do to them to cleanse them: Spatter sin-cleansing water upon them,<sup>j</sup> and they must have a razor pass over all their flesh<sup>k</sup> and must wash their garments<sup>l</sup> and cleanse themselves.<sup>m</sup> 8 Then they must take a young bull<sup>n</sup> and its grain offering<sup>o</sup> of fine flour moistened with oil, and you will take another young bull for a sin offering.<sup>p</sup> 9 And you must present the Levites before the tent of meeting and congregate all the assembly of the sons of Israel.<sup>q</sup> 10 And you must present the Levites before Jehovah, and the sons of Israel must lay<sup>r</sup> their hands upon the Levites.<sup>s</sup> 11 And Aaron must cause the Levites to move to and fro before Jehovah as a wave<sup>a</sup> offering from the sons of Israel, and they must serve for carrying on the service of Jehovah.<sup>b</sup>

12 "Then the Levites will lay their hands upon the heads of the bulls.<sup>c</sup> After that, render up the one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering to Jehovah to make atonement<sup>d</sup> for the Levites. 13 And you must have the Levites stand before Aaron and his sons and must cause them to move to and fro as a wave offering to Jehovah. 14 And you must separate the Levites from among the sons of Israel, and the Levites must become mine.<sup>e</sup> 15 And afterward the Levites will come in to serve at the tent of meeting.<sup>f</sup> So you must cleanse them and cause them to move to and fro as a wave offering.<sup>g</sup> 16 For they are given ones, given to me from among the sons of Israel.<sup>h</sup> In place of those opening all wombs, all the firstborn of the sons of Israel,<sup>i</sup> I must take them for myself. 17 For every firstborn among the sons of Israel is mine, among man and among beast.<sup>j</sup> On the day of my striking every firstborn in the land of Egypt<sup>k</sup> I sanctified them to myself.<sup>l</sup> 18 And I shall take the Levites in place of all the firstborn among the sons of Israel.<sup>m</sup> 19 And I shall give the Levites as given ones to Aaron and his sons from among the sons of Israel,<sup>n</sup> to carry on the service of the sons of Israel in the tent of meeting<sup>o</sup> and to make atonement for the sons of Israel, that no plague may occur among the sons of Israel<sup>p</sup> because the sons of Israel approach the holy place."

20 And Moses and Aaron and all the assembly of the sons of Israel proceeded to do so to the Levites. In accord with all that Jehovah had commanded Moses as regards the Levites, that is the way the sons of Israel did to them. 21 So the Levites purified themselves<sup>a</sup> and washed their garments, after which Aaron caused them to move to and fro as a wave offering before Jehovah.<sup>b</sup> Then Aaron made an atonement for them to cleanse them.<sup>c</sup> 22 First after that the Levites came in to carry on their service in the tent of meeting before Aaron and his sons.<sup>d</sup> Just as Jehovah had commanded Moses respecting the Levites, so they did to them.

23 Jehovah now spoke to Moses, saying: 24 "This is what applies to the Levites: From twenty-five years old upward he will come to enter into the company in the service of the tent of meeting. 25 But after the age of fifty years he will retire from the service company and serve no longer. 26 And he must minister to his brothers in the tent of meeting in taking care of the obligation, but he must render no service. In accord with this you will do to the Levites in their obligations."<sup>e</sup>

9 And Jehovah proceeded to speak to Moses in the wilderness of Si'nai in the second year of their coming out of the land of Egypt, in the first month,<sup>f</sup> saying: 2 "Now the sons of Israel should prepare the passover<sup>g</sup> sacrifice at its appointed time.<sup>h</sup> 3 On the fourteenth day in this month between the two evenings<sup>i</sup> you should prepare it at its appointed time. According to all its statutes and all its regular procedures you should prepare it."<sup>j</sup>

4 So Moses spoke to the sons of Israel to prepare the passover sacrifice. 5 Then they prepared the passover sacrifice in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month between the two evenings, in the wilderness of Si'nai. According to all that Jehovah had commanded Moses, so the sons of Israel did.<sup>k</sup>

6 Now there happened to be men who had become unclean by a human soul<sup>a</sup> so that they were not able to prepare the passover sacrifice on that day. Hence they presented themselves before Moses and Aaron on that day.<sup>b</sup> 7 Then those men said to him: "We are unclean by a human soul. Why should we be restrained from presenting the offering<sup>c</sup> to Jehovah at its appointed time in the midst of the sons of Israel?" 8 At this Moses said to them: "Stand there, and let me hear what Jehovah may command regarding you."<sup>d</sup>

9 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying: 10 "Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, 'Although any man of you or of your generations should happen to be unclean by a soul<sup>e</sup> or off on a distant journey, he too must prepare the passover sacrifice to Jehovah.' 11 In the second month,<sup>f</sup> on the fourteenth day between the two evenings, they should prepare it. Together with unfarmed cakes and bitter greens they should eat it.<sup>g</sup> 12 They must not let any of it remain until morning,<sup>h</sup> and they should break no bone in it.<sup>i</sup> According to the whole statute of the passover they should prepare it.<sup>j</sup> 13 But when the man was clean or did not happen to be off on a journey and neglected to prepare the passover sacrifice, that soul must then be cut off from his people,<sup>k</sup> because the offering of Jehovah he did not present at its appointed time. For his sin that man will answer.<sup>l</sup>

14 "And in case an alien resident should be residing with you as an alien, he also must prepare the passover sacrifice to Jehovah.<sup>m</sup> According to the statute of the passover and according to its regular procedure is the way he should do.<sup>n</sup> There should exist one statute for you people, both

15 Now on the day of setting up the tabernacle<sup>b</sup> the cloud covered the tabernacle of the tent of the Testimony,<sup>c</sup> but in the evening what appeared to be fire<sup>d</sup> continued over the tabernacle until morning. 16 That is the way it went on constantly: The cloud would cover it by day, and the appearance of fire by night.<sup>e</sup> 17 And whenever the cloud would go up from over the tent, the sons of Israel would pull away right afterward,<sup>f</sup> and in the place where the cloud would reside, there is where the sons of Israel would encamp.<sup>g</sup> 18 At the order of Jehovah the sons of Israel would pull away, and at the order of Jehovah they would encamp.<sup>h</sup> All the days that the cloud would reside over the tabernacle, they would remain encamped. 19 And when the cloud prolonged its stay over the tabernacle many days, the sons of Israel also kept their obligation to Jehovah that they should not pull away.<sup>i</sup> 20 And sometimes the cloud would continue a few days over the tabernacle. At the order<sup>j</sup> of Jehovah they would remain encamped, and at the order of Jehovah they would pull away. 21 And sometimes the cloud<sup>k</sup> would continue from evening to morning; and the cloud lifted itself in the morning, and they pulled away. Whether it was by day or by night that the cloud lifted itself, they also pulled away.<sup>l</sup> 22 Whether it was two days or a month or more days during which the cloud prolonged its stay over the tabernacle by residing over it, the sons of Israel remained encamped and would not pull away, but when it lifted itself they would pull away.<sup>m</sup> 23 At the order of Jehovah they would encamp, and at the order of Jehovah they would pull away. They

10 And Jehovah proceeded to speak to Moses, saying: 2 "Make for yourself two trumpets<sup>c</sup> of silver. You will make them of hammered work, and they must be at your service for convening<sup>d</sup> the assembly and for breaking up the camps. 3 And they must blow on them both, and the whole assembly must keep their appointment with you at the entrance of the tent of meeting.<sup>e</sup> 4 And if they should blow on just one, the chieftains as heads of the thousands of Israel must also keep their appointment with you.<sup>f</sup>

5 "And you men must blow a fluctuating blast, and the camps of those camping to the east<sup>g</sup> must pull away. 6 And you must blow a fluctuating blast a second time, and the camps of those camping to the south<sup>h</sup> must pull away. They should blow a fluctuating blast for each time one of them pulls away.

7 "Now when calling the congregation together, you should blow,<sup>i</sup> but you must not sound a fluctuating blast. 8 And Aaron's sons, the priests, should blow on the trumpets,<sup>j</sup> and the use of them must serve as a statute for you men to time indefinite during your generations.

9 "And in case you should enter into war in your land against the oppressor who is harassing you,<sup>k</sup> you must also sound a war call on the trumpets,<sup>l</sup> and you will certainly be remembered before Jehovah your God and be saved from your enemies.<sup>m</sup>

11 Now it came about that in the second year, in the second month, on the twentieth day in the month,<sup>b</sup> the cloud lifted itself from over the tabernacle<sup>c</sup> of the Testimony. 12 And the sons of Israel began to pull away in the manner of their departures<sup>d</sup> from the wilderness of Si'nai, and the cloud proceeded to reside in the wilderness of Pa'ran.<sup>e</sup> 13 And they began pulling away for the first time, according to the order of Jehovah by means of Moses.<sup>f</sup>

14 So the three-tribe division of the camp of the sons of Judah pulled away first of all in their armies,<sup>g</sup> and Nah'shon<sup>h</sup> the son of Am-min'a-dab was over its army.

15 And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Is'sa-char there was Ne-than'el<sup>i</sup> the son of Zu'ar.

16 And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Zeb'u-lun there was E-li'ab the son of He'lon.<sup>j</sup>

18 And the three-tribe division of the camp of Reu'-ben<sup>n</sup> pulled away in their armies, and E-li'zur<sup>o</sup> the son of Shed'e-ur was over its army. 19 And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Sim'e-on<sup>p</sup> there was She-lu'mi-el<sup>q</sup> the son of Zu-ri-shad'-dai. 20 And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Gad there was E-li'a-saph<sup>r</sup> the son of Deu'el.

21 And the Ko'hath-ites as carriers of the sanctuary<sup>s</sup> pulled away, as they will have set up the tabernacle by the time of their coming.

s Nu 3:31; Nu 4:4; Nu 4:15; Nu 7:9.

E'phra-im<sup>a</sup> pulled away in their armies, and E-lish'a-ma<sup>b</sup> the son of Am-mi'hud was over its army. 23 And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Ma-nas'seh<sup>c</sup> there was Ga-ma'li-el<sup>d</sup> the son of Pe-dah'zur. 24 And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin<sup>e</sup> there was Ab'i-dan<sup>f</sup> the son of Gid-e-o'ni.

25 And the three-tribe division of the camp of the sons of Dan<sup>g</sup> pulled away as forming the rear guard<sup>h</sup> for all the camps in their armies, and A-hi-e'zer<sup>i</sup> the son of Am-mi-shad'dai was over its army. 26 And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Ash'er<sup>j</sup> there was Pa'gi-el<sup>k</sup> the son of Och'ran. 27 And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Naph-ta-li<sup>l</sup> there was A-hi'ra<sup>m</sup> the son of E'nan. 28 In this manner were the departures of the sons of Israel in their armies when they would pull away.<sup>n</sup>

29 Then Moses said to Ho'-bab the son of Reu'e'l<sup>o</sup> the Mid-i-an-ite, the father-in-law of Moses: "We are pulling away for the place about which Jehovah said, 'I shall give it to you.'<sup>p</sup> Do come with us, and we shall certainly do good to you,<sup>q</sup> because Jehovah has spoken good concerning Israel."<sup>r</sup> 30 But he said to him: "I shall not go along, but I shall go to my own country<sup>s</sup> and to my relatives." 31 At this he said: "Please, do not leave us, because, for the reason that you well know where we may encamp in the wilderness, you must serve as eyes for us. 32 And it must occur that in case you should come with us,<sup>t</sup> yes, it must occur that with what goodness Jehovah will do good with us, we, in turn, will do good to you."

35 And it would occur that when the Ark would set out, Moses would say: "Do arise, O Jehovah, and let your enemies be scattered;<sup>c</sup> and let those who intensely hate you flee from before you."<sup>d</sup> 36 And when it would rest, he would say: "Do return, O Jehovah, to the myriads of thousands of Israel."<sup>e</sup>

11 Now the people became as men having something evil to complain about in the ears of Jehovah.<sup>f</sup> When Jehovah got to hear it, then his anger grew hot, and a fire of Jehovah began to blaze against them and to consume some in the extremity of the camp.<sup>g</sup> 2 When the people began to cry out to Moses, then he made supplication to Jehovah,<sup>h</sup> and the fire sank down. 3 And the name of that place got to be called Tab'e-rah,<sup>i</sup> because a fire of Jehovah had blazed against them.

4 And the mixed crowd<sup>j</sup> that was in the midst of them expressed selfish longing,<sup>k</sup> and the sons of Israel too began to weep again and say: "Who will give us meat to eat?"<sup>l</sup> 5 How we remember the fish that we used to eat in Egypt for nothing,<sup>m</sup> the cucumbers and the watermelons and the leeks and the onions and the garlic! 6 But now our soul is dried away. Our eyes are on nothing at all except the manna."<sup>n</sup>

round cakes, and its taste proved to be like the taste of an oiled sweet cake.<sup>a</sup> 9 And when the dew descended upon the camp by night, the manna would descend upon it.<sup>b</sup>

10 And Moses got to hear the people weeping in their families, each man at the entrance of his tent. And Jehovah's anger began growing very hot,<sup>c</sup> and in the eyes of Moses it was bad.<sup>d</sup>

11 Then Moses said to Jehovah: "Why have you caused evil to your servant, and why have I not found favor in your eyes, in placing the load of all this people upon me?" 12 Have I myself conceived all this people? Is it I who have given them birth, so that you should say to me, 'Carry them in your bosom,' just as the male nurse carries the suckling,<sup>e</sup> to the soil about which you swore to their forefathers?<sup>h</sup>

13 From where do I have meat to give to all this people? For they keep weeping toward me, saying, 'Do give us meat, and let us eat!' 14 I am not able, I by myself, to carry all this people, because they are too heavy for me.<sup>i</sup>

15 So if this is the way you are doing to me, please kill me off altogether,<sup>j</sup> if I have found favor in your eyes, and let me not look upon my calamity."

16 In turn Jehovah said to Moses: "Gather for me seventy men of the older men of Israel,<sup>k</sup> whom you do know that they are older men of the people and officers of theirs,<sup>l</sup> and you must take them to the tent of meeting, and they must station themselves there with you. 17 And I shall have to come down<sup>m</sup> and speak with you there;<sup>n</sup> and I shall have to take away some of the spirit<sup>o</sup> that is upon you and place it upon them, and they will have to help you in carrying the load of the people that you may not carry it, just you alone.<sup>p</sup> 18 And to the people you should say, 'Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow,<sup>a</sup> as you will certainly eat meat, because you have wept in the ears of Jehovah,<sup>b</sup> saying: 'Who will give us meat to eat, for it was well with us in Egypt?'"<sup>c</sup> And Jehovah will certainly give you meat, and you will indeed eat.<sup>d</sup> 19 You will eat, not one day nor two days nor five days nor ten days nor twenty days, 20 but up to a month of days, until it comes out of your nostrils and it has become a loathing to you,<sup>e</sup> just because you rejected Jehovah, who is in your midst, and you went weeping before him, saying: "Why is it that we have come out of Egypt?"'<sup>f</sup>

21 Then Moses said: "The people in the midst of whom I am are six hundred thousand men<sup>g</sup> on foot, and yet you—you have said, 'Meat I shall give them, and they will certainly eat for a month of days!' 22 Will flocks and herds be slaughtered for them, for it to be adequate for them?<sup>h</sup> Or will all the fish of the sea be caught for them, for it to be adequate for them?"

23 At this Jehovah said to Moses: "The hand of Jehovah is cut short, is it?<sup>i</sup> Now you will see whether what I say befalls you or not."<sup>j</sup>

24 After that Moses went out and spoke to the people the words of Jehovah. And he went gathering seventy men from the older men of the people and proceeded to have them stand round about the tent.<sup>k</sup> 25 Then Jehovah came down in a cloud<sup>l</sup> and spoke to him<sup>m</sup> and took away some of the spirit<sup>n</sup> that was upon him and put it upon each of the seventy older men. And it came about that as soon as the spirit<sup>o</sup> settled down upon them, then they proceeded to act as prophets; but they did not do it again.<sup>o</sup>

26 Now there were two of the men remaining in the camp. The name of the one was El'dad, and the name of the other was Me'dad. And the spirit began to settle down upon them, as they were among those written down, but they had not gone out to the tent. So they proceeded to act as prophets in the camp. 27 And a young man went running and reporting to Moses and saying: "El'dad and Me'dad are acting as prophets in the camp!" 28 Then Joshua the son of Nun, the minister<sup>a</sup> of Moses from his young manhood on, responded and said: "My lord Moses, restrain them!"<sup>b</sup> 29 However, Moses said to him: "Are you feeling jealous for me? No, I wish that all of Jehovah's people were prophets, because Jehovah would put his spirit upon them!"<sup>c</sup> 30 Later Moses withdrew to the camp, he and the older men of Israel.

31 And a wind<sup>d</sup> burst forth from Jehovah and began driving quails from the sea<sup>e</sup> and letting them fall above the camp about a day's journey this way and about a day's journey that way, all around the camp, and about two cubits above the surface of the earth. 32 Then the people got up all that day and all night and all the next day and kept gathering the quail. The one collecting least gathered ten ho'mers,<sup>f</sup> and they kept spreading them extensively all around the camp for themselves. 33 The meat was yet between their teeth,<sup>g</sup> before it could be chewed, when Jehovah's anger blazed<sup>h</sup> against the people, and Jehovah began striking at the people with a very great slaughter.<sup>i</sup>

34 The name of that place came to be called Kib'roth-hat-ta'a-vah,<sup>j</sup> because there they buried the people who showed selfish craving.<sup>k</sup> 35 From Kib'roth-hat-ta'a-vah the people pulled away for Ha-ze'roth, and they continued in Ha-ze'roth.<sup>l</sup>

12 Now Mir'i-am and Aaron began to speak against Moses on account of the Cush'ite wife whom he had taken, because it was a Cush'ite wife he had taken.<sup>a</sup> 2 And they kept saying: "Is it just by Moses alone that Jehovah has spoken? Is it not by us also that he has spoken?"<sup>b</sup> And Jehovah was listening.<sup>c</sup> 3 And the man Moses was by far the meekest<sup>d</sup> of all the men who were upon the surface of the ground.

So the three of them went out. 5 After that Jehovah came down in the pillar of cloud<sup>e</sup> and stood at the entrance of the tent and called Aaron and Mir'i-am. At this both of them went out. 6 And he went on to say: "Hear my words, please. If there came to be a prophet of yours for Jehovah, it would be in a vision<sup>f</sup> I would make myself known to him. In a dream<sup>g</sup> I would speak to him. 7 Not so my servant Moses!<sup>h</sup> He is being entrusted with all my house.<sup>i</sup> 8 Mouth to mouth I speak to him,<sup>j</sup> thus showing him, and not by riddles;<sup>k</sup> and the appearance of Jehovah is what he beholds.<sup>l</sup> Why, then, did you not fear to speak against my servant, against Moses?"<sup>m</sup>

9 And Jehovah's anger got to be hot against them, and he went his way. 10 And the cloud turned away from over the tent, and, look! Mir'i-am was struck with leprosy as white as snow.<sup>n</sup> Then Aaron turned toward Mir'i-am, and, look! she was struck with leprosy.<sup>o</sup> 11 Immediately Aaron said to Moses: "Excuse me, my lord! Do not, please, attribute to us the sin in which we have acted foolishly and which we have committed.<sup>p</sup> 12 Please, do not let her continue like someone dead,<sup>q</sup> whose flesh at the time of his coming out of his mother's womb is half eaten off!" 13 And Moses began to cry out to Jehovah, saying: "O God, please! Heal her, please!"<sup>a</sup>

14 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Were her father to spit<sup>b</sup> directly in her face, would she not be humiliated seven days? Let her be quarantined<sup>c</sup> seven days outside the camp,<sup>d</sup> and afterward let her be received in."<sup>e</sup>

15 Accordingly Mir'iam was quarantined outside the camp seven days,<sup>f</sup> and the people did not pull away until Mir'iam was received in. 16 And afterward the people pulled away from Haze'roth<sup>g</sup> and took up camping in the wilderness of Pa'ran.<sup>h</sup>

13 Jehovah now spoke to Moses, saying: 2 "Send out for yourself men that they may spy out the land of Ca'naan, which I am giving to the sons of Israel.<sup>1</sup> You will send out one man for each tribe of his fathers, each one a chieftain<sup>2</sup> among them."

3 So Moses sent them out from the wilderness of Pa'ran<sup>k</sup> at the order of Jehovah. All the men were heads of the sons of Israel. 4 And these are their names: Of the tribe of Reu'-ben, Sham-mu'a the son of Zac'-cur; 5 of the tribe of Sim'e-on, Sha'phat the son of Ho'ri; 6 of the tribe of Judah, Ca'leb<sup>1</sup> the son of Je-phun'neh; 7 of the tribe of Is'sa-char, I'gal the son of Jo-seph; 8 of the tribe of E'phraim, Ho-she'a<sup>m</sup> the son of Nun; 9 of the tribe of Benjamin, Pal'ti the son of Ra'phu; 10 of the tribe of Zeb'u-lun, Gad'di-el the son of So'di; 11 of the tribe of Joseph,<sup>n</sup> for the tribe of Manas'seh,<sup>o</sup> Gad'di the son of Su'-si; 12 of the tribe of Dan, Am'-mi-el the son of Ge-mal'i; 13 of the tribe of Ash'er, Se'thur the son of Mi'cha-el; 14 of the tribe of Naph'ta-li, Nah'bi the son of Voph'si; 15 of the tribe of Gad, Geu'el the son of Ma'chi. 16 These are the names of the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses continued to call Ho-she'a the son of Nun Je-hosh'u-a.<sup>a</sup>

17 When Moses was sending them to spy out the land of Ca'naan, he proceeded to say to them: "Go up here into the Neg'-eb,<sup>b</sup> and you must go up into the mountainous region.<sup>c</sup> 18 And you must see what the land is<sup>d</sup> and the people who are dwelling on it, whether they are strong or weak, whether they are few or many; 19 and what the land is in which they are dwelling, whether it is good or bad, and what the cities are in which they are dwelling, whether it is in encampments or in fortifications; 20 and what the land is, whether it is fat or lean,<sup>e</sup> whether there are trees in it or not. And you must show yourselves courageous<sup>f</sup> and take some of the fruitage of the land." Now the ripe fruits of the grapes,<sup>g</sup> the first ripe fruits of the grapes.<sup>g</sup>

25 Finally at the end of forty days<sup>2</sup> they returned from spying out the land. 26 So they walked and came to Moses and Aaron and all the assembly of the sons of Israel in the wilderness of Pa'ran, at Ka'desh.<sup>a</sup> And they came bringing back word to them and all the assembly and showing them the fruitage of the land. 27 And they went on to report to him and say: "We entered into the land to which you sent us out, and it is indeed flowing with milk and honey,<sup>b</sup> and this is its fruitage.<sup>c</sup> 28 Nevertheless, the facts are that the people who dwell in the land are strong, and the fortified cities are very great;<sup>d</sup> and, too, those born of A'nak we saw there.<sup>e</sup> 29 The A-ma'ek-ites<sup>f</sup> are dwelling in the land of the Neg'eb,<sup>g</sup> and the Hit'tites and the Jeb'u-sites<sup>h</sup> and the Am'or-ites<sup>i</sup> are dwelling in the mountainous region, and the Ca'naan-ites<sup>j</sup> are dwelling by the sea and by the side of the Jordan."

30 Then Ca'leb<sup>k</sup> tried to still the people toward Moses and went on to say: "Let us go up directly, and we are bound to take possession of it, because we can surely prevail over it."<sup>l</sup> 31 But the men who went up with him said: "We are not able to go up against the people, because they are stronger than we are."<sup>m</sup> 32 And they kept on bringing forth to the sons of Israel a bad report<sup>n</sup> of the land that they had spied out, saying: "The land, which we passed through to spy it out, is a land that eats up its inhabitants; and all the people whom we saw in the midst of it are men of extraordinary size.<sup>o</sup> 33 And there we saw the Neph'i-lim, the sons of A'nak,<sup>p</sup> who are from the Neph'i-lim; so that we became in our own eyes like grasshoppers, and the same way we became in their eyes."<sup>q</sup>

through that night. 2 And all the sons of Israel began to murmur against Moses and Aaron,<sup>a</sup> and all the assembly began to say against them: "If only we had died in the land of Egypt, or if only we had died in this wilderness! 3 And why is Jehovah bringing us to this land to fall by the sword?<sup>b</sup> Our wives and our little ones will become plunder.<sup>c</sup> Is it not better for us to return to Egypt?"<sup>d</sup> 4 They even went to saying to one another: "Let us appoint a head, and let us return to Egypt!"<sup>e</sup>

5 At this Moses and Aaron fell upon their faces<sup>f</sup> before all the congregation of the assembly of the sons of Israel. 6 And Joshua the son of Nun<sup>g</sup> and Ca'leb the son of Je-phun'neh,<sup>h</sup> who were of those who spied out the land, ripped their garments apart,<sup>i</sup> 7 and they proceeded to say this to all the assembly of the sons of Israel: "The land that we passed through to spy it out is a very, very good land.<sup>j</sup> 8 If Jehovah has found delight in us,<sup>k</sup> then he will certainly bring us into this land and give it to us, a land that is flowing with milk and honey.<sup>l</sup> 9 Only against Jehovah do not rebel;<sup>m</sup> and you, do not you fear the people of the land,<sup>n</sup> for they are bread to us. Their shelter has turned away from over them,<sup>o</sup> and Jehovah is with us.<sup>p</sup> Do not fear them."<sup>q</sup>

10 However, all the assembly talked of pelting them with stones.<sup>r</sup> And Jehovah's glory appeared on the tent of meeting to all the sons of Israel.<sup>s</sup>

11 Finally Jehovah said to Moses: "How long<sup>t</sup> will this people treat me without respect,<sup>u</sup> and how long will they not put faith in me for all the signs that I performed in among them?<sup>v</sup> 12 Let me strike them with pestilence and drive them away, and let me make you a nation greater and mightier than they are."<sup>w</sup>

13 But Moses said to Jehovah: "Then the Egyptians will be bound to hear that you by your power have led this people up out of their midst.<sup>a</sup> 14 And they will be bound to tell it to the inhabitants of this land. They have heard that you are Jehovah in among this people,<sup>b</sup> who has appeared face to face.<sup>c</sup> You are Jehovah, and your cloud is standing over them, and you are going before them in the pillar of cloud by day and in the pillar of fire by night.<sup>d</sup> 15 Were you to put this people to death as one man,<sup>e</sup> then the nations who have heard of your fame would certainly say this, 16 'Because of Jehovah's not being able to bring this people into the land about which he swore to them he proceeded to slaughter them in the wilderness.'<sup>f</sup> 17 And now, please, let your power become great,<sup>g</sup> O Jehovah, just as you have spoken, saying, 18 'Jehovah, slow to anger<sup>h</sup> and abundant in loving-kindness,<sup>i</sup> pardoning error and transgression,<sup>j</sup> but by no means will he give exemption from punishment,<sup>k</sup> bringing punishment for the error of the fathers upon sons, upon the third generation and upon the fourth generation.'<sup>l</sup> 19 Forgive, please, the error of this people according to the greatness of your loving-kindness, and just as you have pardoned this people from Egypt onward until now."<sup>m</sup>

20 Then Jehovah said: "I do forgive according to your word.<sup>n</sup> 21 And, on the other hand, as I live, all the earth will be filled with the glory of Jehovah.<sup>o</sup> 22 But all the men who have been seeing my glory<sup>p</sup> and my signs<sup>q</sup> that I have performed in Egypt and in the wilderness and yet kept testing<sup>r</sup> me these ten times, and have not listened to my voice,<sup>s</sup> 23 will never see the land about which I swore to their fathers, yes, all those treat-

26 And Jehovah went on to speak to Moses and Aaron, saying: 27 "How long will this evil assembly have this murmuring that they are carrying on against me?<sup>g</sup> I have heard the murmurings of the sons of Israel that they are murmuring against me.<sup>h</sup>

28 Say to them, "As I live," is the utterance of Jehovah, "if I shall not do to you just that way as you have spoken in my ears!"

29 In this wilderness YOUR carcasses will fall,<sup>i</sup> yes, all YOUR registered ones of all YOUR number from twenty years old upward, YOU who have murmured against me.<sup>k</sup> 30 As for YOU, YOU will not enter into the land in which I lifted up my hand<sup>l</sup> in oath to reside with you, except Ca'leb the son of Je-phun'neh and Joshua the son of Nun.<sup>m</sup>

31 "“And YOUR little ones who you said would become plunder,<sup>n</sup> these also I shall certainly bring in, and they will indeed know the land that YOU have rejected.<sup>o</sup> 32 But the carcasses of you yourselves will fall in this wilderness.<sup>p</sup> 33 And YOUR sons will become shepherds in the wilderness<sup>q</sup> forty years, and they will have to answer for YOUR acts of fornication,<sup>r</sup> until your carcasses come to their end in the wilderness.<sup>s</sup> 34 By the number of the days that you spied out the land, forty days,<sup>t</sup> a day for a year, a day for a year,<sup>a</sup> you will answer for YOUR errors forty years,<sup>b</sup> as you must know what my being estranged means.<sup>c</sup>

35 “I Jehovah have spoken if this is not what I shall do to all this evil assembly,<sup>d</sup> those who have gathered together against me: In this wilderness they will come to their end, and there they will die.<sup>e</sup> 36 And the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land and who, when they returned, began making the whole assembly murmur against him, by bringing forth a bad report against the land,<sup>f</sup> 37 yes, the men bringing forth the bad report about the land will die by the scourge before Jehovah.<sup>g</sup> 38 But Joshua the son of Nun and Ca’leb the son of Je-phun’-neh will certainly live on, of those men who went to spy out the land.”<sup>h</sup>

39 When Moses proceeded to speak these words to all the sons of Israel, then the people began to mourn a great deal.<sup>i</sup> 40 Moreover, they got up early in the morning and tried to go up to the top of the mountain, saying: “Here we are, and we have to go up to the place that Jehovah mentioned. For we have sinned.”<sup>j</sup> 41 But Moses said: “Why is it that you are passing beyond the order of Jehovah?<sup>k</sup> But that will not succeed. 42 Do not go up, because Jehovah is not in YOUR midst, that you may not be defeated before YOUR enemies.<sup>l</sup> 43 For the A-mal’ek-ites and the Ca’naan-ites are there before you;<sup>m</sup> and you are certain to fall by the sword, because, for the reason that you turned back from following Jehovah, Jehovah will not continue with you.”<sup>n</sup>

15 And Jehovah spoke further to Moses, saying: 2 “Speak to the sons of Israel, and you must say to them, ‘When you eventually come into the land of your dwelling places, which I am giving you,<sup>d</sup> 3 and you must render up an offering made by fire to Jehovah,<sup>e</sup> a burnt offering<sup>f</sup> or a sacrifice to perform a special vow or voluntarily<sup>g</sup> or during your seasonal festivals,<sup>h</sup> in order to make a restful odor to Jehovah,<sup>i</sup> from the herd or from the flock; 4 the one presenting his offering must also present to Jehovah a grain offering of fine flour,<sup>j</sup> a tenth of an e’phah, moistened with a fourth of a hin of oil. 5 And you should render up wine as a drink offering,<sup>k</sup> the fourth of a hin, together with the burnt offering or for the sacrifice of each male lamb. 6 Or for a ram you should render up a grain offering of two tenths of fine flour, moistened with a third of a hin of oil. 7 And you should present wine as a drink offering, a third of a hin, as a restful odor to Jehovah.

12 Whatever may be the number that you may render up, that is the way you should do for each one according to the number of them. 13 Every native should render up these in this way in presenting an offering made by fire, of a restful odor to Jehovah.<sup>a</sup>

14 "And in case there should be residing as an alien with you an alien resident or one who is in your midst for generations of you, and he must render up an offering made by fire, of a restful odor to Jehovah, just as you should do, so he should do.<sup>b</sup>

The alien resident should prove to be the same as you before Jehovah.<sup>d</sup> 16 There should prove to be one law and one judicial decision for you and for the alien resident who is residing as an alien with you."<sup>e</sup>

generations, 24 it must then occur that if it has been done far from the eyes of the assembly by mistake, the whole assembly must then render up one young bull as a burnt offering for a restful odor to Jehovah, and its grain offering and its drink offering according to the regular procedure,<sup>a</sup> and one kid of the goats as a sin offering.<sup>b</sup>

25 And the priest must make atonement<sup>c</sup> for the whole assembly of the sons of Israel, and it must be forgiven them; because it was a mistake,<sup>d</sup> and they, for their part, brought as their offering an offering made by fire to Jehovah and their sin offering before Jehovah for their mistake.

26 And it must be forgiven<sup>e</sup> the whole assembly of the sons of Israel and the alien resident who is residing as an alien in their midst, because it was by mistake on the part of all the people.

27 "And if any soul should sin by mistake,<sup>f</sup> then he must present a female goat in its first year for a sin offering.<sup>g</sup> 28 And the priest must make atonement for the soul who made a mistake by a sin unintentionally before Jehovah, so as to make atonement for it, and it must be forgiven him.<sup>h</sup> 29 As to the native among the sons of Israel and the alien resident who is residing as an alien in their midst, there should prove to be one law for you as respects doing something unintentionally.<sup>i</sup>

30 "But the soul that does something deliberately,<sup>j</sup> whether he is a native or an alien resident, he speaking abusively of Jehovah,<sup>k</sup> in that case that soul must be cut off from among his people.<sup>l</sup> 31 Because it is Jehovah's word that he has despised<sup>m</sup> and his commandment that he has broken,<sup>n</sup> that soul should be cut off without fail.<sup>o</sup> His own error is upon him."<sup>p</sup>

32 While the sons of Israel were continuing in the wilderness, they once found a man collecting pieces of wood on the sabbath day.<sup>a</sup> 33 Then those who found him collecting pieces of wood brought him up to Moses and Aaron and the whole assembly. 34 So they committed him into custody,<sup>b</sup> because it had not been distinctly stated what should be done to him.

35 In time Jehovah said to Moses: "Without fail the man should be put to death,<sup>c</sup> the whole assembly pelting him with stones outside the camp."<sup>d</sup>

36 Accordingly the whole assembly brought him forth outside the camp and pelted him with stones so that he died, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

37 And Jehovah went on to say this to Moses: 38 "Speak to the sons of Israel, and you must say to them that they must make for themselves fringed edges upon the skirts of their garments throughout their generations, and they must put a blue string above the fringed edge of the skirt,<sup>e</sup> 39 'And it must serve as a fringed edge for you, and you must see it and remember all the commandments<sup>f</sup> of Jehovah and do them, and you must not go about following your hearts and your eyes,<sup>g</sup> which you are following in immoral intercourse.<sup>h</sup> 40 The purpose is that you may remember and may certainly do all my commandments and indeed prove to be holy to your God.<sup>i</sup> 41 I am Jehovah your God, who have brought you out of the land of Egypt in order to prove myself your God.<sup>j</sup> I am Jehovah your God."<sup>k</sup>

and On the son of Pe'leth, the sons of Reu'ben.<sup>a</sup> 2 And they proceeded to rise up before Moses, they and two hundred and fifty men of the sons of Israel, chieftains of the assembly, summoned ones of the meeting, men of fame. 3 So they congregated themselves against<sup>b</sup> Moses and Aaron and said to them: "That is enough of you, because the whole assembly are all of them holy<sup>c</sup> and Jehovah is in their midst.<sup>d</sup> Why, then, should you lift yourselves up above the congregation of Jehovah?"<sup>e</sup>

4 When Moses got to hear it he at once fell upon his face. 5 Then he spoke to Ko'rah and to his entire assembly, saying: "In the morning Jehovah will make known who belongs to him<sup>f</sup> and who is holy<sup>g</sup> and who must come near to him,<sup>h</sup> and whoever he may choose<sup>i</sup> will come near to him. 6 Do this: Take fire holders<sup>j</sup> for yourselves, Ko'rah and his entire assembly,<sup>k</sup> 7 and put fire in them and place incense upon them before Jehovah tomorrow, and it must occur that the man whom Jehovah will choose,<sup>l</sup> he is the holy one. That is enough of you, you sons of Le'vi!"<sup>m</sup>

8 And Moses went on to say to Ko'rah: "Listen, please, you sons of Le'vi. 9 Is it such a little thing for you men that the God of Israel has separated<sup>n</sup> you men from the assembly of Israel to present you to himself to carry on the service of Jehovah's tabernacle and to stand before the assembly to minister to them,<sup>o</sup> 10 and that he should bring you and all your brothers the sons of Le'vi with you near? So must you men also try to secure the priesthood?<sup>p</sup> 11 For that reason you and all your assembly who are gathering together are against Jehovah.<sup>q</sup> As for Aaron, what is he that you men should murmur against him?"<sup>r</sup>

12 Later Moses sent to call Da'than and A-bi'ram<sup>a</sup> the sons of E-li'ab, but they said: "We are not going to come up!"<sup>b</sup> 13 Is it so little a thing that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey to put us to death in the wilderness,<sup>c</sup> that you should also try to play the prince over us to the limit?<sup>d</sup> 14 As it is, you have not brought us into any land flowing with milk and honey,<sup>e</sup> that you may give us an inheritance of field and vineyard. Is it the eyes of those men that you want to bore out? We are not going to come up!"

15 At this Moses became very angry and said to Jehovah: "Do not turn to look at their grain offering.<sup>f</sup> Not one male ass have I taken away from them, nor have I harmed one of them."<sup>g</sup>

16 Then Moses said to Ko'rah: "You and all your assembly, be present before Jehovah,<sup>h</sup> you and they and Aaron, tomorrow. 17 And take each one his fire holder, and you men must put incense upon them and present each one his fire holder before Jehovah, two hundred and fifty fire holders, and you and Aaron each his fire holder." 18 So they took each one his fire holder and put fire upon them and placed incense upon them and stood at the entrance of the tent of meeting together with Moses and Aaron. 19 When Ko'rah got all the assembly<sup>i</sup> together against them at the entrance of the tent of meeting, then Jehovah's glory appeared to all the assembly.<sup>k</sup>

20 Jehovah now spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying: 21 "Separate! yourselves from the midst of this assembly, that I may exterminate<sup>m</sup> them in an instant." 22 At this they fell upon their faces and said: "O God, the God of the spirits of every sort of flesh,<sup>n</sup> will just one man sin and you become indignant against the entire assembly?"<sup>a</sup>

23 In turn Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying: 24 "Speak to the assembly, saying, 'Get away from around the tabernacles of Ko'rah, Da'than and A-bi'ram!'"<sup>b</sup>

25 After that Moses got up and went to Da'than and A-bi'ram, and the older men<sup>c</sup> of Israel went with him. 26 Then he spoke to the assembly, saying: "Turn aside, please, from before the tents of these wicked men and do not touch anything that belongs to them,<sup>d</sup> that you may not be swept away in all their sin." 27 Immediately they got away from before the tabernacle of Ko'rah, Da'than and A-bi'ram, from every side, and Da'than and A-bi'ram came out, taking their stand at the entrance of their tents,<sup>e</sup> together with their wives, and their sons and their little ones.

28 Then Moses said: "By this you will know that Jehovah has sent me to do all these deeds,<sup>f</sup> that it is not of my own heart."<sup>g</sup> 29 If it is according to the death of all mankind that these people will die and with the punishment of all mankind that punishment will be brought upon them,<sup>h</sup> then it is not Jehovah that has sent me.<sup>i</sup> 30 But if it is something created that Jehovah will create,<sup>j</sup> and the ground has to open its mouth and swallow up them<sup>k</sup> and everything that belongs to them and they have to go down alive into She'ol,<sup>l</sup> you will then know for certain that these men have treated Jehovah disrespectfully."<sup>m</sup>

31 And it came about that as soon as he had finished speaking all these words, the ground that was under them began to be split apart.<sup>n</sup> 32 And the earth proceeded to open its mouth and to swallow up them and their households and all humankind that belonged to Ko'rah and all the goods.<sup>a</sup> 33 So down they went, and all who belonged to them, alive into She'ol, and the earth went covering them over,<sup>b</sup> so that they perished from the midst of the congregation.<sup>c</sup> 34 And all the Israelites who were round about them fled at the screaming of them, for they began to say: "We are afraid that the earth may swallow us up!"<sup>d</sup> 35 And a fire came out from Jehovah<sup>e</sup> and proceeded to consume the two hundred and fifty men offering the incense.<sup>f</sup>

36 Jehovah now spoke to Moses, saying: 37 "Say to El-e-a'-zar the son of Aaron the priest that he should take up the fire holders<sup>g</sup> from within the conflagration, 'And you scatter the fire over there; for they are holy, 38 even the fire holders of these men who sinned against their own souls.<sup>h</sup> And they must make them into thin metal plates as an overlaying for the altar,<sup>i</sup> because they presented them before Jehovah, so that they became holy; and they should serve as a sign to the sons of Israel.'<sup>j</sup>" 39 Accordingly El-e-a'-zar the priest took the copper fire holders,<sup>k</sup> which those who had been burned up had presented, and they proceeded to beat them out into an overlaying for the altar, 40 as a memorial for the sons of Israel, to the end that no strange<sup>l</sup> man who is not of the offspring of Aaron should come near to make incense smoke before Jehovah,<sup>m</sup> and no one might become like Ko'rah and his assembly,<sup>n</sup> just as Jehovah had spoken to him by means of Moses.

41 And directly the next day the whole assembly of the sons of Israel began to murmur against Moses and Aaron,<sup>o</sup> saying: "You men, you have put Jehovah's people to death." 42 And it came about that when the assembly had congregated themselves together against Moses and Aaron, they then turned toward the tent of meeting; and, look! the cloud covered it, and Jehovah's glory began to appear.<sup>a</sup>

43 And Moses and Aaron proceeded to come before the tent of meeting.<sup>b</sup> 44 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying: 45 "You men, rise up from the midst of this assembly, that I may exterminate them in an instant."<sup>c</sup> At this they fell upon their faces.<sup>d</sup> 46 After that Moses said to Aaron: "Take the fire holder and put fire from upon the altar in it<sup>e</sup> and put on incense and go to the assembly in a hurry and make atonement for them,<sup>f</sup> because the indignation has gone out from the face of Jehovah.<sup>g</sup> The plague has started!"

47 Aaron at once took it, just as Moses had spoken, and went running into the midst of the congregation; and, look! the plague had started among the people. So he put the incense on and began making atonement for the people. 48 And he kept standing between the dead and the living.<sup>h</sup> Eventually the scourge was stopped.<sup>i</sup> 49 And those dead from the scourge amounted to fourteen thousand seven hundred, aside from those dead on account of Ko'rah. 50 When at last Aaron returned to Moses at the entrance of the tent of meeting, the scourge had been stopped.

17 Jehovah now spoke to Moses, saying: 2 "Speak to the sons of Israel and take from them one rod<sup>a</sup> for each paternal house from all their chiefs,<sup>b</sup> by the house of their fathers, twelve rods. You will write the name of each one upon his rod. 3 And Aaron's name you will write upon Le'vi's rod, because there is one rod for the head of the house of their fathers. 4 And you must deposit them in the tent of meeting before the Testimony,<sup>a</sup> where I regularly present myself to you.<sup>b</sup> 5 And what must occur is that the man whom I shall choose,<sup>c</sup> his rod will bud, and I shall certainly make subside from against me the murmurings<sup>d</sup> of the sons of Israel, which they are murmuring against you.<sup>e</sup>

6 So Moses spoke to the sons of Israel, and all their chieftains went giving him a rod for each chieftain, a rod for each chieftain, by the house of their fathers, twelve rods;<sup>f</sup> and Aaron's rod was in among their rods.<sup>g</sup> 7 Then Moses deposited the rods before Jehovah in the tent of the Testimony.<sup>h</sup>

8 And it came about the next day that when Moses went into the tent of the Testimony, look! Aaron's rod for the house of Levi had budded, and it was bringing forth buds and blossoming flowers and was bearing ripe almonds. 9 Moses then brought out all the rods from before Jehovah to all the sons of Israel, and they went looking and taking each man his own rod.

10 Subsequently Jehovah said to Moses: "Put Aaron's rod<sup>i</sup> back before the Testimony as something to be kept for a sign<sup>j</sup> to the sons of rebelliousness,<sup>k</sup> that their murmurings may cease from against me, that they may not die." 11 At once Moses did just as Jehovah had commanded him. He did just so.

12 And the sons of Israel began to say this to Moses: "Now we are bound to expire, we are bound to perish, we are all of us bound to perish." 13 Anyone approaching,<sup>m</sup> coming near to Jehovah's tabernacle, will die!<sup>n</sup> Must we end up in expiring that way?"<sup>o</sup>

18 And Jehovah proceeded to say to Aaron: "You and your sons and the house of your father with you will answer for the breast of the wave offering and like the right leg, it should become yours.<sup>a</sup> 19 All the holy contributions,<sup>b</sup> which the sons of Israel will contribute to Jehovah, I have given to you and your sons and your daughters with you, as an allowance to time indefinite.<sup>c</sup> It is a covenant of salt to time indefinite before Jehovah for you and your offspring with you.<sup>d</sup>

20 And Jehovah went on to say to Aaron: "In their land you will not have an inheritance, and no share will become yours in their midst.<sup>e</sup> I am your share and your inheritance in the midst of the sons of Israel.<sup>f</sup>

21 "And to the sons of Levi, look! I have given every tenth<sup>g</sup> part in Israel as an inheritance in return for their service that they are carrying on, the service of the tent of meeting.

22 And the sons of Israel should no more come near to the tent of meeting to incur sin so as to die.<sup>h</sup> 23 And the Levites themselves must carry on the service of the tent of meeting, and they are the ones who should answer for their error.<sup>i</sup> It is a statute to time indefinite during your generations that in the midst of the sons of Israel they should not get possession of an inheritance.<sup>j</sup>

24 For the tenth part of the sons of Israel, which they will contribute to Jehovah as a contribution, I have given to the Levites as an inheritance. That is why I have said to them, 'In the midst of the sons of Israel they should not get possession of an inheritance.'<sup>k</sup>

25 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying: 26 "And you should speak to the Levites, and you must say to them, 'You will receive from the sons of Israel the tenth part that I have given to you from them for your inheritance,<sup>l</sup> and you must contribute from it as a contribution to

30 "And you must say to them, 'When you contribute the best of them,<sup>d</sup> then it will certainly be reckoned to the Levites as the produce of the threshing floor and as the produce of the wine or oil press. 31 And you must eat it in every place, you and your household, because it is your wages in return for your service in the tent of meeting.<sup>e</sup> 32 And you must not incur sin for it when you contribute the best from them, and you must not profane the holy things of the sons of Israel, that you may not die.'<sup>f</sup>

19 And Jehovah proceeded to speak to Moses and Aaron, saying: 2 "This is a statute of the law that Jehovah has commanded, saying, 'Speak to the sons of Israel that they should take for you a sound red cow in which there is no defect<sup>g</sup> and upon which no yoke has come.<sup>h</sup> 3 And you must give it to El-e-a'-zar the priest, and he must lead it forth outside the camp, and it must be slaughtered before him. 4 Then El-e-a'-zar the priest must take some of its blood with his finger and spatter some of its blood straight toward the front of the tent of meeting seven times.<sup>i</sup> 5 And the cow must be burned under his eyes. 20 "But the man who may be unclean and who will not purify himself, well, that soul must be cut off<sup>g</sup> from the midst of the congregation, because it is Jehovah's sanctuary that he has defiled. The water for cleansing was not sprinkled upon him. He is unclean.

21 "And it must serve as a statute to time indefinite for them, that the one spattering the water for cleansing should wash his garments,<sup>h</sup> also the one touching the water for cleansing. He will be unclean until the evening. 22 And anything the unclean one may touch will be unclean,<sup>i</sup> and the soul who touches it will be unclean until the evening."<sup>j</sup>

20 And the sons of Israel, the entire assembly, proceeded to come into the wilderness of Zin<sup>k</sup> in the first month, and the people took up dwelling in Ka'desh.<sup>l</sup> It was there that Miri'am<sup>m</sup>

died and there that she was buried.

2 Now there proved to be no water for the assembly,<sup>a</sup> and they began to congregate themselves against Moses and Aaron.<sup>b</sup> 3 And the people went quarreling<sup>c</sup> with Moses and saying: "If only we had expired when our brothers expired before Jehovah!<sup>d</sup> 4 And why have you men brought Jehovah's congregation into this wilderness for us and our beasts of burden to die there?<sup>e</sup> 5 And why have you conducted us up out of Egypt to bring us into this evil place?<sup>f</sup> It is no place of seed and figs and vines and pomegranates,<sup>g</sup> and there is no water to drink."<sup>h</sup> 6 Then Moses and Aaron came from before the congregation to the entrance of the tent of meeting and fell upon their faces,<sup>i</sup> and Jehovah's glory began to appear to them.<sup>j</sup>

7 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying: 8 "Take the rod<sup>k</sup> and call the assembly together, you and Aaron your brother, and you must speak to the crag before their eyes that it may indeed give its water; and you must bring out water for them from the crag and give the assembly and their beasts of burden drink."<sup>l</sup>

9 So Moses took the rod from before Jehovah,<sup>1</sup> just as he had commanded him. 10 After that Moses and Aaron called the congregation together before the crag, and he proceeded to say to them: "Hear, now, you rebels!<sup>m</sup> Is it from this crag that we shall bring out water for you?"<sup>n</sup> 11 With that Moses lifted his hand up and struck the crag with his rod twice; and much water began to come out, and the assembly and their beasts of burden began to drink.<sup>o</sup>

12 Later Jehovah said to Moses and Aaron: "Because you did not show faith in me to sanctify<sup>p</sup>

me before the eyes of the sons of Israel, therefore you will not bring this congregation into the land that I shall certainly give them."<sup>a</sup> 13 These are the waters of Mer'i-bah,<sup>b</sup> because the sons of Israel quarreled with Jehovah, so that he was sanctified among them.

14 Subsequently Moses sent messengers from Ka'desh to the king of E'dom:<sup>c</sup> "This is what your brother Israel<sup>d</sup> has said, 'You yourself well know all the hardship that has overtaken us.'"

18 However, E'dom said to him: "You must not pass through me, for fear I may come out with the sword to meet you." 19 In turn the sons of Israel said to him: "By the highway we shall go up; and if I and my livestock should drink your water, I shall also certainly give the value of it."<sup>m</sup> I want nothing more than to pass through on my feet."<sup>n</sup> 20 Still he said: "You must not pass through."<sup>o</sup> With that E'dom<sup>p</sup> came on out to encounter him with a great many people and a strong hand. 21 So E'dom refused to grant Israel to pass through his territory.<sup>q</sup> Hence Israel turned away from him.<sup>r</sup>

22 And the sons of Israel, the entire assembly, proceeded to pull away from Ka'desh<sup>a</sup> and come to Mount Hor.<sup>b</sup> 23 Then Jehovah said this to Moses and Aaron in Mount Hor by the border of the land of E'dom: 24 "Aaron will be gathered to his people,<sup>c</sup> for he will not enter into the land that I shall certainly give to the sons of Israel, on the ground that you men rebelled against my order respecting the waters of Mer'i-bah.<sup>d</sup> 25 Take Aaron and El-e-a'zar his son and bring them up into Mount Hor. 26 And strip Aaron of his garments,<sup>e</sup> and you must clothe with them El-e-a'zar<sup>f</sup> his son; and Aaron will be gathered and must die there."<sup>g</sup>

27 So Moses did just as Jehovah had commanded; and before the eyes of all the assembly they went climbing Mount Hor. 28 Then Moses stripped Aaron of his garments and clothed El-e-a'zar his son with them, after which Aaron died there on the top of the mountain.<sup>h</sup> And Moses and El-e-a'zar came on down from the mountain. 29 And all the assembly got to see that Aaron had expired, and all the house of Israel continued weeping for Aaron thirty days.<sup>i</sup>

21 Now the Ca'naan-ite the king of A'rad,<sup>j</sup> who dwelt in the Negeb,<sup>k</sup> got to hear that Israel had come by the way of Ath'a-rim, and he began to fight with Israel and carry away some of them as captives. 2 Consequently Israel made a vow to Jehovah and said:<sup>l</sup> "If you will without fail give this people into my hand, I shall also certainly devote their cities to destruction."<sup>m</sup> 3 So Jehovah listened to Israel's voice and gave the Ca'naan-ites over; and they devoted them and their cities to destruction. Hence they called the name of the place Hor'mah.<sup>n</sup>

4 While they continued trekking from Mount Hor<sup>a</sup> by the way of the Red Sea to go around the land of E'dom,<sup>b</sup> the soul of the people began tiring out because of the way. 5 And the people kept speaking against God<sup>c</sup> and Moses:<sup>d</sup> "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness?"<sup>e</sup> For there is no bread and no water,<sup>f</sup> and our soul has come to abhor the contemptible bread."<sup>g</sup> 6 So Jehovah sent poisonous serpents<sup>h</sup> among the people, and they kept biting the people, so that many people of Israel died.<sup>i</sup>

7 Finally the people came to Moses and said: "We have sinned,<sup>j</sup> because we have spoken against Jehovah and against you. Intercede with Jehovah that he may remove the serpents from upon us."<sup>k</sup> And Moses went interceding in behalf of the people.<sup>l</sup> 8 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Make for yourself a fiery snake and place it upon a signal pole. And it must occur that when anyone has been bitten, he then has to look at it and so must keep alive."<sup>m</sup> 9 Moses at once made a serpent of copper<sup>n</sup> and placed it upon the signal pole;<sup>o</sup> and it did occur that if a serpent had bitten a man and he gazed<sup>p</sup> at the copper serpent, he then kept alive.<sup>q</sup>

10 After that the sons of Israel pulled away and encamped in O'both.<sup>r</sup> 11 Then they pulled away from O'both and encamped in I'ye-ab'a-rim,<sup>s</sup> in the wilderness that is toward the front of Mo'ab, toward the rising of the sun. 12 From there they pulled away and took up camping by the torrent valley of Ze'red.<sup>t</sup> 13 From there they pulled away and went camping in the region of the Ar'non,<sup>u</sup> which is in the wilderness that extends from the border of the Am'or-ites; for the Ar'non is the boundary of Mo'- ab, between Mo'ab and the Am'or-ites. 14 That is why it is said in the book of the Wars of Jehovah:

"Va'heb in Su'phah and the torrent valleys of Ar'non, 15 and the mouth of the torrent valleys, which has bent itself toward the seat of Ar<sup>a</sup> and has leaned against the border of Mo'ab."

16 Next from there on to Be'er.<sup>b</sup> This is the well about which Jehovah said to Moses: "Gather the people, and let me give them water."<sup>c</sup>

17 At that time Israel proceeded to sing this song:<sup>d</sup>

"Spring up, O well! Respond to it, you people!

18 A well, princes dug it. The nobles of the people excavated it,

Then from the wilderness on to Mat'ta-nah. 19 And from Mat'ta-nah on to Na-hal'i-el, and from Na-hal'i-el on to Ba'moth.<sup>f</sup> 20 And from Ba'moth on to the valley that is in the field of Mo'ab,<sup>g</sup> at the head of Pis'gah,<sup>h</sup> and it projects over toward the face of Je-shi'mon.<sup>i</sup>

21 Israel now sent messengers to Si'hon<sup>j</sup> the king of the Am'or-ites, saying: 22 "Let me pass through your land. We shall not turn off into a field or a vineyard. We shall drink water of no well. On the king's road we shall march until we pass through your territory."<sup>k</sup> 23 And Si'hon did not allow Israel to pass through his territory,<sup>l</sup> but Si'hon gathered all his people and went out to meet Israel in the wilderness, and came to Ja'haz<sup>m</sup> and began fighting with Israel. 24 At that Israel struck him with the edge of the sword<sup>o</sup> and took possession of his land<sup>p</sup> from the Ar'non<sup>p</sup> to the Jab'bok,<sup>q</sup> near the sons of Am'mon; because

"Come to Hesh'bon.

Let the city of Si'hon be built and be proved firmly set up.

28 For a fire has come out of Hesh'bon,<sup>h</sup> a flame from the town of Si'hon.

It has consumed Ar<sup>i</sup> of Mo'ab, the owners of the high places of the Ar'nnon.

29 Woe to you, Mo'ab! You will certainly perish, O people of Che'mosh!<sup>j</sup>

He will certainly give his sons as escaped ones and his daughters in the captivity to the king of the Am'or-ites, Si'hon.

30 So let us shoot at them.

Hesh'bon will certainly perish up to Di'bon,<sup>k</sup>

And the women up to No'phah, the men up to Med'e-ba."<sup>l</sup>

31 And Israel began to dwell in the land of the Am'or-ites.<sup>m</sup>

32 Then Moses sent some to spy on Ja'zer.<sup>n</sup> So they captured its dependent towns and dispossessed the Am'or-ites who were there.<sup>o</sup> 33 After that they turned and went up by the way of Ba'shan.<sup>p</sup> At this Og<sup>q</sup> the king of Ba'shan came out to meet them, he and all his people, to the battle of Ed're-i.<sup>r</sup> 34 Jehovah now said to Moses: "Do not be afraid of him,<sup>s</sup> for into your hand I shall certainly give him and all his people and his land;<sup>a</sup> and you must do to him just as you did to Si'hon, the king of the Am'or-ites, who used to dwell in Hesh'bon."<sup>b</sup> 35 So they went striking him and his sons and all his people, until there was no survivor remaining to him;<sup>c</sup> and they went taking possession of his land.<sup>d</sup>

22 Then the sons of Israel pulled away and encamped on the desert plains of Mo'ab<sup>e</sup> across the Jordan from Jer'i-cho. 2 And Ba'lak<sup>f</sup> the son of Zip'por got to see all that Israel had done to the Am'or-ites. 3 And Mo'ab became very frightened at the people, because they were many; and Mo'ab began to feel a sickening dread of the sons of Israel.<sup>g</sup> 4 And Mo'ab proceeded to say to the older men of Mid'i-an:<sup>h</sup> "Now this congregation will lick up all our surroundings like the bull licking up the green growth of the field."

And Ba'lak<sup>i</sup> the son of Zip'por was king of Mo'ab at that particular time. 5 He now sent messengers to Ba'laam<sup>j</sup> the son of Be'or at Pe'thor,<sup>k</sup> which is by the River<sup>l</sup> of the land of the sons of his people, to call him, saying: "Look! A people has come out of Egypt. Look! They have covered the earth as far as one can see,<sup>m</sup> and they are dwelling right in front of me. 6 And now do come, please; do curse<sup>n</sup> this people for me, for they are mightier than I am. Perhaps I may be able to strike them and I may drive them out of the land; for I well know that the one whom you bless is a blessed one and the one whom you curse is cursed."<sup>o</sup>

7 So the older men of Mo'ab and the older men of Mid'i-an traveled with the payments for divination<sup>p</sup> in their hands and went to Ba'laam<sup>q</sup> and spoke to him Ba'lak's words. 8 At that he said to them: "Lodge here tonight, and I shall certainly return you word just as Jehovah may speak to me."<sup>a</sup> Accordingly the princes of Mo'ab stayed with Ba'laam.

9 Then God came to Ba'laam and said:<sup>b</sup> "Who are these men with you?" 10 So Ba'laam said to the true God: "Ba'lak<sup>c</sup> the son of Zip'por, the king of Mo'ab, has sent to me, saying, 11 'Look! The people who are coming out of Egypt, and they go covering the earth as far as the eye can see.<sup>d</sup> Now do come, do execrate them for me.<sup>e</sup> Perhaps I may be able to fight against them and I shall actually drive them out.'<sup>f</sup> 12 But God said to Ba'laam: "You must not go with them. You must not curse the people,<sup>f</sup> for they are blessed."<sup>g</sup>

13 After that Ba'laam got up in the morning and said to the princes of Ba'lak: "Go to YOUR country, because Jehovah has refused to let me go with you." 14 So the princes of Mo'ab got up and came to Ba'lak and said: "Ba'laam has refused to come with us."<sup>h</sup>

15 However, Ba'lak sent again other princes in greater number and more honorable than the former. 16 In turn they came to Ba'laam and said to him: "This is what Ba'lak the son of Zip'por has said, 'Do not be detained, please, from coming to me. 17 For I shall without fail honor you greatly,<sup>i</sup> and everything you may say to me I shall do.'<sup>j</sup> So do come, please. Do execrate this people for me."<sup>k</sup> 18 But Ba'laam answered and said to the servants of Ba'lak: "If Ba'lak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I should not be able to pass beyond the order of Jehovah my God, so as to do something small or great.<sup>k</sup> 19 And now you men also stay here, please, tonight that I may know what further Jehovah will speak with me."<sup>l</sup>

20 Then God came to Ba'laam by night and said to him: "If it is to call you that the men have come, get up, go with them. But only the word that I shall speak to you is what you may speak."<sup>a</sup> 21 After that Ba'laam got up in the morning and saddled his she-ass and went with the princes of Mo'ab.<sup>b</sup>

22 And the anger of God began to blaze because he was going; and Jehovah's angel proceeded to station himself in the road to resist him.<sup>c</sup> And he was riding upon his she-ass, and two attendants of his were with him. 23 And the ass got to see Jehovah's angel stationed in the road with his drawn sword in his hand;<sup>d</sup> and the ass tried to turn aside from the road that she might go into the field, but Ba'laam began to strike the ass in order to turn her aside to the road. 24 And Jehovah's angel kept standing in the narrow way between the vineyards, with a stone wall on this side and a stone wall on that side. 25 And the she-ass kept seeing Jehovah's angel and began to squeeze herself against the wall and so to squeeze Ba'laam's foot against the wall; and he went beating her some more.

26 Jehovah's angel now passed by again and stood in a narrow place, where there was no way to turn aside to the right or to the left. 27 When the ass got to see Jehovah's angel she now lay down under Ba'laam; so that Ba'laam's anger blazed,<sup>e</sup> and he kept beating the ass with his staff. 28 Finally Jehovah opened the mouth of the ass<sup>f</sup> and she said to Ba'laam: "What have I done to you so that you have beaten me these three times?"<sup>g</sup> 29 At this Ba'laam said to the ass: "It is because you have dealt ruthlessly with me. If only there were a sword in my hand, for now I should have killed you!"<sup>a</sup>

30 Then the she-ass said to Ba'-laam: "Am I not your she-ass that you have ridden upon all your life long until this day? Have I ever been used to do to you this way?"<sup>b</sup> To which he said: "No!" 31 And Jehovah proceeded to uncover Ba'-laam's eyes,<sup>c</sup> so that he saw Jehovah's angel stationed in the road with his drawn sword in his hand. At once he bowed low and prostrated himself on his face.

32 Then Jehovah's angel said to him: "Why have you beaten your she-ass these three times? Look! I—I have come out to offer resistance, because your way has been headlong against my will."<sup>d</sup>

33 And the she-ass got to see me and tried to turn aside before me these three times.<sup>e</sup> Supposing she had not turned aside from before me! For by now even you I should have killed,<sup>f</sup> but her I should have preserved alive."

34 At this Ba'-laam said to Jehovah's angel: "I have sinned,<sup>g</sup> because I did not know that it was you stationed in the road to meet me. And now, if it is bad in your eyes, let me go my way back."

35 But Jehovah's angel said to Ba'-laam: "Go with the men;<sup>h</sup> and nothing but the word that I shall speak to you is what you may speak."<sup>i</sup> And Ba'-laam continued going with the princes of Ba'-lak.

36 When Ba'-lak got to hear that Ba'-laam had come, he at once went out to meet him at the city of Mo'ab, which is on the bank of the Ar'non, which is on the extremity of the territory.<sup>j</sup>

37 Then Ba'-lak said to Ba'-laam: "Have I not for a fact sent to you to call you? Why did you not come to me? Am I not really and truly able to honor you?"<sup>k</sup>

38 At this Ba'-laam said to Ba'-lak: "Here I have come to you now. Shall I be able at all to speak something?"<sup>l</sup> The word that God

39 So Ba'-laam went with Ba'-lak and they came to Kir'i-ath-hu'zoth. 40 And Ba'-lak proceeded to sacrifice cattle and sheep<sup>b</sup> and to send some to Ba'-laam and the princes who were with him. 41 And it came about in the morning that Ba'-lak went taking Ba'-laam and bringing him up to Ba'moth-ba'al,<sup>c</sup> that he might see from there the whole of the people.<sup>d</sup>

23 Then Ba'-laam said to Ba'-lak: "Build for me on this spot seven altars<sup>e</sup> and make ready for me on this spot seven bulls and seven rams." 2 Ba'-lak immediately did just as Ba'-laam had spoken. After that Ba'-lak and Ba'-laam offered up a bull and a ram on each altar.<sup>f</sup> 3 And Ba'-laam went on to say to Ba'-lak: "Station yourself by your burnt offering,<sup>g</sup> and let me go. Perhaps Jehovah will get in touch and meet with me.<sup>h</sup> In that case whatever he will show me, I shall certainly tell you." So he went to a bare hill.

4 When God got in touch with Ba'-laam,<sup>i</sup> he then said to Him: "I set the seven altars in rows, and I proceeded to offer up a bull and a ram on each altar."<sup>j</sup> 5 Accordingly Jehovah put a word in the mouth of Ba'-laam<sup>k</sup> and said: "Return to Ba'-lak, and this is what you will speak."<sup>l</sup> 6 So he returned to him, and, look! he and all the princes of Mo'ab were stationed by his burnt offering. 7 Then he took up his proverbial<sup>m</sup> utterance and said:

From the mountains of the east:

'Do come, do curse Jacob for me.

Yes, do come, do denounce Israel."<sup>o</sup>

215 Balak displeased. Balaam's second utterance NUMBERS 23:8-25

8 How could I execrate those whom God has not execrated?<sup>a</sup>

And how could I denounce those whom Jehovah has not denounced?<sup>b</sup>

9 For from the top of the rocks I see them,
And from the hills I behold them.

There as a people they keep tabernacled isolated,<sup>c</sup>
And among the nations they do not reckon themselves.<sup>d</sup>

10 Who has numbered the dust particles of Jacob,<sup>e</sup>
And who has counted the fourth part of Israel?

Let my soul die the death of the upright ones,<sup>f</sup>
And let my end turn out afterward like theirs.<sup>g</sup>

11 At this Ba'lak said to Ba'laam: "What have you done to me? It was in order to execrate my enemies that I took you, and here you have blessed them to the limit."<sup>h</sup> 12 In turn he answered and said: "Is it not whatever Jehovah may put in my mouth that I should take care to speak?"<sup>i</sup>

13 Then Ba'lak said to him: "Do come, please, with me to another place from which you can see them. Only the extremity of them you will see,<sup>j</sup> and you will not see all of them. And execrate them for me from there."<sup>k</sup>

14 So he took him to the field of Zo'phim, to the top of Pis'gah,<sup>l</sup> and proceeded to build seven altars and to offer up a bull and a ram on each altar.<sup>m</sup> 15 After that he said to Ba'lak: "Station yourself here by your burnt offering, and, as for me, let me get in touch with him there." 16 Subsequently Jehovah got in touch with Ba'laam and put a word in his mouth and said:<sup>n</sup> "Return to Ba'lak,<sup>o</sup> and this is what you will speak." 17 So he came to him, and, look! he was stationed by his burnt offering, and the princes of Mo'ab with him. Then Ba'lak said to him: "What has Jehovah spoken?" 18 At this he took up his proverbial utterance and said:<sup>a</sup>

"Get up, Ba'lak, and listen.
Do give ear to me, O son of Zip'por."<sup>b</sup>

19 God is not a man that he should tell lies,<sup>c</sup>
Neither a son of mankind that he should feel regret.<sup>d</sup>

Has he himself said it and will he not do it,
And has he spoken and will he not carry it out?<sup>e</sup>

20 Look! I have been taken to bless,

And He has blessed,<sup>f</sup> and I shall not reverse it.<sup>g</sup>

21 He has not looked upon any uncanny power<sup>h</sup> against Jacob,

And no trouble has he seen against Israel.

Jehovah his God is with him,<sup>i</sup>
And the loud hailing of a king is in his midst.

22 God is bringing them out of Egypt.<sup>j</sup>

The swift course like that of a wild bull is his.<sup>k</sup>

23 For there is no unlucky spell against Jacob,<sup>l</sup>

Nor any divination against Israel.<sup>m</sup>

At this time it may be said respecting Jacob and Israel,

"What has God worked out!"<sup>n</sup>

24 Behold, a people will get up like a lion,
And like the lion it will lift itself up.<sup>o</sup>

It will not lie down until it may eat prey,

And the blood of slain ones it will drink."<sup>p</sup>

25 At this Ba'lak said to Ba'laam: "If, on the one hand, you cannot execrate him at all, then, on the other hand, you should not bless him at all." 26 In turn Ba'alam answered and said to Ba'lak: "Did I not speak to you, saying, 'All that Jehovah will speak is what I shall do'?"<sup>a</sup>

27 Then Ba'lak said to Ba'alam: "O come, please. Let me take you to still another place. Perhaps it will be right in the eyes of the true God so that you will certainly execrate him for me from there."<sup>b</sup> 28 With that Ba'lak took Ba'alam to the top of Pe'or, which looks toward Je-shi'mon.<sup>c</sup> 29 Then Ba'alam<sup>d</sup> said to Ba'lak: "Build for me on this spot seven altars and make ready for me on this spot seven bulls and seven rams."<sup>e</sup> 30 So Ba'lak did just as Ba'alam had said, and he went offering up a bull and a ram on each altar.<sup>f</sup>

24 When Ba'alam got to see that it was good in the eyes of Jehovah to bless Israel, he did not go away as at the other times<sup>g</sup> to come upon any unlucky omens,<sup>h</sup> but he directed his face to the wilderness. 2 When Ba'alam raised his eyes and saw Israel tabernacling by his tribes,<sup>i</sup> then the spirit of God came to be upon him.<sup>j</sup> 3 Hence he took up his proverbial utterance<sup>k</sup> and said:

"The utterance of Ba'alam the son of Be'or,
And the utterance of the able-bodied man with the eye unsealed,<sup>l</sup>

4 The utterance of the one hearing the sayings of God,<sup>m</sup>

Who got to see a vision of the Almighty<sup>n</sup>

While falling down with the eyes uncovered:<sup>o</sup>

5 How good-looking are your tents, O Jacob, your tabernacles, O Israel!<sup>p</sup>

6 Like torrent valleys they have extended a long way,<sup>q</sup>

Like gardens by the river.<sup>r</sup>

10 At that Ba'lak's anger blazed against Ba'alam and he clapped his hands,<sup>m</sup> and Ba'lak went on to say to Ba'alam: "It was to execrate<sup>n</sup> my enemies that I called you, and, look! you have blessed them to the limit these three times. 11 And now run your way off to your place. 20 When he got to see Am'-a-lek, he carried further his proverbial utterance and went on to say:<sup>q</sup> bringing near to his brothers a Mid'i-an-ite woman<sup>a</sup> before Moses' eyes and before the eyes of all the assembly of the sons of Israel, while they were weeping at the entrance of the tent of meeting. 7 When Phin'e-has<sup>b</sup> the son of El-e-a'zar the son of Aaron the priest caught sight of it, he at once got up from the midst of the assembly and took a lance in his hand. 8 Then he went after the man of Israel into the vaulted tent and pierced both of them through, the man of Israel and the woman through her genital parts. At that the scourge was halted from upon the sons of Israel.<sup>c</sup> 9 And those who died from the scourge amounted to twenty-four thousand.<sup>d</sup>

10 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying: 11 "Phin'e-has the son of El-e-a'zar the son of Aaron the priest has turned back my wrath<sup>e</sup> from upon the sons of Israel by his tolerating no rivalry at all toward me in the midst of them,<sup>f</sup> so that I have not exterminated the sons of Israel in my insistence on exclusive devotion.<sup>h</sup> 12 For that reason say, 'Here I am giving him my covenant of peace. 13 And it must serve as the covenant of a priesthood to time indefinite for him and his offspring after him,<sup>i</sup> due to the fact that he tolerated no rivalry toward his God<sup>j</sup> and proceeded to make atonement for the sons of Israel.'<sup>k</sup>

14 Incidentally the name of the fatally struck Israelite man who was fatally struck with the Mid'i-an-i-tess was Zim'ri the son of Sa'lu, a chieftain<sup>l</sup> of a paternal house of the Sim'e-on-ites. 15 And the name of the Mid'i-an-ite woman fatally struck was Coz'bi the daughter of Zur;<sup>m</sup> he was a head one of the clans of a paternal house in Mid'i-an.<sup>n</sup>

and you men must strike them,<sup>a</sup> 18 because they are harassing you with their deeds of cunning<sup>b</sup> that they committed against you cunningly in the affair of Pe'or<sup>c</sup> and in the affair of Coz'bi<sup>d</sup> the daughter of a chieftain of Mid'i-an, their sister who was fatally struck<sup>e</sup> in the day of the scourge over the affair of Pe'or."<sup>f</sup>

26 And it came about after the scourge,<sup>g</sup> that Jehovah went on to say this to Moses and El-e-a'zar the son of Aaron the priest: 2 "TAKE the sum of the whole assembly of the sons of Israel from twenty years of age and upward, according to the house of their fathers, all those going out to the army in Israel."<sup>h</sup> 3 And Moses and El-e-a'zar<sup>i</sup> the priest proceeded to speak with them in the desert plains of Mo'ab<sup>j</sup> by the Jordan at Jericho,<sup>k</sup> saying: 4 "Take the sum of them from the age of twenty years and upward, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses."<sup>l</sup>

Now the sons of Israel who went out of the land of Egypt were: 5 Reu'ben, Israel's first-born;<sup>m</sup> Reu'ben's sons: Of Ha'noh<sup>n</sup> the family of the Ha'noh-ites; of Pal'lu<sup>o</sup> the family of the Pal'lu-ites; 6 of Hez'ron<sup>p</sup> the family of the Hez'ron-ites; of Car'mi<sup>q</sup> the family of the Car'mites. 7 These were the families of the Reu'ben-ites, and their registered ones amounted to forty-three thousand seven hundred and thirty.<sup>r</sup>

8 And the son of Pal'lu was E-li'ab. 9 And the sons of E-li'ab: Nem'u-el and Da'than and A-bi'ram. This Da'than<sup>s</sup> and A-bi'ram<sup>t</sup> were summoned ones of the assembly, who engaged in a struggle against Moses and Aaron in the assembly of Ko'rah,<sup>u</sup> when they engaged in a struggle against Jehovah.

10 Then the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up.<sup>v</sup>

As for Ko'rah, he died at the death of the assembly when the fire consumed two hundred and fifty men.<sup>a</sup> And they came to be a symbol.<sup>b</sup> 11 However, the sons of Ko'rah did not die.<sup>c</sup>

15 The sons of Gad<sup>j</sup> by their families: Of Ze'phon the family of the Ze'phon-ites; of Hag'gi the family of the Hag'gites; of Shu'ni the family of the Shu'nites; 16 of Oz'ni the family of the Oz'nites; of E'ri the family of the E'rites; 17 of Ar'od the family of the Ar'od-ites; of A-re'li<sup>k</sup> the family of the A-re'lites. 18 These were the families of the sons of Gad, of their registered ones: forty thousand five hundred.<sup>l</sup>

23 The sons of Is'sa-char<sup>x</sup> by their families were: Of To'la<sup>y</sup> the family of the To'la-ites; of Pu'vah the family of the Pu'nites; 24 of Ja'shub the family of the Jash'u-bites; of Shim'ron<sup>z</sup> the family of the Shim'ron-ites. 25 These

52 After that Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying: 53 "To these the land should be apportioned for an inheritance by the number of the names.<sup>a</sup> 54 According to the great number you should increase one's inheritance, and according to the fewness you should reduce one's inheritance.<sup>b</sup> Each one's inheritance should be given in proportion to his registered ones. 55 Only by the lot<sup>c</sup> should the land be apportioned. According to the names of the tribes of their fathers they should get an inheritance. 56 By the determination of the lot one's inheritance should be apportioned between the many and the few."

And Ko'hath<sup>m</sup> became father to Am'ram.<sup>n</sup> 59 And the name of Am'ram's wife was Joch'e-bed,<sup>o</sup> Le'vi's daughter, whom his wife bore to Le'vi in Egypt. In time she bore to Am'ram Aaron and Moses and Mir'i-am their sister.<sup>p</sup> 60 Then there were born to Aaron Na'dab and A-bi'hu,<sup>q</sup> El-e-a'zar and Ith'a-mar.<sup>r</sup> 61 But Na'dab and A-bi'hu died for their presenting illegitimate fire before Jehovah.<sup>s</sup>

62 And their registered ones amounted to twenty-three thousand, all males from a month old and upward.<sup>t</sup> For they did not get registered in among the sons of Israel,<sup>u</sup> because no inheritance was to be given to them in among the sons of Israel.<sup>a</sup>

63 These were the ones registered by Moses and El-e-a'zar the priest when they registered the sons of Israel in the desert plains of Mo'ab by the Jordan at Jeri'cho.<sup>b</sup> 64 But among these there did not prove to be a man of those registered by Moses and Aaron the priest when they registered the sons of Israel in the wilderness of Si'-nai.<sup>c</sup> 65 For Jehovah had said concerning them: "They will die without fail in the wilderness."<sup>d</sup> So there was not left of them a man except Ca'leb the son of Jephun'neh and Joshua the son of Nun.<sup>e</sup>

27 Then the daughters of Ze-lo'phe-had<sup>f</sup> the son of He'-pher the son of Gil'e-ad the son of Ma'chir the son of Ma-nas'-seh,<sup>g</sup> of the families of Ma-nas'-seh the son of Joseph, came near. the possession of an inheritance in the midst of their father's brothers, and you must cause their father's inheritance to pass to them.<sup>a</sup> 8 And to the sons of Israel you should speak, saying, 'In case any man should die without his having a son, you must then cause his inheritance to pass to his daughter. 9 And if he has no daughter, you must then give his inheritance to his brothers. 10 And if he has no brothers, you must then give his inheritance to his father's brothers. 11 And if his father has no brothers, you must then give his inheritance to his blood relation<sup>b</sup> who is closest to him of his family, and he must take possession of it. And it must serve as a statute by judicial decision for the sons of Israel, just as Jehovah has commanded Moses.'<sup>c</sup>

12 Subsequently Jehovah said to Moses: "Go up into this mountain of Ab'a-rim<sup>c</sup> and see the land that I shall certainly give the sons of Israel."<sup>d</sup> 13 When you have seen it, then you must be gathered to your people,<sup>e</sup> yes, you, just as Aaron your brother was gathered.<sup>f</sup> 14 Inasmuch as you men rebelled against my order in the wilderness of Zin at the quarreling of the assembly,<sup>g</sup> in relation to sanctifying<sup>h</sup> me by the waters before their eyes. These are the waters of Mer'i-bah<sup>i</sup> at Ka'desh<sup>j</sup> in the wilderness of Zin."<sup>k</sup>

is spirit,<sup>a</sup> and you must lay your hand upon him;<sup>b</sup> 19 and you must stand him before El-e-a'zar the priest and before all the assembly, and you must commission him before their eyes.<sup>c</sup> 20 And you must put some of your dignity upon him,<sup>d</sup> in order that all the assembly of the sons of Israel may listen to him.<sup>e</sup> 21 And it is before El-e-a'zar the priest that he will stand, and he must inquire<sup>f</sup> in his behalf by the judgment of the U'rim<sup>g</sup> before Jehovah. At his order they will go out and at his order they will come in, he and all the sons of Israel with him and all the assembly.<sup>h</sup>

22 And Moses proceeded to do just as Jehovah had commanded him. Accordingly he took Joshua and stood him before El-e-a'zar<sup>h</sup> the priest and before all the assembly 23 and laid his hands upon him and commissioned him,<sup>i</sup> just as Jehovah had spoken by means of Moses.<sup>j</sup>

28 And Jehovah spoke further to Moses, saying: 2 "Command the sons of Israel, and you must say to them, 'You should take care to present to me my offering, my bread,<sup>k</sup> for my offerings made by fire as a restful odor to me,<sup>l</sup> at their appointed times.'<sup>m</sup>

3 "And you must say to them, 'This is the offering made by fire that you will present to Jehovah: two sound year-old male lambs a day as a burnt offering constantly.<sup>n</sup> 4 The one male lamb you will render up in the morning, and the other male lamb you will render up between the two evenings,<sup>o</sup> 5 together with the tenth of an e'phah<sup>p</sup> of fine flour as a grain<sup>q</sup> offering moistened with the fourth of a hin of beaten oil;<sup>r</sup> 6 the constant burnt offering,<sup>s</sup> which was rendered up at Mount Si'nai as a restful odor, an walled camps they burned with fire.<sup>a</sup> 11 And they went taking all the spoil<sup>b</sup> and all the booty in the way of humans and domestic animals. 12 And they came bringing to Moses and El-e-a'zar the priest and to the assembly of the sons of Israel the captives and the booty and the spoil, to the camp, to the desert plains of Mo'ab,<sup>c</sup> which are by the Jordan at Jer'i-cho.

13 Then Moses and El-e-a'zar the priest and all the chieftains of the assembly went out to meet them outside the camp.

14 And Moses grew indignant at the appointed men of the combat forces,<sup>d</sup> the chiefs of the thousands and the chiefs of the hundreds who were coming in from the military expedition. 15 So Moses said to them: "Have you preserved alive every female?"<sup>e</sup>

16 Look! 21 El-e-a'zar the priest then said to the men of the army who had gone into the battle:

"This is the statute of the law that Jehovah commanded Moses, 22 'Only the gold and the silver, the brass, the copper, the iron, the tin and the lead, 23 everything that is processed with fire,<sup>a</sup> you should pass through the fire, and it must be clean. Only it should be purified by the water for cleansing.<sup>b</sup> And everything that is not processed with fire you should pass through the water.<sup>c</sup> 24 And you must wash your garments on the seventh day and be clean, and afterward you may come into the camp.'<sup>d</sup>

25 And Jehovah proceeded to say this to Moses: 26 "Take the sum of the booty, the captives both of humankind and of domestic animals, you and El-e-a'-zar the priest and the heads of the fathers of the assembly. 27 And you must divide the booty in two between those taking part in the battle who went out on the expedition and all the rest of the assembly.<sup>e</sup> 28 And as a tax<sup>f</sup> for Jehovah you must take away from the men of war who went out on the expedition one soul out of five hundred, of humankind and of the herd and of the asses and of the flock. 29 From their half you should take it and you must give it to El-e-a'-zar the priest as Jehovah's contribution.<sup>g</sup> 30 And from the half of the sons of Israel you should take one out of fifty, of humankind, of the herd, of the asses and of the flock, of every sort of domestic animal, and you must give them to the Levites,<sup>h</sup> the keepers of the obligation of Jehovah's tabernacle."<sup>i</sup>

31 And Moses and El-e-a'-zar the priest went doing just as Jehovah had commanded Moses. 32 And the booty, the rest of the plunder that the people of the expedition had taken as plunder, amounted to six hundred and seventy-five thousand of the flock, 33 and seventy-two thousand of the herd, 34 and sixty-one thousand asses. 35 As for human souls<sup>a</sup> from the women who had not known the act of lying with a male,<sup>b</sup> all the souls were thirty-two thousand. 36 And the half that was the share of those who went out on the expedition amounted in number to three hundred and thirty-seven thousand five hundred of the flock. 37 And the tax<sup>c</sup> for Jehovah from the flock amounted to six hundred and seventy-five. 38 And of the herd there were thirty-six thousand, and the tax on them for Jehovah was seventy-two. 39 And the asses were thirty thousand five hundred, and the tax on them for Jehovah was sixty-one. 40 And the human souls were sixteen thousand, and the tax on them for Jehovah was thirty-two souls. 41 Then Moses gave the tax as Jehovah's contribution to El-e-a'-zar the priest,<sup>d</sup> just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.<sup>e</sup>

42 And from the half belonging to the sons of Israel, which Moses divided from that belonging to the men who waged war: 43 Now the half of the assembly from the flock amounted to three hundred and thirty-seven thousand five hundred, 44 and of the herd, thirty-six thousand, 45 and the asses, thirty thousand five hundred, 46 and human souls, sixteen thousand. 47 Then Moses took from the half belonging to the sons of Israel the one to be taken out of fifty, of humankind and of domestic animals, and gave them to the Levites,<sup>f</sup> the keepers of the obligation<sup>g</sup> of Jehovah's tabernacle, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

48 And the appointed men who were of the thousands of the army,<sup>h</sup> the chiefs of the thousands and the chiefs of the hundreds,<sup>i</sup> proceeded to approach

Moses, 49 and to say to Moses: "Your servants have taken the sum of the men of war who are in our charge and not one has been reported missing from us." 50 So let us present each one what he has found as Jehovah's offering,<sup>b</sup> articles of gold, ankle chainlets, and bracelets, signet rings,<sup>c</sup> earrings, and female ornaments,<sup>d</sup> in order to make atonement for our souls before Jehovah."

51 Accordingly Moses and El-e-a'zar the priest accepted the gold from them,<sup>e</sup> all the jewelry. 52 And all the gold of the contribution that they contributed to Jehovah amounted to sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty shekels, from the chiefs of the thousands and the chiefs of the hundreds. 53 The men of the army had taken plunder each for himself.<sup>f</sup> 54 So Moses and El-e-a'zar the priest accepted the gold from the chiefs of the thousands and of the hundreds and brought it into the tent of meeting as a memorial<sup>g</sup> for the sons of Israel before Jehovah.

32 Now the sons of Reu'ben<sup>h</sup> and the sons of Gad<sup>i</sup> had come to have numerous livestock, very many, in fact. And they began to see the land of Ja'zer<sup>j</sup> and the land of Gil'e-ad, and, look! the place was a place for livestock. 2 Hence the sons of Gad and the sons of Reu'ben came and said this to Moses and El-e-a'zar the priest and to the chieftains of the assembly: 3 "At'a-roth<sup>k</sup> and Di'bon<sup>l</sup> and Ja'zer and Nim'rah<sup>m</sup> and Hesh'-bon<sup>n</sup> and E-le-a'leh<sup>o</sup> and Se'bam and Ne'bo<sup>p</sup> and Be'on,<sup>q</sup> 4 the land that Jehovah defeated<sup>r</sup> before the assembly of Israel, is a land for livestock, and your servants have livestock."<sup>s</sup> 5 And they went on to say: "If we have found favor in your eyes, let this land be given to your servants

6 Then Moses said to the sons of Gad and the sons of Reu'ben: "Are your brothers to go to war while you yourselves keep dwelling here?<sup>b</sup> 7 And why should you dishearten the sons of Israel from crossing into the land that Jehovah will certainly give them? 8 That is the way your fathers did<sup>c</sup> when I sent them from Ka'-desh-bar'ne-a<sup>d</sup> to see the land. 9 When they went up to the torrent valley of Esh'col<sup>e</sup> and saw the land, then they disheartened the sons of Israel, so as not to go into the land that Jehovah was certain to give them.<sup>f</sup> 10 Consequently Jehovah's anger blazed on that day so that he swore,<sup>g</sup> saying, 11 'The men who came up out of Egypt from twenty years old upward<sup>h</sup> will not see the soil of which I have sworn to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob,<sup>i</sup> because they have not followed me wholly, 12 except Ca'leb<sup>j</sup> the son of Je-phun'neh the Ken'-izzite and Joshua<sup>k</sup> the son of Nun, because they have followed Jehovah wholly.' 13 So Jehovah's anger blazed against Israel and he made them wander about in the wilderness forty years,<sup>l</sup> until all the generation that was doing evil in the eyes of Jehovah came to their end.<sup>m</sup> 14 And here you have risen in the place of your fathers as the brood of sinful men in order to add further to the burning anger of Jehovah<sup>n</sup> against Israel. 15 In case you should turn back from following him,<sup>o</sup> he also would certainly once again let them stay longer in the wilderness,<sup>p</sup> and you would have acted ruinously toward all this people."<sup>q</sup>

16 Later they approached him and said: "Let us build here stone flock pens for our livestock and cities for our little ones. 17 But we ourselves shall go equipped in battle formation<sup>a</sup> before the sons of Israel until whenever we have brought them to their place, while our little ones must dwell in the cities with fortifications away from the face of the inhabitants of the land. 18 We shall not return to our houses until the sons of Israel have provided themselves with landed property, each with his own inheritance.<sup>b</sup> 19 For we shall not get an inheritance with them from the side of the Jordan and beyond, because our inheritance has come to us from the side of the Jordan toward the sunrise."<sup>c</sup>

20 At this Moses said to them: "If you will do this thing, if you will equip yourselves before Jehovah for the war,<sup>d</sup> 21 and every equipped one of yours will actually pass over the Jordan before Jehovah, until he drives away his enemies from before him,<sup>e</sup> 22 and the land is actually subdued before Jehovah,<sup>f</sup> and afterward you return,<sup>g</sup> you also will indeed prove yourselves free from guilt against Jehovah and against Israel; and this land must become yours as a possession before Jehovah.<sup>h</sup> 23 But if you will not do this way, you will also certainly sin against Jehovah.<sup>i</sup> In that case know that your sin will catch up with you.<sup>j</sup> 24 Build for yourselves cities for your little ones and stone pens for your flocks, and what has gone forth from your mouth you should do."<sup>k</sup>

25 Then the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben said this to Moses: "Your servants will do just as my lord is commanding.<sup>l</sup> 26 Our little ones, our wives, our livestock and all our domestic animals will stay there in the cities of Gil'e-ad,<sup>m</sup> 27 but your servants will pass over, everyone equipped for the army,<sup>n</sup> before Jehovah for the war, just as my lord is speaking."<sup>o</sup>

28 Accordingly Moses gave a command respecting them to Elie-azar the priest and to Joshua the son of Nun and to the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the sons of Israel. 29 So Moses said to them: "If the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben pass with you over the Jordan, everyone equipped for the war,<sup>a</sup> before Jehovah, and the land is actually subdued before you, you must then give them the land of Gil'e-ad as a possession.<sup>b</sup> 30 But if they do not pass over equipped with you, they must then be settled in your midst in the land of Ca'naan."<sup>c</sup>

31 To this the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben answered, saying: "What Jehovah has spoken to your servants is the way we shall do.<sup>d</sup> 32 We ourselves will pass over equipped before Jehovah to the land of Ca'naan,<sup>e</sup> and the possession of our inheritance will be with us on this side of the Jordan."<sup>f</sup> 33 At this Moses gave to them, that is, to the sons of Gad<sup>g</sup> and to the sons of Reuben<sup>h</sup> and to half the tribe of Ma-nas'seh<sup>i</sup> the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Si'hon<sup>j</sup> the king of the Am'or-ites and the kingdom of Og<sup>k</sup> the king of Ba'shan, the land belonging to its cities in the territories, and the cities of the land round about.

39 And the sons of Ma'chir<sup>a</sup> the son of Ma-nas'seh proceeded to march to Gil'e-ad and to capture it and to drive away the Am'or-ites who were in it. 40 So Moses gave Gil'e-ad to Ma'chir the son of Ma-nas'seh, and he took up dwelling in it.<sup>b</sup> 41 And Ja'ir the son of Ma-nas'seh marched and went capturing their tent villages, and he began to call them Hav'voth-ja'ir.<sup>c</sup> 42 And No'bah marched and went capturing Ke'nath<sup>d</sup> and its dependent towns; and he began to call it No'bah by his own name.

9 Then they pulled away from Ma'rah and came to E'lim.<sup>d</sup> Now in E'lim there were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees. in Pu'non. 43 Next they pulled away from Pu'non and went camping in O'both.<sup>a</sup> 44 Then they pulled away from O'both and went camping in I'ye-ab'a-rim on the border of Mo'ab.<sup>b</sup> 45 Later they pulled away from I'yim and went camping in Di'bon-gad.<sup>c</sup> 46 After that they pulled away from Di'bon-gad and went camping in Al'mon-dib-la-tha'im. 47 Then they pulled away from Al'mon-dib-la-tha'im<sup>d</sup> and went camping in the mountains of Ab'a-rim<sup>e</sup> before Ne'bo.<sup>f</sup> 48 Finally they pulled away from the mountains of Ab'a-rim and took up camping on the desert plains of Mo'ab<sup>g</sup> by the Jordan at Jer'i-cho. 49 And they continued camping by the Jordan from Beth-jesh'i-moth<sup>h</sup> to A'bel-shit'tim' on the desert plains of Mo'ab.

50 And Jehovah proceeded to speak to Moses on the desert plains of Mo'ab by the Jordan at Jer'i-cho,<sup>i</sup> saying: 51 "Speak to the sons of Israel, and you must say to them, 'You are crossing the Jordan into the land of Ca'naan.<sup>k</sup> 52 And you must drive away all the inhabitants of the land from before you and destroy all their stone figures,<sup>l</sup> and all their images of molten metal<sup>m</sup> you should destroy, and all their sacred high places you should annihilate.<sup>n</sup> 53 And you must take possession of the land and dwell in it, because to you I shall certainly give the land to take possession of it.<sup>o</sup> 54 And you must apportion the land to yourselves as a possession by lot<sup>p</sup> according to your families.<sup>q</sup> To the populous one you should increase his inheritance, and to the sparse one you should reduce his inheritance.<sup>r</sup> To where the lot will come out for him, there it will become his.<sup>s</sup> By the tribes of your fathers you should provide yourselves with landed property.<sup>t</sup>

55 "If, though, you will not drive the inhabitants of the land away from before you,<sup>a</sup> then those whom you leave of them will certainly become as pricks in your eyes and as thorns in your sides, and they will indeed harass you on the land in which you will be dwelling.<sup>b</sup> 56 And it must occur that just as I had figured doing to them I shall do to you."<sup>c</sup>

34 And Jehovah spoke further to Moses, saying: 2 "Command the sons of Israel, and you must say to them, 'You are going into the land of Ca'naan.<sup>d</sup> This is the land that will fall to you by inheritance,<sup>e</sup> the land of Ca'naan according to its boundaries.<sup>f</sup>

3 "And your south side must prove to be from the wilderness of Zin alongside E'dom,<sup>g</sup> and your south boundary must prove to be from the extremity of the Salt Sea<sup>h</sup> on the east. 4 And your boundary must change direction from the south of the ascent of A-krab'bim<sup>i</sup> and cross over to Zin, and its termination must prove to be on the south of Ka'desh-bar'ne-a;<sup>j</sup> and it must go out to Ha'zar-ad'dar<sup>k</sup> and pass over to Az'mon. 5 And the boundary must change direction at Az'mon to the torrent valley of Egypt,<sup>l</sup> and its termination must prove to be at the Sea.<sup>m</sup>

6 "As for a west boundary,<sup>n</sup> it must prove to be for you the Great Sea and the shoreland. This will become your west boundary.

7 "Now this will become your north boundary: From the Great Sea you will mark out to Mount Hor<sup>o</sup> as a boundary for yourselves. 8 From Mount Hor you will mark out the boundary to the entering in of Ha'math,<sup>p</sup> and the termination of the boundary must prove to be at Ze'dad.<sup>q</sup> 9 And the boundary must go out

10 "Then you must mark for yourselves as your boundary on the east from Ha'zar-e'nan to She'pham. 11 And the boundary must go down from She'pham to Rib'lah on the east of A'in, and the border must go down and strike upon the eastern slope of the sea of Chin'ne-reth.<sup>b</sup> 12 And the border must go down to the Jordan, and its termination must prove to be the Salt Sea.<sup>c</sup> This will become your land<sup>d</sup> according to its boundaries all around.<sup>e</sup>

13 So Moses commanded the sons of Israel, saying: "This is the land that you will apportion to yourselves as a possession by lot,<sup>e</sup> just as Jehovah has commanded to give to the nine and a half tribes.<sup>f</sup> 14 For the tribe of the sons of the Reu'ben-ites by the house of their fathers and the tribe of the sons of the Gad'ites by the house of their fathers have already taken, and the half tribe of Ma-nas'seh have already taken their inheritance.<sup>g</sup> 15 The two and a half tribes have already taken their inheritance from the region of the Jordan by Jer'i-cho eastward toward the sunrising."<sup>h</sup>

16 And Jehovah spoke further to Moses, saying: 17 "These are the names of the men who will divide the land to you people for a possession, El-e-a'zar<sup>i</sup> the priest and Joshua the son of Nun.<sup>j</sup> 18 And you will take one chieftain out of each tribe to divide the land for a possession.<sup>k</sup> 19 And these are the names of the men: Of the tribe of Judah,<sup>l</sup> Caleb the son of Je-phun'neh;<sup>m</sup> 20 and of the tribe of the sons of Sim'e-on,<sup>n</sup> She-mu'el the son of Am-mi'hud; 21 of the tribe of Benjamin,<sup>o</sup> E-li'dad the son of Chis'lon; 22 and of the tribe of the sons of Dan<sup>p</sup> a chieftain, Buk'ki the son of Jog'li; 23 of the sons of Joseph,<sup>a</sup> of the tribe of the sons of Ma-na's'seh<sup>b</sup> a chieftain, Han'ni-el the son of E'phod; 24 and of the tribe of the sons of E'phra-im<sup>c</sup> a chieftain, Kem-u'el the son of Shiph'-tan; 25 and of the tribe of the sons of Zeb'u-lun<sup>d</sup> a chieftain, E-li-za'phan the son of Par'nach; 26 and of the tribe of the sons of Is'sa-char<sup>e</sup> a chieftain, Pal'-ti-el the son of Az'zan; 27 and of the tribe of the sons of Ash'-er<sup>f</sup> a chieftain, A-hi'hud the son of She-lo'mi; 28 and of the tribe of the sons of Naph'ta-li<sup>g</sup> a chieftain, Ped-ah'el the son of Am-mi'hud." 29 These are the ones whom Jehovah commanded to make the sons of Israel landholders in the land of Ca'naan.<sup>h</sup>

35 And Jehovah went on to speak to Moses on the desert plains of Mo'ab by the Jordan<sup>i</sup> at Jer'i-cho, saying: 2 "Give the sons of Israel the command that they must give the Levites cities<sup>j</sup> to inhabit out of the inheritance of their possession, and they should give the Levites the pasture ground of the cities all around them.<sup>k</sup> 3 And the cities must serve for them to inhabit, while their pasture grounds will serve for their domestic animals and their goods and for all their wild beasts. 4 And the pasture grounds of the cities, which you will give the Levites, will be from the wall of the city and out for a thousand cubits all around. 5 And you must measure outside the city on the east side two thousand cubits and on the south side two thousand cubits and on the west side two thousand cubits and on the north side two thousand cubits, with the city in the middle. 16 "Now if it was with an instrument of iron that he has struck him so that he dies, he is a murderer.<sup>n</sup> Without fail the murderer should be put to death.<sup>o</sup> 17 And if it was with a small stone by which he could die that he has struck him so that he

33 "And you must not pollute the land in which you are; because it is blood that pollutes the land,<sup>f</sup> and for the land there may be no atonement respecting the blood that has been spilled upon it except by the blood of the one spilling it.<sup>g</sup> 34 And you must not defile the land in which you are dwelling, in the midst of which I am residing; for I Jehovah am residing in the midst of the sons of Israel.<sup>h</sup>

36 And the heads of the fathers of the family of the sons of Gil'e-ad the son of Ma'chir<sup>i</sup> the son of Ma-nas'seh of the families of the sons of Joseph proceeded to come near and speak before Moses and the chieftains, the heads of the fathers of the sons of Israel, 2 and say: "Jehovah commanded my lord to give the land in inheritance by lot<sup>j</sup> to the sons of Israel; and my lord was commanded by Jehovah to give the inheritance of Ze-lo'p'he-had our brother to his daughters.<sup>k</sup> 3 If any of the sons of the other tribes of the sons of Israel happened to get them as wives, the women's inheritance must also be

5 Then Moses commanded the sons of Israel at the order of Jehovah, saying: "The tribe of the sons of Joseph is speaking right. 6 This is the word that Jehovah has commanded for the daughters of Ze-lo'phe-had,<sup>c</sup> saying, "To whom it is good in their eyes they may become wives. Only it is to the family of the tribe of their fathers that they should become wives."<sup>d</sup> 7 And no inheritance of the sons of Israel should circulate from tribe to tribe, because the sons of Israel should cleave each one to the inheritance of the tribe of his forefathers. 8 And every daughter

10 Just as Jehovah had commanded Moses, that is the way the daughters of Ze-lo'phe-had did.<sup>b</sup> 11 Accordingly Mah'lah, Tir'zah and Hog'lah and Mil'cah and Noah, the daughters of Ze-lo'phe-had,<sup>c</sup> became the wives of the sons of their father's brothers. 12 To some of the families of the sons of Ma-nas'seh the son of Joseph they became wives, that their inheritance might continue together with the tribe of the family of their father.

13 These are the commandments<sup>d</sup> and the judicial decisions that Jehovah commanded by means of Moses to the sons of Israel on the desert plains of Mo'ab by the Jordan at Jer'i-cho.<sup>e</sup> hear the little one the same as the great one.<sup>a</sup> You must not become frightened because of a man,<sup>b</sup> for the judgment belongs to God;<sup>c</sup> and the case that is too hard for you, you should present to me, and I must hear it.<sup>d</sup> 18 And I proceeded to command you at that particular time all the things that you should do.

19 "Then we pulled away from Ho'reb and went marching through all that great and fear-inspiring wilderness,<sup>e</sup> which you have seen, by the way of the mountainous region of the Am'-or-ites,<sup>f</sup> just as Jehovah our God had commanded us; and we eventually came to Ka'desh-bar'ne-a.<sup>g</sup> 20 I now said to you, 'You have come to the mountainous region of the Am'-or-ites, which Jehovah our God is giving to us.<sup>h</sup> 21 See, Jehovah your God has abandoned the land to you.<sup>i</sup> Go up, take possession, just as Jehovah the God of your forefathers has spoken to you.<sup>j</sup> Do not be afraid, nor be terrified.<sup>k</sup>

22 "However, all of you came near to me and said, 'Do let us send men ahead of us that they may search out the land for us and bring us back word concerning the way by which we should go up and the cities to which we will come.'<sup>l</sup> 23 Well, the thing proved to be good in my eyes, so that I took twelve men of YOURS, one for each tribe.<sup>m</sup> 24 Then they turned and went up into the mountainous region<sup>n</sup> and got as far as the torrent valley of Esh'-col<sup>o</sup> and went spying on it. 25 And they proceeded to take some of the fruitage of the land<sup>p</sup> in their hand and to bring it down to us, and they came bringing us back word and saying, 'The land that Jehovah our God is giving us is good.'<sup>q</sup> 26 But you did not wish to go up,<sup>r</sup> and you began to behave rebel-

Our brothers have caused our heart to melt,<sup>e</sup> saying: 'A people greater and taller than we are,<sup>f</sup> cities great and fortified to the heavens<sup>g</sup> and also the sons of the An'a-kim<sup>h</sup> we saw there.'"

29 "So I said to you, 'You must not suffer a shock or be afraid because of them.'<sup>i</sup> 30 Jehovah your God is the one going before you. He will fight for you<sup>j</sup> according to all that he did with you in Egypt under your own eyes,<sup>k</sup> 31 and in the wilderness,<sup>l</sup> where you saw how Jehovah your God carried you<sup>m</sup> just as a man carries his son, in all the way that you walked until your coming to this place.'<sup>n</sup> 32 But despite this word you were not putting faith in Jehovah your God,<sup>o</sup> 33 who was going before you in the way to spy out for you a place for you to camp,<sup>p</sup> by fire at night for you to see by what way you should walk and by a cloud in daytime.<sup>q</sup>

34 "All the while Jehovah heard the voice of your words. So he became indignant and swore,<sup>r</sup> saying, 35 'Not one among these men of this evil generation will see the good land that I swore to give to your fathers,<sup>s</sup> 36 except Ca'leb the son of Jephun'neh.<sup>t</sup> He will see it, and to him and to his sons I shall give the land upon which he trod, by reason of the fact that he has followed Jehovah fully.'<sup>u</sup> 37 (Even against me Jehovah got incensed on your account, saying, 'You too will not go in there.'<sup>v</sup> 38 Joshua the son of Nun, who is standing before you, is the one who will go in there.'<sup>w</sup> Him he has made strong,<sup>x</sup> because he will cause Is-

41 "At this you answered and said to me, 'We have sinned against Jehovah.'<sup>c</sup> We—we shall go up and fight in accord with all that Jehovah our God has commanded us! So you girded on, each one, his weapons of war and regarded it as easy to go up into the mountain.<sup>d</sup> 42 But Jehovah said to me, 'Say to them: "You must not go up and fight, because I am not in your midst;<sup>e</sup> that you may not be defeated before your enemies."<sup>f</sup> 43 So I spoke to you, and you did not listen but began to behave rebelliously<sup>g</sup> against Jehovah's order and to get all heated up, and you tried to go up into the mountain.<sup>h</sup> 44 Then the Am'or-ites who were dwelling in that mountain came out to meet you and went chasing you,<sup>i</sup> just as bees do, and scattering you in Se'ir as far as Hor'mah.<sup>j</sup> 45 After that you returned and began to weep before Jehovah, but Jehovah did not listen to your voice,<sup>k</sup> neither did he give ear to you.<sup>l</sup> 46 So you kept dwelling in Ka'desh many days, as many days as you did dwell there."<sup>m</sup> sons and all his people. 34 And we went capturing all his cities at that particular time and devoting every city to destruction,<sup>a</sup> men and women and little children. We left no survivor. 35 Only the domestic animals did we take as plunder for ourselves, together with the spoil of the cities that we had captured.<sup>b</sup> 36 From A-ro'er,<sup>c</sup> which is by the bank of the torrent valley of Ar'-non, and the city that is in the torrent valley, as far as Gil'e-ad, there proved to be no town that was too high up for us.<sup>d</sup> Jehovah our God abandoned them all to us. 37 Only you did not go near the land of the sons of Am'mon,<sup>e</sup> the whole bank of the torrent valley of Jab'boq,<sup>f</sup> nor the cities of the mountainous region, nor anything about which Jehovah our God had given command.

3 "Then we turned and went up by the way of Ba'shan. At this Og<sup>g</sup> the king of Ba'shan came on out, he and all his people, to meet us in battle at Ed're-i.<sup>h</sup> 2 So Jehovah said to me, 'Do not be afraid of him,<sup>i</sup> for I shall certainly give him and all his people and his land into your hand; and you must do to him just as you did to Si'hon<sup>j</sup> the king of the Am'or-ites, who was dwelling in Hesh'-bon.' 3 Accordingly Jehovah our God gave into our hand also Og the king of Ba'shan and all his people, and we kept striking him until he had no survivor remaining.<sup>k</sup> 4 And we went capturing all his cities at that particular time. There proved to be no town that we did not take from them, sixty cities,<sup>l</sup> all the region of Ar'gob,<sup>m</sup> the kingdom of Og in Ba'shan.<sup>n</sup> 5 All these were cities fortified with a high wall, doors and bar, aside from very many rural towns. 6 However, we devoted them to destruction,<sup>o</sup> just as we had done to Si'hon the king of Hesh'-bon, in devoting every city to destruction, men, women and little children.<sup>a</sup> 7 And all the domestic animals and the spoil of the cities we took as plunder for ourselves.<sup>b</sup>

8 "And we proceeded to take at that particular time the land from the hand of the two kings of the Am'or-ites<sup>c</sup> who were in the region of the Jordan, from the torrent valley of Ar'non<sup>d</sup> as far as Mount Her'mon;<sup>e</sup> 9 (the Si-do'ni-ans used to call Her'mon Sir'i-on,<sup>f</sup> and the Am'or-ites used to call it Se'nir,<sup>g</sup>) 10 all the cities of the tableland and all Gil'e-ad and all Ba'shan as far as Sal'e-cah<sup>h</sup> and Ed're-i,<sup>i</sup> the cities of the kingdom of Og in Ba'shan. 11 For only Og the king of Ba'shan remained of what was left of the Reph'a-im.<sup>j</sup> Look! His bier was a bier of iron. Is it not in Rab'bah<sup>k</sup> of the sons of Am'mon? Nine cubits is its length, and four cubits its width, by the cubit of a man. 12 And we took possession of this land at that particular time; from A-ro'er,<sup>l</sup> which is by the torrent valley of Ar'non, and half of the mountainous region of Gil'e-ad, and its cities I have given to the Reu'ben-ites and the Gad'ites.<sup>m</sup> 13 And the rest of Gil'e-ad<sup>n</sup> and all Ba'shan<sup>o</sup> of the kingdom of Og I have given to the half tribe of Ma-nas'-seh. All the region of Ar'gob<sup>p</sup> of all Ba'shan, is it not called the land of the Reph'a-im?<sup>q</sup>

the boundary of the sons of Am'mon;<sup>a</sup> 17 and the Ar'a-bah and the Jordan and the border, from Chin'ne-reth<sup>b</sup> to the sea of the Ar'a-bah, the Salt Sea,<sup>c</sup> at the base of the slopes of Pis'gah<sup>d</sup> toward the sunrising.

18 "So I commanded you men at that particular time, saying, 'Jehovah YOUR God has given you this land to take possession of it. You will pass over, equipped, before your brothers, the sons of Israel, all the valiant men.<sup>e</sup> 19 Only your wives and your little ones and your livestock (I well know that you have a great deal of livestock) will continue dwelling in your cities that I have given you.<sup>f</sup> 20 until Jehovah gives YOUR brothers rest, as well as you, and they also have taken possession of the land that Jehovah YOUR God is giving them across the Jordan; after which you must come back, each one to his holding that I have given YOU.<sup>g</sup>'

21 "And I commanded Joshua<sup>h</sup> at that particular time, saying, 'Your eyes are seeing all that Jehovah YOUR God has done to these two kings. The same way Jehovah will do to all the kingdoms to which you are passing over there.<sup>i</sup> 22 You men must not be afraid of them, for Jehovah YOUR God is the One fighting for you.<sup>j</sup>'

23 "And I proceeded to implore favor from Jehovah at that particular time, saying, 24 'O Sovereign Lord Jehovah, you yourself have started to make your servant see your greatness<sup>k</sup> and your strong arm,<sup>l</sup> for who is a god in the heavens or on the earth that does deeds like yours and mighty performances like yours?<sup>m</sup> 25 Let me pass over, please, and see the good land<sup>n</sup> that is across the Jordan, this good mountainous re-hovah had spoken with you in the mountain out of the middle of the fire in the day of the congregation.<sup>a</sup> 11 And it came about that at the end of the forty days and forty nights Jehovah gave me the two tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant;<sup>b</sup> 12 and Jehovah proceeded to say to me, 'Get up, go down quickly from here, because your people whom you brought out of Egypt have acted ruinously.<sup>c</sup> They have turned aside quickly from the way about which I commanded them. They have made themselves a molten image.'<sup>d</sup> 13 And Jehovah went on to say this to me, 'I have seen this people, and, look! it is a stiff-necked people.<sup>e</sup> 14 Let me alone that I may annihilate<sup>f</sup> them and wipe out their name from under the heavens,<sup>g</sup> and let me make you a nation mightier and more populous than they are.'<sup>h</sup>

15 "After that I turned and went down from the mountain, while the mountain was burning with fire;<sup>i</sup> and the two tablets of the covenant were in both my hands.<sup>j</sup> 16 Then I looked, and there you had sinned against Jehovah YOUR God! You had made yourselves a molten calf.<sup>k</sup> You had turned aside quickly from the way about which Jehovah had commanded you.<sup>l</sup> 17 At that I took hold of the two tablets and flung them down from both my hands and shattered them before YOUR eyes.<sup>m</sup> 18 And I proceeded to prostrate myself before Jehovah, as at first, forty days and forty nights. I neither ate bread nor drank water,<sup>n</sup> because of all YOUR sin that you had committed in doing evil in the eyes of Jehovah so as to offend him.<sup>o</sup> 19 For I was scared because of the hot anger with which Jehovah had got indignant at you to the point of annihilating you.<sup>p</sup> However, Jehovah listened to me also that time.<sup>q</sup>

25 "So I kept prostrating myself before Jehovah forty days and forty nights,<sup>n</sup> for I prostrated myself thus because Jehovah talked of annihilating you.<sup>o</sup> 26 And I began to make supplication<sup>p</sup> to Jehovah and to say, 'O Sovereign Lord Jehovah, do not bring to ruin your people, even your private property,<sup>q</sup> whom you redeemed with your greatness, whom you brought out of Egypt<sup>r</sup> with a strong hand.<sup>s</sup> 27 Remember your servants Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.<sup>t</sup> Do not turn your face to the hardness of this people and their wickedness and their sin,<sup>u</sup> 28 for fear the land<sup>v</sup> out of which you brought us may say: "Because Jehovah was unable to bring them into the land that he had promised them, and because he hated them he brought them out to put them to death in the wilderness.”<sup>a</sup> 29 They are, too, your people and your private property<sup>b</sup> whom you brought out with your great power and your outstretched arm.<sup>c</sup>

10 “At that particular time Jehovah said to me, ‘Carve for yourself two tablets of stone like the first ones,<sup>d</sup> and come up to me into the mountain, and you must make an ark of wood<sup>e</sup> for yourself. 2 And I shall write upon the tablets the words that appeared on the first tablets, which you shattered, and you must place them in the ark.’ 3 So I made an ark of acacia wood and carved two tablets of stone like the first ones<sup>f</sup> and went up into the mountain, and the two tablets were in my hand. 4 Then he wrote upon the tablets the same writing as the first,<sup>g</sup> the Ten Words,<sup>h</sup> which Jehovah had spoken to you in the mountain out of the middle of the fire<sup>i</sup> in the day of the congregation;<sup>j</sup> after which Jehovah gave them to me. 5 Then I turned and went down from the mountain<sup>k</sup> and placed the tablets in the ark that I had made, that they might continue there, just as Jehovah had commanded me.<sup>l</sup>

6 “And the sons of Israel pulled away from Be-er’oth Ben’e-ja’a-kan<sup>m</sup> for Mo-se’rah. There Aaron died, and he got to be buried there;<sup>n</sup> and Ele-a-zar his son began to act as priest instead of him.<sup>o</sup> 7 From there they pulled away for Gud’go-dah, and from Gud’go-dah for Jot’ba-thah,<sup>p</sup> a land of torrent valleys running with water.

8 “At that particular time Jehovah separated the tribe of Le’-vi<sup>q</sup> to carry the ark of Jehovah’s covenant,<sup>r</sup> to stand before Jehovah for ministering to him<sup>s</sup> and to bless in his name until this day.<sup>t</sup> 9 That is why Le’vi has come to have no share and inheritance<sup>u</sup> with his brothers. for you, (because Jehovah your God will bless you.)<sup>a</sup> 25 you must then turn it into money, and you must wrap the money up in your hand and travel to the place that Jehovah your God will choose. 26 You must also give the money for whatever your soul may crave<sup>b</sup> in the way of cattle and sheep and goats and wine and intoxicating liquor<sup>c</sup> and anything that your soul may ask<sup>d</sup> of you; and you must eat there before Jehovah your God and rejoice,<sup>d</sup> you and your household. 27 And the Levite who is inside your gates, you must not abandon him,<sup>e</sup> for he has no share or inheritance with you.<sup>f</sup>

28 "At the end of three years you will bring out the entire tenth part of your produce in that year,<sup>g</sup> and you must deposit it inside your gates. 29 And the Levite,<sup>h</sup> because he has no share or inheritance with you, and the alien resident<sup>i</sup> and the fatherless boy and the widow,<sup>j</sup> who are inside your gates, must come, and they must eat and satisfy themselves; in order that Jehovah your God may bless<sup>k</sup> you in every deed<sup>l</sup> of your hand that you will do.

15 "At the end of every seven years you should make a release. 2 And this is the manner of the release:<sup>m</sup> there will be a releasing by every creditor of the debt that he may let his fellow incur. He should not press his fellow or his brother for payment,<sup>n</sup> because a release to Jehovah must be called.<sup>o</sup> 3 The foreigner<sup>p</sup> you may press for payment; but whatever of yours may prove to be with your brother let your hand release. 4 However, no one should come to be poor among you, because Jehovah will without fail bless<sup>q</sup> you in the land that Jehovah your God is giving you as an inheritance to take possession of it,<sup>r</sup> 5 only if you will without fail listen to the voice of Jehovah your God so as to be careful to do all this commandment that I am commanding you today.<sup>a</sup> 6 For Jehovah your God will indeed bless you just as he has promised you, and you will certainly lend<sup>b</sup> on pledge to many nations, whereas you yourself will not borrow; and you must dominate over many nations, whereas over you they will not dominate.<sup>c</sup>

7 "In case some one of your brothers becomes poor among you in one of your cities, in your land that Jehovah your God is giving you, you must not harden your heart or be closefisted toward your poor brother.<sup>d</sup> 8 For you should generously open your hand to him<sup>e</sup> and by all means lend him on pledge as much as he needs, which he is in want of. 9 Watch out for yourself for fear a base word should come to be in your heart,<sup>f</sup> saying, 'The seventh year, the year of the release, has come close,'<sup>g</sup> and your eye should indeed become ungenerous toward your poor brother,<sup>h</sup> and you should give him nothing, and he has to call out to Jehovah against you,<sup>i</sup> and it has become a sin on your part.<sup>j</sup> 10 You should by all means give to him,<sup>k</sup> and your heart should not be stingy in your giving to him, because on this account Jehovah your God will bless you in every deed of yours and in every undertaking of yours.<sup>l</sup> 11 For someone poor will never cease to be in the midst of the land.<sup>m</sup> That is why I am commanding you, saying, 'You should generously open up your hand to your afflicted and poor brother in your land.'<sup>n</sup>

doing these things is something detestable to Jehovah, and on account of these detestable things Jehovah your God is driving them away from before you.<sup>a</sup> 13 You should prove yourself faultless with Jehovah your God.<sup>b</sup>

14 "For these nations whom you are dispossessing used to listen to those practicing magic<sup>c</sup> and to those who divine;<sup>d</sup> but as for you, Jehovah your God has not given you anything like this.<sup>e</sup>

15 A prophet from your own midst, from your brothers, like me, is what Jehovah your God will raise up for you—to him you people should listen.<sup>f</sup>— 16 In response to all that you asked of Jehovah your God in Ho'reb on the day of the congregation,<sup>g</sup> saying, 'Do not let me hear again the voice of Jehovah my God, and this great fire do not let me see anymore, that I may not die.'<sup>h</sup>

17 At that Jehovah said to me, 'They have done well in speaking what they did.'<sup>i</sup> 18 A prophet I shall raise up for them from the midst of their brothers, like you;<sup>j</sup> and I shall indeed put my words in his mouth,<sup>k</sup> and he will certainly speak to them all that I shall command him.<sup>l</sup> 19 And it must occur that the man who will not listen to my words that he will speak in my name, I shall myself require an account from him.<sup>m</sup> er, 19 you must also do to him just as he had schemed to do to his brother,<sup>a</sup> and you must clear away what is bad from your midst.<sup>b</sup> 20 So those who remain will hear and be afraid, and they will never again do anything bad like this in your midst.<sup>c</sup> 21 And your eye should not feel sorry:<sup>d</sup> soul will be for soul, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.<sup>e</sup>

20 "In case you go out to the battle against your enemies and you actually see horses and war chariots,<sup>f</sup> a people more numerous than you, you must not be afraid of them; for Jehovah your God is with you,<sup>g</sup> who brought you up out of the land of Egypt.<sup>h</sup> 2 And it must occur that when you have drawn near to the battle, the priest must also approach and speak to the people.<sup>i</sup> 3 And he must say to them, 'Hear, O Israel, you are drawing near today to the battle against your enemies. Do not let your hearts be timid.<sup>j</sup> Do not be afraid and run in panic or shudder because of them,<sup>k</sup> 4 for Jehovah your God is marching with you to fight for you against your enemies so as to save you.'<sup>l</sup>

5 "The officers<sup>m</sup> too must speak to the people, saying, 'Who is the man that has built a new house and has not inaugurated it? Let him go and return to his house, for fear he may die in the battle and another man should inaugurate it.<sup>n</sup> 6 And who is the man that has planted a vineyard and not begun to use it? Let him go and return to his house, for fear he may die in the battle and another man should begin to use it.<sup>o</sup> 7 And who is the man that has become engaged to a woman and has not taken her? die in the battle and another man should take her.' 8 And the officers must speak further to the people and say, 'Who is the man that is fearful and fainthearted?<sup>a</sup> Let him go and return to his house, that he may not cause the hearts of his brothers to melt as his own heart.'<sup>b</sup> 9 And it must occur that when the officers have finished speaking to the people, they must also appoint chiefs of the armies at the head of the people.

10 "In case you draw near to a city to fight against it, you must also announce to it terms of peace.<sup>c</sup> 11 And it must occur that if it gives a peaceful answer to you and it has opened up to you, it must even occur that all the people found in it should become yours for forced labor, and they must serve you.<sup>d</sup> 12 But if it does not make peace with you,<sup>e</sup> and it actually makes war with you and you have to besiege it, 13 Jehovah your God also will certainly give it into your hand, and you must strike every male in it with the edge of the sword.<sup>f</sup> 14 Only the women and the little children<sup>g</sup> and the domestic animals<sup>h</sup> and everything that happens to be in the city, all its spoil you will plunder for yourself;<sup>i</sup> and you must eat the spoil of your enemies, whom Jehovah your God has given to you.<sup>j</sup>

15 "That is the way you will do to all the cities very far away from you that are not of the cities of these nations. 16 It is only of the cities of these peoples that Jehovah your God is giving you as an inheritance that you must not preserve any breathing thing alive,<sup>k</sup> 17 because you should without fail devote them to destruction, the Hittites and the Amorites, the Canaanites and the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites,<sup>l</sup> just as Jehovah your God has commanded you; 18 in order that they may not teach you to do according to all their detestable things, which they have done to their gods, and you may indeed sin against Jehovah your God.<sup>m</sup>

19 "In case you lay siege to a city many days by fighting against it so as to capture it, you must not ruin its trees by wielding an ax against them; for you should eat from them, and you must not cut them down,<sup>n</sup> for is the tree of the field a man to be besieged by you? 20 Only a tree that you know is not a tree for food, it is the one you should ruin, and you must cut it down and build siegeworks<sup>o</sup> against the city that is making war with you, until it falls.

21 "In case someone is found slain on the ground that Jehovah your God is giving you to take possession of it, fallen on the field, and it has not become known who struck him fatally,<sup>p</sup> 2 your older men and your judges<sup>q</sup> must also go out and measure to the cities that are all around the slain one; 3 and it must prove to be the city nearest to the slain one. And the older men of that city must take a young cow of the herd that has not been worked with, that has not pulled in a yoke; 4 and the older men of that city must lead the young cow down to a torrent valley running with water in which there was customarily no tilling or sowing of seed, and they must break the neck of the young cow there in the torrent valley.<sup>r</sup>

5 "And the priests the sons of Levi must approach, because they are the ones Jehovah your God has chosen to minister to him<sup>s</sup> and to bless<sup>t</sup> in the name of Jehovah and at whose mouth every dispute over every violent deed should be disposed of.<sup>u</sup> 6 Then all the older men of that city who are nearest to the slain one should wash their hands<sup>v</sup> over the young cow, the neck of

And the bloodguilt must not be set to their account. <sup>9</sup> And you—you will clear away the guilt of innocent blood from your midst,<sup>d</sup> because you will do what is right in Jehovah's eyes.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>10</sup> "In case you go out to the battle against your enemies and Jehovah your God has given them into your hand<sup>f</sup> and you have carried them away captive;<sup>g</sup> <sup>11</sup> and you have seen among the captives a woman beautiful in form, and you have got attached to her<sup>h</sup> and taken her for your wife, <sup>12</sup> you must then bring her into the midst of your house. She must now shave her head<sup>i</sup> and attend to her nails, <sup>13</sup> and remove the mantle of her captivity from off her and dwell in your house and weep for her father and her mother a whole lunar month;<sup>j</sup> and after that you should have relations with her, and you must take possession of her as your bride, and she must become your wife. <sup>14</sup> And it must occur that if you have found no delight in her, you must then send her away,<sup>k</sup> agreeably to her own soul; but you must by no means sell her for money. You must not deal tyrannically<sup>l</sup> with her after you have humiliated her.

<sup>15</sup> "In case a man comes to have two wives, the one loved and the other hated, and they, the loved one and the hated one, have borne sons to him, and the firstborn son has come to be of the hated one,<sup>m</sup> <sup>16</sup> it must also occur that in the day that he gives as an inheritance to his sons what he happens to have, he will not be allowed to constitute the son of the loved one his firstborn at the expense of the hated one's son, the firstborn.<sup>n</sup> <sup>17</sup> For he should recognize as the firstborn the hated one's son by giving him two parts in everything he is found to have,<sup>b</sup> because that one is the beginning of his generative power.<sup>c</sup> The right of the firstborn's position belongs to him.<sup>d</sup>

Jehovah your God will without fail require it of you, and it would indeed become a sin on your part.<sup>a</sup> 22 But in case you omit making a vow, it will not become a sin on your part.<sup>b</sup> 23 The utterance of your lips you should keep,<sup>c</sup> and you must do just as you have vowed to Jehovah your God as a voluntary offering that you spoke of with your mouth.<sup>d</sup>

24 "In case you go into the vineyard of your fellowman, you must eat only enough grapes for you to satisfy your soul, but you must not put any into a receptacle of yours.<sup>e</sup>

25 "In case you go into the standing grain of your fellowman, you must pluck off only the ripe ears with your hand, but the sickle you must not swing to and fro upon the standing grain of your fellowman.<sup>f</sup>

24 "In case a man takes a woman and does make her his possession as a wife, it must also occur that if she should find no favor in his eyes because he has found something indecent on her part,<sup>g</sup> he must also write out a certificate of divorce<sup>h</sup> for her and put it in her hand and dismiss her from his house.<sup>i</sup> 2 And she must go out of his house and go and become another man's.<sup>j</sup> 3 If the latter man has come to hate her and has written out a certificate of divorce for her and put it in her hand and dismissed her from his house, or in case the latter man who took her as his wife should die, 4 the first owner of her who dismissed her will not be allowed to take her back again to become his wife after she has been defiled;<sup>k</sup> for that is something detestable before Jehovah, and you must not lead the land that Jehovah your God is giving you as an inheritance into sin.

5 "In case a man takes a new wife,<sup>l</sup> he should not go out into the army, nor should anything else be imposed onto him. He should continue exempt at his house for one year, and he must make his wife whom he has taken rejoice.<sup>a</sup>

6 "No one should seize a hand mill or its upper grindstone as a pledge,<sup>b</sup> because it is a soul that he is seizing as a pledge.

7 "In case a man is found kidnapping<sup>c</sup> a soul of his brothers of the sons of Israel, and he has dealt tyrannically with him and sold him,<sup>d</sup> that kidnapper must also die. And you must clear away what is bad from your midst.<sup>e</sup>

8 "Be on your guard in the plague of leprosy<sup>f</sup> to take good care and do according to all that the priests, the Levites, will instruct you.<sup>g</sup> Just as I have commanded them, you should be careful<sup>h</sup> to do. 9 There should be a remembering of what Jehovah your God did to Mir'i-am in the way when you were coming out of Egypt.<sup>i</sup>

10 "In case you lend your fellowman a loan of any sort,<sup>j</sup> you must not enter into his house to take from him what he has pledged.<sup>k</sup> 11 You should stand on the outside, and the man to whom you are making a loan should bring the pledge outside to you. 12 And if the man is in trouble, you must not go to bed with his pledge.<sup>l</sup> 13 You should by all means return the pledge to him as soon as the sun sets,<sup>m</sup> and he must go to bed in his garment,<sup>n</sup> and he must bless<sup>o</sup> you; and it will mean righteousness for you before Jehovah your God.<sup>p</sup>

earth,<sup>a</sup> and there you will have to serve other gods whom you have not known, neither you nor your forefathers, wood and stone.<sup>b</sup>

65 And among those nations you will have no ease,<sup>c</sup> nor will there prove to be any resting-place for the sole of your foot; and Jehovah will indeed give you there a trembling heart<sup>d</sup> and a failing of the eyes<sup>e</sup> and despair of soul.

66 And you will certainly be in the greatest peril for your life and be in dread night and day, and you will not be sure of your life.<sup>f</sup>

67 In the morning you will say, 'If it only were evening!' and in the evening you will say, 'If it only were morning!' because of the dread of your heart with which you will be in dread and because of the sight of your eyes that you will see.<sup>g</sup> 68 And Jehovah will certainly bring you back to Egypt by ships by the way about which I have said to you, 'You will never see it again,'<sup>h</sup> and you will have to sell yourselves there to your enemies as slave men and maidservants,<sup>i</sup> but there will be no buyer.<sup>j</sup>

29 These are the words of the covenant that Jehovah commanded Moses to conclude with the sons of Israel in the land of Mo'ab aside from the covenant that he had concluded with them in Ho'reb.<sup>k</sup>

2 And Moses proceeded to call all Israel and to say to them: "You were the ones seeing all that Jehovah did before YOUR eyes in the land of Egypt to Phar'ah and all his servants and all his land,<sup>k</sup> 3 the great provings that your eyes saw,<sup>l</sup> those great signs<sup>m</sup> and miracles.<sup>n</sup> 4 And yet Jehovah has not given you a heart to know and eyes to see and ears to hear down to this day.<sup>o</sup> 5 'While I kept guiding you forty years in the wilderness,<sup>p</sup> YOUR garments did not wear out upon you, and your sandal did not wear out upon your foot.<sup>a</sup> 6 Bread you did not eat,<sup>b</sup> and wine and intoxicating liquor you did not drink, in order that you might know that I am Jehovah your God.<sup>c</sup> 7 Eventually you came to this place, and Si'hon the king of Hesh'bon<sup>e</sup> and Og<sup>d</sup> the king of Ba'shan proceeded to come out to meet us in battle, but we defeated them.<sup>e</sup> 8 After that we took their land and gave it as an inheritance to the Reu'ben-ites and the Gad-ites and half the tribe of the Manas'sites.<sup>f</sup> 9 So you must keep the words of this covenant and do them, in order that you may make everything you will do turn out well.<sup>g</sup>

10 "You are all of you stationed today before Jehovah your God, the heads of your tribes, your older men and your officers, every man of Israel,<sup>h</sup> 11 your little ones, your wives,<sup>i</sup> and your alien resident<sup>j</sup> who is in the midst of your camp, from the gatherer of your wood to the drawer of your water,<sup>k</sup> 12 in order for you to enter into the covenant<sup>l</sup> of Jehovah your God and his oath, which Jehovah your God is concluding with you today;<sup>m</sup> 13 for the purpose of establishing you today as his people<sup>n</sup> and that he may prove himself your God,<sup>o</sup> just as he has promised you and just as he has sworn to your forefathers Abraham,<sup>p</sup> Isaac<sup>q</sup> and Jacob.<sup>r</sup>

used to see their disgusting things and their dungy idols,<sup>a</sup> wood and stone, silver and gold, that were with them.) 18 that there may not be among you a man or a woman or a family or a tribe whose heart is turning today away from Jehovah our God to go and serve the gods of those nations;<sup>b</sup> that there may not be among you a root bearing the fruit of a poisonous plant and wormwood.<sup>c</sup>

19 "And it must occur that when someone has heard the words of this oath,<sup>d</sup> and he has blessed himself in his heart, saying, 'I shall come to have peace,<sup>e</sup> although I shall walk in the stubbornness of my heart,'<sup>f</sup> with the intention of sweeping away the well-watered one along with the thirsty one, 20 Jehovah will not want to forgive him,<sup>g</sup> but then Jehovah's anger<sup>h</sup> and his ardor<sup>i</sup> will smoke against that man,<sup>j</sup> and all the oath written in this book<sup>k</sup> will certainly settle down on him, and Jehovah will indeed wipe out his name from under the heavens. 21 So Jehovah will have to separate<sup>l</sup> him for calamity from all the tribes of Israel in accord with all the oath of the covenant that is written in this book of the law.

22 "And the future generation, your sons who will rise up after you, will be bound to say, also the foreigner who will come from a distant land, even when they have seen the plagues of that land and its maladies with which Jehovah has sickened it,<sup>m</sup> 23 sulphur and salt<sup>n</sup> and burning,<sup>o</sup> so that its whole land will not be sown, nor sprout, nor will any vegetation spring up in it, like the overthrow of Sod'om and Go-mor'rah,<sup>p</sup> Ad'mah<sup>q</sup> and Ze-boi'im,<sup>r</sup> which Jehovah overthrew in his anger and in his

19 "And now WRITE for yourselves this song<sup>a</sup> and teach it to the sons of Israel.<sup>b</sup> Place it in their mouths in order that this song may serve as my witness against the sons of Israel.<sup>c</sup> 20 For I shall bring them to the ground that I have sworn about to their forefathers,<sup>d</sup> which flows with milk and honey,<sup>e</sup> and they will certainly eat<sup>f</sup> and be satisfied and grow fat<sup>g</sup> and turn to other gods,<sup>h</sup> and they will indeed serve them and treat me with disrespect and break my covenant.<sup>i</sup> 21 And it must occur that when many calamities and distresses will come upon them,<sup>j</sup> this song must also answer before them as a witness, because it should not be forgotten out of the mouth of their offspring, for I well know their inclination<sup>k</sup> that they are developing today before I bring them into the land about which I have sworn."

22 So Moses wrote this song in that day, that he might teach it to the sons of Israel.<sup>l</sup>

23 And he proceeded to commission Joshua the son of Nun<sup>m</sup> and to say: "Be courageous and strong,<sup>n</sup> because you—you will bring the sons of Israel into the land about which I have sworn to them,<sup>o</sup> and I myself shall continue with you."

24 And it came about that as soon as Moses had finished writing the words of this law in a book until their completion,<sup>p</sup> 25 Moses began to command the Levites, the carriers of the ark of Jehovah's covenant,<sup>q</sup> saying: 26 "Taking this book of the law,<sup>r</sup> you must place it at the side of the ark<sup>s</sup> of the covenant of Jehovah your God, and it must serve as a witness there against you.<sup>t</sup> 27 For I—I well know your re-

One bringing you forth with childbirth pains.<sup>a</sup>

19 When Jehovah saw it, then he came to disrespect them,<sup>b</sup>

Because of the vexation his sons and his daughters gave.

20 So he said, 'Let me conceal my face from them,<sup>c</sup>

Let me see what their end will be afterward.

For they are a generation of perverseness,<sup>d</sup>

Sons in whom there is no faithfulness.<sup>e</sup>

21 They, for their part, have incited me to jealousy with what is no god;<sup>f</sup>

They have vexed me with their vain idols;<sup>g</sup>

And I, for my part, shall incite them to jealousy with what is no people;<sup>h</sup>

With a stupid nation I shall offend them.<sup>i</sup>

22 For a fire has been ignited in my anger<sup>j</sup>

And it will burn down to She'ol, the lowest place.<sup>k</sup>

And it will consume the earth and its produce<sup>l</sup>

And will set ablaze the foundations of mountains.<sup>m</sup>

23 I shall increase calamities upon them;<sup>n</sup>

My arrows I shall spend upon them.<sup>o</sup>

And bitter destruction.<sup>r</sup>

And the teeth of beasts I shall send upon them,<sup>s</sup>

With the venom of reptiles of the dust.<sup>t</sup>

25 Outdoors a sword will bereave them,<sup>u</sup>

And indoors fright,<sup>v</sup>

Of both young man and virgin.<sup>w</sup>

- 26 I should have said: "I shall disperse them,<sup>b</sup>
I will make the mention of them cease from mortal men."<sup>c</sup>
- 27 Were it not that I was afraid of vexation from the enemy,<sup>d</sup>
That their adversaries might misconstrue it,<sup>e</sup>
That they might say: "Our hand has proved superior,"<sup>f</sup>
And it was not Jehovah who worked all this out."<sup>g</sup>
- 28 For they are a nation on whom counsel perishes,<sup>h</sup>
And among them there is no understanding.<sup>i</sup>
- 29 O that they were wise! Then they would ponder over this,<sup>k</sup>
They would consider their end afterward.<sup>l</sup>
- 30 How could one pursue a thousand,
And two put ten thousand to flight?<sup>m</sup>
Not unless their Rock had sold them<sup>n</sup>
And Jehovah had surrendered them.
- 31 For their rock is not like our Rock,<sup>o</sup>
Even our enemies being the ones to decide.<sup>p</sup>
- 32 For their vine is from the vine of Sod'om
And from the terraces of Go-mor'rah.<sup>q</sup>

- 35 Vengeance is mine, and retribution.<sup>a</sup>
At the appointed time their foot will move unsteadily,<sup>b</sup>
For the day of their disaster is near,<sup>c</sup>
And the events in readiness for them do make haste.<sup>d</sup>
- 36 For Jehovah will judge his people<sup>e</sup>
And he will feel regret over his servants,<sup>f</sup>
Because he will see that support has disappeared
And there is only a helpless and worthless one.
- 37 And he will certainly say,
'Where are their gods,<sup>g</sup>
The rock in whom they sought refuge,<sup>h</sup>
- 38 Who used to eat the fat of their sacrifices,<sup>i</sup>
To drink the wine of their drink offerings?<sup>j</sup>
Let them get up and help you.<sup>k</sup>
Let them become a concealment place for you.<sup>l</sup>
- 39 SEE now that I—I am he<sup>m</sup>
And there are no gods together with me.<sup>n</sup>
I put to death, and I make alive.<sup>o</sup>
I have severely wounded,<sup>p</sup> and I—I will heal,<sup>q</sup>
And there is no one snatching out of my hand.<sup>r</sup>
- 40 For I raise my hand to heaven in an oath,<sup>s</sup>
And I do say: "As I am alive to time indefinite,"<sup>t</sup>
- 41 If I do indeed sharpen my glittering sword,<sup>u</sup>
And my hand takes hold on judgment,<sup>v</sup>
I will pay back vengeance to my adversaries<sup>w</sup>

44 Thus Moses came and spoke all the words of this song in the hearing of the people,<sup>i</sup> he and Ho-she'a the son of Nun.<sup>j</sup>

45 After Moses finished speaking all these words to all Israel, 46 he went on to say to them: "Apply your hearts to all the words that I am speaking in warning to you today,<sup>k</sup> that you may command your sons to take care to do all the words of this law.<sup>k</sup> 47 For it is no valueless word for you,<sup>l</sup> but it means your life,<sup>m</sup> and by this word you may lengthen your days upon the soil to which you are crossing the Jordan to take possession of it."<sup>n</sup>

48 And Jehovah proceeded to speak to Moses on this same day, saying: 49 "Go up into this mountain of Ab'a-rim,<sup>o</sup> Mount Ne'bo,<sup>p</sup> which is in the land of Mo'ab, which fronts toward Jericho, and see the land of Ca'naan, which I am giving to the sons of Israel as a possession.<sup>q</sup> 50 Then die on the mountain into which you are going up, and be gathered to your people,<sup>r</sup> just as Aaron your brother died on Mount Hor<sup>s</sup> and got to be gathered to his people;<sup>t</sup> 51 for the reason that you men acted un-

"Jehovah—from Si'nai he came,<sup>g</sup>

And he must reside between his shoulders."<sup>w</sup>

13 And as to Joseph he said:<sup>a</sup>

"May his land be continually blessed from Jehovah<sup>b</sup>

With the choice things of heaven, with dew,<sup>c</sup>

And with the watery deep lying down below,<sup>d</sup>

14 And with the choice things, the products of the sun,<sup>e</sup>

And with the choice things, the yield of the lunar months,<sup>f</sup>

15 And with the choicest from the mountains of the east,<sup>g</sup>

And with the choice things of the indefinitely lasting hills,

16 And with the choice things of the earth and its fullness,<sup>h</sup>

And with the approval of the One residing in the thornbush.<sup>i</sup>

May they come upon the head of Joseph<sup>j</sup>

And upon the crown of the head of the one singled out from his brothers.<sup>k</sup>

17 As the firstborn of a bull his splendor is,<sup>l</sup>

And his horns are the horns of a wild bull.<sup>m</sup>

With them he will push peoples<sup>n</sup>

All together to the ends of the earth,

And they are the tens of thousands of E'phra-im,<sup>o</sup>

And they are the thousands of Ma-nas'seh."

18 And as to Zeb'u-lun he said:<sup>p</sup>

"Rejoice, O Zeb'u-lun, in your going out,<sup>q</sup>

And, Is'sa-char, in your tents.<sup>r</sup>

19 Peoples to the mountain they will call.

There they will sacrifice the sacrifices of righteousness.<sup>s</sup>

For they will suck the abounding wealth of the seas<sup>t</sup>

- And the hidden hoards of the sand."
- 20 And as to Gad he said:<sup>a</sup>
"Blessed is the one widening the borders of Gad,<sup>b</sup>
As a lion he must reside,<sup>c</sup>
And he must tear the arm, yes, the crown of the head.<sup>d</sup>
- 21 And he will pick out the first part for himself,<sup>e</sup>
For there the allotment of a statute-giver is reserved.<sup>f</sup>
And the heads of the people will gather themselves together.
The righteousness of Jehovah will he certainly execute
And his judicial decisions with Israel."
- 22 And as to Dan he said:<sup>g</sup>
"Dan is a lion cub.<sup>h</sup>
He will leap out from Ba'-shan."<sup>i</sup>
- 23 And as to Naph'ta-li he said:<sup>j</sup>
"Naph'ta-li is satisfied with the approval
And full of the blessing of Jehovah.
Do take possession of the west and south."<sup>k</sup>
- 24 And as to Ash'er he said:<sup>l</sup>
"Blessed with sons is Ash'er."<sup>m</sup>
Let him become one approved by his brothers,<sup>n</sup>
And one dipping his foot in oil.<sup>o</sup>
- 25 Iron and copper are your gate locks,<sup>p</sup>
And in proportion to your days is your leisurely walk.
- 26 There is none like the true God<sup>q</sup> of Jesh'u-run,<sup>r</sup>
Who rides upon heaven in help of you<sup>s</sup>
And upon cloudy skies in his eminence.<sup>t</sup>
- 27 A hiding place is the God of ancient time,<sup>u</sup>

4 And Jehovah went on to say to him: "This is the land about which I have sworn to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, saying, 'To your seed I shall give it.'<sup>x</sup> I have caused you to see it with your own eyes, as you will not cross over there."<sup>y</sup>

JOSHUA

1 And it came about after the death of Moses the servant of Jehovah that Jehovah proceeded to say to Joshua<sup>a</sup> the son of Nun, the minister<sup>b</sup> of Moses: 2 "Moses my servant is dead;<sup>c</sup> and now get up, cross this Jordan, you and all this people, into the land that I am giving to them, to the sons of Israel.<sup>d</sup> 3 Every place upon which the sole of your foot will tread, to you people I shall certainly give it, just as I promised to Moses.<sup>e</sup> 4 From the wilderness and this Leb'a-non to the great river, the river Eu-phra'tes, that is, all the land of the Hit'tites,<sup>f</sup> and to the Great Sea toward the setting of the sun your territory will prove to be.<sup>g</sup> 5 Nobody will take a firm stand before you all the days of your life.<sup>h</sup> Just as I proved to be with Moses I shall prove to be with you.<sup>i</sup> I shall neither desert you nor leave you entirely.<sup>j</sup> 6 Be courageous and strong,<sup>k</sup> for you are the one who will cause this

12 And to the Reu'ben-ites and the Gad'ites and the half tribe of Ma-nas'seh Joshua said: 13 "Let there be a remembering of the word that Moses the servant of Jehovah commanded you,<sup>b</sup> saying, 'Jehovah YOUR God is giving you rest and has given you this land. 14 YOUR wives, YOUR little ones and YOUR livestock will dwell in the land that Moses has given you on this side of the Jordan;<sup>c</sup> but you men will pass over in battle formation<sup>d</sup> before your brothers, all the valiant mighty men,<sup>e</sup> and you must help them. 15 First when Jehovah gives rest to your brothers the same as to you and they also have taken possession of the land that Jehovah YOUR God is giving them,<sup>f</sup> you must also return to the land of your holding and take possession of it,<sup>g</sup> the one that Moses the servant of Jehovah has given you on the side of the Jordan toward the rising of the sun.'<sup>h</sup>"

16 Accordingly they answered Joshua, saying: "All that you have commanded us we shall do, and wherever you may send us we shall go.<sup>i</sup> 17 As we listened to Moses in everything, so we shall listen to you. Only may Jehovah your God prove to be with you<sup>j</sup> just as he proved to be with Moses.<sup>k</sup> 18 Any man that behaves rebelliously against your order<sup>l</sup> and does not listen to your words in all that you may command him will be put to death.<sup>m</sup> Only be courageous and strong."<sup>n</sup>

2 Then Joshua the son of Nun sent two men out secretly from Shit'tim<sup>a</sup> as spies, saying: "Go, take a look at the land and Jer'i-cho." So they went and came to the house of a prostitute woman whose name was Ra'-hab,<sup>b</sup> and they took up lodging there. 2 In time it was said to the king of Jer'i-cho: "Look! Men from the sons of Israel have come in here tonight to search out the land." 3 At that the king of Jer'i-cho sent to Ra'hah, saying: "Bring out the men that came to you, that have come into your house, for it is to search out all the land that they have come."<sup>c</sup>

4 Meantime the woman took the two men and concealed them. And she proceeded to say: "Yes, the men did come to me, and I did not know from where they were. 5 And it came about at the closing of the gate<sup>d</sup> by dark that the men went out. I just do not know where the men have gone. Chase after them quickly, for you will overtake them."

6 (She, though, had taken them up to the roof,<sup>e</sup> and she kept them out of sight among stalks of flax laid in rows for her upon the roof.) 7 And the men chased after them in the direction of the Jordan at the fords,<sup>f</sup> and they shut the gate immediately after those chasing after them had gone out.

8 As for these, before they could lie down, she herself came up to them on the roof. 9 And she went on to say to the men: "I do know that Jehovah will certainly give you the land,<sup>g</sup> and that the fright of you has fallen upon us,<sup>h</sup> and that all the inhabitants of the land have become disheartened because of you.<sup>i</sup> 10 For we have heard how Jehovah dried up the waters of the Red Sea from before you when you came out of Egypt,<sup>j</sup> and what you did to the two kings of the Am'or-ites who were on the other side of the Jordan, namely, Si'hon<sup>a</sup> and Og,<sup>b</sup> whom you devoted to destruction.<sup>c</sup> 11 When we got to hear it, then our hearts began to melt,<sup>d</sup> and no spirit has arisen yet in anybody because of you,<sup>e</sup> for Jehovah YOUR God is God in the heavens above and on the earth beneath.<sup>f</sup> 12 And now, please, swear to me by Jehovah<sup>g</sup> that, because I have exercised loving-kindness toward you, you also will certainly exercise loving-kindness toward the household of my father,<sup>h</sup> and you must give me a trustworthy sign.<sup>i</sup> 13 And you must preserve alive my father<sup>j</sup> and my mother and my brothers and my sisters and all who belong to them, and you must deliver our souls from death.”<sup>k</sup>

14 At that the men said to her: “Our souls are to die instead of you people!! If you will not tell about this matter of ours, it must also occur that when Jehovah gives us the land, we also shall certainly exercise loving-kindness and trustworthiness toward you.”<sup>m</sup> 15 After that she had them descend by a rope through the window, for her house was on a side of the wall, and it was on the wall that she was dwelling.<sup>n</sup> 16 And she proceeded to say to them: “Go to the mountainous region, that those in pursuit may not come in contact with you; and you must keep hid there three days, until those in pursuit have come back, and afterward you may go in YOUR own direction.”

17 In turn the men said to her: “We are free from guilt respecting this oath of yours that you have made us swear.”<sup>o</sup> 18 Look! We are coming into the land. This cord of scarlet thread you should tie in the window by which you have had us descend, and your father and your moth-

With that she sent them off, and they went their way. After that she tied the scarlet cord in the window. 22 So they went and came to the mountainous region and kept dwelling there three days, until the pursuers had come back. Now the pursuers were looking for them on every road, and they did not find them. 23 And the two men proceeded to descend again from the mountainous region and to cross over and come to Joshua the son of Nun, and they began to relate to him all the things that had happened to them. 24 And they went on to say to Joshua: “Jehovah has given all the land into our hand.<sup>d</sup> Consequently all the inhabitants of the land have also grown disheartened because of us.”<sup>e</sup>

3 Then Joshua got up early in the morning, and he and all the sons of Israel proceeded to pull away from Shit'tim<sup>f</sup> and to come as far as the Jordan; and they went spending the night there before they would cross.

2 So it came about at the end of the three days<sup>g</sup> that the officers<sup>h</sup> proceeded to pass through the midst of the camp 3 and to command the people, saying: "As soon as you see the ark of the covenant of Jehovah your God, and the priests, the Levites, carrying it,<sup>a</sup> then you yourselves will pull away from your place, and you must follow it, 4 —only let there prove to be a distance between you and it of about two thousand cubits by measure;<sup>b</sup> do not get near to it—in order that you may know the way by which you should go, for you have not passed over on that way before."

5 Joshua now said to the people: "Sanctify<sup>c</sup> yourselves, for tomorrow Jehovah will do wonderful things in your midst."<sup>d</sup>

6 Then Joshua said to the priests: "Take up the ark of the covenant<sup>e</sup> and pass before the people." So they took up the ark of the covenant and went before the people.

7 And Jehovah proceeded to say to Joshua: "This day I shall start to make you great in the eyes of all Israel,<sup>f</sup> that they may know that just as I proved to be with Moses<sup>g</sup> I shall prove to be with you.<sup>h</sup> 8 And you—you should command<sup>i</sup> the priests carrying the ark of the covenant, saying, 'As soon as you have come as far as the edge of the waters of the Jordan, you should stand<sup>j</sup> still in the Jordan.'"

9 And Joshua went on to say to the sons of Israel: "Approach here and listen to the words of Jehovah your God." 10 After that Joshua said: "By this you will know that a living God is in your midst,<sup>k</sup> and that he will without fail drive away from before you the Ca'naan-ites and the Hit'tites and the Hi'vites and the Per'iz-zites and the Gir'ga-shites and the Am'or-ites and the Jeb'u-sites.<sup>l</sup> 11 Look! the tribes of Israel, one man for each tribe.<sup>a</sup> 13 And it must occur that at the instant that the soles of the feet of the priests carrying the ark of Jehovah, the Lord of the whole earth, rest in the waters of the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan will be cut off, the waters descending from above, and they will stand still as one dam."<sup>b</sup>

14 And it came about that when the people pulled away from their tents just before passing over the Jordan, with the priests carrying the ark<sup>c</sup> of the covenant before the people, 15 and at the instant that the carriers of the Ark came as far as the Jordan and the feet of the priests carrying the Ark were dipped in the edge of the waters (now the Jordan overflows all its banks<sup>d</sup> all the days of harvest), 16 then the waters descending from above began to stand still. They rose up as one dam<sup>e</sup> very far away at Adam, the city at the side of Zar'e-than,<sup>f</sup> while those descending toward the sea of the Ar'a-bah, the Salt Sea,<sup>g</sup> were exhausted. They were cut off, and the people passed over in front of Jer'i-cho. 17 Meanwhile the priests carrying the ark of Jehovah's covenant kept standing immovable on dry ground<sup>h</sup> in the middle of the Jordan as all Israel were passing over on dry ground,<sup>i</sup> until the whole nation had completed passing over the Jordan.

4 And it came about that as soon as the whole nation had completed passing over the Jordan,<sup>j</sup> Jehovah proceeded to say to Joshua: 2 "Take for yourselves twelve men from the people, one man from each tribe.<sup>k</sup> 3 and command them, saying, 'Take up for yourselves from the very middle of the Jordan, from the place where the priests' feet stood motionless,<sup>l</sup> twelve stones,<sup>a</sup> and you must carry them over with you and deposit them in the lodging place<sup>b</sup> in which you will lodge tonight.”

4 So Joshua called twelve men<sup>c</sup> whom he had appointed from the sons of Israel, one man from each tribe; 5 and Joshua went on to say to them: “Pass ahead of the ark of Jehovah your God to the middle of the Jordan, and lift up for yourselves each one a stone upon his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Israel, 6 in order that this may serve as a sign in your midst.<sup>d</sup> In case your sons should ask in time to come, saying, ‘Why do you have these stones?’<sup>e</sup> 7 you must also say to them, ‘Because the waters of the Jordan were cut off from before the ark of Jehovah’s covenant.’ When it passed through the Jordan the waters of the Jordan were cut off, and these stones must serve as a memorial to the sons of Israel to time indefinite.”<sup>f</sup>

8 Accordingly the sons of Israel did so, just as Joshua had commanded, and they took up twelve stones from the middle of the Jordan, just as Jehovah had stated to Joshua, to correspond with the number of the tribes of the sons of Israel;<sup>h</sup> and they went taking them over with them to the lodging place<sup>i</sup> and depositing them there.

9 There were also twelve stones that Joshua set up in the middle of the Jordan on the standing place<sup>j</sup> of the feet of the priests carrying the ark of the covenant, and they continue there until this day.

10 And the priests carrying the Ark were standing in the middle<sup>k</sup> of the Jordan until the whole matter had been completed that Jehovah had commanded Joshua to speak to the people, according to all that Moses had commanded Joshua.<sup>a</sup> All the while the people hurried up<sup>b</sup> and passed over. 11 And it came about that as soon as all the people had completed passing over, then the ark<sup>c</sup> of Jehovah passed over, and the priests, before the people. 12 And the sons of Reu'ben and the sons of Gad and the half tribe of Ma-nas'seh<sup>d</sup> proceeded to pass over in battle formation<sup>e</sup> in the sight of the sons of Israel, just as Moses had stated to them.<sup>f</sup> 13 About forty thousand equipped for the army passed over before Jehovah for the war onto the desert plains of Jer'i-cho.

14 On that day Jehovah made Joshua great in the eyes of all Israel,<sup>g</sup> and they began to fear him just as they had feared Moses all the days of his life.<sup>h</sup>

15 Then Jehovah said to Joshua: 16 “Command the priests carrying the ark of the testimony<sup>i</sup> that they go up out of the Jordan.” 17 So Joshua commanded the priests, saying: “Go up out of the Jordan.” 18 And it came about that when the priests carrying the ark<sup>j</sup> of the covenant of Jehovah came up out of the middle of the Jordan and the soles<sup>k</sup> of the feet of the priests were drawn out onto the dry ground, then the waters of the Jordan began returning to their place and went overflowing<sup>l</sup> all its banks as formerly.

19 And the people came up out of the Jordan on the tenth of the first month and took up camping at Gil'gal<sup>m</sup> on the eastern border of Jer'i-cho.

20 As for the twelve stones that they had taken out of the Jordan, Joshua set these up at Gil'gal.<sup>n</sup> 21 And he went on to say to the sons of Israel: “When your sons ask their fathers in time to come, saying, ‘What do these stones mean?’<sup>o</sup> 22 you must then let your sons know, saying, 'On the dry land it was that Israel passed over this Jordan,<sup>a</sup> 23 when Jehovah YOUR God dried up the waters of the Jordan from before them until they had passed over, just as Jehovah YOUR God had done to the Red Sea when he dried it up from before us until we had passed over;<sup>b</sup> 24 in order that all the peoples of the earth may know Jehovah's hand,<sup>c</sup> that it is strong;<sup>d</sup> in order that you may indeed fear Jehovah YOUR God always.'<sup>e</sup>

5 And it came about that as soon as all the kings of the Am'or-ites,<sup>f</sup> who were on the side of the Jordan to the west, and all the kings of the Ca'naan-ites,<sup>g</sup> who were by the sea, heard that Jehovah had dried up the waters of the Jordan from before the sons of Israel until they had passed over, then their hearts began to melt,<sup>h</sup> and there proved to be no spiritedness in them anymore because of the sons of Israel.<sup>i</sup>

2 At that particular time Jehovah said to Joshua: "Make for yourself flint knives and circumcise<sup>j</sup> the sons of Israel again, the second time." 3 Accordingly Joshua made flint knives for himself and circumcised the sons of Israel at Gib'e-ath-ha-ar'a-loth.<sup>k</sup> 4 And this was the reason why Joshua did the circumcising: all the people that came out of Egypt, the males, all the men of war, had died<sup>l</sup> in the wilderness on the road when they were coming out of Egypt. 5 For all the people who came out proved to be circumcised, but all the people born in the wilderness on the road when they were coming out of Egypt they had not circumcised. 6 For the sons of Israel had walked forty years<sup>m</sup> in the wilderness, until all the nation of the men of war who came out of Egypt that did not listen to the voice of Jehovah had come to its finish, to whom Jehovah swore that he would never let them see the land<sup>a</sup> that Jehovah had sworn to their forefathers to give to us,<sup>b</sup> a land flowing with milk and honey.<sup>c</sup> 7 And their sons he raised up instead of them.<sup>d</sup> These Joshua circumcised, because they proved to be uncircumcised, for they had not circumcised them on the road.

8 And it came about that when they had completed circumcising all the nation, they kept sitting in their place in the camp until they revived.<sup>e</sup>

9 Then Jehovah said to Joshua: "Today I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt from off you."<sup>f</sup> So the name of that place came to be called Gil'gal<sup>g</sup> until this day.

10 And the sons of Israel continued to camp in Gil'gal, and they proceeded to carry out the passover on the fourteenth day of the month,<sup>h</sup> in the evening, on the desert plains of Jer'i-cho.

11 And they began to eat some of the yield of the land the day after the passover, unfermented cakes<sup>i</sup> and roasted grains, on this same day. 12 Then the manna ceased on the following day when they had eaten some of the yield of the land, and manna did not occur anymore for the sons of Israel,<sup>j</sup> and they began to eat some of the produce of the land of Ca'naan in that year.<sup>k</sup>

13 And it came about when Joshua happened to be by Jer'i-cho that he proceeded to raise his eyes and look, and there there was a man<sup>l</sup> standing in front of him with his drawn sword in his hand.<sup>m</sup> So Joshua walked up to him and said to him: "Are you for us or for our adversaries?" 14 To this he said: "No, but I—as prince of the army of Jehovah I have now come."<sup>n</sup> With that Joshua fell on his face to the earth and prostrated<sup>a</sup> himself and said to him: "What is my lord saying to his servant?" 15 In turn the prince of the army of Jehovah said to Joshua: "Draw your sandals from off your feet, because the place on which you are standing is holy." At once Joshua did so.<sup>b</sup>

6 Now Jer'i-cho was tightly shut up because of the sons of Israel, no one going out and no one entering.<sup>c</sup>

2 And Jehovah went on to say to Joshua: "See, I have given Jer'i-cho and its king, the valiant mighty men, into your hand."<sup>d</sup>

3 And all you men of war must march round the city, going round the city once. That is the way you should do for six days.

4 And seven priests should carry seven rams' horns, before the Ark, and on the seventh day you should march round the city seven times and the priests should blow the horns.<sup>e</sup> 5 And it must occur that when they sound with the horn of the ram, when you hear the sound of the horn, all the people should shout a great war cry;<sup>f</sup> and the wall of the city must fall down flat,<sup>g</sup> and the people must go up, each one straight before him."

6 Accordingly Joshua the son of Nun called the priests<sup>h</sup> and said to them: "Take up the ark of the covenant,<sup>i</sup> and seven priests should carry seven rams' horns before the ark<sup>j</sup> of Jehovah." 7 And he went on to say to the people: "Pass on and march round the city, and the war-equipped force<sup>k</sup> should pass on ahead of the ark of Jehovah."

8 So it came about just as Joshua said to the people; and seven priests carrying seven rams' horns before Jehovah passed on and blew the horns, and the ark of the covenant of Jehovah was following them. 9 And the war-equipped force was going ahead of the priests blowing the horns, while the rear guard<sup>a</sup> was following the Ark with a continual blowing on the horns.

10 Now Joshua had commanded the people,<sup>b</sup> saying: "You must neither shout nor let YOUR voices be heard, and no word should come out of YOUR mouths until the day when I say to you, 'Shout!' Then you must shout."<sup>c</sup> 11 And he had the ark of Jehovah go marching round the city, going round once, after which they went to the camp and stayed overnight in the camp.

12 Then Joshua got up early in the morning,<sup>d</sup> and the priests went carrying the ark<sup>e</sup> of Jehovah, 13 and seven priests carrying seven rams' horns before the ark of Jehovah were walking, continually blowing the horns, and the war-equipped force was walking ahead of them, while the rear guard was following the ark of Jehovah with a continual blowing on the horns.<sup>f</sup> 14 And they went marching round the city on the second day once, after which they returned to the camp. That was the way they did for six days.<sup>g</sup>

15 And it came about on the seventh day that they proceeded to get up early, as soon as the dawn ascended, and they went marching round the city in this manner seven times. Just on that day they marched round the city seven times.<sup>h</sup> 16 And it came about on the seventh time that the priests blew the horns, and Joshua proceeded to say to the people: "Shout;<sup>i</sup> for Jehovah has given you the city."<sup>j</sup> 17 And the city must become a thing devoted to destruction;<sup>k</sup> it with everything that is in it belongs to Jehovah. Only Ra'hab<sup>l</sup> the prostitute may keep on living, she and all who are with her in the house, because she hid the messengers whom we sent out.<sup>m</sup>

18 As for you people, only keep away from the thing devoted to destruction,<sup>a</sup> for fear you may get a desire<sup>b</sup> and you do take some of the thing devoted to destruction<sup>c</sup> and do constitute the camp of Israel a thing devoted to destruction and bring ostracism upon it.<sup>d</sup> 19 But all the silver and the gold and the articles of copper and iron are something holy to Jehovah.<sup>e</sup> Into the treasure of Jehovah it should go.”<sup>f</sup>

20 Then the people shouted, when they proceeded to blow the horns.<sup>g</sup> And it came about that as soon as the people heard the sound of the horn and the people began to shout a great war cry, then the wall began to fall down flat.<sup>h</sup> After that the people went up into the city, each one straight before him, and captured the city. 21 And they went devoting all that was in the city, from man to woman, from young man to old man and to bull and sheep and ass, to destruction by the edge of the sword.<sup>i</sup>

22 And to the two men who had done the spying on the land, Joshua said: “Go into the house of the woman, the prostitute, and bring out of there the woman and all who belong to her, just as you have sworn to her.”<sup>j</sup> 23 So the young men who had done the spying went in and brought out Rahab and her father and her mother and her brothers and all who belonged to her, yes, all her family relationship they brought out;<sup>k</sup> and they proceeded to set them down outside the camp of Israel.

24 And they burned the city with fire and everything that was in it.<sup>l</sup> Only the silver and the gold and the articles of copper and iron they gave to the treasure of Jehovah's house.<sup>m</sup> 25 And Rahab the prostitute and the household of her father and all who belonged to her, Joshua preserved alive;<sup>a</sup> and she dwells in the midst of Israel down to this day,<sup>b</sup> because she hid the messengers whom Joshua sent out to spy on Jer'i-cho.<sup>c</sup>

26 Then Joshua had an oath pronounced at that particular time, saying: “Cursed may the man be before Jehovah who gets up and does build this city, even Jer'i-cho. At the forfeit of his firstborn let him lay the foundation of it, and at the forfeit of his youngest let him put up its doors.”<sup>d</sup>

27 So Jehovah proved to be with Joshua,<sup>e</sup> and his fame came to be in all the earth.<sup>f</sup>

7 And the sons of Israel went committing an act of unfaithfulness respecting the thing devoted to destruction in that A'chan<sup>g</sup> the son of Car'mi, the son of Zab'di, the son of Ze'rah, of the tribe of Judah, took some of the thing devoted to destruction.<sup>h</sup> At this Jehovah's anger grew hot against the sons of Israel.<sup>i</sup>

2 Then Joshua sent men out from Jer'i-cho to A'i,<sup>j</sup> which is close by Beth-a'ven,<sup>k</sup> to the east of Beth'el,<sup>l</sup> and said to them: “Go up and spy on the land.” Accordingly the men went up and spied on A'i.<sup>m</sup> 3 After that they returned to Joshua and said to him: “Let not all the people go up. Let about two thousand men or about three thousand men go up and strike A'i. Do not weary all the people with going there, for they are few.”

4 So about three thousand men of the people went up there, but they took to flight before the men of A'i.<sup>n</sup> 5 And the men of A'i got to strike down about thirty-six men of them, and they went pursuing<sup>o</sup> them from before the gate as far as Sheb'arim and continued striking them down on the descent. Consequently the heart of the people began to melt and became as water.<sup>a</sup>

6 At this Joshua ripped his mantles and fell upon his face<sup>b</sup> to the earth before the ark of Jehovah until the evening, he and the older men of Israel, and they kept putting dust upon their heads.<sup>c</sup> 7 And Joshua went on to say: "Alas, Sovereign Lord Jehovah, why did you bring this people all the way across the Jordan, just to give us into the hand of the Am'or-ites for them to destroy us? And if only we had taken it upon ourselves and continued dwelling on the other side of the Jordan!"<sup>d</sup> 8 Excuse me, O Jehovah, but what can I say after Israel has turned his back before his enemies?<sup>e</sup> 9 And the Ca'naan-ites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear of it, and they will certainly surround us and cut our name off from the earth;<sup>f</sup> and what will you do for your great name?"<sup>g</sup>

10 In turn Jehovah said to Joshua: "Get up, you! Why is it that you are falling upon your face?" 11 Israel has sinned, and they have also overstepped my covenant<sup>h</sup> that I laid as a command upon them; and they have also taken some of the thing devoted to destruction<sup>i</sup> and have also stolen<sup>j</sup> and also kept it secret<sup>k</sup> and have also put it among their own articles.<sup>l</sup> 12 And the sons of Israel will not be able to rise up against their enemies.<sup>m</sup> The back is what they will turn before their enemies, because they have become a thing devoted to destruction. I shall not prove to be with you again unless you annihilate the thing devoted to destruction out of your midst.<sup>n</sup> 13 Get up! Sanctify the people,<sup>o</sup> and you must say, 'Sanctify yourselves tomorrow, for this is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said: "A thing devoted to destruction is in your midst, O Israel.<sup>a</sup> You will not be able to rise up against your enemies until you people have removed the thing devoted to destruction from your midst. 14 And you must present yourselves in the morning, tribe by tribe, and it must occur that the tribe that Jehovah will pick<sup>b</sup> will come near, family by family, and the family that Jehovah will pick will come near, household by household, and the household that Jehovah will pick will come near, able-bodied man by able-bodied man. 15 And it must occur that the one picked with the thing devoted to destruction will be burned with fire,<sup>c</sup> he and all that belongs to him, because he has overstepped the covenant<sup>d</sup> of Jehovah and because he has committed a disgraceful folly in Israel."<sup>e</sup>

16 Then Joshua rose early in the morning and had Israel come near, tribe by tribe of it, and the tribe of Judah got to be picked. 17 Next he had the families of Judah come near and picked the family of the Ze'rah-ites,<sup>f</sup> after which he had the family of the Ze'rah-ites come near, able-bodied man by able-bodied man, and Zab'di got to be picked. 18 Finally he had his household come near, able-bodied man by able-bodied man, and A'chan the son of Car'mi, the son of Zab'di, the son of Ze'rah, of the tribe of Judah, got to be picked.<sup>g</sup> 19 Then Joshua said to A'chan: "My son, render, please, glory to Jehovah the God of Israel<sup>h</sup> and make confession to him,<sup>i</sup> and tell me,<sup>j</sup> please, What have you done? Do not hide<sup>k</sup> it from me."

20 At this A'chan answered Joshua and said: "For a fact I—I have sinned against Jehovah the God of Israel,<sup>l</sup> and this way and that way I have done. 21 When I got to see<sup>m</sup> among the spoil an official garment from Shi'nar,<sup>n</sup> a good-looking one, and two hundred shekels of silver and one gold bar, fifty shekels being its weight, then I wanted them,<sup>a</sup> and I took them;<sup>b</sup> and, look! they are hidden in the earth in the midst of my tent with the money underneath it.”<sup>c</sup>

22 At once Joshua sent messengers, and they went running to the tent, and, look! it was hidden in his tent with the money underneath it. 23 So they took them from the midst of the tent and brought them to Joshua and all the sons of Israel and poured them out before Jehovah. 24 Joshua, and all Israel with him, now took A'chan<sup>d</sup> the son of Ze'rah and the silver and the official garment and the bar of gold<sup>e</sup> and his sons and his daughters and his bull and his ass and his flock and his tent and everything that was his and they brought them up to the low plain of A'chor.<sup>f</sup> 25 Then Joshua said: “Why have you brought ostracism upon you?<sup>g</sup> Jehovah will bring ostracism upon you on this day.” With that all Israel went pelting him with stones,<sup>h</sup> after which they burned them with fire.<sup>i</sup> Thus they stoned them with stones. 26 And they proceeded to raise up over him a big pile of stones, down to this day.<sup>j</sup> At this Jehovah turned away from his hot anger.<sup>k</sup> That is why the name of that place has been called Low Plain of A'chor,<sup>l</sup> down to this day.

8 Then Jehovah said to Joshua: “Do not be afraid or be terrified.<sup>m</sup> Take with you all the people of war and get up, go up to A'i. See, I have given into your hand the king of A'i and his people and his city and his land.<sup>n</sup> 2 And you must do to A'i and to its king just as you did to Jer'i-cho and its king.<sup>o</sup> Only you people may plunder its spoil and its domestic animals for yourselves.<sup>p</sup> Set an ambush of yours against the city at its rear.”<sup>q</sup>

3 Accordingly Joshua and all the people of war<sup>a</sup> rose to go up to A'i, and Joshua proceeded to choose thirty thousand men, valiant mighty ones,<sup>b</sup> and to send them off by night. 4 And he went on to command them, saying: “See, you are lying in ambush<sup>c</sup> against the city to the rear of the city. Do not go very far away from the city, and you must all of you hold yourselves in readiness. 5 As for me and all the people who are with me, we shall go close to the city. And it must occur that, in case they should come out to meet us just as at the first,<sup>d</sup> we must then flee before them. 6 And they must come out after us until we have drawn them away from the city, for they will say, ‘They are fleeing before us just as at the first.’<sup>e</sup> And we must flee before them. 7 Then you—you will rise up from the ambush, and you must take possession of the city; and Jehovah your God will certainly give it into your hands.<sup>f</sup> 8 And it must occur that as soon as you have seized the city, you should set the city on fire.<sup>g</sup> According to Jehovah's word you should do. See, I have commanded you.”<sup>h</sup>

9 After that Joshua sent them out and they marched to the place of ambush and took up quarters between Beth'el and A'i to the west of A'i, while Joshua kept lodging on that night in the midst of the people.

10 Then Joshua rose up early in the morning<sup>i</sup> and reviewed the people and went up, he and the older men of Israel, before the people to A'i. 11 And all the people of war<sup>j</sup> who were with him went up, that they might approach and get in front of the city, and they proceeded to camp to the north of A'i, with the valley between them and A'i. 12 In the meantime he took about five thousand men and set them as an ambush<sup>k</sup> between Beth'el and A'i, to the west of the city. 13 So the people set the main camp that was to the north of the city<sup>a</sup> and the extreme rear of it that was to the west of the city,<sup>b</sup> and Joshua proceeded to go during that night into the middle of the low plain.

14 And it came about that, as soon as the king of A'i saw it, then the men of the city got in a hurry and rose up early and went out to meet Israel in battle, he and all his people, at the appointed time, before the desert plain. As for him, he did not know that there was an ambush against him to the rear of the city.<sup>c</sup> 15 When Joshua and all Israel suffered a blow before them,<sup>d</sup> then they took to flight by the way of the wilderness.<sup>e</sup> 16 At that all the people who were in the city were called out to chase after them, and they went chasing after Joshua and got to be drawn away from the city.<sup>f</sup> 17 And there was not a man remaining in A'i and Beth-el that did not go out after Israel, so that they left the city wide open and went chasing after Israel.

18 Jehovah now said to Joshua: "Stretch out the javelin that is in your hand toward A'i,<sup>g</sup> for into your hand I shall give it."<sup>h</sup> Accordingly Joshua stretched out the javelin that was in his hand toward the city. 19 And the ambush rose up quickly from its place, and they began to run at the instant that he stretched out his hand, and they proceeded to enter the city and capture it.<sup>i</sup> Then they hurried and set the city on fire.<sup>j</sup>

20 And the men of A'i began to turn back and look, and there the smoke of the city ascended to the heavens, and there proved to be no ability in them to flee this way or that. And the people that were fleeing to the wilderness turned upon the pursuers.

21 And Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush<sup>a</sup> had captured the city, and that the smoke of the city ascended, and so they turned around and went striking the men of A'i down. 22 And these others came out of the city to meet them, so that they got to be in between Israel, these on this side and those on that, and they went striking them down until there did not remain of them either a survivor or an escapee.<sup>b</sup> 23 And the king<sup>c</sup> of A'i they caught alive and proceeded to bring him near to Joshua.

24 And it came about that while Israel was finishing the killing of all the inhabitants of A'i in the field, in the wilderness in which they had pursued them, they kept falling, all of them, by the edge of the sword until they came to their end. After that all Israel returned to A'i and struck it with the edge of the sword. 25 And all those who fell on that day, from man to woman, amounted to twelve thousand, all the people of A'i. 26 And Joshua did not draw back his hand with which he stretched out the javelin<sup>d</sup> until he had devoted all the inhabitants of A'i to destruction.<sup>e</sup> 27 Only the domestic animals and the spoil of that city Israel plundered for themselves, according to Jehovah's word that he had laid in command upon Joshua.<sup>f</sup>

28 Then Joshua burned A'i and reduced it to an indefinitely lasting mound,<sup>g</sup> as a desolation down to this day. 29 And he hanged the king of A'i<sup>h</sup> upon a stake until the evening time;<sup>i</sup> and as the sun was about to set Joshua gave the command, and then they took his dead body down<sup>j</sup> from the stake and pitched it at the entrance of the gate of the city and raised up a great pile of stones over him, down to this day.

30 It was then that Joshua proceeded to build an altar<sup>a</sup> to Jehovah the God of Israel, in Mount E'bal,<sup>b</sup> 31 just as Moses the servant of Jehovah had commanded the sons of Israel, as it is written in the book of the law<sup>c</sup> of Moses: "An altar of whole stones, upon which no iron tool has been wielded";<sup>d</sup> and they went offering up burnt offerings upon it to Jehovah and sacrificing communion sacrifices.<sup>e</sup>

32 Then he wrote there upon the stones a copy<sup>f</sup> of the law of Moses that he had written before the sons of Israel.<sup>g</sup> 33 And all Israel and their older men<sup>h</sup> and the officers and their judges were standing on this side and on that side of the Ark in front of the priests,<sup>i</sup> the Levites, carrying the ark of the covenant of Jehovah,<sup>j</sup> the alien resident as well as the native,<sup>k</sup> one half of them in front of Mount Ger'i-zim<sup>l</sup> and the other half of them in front of Mount E'bal,<sup>m</sup> (just as Moses the servant of Jehovah had commanded),<sup>n</sup> to bless<sup>o</sup> the people of Israel first of all. 34 And after this he read aloud all the words of the law,<sup>p</sup> the blessing<sup>q</sup> and the malediction,<sup>r</sup> according to all that is written in the book of the law. 35 There proved to be not a word of all that Moses had commanded that Joshua did not read aloud in front of all the congregation of Israel,<sup>s</sup> together with the women<sup>t</sup> and the little ones<sup>u</sup> and the alien residents<sup>v</sup> who walked in their midst.

semble themselves all together to make war against Joshua and Israel unanimously.<sup>a</sup>

3 And the inhabitants of Gib'e-on<sup>b</sup> heard what Joshua had done to Jer'i-cho<sup>c</sup> and A'i.<sup>d</sup> 4 So they, even of their own accord, acted with shrewdness<sup>e</sup> and went and stocked themselves with provisions and took worn-out sacks for their asses, and wine skin-bottles worn out and burst and tied up,<sup>f</sup> 5 and worn-out and patched sandals on their feet, and worn-out garments upon themselves, and all the bread of their provisions proved to be dry and crumbly. 6 Then they went to Joshua at the camp at Gil'gal<sup>g</sup> and said to him and the men of Israel: "It is from a distant land that we have come. And now CONCLUDE a covenant<sup>h</sup> with us." 7 At this the men of Israel said to the Hi'vites:<sup>i</sup> "Perhaps it is in our vicinity that you are dwelling. So how could we conclude a covenant with you?"<sup>j</sup>

8 In turn they said to Joshua: "We are your servants."<sup>k</sup>

Then Joshua said to them: "Who are YOU, and where do you come from?" 9 At this they said to him: "It is from a very distant land<sup>l</sup> that your servants have come in regard to the name<sup>m</sup> of Jehovah your God, because we have heard of his fame and of all that he did in Egypt,<sup>n</sup> 10 and of all that he did to the two kings of the Am'or-ites who were on the other side of the Jordan, namely, Si'hon<sup>o</sup> the king of Hesh'bon and Og<sup>p</sup> the king of Ba'shan, who was in Ash'ta-roth.<sup>q</sup> 11 Hence our older men and all the inhabitants of our land said this to us,<sup>r</sup> 'Take provisions in your hands for the journey and go to meet them, and you must say to them:

"We are your servants.<sup>a</sup> And now conclude a covenant with us."<sup>b</sup>

12 This bread of ours, it was hot when we took it as our provisions out of our houses on the day of our going out to come here to you, and now, look! it is dry and has become crumbly.<sup>c</sup> 13 And these are the wine skin-bottles that we filled new, and, look! they have burst,<sup>d</sup> and these garments and sandals of ours, they have worn out because of the great length of the journey.<sup>e</sup>

14 Upon that the men took some of their provisions, and at the mouth of Jehovah they did not inquire.<sup>f</sup> 15 And Joshua went making peace with them<sup>g</sup> and concluding a covenant with them to let them live, and so the chieftains<sup>h</sup> of the assembly swore to them.<sup>i</sup>

16 And it came about that at the end of three days, after they had concluded a covenant with them, they got to hear that they were near to them and it was in their vicinity they were dwelling.

17 Then the sons of Israel pulled out and came to their cities on the third day, and their cities were Gib'e-on<sup>j</sup> and Che-phi'rah<sup>k</sup> and Be'er'oth<sup>l</sup> and Kir'i-ath-je'a-rim.<sup>m</sup> 18 And the sons of Israel did not strike them, because the chieftains of the assembly had sworn<sup>n</sup> to them by Jehovah the God of Israel.<sup>o</sup> And all the assembly began to murmur against the chieftains.<sup>p</sup> 19 At this all the chieftains said to all the assembly: "We, for our part, have sworn to them by Jehovah the God of Israel, and now we are not allowed to hurt them.<sup>q</sup> 20 This is what we shall do to them while letting them live, that no indignation may come upon us over the oath that we have sworn to them."<sup>r</sup> 21 So the chieftains said to them: "Let them live and let them become gatherers of wood and drawers of water for all

22 Joshua now called them and spoke to them, saying: "Why did you trick us, saying, 'We are very far away from you,' whereas you are dwelling in our very midst?<sup>c</sup> 23 And now you are cursed<sup>d</sup> people, and a slave's position<sup>e</sup> and being gatherers of wood and drawers of water for the house of my God will never be cut off from you."<sup>f</sup> 24 Then they answered Joshua and said: "It was because your servants were plainly told that Jehovah your God had commanded Moses his servant to give you all the land and to annihilate all the inhabitants of the land from before you,<sup>g</sup> and we became very much afraid for our souls because of you.<sup>h</sup> So we did this thing.<sup>i</sup> 25 And now here we are, in your hand. Just as it is good and right in your eyes to do to us, do."<sup>j</sup> 26 And he proceeded to do so to them and to deliver them from the hand of the sons of Israel, and they did not kill them.<sup>k</sup> 27 Accordingly Joshua constituted<sup>l</sup> them on that day gatherers of wood and drawers of water for the assembly<sup>m</sup> and for Jehovah's altar, down to this day, at the place that he should choose.<sup>n</sup>

10 And it came about that as soon as A-do'ni-ze'dek the king of Jerusalem heard that Joshua had captured A'i<sup>p</sup> and then devoted it to destruction,<sup>q</sup> that just as he had done to Jer-i-cho<sup>r</sup> and its king,<sup>s</sup> so he had done to A'i and its king,<sup>t</sup> and that the inhabitants of Gib'e-on had made peace with Israel<sup>u</sup> and were continuing in their midst, 2 he became very much afraid,<sup>v</sup> because Gib'e-on was a great city, like one of the royal cities, and because it was great-

6 Upon that the men of Gib'e-on sent to Joshua at the camp at Gil'gal,<sup>i</sup> saying: "Do not let your hand relax from your slaves.<sup>j</sup> Come up to us quickly and do save us and help us, for all the kings of the Am'or-ites inhabiting the mountainous region have collected together against us."<sup>k</sup> 7 So Joshua went on up from Gil'gal, he and all the people of war with him<sup>l</sup> and all the valiant mighty men.<sup>m</sup>

8 Then Jehovah said to Joshua: "Do not be afraid of them,<sup>n</sup> for into your hand I have given them."<sup>o</sup> Not a man of them will stand against you."<sup>p</sup> 9 And Joshua proceeded to come against them by surprise. All night long he had gone up from Gil'gal. 10 And Jehovah went throwing them into confusion before Israel,<sup>q</sup> and they began to slay them with a great slaughter at Gib'e-on<sup>r</sup> and went pursuing them by way of the ascent of Beth-ho'ron and slaying them as far as A-ze'kah<sup>s</sup> and Mak-ke'dah.<sup>t</sup> 11 And it came about that while they were fleeing from before Israel and were on the descent of Beth-ho'ron, Jehovah hurled great stones<sup>u</sup> from the heavens upon them as far as A-ze'kah, so that they died. There were more who died from the hailstones than those whom the sons of Israel killed with the sword.

12 It was then that Joshua proceeded to speak to Jehovah on the day of Jehovah's abandoning the Am'or-ites to the sons of Israel, and he went on to say before the eyes of Israel:

And, moon, over the low plain of Ai'ja-lon."<sup>c</sup>

13 Accordingly the sun kept motionless, and the moon did stand still, until the nation could take vengeance on its enemies.<sup>d</sup> It is not written in the book of Ja'shar?<sup>e</sup> And the sun kept standing still in the middle of the heavens and did not hasten to set for about a whole day.<sup>f</sup> 14 And no day has proved to be like that one, either before it or after it, in that Jehovah listened to the voice of a man,<sup>g</sup> for Jehovah himself was fighting for Israel.<sup>h</sup>

15 After that Joshua and all Israel with him returned to the camp at Gil'gal.<sup>i</sup>

17 Then the report was made to Joshua, saying: "The five kings have been found hidden in the cave at Mak-ke'dah."<sup>l</sup> 18 At that Joshua said: "ROLL great stones up to the mouth of the cave and assign men over it to guard them. 19 As for you men, do not stand still. Chase after your enemies, and you must strike them in the rear."<sup>m</sup> Do not allow them to enter into their cities, for Jehovah YOUR God has given them into your hands."<sup>n</sup>

20 And it came about that as soon as Joshua and the sons of Israel had finished slaying them with a very great slaughter, until these came to their end,<sup>o</sup> and those who did survive of them escaped and went entering into the fortified cities.<sup>a</sup> 21 All the people then began to return to the camp, to Joshua, at Mak-ke'-dah in peace. Not a man moved his tongue eagerly against the sons of Israel.<sup>b</sup> 22 Then Joshua said: "OPEN the mouth of the cave and bring out these five kings from the cave to me." 23 At that they did so and brought out to him from the cave these five kings, the king of Jerusalem,<sup>c</sup> the king of He'bron,<sup>d</sup> the king of Jar'muth, the king of La'chish,<sup>e</sup> the king of Eg'lon.<sup>f</sup> 24 And it came about that as soon as they had brought out these kings to Joshua, Joshua proceeded to call all the men of Israel and to say to the commanders of the men of war that had gone with him: "Come forward. Place your feet on the back of the necks of these kings."<sup>g</sup> So they came forward and placed their feet on the back of their necks.<sup>h</sup> 25 And Joshua went on to say to them: "Do not be afraid or be terrified.<sup>i</sup> Be courageous and strong, for it is like this that Jehovah will do to all your enemies against whom you are warring."<sup>j</sup>

26 And after that Joshua proceeded to strike them and put them to death and hang them upon five stakes, and they continued hanging upon the stakes until the evening.<sup>k</sup> 27 And it came about that at the time of the setting of the sun Joshua commanded, and they went taking them down off the stakes<sup>l</sup> and throwing them into the cave where they had hid themselves. Then they placed big stones at the mouth of the cave—until this very day.

28 And Joshua captured Mak-ke'dah<sup>m</sup> on that day and went striking it with the edge of the sword. As for its king, he devoted him and every soul that was in it to destruction.<sup>n</sup> He let no survivor remain. So he did to the king of Mak-ke'dah<sup>a</sup> just as he had done to the king of Jer'i-cho.

29 Then Joshua and all Israel with him passed on from Mak-ke'dah to Lib'nah and warred against Lib'nah.<sup>b</sup> 30 Accordingly Jehovah gave it also and its king into Israel's hand, and they went striking it and every soul that was in it with the edge of the sword. They did not let a survivor remain in it. So they did to its king just as they had done to the king of Jer'i-cho.<sup>c</sup>

31 Next Joshua and all Israel with him passed on from Lib'nah to La'chish<sup>d</sup> and went camping against it and warring upon it. 32 Accordingly Jehovah gave La'chish into Israel's hand so that they captured it on the second day, and they went striking it and every soul that was in it with the edge of the sword,<sup>e</sup> according to all that they had done to Lib'nah.

33 It was then that Ho'ram the king of Ge'zer<sup>f</sup> went up to help La'chish. So Joshua struck him and his people until he had let not a survivor of him remain.<sup>g</sup>

34 Then Joshua and all Israel with him passed on from La'chish to Eg'lon<sup>h</sup> and went camping against it and warring against it. 35 And they got to capture it on that day and began to smite it with the edge of the sword, and they devoted every soul that was in it to destruction on that day, according to all that they had done to La'chish.<sup>i</sup>

36 Then Joshua and all Israel with him went up from Eg'lon to He'bron<sup>j</sup> and began to war against it. 37 And they got to capture it and went striking it and its king and all its towns and every soul that was in it with the edge of the sword. He did not let a survivor remain, according to all that he had done to Eg'lon. So he devoted it and every soul that was in it to destruction.<sup>a</sup>

38 Finally Joshua and all Israel with him came back to De'bir<sup>b</sup> and began to war against it. 39 And he got to capture it and its king and all its towns, and they went striking them with the edge of the sword and devoting every soul that was in it to destruction.<sup>c</sup> He did not let a survivor remain.<sup>d</sup> Just as he had done to He'bron, so he did to De'bir and its king, and just as he had done to Lib'nah and its king.<sup>e</sup>

40 And Joshua proceeded to strike all the land of the mountainous region<sup>f</sup> and the Neg'eb<sup>g</sup> and the She-phe'lah<sup>h</sup> and the slopes<sup>i</sup> and all their kings. He did not let a survivor remain, and everything that breathed<sup>j</sup> he devoted to destruction.<sup>k</sup> Just as Jehovah the God of Israel had commanded.<sup>l</sup> 41 And Joshua went striking them from Ka'desh-bar'ne-am<sup>m</sup> to Ga'za<sup>n</sup> and all the land of Go'shen<sup>o</sup> and up to Gib'e-on.<sup>p</sup> 42 And Joshua captured all these kings and their land at one time,<sup>q</sup> because it was Jehovah the God of Israel who was fighting for Israel.<sup>r</sup> 43 After that Joshua and all Israel with him returned to the camp at Gil'gal.<sup>s</sup>

11 And it came about that as soon as Ja'bin the king of Ha'zor heard of it, he went sending to Jo'bab the king of Ma'don<sup>t</sup> and to the king of Shim'ron and the king of Ach'shaph,<sup>u</sup> 2 and to the kings that were to the north in the mountainous region and in the desert plains south of Chin'ne-reth<sup>v</sup> and in the She-phe'lah<sup>w</sup> and on the mountain ridges of Dor<sup>x</sup> to the west, 3 the Ca'naan-ites<sup>y</sup> to the east and the west, and the Am'or-ites<sup>z</sup> and the Hit'tites<sup>a</sup> and the Per'iz-zites<sup>b</sup> and the Jeb'u-sites<sup>c</sup> in the mountainous region and the Hi'vites<sup>d</sup> at the base of Her'-

mon<sup>a</sup> in the land of Miz'pah.<sup>b</sup> 4 So they went out, they and all their camps with them, a people as numerous as the grains of sand that are on the seashore for multitude,<sup>c</sup> and very many horses<sup>d</sup> and war chariots. 5 Then all these kings met together by appointment and came and encamped together at the waters of Mer'om to fight against Israel.<sup>e</sup>

6 At this Jehovah said to Joshua: "Do not be afraid because of them,<sup>f</sup> for tomorrow about this time I am abandoning all of them slain to Israel. Their horses you will hamstring,<sup>g</sup> and their chariots you will burn in the fire."<sup>h</sup> 7 And Joshua and all the people of war with him proceeded to come against them along the waters of Mer'om by surprise and to fall upon them. 8 Then Jehovah gave them into Israel's hand,<sup>i</sup> and they went striking them and pursuing them as far as populous Si'don<sup>j</sup> and Mis're-photh-ma'im<sup>k</sup> and the valley plain of Miz'peh<sup>l</sup> to the east; and they kept striking them until they had not let a survivor of theirs remain.<sup>m</sup> 9 After that Joshua did to them just as Jehovah had said to him: their horses he hamstrung,<sup>n</sup> and their chariots he burned in the fire.<sup>o</sup>

10 More than that, Joshua turned about at that time<sup>p</sup> and captured Ha'zor;<sup>q</sup> and its king he struck down with the sword,<sup>r</sup> because Ha'zor was before that the head of all these kingdoms. 11 And they went striking every soul that was in it with the edge of the sword, devoting them to destruction.<sup>s</sup> No breathing thing at all was left over,<sup>t</sup> and he burned Ha'zor in the fire. 12 And all the cities of these kings and all their kings Joshua captured and went striking them with the edge of the sword.<sup>u</sup> He devoted them to destruction,<sup>a</sup> just as Moses the servant of Jehovah had commanded.<sup>b</sup> 13 It was only all the cities standing on their own mounds that Israel did not burn, except that Joshua did burn Ha'zor by itself. 14 And all the spoil of these cities and the domestic animals the sons of Israel plundered for themselves.<sup>c</sup> It was only all humankind that they struck with the edge of the sword until they had annihilated them.<sup>d</sup> They did not let anyone that breathed remain.<sup>e</sup> 15 Just as Jehovah had commanded Moses his servant, so Moses commanded Joshua,<sup>f</sup> and so Joshua did. He did not remove a word from all that Jehovah had commanded Moses.<sup>g</sup>

29 Further, Moses made a gift to the half tribe of Ma-nas'seh, and it came to be that of the half tribe of the sons of Ma-nas'seh by their families.<sup>b</sup> 30 And their territory came to be from Ma-ha-na'im<sup>c</sup> all of Ba'shan, all the royal realm of Og the king of Ba'shan,<sup>d</sup> and all the tent villages of Ja'ir<sup>e</sup> that are in Ba'shan, sixty towns. 31 And half of Gil'e-ad, and Ash'ta-roth<sup>f</sup> and Ed're-i,<sup>g</sup> the cities of the royal realm of Og in Ba'shan, went to the sons of Ma'chir<sup>h</sup> the son of Ma-nas'seh, to half of the sons of Ma'chir by their families.

vah had commanded Moses, so the sons of Israel did; and they proceeded to apportion the land.

6 Then the sons of Judah approached Joshua in Gil'gal,<sup>a</sup> and Ca'leb<sup>b</sup> the son of Je-phun'-neh the Ken'iz-zite<sup>c</sup> said to him: "You yourself well know the word that Jehovah spoke<sup>d</sup> to Moses the man of the true God<sup>e</sup> with regard to me and with regard to you at Ka'desh-bar'ne-a.<sup>f</sup> 7 Forty years old I was when Moses the servant of Jehovah sent me out of Ka'desh-bar'ne-a to spy out the land,<sup>g</sup> and I came bringing him back word just as it was in my heart.<sup>h</sup> 8 And my brothers who went up with me caused the heart of the people to melt;<sup>i</sup> but as for me, I followed Jehovah my God fully.<sup>j</sup> 9 Consequently Moses swore on that day, saying, 'The land upon which your foot has trod<sup>k</sup> will become yours and your sons' as an inheritance to time indefinite, because you have followed Jehovah my God fully.'<sup>l</sup>

10 And now here Jehovah has preserved me alive,<sup>m</sup> just as he promised,<sup>n</sup> these forty-five years since Jehovah made this promise to Moses when Israel walked in the wilderness,<sup>o</sup> and now here I am today eighty-five years old. 11 Yet I am today as strong as on the day of Moses' sending me out.<sup>p</sup> As my power was then, so my power is now for the war, both to go out and to come in.<sup>q</sup> 12 And now do give me this mountainous region that Jehovah promised on that day,<sup>r</sup> for you yourself heard on that day that there were An'a-kim<sup>s</sup> there and great fortified cities.<sup>t</sup> Likely Jehovah will be with me,<sup>u</sup> and I shall certainly dispossess them, just as Jehovah promised."<sup>v</sup>

And the land had no disturbance from war.<sup>e</sup>

15 And the lot<sup>f</sup> of the tribe of the sons of Judah by their families came to be to the boundary of E'dom,<sup>g</sup> the wilderness of Zin,<sup>h</sup> to the Negeb<sup>i</sup> at its southern end. 2 And their southern boundary came to be from the extremity of the Salt Sea,<sup>j</sup> from the bay that faces southward. 3 And it went out southward to the ascent of A-krab'-bim<sup>k</sup> and passed over to Zin<sup>l</sup> and went up from the south to Ka'-desh-bar'ne-a<sup>m</sup> and passed over to Hez'ron and went up to Ad'-dar and went around to Kar'ka. 4 And it passed on to Az'mon<sup>n</sup> and went out to the torrent valley of Egypt;<sup>o</sup> and the boundary's termination proved to be at the sea. This came to be their southern boundary.

5 And the eastern boundary was the Salt Sea up to the end of the Jordan, and the boundary at the northern corner was at the bay of the sea, at the end of the Jordan.<sup>p</sup> 6 And the boundary went up to Beth-hog'lah<sup>q</sup> and passed over at the north of Beth-ar'a-bah,<sup>r</sup> and the boundary went up to the stone of Bo'-han<sup>s</sup> the son of Reu'ben. 7 And the boundary went up to De'-bir at the low plain of A'chor<sup>t</sup> and turning northward to Gil'-gal,<sup>u</sup> which is in front of the ascent of A-dum'mim, which is south of the torrent valley; and the boundary passed over to the waters of En-she'mesh,<sup>v</sup> and its termination proved to be En-ro'gel.<sup>a</sup> 8 And the boundary went up to the valley of the son of Hin'nom<sup>b</sup> to the slope of the Jeb'u-site<sup>c</sup> at the south, that is to say, Jerusalem;<sup>d</sup> and the boundary went up to the top of the mountain that faces the valley of Hin'nom to the west, which is at the extremity of the low plain of Reph'a-im<sup>e</sup> to the north. 9 And the boundary was marked out from the top of the mountain to the spring of the waters of Neph-to'-ah,<sup>f</sup> and went out to the cities of Mount E'phron; and the boundary was marked out to Ba'al-ah,<sup>g</sup> that is to say, Kir'i-ath-je'a-rim.<sup>h</sup> 10 And the boundary went around from Ba'al-ah westward to Mount Se'ir and passed over to the slope of Mount Je'-a-rim at the north, that is to say, Ches'a-lon; and it went down to Beth-she'mesh<sup>i</sup> and passed over to Tim'nah.<sup>j</sup> 11 And the boundary went out to the slope of Ek'ron<sup>k</sup> to the north, and the boundary was marked out to Shik'ke-ron and passed over to Mount Ba'al-ah and went out to Jab'ne-el; and the boundary's termination proved to be at the sea.

12 And the western boundary was at the Great Sea<sup>l</sup> and its shoreland. This was the boundary all around, of the sons of Judah by their families.

13 And to Ca'leb<sup>m</sup> the son of Je-phun'neh he gave a share in the midst of the sons of Judah at the order of Jehovah to Joshua, namely, Kir'i-ath-ar'ba (said Ar'ba being the father of A'nak), that is to say, He'bron.<sup>n</sup> 14 So Ca'leb drove away from there the three sons of A'nak,<sup>o</sup> namely, She'shai<sup>p</sup> and A-hi'man and Tal'-mai,<sup>q</sup> those born of A'nak.<sup>r</sup> 15 Then he went up from there to the inhabitants of De'bir.<sup>s</sup> (Now the name of De'bir before that was Kir'i-ath-se'pher.)<sup>t</sup> 16 And Ca'leb proceeded to say:

"Whoever strikes Kir'i-ath-sepher and does capture it, I shall certainly give him Ach'sah<sup>a</sup> my daughter as a wife." 17 At that Oth-ni-el<sup>b</sup> the son of Ke'naz,<sup>c</sup> Ca'leb's brother, captured it. Accordingly he gave him Ach'sah<sup>d</sup> his daughter as a wife. 18 And it came about that when she was going home, she kept inciting him to ask a field from her father. Then she clapped her hands while upon the ass. At this Ca'leb said to her: "What do you want?"<sup>e</sup> 19 So she said: "Do give me a blessing, for it is a piece of land to the south you have given me, and you must give me Gul'loth-ma'im." Accordingly he gave her Upper Gul'loth and Lower Gul'loth.<sup>f</sup>

21 And the cities at the extremity of the tribe of the sons of Judah toward the boundary of E'dom<sup>i</sup> in the south came to be Kab'ze-el<sup>j</sup> and E'der and Ja'gur, 22 and Ki'nah and Di-mo'nah and A-da'dah, 23 and Ke'desh and Ha'zor and Ith'nan, 24 Ziph and Te'lem<sup>k</sup> and Be-a'-loth, 25 and Ha'zor-ha-dat'tah and Ke'ri-oth-hez'ron, that is to say, Ha'zor, 26 A'mam and She'ma and Mo-la'dah,<sup>l</sup> 27 and Ha'zar-gad'dah and Hesh'mon and Beth-pel'et,<sup>m</sup> 28 and Ha'zar-she'ul<sup>n</sup> and Be'er-she'ba<sup>o</sup> and Biz-i-o-thi'ah, 29 Ba'al-ah<sup>p</sup> and I'im and E'zem,<sup>q</sup> 30 and El-to'lad and Che'sil and Hor'mah,<sup>r</sup> 31 and Zik'lag<sup>s</sup> and Mad-man'nah and San-san'nah, 32 and Le-ba'oth and Shil'him and A'in<sup>t</sup> and Rim'mon;<sup>u</sup> all the cities being twenty-nine, together with their settlements.

12 And the sons of Ma-nas’sseh did not prove able to take possession of these cities,<sup>a</sup> but the Ca’naan-ites persisted in dwelling in this land.<sup>b</sup> 13 And it turned out that when the sons of Israel had grown strong,<sup>c</sup> they went putting the Ca’naan-ites at forced labor,<sup>d</sup> and they did not dispossess them entirely.<sup>e</sup>

14 And the sons of Joseph proceeded to speak with Joshua, saying: “Why is it that you have given me as an inheritance one lot<sup>f</sup> and one allotment, whereas I am a numerous people for the reason that Jehovah has blessed me until now?”<sup>g</sup> 15 At this Joshua said to them: “If you are a numerous people, go your way up to the forest, and you must cut it down for yourself there in the land of the Per’iz-zites<sup>h</sup> and the Reph’a-im,<sup>i</sup> because the mountainous region<sup>j</sup> of E’phra-im has become too narrow for you.” 16 Then the sons of Joseph said: “The mountainous region is not enough for us, and there are war chariots<sup>k</sup> with iron scythes among all the Ca’naan-ites dwelling in the land of the low plain, both those who are in Beth-she’an<sup>l</sup> and its dependent towns and those who are in the low plain of Jez’re-el.”<sup>m</sup> 17 So Joshua said this to the house of Joseph, to E’phra-im and Ma-nas’sseh: “A numerous people you are, and great power is yours.<sup>n</sup> You ought not to get one lot,<sup>o</sup> 18 but the mountainous region should become yours.<sup>p</sup> Because it is a forest, you must cut it down, and it must become the termination point for you. For you should drive away the Ca’naan-ites, although they have war chariots with iron scythes and they are strong.”<sup>q</sup>

of meeting there,<sup>a</sup> as the land was now subdued before them.<sup>b</sup>

2 But there were still left among the sons of Israel those whose inheritance they had not apportioned out, namely, seven tribes.

3 So Joshua said to the sons of Israel: "How long are you going to be delinquent about going in to take possession of the land<sup>c</sup> that Jehovah the God of your forefathers has given you?"<sup>d</sup>

4 Furnish for yourselves three men of each tribe and let me send them out, that they may get up and walk about in the land and map it out in accord with their inheritance, and let them come to me.<sup>e</sup>

5 And they must apportion it among themselves into seven shares.<sup>f</sup> Judah will keep standing on his territory to the south,<sup>g</sup> and the house of Joseph will keep standing on their territory to the north.<sup>h</sup>

6 As for you people, you will map out the land into seven shares, and you must bring them here to me, and I must cast lots<sup>i</sup> here for you before Jehovah our God.

7 For the Levites have no share in among you,<sup>j</sup> because the priesthood of Jehovah is their inheritance;<sup>k</sup> and Gad and Reu'ben<sup>l</sup> and the half tribe of Ma-nas'seh<sup>m</sup> have taken their inheritance on the side of the Jordan toward the east, which Moses the servant of Jehovah has given them."<sup>n</sup>

8 So the men got up that they might go, and Joshua proceeded to command<sup>o</sup> those who were going to map out the land, saying: "Go and walk about in the land and map it out and return to me, and here is where I shall draw lots<sup>p</sup> for you before Jehovah in Shi'loh."<sup>q</sup>

9 With that the men went and passed through the land and mapped<sup>r</sup> it out by cities in seven shares, in a book. After that they came to Joshua at the camp in Shi'loh, 10 and Joshua went drawing lots for them in Shi'loh before Jehovah.<sup>s</sup>

Thus Joshua there apportioned the land to the sons of Israel in their shares.<sup>a</sup>

11 Then the lot<sup>b</sup> came up of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin<sup>c</sup> by their families, and the territory of their lot went out between the sons of Judah<sup>d</sup> and the sons of Joseph.<sup>e</sup>

12 And their boundary came to be at the northern corner from the Jordan, and the boundary went up to the slope of Jer'i-cho<sup>f</sup> on the north and went up on the mountain westward, and its termination proved to be at the wilderness of Beth-a'ven.<sup>g</sup>

13 And the boundary passed over from there to Luz,<sup>h</sup> at the southern slope of Luz, that is to say, Beth'-el;<sup>i</sup> and the boundary went down to At'a-roth-ad'dar<sup>j</sup> upon the mountain that is on the south of Lower Beth-ho'ron.<sup>k</sup>

14 And the boundary was marked out and went around at the western side to the south from the mountain that faces Beth-ho'ron to the south; and its termination proved to be at Kir'i-ath-ba'al, that is to say, Kir'i-ath-je'a-rim,<sup>l</sup> a city of the sons of Judah. This is the western side.

15 And the side to the south was from the extremity of Kir'i-ath-je'a-rim, and the boundary went out westward and went out to the spring of the waters of Neph-to'ah.<sup>m</sup>

16 And the boundary went down to the extremity of the mountain that faces the valley of the son of Hin'-nom,<sup>n</sup> which is in the low plain of Reph'a-im<sup>o</sup> to the north, and it went down to the valley of Hin'-nom, to the slope of the Jeb'u-site<sup>p</sup> on the south, and went down to En-ro'gel.<sup>q</sup>

17 And it was marked out northward and went out to En-she'mesh and went out to Gel'i'loth, which is in front of the ascent of A-dum'-mim;<sup>r</sup> and it went down to the stone<sup>s</sup> of Bo'han<sup>i</sup> the son of Reu'ben. 18 And it passed over to the northern slope in front of the Ar'a-bah and went down to the Ar'a-bah. 19 And the boundary passed over to the northern slope of Beth-hog'lah,<sup>a</sup> and the termination of it (the border) proved to be at the northern bay of the Salt Sea<sup>b</sup> at the southern end of the Jordan. This was the southern boundary. 20 And the Jordan served as its boundary on the eastern side. This was the inheritance of the sons of Benjamin by their families, by its boundaries all around.

This was the inheritance of the sons of Benjamin by their families.<sup>n</sup>

19 Then the second lot<sup>o</sup> came out for Sim'e-on, for the tribe of the sons of Sim'e-on<sup>p</sup> by their families. And their inheritance came to be in the midst of the inheritance of the sons of Judah.<sup>q</sup> 2 And they came to have in their inheritance Be'er-she'ba<sup>r</sup> with She'ba, and Mo-la'-dah,<sup>s</sup> 3 and Ha'zar-shu'al<sup>t</sup> and Ba'lah and E'zem,<sup>u</sup> 4 and El-to'lad<sup>v</sup> and Be'thul and Hor-mah, 5 and Zik'lag<sup>w</sup> and Beth-mar'ca-both and Ha'zar-su'sah,<sup>x</sup> 6 and Beth-le-ba'oth<sup>y</sup> and Sha-ru'hen; thirteen cities and their settlements. 7 A'in,<sup>a</sup> Rim'mon<sup>b</sup> and E'ther and A'shan;<sup>c</sup> four cities and their settlements, 8 and all the settlements that were all around these cities as far as Ba'al-ath-be'er,<sup>d</sup> Ra'mah<sup>e</sup> of the south. This was the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Sim'e-on by their families. 9 The inheritance of the sons of Sim'e-on was out of the allotment of the sons of Judah, because the share of the sons of Judah proved to be too large for them.<sup>f</sup> So the sons of Sim'e-on got a possession in the midst of their inheritance.<sup>g</sup>

10 Next the third lot<sup>h</sup> came up for the sons of Zeb'u-lun<sup>i</sup> by their families, and the boundary of their inheritance came to be as far as Sa'rid. 11 And their boundary went up westward also to Mar'e-al and reached to Dab'-be-sheth and reached to the torrent valley that is in front of Jok'-ne-am.<sup>j</sup> 12 And it went back from Sa'rid eastward toward the rising of the sun to the border of Chis'loth-ta'bor and went out to Dab'e-rath<sup>k</sup> and went up to Ja-phi'a. 13 And from there it passed over eastward toward the sunrise to Gath-he'pher,<sup>l</sup> to Eth-ka'zin, and went out to Rim'mon and was marked out to Ne'ah. 14 And the boundary went around it on the north to Han'na-thon, and its terminations proved to be at the valley of Iph'tah-el, 15 and Kat'tath and Na-hal'al and Shim'ron<sup>m</sup> and I'da-lah and Beth'le-hem;<sup>n</sup> twelve cities and their settlements. 16 This was the inheritance<sup>o</sup> of the sons of Zeb'u-lun by their families.<sup>p</sup> These were the cities and their settlements.

17 It was for Is'sa-char<sup>q</sup> that the fourth lot came out, for the sons of Is'sa-char by their families. 18 And their boundary came to be to Jez're-el<sup>r</sup> and Chesul'loth and Shu'nem.<sup>s</sup> 19 and Haph'a-ra'im and Shi'on and Ana-ha'rath, 20 and Rab'bith and Kish'i-on and E'bez, 21 and Re'meth and En-gan'nim<sup>a</sup> and En-had'dah and Beth-paz'zez. 22 And the boundary reached to Ta'bor<sup>b</sup> and Sha-ha-zu'mah and Beth-she'mesh, and the terminations of their border proved to be at the Jordan; sixteen cities and their settlements. 23 This was the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Is'sa-char by their families,<sup>c</sup> the cities and their settlements.

24 Then the fifth lot<sup>d</sup> came out for the tribe of the sons of Ash'er<sup>e</sup> by their families. 25 And their boundary came to be He'l'kath<sup>f</sup> and Ha'li and Be'ten and Ach'shaph,<sup>g</sup> 26 and Al-lam'me-lech and A'mad and Mi'shal.<sup>h</sup> And it reached westward to Car'mel<sup>i</sup> and to Shi'hor-lib'nath, 27 and it went back toward the rising of the sun to Beth-da'gon and reached to Zeb'u-lun<sup>j</sup> and the valley of Iph'tah-el to the north, to Beth-e'mek and Ne-i'el, and it went out to Ca'bul on the left, 28 and to E'bron and Re'hob and Ham'mon and Ka'nah as far as populous Si'don.<sup>k</sup> 29 And the boundary went back to Ra'mah and as far as the fortified city of Tyre.<sup>l</sup> And the boundary went back to Ho'sah, and its terminations came to be at the sea in the region of Ach'zib,<sup>m</sup> 30 and Um'mah and A'phek<sup>n</sup> and Re'hob;<sup>o</sup> twenty-two cities and their settlements. 31 This was the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Ash'er by their families.<sup>p</sup> These were the cities and their settlements.

32 It was for the sons of Naph'tali<sup>q</sup> that the sixth lot<sup>r</sup> came out, for the sons of Naph'tali by their families. 33 And their boundary came to be from He'leph, from the big tree in Za-nan'nim,<sup>s</sup> and Ad'a-mi-ne'keb and Jab'ne-el as far as Lak'-kum; and its terminations came to be at the Jordan. 34 And the boundary went back westward to Az'noth-ta'bor and went out from there to Huk'kok and reached to Zeb'u-lun<sup>a</sup> on the south, and to Ash'er<sup>b</sup> it reached on the west and to Judah<sup>c</sup> at the Jordan toward the rising of the sun. 35 And the fortified cities were Zid'dim, Zer and Ham'math,<sup>d</sup> Rak'kath and Chin'-ne-reth,<sup>e</sup> 36 and Ad'a-mah and Ra'mah and Ha'zor,<sup>f</sup> 37 and Ke'desh<sup>g</sup> and Ed're-i and En-ha'zor, 38 and Yi'ron and Mig'-dal-el, Ho'rem and Beth-a'nath and Beth-she'mesh;<sup>h</sup> nineteen cities and their settlements. 39 This was the inheritance<sup>i</sup> of the tribe of the sons of Naph'tali by their families,<sup>j</sup> the cities and their settlements.

40 It was for the tribe of the sons of Dan<sup>k</sup> by their families that the seventh lot<sup>l</sup> came out. 41 And the border of their inheritance came to be Zo'rah<sup>m</sup> and Esh'ta-ol and Ir-she'mesh, 42 and Shal-ab'bin<sup>n</sup> and Ai'ja-lon<sup>o</sup> and Ith'-lah, 43 and E'lon and Tim'nah<sup>p</sup> and Ek'ron,<sup>q</sup> 44 and El'te-keh and Gib'be-thon<sup>r</sup> and Ba'al'ath,<sup>s</sup> 45 and Je'hud and Ben'e-be'arak and Gath-rim'mon,<sup>t</sup> 46 and Me-jar'kon and Rak'kon, with the border in front of Jop'pa.<sup>u</sup> 47 And the territory of the sons of Dan was too cramped<sup>v</sup> for them. And the sons of Dan proceeded to go up and war against Le'shem<sup>w</sup> and to capture it and strike it with the edge of the sword. Then they took possession of it and went dwelling in it, and they began to call Le'shem Dan, according to the name of Dan their forefather.<sup>x</sup> 48 This was the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Dan by their families. These were the cities and their settlements.

49 Thus they finished dividing the land for a possession by its territories. Then the sons of Israel gave an inheritance to Joshua the son of Nun in their midst. 50 At the order of Jehovah he gave him the city for which he asked,<sup>a</sup> namely, Tim'nath-se'rah,<sup>b</sup> in the mountainous region of E'phra'im; and he began to build up the city and dwell in it.

51 These were the inheritances that El-e-a'zar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the sons of Israel distributed<sup>c</sup> as a possession by lot in Shi'loh<sup>d</sup> before Jehovah, at the entrance of the tent of meeting.<sup>e</sup> So they left off from apportioning the land.

20 Then Jehovah spoke to Joshua, saying: 2 "Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, 'Give for yourselves the cities of refuge<sup>f</sup> of which I spoke to you by means of Moses, 3 for the manslayer<sup>g</sup> who fatally strikes a soul unintentionally without knowing it to flee there; and they must serve you as a refuge from the avenger of blood.<sup>h</sup> 4 And he must flee<sup>i</sup> to one of these cities and stand at the entrance of the gate<sup>j</sup> of the city and speak his words in the hearing of the older men<sup>k</sup> of that city; and they must receive him into the city to themselves and give him a place and he must dwell with them. 5 And in case the avenger of blood chases after him, then they should not surrender the manslayer into his hand;<sup>l</sup> for it was without knowing it that he struck his fellow-man fatally, and he was not hating him formerly.<sup>m</sup> 6 And he must dwell in that city until his standing before the assembly for judgment,<sup>n</sup> until the death of the high priest<sup>o</sup> who happens to be in those days. It is then that the manslayer may return,<sup>p</sup> and he must enter into his city and into his house, into the city from which he had fled.'"

7 Accordingly they gave a sacred status to Ke'desh<sup>a</sup> in Gal'ilee in the mountainous region of Naph'tali, and She'chem<sup>b</sup> in the mountainous region of E'phra'im, and Kir'i-ath-ar'ba,<sup>c</sup> that is to say, He'bron, in the mountainous region of Judah. 8 And in the region of the Jordan, at Jer'i-cho, toward the east they gave Be'zer<sup>d</sup> in the wilderness on the tableland out of the tribe of Reu'ben,<sup>e</sup> and Ra'moth<sup>f</sup> in Gil'e-ad out of the tribe of Gad, and Go'lan<sup>g</sup> in Ba'shan out of the tribe of Manas'seh.

9 These became the cities appointed for all the sons of Israel and for the alien resident who resides as an alien in their midst, for anyone to flee there who fatally strikes a soul unintentionally,<sup>h</sup> that he may not die by the hand of the avenger of blood until his standing before the assembly.<sup>i</sup>

21 The heads of the fathers of the Levites now approached El-e-a'zar<sup>j</sup> the priest and Joshua<sup>k</sup> the son of Nun and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the sons of Israel, 2 and they proceeded to speak to them in Shi'loh<sup>l</sup> in the land of Ca'naan, saying: "Jehovah by means of Moses commanded cities to be given us in which to dwell, together with their pasture grounds for our domestic animals."<sup>m</sup> 3 So the sons of Israel gave the Levites,<sup>n</sup> at the order of Jehovah, these cities and their pasture grounds out of their inheritance.<sup>o</sup>

4 Then the lot came out for the families of the Ko'hath-ites,<sup>p</sup> and thirteen cities came to belong to the sons of Aaron the priest, of the Levites, by lot, out of the tribe of Judah<sup>q</sup> and out of the tribe of the Sim'e-on-ites<sup>r</sup> and out of the tribe of Benjamin.<sup>s</sup>

6 And for the sons of Ger'shon<sup>e</sup> there were by lot thirteen cities out of the families of the tribe of Is'sa-char<sup>f</sup> and out of the tribe of Ash'er<sup>g</sup> and out of the tribe of Naph'ta-li<sup>h</sup> and out of the half tribe of Ma-nas'seh in Ba'shan.<sup>i</sup>

7 For the sons of Me-rar'i<sup>j</sup> by their families there were twelve cities out of the tribe of Reu'ben<sup>k</sup> and out of the tribe of Gad<sup>l</sup> and out of the tribe of Zeb'u-lun.<sup>m</sup>

8 Thus the sons of Israel gave the Levites these cities and their pasture grounds<sup>n</sup> by lot,<sup>o</sup> just as Jehovah had commanded by means of Moses.<sup>p</sup>

9 So out of the tribe of the sons of Judah and out of the tribe of the sons of Sim'e-on they gave these cities that were called by name,<sup>q</sup> 10 and they came to belong to the sons of Aaron out of the families of the Ko'hath-ites of the sons of Le'vi, because the first lot became theirs.<sup>r</sup>

6 With that Joshua blessed<sup>j</sup> them and sent them away that they might go to their tents. 7 And to the half tribe of Manas'seh Moses had made a gift in Ba'shan,<sup>k</sup> and to the other half of it Joshua made a gift with their brothers on the side of the Jordan to the west.<sup>l</sup> So, too, when Joshua sent them away to their tents, he proceeded to bless them. 8 And he went on to say to them: "Return to YOUR tents with many riches and with very much livestock, with silver and gold and copper and iron and garments in very great quantity.<sup>m</sup> Take YOUR share of the spoil<sup>n</sup> of your enemies together with YOUR brothers."

sons of Reu'-ben and the sons of Gad and the half tribe of Manas'seh have built an altar on the frontier of the land of Ca'-naan in the regions of the Jordan on the side belonging to the sons of Israel." 12 When the sons of Israel got to hear of it, the whole assembly of the sons of Israel<sup>a</sup> were then congregated at Shi'-loh<sup>b</sup> to go up for military action against them.<sup>c</sup>

13 Then the sons of Israel sent<sup>d</sup> to the sons of Reu'-ben and the sons of Gad and the half tribe of Ma-nas'seh in the land of Gil'e-ad Phin'e-has<sup>e</sup> the son of El-e-a'zar the priest, 14 and ten chieftains with him, one chieftain of each paternal house of all the tribes of Israel, and they were each a head of the house of their fathers of the thousands of Israel.<sup>f</sup> 15 In time they came to the sons of Reu'-ben and the sons of Gad and the half tribe of Ma-nas'seh in the land of Gil'e-ad and began to speak with them,<sup>g</sup> saying:

16 "This is what all the assembly of Jehovah<sup>h</sup> have said, 'What is this act of unfaithfulness<sup>i</sup> that you have perpetrated against the God of Israel in turning<sup>j</sup> back today from following Jehovah by your building for yourselves an altar,<sup>k</sup> that you may rebel today against Jehovah? 17 Was the error of Pe'-or<sup>l</sup> too small for us, from which we have not cleansed ourselves down to this day, although the plague came to be upon the assembly of Jehovah?<sup>m</sup> 18 And you—you would turn back today from following Jehovah; and it must occur that should you, for your part, rebel today against Jehovah, then tomorrow it will be against the entire assembly of Israel that he will be indignant.<sup>n</sup> 19 Now if it is indeed that the land of your possession is unclean,<sup>o</sup> make YOUR way across to the land of Jehovah's possession<sup>a</sup> where the tabernacle of Jehovah has resided,<sup>b</sup> and get settled in our midst; and against Jehovah do not you rebel and do not make us the ones to rebel by YOUR building for yourselves an altar in addition to the altar of Jehovah our God.<sup>c</sup> 20 Was it not A'chan<sup>d</sup> the son of Ze'rah that perpetrated an act of unfaithfulness in the thing devoted to destruction, and was it not against all the assembly of Israel that there came indignation?<sup>e</sup> And he was not the only man to expire in his error.'<sup>f</sup>

26 "Hence we said, 'Let us take action in our behalf, please, by building the altar, not for burnt offering nor for sacrifice, 27 but that it may be a witness between us<sup>a</sup> and you and our generations after us that we shall render the service of Jehovah before him with our burnt offerings and our sacrifices and our communion sacrifices,<sup>b</sup> that YOUR sons may not say in a future day to our sons: "You have no share in Jehovah."<sup>c</sup> 28 So we said, 'And it must occur that in case they should say that to us and to our generations in a future day, we must also say: "See the representation of Jehovah's altar that our fathers made, not for burnt offering nor for sacrifice, but it is a witness between us and you."<sup>d</sup> 29 It is unthinkable, on our part, to rebel of our own accord against Jehovah and to turn back today from following Jehovah<sup>e</sup> by building an altar for burnt offering, grain offering and sacrifice besides the altar of Jehovah our God that is before his tabernacle!"<sup>d</sup>

30 Now when Phin'e-has<sup>e</sup> the priest and the chieftains of the assembly<sup>f</sup> and the heads of the thousands of Israel who were with him heard the words that the sons of Reu'-ben and the sons of Gad and the sons of Ma-nas'-seh spoke, it came to be good in their eyes. 31 So Phin'e-has the son of El-e-a'zar the priest said to the sons of Reu'-ben and the sons of Gad and the sons of Ma-nas'-seh: "Today we do know that Jehovah is in our midst,<sup>g</sup> because you have not perpetrated against Jehovah this act of unfaithfulness. Now you have delivered the sons of Israel out of the hand of Jehovah."<sup>h</sup>

32 With that Phin'e-has the son of El-e-a'zar the priest and the chieftains returned<sup>i</sup> from the sons of Reu'-ben and the sons of Gad in the land of Gil'e-ad to the land of Ca'naan to the other sons of Israel and brought back word to them.<sup>j</sup> 33 And the word came to be good in the eyes of the sons of Israel; and the sons of Israel proceeded to bless God,<sup>a</sup> and they did not talk of going up for army service against them to ruin the land in which the sons of Reu'ben and the sons of Gad were dwelling.

34 And the sons of Reu'ben and the sons of Gad began to name the altar, because "it is a witness between us that Jehovah is the true God."<sup>b</sup>

23 And it came about many days after Jehovah had given Israel rest<sup>c</sup> from all their enemies all around, when Joshua was old and advanced in days,<sup>d</sup> 2 that Joshua proceeded to call all Israel,<sup>e</sup> its older men and its heads and its judges and its officers,<sup>f</sup> and to say to them: "As for me, I have grown old, I have advanced in days. 3 And as for you, you have seen all that Jehovah YOUR God did to all these nations on YOUR account,<sup>g</sup> because Jehovah YOUR God was the one who was fighting for you.<sup>h</sup>

6 "And you must be very courageous<sup>n</sup> to keep and to do all that is written in the book<sup>o</sup> of the law of Moses by never turning away from it to the right or to the left,<sup>p</sup> 7 by never going in among these nations,<sup>q</sup> these that remain with you. 8 "Eventually I brought you to the land of the Am'or-ites who were dwelling on the other side of the Jordan, and they went fighting against you.<sup>a</sup> At that I gave them into your hand that you might take possession of their land, and I annihilated them from before you.<sup>b</sup> 9 Then Ba'lak the son of Zip'por,<sup>c</sup> the king of Mo'ab, got up and went fighting against Israel.<sup>d</sup> So he sent and summoned Ba'aam the son of Be'or to call down evil upon you.<sup>e</sup> 10 And I did not want to listen to Ba'aam.<sup>f</sup> Consequently he blessed you repeatedly.<sup>g</sup> Thus I delivered you out of his hand.<sup>h</sup>

11 "Then you went crossing the Jordan<sup>i</sup> and came to Jer'i-cho.<sup>j</sup> And the landowners of Jer'i-cho, the Am'or-ites and the Per'iz-zites and the Ca'naan-ites and the Hit'tites and the Gir'gashites, the Hi'vites and the Jeb'u-sites began fighting against you; but I gave them into your hand.<sup>k</sup> 12 So I sent the feeling of dejection ahead of you, and it gradually drove them out before you<sup>l</sup>—two kings of the Am'or-ites—not with your sword and not with your bow.<sup>m</sup> 13 Thus I gave you a land for which you had not toiled and cities that you had not built,<sup>n</sup> and you took up dwelling in them. 16 At this the people answered and said: "It is unthinkable, on our part, to leave Jehovah so as to serve other gods.

17 For it is Jehovah our God who brought us and our fathers up out of the land of Egypt,<sup>d</sup> out of the house of slaves,<sup>e</sup> and who performed these great signs before our eyes<sup>f</sup> and who kept guarding us in all the way in which we walked and among all the peoples through the midst of whom we passed.<sup>g</sup> 18 And Jehovah proceeded to drive out all the peoples,<sup>h</sup> even the Am'or-ites, dwelling in the land from before us. 25 And Joshua proceeded to conclude a covenant with the people on that day and to constitute for them a regulation and judicial decision<sup>a</sup> in She'chem. 26 Then Joshua wrote these words in the book of God's law<sup>b</sup> and took a great stone<sup>c</sup> and set it up there under the massive tree<sup>d</sup> that is by the sanctuary of Jehovah.

27 And Joshua went on to say to all the people: "Look! This stone is what will serve as a witness against us,<sup>e</sup> because it has itself heard all the sayings of Jehovah that he has spoken with us, and it must serve as a witness against you, that you may not deny YOUR God."<sup>f</sup> 28 With that Joshua sent the people away, each one to his inheritance.<sup>g</sup>

29 And it came about that after these things Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of Jehovah, gradually died at the age of a hundred and ten years.<sup>h</sup> 30 So they buried him in the territory of his inheritance in Tim'nath-se'rah,<sup>i</sup> which is in the mountainous region of E'phraim, north of Mount Ga'ash. 31 And Israel continued to serve Jehovah all the days of Joshua and all the days of the older men who extended their days after Joshua<sup>j</sup> and who had known all the work of Jehovah that he did for Israel.<sup>k</sup>

32 And Joseph's bones,<sup>l</sup> which the sons of Israel had brought up out of Egypt, they buried in She'chem in the tract of the field that Jacob had acquired from the sons of Ha'mor,<sup>m</sup> She'chem's father, for a hundred pieces of money;<sup>n</sup> and it came to belong to the sons of Joseph as an inheritance.<sup>o</sup>

33 Also, El-e-a'zar the son of Aaron died.<sup>p</sup> So they buried him in the Hill of Phin'e-has his son,<sup>q</sup> which he had given him in the mountainous region of E'phraim.

JUDGES

1 And after the death<sup>a</sup> of Joshua it came about that the sons of Israel proceeded to inquire<sup>b</sup> of Jehovah, saying: "Who of us will go up first to the Ca'naan-ites to fight against them?" 2 To this Jehovah said: "Judah will go up.<sup>c</sup> Look! I shall certainly give the land into his hand." 3 Then Judah said to Sim'e-on his brother: "Come up with me into my lot<sup>d</sup> and let us fight against the Ca'naan-ites, and I myself in turn will go with you into your lot."<sup>e</sup> Accordingly Sim'e-on went with him.<sup>f</sup>

4 With that Judah went on up and Jehovah gave the Ca'naan-ites and the Per'iz-zites into their hands,<sup>g</sup> so that they defeated them in Be'zek, ten thousand men. 5 When they found A-do'ni-be'zek in Be'zek, then they fought against him and defeated the Ca'naan-ites<sup>h</sup> and the Per'iz-zites.<sup>i</sup> 6 When A-do'ni-be'zek took to flight, then they went chasing after him and got hold of him and cut off the thumbs of his hands and the great toes of his feet. 7 At this A-do'ni-be'zek said: "There have been seventy kings with the thumbs of their hands and the great toes of their feet cut off picking up food under my table. Just the way I have done, so God has repaid me."<sup>j</sup> After that they brought him to Jerusalem<sup>k</sup> and he died there.

8 Furthermore, the sons of Judah carried on war against Jerusalem<sup>l</sup> and got to capture it, and they went striking it with the edge of the sword, and the city they consigned to the fire. 9 And afterward the sons of Judah went down to fight against the Ca'naan-ites inhabiting the mountainous region and the Negeb<sup>m</sup> and the She-phe'lah.<sup>n</sup> 10 So Judah marched against the Ca'naan-ites who were dwelling in He'bron<sup>a</sup> (now the name of He'bron before that was Kir'i-ath-ar'ba),<sup>b</sup> and they went striking down She'shai and A-hi'man and Tal'mai.<sup>c</sup>

11 And they marched on from there against the inhabitants of De'bir.<sup>d</sup> (Now the name of De'bir before that was Kir'i-ath-se'pher.)<sup>e</sup> 12 Then Ca'leb<sup>f</sup> said: "Whoever strikes Kir'i-ath-se'pher and does capture it, why, I will give him Ach'sah<sup>g</sup> my daughter as a wife."<sup>h</sup> 13 And Oth'ni-el<sup>i</sup> the son of Ke'naz,<sup>j</sup> Ca'leb's younger brother,<sup>k</sup> got to capture it. For that he gave him Ach'sah his daughter as a wife.<sup>l</sup> 14 And it came about that while she was going home, she kept inciting him to ask a field from her father. Then she clapped her hands while upon the ass.<sup>m</sup> At this Ca'leb said to her: "What do you want?" 15 So she said to him: "Do grant me a blessing,<sup>n</sup> for it is a southern piece of land you have given me, and you must give me Gul'loth-ma'im." Accordingly Ca'leb gave her Upper Gul'loth<sup>o</sup> and Lower Gul'loth.

21 And the sons of Benjamin did not drive out the Jeb'u-sites inhabiting Jerusalem;<sup>e</sup> but the Jeb'u-sites keep on dwelling with the sons of Benjamin in Jerusalem down to this day.<sup>f</sup>

22 Meantime the house of Joseph<sup>g</sup> itself also went up against Beth'el,<sup>h</sup> and Jehovah was with them.<sup>i</sup> 23 And the house of Joseph began to spy<sup>j</sup> on Beth'el (incidentally, the name of the city before that was Luz),<sup>k</sup> 24 and the watchers got to see a man going out of the city. So they said to him: "Show us, please, the way to get into the city, and we shall certainly exercise kindness toward you."<sup>l</sup> 25 Accordingly the man showed them the way to get into the city; and they went striking the city with the edge of the sword,<sup>m</sup> but the man and all his family they let go.<sup>n</sup> 26 Upon that the man went to the land of the Hit'tites<sup>o</sup> and built a city and called its name Luz. That is its name down to this day.

27 And Ma-nas'seh<sup>p</sup> did not take possession of Beth-she'an<sup>q</sup> and its dependent towns and Ta'a-nach<sup>r</sup> and its dependent towns and the inhabitants of Dor<sup>s</sup> and its dependent towns and the inhabitants of Ib'le-am<sup>t</sup> and its dependent towns and the inhabitants of Me-gid'do<sup>u</sup> and its dependent towns, but the Ca'naan-ites persisted in dwelling in this land.<sup>v</sup> 28 And it came about that Israel grew strong<sup>w</sup> and proceeded to set the Ca'naan-ites to forced labor,<sup>x</sup> and they did not drive them out completely.<sup>y</sup>

29 Neither did E'phra-im drive out the Ca'naan-ites who were dwelling in Ge'zer, but the Ca'naan-ites continued to dwell in among them in Ge'zer.<sup>a</sup>

34 And the Am'or-ites kept pressing the sons of Dan<sup>p</sup> into the mountainous region, for they did not allow them to come down into the low plain.<sup>q</sup> 35 So the Am'or-ites persisted in dwelling in Mount He'res and in Ai'ja-lon<sup>r</sup> and Sha'al'bim.<sup>s</sup> But the hand of the house of Joseph got to be so heavy that they were forced into task work.<sup>t</sup> 36 And the territory of the Am'or-ites was from the ascent of A'krab'bim,<sup>u</sup> from Se'la upward.

2 Then Jehovah's angel<sup>v</sup> went up from Gil'gal<sup>w</sup> to Bo'chim<sup>x</sup> and said: "I proceeded to bring you up out of Egypt and to bring you into the land about which I swore to your forefathers.<sup>y</sup> Furthermore, I said, 'Never shall I break my covenant with you.'<sup>z</sup>

2 And for your part, you must not conclude a covenant with the inhabitants of this land.<sup>a</sup> Their altars you should pull down.<sup>b</sup> But you have not listened to my voice.<sup>c</sup> Why have you done this?<sup>d</sup> 3 So I, in turn, have said, 'I shall not drive them away from before you, and they must become snares to you,<sup>e</sup> and their gods will serve as a lure to you.'<sup>f</sup>

4 And it came about that as soon as Jehovah's angel had spoken these words to all the sons of Israel, the people began to raise their voices and weep.<sup>g</sup> 5 Hence they called the name of that place Bochim. And they proceeded to sacrifice there to Jehovah.

6 When Joshua sent the people away, then the sons of Israel went their way, each to his inheritance, to take possession of the land.<sup>h</sup> 7 And the people continued to serve Jehovah all the days of Joshua and all the days of the older men who extended their days after Joshua and who had seen all of Jehovah's great work that he did for Israel.<sup>i</sup>

They quickly turned aside from the way in which their forefathers had walked by obeying the commandments of Jehovah.<sup>o</sup> They did not do like that. 18 And when Jehovah did raise up judges<sup>p</sup> for them, Jehovah proved to be with the judge, and he saved them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge; for Jehovah would feel regret<sup>q</sup> over their groaning because of their oppressors<sup>r</sup> and those who were shoving them around.

19 And it occurred that when the judge died they would turn around and act more ruinously than their fathers by walking after other gods to serve them and bow down to them.<sup>s</sup> They did not refrain from their practices and their stubborn behavior.<sup>a</sup> 20 Finally Jehovah's anger blazed<sup>b</sup> against Israel and he said: "For the reason that this nation have overstepped my covenant<sup>c</sup> that I commanded their forefathers and have not listened to my voice,<sup>d</sup> 21 I too, for my part, shall not drive out again from before them a single one of the nations that Joshua left behind when he died.<sup>e</sup> 22 in order by them to test<sup>f</sup> Israel, whether they will be keepers of Jehovah's way by walking in it just as their fathers kept it, or not." 23 Accordingly Jehovah let these nations stay by not driving them out quickly,<sup>g</sup> and he did not give them into Joshua's hand.

3 Now these are the nations<sup>h</sup> that Jehovah let stay so as by them to test<sup>i</sup> Israel, that is, all those who had not experienced any of the wars of Ca'naan;<sup>j</sup> 2 it was only in order for the generations of the sons of Israel to have the experience, so as to teach them war, that is, only those who before that had not experienced such things: 3 The five axis lords<sup>k</sup> of the Phi-lis'tines,<sup>l</sup> and all the Ca'naan-ites,<sup>m</sup> even the Si-do'ni-ans<sup>n</sup> and the Hi'-vites<sup>o</sup> inhabiting Mount Leb'a-non<sup>p</sup> from Mount Ba'al-her'mon<sup>q</sup> as far as to the entering in of Ha'-math.<sup>r</sup> 4 And they kept serving as agents to test<sup>s</sup> Israel so as to know whether they would obey Jehovah's commandments that he had commanded their fathers by means of Moses.<sup>t</sup> 5 And the sons of Israel dwelt in among the Ca'naan-ites,<sup>u</sup> the Hi'tites and the Am'or-ites and the Per'-iz-zites and the Hi'vites and the Jeb'u-sites.<sup>v</sup> 6 And they proceeded to take their daughters as wives for themselves,<sup>w</sup> and their own daughters they gave to their sons,<sup>x</sup> and they took up serving their gods.<sup>y</sup>

what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, and they were forgetful of Jehovah their God<sup>a</sup> and went serving the Ba'als<sup>b</sup> and the sacred poles.<sup>c</sup> 8 At this Jehovah's anger blazed against Israel,<sup>d</sup> so that he sold<sup>e</sup> them into the hand of Cu'shan-rish-a-tha'im the king of Mes-o-po-ta-mi-a;<sup>f</sup> and the sons of Israel continued to serve Cu'shan-rish-a-tha'im eight years. 9 And the sons of Israel began to call to Jehovah for aid.<sup>g</sup> Then Jehovah raised a savior<sup>h</sup> up for the sons of Israel that he might save them, Oth'ni-el<sup>i</sup> the son of Ke'naz,<sup>j</sup> the younger brother of Ca'leb.<sup>k</sup> 10 The spirit<sup>l</sup> of Jehovah now came upon him, and he became the judge of Israel. When he went out to battle, then Jehovah gave Cu'shan-rish-a-tha'im the king of Syria into his hand so that his hand overpowered<sup>m</sup> Cu'shan-rish-a-tha'im. 11 After that the land had no disturbance for forty years. Eventually Oth'ni-el the son of Ke'naz died.

12 And once again the sons of Israel went doing what was bad in Jehovah's eyes.<sup>n</sup> At that Jehovah let Eg'lon the king of Mo'ab<sup>o</sup> grow strong against Israel,<sup>p</sup> because they did what was bad in Jehovah's eyes.<sup>q</sup> 13 Furthermore, he gathered against them the sons of Am'mon<sup>r</sup> and Am'a-lek.<sup>s</sup> Then they went and struck Israel and took possession of the city of palm trees.<sup>t</sup> 14 And the sons of Israel continued to serve Eg'lon the king of Mo'ab eighteen years.<sup>u</sup> 15 And the sons of Israel began to call to Jehovah for aid.<sup>v</sup> So Jehovah raised up for them a savior, E'hud<sup>w</sup> the son of Ge'ra, a Ben'ja-mite,<sup>x</sup> a left-handed man.<sup>y</sup> In time the sons of Israel sent tribute by his hand to Eg'lon the king of Mo'ab. 16 Meanwhile E'hud made a sword for himself, and it had two edges,<sup>a</sup> its length being a cubit. Then he girded it underneath his garment upon his right thigh.<sup>b</sup> 17 And he proceeded to present the tribute to Eg'lon the king of Mo'ab.<sup>c</sup> Now Eg'lon was a very fat man.

18 And it came about that when he had finished presenting the tribute,<sup>d</sup> he at once sent the people away, the bearers of the tribute. 19 And he himself turned back at the quarries that were at Gil'gal,<sup>e</sup> and he proceeded to say: "I have a secret word for you, O king." So he said: "Keep silence!" With that all those who were standing by him went on out from him.<sup>f</sup> 20 And E'hud came to him as he was sitting in his cool roof chamber that he had to himself. And E'hud went on to say: "A word of God I have for you." At that he rose up from his throne. 21 Then E'hud thrust in his left hand and took the sword off his right thigh and plunged it into his belly. 22 And the handle kept going in also after the blade so that the fat closed in over the blade, for he did not draw the sword out of his belly, and the fecal matter began to come out. 23 And E'hud proceeded to go out through the air hole, but he closed the doors of the roof chamber behind him and locked them. 24 And he himself went out.<sup>g</sup>

And his servants came and began looking, and there the doors of the roof chamber were locked. So they said: "He is just easing nature<sup>h</sup> in the cool interior room." 25 And they kept waiting until they were ashamed, and, look! there was no one opening the doors of the roof chamber. At this they took the key and opened them, and, look! their lord was fallen to the earth dead!

26 As for E'hud, he escaped while they were lingering, and he himself passed by the quarries<sup>a</sup> and made his escape to Se-i'rah. 27 And it came about that when he got there he began blowing the horn<sup>b</sup> in the mountainous region of E'phra-im;<sup>c</sup> and the sons of Israel began going down with him out of the mountainous region, he being at their head. 28 Then he said to them: "Follow me,<sup>d</sup> because Jehovah has given your enemies, the Mo'ab-ites, into your hand."<sup>e</sup> And they went following him and got to capture the fords<sup>f</sup> of the Jordan against the Mo'ab-ites, and they did not allow anybody to pass over. 29 And at that time they went striking down Mo'ab, about ten thousand men,<sup>g</sup> every one robust<sup>h</sup> and every one a valiant man; and not a single one escaped.<sup>i</sup> 30 And Mo'ab came to be subdued on that day under Israel's hand; and the land had no further disturbance for eighty years.<sup>j</sup>

31 And after him there proved to be Sham'gar<sup>k</sup> the son of A'nath, and he went striking down the Phi-lis'tines,<sup>l</sup> six hundred men, with a cattle goad; and he too got to save Israel.<sup>m</sup>

4 Then the sons of Israel again began to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes now that E'hud was dead.<sup>n</sup> 2 So Jehovah sold<sup>o</sup> them into the hand of Ja'bin the king of Ca'naan, who reigned in Ha'zor;<sup>p</sup> and the chief of his army was Sis'e-ra,<sup>q</sup> and he was dwelling in Ha-ro'sheth<sup>r</sup> of the nations. 3 And the sons of Israel began to cry out to Jehovah,<sup>s</sup> because he had nine hundred war chariots with iron scythes,<sup>t</sup> and he himself oppressed the sons of Israel<sup>u</sup> with harshness twenty years.

4 Now Deb'o-rah, a prophetess,<sup>a</sup> the wife of Lap'pi-doth, was judging Israel at that particular time. 5 And she was dwelling under Deb'o-rah's palm tree between Ra'mah<sup>b</sup> and Beth-el<sup>c</sup> in the mountainous region of Ephra'im; and the sons of Israel would go up to her for judgment. 6 And she proceeded to send and call Ba'arak<sup>d</sup> the son of A-bin'o-am out of Ke'desh-naph'ta-li<sup>e</sup> and to say to him: "Has not Jehovah the God of Israel given the command? 'Go and you must spread yourself out on Mount Ta'bor,<sup>f</sup> and you must take with you ten thousand men out of the sons of Naph'ta-li<sup>g</sup> and out of the sons of Zeb'u-lun.<sup>h</sup> 7 And I shall certainly draw to you<sup>i</sup> at the torrent valley of Ki'shon<sup>j</sup> Sis'e-ra<sup>k</sup> the chief of Ja'bin's<sup>l</sup> army and his war chariots and his crowd, and I shall indeed give him into your hand.'"<sup>m</sup>

8 At this Ba'arak said to her: "If you will go with me, I also shall certainly go; but if you will not go with me, I shall not go." 9 To this she said: "Without fail I shall go with you. Just the same, the beautifying thing will not become yours on the way that you are going, for it will be into the hand of a woman<sup>n</sup> that Jehovah will sell Sis'e-ra." With that Deb'o-rah got up and went with Ba'arak to Ke'desh.<sup>o</sup> 10 And Ba'arak began to call Zeb'u-lun<sup>p</sup> and Naph'ta-li together to Ke'desh, and ten thousand men went on up following his steps;<sup>q</sup> and Deb'o-rah went on up with him.

11 Incidentally He'ber<sup>r</sup> the Ken'ite had separated from the Ken'ites,<sup>s</sup> the sons of Ho'bab, whose son-in-law Moses was,<sup>t</sup> and he had his tent pitched near the big tree in Za-a-nan'nim, which is at Ke'desh.

12 Then they reported to Sis'e-ra that Ba'arak the son of A-bin'o-am<sup>u</sup> had gone up to Mount Ta'bor.<sup>v</sup> 13 At once Sis'e-ra called together all his war chariots, the nine hundred war chariots with iron scythes,<sup>a</sup> and all the people that were with him, out of Ha-ro'sheth of the nations to the torrent valley of Ki'shon.<sup>b</sup> 14 Deb'o-rah now said to Ba'arak: "Get up, for this is the day that Jehovah will certainly give Sis'e-ra into your hand. Is it not Jehovah that has gone out before you?"<sup>c</sup> And Ba'arak went descending from Mount Ta'bor with ten thousand men behind him. 15 And Jehovah began to throw Sis'e-ra and all his war chariots and all the camp into confusion<sup>d</sup> by the edge of the sword before Ba'arak. Finally Sis'e-ra got down off the chariot and took to flight on foot. 16 And Ba'arak chased after<sup>e</sup> the war chariots<sup>f</sup> and the camp as far as Ha-ro'sheth of the nations, so that all the camp of Sis'e-ra fell by the edge of the sword. Not as much as one remained.<sup>g</sup>

17 As for Sis'e-ra,<sup>h</sup> he fled on foot to the tent of Ja'el<sup>i</sup> the wife of He'ber the Ken'ite,<sup>j</sup> for there was peace between Ja'bin the king of Ha'zor<sup>k</sup> and the household of He'ber the Ken'ite. 18 Then Ja'el came on out to meet Sis'e-ra and said to him: "Turn this way, my lord, turn this way to me. Do not be afraid." So he turned aside to her into the tent. Later she covered him with a blanket. 19 In time he said to her: "Give me, please, a little water to drink, for I am thirsty." Accordingly she opened a skin bottle<sup>l</sup> of milk and gave him a drink,<sup>m</sup> after which she covered him. 20 And he went on to say to her: "Stand at the entrance of the tent, and it must occur that if anybody comes and does ask you and says, 'Is there a man here?' you must then say, 'No!'"

21 And Ja'el the wife of He'ber proceeded to take a pin of the tent and to put the hammer into her hand. Then she went to him stealthily and drove the pin into his temples<sup>a</sup> and beat it into the earth, while he was fast asleep and weary. So he died.<sup>b</sup>

22 And, look! there was Ba'-rak pursuing Sis'e-ra. Ja'el now came on out to meet him and said to him: "Come and I shall show you the man you are looking for." So in he went to her, and, look! there was Sis'e-ra fallen dead, with the pin in his temples.

23 Thus God subdued<sup>c</sup> Ja'-bin the king of Ca'naan before the sons of Israel on that day.

2 "For letting the hair hang loose in Israel for war,

It was then there was war in the gates.<sup>f</sup>

A shield could not be seen,

And you who walk on the road,

Consider!<sup>l</sup>

There they began to recount the righteous acts of Jehovah.<sup>n</sup>

The righteous acts of his dwellers in open country in Israel.

It was then Jehovah's people made their way down to the gates.

12 Awake, awake, O Deb'o-rah;<sup>o</sup>
Awake, awake, utter a song!<sup>p</sup>

Rise up, Ba'rak,<sup>q</sup> and lead your captives away, you son of A-bin'o-am!<sup>r</sup>

13 It was then the survivors came down to the majestic ones;

Jehovah's people came down to me against the mighty ones.

14 Out of E'phra-im was their origin in the low plain,<sup>s</sup>

With you, O Benjamin,
among your peoples.
Out of Ma'chir<sup>a</sup> the commanders went down,
And out of Zeb'u-lun those handling the equipment of a scribe.<sup>b</sup>

15 And the princes in Is'sa-char<sup>c</sup> were with Deb'o-rah,
And as Is'sa-char, so was Ba'ra<sup>d</sup>.

Into the low plain he was sent on foot.<sup>e</sup>

Among the divisions of Reu'ben great were the searchings of the heart.<sup>f</sup>

16 Why did you sit down between the two saddlebags,
To listen to the pipings for the flocks?<sup>g</sup>

For the divisions of Reu'- ben there were great searchings of the heart.<sup>h</sup>

17 Gil'e-ad kept to his residence on the other side of the Jordan;<sup>i</sup>

And Dan, why did he continue to dwell for the time in ships?<sup>j</sup>

Ash'er sat idle at the seashore,

And by his landing places
he kept residing.<sup>k</sup>

18 Zeb'u-lun was a people that scorned their souls to the point of death;<sup>l</sup> Naph'ta-li<sup>m</sup> also, on the heights of the field.<sup>n</sup>

19 Kings came, they fought;
It was then that the kings of Ca'naan fought<sup>o</sup>

In Ta'a-nach<sup>p</sup> by the waters of Me-gid'do.<sup>q</sup>

No gain of silver did they take.<sup>r</sup>

20 From heaven did the stars fight,<sup>s</sup>

From their orbits they fought against Sis'e-ra.

21 The torrent of Ki'shon washed them away,<sup>t</sup>

The torrent of ancient

You went treading down strength,<sup>a</sup> O my soul.

22 It was then that the hoofs of horses pawed<sup>b</sup>

Because of dashings upon dashings of his stallions.

23 'CURSE<sup>c</sup> Me'roz,' said the angel of Jehovah,<sup>d</sup>

'CURSE its inhabitants incessantly,

For they did not come to the assistance of Jehovah,

To the assistance of Jehovah with the mighty ones.'

Ken'ite<sup>f</sup> will be most blessed among women, Among women in the tent she will be most blessed.<sup>g</sup>

25 Water he asked, milk she gave;

In the large banquet bowl of majestic ones she presented curdled milk.<sup>h</sup>

26 Her hand to the tent pin she then thrust out,

And her right hand to the mallet of hard workers.<sup>i</sup>

And she hammered Sis'era, she pierced his head through,<sup>j</sup>

And she broke apart and cut up his temples.

27 Between her feet he collapsed, he fell, he lay down;

Between her feet he collapsed, he fell;

Where he collapsed, there he fell overcome.<sup>k</sup>

28 From the window a woman looked out and kept watching for him,

The mother of Sis'e-ra from the lattice,<sup>l</sup>

'Why has his war chariot delayed in coming?'<sup>m</sup>

Why must the hoofbeats of his chariots be so late?'<sup>n</sup>

29 The wise ones of her noble ladies<sup>o</sup> would answer her,
Yes, she too would talk back to herself with her own sayings,

30 'Ought they not to find, ought they not to distribute spoil,<sup>a</sup>

A womb—two wombs to every able-bodied man,<sup>b</sup>

Spoil of dyed stuffs for Sis'-e-ra, spoil of dyed stuffs,

An embroidered garment, dyed stuff, two embroidered garments

For the necks of men of spoil?<sup>c</sup>

And let your lovers<sup>d</sup> be as when the sun goes forth in its mightiness."<sup>e</sup>

And the land had no further disturbance for forty years.<sup>f</sup>

6 Then the sons of Israel began to do what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah.<sup>g</sup> So Jehovah gave them into the hand of Mid'-i-an<sup>h</sup> for seven years. 2 And the hand of Mid'-i-an came to prevail over Israel.<sup>i</sup> Due to Mid'-i-an the sons of Israel made for themselves the underground store places that were in the mountains, and the caves and the places difficult to approach.<sup>j</sup>

3 And it occurred that, if Israel sowed seed,<sup>k</sup> Mid'-i-an and Am'-a-lek<sup>l</sup> and the Easterners<sup>m</sup> came up, yes, they came up against them. 4 And they would camp against them and would ruin the yield of the earth all the way to Ga'za, and they would not let any sustenance or sheep or bull or ass remain in Israel.<sup>n</sup> 5 For they and their livestock would come up with their tents. They would come as numerous as the locusts,<sup>o</sup> and they and their camels were without number;<sup>p</sup> and they would come into the land to ruin it.<sup>q</sup> 6 And Israel became greatly impoverished due to Mid'-i-an; and the sons of Israel began to call to Jehovah for aid.<sup>r</sup>

father's house."<sup>a</sup> 16 But Jehovah said to him: "Because I shall prove to be with you,<sup>b</sup> and you will certainly strike down Mid'i-an<sup>c</sup> as if one man."

17 At this he said to him: "If, now, I have found favor in your eyes,<sup>d</sup> you must also perform a sign for me that you are the one speaking with me.<sup>e</sup> 18 Do not, please, move away from here until I come to you<sup>f</sup> and I have brought out my gift and set it before you."<sup>g</sup> Accordingly he said: "I, for my part, shall keep sitting here until you return." 19 And Gid'e-on went in and proceeded to make ready a kid of the goats<sup>h</sup> and an e'phah of flour as unfermented cakes.<sup>i</sup> The meat he put in the basket, and the broth he put in the cooking pot, after which he brought it out to him under the big tree and served it.

20 The angel of the true God now said to him: "Take the meat and the unfermented cakes and set them on the big rock there,<sup>j</sup> and pour out the broth." At that he did so. 21 Then Jehovah's angel thrust out the tip of the staff that was in his hand and touched the meat and the unfermented cakes, and fire began to ascend out of the rock and to consume the meat and the unfermented cakes.<sup>k</sup> As for Jehovah's angel, he vanished from his sight. 22 Consequently Gid'e-on realized that it was Jehovah's angel.<sup>l</sup>

At once Gid'e-on said: "Alas, Sovereign Lord Jehovah, for the reason that I have seen Jehovah's angel face to face!"<sup>m</sup> 23 But Jehovah said to him: "Peace be yours.<sup>n</sup> Do not fear.<sup>o</sup> You will not die."<sup>p</sup> 24 So Gid'e-on built an altar<sup>q</sup> there to Jehovah, and it continues to be called<sup>r</sup> Je-ho-vah-sha'lom down to this day. It is yet in Oph'rah<sup>s</sup> of the Abiez'rites.

25 And it came about during that night that Jehovah went on to say to him: "Take the young bull, the bull that belongs to your father, that is, the second young bull of seven years, and you must tear down the altar of Ba'al<sup>a</sup> that is your father's, and the sacred pole that is by it you should cut down.<sup>b</sup> 26 And you must build an altar to Jehovah your God at the head of this stronghold, with the row of stones, and you must take the second young bull and offer it up as a burnt offering on the pieces of wood of the sacred pole that you will cut down." 27 Accordingly Gid'e-on took ten men of his servants and went doing just as Jehovah had spoken to him;<sup>c</sup> but it came about that, as he feared the household of his father and the men of the city too much to do it by day, he went doing it by night.<sup>d</sup>

28 When the men of the city got up early in the morning as usual, why, look! the altar of Ba'al had been pulled down and the sacred pole<sup>e</sup> that was beside it had been cut down, and the second young bull had been offered up on the altar that had been built. 29 And they began to say one to another: "Who has done this thing?" And they went inquiring and seeking. Finally they said: "Gid'e-on the son of Jo'ash is the one that has done this thing." 30 So the men of the city said to Jo'ash: "Bring your son out that he may die,<sup>f</sup> because he has pulled down the altar of Ba'al, and because he has cut down the sacred pole that was by it." 31 At this Jo'ash<sup>g</sup> said to all those who stood against him:<sup>h</sup> "Will you be the ones to make a legal defense for Ba'al to see whether you yourselves may save him? Whoever makes a legal defense for him ought to be put to death even this morning.<sup>i</sup> If he is God,<sup>j</sup> let him make a legal defense for himself,<sup>k</sup> because someone has pulled down his altar." 32 And he began to call him Jer-ub-ba'al<sup>l</sup> on that day, saying: "Let Ba'al make a legal defense in his own behalf, because someone has pulled down his altar."<sup>a</sup>

33 And all Mid'i-an<sup>b</sup> and Am'-a-lek<sup>c</sup> and the Easterners<sup>d</sup> gathered together as one<sup>e</sup> and proceeded to cross over and camp in the low plain of Jez're-el.<sup>f</sup>

34 And Jehovah's spirit<sup>g</sup> enveloped Gid'e-on so that he went blowing the horn,<sup>h</sup> and the Abiez'rites<sup>i</sup> got to be called together after him. 35 And he sent out messengers<sup>j</sup> through all of Manas'seh, and they too got to be called together after him. He also sent out messengers through Ash'er and Zeb'u-lun and Naph'-tai, and they came on up to meet him.

36 Then Gid'e-on said to the true God: "If you are saving Israel by means of me, just as you have promised,<sup>k</sup> 37 here I am keeping a fleece of wool exposed on the threshing floor. If dew comes to be on the fleece alone but on all the earth there is dryness, then I must know that you will save Israel by means of me, just as you have promised."

38 And it turned out to be that way. When he rose up early the next day and wrung the fleece, he got to drain off enough dew from the fleece to fill a large banquet bowl with water. 39 However, Gid'e-on said to the true God: "Do not let your anger blaze against me, but let me speak just once more. Let me, please, make a test only once more with the fleece. Let, please, dryness occur to the fleece alone, and upon all the earth let there come to be dew." 40 So God did that way on that night; and dryness came to be on the fleece alone, and upon all the earth dew occurred.

7 Then Jer-ub-ba'al,<sup>l</sup> that is to say, Gid'e-on,<sup>m</sup> and all the people who were with him, rose early and took up camping at the well of Ha'rod; and the camp of Mid'i-an happened to be on the north of him, at the hill of Mo'-reh, in the low plain. 2 Jehovah now said to Gid'e-on: "The people who are with you are too many for me to give Mid'i-an into their hand.<sup>a</sup> Perhaps Israel would brag<sup>b</sup> about itself against me, saying, 'My hand it was that saved me.'<sup>c</sup> 3 And now call out, please, in the hearing of the people, saying, 'Who is there afraid and trembling? Let him retire.'<sup>d</sup> So Gid'e-on put them to the proof. With that, twenty-two thousand of the people retired, and there were ten thousand that remained.

4 Still Jehovah said to Gid'e-on: "There are yet too many people.<sup>e</sup> Have them go down to the water that I may put them to the proof for you there. And it must occur that of whomever I say to you, 'This one will go with you,' he is one that will go with you, but every one of whom I say to you, 'This one will not go along with you,' he is one that will not go along."<sup>f</sup> 5 So he had the people go down to the water.<sup>g</sup>

Then Jehovah said to Gid'e-on: "Every one that laps up some of the water with his tongue just as a dog laps, you will set him by himself, also every one that bends down upon his knees to drink."<sup>h</sup> 6 And the number of those lapping with their hand to their mouth turned out to be three hundred men. As for all the rest of the people, they bent down upon their knees to drink water.

7 Jehovah now said to Gid'e-on: "By the three hundred men who did the lapping I shall save you people, and I will give Mid'i-an into your hand.<sup>i</sup> As for all the other people, let them go each one to his place."<sup>j</sup> 8 So they took the provisions of the people in their hand, and their horns,<sup>k</sup> and all the men of Israel he sent away each one to his home; and he kept hold of the three hundred men. As for the camp of Mid'i-an, it happened to be down below him in the low plain.<sup>a</sup>

9 And it came about during that night<sup>b</sup> that Jehovah proceeded to say to him: "Rise up, descend upon the camp, for I have given it into your hand."<sup>c</sup>

10 But if you are afraid to descend, descend, you with Pu'rahyour attendant, to the camp.<sup>d</sup>

11 And you must listen to what they will speak,<sup>e</sup> and afterward your hands will certainly grow strong,<sup>f</sup> and you will be certain to descend upon the camp." At that he and Pu'rah his attendant made their descent to the edge of those in battle formation who were in the camp.

12 Now Mid'i-an and Am'alek and all the Easterners<sup>g</sup> were plumped in the low plain as numerous as locusts;<sup>h</sup> and their camels<sup>i</sup> were without number, as numerous as the grains of sand that are on the seashore.

13 Gid'e-on now came, and, look! there was a man relating a dream to his companion, and he went on to say: "Here is a dream that I have dreamed.<sup>j</sup> And, look! there was a round cake of barley bread turning over and over into the camp of Mid'i-an. Then it came to a tent and struck it so that it fell,<sup>k</sup> and it went turning it upside down, and the tent fell flat."

14 At this his companion answered<sup>l</sup> and said: "This is nothing else but the sword of Gid'e-on<sup>m</sup> the son of Jo'ash, a man of Israel. The true God<sup>n</sup> has given Mid'i-an and all the camp into his hand."<sup>o</sup>

15 And it came about that as soon as Gid'e-on heard the relating of the dream and its explanation,<sup>p</sup> he began to worship.<sup>q</sup> After that he returned to the camp of Israel and said: "Get up,<sup>r</sup> for Jehovah has given the camp of Mid'i-an into your hand." 16 Then he divided the three hundred men up into three bands and put horns<sup>a</sup> in the hands of all of them and large empty jars, and torches inside the large jars. 17 And he went on to say to them: "You should learn from watching me, and that is how you should do. And when I am come to the edge of the camp, it must also occur that just as I shall do, so you will do."

18 When I have blown the horn, I and all who are with me, you also must blow the horns, you too, round about all the camp,<sup>b</sup> and you must say, 'Jehovah's<sup>c</sup> and Gid'e-on's!'"

19 In time Gid'e-on came with the hundred men who were with him to the edge of the camp at the start of the middle night watch.<sup>d</sup> They had just got through posting the sentries. And they proceeded to blow the horns,<sup>e</sup> and there was a dashing to pieces of the large water jars that were in their hands.<sup>f</sup> 20 At that the three bands blew the horns<sup>g</sup> and shattered the large jars and took fresh hold on the torches with their left hand and with their right hand on the horns to blow them, and they began calling out: "Jehovah's<sup>h</sup> sword and Gid'e-on's!"

21 All the while they kept standing each one in his place all around the camp, and the whole camp got on the run and broke out into shouting and went fleeing.<sup>i</sup> 22 And the three hundred<sup>j</sup> continued to blow the horns,<sup>k</sup> and Jehovah proceeded to set the sword of each one against the other in all the camp;<sup>l</sup> and the camp kept up their flight as far as Beth-shit'tah, on to Zer'e-rah, as far as the outskirts of A'bel-me-ho'lah<sup>m</sup> by Tab'bath.

Ma-nas<sup>a</sup> seh,<sup>a</sup> and they went chasing<sup>b</sup> after Mid'i-an. 24 And Gid'e-on sent messengers into all the mountainous region of E'phra-im,<sup>c</sup> saying: "Go down to meet Mid'i-an and capture ahead of them the waters as far as Beth-bar'ah and the Jordan." So all the men of E'phra-im were called together, and they got to capture the waters<sup>d</sup> as far as Beth-bar'ah and the Jordan. 25 They also got to capture the two princes of Mid'i-an, namely, O'reb and Ze'eb;<sup>e</sup> and they proceeded to kill O'reb on the rock of O'reb,<sup>f</sup> and they killed Ze'eb at the wine vat of Ze'eb. And they kept on pursuing Mid'i-an,<sup>g</sup> and they brought the head of O'reb and that of Ze'eb to Gid'e-on in the region of the Jordan.<sup>h</sup>

8 Then the men of E'phra-im said to him: "What sort of thing is this that you have done to us in not calling us when you went to fight against Mid'i-an?"<sup>i</sup> And they vehemently tried to pick a quarrel with him.<sup>j</sup> 2 Finally he said to them: "What now have I done in comparison with you?"<sup>k</sup> Are not the gleanings of E'phra-im<sup>l</sup> better than the grape gathering of Abi-e'zer?<sup>m</sup> 3 It was into your hand that God gave Mid'i-an's princes O'reb and Ze'eb,<sup>n</sup> and what have I been able to do in comparison with you?" It was then that their spirit calmed down toward him when he spoke this word.<sup>o</sup>

4 Eventually Gid'e-on came to the Jordan, crossing it, he and the three hundred men that were with him, tired but keeping up the pursuit. 5 Later he said to the men of Suc'coth:<sup>p</sup> "Please give round loaves of bread to the people that are following my steps,<sup>q</sup> for they are tired and I am chasing after Ze'bah<sup>r</sup> and Zal-mun'na,<sup>s</sup> the kings of Mid'i-an." 6 But the princes of Suc'coth said: "Are the palms of Ze-bah and of Zal-mun'na already in your hand so that bread has to be given to your army?"<sup>a</sup> 7 At this Gid'e-on said: "That is why when Jehovah gives Ze'bah and Zal-mun'na into my hand, I shall certainly give your flesh a threshing with the thorns of the wilderness and the briers."<sup>b</sup> 8 And he continued on his way up from there to Pe-nu'el<sup>c</sup> and went speaking to them in this same manner, but the men of Pe-nu'el answered him just as the men of Suc'coth had answered. 9 Hence he said also to the men of Pe-nu'el: "When I return in peace, I shall pull down this tower."<sup>d</sup>

10 Now Ze'bah and Zal-mun'na<sup>e</sup> were in Kar'kor, and their camps with them, about fifteen thousand being all who were left over out of the entire camp of the Easterners;<sup>f</sup> and those already fallen were a hundred and twenty thousand men who used to draw the sword.<sup>g</sup> 11 And Gid'e-on continued on up by the way of those residing in tents to the east of No'bah and Jog'be-hah<sup>h</sup> and began to strike the camp while the camp happened to be off guard.<sup>i</sup> 12 When Ze'bah and Zal-mun'na took to flight, he at once went in pursuit of them and got to capture Mid'i-an's two kings, Ze'bah and Zal-mun'na;<sup>j</sup> and he drove all the camp into trembling.

13 And Gid'e-on the son of Jo'ash began his return from the war by the pass that goes up to He'res. 14 En route he captured a young man of the men of Suc'coth<sup>k</sup> and made inquiries of him.<sup>l</sup> So he wrote out for him the names of the princes<sup>m</sup> of Suc'coth and its older men, seventy-seven men. 15 With that he went to the men of Suc'coth and said: "Here are Ze'bah and Zal-mun'na respecting whom you taunted me, saying, 'Are the palms of Ze'bah and of Zal-mun'na already in your hand so that bread has to be given to your tired-out men?"<sup>a</sup> 16 Then he took the older men of the city and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and with them he put the men of Suc'coth through an experience.<sup>b</sup> 17 And the tower of Pe-nu'el<sup>c</sup> he pulled down,<sup>d</sup> and he proceeded to kill the men of the city.

18 He now said to Ze'bah and Zal-mun'na:<sup>e</sup> "What sort of men were they whom you killed in Ta'bor?"<sup>f</sup> To this they said: "As you are, so were they, each one, like the sons of a king in form."

19 At that he said: "They were my brothers, the sons of my mother. As Jehovah lives, if you had preserved them alive, I would not have to kill you."<sup>g</sup>

20 Then he said to Je'ther his firstborn: "Get up, kill them." And the young man did not draw his sword, because he was afraid, for he was yet a young man.<sup>h</sup>

21 So Ze'bah and Zal-mun'na said: "Get up yourself and assault us, for as a man is, so is his mightiness."<sup>i</sup> Accordingly Gid'e-on got up and killed<sup>j</sup> Ze'bah and Zal-mun'na and took the moon-shaped ornaments that were on the necks of their camels.

22 Later the men of Israel said to Gid'e-on: "Rule over us,<sup>k</sup> you and your son and your grandson as well, for you have saved us out of the hand of Mid'i-an."<sup>l</sup>

23 But Gid'e-on said to them: "I myself shall not rule over you, nor will my son rule over you.<sup>m</sup> Jehovah is the one who will rule over you."<sup>n</sup> 24 And Gid'e-on went on to say to them: "Let me make a request of you: Give me, each one of you, the nose ring<sup>o</sup> of his booty." (For they had nose rings of gold, because they were Ish'ma-el-ites.)<sup>p</sup> 25 Then they said: "We shall surely give them." With that they spread out a mantle and went throwing each one the nose ring of his booty into it. 26 And the weight of the nose rings of gold that he had requested amounted to one thousand seven hundred gold shekels, besides the moon-shaped ornaments<sup>a</sup> and the ear-drops and the garments of wool dyed reddish purple<sup>b</sup> that were upon the kings of Mid'i-an and besides the necklaces that were on the necks of the camels.<sup>c</sup>

27 And Gid'e-on proceeded to make it into an ephod<sup>d</sup> and to exhibit it in his city Oph'rah;<sup>e</sup> and all Israel began to have immoral intercourse with it there,<sup>f</sup> so that it served as a snare to Gid'e-on and to his household.<sup>g</sup>

28 Thus Mid'i-an<sup>h</sup> was subdued before the sons of Israel, and they did not lift up their head anymore; and the land had no further disturbance for forty years in the days of Gid'e-on.<sup>i</sup>

29 And Jer-ub-ba'al<sup>j</sup> the son of Jo'ash went his way and continued to dwell in his house.

30 And Gid'e-on came to have seventy sons<sup>k</sup> that issued out of his upper thigh, for he came to have many wives. 31 As for the concubine of his that was in She'chem, she too bore him a son. So he named him A-bim'-e-lech.<sup>l</sup> 32 Eventually Gid'e-on the son of Jo'ash died at a good old age and was buried in the burial place of Jo'ash his father in Oph'rah of the Abi-ez'rites.<sup>m</sup>

33 And it came about that as soon as Gid'e-on had died the sons of Israel again took up having immoral intercourse with the Ba'al's,<sup>n</sup> so that they appointed Ba'al-be'rith as their god.<sup>o</sup> 34 And the sons of Israel did not remember Jehovah their God,<sup>p</sup> who had delivered them out of the hand of all their enemies round about;<sup>q</sup> 35 and they did not exercise loving-kindness<sup>r</sup> toward the household of Jer-ub-ba'al, Gid'e-on, in return for all the goodness that he had exercised toward Israel.<sup>s</sup>

9 In time A-bim'e-lech<sup>a</sup> the son of Jer-ub-ba'al went to She'-chem<sup>b</sup> to the brothers of his mother and began speaking to them and to all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying: 2 "Speak, please, in the hearing of all the landowners of She'chem, 'Which is better for you, for seventy men,<sup>c</sup> all the sons of Jer-ub-ba'al, to rule over you or for one man to rule over you? And you must remember that your bone and your flesh I am.'<sup>d</sup>

3 So the brothers of his mother began speaking all these words about him in the hearing of all the landowners of She'-chem so that their heart inclined toward A-bim'e-lech,<sup>e</sup> for they said: "He is our own brother."<sup>f</sup>

6 Subsequently all the landowners of She'chem and all the house of Mil'lo<sup>k</sup> gathered together and went and made A-bim'e-lech reign as king,<sup>l</sup> close by the big tree,<sup>m</sup> the pillar that was in She'chem.<sup>n</sup>

7 When they reported it to Jo'tham he at once went and stood on the top of Mount Ger'-i-zim<sup>o</sup> and raised his voice and called out and said to them: "Listen to me, you landowners of She'chem, and let God listen to you:

8 "Once upon a time the trees went to anoint a king over them. So they said to the olive tree,<sup>p</sup> 'Do be king over us.'<sup>q</sup> 9 But the ol-

10 Then the trees said to the fig tree,<sup>c</sup> 'You come, be queen over us.' 11 But the fig tree said to them, 'Must I give up my sweetness and my good produce, and must I go to wave over the other trees?'<sup>d</sup>

12 Next the trees said to the vine, 'You come, be queen over us.' 13 In turn the vine said to them, 'Must I give up my new wine that makes God and men rejoice,<sup>e</sup> and must I go to wave over the trees?' 14 Finally all the other trees said to the bramble,<sup>f</sup> 'You come, be king over us.'

15 At this the bramble said to the trees, 'If it is in truth that you are anointing me as king over you, come, seek refuge under my shadow.<sup>g</sup> But if not, let fire<sup>h</sup> come out of the bramble and consume the cedars<sup>i</sup> of Leb'a-non.'<sup>j</sup>

16 "And now if it is in truth and in faultlessness that you have acted and that you went making A-bim'e-lech king,<sup>k</sup> and if it is goodness that you have exercised toward Jer-ub-ba'al and his household, and if you have done to him as the doing of his hands deserved, 17 when my father fought<sup>l</sup> for you and went risking his soul<sup>m</sup> that he might deliver you out of Mid'i-an's<sup>n</sup> hand; 18 and you, for YOUR part, have risen up against the household of my father today that you might kill his sons,<sup>o</sup> seventy men,<sup>p</sup> upon one stone, and that you might make A-bim'e-lech, the son of his slave girl,<sup>q</sup> king<sup>r</sup> over the landowners of She'chem just because he is YOUR own brother; 19 yes, if it is in truth and in faultlessness that you have acted toward Jer-ub-ba'al and his household this day, rejoice over A-bim'e-lech and let him too rejoice over you.<sup>s</sup>

22 And A-bim'e-lech kept playing the prince over Israel three years.<sup>f</sup> 23 Then God let develop a bad spirit<sup>g</sup> between A-bim'e-lech and the landowners of She'chem, and the landowners of She'chem proceeded to deal treacherously<sup>h</sup> with A-bim'e-lech. 24 that the violence done to the seventy sons of Jer-ub-ba'al might come<sup>i</sup> and that he might put their blood upon A-bim'e-lech their brother because he killed them,<sup>j</sup> and upon the landowners of She'chem because they strengthened his hands<sup>k</sup> to kill his brothers. 25 So the landowners of She'chem set ambush men for him upon the tops of the mountains, and they would rob everyone that would pass by them on the road. In time it was reported to A-bim'e-lech.

26 Then Ga'al<sup>l</sup> the son of E'bed and his brothers came and crossed over into She'chem,<sup>m</sup> and the landowners of She'chem began to trust in him.<sup>n</sup> 27 And they went out as usual into the field and engaged in gathering the grapes of their vineyards and in treading them and in carrying on a festal exultation,<sup>o</sup> after which they went into the house of their god<sup>p</sup> and ate and drank<sup>q</sup> and called down evil<sup>r</sup> upon A-bim'e-lech. 28 And Ga'al the son of E'bed went on to say: "Who is A-bim'e-lech,<sup>s</sup> and who is She'chem that we should serve him? of Ha'mor,<sup>a</sup> She'chem's father, you others, but why should we ourselves serve him? 29 And if only this people were in my hand!<sup>b</sup> Then I would remove A-bim'e-lech." And he went on to say to A-bim'e-lech: "Make your army numerous and come on out."<sup>c</sup>

30 And Ze'bul the prince of the city got to hear the words of Ga'al the son of E'bed.<sup>d</sup> Then his anger blazed. 31 So he sent messengers by subterfuge to A-bim'e-lech, saying: "Look! Ga'al the son of E'bed and his brothers are now come to She'chem,<sup>e</sup> and here they are massing the city against you. 32 And now rise up by night,<sup>f</sup> you and the people that are with you, and lie in wait<sup>g</sup> in the field. 33 And it must occur in the morning that as soon as the sun shines forth you should get up early, and you must make a dash against the city; and when he and the people that are with him are going out against you, you must also do to him just as your hand finds it possible."

34 Accordingly A-bim'e-lech and all the people that were with him rose up by night, and they began to lie in wait against She'chem in four bands. 35 Later Ga'al<sup>h</sup> the son of E'bed went out and stood at the entrance of the city gate. Then A-bim'e-lech and the people that were with him rose up from the place of ambush. 36 When Ga'al caught sight of the people, he at once said to Ze'bul: "Look! People coming down from the tops of the mountains." But Ze'bul said to him: "The shadows of the mountains are what you are seeing as though they were men."<sup>i</sup>

37 Later Ga'al spoke once more and said: "Look! People coming down out of the center of the land, and one band is coming by the way of the big tree of Me-on'e-nim." 38 At this Ze'bul said to him: "Where now is that saying of yours that you mouthed,<sup>a</sup> 'Who is A-bim'e-lech that we should serve him?'<sup>b</sup> Is not this the people whom you rejected?<sup>c</sup> Go out now, please, and fight against them."

39 So Ga'al went on out at the head of the landowners of She'chem and took up the fight against A-bim'e-lech. 40 And A-bim'e-lech set out after him, and he went fleeing before him; and the slain kept falling in numbers as far as the entrance of the gate.

41 And A-bim'e-lech continued to dwell in A-ru'mah, and Ze'bul<sup>d</sup> proceeded to drive Ga'al<sup>e</sup> and his brothers out from dwelling in She'chem.<sup>f</sup> 42 And it came about on the next day that the people began to go out into the field. So they told A-bim'e-lech.<sup>g</sup> 43 Hence he took the people and divided them up into three bands<sup>h</sup> and began to lie in wait in the field. Then he looked, and there the people were going out of the city. He now rose up against them and struck them down. 44 And A-bim'e-lech and the bands that were with him made a dash that they might stand at the entrance of the city gate, while two bands made a dash against all who were in the field, and they went striking them down.<sup>i</sup> 45 And A-bim'e-lech fought against the city all that day and got to capture the city; and he killed the people that were in it,<sup>j</sup> after which he pulled the city down<sup>k</sup> and sowed it with salt.<sup>l</sup>

46 When all the landowners of the tower of She'chem heard of it, they immediately went to the vault of the house of El-be'rith.<sup>m</sup> 47 Then it was reported to A-bim'e-lech that all the landowners of the tower of She'chem had collected together. 48 At that A-bim'e-lech went up Mount

Zal'mon,<sup>a</sup> he and all the people that were with him. A-bim'e-lech now took an ax in his hand and cut down a branch of the trees and lifted it up and put it on his shoulder and said to the people that were with him: "What you have seen me do—hurry up, do like me!"<sup>b</sup> 49 So all the people cut down also each one a branch for himself and went following A-bim'e-lech. Then they put them against the vault, and over them they set the vault on fire, so that all the men of the tower of She'chem died too, about a thousand men and women.<sup>c</sup>

50 And A-bim'e-lech proceeded to go to The'bez<sup>d</sup> and to camp against The'bez and capture it. 51 As a strong tower happened to be in the middle of the city, there was where all the men and women and all the landowners of the city went fleeing, after which they shut it behind them and climbed onto the roof of the tower. 52 And A-bim'e-lech made his way to the tower and began fighting against it, and he went on up close to the entrance of the tower to burn it with fire.<sup>e</sup> 53 Then a certain woman pitched an upper millstone upon A-bim'e-lech's head and broke his skull in pieces.<sup>f</sup> 54 So he quickly called the attendant bearing his weapons and said to him: "Draw your sword and put me to death,<sup>g</sup> for fear they should say about me, 'It was a woman that killed him.'" Immediately his attendant ran him through, so that he died.<sup>h</sup>

55 When the men of Israel got to see that A-bim'e-lech had died, they now went each one to his place. 56 Thus God made the evil of A-bim'e-lech that he had done to his father by killing his seventy brothers come back.<sup>i</sup> 57 And all the evil of the men of She'chem God made come back upon their own heads, that the

10 Now after A-bim'e-lech there rose up to save<sup>e</sup> Israel To'la the son of Pu'ah, the son of Do'do, a man of Is'sa-char, and he was dwelling in Sha'mir in the mountainous region of E'phra-im.<sup>f</sup> 2 And he continued to judge Israel for twenty-three years, after which he died and was buried in Sha'mir.

3 Then after him Ja'ir the Gil'e-ad-ite<sup>g</sup> rose up, and he continued to judge Israel for twenty-two years. 4 And he came to have thirty sons who rode on thirty full-grown asses,<sup>h</sup> and they had thirty cities. These they continue to call Hav'voth-ja'ir<sup>i</sup> down to this day; they are in the land of Gil'e-ad. 5 After that Ja'ir died and was buried in Ka'mon.

6 And the sons of Israel again proceeded to do what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah,<sup>j</sup> and they began to serve the Ba'al's<sup>k</sup> and the Ash'to-reth<sup>l</sup> images and the gods of Syria<sup>m</sup> and the gods of Si'don<sup>n</sup> and the gods of Mo'ab<sup>o</sup> and the gods of the sons of Am'mon<sup>p</sup> and the gods of the Phi-lis'tines.<sup>q</sup> So they left Jehovah and did not serve him.<sup>r</sup> 7 At this Jehovah's anger blazed against Israel,<sup>s</sup> so that he sold<sup>t</sup> them into the hand of the Phi-lis'tines<sup>u</sup> and into the hand of the sons of Am'mon.<sup>v</sup> 8 Hence they shattered and heavily oppressed the sons of Israel in that year—for eighteen years all the sons of Israel that were on the side of the Jordan in the land of the Am'or-ites that was in Gil'e-ad. 9 And the sons of Am'mon would cross the Jordan to fight even against Judah and Benjamin and the house of E'phra-im; and Israel was greatly distressed.<sup>w</sup> 10 And the sons of Israel began to call to Jehovah for aid,<sup>x</sup> saying: "We have sinned<sup>y</sup> against you, because we have left

11 Then Jehovah said to the sons of Israel: "Was it not from Egypt<sup>b</sup> and from the Am'or-ites<sup>c</sup> and from the sons of Am'mon<sup>d</sup> and from the Phi-lis'tines<sup>e</sup> 12 and the Si-do'ni-ans<sup>f</sup> and Am'a-lek<sup>g</sup> and Mid'i-an,<sup>h</sup> when they oppressed you<sup>i</sup> and you went crying out to me, that I proceeded to save you out of their hand? 13 As for you, you abandoned me<sup>j</sup> and took up serving other gods.<sup>k</sup> That is why I shall not save you again.<sup>l</sup> 14 Go and call for aid to the gods<sup>m</sup> whom you have chosen.<sup>n</sup> Let them be the ones to save you in the time of your distress."<sup>o</sup> 15 But the sons of Israel said to Jehovah: "We have sinned.<sup>p</sup> You yourself do to us according to anything that is good in your eyes.<sup>q</sup> Only deliver us, please, this day."<sup>r</sup> 16 And they began to remove the foreign gods from their midst<sup>s</sup> and to serve Jehovah,<sup>t</sup> so that his soul<sup>u</sup> became impatient because of the trouble of Israel.<sup>v</sup>

17 In time the sons of Am'mon<sup>w</sup> were called together and pitched camp in Gil'e-ad.<sup>x</sup> So the sons of Israel gathered themselves together and pitched camp in Miz'pah.<sup>y</sup> 18 And the people and the princes of Gil'e-ad began to say to one another: "Who is the man that will take the lead in fighting against the sons of Am'mon?<sup>z</sup> Let him become the head of all the inhabitants of Gil'e-ad."<sup>a</sup>

an, and Gil'e-ad came to be the father of Jeph'thah. 2 And Gil'e-ad's wife kept bearing sons to him. When the sons of the wife got big, they proceeded to drive Jeph'thah out and to say to him: "You must have no inheritance in the household of our father,<sup>a</sup> for you are the son of another woman." 3 So Jeph'thah ran away because of his brothers and took up dwelling in the land of Tob.<sup>b</sup> And idle men kept bringing themselves together to Jeph'thah, and they would go out with him.<sup>c</sup>

4 And it came about after a while that the sons of Am'mon began to fight against Israel.<sup>d</sup> 5 And it came about that when the sons of Am'mon did fight against Israel,<sup>e</sup> the older men of Gil'e-ad immediately went to take Jeph'thah out of the land of Tob.<sup>f</sup> 6 Then they said to Jeph'thah: "Do come and serve as our commander, and let us fight against the sons of Am'mon." 7 But Jeph'thah said to the older men<sup>g</sup> of Gil'e-ad: "Was it not you that hated me so that you drove me out of my father's house?<sup>h</sup> And why is it that you have come to me now just when you are in distress?"<sup>i</sup> 8 At this the older men of Gil'e-ad said to Jeph'thah: "That is why now we have returned<sup>j</sup> to you, and you must go with us and fight against the sons of Am'mon, and you must become for us the head of all the inhabitants of Gil'e-ad."<sup>k</sup> 9 So Jeph'thah said to the older men of Gil'e-ad: "If you are bringing me back to fight against the sons of Am'mon, and Jehovah does abandon<sup>l</sup> them to me, I, for my part, shall become your head!" 10 In turn the older men of Gil'e-ad said to Jeph'thah: "Let Jehovah prove to be the listener between us<sup>m</sup> if the way we shall do is not according to your word."<sup>n</sup> 11 Consequently Jeph'thah went with the older men of Gil'e-ad and the people set him over them as head and commander.<sup>a</sup> And Jeph'thah proceeded to speak all his words before Jehovah<sup>b</sup> in Miz'pah.<sup>c</sup>

12 Then Jeph'thah sent messengers to the king of the sons of Am'mon,<sup>d</sup> saying: "What do I have to do with you,<sup>e</sup> seeing that you have come against me to fight in my land?" 13 So the king of the sons of Am'mon said to the messengers of Jeph'thah: "It is because Israel took my land when they came up out of Egypt,<sup>f</sup> from the Ar'non<sup>g</sup> as far as the Jab'bok and as far as the Jordan.<sup>h</sup> And now do return it peacefully." 14 But Jeph'thah sent once more messengers to the king of the sons of Am'mon 15 and said to him:

"This is what Jeph'thah has said, 'Israel did not take the land of Mo'ab<sup>i</sup> and the land of the sons of Am'mon.<sup>j</sup> 16 For when they came up out of Egypt Israel went walking through the wilderness as far as the Red Sea<sup>k</sup> and got to come to Ka'desh.<sup>l</sup> 17 Then Israel sent messengers to the king of E'dom,<sup>m</sup> saying: 'Let me pass, please, through your land,' and the king of E'dom did not listen. And also to the king of Mo'ab<sup>n</sup> they sent, and he did not consent. And Israel kept dwelling in Ka'desh.<sup>o</sup> 18 When they walked on through the wilderness, they went their way around the land of E'dom<sup>p</sup> and the land of Mo'ab, so that they went toward the rising of the sun as respects the land of Mo'ab<sup>q</sup> and took up camping in the region of the Ar'non; and they did not come within the boundary of Mo'ab,<sup>r</sup> because Ar'non was the boundary of Mo'ab.<sup>s</sup>

19 "After that Israel sent messengers to Si'hon the king of the Am'or-ites, the king of Hesh'bon,<sup>t</sup> and Israel said to him: 'Let us pass, please, through your land to my own place.'<sup>u</sup> 20 And

Si'hon did not feel sure about Israel's crossing through his territory, and Si'hon went gathering all his people together and camping in Ja'haz<sup>a</sup> and fighting against Israel.<sup>b</sup> 21 At this Jehovah the God of Israel gave Si'hon and all his people into Israel's hand, so that they struck them and Israel took possession of all the land of the Am'or-ites inhabiting that land.<sup>c</sup> 22 Thus they took possession of all the territory of the Am'or-ites from the Ar'non as far as the Jab'bok and from the wilderness as far as the Jordan.<sup>d</sup>

23 "And now Jehovah the God of Israel it was that dispossessed the Am'or-ites from before his people Israel,<sup>e</sup> and you, for your part, would dispossess them. 24 Is it not whomever Che'mosh<sup>f</sup> your god causes you to dispossess that you will dispossess? And every one whom Jehovah our God has dispossessed from before us is the one we shall dispossess.<sup>g</sup> 25 And now are you any better than Ba'lak the son of Zip'por, the king of Mo'ab?<sup>h</sup> Did he ever contend with Israel, or did he ever fight against them? 26 While Israel was dwelling in Hesh'bon and its dependent towns<sup>i</sup> and in A-ro'er<sup>j</sup> and its dependent towns and in all the cities that are by the banks of Ar'non for three hundred years, why, then, did you never snatch them away during that time?<sup>k</sup> 27 As for me, I have not sinned against you, but you are dealing wrong with me by fighting against me. Let Jehovah the Judge<sup>l</sup> judge today between the sons of Israel and the sons of Am'mon."<sup>m</sup>

ceeded to pass through Gil'e-ad and Ma-nas'seh and to pass through Miz'peh of Gil'e-ad,<sup>a</sup> and from Miz'peh of Gil'e-ad he passed along to the sons of Am'mon.

30 Then Jeph'thah made a vow<sup>b</sup> to Jehovah and said: "If you without fail give the sons of Am'mon into my hand, 31 it must also occur that the one coming out, who comes out of the doors of my house to meet me when I return in peace<sup>c</sup> from the sons of Am'mon, must also become Jehovah's,<sup>d</sup> and I must offer that one up as a burnt offering."<sup>e</sup>

32 So Jeph'thah passed along to the sons of Am'mon to fight against them, and Jehovah proceeded to give them into his hand. 33 And he went striking them from A-ro'er all the way to Min'nith<sup>f</sup>—twenty cities—and as far as A'bel-ker'a-mim with a very great slaughter. Thus the sons of Am'mon were subdued before the sons of Israel.

34 Finally Jeph'thah came to Miz'pah<sup>g</sup> to his home, and, look! his daughter coming out to meet him with tambourine playing and dancing!<sup>h</sup> Now she was absolutely the only child. Besides her he had neither son nor daughter. 35 And it came about that when he caught sight of her, he began to rip his garments<sup>i</sup> and to say: "Alas, my daughter! You have indeed made me bend down, and you yourself have become the one I was ostracizing. And I—I have opened my mouth to Jehovah, and I am unable to turn back."<sup>j</sup>

36 But she said to him: "My father, if you have opened your mouth to Jehovah, do to me according to what has gone forth from your mouth,<sup>k</sup> since Jehovah has executed acts of vengeance for you upon your enemies, the sons of Am'mon." 37 And she went on to say to her father: "Let this thing be done to me: Let me alone for two months, and let me go, and I will descend upon the mountains, and let me weep over my virginity,<sup>a</sup> I and my girl companions."

38 At this he said: "Go!" So he sent her away for two months; and she kept going, she with her girl companions, and weeping over her virginity upon the mountains. 39 And it came about at the end of two months that she made her return to her father, after which he carried out his vow that he had made toward her.<sup>b</sup> As for her, she never had relations with a man. And it came to be a regulation in Israel: 40 From year to year the daughters of Israel would go to give commendation to the daughter of Jeph'thah the Gil'e-ad-ite, four days in the year.<sup>c</sup>

12 Then the men of E'phraim were called together and crossed over northward and said to Jeph'thah: "Why is it that you crossed over to fight against the sons of Am'mon, and to us you did not issue a call to go with you?"<sup>d</sup> Your very house we shall burn over you with fire."<sup>e</sup> 2 But Jeph'thah said to them: "I became a special contender, I and my people, with the sons of Am'mon.<sup>f</sup> And I proceeded to call to you for aid, and you did not save me out of their hand. 3 When I got to see that you were no savior, then I determined to put my soul in my own palm<sup>g</sup> and go over against the sons of Am'mon.<sup>h</sup> At that Jehovah gave them into my hand. So why have you come up against me this day to fight against me?"

4 Immediately Jeph'thah collected all the men of Gil'e-ad together<sup>i</sup> and fought E'phraim; and the men of Gil'e-ad went striking E'phraim down, for they had said: "Men escaped from E'phraim is what you are, O Gil'- e-ad, inside of E'phraim, inside of Ma-nas'seh." 5 And Gil'e-ad got to capture the fords of the Jordan<sup>a</sup> ahead of E'phraim; and it occurred that when the escaping men of E'phraim would say: "Let me pass over," then the men of Gil'e-ad would say to each one: "Are you an E'phraim-ite?" When he would say: "No!" 6 then they would say to him: "Please say Shib'bo-leth."<sup>b</sup> And he would say: "Sib'bo-leth," as he was unable to say the word correctly. And they would lay hold of him and slay him at the fords of the Jordan. So there fell at that time forty-two thousand out of E'phraim.<sup>c</sup>

7 And Jeph'thah continued to judge Israel for six years, after which Jeph'thah the Gil'e-ad-ite died and was buried in his city in Gil'e-ad.

8 And Ib'zan from Beth'le-hem<sup>d</sup> began to judge Israel after him.<sup>e</sup> 9 And he came to have thirty sons and thirty daughters. He sent outside and brought in thirty daughters for his sons from outside. And he continued to judge Israel for seven years. 10 Then Ib'zan died and was buried in Beth'le-hem.

11 And after him E'lon the Zebu'lu-nite<sup>f</sup> began to judge Israel. And he continued to judge Israel ten years. 12 Then E'lon the Zebu'lu-nite died and was buried in Ai'ja-lon in the land of Zeb'u-lun.

13 And after him Ab'don the son of Hil'el the Pir'a-thon-ite<sup>g</sup> began to judge Israel. 14 And he came to have forty sons and thirty grandsons who rode on seventy full-grown asses.<sup>h</sup> And he continued to judge Israel eight years. 15 Then Ab'don the son of Hil'el the Pir'a-thon-ite died and was buried in Pir'a-thon in the land of E'phraim in the mountain of the A-mal'ek-ite.<sup>i</sup>

13 And the sons of Israel engaged again in doing what was bad in Jehovah's eyes,<sup>a</sup> so that Jehovah gave them into the hand of the Phi-lis'tines<sup>b</sup> for forty years.

2 Meanwhile there happened to be a certain man of Zo'rah<sup>c</sup> of the family of the Dan'ites,<sup>d</sup> and his name was Ma-no'ah.<sup>e</sup> And his wife was barren and had borne no child.<sup>f</sup> 3 In time Jehovah's angel appeared to the woman<sup>g</sup> and said to her: "Look, now, you are barren and have borne no child. And you will certainly become pregnant and give birth to a son."<sup>h</sup> 4 And now watch yourself, please, and do not drink wine or intoxicating liquor,<sup>i</sup> and do not eat anything unclean.<sup>j</sup> 5 For, look! you will be pregnant, and you will certainly give birth to a son, and no razor should come upon his head,<sup>k</sup> because a Naz'i-rite<sup>l</sup> of God is what the child will become on leaving the belly;<sup>m</sup> and he it is who will take the lead in saving Israel out of the hand of the Phi-lis'tines.<sup>n</sup>

6 Then the woman went and said to her husband: "There was a man of the true God that came to me, and his appearance was like the appearance of the angel of the true God,<sup>o</sup> very fear-inspiring.<sup>p</sup> And I did not ask him from just where he was, neither did he tell me his name."<sup>q</sup> 7 But he said to me, 'Look! You will be pregnant, and you will certainly give birth to a son.'<sup>r</sup> And now do not drink wine or intoxicating liquor, and do not eat any unclean thing, because a Naz'i-rite of God is what the child will become on leaving the belly until the day of his death.'<sup>s</sup>

8 And Ma-no'ah began to entreat Jehovah and say: "Excuse me, Jehovah.<sup>t</sup> The man of the true God that you just sent, let him, please, come again to us and instruct<sup>u</sup> us as to what we ought to do to the child that will be born."<sup>a</sup> 9 Accordingly the true God listened to the voice of Ma-no'ah,<sup>b</sup> and the angel of the true God came again to the woman while she was sitting in the field, and Ma-no'ah her husband was not with her. 10 Immediately the woman hurried and ran and told her husband<sup>c</sup> and said to him: "Look! The man that came the other day to me has appeared to me."<sup>d</sup>

11 At that Ma-no'ah got up and accompanied his wife and came to the man and said to him: "Are you the man that spoke to the woman?"<sup>e</sup> to which he said: "I am." 12 Then Ma-no'ah said: "Now let your words come true. What will become the child's mode of life and his work?"<sup>f</sup> 13 So Jehovah's angel said to Ma-no'ah: "From everything that I mentioned to the woman she should keep herself."<sup>g</sup> 14 Nothing at all that comes forth from the wine vine should she eat, and no wine or intoxicating liquor let her drink,<sup>h</sup> and no unclean thing of any sort let her eat.<sup>i</sup> Everything that I have commanded her let her keep."<sup>j</sup>

15 Ma-no'ah now said to Jehovah's angel: "Let us, please, detain you and fix up a kid of the goats before you."<sup>k</sup> 16 But Jehovah's angel said to Ma-no'ah: "If you detain me, I shall not feed myself on your bread; but if you will render up a burnt offering to Jehovah,<sup>l</sup> you may offer it up."<sup>m</sup> For Ma-no'ah did not know that he was Jehovah's angel. 17 Then Ma-no'ah said to Jehovah's angel: "What is your name,<sup>n</sup> that when your word comes true we shall certainly do you honor?" 18 However, Jehovah's angel said to him: "Just why should you ask about my name, when it is a wonderful one?"

and the grain offering and to offer it upon the rock to Jehovah.<sup>a</sup> And He was doing something in a wonderful way while Ma-no'ah and his wife were looking on. 20 So it came about that, as the flame ascended from off the altar heavenward, then Jehovah's angel ascended in the flame of the altar while Ma-no'ah and his wife were looking on.<sup>b</sup> At once they fell upon their faces to the earth.<sup>c</sup> 21 And Jehovah's angel did not repeat appearing to Ma-no'ah and his wife anymore. Samson said to his father: "Get just her for me, because she is the one just right in my eyes."

4 As for his father and his mother, they did not know that that was from Jehovah,<sup>a</sup> that he was looking for an opportunity against the Phi-lis'tines, as at that particular time the Phi-lis'tines were ruling over Israel.<sup>b</sup>

5 Accordingly Samson went on down with his father and his mother to Tim'nah.<sup>c</sup> When he got as far as the vineyards of Tim'nah, why, look! a maned young lion roaring upon meeting him.

6 Then Jehovah's spirit became operative upon him,<sup>d</sup> so that he tore it in two, just as someone tears a male kid in two, and there was nothing at all in his hand. And he did not tell his father or his mother what he had done. 7 And he continued on his way down and began to speak to the woman; and she was still right in Samson's eyes.<sup>e</sup>

8 Now after a while he went on back to take her home.<sup>f</sup> Meantime he turned aside to look at the carcass of the lion, and there there was a swarm of bees in the lion's corpse, and honey.<sup>g</sup> 9 So he scraped it out into his palms and walked on, eating as he walked.<sup>h</sup> When he rejoined his father and his mother, he at once gave them some, and they began to eat. And he did not tell them that it was out of the corpse of the lion that he had scraped the honey.

10 And his father continued on his way down to the woman, and Samson proceeded to hold a banquet there;<sup>i</sup> for that was the way the young fellows used to do. 11 And it came about that, on their seeing him, they immediately took thirty groomsmen, that these should keep with him.

12 Then Samson said to them: "Let me, please, propound a riddle to you.<sup>j</sup> If you will without fail tell it to me during the seven days<sup>a</sup> of the banquet and you do solve it, I shall in that case have to give you thirty undergarments and thirty outfits of clothing.<sup>b</sup> 13 But if you are unable to tell it to me, you yourselves also must give me thirty undergarments and thirty outfits of clothing." At this they said to him: "Do propound your riddle, and let us hear it." 14 So he said to them:

And out of the strong something sweet came forth."<sup>d</sup>

And they proved unable to tell the riddle for three days. 15 And it came about on the fourth day that they began to say to Samson's wife: "Fool your husband that he may tell us the riddle.<sup>e</sup> Otherwise we shall burn you and the house of your father with fire.<sup>f</sup> Was it to take our possessions<sup>g</sup> that you people invited us here?" 16 Consequently Samson's wife began to weep over him<sup>h</sup> and to say: "You only hate me, you do, and you do not love me.<sup>i</sup> There was a riddle that you propounded to the sons of my people,<sup>j</sup> but to me you have not told it." At this he said to her: "Why, to my own father and my own mother I have not told it,<sup>k</sup> and ought I to tell it to you?" 17 But she kept weeping over him the seven days that the banquet continued for them, and it came about on the seventh day that finally he told her, because she had pressured him.<sup>l</sup> Then she told the riddle to the sons of her people.<sup>m</sup> 18 So the men of the city said to him on the seventh day before ever he could go into the interior room:<sup>n</sup>

And what is stronger than a lion?"<sup>o</sup>

In turn he said to them:

"If you had not plowed with my young cow,<sup>a</sup>
You would not have solved my riddle."<sup>b</sup>

15 And it came about after a while, in the days of wheat harvest, that Samson went visiting his wife with a kid<sup>h</sup> of the goats. So he said: "I will go in to my wife in the interior room."<sup>i</sup> And her father did not allow him to go in. 2 But her father said: "I really said to myself, 'You must unquestionably hate her.'<sup>j</sup> Hence I gave her to your groomsman.<sup>k</sup> Is not her younger sister better than she is? Let her, please, become yours instead of the other."<sup>l</sup> 3 However, Samson said to them: "This time I must be free of guilt against the Philis'tines in case I am dealing with them to their injury."<sup>m</sup>

4 And Samson went his way and proceeded to catch three hundred foxes<sup>n</sup> and to take torches and turn tail to tail and put one torch between two tails, right in the middle. 5 With that he set fire to the torches and sent them out into the fields of standing grain of the Philis'tines. Thus he set on fire everything from sheaf to standing grain and the vineyards and the olive groves.<sup>n</sup>

6 And the Philis'tines began to say: "Who did this?" Then they said: "It was Samson the son-in-law of the Tim'nite, because he took his wife and then gave her to his groomsman.<sup>a</sup> At that the Phi-lis'tines went up and burned her and her father with fire.<sup>b</sup> 7 In turn Samson said to them: "If you do like this, there is nothing but for me to avenge myself upon you,<sup>c</sup> and afterward I shall quit." 8 And he went smiting them, piling legs upon thighs with a great slaughter, after which he went down and began to dwell in a cleft of the crag E'tam.<sup>d</sup>

10 Then the men of Judah said: "Why have you come up against us?" to which they said: "It is to tie Samson that we have come up, to do to him just as he has done to us." 11 So three thousand men of Judah went down to the cleft of the crag E'tam<sup>h</sup> and said to Samson: "Do you not know that the Phi-lis'tines are ruling over us?<sup>i</sup> So what does this mean that you have done to us?" Then he said to them: "Just as they did to me is the way I have done to them."<sup>j</sup> 12 But they said to him: "It is to tie you that we have come down, to give you into the hand of the Phi-lis'tines." At that Samson said to them: "Swear to me that you yourselves will not assault me." 13 And they went on to say to him: "No, but we shall merely tie you, and we will give you into their hand; but we shall by no means put you to death."

Accordingly they bound him with two new ropes<sup>k</sup> and brought him up out of the crag. 14 He, for his part, came as far as Le'-hi, and the Phi-lis'tines, for their part, shouted exultantly at meeting him.<sup>l</sup> And Jehovah's spirit<sup>m</sup> became operative upon him, and the ropes that were upon his arms came to be like linen threads that have been scorched with fire,<sup>n</sup> so that his fetters melted off his hands. 15 He now found a moist jawbone of a male ass and thrust his hand out and took it and went striking down a thousand men with it.<sup>a</sup> 16 Then Samson said:

With the jawbone of a male ass I have struck down a thousand men."<sup>b</sup>

17 And it came about that when he finished speaking, he immediately threw the jawbone out of his hand and called that place Ra'math-le'hi.<sup>c</sup> 18 Now he became very thirsty, and he began to call on Jehovah and say: "It was you that gave this great salvation into the hand of your servant,<sup>d</sup> and now shall I die of thirst and must I fall into the hand of the uncircumcised?"<sup>e</sup> 19 So God split open a mortar-shaped hollow that was in Le'hi, and water<sup>f</sup> began to come out of it, and he proceeded to drink, after which his spirit<sup>g</sup> returned and he revived.<sup>h</sup> That is why he called its name En-hak-kor'e, which is in Le'hi down to this day.

16 Once Samson went to Ga'-za<sup>j</sup> and saw a prostitute woman there and came in to her.<sup>k</sup> 2 And report was made to the Ga'zites, saying: "Samson has come in here." So they surrounded him<sup>l</sup> and lay in wait for him all night long in the city gate.<sup>m</sup> And they kept quiet the whole night, saying: "As soon as the morning gets light, we must also kill him."<sup>n</sup>

3 However, Samson kept lying till midnight and then rose at midnight and grabbed hold of the doors of the city gate<sup>o</sup> and the two side posts and pulled them out along with the bar and put them upon his shoulders and went carrying<sup>a</sup> them up to the top of the mountain that is in front of He'bron.<sup>b</sup>

4 And it came about after that that he fell in love with a woman in the torrent valley of So'rek, and her name was De-li'lah.<sup>c</sup> 5 And the axis lords<sup>d</sup> of the Phi-lis'tines proceeded to come up to her and to say to her: "Fool<sup>e</sup> him and see in what his great power is and with what we can prevail over him and with what we are certain to tie him so as to master him; and we, for our part, shall give you each one thousand one hundred silver pieces."<sup>f</sup>

6 Later De-li'lah said to Samson: "Do tell me, please, In what is your great power and with what can you be tied for one to master you?"<sup>g</sup> 7 Then Samson said to her: "If they tie me with seven still-moist sinews<sup>h</sup> that have not been dried out, I must also grow weak and become like an ordinary man."<sup>i</sup> 8 So the axis lords<sup>j</sup> of the Phi-lis'tines brought up to her seven still-moist sinews that had not been dried out. Later she tied him with them. 9 Now the ambush was sitting in the interior room of hers,<sup>k</sup> and she began to say to him: "The Phi-lis'tines<sup>l</sup> are upon you, Samson!" At that he tore the sinews in two, just as a twisted thread of tow is torn in two when it smells fire.<sup>l</sup> And his power did not become known.<sup>m</sup>

10 Subsequently De-li'lah<sup>n</sup> said to Samson: "Look! You have trifled with me that you might speak lies to me.<sup>o</sup> Now tell me, do please, with what you can be tied."<sup>p</sup> 11 So he said to her: "If they tie me tight with new ropes with which no work has been done, I must also grow weak and become like an ordinary man."<sup>q</sup> 12 So De-li'lah took new ropes and tied him with them and said to him: "The Phi-lis'tines are upon you, Samson!" All the while

13 After that De-li'lah said to Samson: "Up till now you have trifled with me that you might speak lies to me.<sup>c</sup> Do tell me with what you can be tied."<sup>d</sup> Then he said to her: "If you will weave the seven braids of my head with the warp<sup>e</sup> thread." 14 Accordingly she fixed them with the pin, after which she said to him: "The Phi-lis'tines are upon you, Samson!"<sup>f</sup> So he awoke from his sleep and pulled out the loom pin and the warp thread.

15 She now said to him: "How dare you say, 'I do love you,'<sup>g</sup> when your heart is not with me? These three times you have trifled with me and have not told me in what your great power is."<sup>h</sup>

16 And it came about that because she pressured<sup>i</sup> him with her words all the time and kept urging him, his soul got to be impatient to the point of dying.<sup>j</sup> 17 Finally he disclosed to her all his heart<sup>k</sup> and said to her: "A razor<sup>l</sup> has never come upon my head, because I am a Naz'i-rite of God from my mother's belly."<sup>m</sup> If I did get shaved, my power also would certainly depart from me, and I should indeed grow weak and become like all other men."<sup>n</sup>

18 When De-li'lah got to see that he had disclosed to her all his heart, she immediately sent and called the Phi-lis'tine axis<sup>o</sup> lords, saying: "Come up this time, for he has disclosed to me all his heart."<sup>p</sup> And the Phi-lis'tine axis lords came up to her that they might bring up the money in their hand.<sup>q</sup> 19 And she proceeded to make him sleep upon her knees. Then she called the man and had him shave off the seven braids of his head, after which she started to show the mastery of him, and his power kept departing from upon him.

20 Now she said: "The Philis'-tines are upon you, Samson!" At that he woke up from his sleep and said: "I shall go out as at other times<sup>a</sup> and shake myself free." And he himself did not know that it was Jehovah that had departed from him.<sup>b</sup> 21 So the Philis'-tines grabbed hold of him and bored his eyes out<sup>c</sup> and brought him down to Ga'za<sup>d</sup> and bound him with two fetters of copper;<sup>e</sup> and he came to be a grinder<sup>f</sup> in the prison house.<sup>g</sup>

23 As for the Philis'-tine axis lords, they gathered together to sacrifice a great sacrifice to Da'-gon<sup>i</sup> their god and for rejoicing, and they kept saying: "Our god has given into our hand Samson our enemy!"<sup>j</sup> 24 When the people got to see him, they at once gave way to praising their god,<sup>k</sup> "because," said they, "our god has given into our hand our enemy<sup>l</sup> and the devastator of our land<sup>m</sup> and the one who multiplied our slain."<sup>n</sup>

25 And it came about that because their heart was merry,<sup>o</sup> they began to say: "Call Samson that he may offer us some amusement."<sup>p</sup> So they called Samson out of the prison house that he might make sport before them;<sup>q</sup> and they proceeded to stand him between the pillars. 26 Then Samson said to the boy that was holding him by his hand: "Do permit me to feel the pillars upon which the house is firmly established and let me lean against them." 27 (Incidentally, the house was full of men and women and all the Philis'-tine axis lords were there;<sup>r</sup> and upon the roof there were about three thousand men and women who were looking on while Samson offered some amusement.)<sup>s</sup>

Jehovah, remember me,<sup>a</sup> please, and strengthen<sup>b</sup> me, please, just this once, O you the true God, and let me avenge myself upon the Philis'-tines with vengeance for one of my two eyes."<sup>c</sup>

29 With that Samson braced himself against the two middle pillars upon which the house was firmly established, and got a grasp on them, one with his right and the other with his left hand.

30 And Samson proceeded to say: "Let my soul die<sup>d</sup> with the Philis'-tines." Then he bent himself with power, and the house went falling upon the axis lords and upon all the people that were in it,<sup>e</sup> so that the dead that he put to death in his own death came to be more than those he had put to death during his lifetime.<sup>f</sup>

31 Later his brothers and all the household of his father came on down and lifted him up and brought him up and buried him between Zo'rah<sup>g</sup> and Esh'ta-ol<sup>h</sup> in the burial place of Ma-no'ah<sup>i</sup> his father. As for him, he had judged Israel twenty years.<sup>j</sup>

17 Now there happened to be a man of the mountainous region of E'phra-im<sup>k</sup> whose name was Mi'cah. 2 In time he said to his mother: "The thousand one hundred silver pieces that were taken from you and over which you pronounced a curse<sup>l</sup> and also said it in my hearing—look! the silver is with me. It was I who took it."<sup>m</sup> At that his mother said: "Blessed may my son be of Jehovah."<sup>n</sup> 3 Accordingly he gave back the thousand one hundred pieces of silver to his mother;<sup>o</sup> and his mother went on to say: "I must without fail sanctify the silver to Jehovah from my hand for my son, so as to make a carved image<sup>p</sup> and a molten statue;<sup>q</sup> and now I shall give it back to you."

two hundred silver pieces and gave them to the silversmith.<sup>a</sup> And he went making a carved image<sup>b</sup> and a molten statue;<sup>c</sup> and it got to be in Mi'cah's house. 5 As for the man Mi'cah, he had a house of gods,<sup>d</sup> and he proceeded to make an eph'od<sup>e</sup> and teraphim<sup>f</sup> and to fill the hand of one of his sons with power,<sup>g</sup> that he might serve as priest for him.<sup>h</sup> 6 In those days there was no king in Israel.<sup>i</sup> As for everybody, what was right in his own eyes he was accustomed to do.<sup>j</sup>

7 Now there happened to be a young man of Beth'le-hem<sup>k</sup> in Judah of the family of Judah, and he was a Levite.<sup>l</sup> And he was residing there for a time. 8 And the man proceeded to go from the city of Beth'le-hem in Judah to reside for a time wherever he might find a place. At length while going his way he came into the mountainous region of E'phra-im as far as the house of Mi'cah.<sup>m</sup> 9 Then Mi'cah said to him: "Where do you come from?" At that he said to him: "I am a Levite from Beth'le-hem in Judah, and I am on my way to reside for a time wherever I may find a place." 10 So Mi'cah said to him: "Do dwell with me and serve as a father<sup>n</sup> and priest<sup>o</sup> for me, and I, for my part, shall give you ten silver pieces a year and the usual outfit of garments and your sustenance." Accordingly the Levite went in. 11 Thus the Levite took it upon himself to dwell with the man, and the young man got to be as one of his sons to him. 12 Furthermore, Mi'cah filled the hand of the Levite with power,<sup>p</sup> that the young man might serve as a priest<sup>q</sup> for him and might continue in the house of Mi'cah. 13 Hence Mi'cah said: "Now I do know that Jehovah will do me good, because the Levite has become priest for me."<sup>r</sup>

18 In those days there was no king in Israel.<sup>a</sup> And in those days the tribe of the Dan-ites<sup>b</sup> was looking for an inheritance for itself to dwell there; because up to that day an inheritance had not fallen to them in the midst of the tribes of Israel.<sup>c</sup>

2 Eventually the sons of Dan sent five men of their family, men from among them, men who were valiant fellows, out from Zo'rah<sup>d</sup> and Esh'ta-ol,<sup>e</sup> to spy<sup>f</sup> out the land and to explore it. So they said to them: "Go, explore the land." In time they came into the mountainous region of E'phra-im<sup>g</sup> as far as the house of Mi'cah<sup>h</sup> and got to spend the night there.

3 While they were close by the house of Mi'cah, they recognized the voice of the young man, the Levite, so that they turned aside there. And they proceeded to say to him: "Who brought you here, and what are you doing in this place, and what interest do you have here?" 4 In turn he said to them: "Thus and so Mi'cah did for me that he might hire me,<sup>i</sup> and that I might serve as priest<sup>j</sup> for him." 5 Then they said to him: "Inquire,<sup>k</sup> please, of God<sup>l</sup> that we may know whether our way on which we are going will be successful." 6 So the priest said to them: "Go in peace. It is before Jehovah that your way is in which you go."

7 Accordingly the five men went on and came to La'ish<sup>m</sup> and saw how the people that were within it were dwelling in self-reliance according to the custom of the Si-do'ni-ans, quiet and unsuspecting,<sup>n</sup> and there was no oppressive conqueror that was molesting a thing in the land, while they were far off from the Si-do'ni-ans<sup>o</sup> and they had nothing to do with mankind.

8 At length they came to their brothers at Zo'rah<sup>a</sup> and Esh'ta-ol,<sup>b</sup> and their brothers began to say to them: "How was it with you?" 9 At this they said: "Do get up, and let us go up against them; for we have seen the land, and, look! it is very good.<sup>c</sup> And you are hesitant. Do not be sluggish about walking to come in to take possession of the land."<sup>d</sup> 10 When you come in, you will come to an unsuspecting people,<sup>e</sup> and the land is quite wide; for God has given it into your hand,<sup>f</sup> a place where there is no lack of any sort of thing that is in the earth."<sup>g</sup>

11 Then six hundred men girded with weapons of war, out of the family of the Dan-ites,<sup>h</sup> departed from there, that is, from Zo'rah and Esh'ta-ol.<sup>i</sup> 12 And they got on their way up and went camping at Kir'i-ath-je'a-rim<sup>j</sup> in Judah. That is why they have called that place Ma'ha-neh-dan<sup>k</sup> down to this day. Look! It is west of Kir'i-ath-je'a-rim.<sup>l</sup> 13 After that they passed along from there to the mountainous region of E'phraim and came as far as the house of Mi'cah.<sup>m</sup>

enter in there to take the carved image<sup>a</sup> and the eph'od<sup>b</sup> and the teraphim<sup>c</sup> and the molten image.<sup>d</sup> (And the priest<sup>e</sup> was standing at the entrance of the gate with the six hundred men girded with weapons of war.) 18 And these went into the house of Mi'cah and proceeded to take the carved image, the eph'od and the teraphim and the molten image.<sup>f</sup> At that the priest<sup>g</sup> said to them: "What are you doing?" 19 But they said to him: "Be quiet. Put your hand over your mouth, and go with us and become a father<sup>h</sup> and a priest<sup>i</sup> for us. Which is better, for you to continue a priest to the house of one<sup>j</sup> man or for you to become a priest to a tribe and family in Israel?"<sup>k</sup> 20 At this the heart of the priest was pleased,<sup>l</sup> and he now took the eph'od and the teraphim and the carved image<sup>m</sup> and came into the midst of the people.

21 Then they turned and went their way and put the little ones and the livestock and the valuable things ahead of them.<sup>n</sup> 22 They themselves had got a distance away from the house of Mi'cah when the men who were in the houses that were close by the house of Mi'cah<sup>o</sup> were called together and tried to catch up with the sons of Dan. 23 When they kept crying out to the sons of Dan, then they turned their faces and said to Mi'cah: "What is the matter with you<sup>p</sup> that you have been called together?" 24 So he said: "My gods<sup>q</sup> that I made<sup>r</sup> you have taken, the priest<sup>s</sup> too, and you go your way, and what do I have anymore?"<sup>t</sup> How, then, is it that you can say to me, 'What is the matter with you?' 25 At this the sons of Dan said to him: "Do not let your voice be heard close to us, for fear that men bitter of soul<sup>u</sup> may assault you people, and you have to forfeit your own soul and the soul of your household." 26 And the sons of Dan kept going on their way; and Mi'cah got to see that they were stronger than he was,<sup>a</sup> and so he turned and went back to his house.

27 As for them, they took what Mi'cah had made and the priest<sup>b</sup> that had become his, and they kept going toward La'ish,<sup>c</sup> against a people quiet and unsuspecting.<sup>d</sup> And they proceeded to strike them with the edge of the sword,<sup>e</sup> and the city they burned with fire.<sup>f</sup> 28 And there was no deliverer, for it was far away from Si'don,<sup>g</sup> and they had nothing at all to do with mankind; and it was in the low plain that belonged to Beth-re'hob.<sup>h</sup> Then they built the city and took up dwelling in it.<sup>i</sup> 29 Furthermore, they called the name of the city Dan by the name of their father, Dan,<sup>j</sup> who had been born to Israel.<sup>k</sup> Nevertheless, La'ish was the city's name at first.<sup>l</sup> 30 After that the sons of Dan stood up the carved image<sup>m</sup> for themselves; and Jon'a-than<sup>n</sup> the son of Ger'shom,<sup>o</sup> Moses' son, he and his sons became priests to the tribe of the Dan'ites until the day of the land's being taken into exile.<sup>p</sup> 31 And they kept the carved image of Mi'cah, which he had made, set up for themselves all the days that the house<sup>q</sup> of the true God continued in Shi'loh.<sup>r</sup>

19 Now it happened in those days that there was no king in Israel.<sup>s</sup> And it came about that a certain Levite was residing for a time in the remotest parts of the mountainous region of E/phra-im.<sup>t</sup> In time he took as his wife a concubine<sup>u</sup> from Beth'le-hem<sup>v</sup> in Judah. 2 And his concubine began to commit fornication<sup>w</sup> against him. Finally she went away from him to the house of her father at Beth'le-hem in Judah and continued there fully four months.

3 Then her husband got up and went after her to speak consolingly to her so as to bring her back; and there were with him his attendant<sup>a</sup> and a couple of he-asses. So she had him come into her father's house. When the father of the young woman got to see him, he at once rejoiced to meet him. 4 Consequently his father-in-law, the young woman's father, took hold of him, so that he continued to dwell with him three days; and they would eat and drink, and he would stay overnight there.<sup>b</sup>

5 And it came about on the fourth day, when they got up early in the morning as usual, he now rose to go, but the father of the young woman said to his son-in-law: "Sustain your heart with a bit of bread<sup>c</sup> and afterward you people may go." 6 So they sat down, and both of them began to eat and to drink together; after which the father of the young woman said to the man: "Come on, please, and stay overnight,<sup>d</sup> and let your heart feel good."<sup>e</sup> 7 When the man rose to go, his father-in-law kept begging him, so that he stayed overnight there again.<sup>f</sup>

8 When he got up early in the morning on the fifth day to go, the father of the young woman then said: "Please, take sustenance for your heart."<sup>g</sup> And they lingered until the fading away of the day. And both of them kept eating. 9 The man<sup>h</sup> now rose to go, he and his concubine<sup>i</sup> and his attendant;<sup>j</sup> but his father-in-law, the young woman's father, said to him: "Look, now! The day has declined toward becoming evening. Please, stay overnight.<sup>k</sup> Here the day is settling down. Stay here overnight, and let your heart feel good.<sup>l</sup> And tomorrow you people must get up early for

YOUR journey, and you must go to your tent." 10 However, the man did not consent to stay overnight, but he rose and got on his way and came as far as in front of Je'bus,<sup>a</sup> that is to say, Jerusalem;<sup>b</sup> and with him there were the couple of he-asses saddled up, and his concubine and his attendant.

11 While they were close by Je'bus, as the daylight had gone down considerably,<sup>c</sup> the attendant now said to his master: "O come, now, and let us turn aside to this city of the Jeb'usites<sup>d</sup> and stay in it overnight."

12 But his master said to him: "Let us not turn aside to a city of foreigners<sup>e</sup> who are no part of the sons of Israel; and we have to pass on as far as Gib'e-ah."<sup>f</sup>

13 And he went on to say to his attendant: "Come and let us approach one of the places, and we must stay overnight either in Gib'e-ah or in Ra'mah."<sup>g</sup> 14 So they passed along and kept on their way, and the sun began to set upon them when near to Gib'e-ah, which belongs to Benjamin.

15 Consequently they turned aside there to go in to stay overnight in Gib'e-ah. And they proceeded to go in and sit down in the public square of the city, and there was nobody taking them on into the house to stay overnight.<sup>h</sup> 16 Eventually, look! an old man coming in from his work in the field at evening,<sup>i</sup> and the man was from the mountainous region of E'phraim,<sup>j</sup> and he was residing for a time in Gib'e-ah; but the men of the place were Ben'ja-mites.<sup>k</sup> 17 When he raised his eyes he got to see the man, the traveler, in the public square of the city. So the old man said: "Where are you going, and where do you come from?"<sup>l</sup> 18 In turn he said to him: "We are passing along from Beth'le-hem in Judah to the remotest parts of the mountainous region of E'phra-im.<sup>a</sup> That is where I am from, but I went to Beth'le-hem in Judah;<sup>b</sup> and it is to my own house that I am going, and there is nobody taking me on into the house.<sup>c</sup>

19 And there are both straw and fodder<sup>d</sup> for our he-asses, and there are both bread<sup>e</sup> and wine for me and your slave girl<sup>f</sup> and for the attendant<sup>g</sup> with your servant. There is no lack of a single thing." 20 However, the old man said: "May you have peace!<sup>h</sup> Just let any lack of yours be upon me.<sup>i</sup> Only do not stay overnight in the public square." 21 With that he brought him into his house<sup>j</sup> and threw mash to the he-asses.<sup>k</sup> Then they washed their feet<sup>l</sup> and began to eat and drink.

25 And the men did not want to listen to him. Hence the man took hold of his concubine<sup>u</sup> and brought her forth to them outside; and they began to have intercourse with her,<sup>v</sup> and kept on abusing<sup>w</sup> her all night long until the morning, after which they sent her off at the ascending of the dawn. 26 Then the woman came as it was turning to morning, and fell down at the entrance of the man's house where her master was,<sup>a</sup>—until daylight. 27 Later her master rose up in the morning and opened the doors of the house and went out to get on his way, and, look! the woman, his concubine,<sup>b</sup> fallen at the entrance of the house with her hands upon the threshold! 28 So he said to her: "Rise up, and let us go." But there was no one answering.<sup>c</sup> At that the man took her upon the ass and rose up and went to his place.<sup>d</sup>

29 Then he entered his house and took the slaughtering knife and laid hold of his concubine and cut her up according to her bones into twelve pieces<sup>e</sup> and sent her into every territory of Israel.<sup>f</sup> 30 And it occurred that everybody seeing it said: "Such a thing as this has never been brought about or been seen from the day that the sons of Israel went up out of the land of Egypt down to this day. Set your hearts upon it, take counsel<sup>g</sup> and speak."

3 And the sons of Benjamin got to hear that the sons of Israel had gone up to Miz'pah.<sup>p</sup>

Then the sons of Israel said: "SPEAK. How has this bad thing been brought about?"<sup>q</sup> 4 At this the man, the Levite,<sup>r</sup> the husband of the murdered woman, answered and said: "It was to Gib'e-ah,<sup>s</sup> which belongs to Benjamin, that I came, I and my concubine,<sup>a</sup> to stay overnight. 5 And the landowners of Gib'e-ah proceeded to rise up against me and to surround the house against me by night. It was I that they figured on killing, but it was my concubine that they raped,<sup>b</sup> and she gradually died.<sup>c</sup> 6 Hence I grasped my concubine and cut her up and sent her into every field of Israel's inheritance,<sup>d</sup> because they had carried on loose conduct<sup>e</sup> and disgraceful folly in Israel.<sup>f</sup> 7 Look! All you sons of Israel, give your word and counsel<sup>g</sup> here."

8 So all the people rose up as one man,<sup>h</sup> saying: "We shall not go any of us to his tent, nor shall we turn aside any of us to his house.<sup>i</sup> 9 And now this is the thing that we shall do to Gib'e-ah. Let us go up by lot<sup>j</sup> against it. 10 And we must take ten men out of a hundred of all the tribes of Israel, and a hundred out of a thousand, and a thousand out of ten thousand, to procure provisions for the people, that they may take action by going against Gib'e-ah of Benjamin, in view of all the disgraceful folly<sup>k</sup> that they did in Israel." 11 Thus all the men of Israel were gathered against the city as one man, as allies.

the cities to Gib'e-ah to go out to battle against the sons of Israel. 15 So the sons of Benjamin got to be mustered on that day from the cities, twenty-six thousand men drawing sword,<sup>a</sup> apart from the inhabitants of Gib'e-ah, of whom seven hundred chosen men were mustered. 16 Out of all this people there were seven hundred chosen men left-handed.<sup>b</sup> Every one of these was a slinger of stones<sup>c</sup> to a hair-breadth and would not miss.

17 And the men of Israel were mustered apart from Benjamin, four hundred thousand men drawing sword.<sup>d</sup> Every one of these was a man of war. 18 And they proceeded to rise up and go on up to Beth'el and to inquire of God.<sup>e</sup> Then the sons of Israel said: "Who of us should go up in the lead to the battle against the sons of Benjamin?"<sup>f</sup> To this Jehovah said: "Judah in the lead."<sup>g</sup>

19 After that the sons of Israel rose up in the morning and camped against Gib'e-ah.

20 The men of Israel now went out to battle against Benjamin; and the men of Israel proceeded to draw up in battle formation against them at Gib'e-ah. 21 So the sons of Benjamin came on out from Gib'e-ah<sup>h</sup> and brought twenty-two thousand men in Israel down to ruin to the earth on that day.<sup>i</sup> 22 However, the people, the men of Israel, showed themselves courageous and again went drawing up in battle formation in the place where they had drawn up in formation on the first day. 23 Then the sons of Israel went up and wept<sup>j</sup> before Jehovah until the evening and inquired of Jehovah, saying: "Shall I again approach for battle against the sons of Benjamin my brother?"<sup>k</sup> To this Jehovah said: "Go up against him."

Benjamin on the second day.<sup>a</sup>

25 In turn Benjamin came on out from Gib'e-ah to meet them on the second day and brought a further eighteen thousand men among the sons of Israel down to ruin to the earth,<sup>b</sup> all of these drawing sword.<sup>c</sup> 26 At that all the sons of Israel,<sup>d</sup> even all the people, went on up and came to Beth'el and wept<sup>e</sup> and sat there before Jehovah and fasted<sup>f</sup> on that day until the evening and offered up burnt offerings<sup>g</sup> and communion offerings<sup>h</sup> before Jehovah. 27 After that the sons of Israel inquired of Jehovah,<sup>i</sup> as it was there that the ark of the covenant<sup>j</sup> of the true God was in those days. 28 Now Phin'e-has<sup>k</sup> the son of Ele-a'zar, the son of Aaron, was standing before it in those days,<sup>l</sup> saying: "Shall I go out yet again to battle against the sons of Benjamin my brother or shall I cease to?"<sup>m</sup> To this Jehovah said: "Go up, because tomorrow I shall give him into your hand."<sup>n</sup> 29 Then Israel set men in ambush<sup>o</sup> against Gib'e-ah all around.

30 And the sons of Israel proceeded to go up against the sons of Benjamin on the third day, and to draw up in formation against Gib'e-ah the same as at the other times.<sup>p</sup> 31 When the sons of Benjamin went on out to meet the people, they were drawn away from the city.<sup>q</sup> Then, the same as at the other times, they started to strike down some of the people mortally wounded on the highways, one of which goes up to Beth'el<sup>r</sup> and the other to Gib'e-ah,<sup>s</sup> in the field, about thirty men in Israel.<sup>t</sup> 32 So the sons of Benjamin began to say: "They are suffering defeat before us the same as at the first."<sup>u</sup> As for the sons of Israel, they said: "Let us flee," and we shall certainly draw them away from the city onto the highways." 33 And all the men of Israel rose up from their places and went drawing up in formation at Ba'al-ta'mar, while those of Israel in ambush<sup>a</sup> were making a charge out of their places in the vicinity of Gib'e-ah.<sup>b</sup> 34 Thus ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel came in front of Gib'e-ah, and the fighting was heavy; and the Ben'ja-mites did not know that calamity<sup>c</sup> was impending over them.

35 And Jehovah proceeded to defeat Benjamin<sup>d</sup> before Israel, so that the sons of Israel on that day brought down to ruin in Benjamin twenty-five thousand one hundred men, all of these drawing sword.<sup>e</sup>

36 However, the sons of Benjamin imagined that the men of Israel faced defeat when they kept giving ground<sup>f</sup> to Benjamin because they trusted in the ambush that they had set against Gib'e-ah. 37 As for the ambush, they acted quickly and went dashing toward Gib'e-ah.<sup>g</sup> Then the ambush<sup>h</sup> spread out and struck all the city with the edge of the sword.<sup>i</sup>

38 Now the men of Israel had come to the arrangement with the ambush for them to make a smoke signal go up from the city.<sup>j</sup>

39 When the sons of Israel turned around in the battle, Benjamin started to strike down about thirty men mortally wounded among the men of Israel,<sup>k</sup> for they said: "They are unquestionably suffering nothing but defeat before us just as in the first battle."<sup>l</sup> 40 And the signal<sup>m</sup> started to go up from the city as a pillar of smoke.<sup>n</sup> So when Benjamin turned his face back, look! the whole city went up heavenward.<sup>o</sup> 41 And the men of Israel made an about-face,<sup>p</sup> and the men of Benjamin were disturbed,<sup>q</sup> for they saw that calamity had reached them.<sup>r</sup> 42 Hence they turned before the men of Israel in the direction of the wilderness, and the battle followed them up closely, while the men from out of the cities were bringing them down to ruin in their midst. 43 They surrounded Benjamin.<sup>a</sup> They pursued him without a place to rest.<sup>b</sup> They trampled him down directly in front of Gib'e-ah<sup>c</sup> toward the rising of the sun. 44 Finally there fell eighteen thousand men of Benjamin, all of these being valiant men.<sup>d</sup>

45 Thus they turned and went fleeing to the wilderness to the crag of Rim'mon.<sup>e</sup> And they made a glean of five thousand men of them on the highways,<sup>f</sup> and they kept following closely after them as far as Gi'dom and so struck down two thousand more men of them. 46 And all those of Benjamin that fell on that day amounted at last to twenty-five thousand men drawing sword,<sup>g</sup> all these being valiant men. 47 But six hundred men turned and went fleeing to the wilderness to the crag of Rim'mon, and they continued to dwell on the crag of Rim'mon<sup>h</sup> four months.

48 And the men of Israel came back against the sons of Benjamin and went striking with the edge of the sword those of the city, from men to domestic animal up to all that were found.<sup>i</sup> Also, all the cities that were found they consigned to the fire.<sup>j</sup>

21 Now the men of Israel had sworn in Miz'pah,<sup>k</sup> saying: "Not a man of us will give his daughter to Benjamin as a wife."<sup>l</sup> 2 Consequently the people came to Beth'el<sup>m</sup> and kept sitting there before the true God<sup>n</sup> until the evening and continued to raise their voice and indulge in a great deal of weeping.<sup>o</sup> 3 And they would say: "Why, O Jehovah the God of Israel, has this occurred in Israel, for one tribe to be missing today from Israel?"<sup>p</sup> 4 And it came about the next day that the people proceeded to get up early and to build an altar there and to offer up burnt offerings<sup>c</sup> and communion offerings.<sup>b</sup>

5 Then the sons of Israel said: "Who is there out of all the tribes of Israel that has not come up in the congregation to Jehovah, for there is a great oath<sup>c</sup> that has taken place respecting the one that has not come up to Jehovah at Miz'pah, saying, 'Let him be put to death without fail.'"<sup>d</sup>

6 And the sons of Israel began to feel regret over Benjamin their brother. So they said: "Today one tribe has been chopped off from Israel. 7 What shall we do to those who are left over as to wives, now that we ourselves have sworn<sup>e</sup> by Jehovah not to give them any of our daughters as wives?"<sup>f</sup>

8 And they went on to say: "Which one out of the tribes of Israel is it that has not come up to Jehovah at Miz'pah?"<sup>g</sup> And, look! no one had come into the camp from Ja'bes-gil'e-ad<sup>h</sup> to the congregation. 9 When the people were counted, well, look! there was not a man there from the inhabitants of Ja'bes-gil'e-ad. 10 Hence the assembly proceeded to send twelve thousand of the most valiant men there and to command them, saying: "Go, and you must strike the inhabitants of Ja'bes-gil'e-ad with the edge of the sword, even the women and the little ones.<sup>i</sup> 11 And this is the thing that you should do: Every male and every woman that has experienced lying with a male you should devote to destruction."<sup>j</sup> 12 However, they found out of the inhabitants of Ja'bes-gil'e-ad<sup>k</sup> four hundred girls, virgins,<sup>l</sup> that had not had intercourse with a man by lying with a male. So they brought them to the camp at Shi'loh,<sup>m</sup> which is in the land of Ca'naan.

sent and spoke to the sons of Benjamin that were on the crag of Rim'mon<sup>a</sup> and offered them peace. 14 Accordingly Benjamin came back at that time. Then they gave them the women that they had preserved alive from the women of Ja'bes-gil'e-ad;<sup>b</sup> but they did not find enough for them.<sup>c</sup> 15 And the people felt regret over Benjamin<sup>d</sup> because Jehovah had made a rupture between the tribes of Israel. 16 Consequently the older men of the assembly said: "What shall we do to the men that are left over as to wives, for womankind has been annihilated out of Benjamin?" 17 Then they said: "There should be a possession for those who have escaped of Benjamin,<sup>e</sup> that a tribe might not be wiped out of Israel. 18 As for us, we are not allowed to give them wives from our daughters, because the sons of Israel have sworn, saying, 'Cursed is the one that gives a wife to Benjamin.'<sup>f</sup>

19 Finally they said: "Look! There is a festival of Jehovah from year to year in Shi'loh,<sup>g</sup> which is to the north of Beth'-el, toward the east of the highway that goes up from Beth'-el to She'chem<sup>h</sup> and toward the south of Le-bo'nah." 20 So they commanded the sons of Benjamin, saying: "Go, and you must lie in wait in the vineyards. 21 And you must look, and, there now, when the daughters of Shi'loh come on out to dance<sup>i</sup> in circle dances, you must also come out from the vineyards and carry off for yourselves by force each one his wife from the daughters of Shi'loh, and you must go to the land of Benjamin. 22 And it must occur that should their fathers or their brothers come to conduct a legal case against us, we also shall certainly say to them, 'Do us a favor for their sakes, because we have not taken for each one his wife by war,<sup>a</sup> for it was not you that did the giving to them at a time when you would become guilty.”<sup>b</sup>

JUDGES 21:23–RUTH 1:12

24 And the sons of Israel began to disperse from there at that time, each one to his own tribe and his own family; and they went their way out from there, each one to his own inheritance.<sup>a</sup>

25 In those days there was no king in Israel.<sup>b</sup> What was right in his own eyes was what each one was accustomed to do.<sup>c</sup>

RUTH

1 Now it came about in the days when the judges<sup>a</sup> administered justice that a famine<sup>b</sup> arose in the land, and a man proceeded to go from Beth'le-hem<sup>c</sup> in Judah to reside as an alien in the fields of Mo'ab,<sup>d</sup> he with his wife and his two sons. 2 And the man's name was E-lim'e-lech, and his wife's name Na'o-mi, and the names of his two sons were Mah'lon and Chil'i-on, Eph'rath-ites<sup>e</sup> from Beth'le-hem in Judah. Eventually they came to the fields of Mo'ab and continued there.

3 In time E-lim'e-lech the husband of Na'o-mi died, so that she remained with her two sons. 4 Later the men took wives for themselves, Mo'ab-ite women.<sup>f</sup> The name of the one was Or'pah, and the name of the other Ruth.<sup>g</sup> And they went on dwelling there for about ten years. 5 In time the two of them, Mah'lon and Chil'i-on, also died, so that the woman remained without her two children and her husband. 6 And she proceeded to get up with her daughters-in-law and to return from the fields of Mo'ab, for she had heard in the field of Mo'ab that Jehovah had turned his attention to his people<sup>a</sup> by giving them bread.<sup>b</sup>

7 And she went her way out from the place where she had continued,<sup>c</sup> and both of her daughters-in-law were with her, and they kept walking on the road to return to the land of Judah. 8 Finally Na'o-mi said to both of her daughters-in-law: "Go, return, each one to the house of her mother. May Jehovah exercise loving-kindness toward you,<sup>d</sup> just as you have exercised it toward the men now dead and toward me.<sup>e</sup> 9 May Jehovah make a gift<sup>f</sup> to you, and do you find a resting-place<sup>g</sup> each one in the house of her husband." Then she kissed<sup>h</sup> them, and they began to raise their voices and weep. 10 And they kept saying to her: "No, but with you we shall return to your people."<sup>i</sup> 11 But Na'o-mi said: "Return, my daughters. Why should you go with me? Do I still have sons in my inward parts, and will they have to become your husbands?"<sup>j</sup> 12 Return, my daughters, go, for I have grown too old to get to belong to a husband. If I had said I had hope also that I should certainly become a husband's tonight and also should certainly bear sons,<sup>a</sup> 13 would you keep waiting for them until they could grow up? Would you keep yourselves secluded for them so as not to become a husband's? No, my daughters, for it is very bitter to me because of you, that the hand of Jehovah has gone out against me."<sup>b</sup>

14 At that they raised their voices and wept some more, after which Orpah kissed her mother-in-law. As for Ruth, she stuck with her.<sup>c</sup> 15 So she said: "Look! Your widowed sister-in-law has returned to her people and her gods.<sup>d</sup> Return with your widowed sister-in-law."<sup>e</sup>

16 And Ruth proceeded to say: "Do not plead with me to abandon you, to turn back from accompanying you; for where you go I shall go, and where you spend the night I shall spend the night.<sup>f</sup> Your people will be my people,<sup>g</sup> and your God my God.<sup>h</sup> 17 Where you die I shall die,<sup>i</sup> and there is where I shall be buried. May Jehovah do so to me and add<sup>j</sup> to it if anything but death should make a separation between me and you."

18 When she got to see that she was persistent about going with her,<sup>k</sup> then she left off speaking to her. 19 And they both continued on their way until they came to Beth'le-hem.<sup>l</sup> And it came about that as soon as they came to Beth'le-hem, all the city became stirred up over them,<sup>m</sup> and the women kept saying: "Is this Na'o-mi?"<sup>n</sup> 20 And she would say to the women: "Do not call me Na'o-mi. Call me Ma'ra, for the Almighty<sup>o</sup> has made it very bitter for me.<sup>p</sup> 21 I was full when I went,<sup>q</sup> and it is empty-handed that Jehovah has made me return.<sup>r</sup> Why should you call me Na'o-mi, when it is Jehovah that has humiliated me<sup>a</sup> and the Almighty that has caused me calamity?"<sup>b</sup>

2 Now Na'o-mi had a kinsman<sup>f</sup> of her husband, a man mighty in wealth,<sup>g</sup> of the family of E-lim'e-lech, and his name was Bo'az.<sup>h</sup>

2 In time Ruth the Mo'ab-ite woman said to Na'o-mi: "Let me go, please, to the field and glean<sup>i</sup> among the ears of grain following after whoever it is in whose eyes I may find favor." So she said to her: "Go, my daughter." 3 At that she went off and entered and began to glean in the field behind the harvesters.<sup>j</sup> Thus by chance she lighted on the tract of the field belonging to Bo'az,<sup>k</sup> who was of the family of E-lim'e-lech.<sup>l</sup> 4 And, look! Bo'az came from Beth'le-hem and proceeded to say to the harvesters: "Jehovah be with you."<sup>m</sup> In turn they would say to him: "Jehovah bless you."<sup>n</sup>

5 Subsequently Bo'az<sup>o</sup> said to the young man who was set over the harvesters: "To whom does this young woman belong?" 6 So the young man set over the harvesters answered and said: "The young woman is a Mo'ab-ite,<sup>p</sup> who returned with Na'o-mi from the field of Mo'ab.<sup>q</sup> 7 Then she said, 'Let me glean,<sup>r</sup> please, and I shall certainly gather among the cut-off ears of grain behind the harvesters.' So she entered and kept on her feet from that time in the morning until her sitting down just now in the house a little while."<sup>s</sup>

8 Later Bo'az said to Ruth: "You have heard, have you not, my daughter? Do not go away to glean in another field,<sup>a</sup> and you must also not cross over from this place, and in that way you should keep close by my young women.<sup>b</sup> 9 Let your eyes be on the field that they will harvest, and you must go with them. Have I not commanded the young men not to touch<sup>c</sup> you? When you are thirsty, you must also go to the vessels and drink from what the young men will draw."<sup>d</sup>

10 At that she fell upon her face and bowed down to the earth<sup>e</sup> and said to him: "How is it I have found favor in your eyes so that I am taken notice of, when I am a foreigner?"<sup>f</sup> 11 Then Bo'az answered and said to her: "The report<sup>g</sup> was fully made to me of all that you have done to your mother-in-law after the death of your husband,<sup>h</sup> and how you proceeded to leave your father and your mother and the land of your relatives and to go to a people whom you had not known formerly.<sup>i</sup> 12 May Jehovah reward the way you act,<sup>j</sup> and may there come to be a perfect wage<sup>k</sup> for you from Jehovah the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to seek refuge."<sup>l</sup> 13 To this she said: "Let me find favor in your eyes, my lord, because you have comforted me and because you have spoken reassuringly to your maidservant,<sup>m</sup> although I myself may not happen to be like one of your maidservants."<sup>n</sup>

14 And Bo'az proceeded to say to her at mealtime: "Approach here, and you must eat some of the bread<sup>o</sup> and dip your piece in the vinegar." So she sat down beside the harvesters, and he would hold out roasted grain<sup>p</sup> to her and she would eat, so that she was satisfied and yet had something left over. 15 Then she got up to glean.<sup>q</sup> Bo'az now commanded his young men, saying: "Let her glean also among the cut-off ears of grain, and you must not molest<sup>a</sup> her. 16 And you should also be sure to pull out some from the bundles of ears for her, and you must leave them behind that she may glean them,<sup>b</sup> and you must not rebuke her."

17 And she continued to glean in the field until the evening,<sup>c</sup> after which she beat out<sup>d</sup> what she had gleaned, and it came to be about an e'phah<sup>e</sup> of barley. 18 Then she took it up and went into the city, and her mother-in-law got to see what she had gleaned. After that she took out what food she had left over<sup>f</sup> when she had satisfied herself and gave it to her.

19 Her mother-in-law now said to her: "Where did you glean today, and where did you work? May the one who took notice of you become blessed."<sup>g</sup> So she told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked; and she went on to say: "The name of the man with whom I worked today is Bo'az." 20 At that Na'o-mi said to her daughter-in-law: "Blessed be he of Jehovah,<sup>h</sup> who has not left his loving-kindness<sup>i</sup> toward the living and the dead."<sup>j</sup> And Na'o-mi went on to say to her: "The man is related to us.<sup>k</sup> He is one of our repurchasers."<sup>l</sup> 21 Then Ruth the Mo'ab-i-tess said: "He also said to me, 'Close by the young people that are mine is where you should keep until they have finished the entire harvest that I have.'<sup>m</sup> 22 So Na'o-mi<sup>n</sup> said to Ruth her daughter-in-law:<sup>o</sup> "It is better, my daughter, that you should go out with his young women, that they may not annoy you in another field."<sup>p</sup>

the wheat came to an end. And she kept on dwelling with her mother-in-law.<sup>a</sup>

3 Na'o-mi her mother-in-law now said to her: "My daughter, ought I not to look for a resting-place<sup>b</sup> for you, that it may go well with you? 2 And now, is not Bo'az, with whose young women you have continued, our kinsman?<sup>c</sup> Look! He is winnowing<sup>d</sup> barley at the threshing floor tonight. 3 And you must wash and rub yourself with oil<sup>e</sup> and put your mantles upon you<sup>f</sup> and go down to the threshing floor. Do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking. 4 And it should occur that when he lies down, you must also take note of the place where he lies down; and you must come and uncover him at his feet and lie down; and he, for his part, will tell you what you ought to do."

5 At that she said to her: "All that you say to me I shall do." 6 And she proceeded to go down to the threshing floor and to do according to all that her mother-in-law had commanded her. 7 Meantime Bo'az ate and drank, and his heart was feeling good.<sup>g</sup> Then he went to lie down at the extremity of the grain heap. After that she came stealthily and uncovered him at his feet and lay down. 8 And it came about at midnight that the man began to tremble. So he bent himself forward, and, look! a woman lying at his feet! 9 Then he said: "Who are you?" In turn she said: "I am Ruth your slave girl, and you must spread out your skirt over your slave girl, for you are a repurchaser."<sup>h</sup> 10 At that he said: "Blessed may you be of Jehovah,<sup>i</sup> my daughter. young fellows whether lowly or rich. 11 And now, my daughter, do not be afraid. All that you say I shall do for you,<sup>a</sup> for everyone in the gate of my people is aware that you are an excellent woman.<sup>b</sup> 12 And now while it is a fact that I am a repurchaser,<sup>c</sup> there is also a repurchaser closer related than I am.<sup>d</sup> 13 Lodge here tonight, and it must occur in the morning that if he will repurchase<sup>e</sup> you, fine! Let him do the repurchasing. But if he does not take delight in repurchasing you, I will then repurchase you, I myself, as sure as Jehovah lives.<sup>f</sup> Keep lying down until the morning."

14 And she kept lying at his feet until the morning and then got up before anyone could recognize another. He now said: "Do not let it be known that a woman came to the threshing floor."<sup>g</sup> 15 And he went on to say: "Bring the cloak that is on you, and hold it open." So she held it open, and he proceeded to measure out six measures of barley and to place it upon her, after which he went into the city.

16 And she went her way to her mother-in-law, who now said: "Who are you, my daughter?" Accordingly she told her everything that the man had done to her. 17 And she went on to say: "These six measures of barley he gave me, for he said to me, 'Do not come empty-handed to your mother-in-law.'<sup>h</sup>" 18 At that she said: "Sit still, my daughter, until you know how the matter will turn out, for the man will have no rest unless he has brought the matter to an end today."<sup>i</sup>

4 As for Bo'az, he went up to the gate<sup>j</sup> and began to sit there. And, look! the repurchaser was passing by, whom Bo'az had mentioned.<sup>k</sup> Then he said: "Do turn aside, do sit down here, So-and-so." Hence he turned aside and sat down. 2 After that he took ten men of the older men<sup>a</sup> of the city and said: "Sit down here." So they sat down.

3 He now said to the repurchaser:<sup>b</sup> "The tract of the field that belonged to our brother E-lim'e-lech,<sup>c</sup> Na'o-mi, who has returned from the field of Mo'ab,<sup>d</sup> must sell. 4 As for me, I thought that I should disclose it to you, saying, 'Buy it' in front of the inhabitants and the older men of my people.<sup>f</sup> If you will repurchase it, repurchase it; but if you will not repurchase it, do tell me, that I may know, for there is no one else but you to do the repurchasing,<sup>g</sup> and I am next to you." At that he said: "I shall be the one to repurchase it."<sup>h</sup> 5 Then Bo'az said: "On the day that you buy the field from Na'o-mi's hand, it is also from Ruth the Mo'ab-i-tess, the wife of the dead man, that you must buy it so as to cause the name of the dead man to rise upon his inheritance."<sup>i</sup> 6 To this the repurchaser said: "I am unable to repurchase it for myself, for fear I may ruin my own inheritance. You repurchase it for yourself with my right of repurchase, because I am not able to do the repurchasing."

7 Now this was the custom of former times in Israel concerning the right of repurchase and concerning the exchange, to establish every sort of thing: A man had to draw his sandal<sup>j</sup> off and give it to his fellow, and this was the attestation in Israel. 8 So when the repurchaser said to Bo'az: "Buy it for yourself," he proceeded to draw his sandal<sup>k</sup> off. 9 Then Bo'az said to the older men and all the people: "You are witnesses<sup>l</sup> today that I do buy all that belonged to E-lim'e-lech and all that belonged to Chil'ion and Mah'lon from the hand of Na'o-mi. 10 And also Ruth the Mo'ab-i-tess, the wife of Mah'lon, I do buy for myself as a wife to cause the name of the dead man<sup>a</sup> to rise upon his inheritance and that the name of the dead man may not be cut off from among his brothers and from the gate of his place. You are witnesses<sup>b</sup> today."

11 At this all the people that were in the gate and the older men said: "Witnesses! May Jehovah grant the wife who is coming into your house to be like Rachel<sup>c</sup> and like Le'ah,<sup>d</sup> both of whom built the house of Israel;<sup>e</sup> and you prove your worth in Eph'ra-thah<sup>f</sup> and make a notable name in Beth'le-hem.<sup>g</sup> 12 And may your house become like the house of Pe'rez, whom Ta'mar bore to Judah,<sup>h</sup> from the offspring that Jehovah will give you out of this young woman."<sup>i</sup>

13 Accordingly Bo'az took Ruth and she became his wife and he had relations with her. So Jehovah granted her conception<sup>j</sup> and she bore a son. 14 And the women began to say<sup>k</sup> to Na'o-mi: "Blessed be Jehovah,<sup>l</sup> who has not let a repurchaser fail for you today; that his name may be proclaimed in Israel. 15 And he has become a restorer of your soul and one to nourish your old age,<sup>m</sup> because your daughter-in-law who does love you,<sup>n</sup> who is better to you than seven sons,<sup>o</sup> has given birth to him." 16 And Na'o-mi proceeded to take the child and to put it in her bosom, and she came to be its nurse. 17 Then the neighbor<sup>p</sup> ladies gave it a name, saying: "A son has been born to Na'o-mi." And they began to call his name O'bed.<sup>q</sup> He is the father of Jesse,<sup>r</sup> David's father.

Hez'ron became father to Ram; and Ram<sup>a</sup> became father to Am-min'a-dab; 20 and Am-min'a-dab<sup>b</sup> became father to Nah'shon;<sup>c</sup> and Nah'shon became father to Sal'mon; 21 and Sal'mon<sup>d</sup> became father to Bo'az;

or, according to the Greek Septuagint,

THE FIRST OF KINGS

1 Now there happened to be a certain man of Ramath-a'im-zo'phim<sup>a</sup> of the mountainous region of E'phra-im,<sup>b</sup> and his name was El-ka'nah,<sup>c</sup> the son of Je-ro'ham, the son of E-li'hu, the son of To'hu, the son of Zuph,<sup>d</sup> an E'phra-im-ite. 2 And he had two wives, the name of the one being Han'nah, and the name of the other being Pe-nin'nah. And Pe-nin'nah came to have children, but Han'nah had no children.<sup>e</sup> 3 And that man went up out of his city from year to year to prostrate himself<sup>f</sup> and to sacrifice to Jehovah of armies in Shi'loh.<sup>g</sup> And there is where the two sons of E'li, Hoph'ni and Phin'e-has,<sup>h</sup> were priests to Jehovah.<sup>i</sup>

4 And there came to be a day when El-ka'nah proceeded to sacrifice, and he gave to Pe-nin'nah his wife and to all her sons and her daughters portions;<sup>j</sup> 5 but to Han'nah he gave one portion. Nonetheless it was Han'nah that he loved,<sup>k</sup> and, as for Jehovah, he had closed up her womb.<sup>l</sup> 6 And her rival wife also vexed<sup>m</sup> her sorely for the sake of making her feel disconcerted because Jehovah had closed up her womb. 7 And that was the way she would do year by year,<sup>n</sup> as often as she went up into the house of Jehovah.<sup>a</sup> That was the way she would vex her, so that she would weep and not eat. 8 And El-ka'nah her husband proceeded to say to her: "Han'nah, why do you weep, and why do you not eat, and why does your heart feel bad?<sup>b</sup> Am I not better to you than ten sons?"<sup>c</sup>

9 Then Han'nah got up after they had eaten in Shi'loh and after the drinking, while E'li the priest was sitting upon the seat by the doorstep of the temple<sup>d</sup> of Jehovah. 10 And she was bitter of soul,<sup>e</sup> and she began to pray to Jehovah<sup>f</sup> and to weep greatly.<sup>g</sup> 11 And she went on to make a vow<sup>h</sup> and say: "O Jehovah of armies, if you will without fail look upon the affliction of your slave girl<sup>i</sup> and actually remember me,<sup>j</sup> and you will not forget your slave girl and actually give to your slave girl a male offspring, I will give him to Jehovah all the days of his life, and no razor will come upon his head."<sup>k</sup>

12 And it occurred that while she prayed extendedly<sup>l</sup> before Jehovah, E'li was watching her mouth. 13 As for Han'nah, she was speaking in her heart;<sup>m</sup> only her lips were quivering, and her voice was not heard. But E'li took her for drunk.<sup>a</sup> 14 So E'li said to her: "How long will you behave drunk?<sup>b</sup> Put away your wine from upon you." 15 At this Han'nah answered and said: "No, my lord! A woman hard pressed in spirit I am; and wine and intoxicating liquor I have not drunk, but I pour out my soul before Jehovah.<sup>c</sup> 16 Do not make your slave girl like a good-for-nothing<sup>d</sup> woman, for it is out of the abundance of my concern and my vexation that I have spoken until now."<sup>e</sup> 17 Then E'li answered and said: "Go in peace,<sup>f</sup> and may the God of Israel grant your petition that you have asked of him."<sup>g</sup> 18 To this she said: "Let your maid-servant find favor in your eyes."<sup>h</sup> And the woman proceeded to go on her way and to eat,<sup>i</sup> and her face became self-concerned no more.<sup>j</sup>

until you wean him. Only may Jehovah carry out his word."<sup>a</sup> So the woman stayed at home and kept nursing her son until she weaned him.<sup>b</sup>

24 Accordingly just as soon as she had weaned him, she brought him up with her, along with a three-year-old bull and one e'phah of flour and a large jar of wine,<sup>c</sup> and she proceeded to enter the house of Jehovah in Shi'loh.<sup>d</sup> And the boy was with her. 25 Then they slaughtered the bull and brought the boy to E'li.<sup>e</sup> 26 With that she said: "Excuse me, my lord! By the life of your soul,<sup>f</sup> my lord, I am the woman that was standing with you in this place to pray to Jehovah.<sup>g</sup> 27 It was with reference to this boy that I prayed that Jehovah should grant me my petition<sup>h</sup> that I asked of him.<sup>i</sup> 28 And I, in my turn, have lent him to Jehovah.<sup>j</sup> All the days that he does happen to be, he is one requested for Jehovah."

And he proceeded to bow down there to Jehovah.<sup>k</sup>

"My heart does exult in Jehovah,<sup>m</sup>

My horn is indeed exalted in Jehovah.<sup>n</sup>

My mouth is widened against my enemies,

For I do rejoice in the salvation from you.<sup>o</sup>

2 There is no one holy like Jehovah, for there is no one but you;<sup>p</sup>

And there is no rock like our God.<sup>q</sup>

3 Do not you people speak very haughtily so much,

Let nothing go forth unrestrained from YOUR mouth,<sup>r</sup>

11 Then El-ka'nah went to Ra'mah to his house; and as for the boy, he became a minister<sup>a</sup> of Jehovah before E'li the priest.

12 Now the sons of E'li were good-for-nothing men;<sup>b</sup> they did not acknowledge Jehovah.<sup>c</sup> 13 As for the due right of the priests from the people,<sup>d</sup> whenever any man was offering a sacrifice, an attendant of the priest came with the three-pronged fork in his hand, just when the meat was boiling,<sup>e</sup> 14 and made a thrust into the basin or the two-handled cooking pot or the caldron or the one-handled cooking pot. Anything that the fork might bring up the priest would take for himself. That is the way they would do in Shi'loh to all the Israelites coming there.<sup>f</sup> 15 Also, before ever they could make the fat smoke,<sup>g</sup> an attendant of the priest came and said to the man sacrificing: "Do give meat to roast for the priest so that he may receive from you, not boiled meat, but raw."<sup>h</sup> 16 When the man would say to him: "Let them be sure to make the fat smoke first of all.<sup>i</sup> Then take for yourself just whatever your soul may crave,"<sup>j</sup> he actually said: "No, but you should give it now; and, if not, I shall have to take it by force!"<sup>k</sup>

18 And Samuel was ministering<sup>n</sup> before Jehovah, as a boy, having a linen eph'od girded on.<sup>o</sup> 19 Also, a little sleeveless coat his mother would make for him, and she brought it up to him from year to year when she came up with her husband to sacrifice the yearly sacrifice.<sup>p</sup>

20 And E'li blessed<sup>a</sup> El-ka'nah and his wife and said: "May Jehovah appoint to you an offspring from this wife in place of the thing lent, that was lent to Jehovah."<sup>b</sup> And they went to their place. 21 Accordingly Jehovah turned his attention to Han'-nah,<sup>c</sup> so that she had pregnancy and gave birth to three sons and two daughters.<sup>d</sup> And the boy Samuel continued growing up with Jehovah.<sup>e</sup>

22 And E'li was very old, and he had heard<sup>f</sup> of all that his sons kept doing<sup>g</sup> to all Israel and how they would lie down with the women<sup>h</sup> that were serving at the entrance of the tent of meeting.<sup>i</sup> 23 And he used to say to them:<sup>j</sup> "Why do you keep doing things like these?<sup>k</sup> For the things I am hearing about you from all the people are bad.<sup>l</sup> 24 No,<sup>m</sup> my sons, because the report is not good that I am hearing, that the people of Jehovah are causing to circulate.<sup>n</sup> 25 If a man should sin against a man,<sup>o</sup> God will arbitrate for him;<sup>p</sup> but if it is against Jehovah that a man should sin,<sup>q</sup> who is there to pray for him?"<sup>r</sup> But they would not listen to the voice of their father,<sup>s</sup> because Jehovah was now pleased to put them to death.<sup>t</sup> 26 All the while the boy Samuel was growing bigger and more likable both from Jehovah's standpoint and from that of men.<sup>u</sup>

27 And a man of God<sup>v</sup> proceeded to come to E'li and say to him: "This is what Jehovah has said, 'Did I not for a fact reveal myself to the house of your forefather while they happened to be in Egypt as slaves to the house of Phar'aoh?'<sup>w</sup> 28 And there was a choosing of him out of all the tribes of Israel for me,<sup>x</sup> to act as priest and go up upon my altar<sup>y</sup> to make sacrificial smoke billow up, to bear an eph'od before me, that I might give to the house of your forefather all the offer-

30 "That is why the utterance of Jehovah the God of Israel is: 'I did indeed say, As for your house and the house of your forefather, they will walk before me to time indefinite.'<sup>f</sup> But now the utterance of Jehovah is: 'It is unthinkable, on my part, because those honoring me<sup>g</sup> I shall honor,<sup>h</sup> and those despising me will be of little account.'<sup>i</sup>

31 Look! Days are coming when I shall certainly chop off your arm and the arm of the house of your forefather, so that there will not come to be an old man in your house.<sup>j</sup> 32 And you will actually look upon an adversary in my dwelling amid all the good that is done to Israel;<sup>k</sup> and never will there come to be an old man in your house. 33 And yet there is a man of yours that I shall not cut off from being at my altar so as to cause your eyes to fail and to make your soul pine away; but the greater number of your house will all die by the sword of men.<sup>l</sup> 34 And this is the sign for you that will come to your two sons, Hoph'ni and Phin'e-has:<sup>m</sup> On one day both of them will die.<sup>n</sup> 35 And I shall certainly raise up for myself a faithful priest,<sup>o</sup> in harmony with what is in my heart and in my soul he will do; and I shall certainly build for him a lasting house, and he will certainly walk before my anointed<sup>p</sup> one always. 36 And it must

3 All the while the boy Samuel was ministering<sup>c</sup> to Jehovah before E'li, and word from Jehovah<sup>d</sup> had become rare in those days;<sup>e</sup> there was no vision<sup>f</sup> being spread abroad.

2 Now it came about on that day that E'li was lying in his place, and his eyes had begun to grow dim;<sup>g</sup> he was not able to see.

3 And the lamp of God was not yet extinguished, and Samuel was lying in the temple<sup>h</sup> of Jehovah, where the ark of God was.

4 And Jehovah proceeded to call Samuel. At this he said: "Here I am."<sup>i</sup>

5 And he went running to E'li and saying: "Here I am, for you called me." But he said: "I did not call. Lie down again." So he went and lay down.

6 And Jehovah went on to call yet again: "Samuel!" At this Samuel got up and went to E'li and said: "Here I am, for you did call me."

But he said: "I did not call, my son.<sup>k</sup> Lie down again."

7 (As regards Samuel, he had not yet come to know Jehovah, and the word of Jehovah had not yet begun to be revealed to him.)<sup>l</sup>

8 So Jehovah called again for the third time: "Samuel!" At that he got up and went to E'li and said: "Here I am, for you must have called me."

And E'li began to discern that it was Jehovah that was calling the boy.

9 Consequently E'li said to Samuel: "Go, lie down, and it must occur that, if he should call you, you must say, 'Speak, Jehovah, for your servant is listening.'" So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

10 Then Jehovah came and took his position and called as at the other times: "Samuel, Samuel!" At this Samuel said: "Speak,

11 And Jehovah went on to say to Samuel: "Look! I am doing<sup>b</sup> something in Israel which if anyone hears about, both his ears will tingle.<sup>c</sup> 12 On that day I shall carry out toward E'li all that I have said respecting his house, from beginning to end.<sup>d</sup>

13 And you must tell him that I am judging his house<sup>e</sup> to time indefinite for the error that he has known,<sup>f</sup> because his sons are calling down evil upon God,<sup>g</sup> and he has not rebuked them.<sup>h</sup>

14 And that is why I have sworn to the house of E'li that the error of the house of E'li will not be brought to exemption from punishment by sacrifice or by offering to time indefinite."<sup>i</sup>

15 And Samuel continued lying down until the morning. Then he opened the doors of Jehovah's house.<sup>j</sup> And Samuel was afraid to tell E'li of the appearing.<sup>k</sup>

16 But E'li called Samuel and said: "Samuel, my son!" At this he said: "Here I am."

17 And he went on to say: "What is the word that he has spoken to you? Do not, please, hide it from me.<sup>l</sup> May God do so to you and so may he add to it<sup>m</sup> if you should hide from me a word of all the word that he has spoken to you."

18 So Samuel told him all the words, and he did not hide anything from him. At that he said: "It is Jehovah. What is good in his eyes let him do."<sup>n</sup>

20 And all Israel from Dan to Be'er-she'ba<sup>q</sup> became aware that Samuel was one accredited for the position of prophet to Jehovah.<sup>r</sup>

21 And Jehovah proceeded to appear again<sup>s</sup> in Shi'loh, because Jehovah revealed himself to Samuel in Shi'loh by the word of Jehovah.<sup>t</sup>

Then Israel went out to meet the Philistines in battle; and they took up camping alongside Eb-en-e'zer,<sup>a</sup> and the Philistines themselves encamped in A'phek.<sup>b</sup> 2 And the Philistines proceeded to draw up in formation<sup>c</sup> to meet Israel, and the battle went badly, so that Israel was defeated before the Philistines,<sup>d</sup> who went striking down about four thousand men in closed battle line in the field. 3 When the people came to the camp the older men of Israel began to say: "Why did Jehovah defeat us today before the Philistines?"<sup>e</sup> Let us take to ourselves from Shi'loh the ark of Jehovah's covenant,<sup>f</sup> that it may come into our midst and may save us from the palm of our enemies." 4 So the people sent to Shi'loh and carried from there the ark of the covenant of Jehovah of armies, who is sitting upon the cherubs.<sup>g</sup> And the two sons of E'li were there with the ark of the covenant of the true God, namely, Hoph'ni and Phin'e-has.<sup>h</sup>

5 And it came about that as soon as the ark of the covenant of Jehovah came into the camp, all the Israelites broke out into loud shouting,<sup>i</sup> so that the earth was in a stir. 6 The Philistines also got to hear the sound of the shouting and began saying: "What does the sound of this loud shouting<sup>j</sup> in the camp of the Hebrews mean?" Finally they got to know that the ark of Jehovah itself had come into the camp. 7 And the Philistines became afraid, because, they said: "God has come into the camp!"<sup>k</sup> So they said: "Woe to us, for such a thing as this never occurred before!" 8 Woe to us! Who will save us from the hand of this majestic God? This is the God that was the smiter of Egypt with every sort of slaughter in the wilderness.<sup>a</sup> 9 Show yourselves courageous and prove yourselves men, you Philistines, that you may not serve the Hebrews just as they have served you;<sup>b</sup> and you must prove yourselves men and fight!" 10 Accordingly the Philistines fought and Israel was defeated,<sup>c</sup> and they went fleeing each one to his tent;<sup>d</sup> and the slaughter came to be very great,<sup>e</sup> so that out of Israel there fell thirty thousand men on foot.<sup>f</sup> 11 And the ark of God itself was captured,<sup>g</sup> and the two sons of E'li, Hoph'ni and Phin'e-has, died.<sup>h</sup>

12 And a man of Benjamin went running from the battle line so that he arrived at Shi'loh on that day with his garments ripped apart<sup>i</sup> and dirt on his head.<sup>j</sup> 13 When he arrived, there was E'li sitting on the seat by the roadside, watching, because his heart had become atremble over the ark of the true God.<sup>k</sup> And the man himself went in to report in the city, and the whole city began crying out. 14 And E'li got to hear the sound of the outcry. So he said: "What does the sound of this turmoil mean?"<sup>l</sup> And the man himself hurried that he might go in and report to E'li. 15 (Now E'li was ninety-eight years old, and his eyes had set so that he was unable to see.)<sup>m</sup> 16 And the man proceeded to say to E'li: "I am the one coming from the battle line, and I—it is from the battle line that I have fled today." At this he said: "What is the thing that has happened, my son?" 17 So the news bearer answered and said: "Israel has fled before the Philistines, and there has also occurred a great defeat among the people;<sup>n</sup> and also your own two sons have died—Hoph'ni and Phin'e-has<sup>o</sup>—and the very ark of the true God has been captured."<sup>p</sup>

18 And it came about that at the moment that he mentioned the ark of the true God, he began to fall from the seat backward beside the gate, and his neck got broken so that he died, because the man was old and heavy; and he himself had judged Israel forty years. 19 And his daughter-in-law, the wife of Phin'e-has, was pregnant near to giving birth, and she got to hear the report that the ark of the true God was captured and that her father-in-law and her husband had died. At that she bowed herself and began giving birth, because her pangs came unexpectedly upon her.<sup>a</sup> 20 And about the time of her death, the women standing by her began to speak: "Do not be afraid, because it is a son that you have borne."<sup>b</sup> And she did not answer and did not set her heart on it. 21 But she called the boy Ich'a-bod,<sup>c</sup> saying: "Glory has gone away from Israel into exile,"<sup>d</sup> this with reference to the ark of the true God's being captured and with reference to her father-in-law and her husband.<sup>e</sup> 22 So she said: "Glory has gone away from Israel into exile,"<sup>f</sup> because the ark of the true God has been captured."<sup>g</sup>

5 As for the Philis'tines, they took the ark<sup>h</sup> of the true God and then brought it from Eben'e-zer to Ash'dod.<sup>i</sup> 2 And the Philis'tines proceeded to take the ark of the true God and bring it into the house of Da'gon and station it beside Da'gon.<sup>j</sup> 3 Then the Ash'dod-ites got up early the very next day, and there Da'gon was fallen upon his face to the earth before the ark of Jehovah.<sup>k</sup> So they took Da'gon and returned him to his place.<sup>l</sup> 4 When they got up early in the morning the very day after, there Da'gon was fallen upon his face to the earth before the ark of Jehovah, with the head of Da'gon and the palms of both his hands cut off, to the threshold.<sup>a</sup> Only the fish part had been left upon him. 5 That is why the priests of Da'gon and all those going into the house of Da'gon do not tread upon the threshold of Da'gon in Ash'dod down to this day.

6 And the hand of Jehovah<sup>b</sup> came to be heavy upon the Ash'dod-ites, and he began causing panic and striking them with piles,<sup>c</sup> namely, Ash'dod and its territories. 7 And the men of Ash'dod came to see that it was so, and they said: "Do not let the ark of the God of Israel dwell with us, because his hand has been hard against us and against Da'gon our god."<sup>d</sup> 8 Consequently they sent and gathered all the axis lords of the Philis'tines to them and said: "What shall we do to the ark of the God of Israel?" Finally they said: "Toward Gath<sup>e</sup> let the ark of the God of Israel go around." So they brought the ark of the God of Israel around to there.

9 And it came about that after they had brought it around to there, the hand of Jehovah<sup>f</sup> came to be upon the city with a very great confusion, and he began striking the men of the city, from small to great, and piles<sup>g</sup> began breaking out on them. 10 Hence they sent the ark of the true God to Ek'ron.<sup>h</sup> And it came about that as soon as the ark of the true God came to Ek'ron, the Ek'ron-ites began to cry out, saying: "They have brought the ark of the God of Israel around to me to put me and my people to death!"<sup>i</sup> 11 Consequently they sent and gathered all the axis lords of the Philis'tines and said: "SEND the ark of the God of Israel away that it may return to its place and may not put me and my people to death." For a death-dealing confusion had occurred in the whole city;<sup>j</sup> the hand of the true

God had been very heavy there,<sup>a</sup> 12 and the men that did not die had been struck with piles.<sup>b</sup> And the cry<sup>c</sup> of the city for help kept ascending to the heavens.

6 And the ark<sup>d</sup> of Jehovah proved to be in the field of the Phi-lis'tines seven months. 2 And the Phi-lis'tines proceeded to call the priests and the diviners,<sup>e</sup> saying: "What shall we do with the ark of Jehovah? Let us know with what we should send it away to its place." 3 To this they said: "If you are sending the ark of the God of Israel away, do not send it away without an offering, for you should by all means return to him a guilt offering.<sup>f</sup> Then it is that you will be healed, and it must become known to you why his hand would not turn away from you." 4 At this they said: "What is the guilt offering that we ought to return to him?" Then they said: "According to the number of the axis lords<sup>g</sup> of the Phi-lis'tines, five golden piles and five golden jerboas, for every one of you and your axis lords have the same scourge. 5 And you must make images of your piles and images of your jerboas<sup>h</sup> that are bringing the land to ruin, and you must give glory<sup>i</sup> to the God of Israel. Perhaps he will lighten his hand from off you and your god and your land.<sup>j</sup> 6 Also, why should you make your heart unresponsive just the way Egypt and Phar'aoth made their heart unresponsive?<sup>k</sup> Was it not as soon as He dealt severely with them<sup>l</sup> that they proceeded to send them away, and they went their way?<sup>m</sup> 7 And now take and make a new wagon,<sup>n</sup> and two cows that are giving suck, upon which no yoke<sup>o</sup> has come up, and you must hitch the cows to the wagon, and you must make their young ones go back home from following them. 8 And you must take the ark of Jehovah and place it on the wagon, and the golden articles<sup>a</sup> that you must return to him as a guilt<sup>b</sup> offering you should put into a box at the side of it. And you must send it away, and it must go. 9 And you must look: if it is the road to its territory that it goes up, to Beth-she'mesh,<sup>c</sup> it is he that has done to us this great evil; but if not, we must know that it was not his hand that touched us; an accident<sup>d</sup> it was that happened to us."

10 And the men proceeded to do accordingly. So they took two cows that were giving suck and hitched them to the wagon, and their young ones they shut up at home. 11 Then they put the ark of Jehovah upon the wagon,<sup>e</sup> and also the box and the golden jerboas and the images of their piles. 12 And the cows began to go straight ahead on the road to Beth-she'mesh.<sup>f</sup> On the one highway they went, lowing as they went, and they did not turn aside to the right or to the left. All the while the axis lords<sup>g</sup> of the Phi-lis'tines were walking after them as far as the boundary of Beth-she'mesh. 13 And people of Beth-she'mesh were reaping the wheat harvest<sup>h</sup> in the low plain. When they raised their eyes and saw the Ark, they gave way to rejoicing at seeing it. 14 And the wagon itself came into the field of Joshua the Beth-she'mite and kept standing there, where there was a large stone. And they went splitting up the wood of the wagon, and the cows<sup>i</sup> they offered up as a burnt offering to Jehovah.<sup>j</sup>

15 And the Levites<sup>k</sup> themselves took the ark of Jehovah down and the box that was with it, in which the golden articles were, and they proceeded to put it upon the large stone. And the men of Beth-she'mesh,<sup>l</sup> for their part, offered up burnt offerings,

16 And the five axis<sup>a</sup> lords of the Phi-lis'tines themselves saw it and went their way back to Ek'ron on that day. 17 Now these are the golden piles that the Phi-lis'tines returned as a guilt offering to Jehovah:<sup>b</sup> for Ash'dod<sup>c</sup> one, for Ga'za<sup>d</sup> one, for Ash'ke-lon<sup>e</sup> one, for Gath<sup>f</sup> one, for Ek'ron<sup>g</sup> one. 18 And the golden jerboas were to the number of all the cities of the Phi-lis'tines belonging to the five axis lords, from the fortified city to the village of the open country.

And the great stone upon which they rested the ark of Jehovah is a witness down to this day in the field of Joshua the Beth-she'mite. 19 And he went striking down the men of Beth-she'mesh,<sup>h</sup> because they had looked upon the ark of Jehovah. So he struck down among the people seventy men—fifty thousand men—and the people began mourning because Jehovah had struck down the people with a great slaughter.<sup>i</sup> 20 Further, the men of Beth-she'mesh said: "Who will be able to stand before Jehovah this holy God,<sup>j</sup> and to whom will he withdraw from off us?"<sup>k</sup> 21 Finally they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kir'i-ath-je'a-rim,<sup>l</sup> saying: "The Phi-lis'tines have returned the ark of Jehovah. Come down. Take it up to yourselves."<sup>m</sup>

7 Accordingly the men of Kir'i-ath-je'a-rim<sup>n</sup> came and brought the ark of Jehovah up and took it into the house of A-bin'a-dab<sup>o</sup> on the hill, and El-e-a'zar his son was the one whom they sanctified to guard the ark of Jehovah.

2 And it came about that from the day of the Ark's dwelling in Kir'i-ath-je'a-rim the days kept multiplying, so that they amounted to twenty years, and all the house of Israel went lamenting after Jehovah.<sup>a</sup> 3 And Samuel proceeded to say to all the house of Israel: "If it is with all YOUR heart YOU are returning to Jehovah,<sup>b</sup> put away the foreign gods from your midst<sup>c</sup> and also the Ash'to-reth images,<sup>d</sup> and direct YOUR heart unswervingly to Jehovah and serve him alone,<sup>e</sup> and he will deliver you from the hand of the Phi-lis'tines."<sup>f</sup> 4 At that the sons of Israel put away the Ba'al's<sup>g</sup> and the Ash'to-reth<sup>h</sup> images and began serving Jehovah alone.

5 Then Samuel said: "Collect all Israel<sup>i</sup> together at Miz'pah,<sup>j</sup> that I may pray<sup>k</sup> in your behalf to Jehovah." 6 So they were collected together at Miz'pah, and they went drawing water and pouring it out before Jehovah and kept a fast on that day.<sup>l</sup> And they began saying there: "We have sinned against Jehovah."<sup>m</sup> And Samuel took up judging<sup>n</sup> the sons of Israel in Miz'pah.

7 And the Phi-lis'tines came to hear that the sons of Israel had collected themselves together at Miz'pah, and the axis lords<sup>o</sup> of the Phi-lis'tines got on their way up against Israel. When the sons of Israel heard of it, they began to be afraid on account of the Phi-lis'tines.<sup>p</sup> 8 So the sons of Israel said to Samuel: "Do not keep silent for our sakes from calling to Jehovah our God for aid,<sup>q</sup> that he may save us from the hand of the Phi-lis'tines."<sup>r</sup> 9 Then Samuel took a sucking lamb and offered it up as a burnt offering, a whole offering,<sup>s</sup> to Jehovah; and Samuel began calling to Jehovah for aid in behalf of Israel,<sup>t</sup> and Jehovah proceeded to answer him.<sup>u</sup> 10 And it came about that while Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Phi-lis'tines themselves drew near for battle against Israel. And Jehovah now caused it to thunder with a loud noise<sup>a</sup> on that day against the Phi-lis'tines, that he might throw them into confusion;<sup>b</sup> and they got defeated before Israel.<sup>c</sup> 11 At that the men of Israel sallied forth from Miz'pah and went in pursuit of the Phi-lis'tines and kept striking them down as far as south of Beth-car. 12 Then Samuel took a stone<sup>d</sup> and set it between Miz'pah and Jesh'a-nah and began to call its name Eb-en-e'zer. Accordingly he said: "Till now Jehovah has helped us."<sup>e</sup> 13 Thus the Phi-lis'tines were subdued, and they did not come anymore into the territory of Israel;<sup>f</sup> and the hand of Jehovah continued to be against the Phi-lis'tines all the days of Samuel.<sup>g</sup> 14 And the cities that the Phi-lis'tines had taken from Israel kept coming back to Israel from Ek'ron to Gath, and the territory of them Israel delivered from the hand of the Phi-lis'tines.

15 And Samuel kept on judging Israel all the days of his life.<sup>i</sup> 16 And he traveled from year to year and made the circuit of Beth'e'l<sup>j</sup> and Gil'gal<sup>k</sup> and Miz'pah<sup>l</sup> and judged Israel<sup>m</sup> at all these places. 17 But his return was to Ra'mah,<sup>n</sup> because there was where his house was, and there he judged Israel. And he proceeded to build an altar there to Jehovah.<sup>o</sup>

8 And it came about that as soon as Samuel had grown old he made appointments<sup>p</sup> of his sons as judges for Israel. 2 Now the name of his first-born son happened to be Joel,<sup>q</sup> and the name of his second A-bi'-jah;<sup>r</sup> they were judging in Be'er-she'ba. 3 And his sons did not walk in his ways,<sup>s</sup> but they were

4 In time all the older men of Israel<sup>d</sup> collected themselves together and came to Samuel at Ra'mah 5 and said to him: "Look! You yourself have grown old, but your own sons have not walked in your ways. Now do appoint for us a king<sup>e</sup> to judge us like all the nations." 6 But the thing was bad in the eyes of Samuel inasmuch as they had said: "Do give us a king to judge us," and Samuel began to pray to Jehovah.<sup>f</sup> 7 Then Jehovah said to Samuel:<sup>g</sup> "Listen to the voice of the people as respects all that they say to you;<sup>h</sup> for it is not you whom they have rejected, but it is I whom they have rejected from being king<sup>i</sup> over them.

8 In accord with all their doings that they have done from the day of my bringing them up out of Egypt<sup>j</sup> until this day in that they kept leaving me<sup>k</sup> and serving other gods,<sup>l</sup> that is the way they are doing also to you.

9 And now listen to their voice. Only this, that you should solemnly warn them, and you must tell them the rightful due of the king who will reign over them."<sup>m</sup>

10 So Samuel said all the words of Jehovah to the people who were asking a king of him. 11 And he proceeded to say: "This will become the rightful due<sup>n</sup> of the king that will reign over you: YOUR sons he will take<sup>o</sup> and put them as his in his chariots<sup>p</sup> and among his horsemen,<sup>q</sup> and some will have to run before his chariots;<sup>r</sup> 12 and to appoint for himself chiefs over thousands<sup>s</sup> and chiefs over fifties,<sup>t</sup> and some to do his plowing<sup>u</sup> and to reap his harvest<sup>v</sup> and to make his war instruments<sup>w</sup> and his

19 However, the people refused to listen to the voice of Samuel<sup>k</sup> and said: "No, but a king is what will come to be over us. 20 And we must become, we also, like all the nations,<sup>l</sup> and our king must judge us and go out before us and fight our battles."<sup>m</sup> 21 And Samuel gave a hearing to all the words of the people; then he spoke them in the ears of Jehovah.<sup>n</sup> 22 And Jehovah proceeded to say to Samuel: "Listen to their voice, and you must cause a king to reign for them."<sup>o</sup> Accordingly Samuel said to the men of Israel: "Go each one to his city."<sup>p</sup>

9 Now there happened to be a man of Benjamin, and his name was Kish,<sup>q</sup> the son of Abihail, the son of Ze'ror, the son of Be-co'rath, the son of A-phi'ah, a Ben'ja-min-ite,<sup>r</sup> a man mighty in wealth.<sup>s</sup> 2 And he happened to have a son whose name was Saul,<sup>t</sup> young and handsome, and there was no man of the sons of Israel that was handsomer than

3 And the she-asses<sup>b</sup> belonging to Kish the father of Saul got lost. So Kish said to Saul his son: "Take, please, with you one of the attendants and get up, go, look for the she-asses."<sup>c</sup> 4 And he went passing through the mountainous region of Ephraim<sup>d</sup> and passing on through the land of Shal'i-shah,<sup>e</sup> and they did not find them. And they went passing on through the land of Sha'alim, but they were not there. And he went passing on through the land of the Ben'ja-min-ites, and they did not find them.

5 They themselves came into the land of Zuph; and Saul, for his part, said to his attendant that was with him: "Do come, and let us return, that my father may not quit attending to the she-asses and actually become anxious about us."<sup>f</sup> 6 But he said to him: "Look, please! There is a man of God<sup>g</sup> in this city, and the man is held in honor. All that he says comes true without fail.<sup>h</sup> Let us go there now. Perhaps he can tell us our way that we must go."<sup>i</sup> 7 At this Saul said to his attendant: "And if we should go, what shall we bring to the man?"<sup>j</sup> because the bread itself has disappeared from our receptacles, and, as a gift,<sup>k</sup> there is nothing to bring to the man of the true God. What is there with us?" 8 So the attendant answered Saul once more and said: "Look! There is a quarter of a shekel<sup>l</sup> of silver found in my hand, and I shall have to give it to the man of the true God, and he will have to tell us our way."<sup>m</sup> 9 (In former times in Israel this was the way the man would have talked on his going to seek God: "COME, and let us go to the seer."<sup>n</sup> For the prophet of today used to be called a seer in former times.) 10 Then Saul said to his attendant: "Your word is good.<sup>a</sup> Do come, let us go." And they went their way to the city where the man of the true God was.

11 While they were going up on the ascent to the city, they themselves found girls going out to draw water.<sup>b</sup> So they said to them: "Is the seer<sup>c</sup> in this place?" 12 Then they answered them and said: "He is. Look! He is ahead of you. Hurry now, because today he has come to the city, for there is a sacrifice<sup>d</sup> today for the people on the high place.<sup>e</sup>" 13 As soon as you men come into the city, you will directly find him before he goes up to the high place to eat; because the people may not eat until his coming, for he is the one that blesses the sacrifice.<sup>f</sup> First after that those who are invited may eat. And now go up, because him—just now you will find him." 14 Accordingly they went on up to the city. As they were coming into the middle of the city, why, there was Samuel coming out to meet them to go up to the high place.

15 As for Jehovah, he had uncovered the ear<sup>g</sup> of Samuel the day before Saul came, saying: 16 "Tomorrow about this time I shall send to you a man from the land of Benjamin,<sup>h</sup> and you must anoint<sup>i</sup> him as leader over my people Israel; and he must save my people from the hand of the Philis'tines,<sup>j</sup> because I have seen the affliction of my people, for their outcry has come to me."<sup>k</sup> 17 And Samuel himself saw Saul, and Jehovah, for his part, answered him: "Here is the man of whom I said to you, 'This is the one that will keep my people within bounds.'"<sup>l</sup>

18 Then Saul approached Samuel in the middle of the gate and said: "Do tell me, please, Just where is the house of the seer?" 19 And Samuel proceeded to answer Saul and say:

"I am the seer. Go up before me to the high place, and you men must eat with me today,<sup>a</sup> and I must send you away in the morning, and all that is in your heart I shall tell you.<sup>b</sup>" 20 As regards the she-asses that were lost to you three days ago,<sup>c</sup> do not set your heart<sup>d</sup> on them, for they have been found. And to whom does all that is desirable of Israel belong?<sup>e</sup> Is it not to you and to the whole house of your father?" 21 At this Saul answered and said: "Am I not a Ben'ja-min-ite of the smallest<sup>f</sup> of the tribes of Israel,<sup>g</sup> and my family the most insignificant of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin?<sup>h</sup> So why have you spoken to me a thing like this?"<sup>i</sup>

22 Then Samuel took Saul and his attendant and brought them to the dining hall and gave them a place at the head<sup>j</sup> of those invited; and they were about thirty men. 23 Later Samuel said to the cook: "Do give the portion that I have given to you, of which I said to you, 'Put it away by you.'"<sup>k</sup> 24 At that the cook lifted off the leg and what was on it, and put it before Saul. And he went on to say: "Here is what has been reserved. Put it before yourself. Eat, because to the appointed time they have reserved it for you that you may eat with those invited." So Saul ate with Samuel on that day. 25 Subsequently they went down from the high place<sup>l</sup> to the city, and he continued speaking with Saul on the housetop.<sup>m</sup> 26 Then they rose early, and it came about that as soon as the dawn ascended Samuel proceeded to call to Saul on the housetop, saying: "Do get up, that I may send you away." So Saul got up and both of them, he and Samuel, went forth out of doors. 27 While they were descending by the edge of the city Samuel himself said to Saul:

"Say to the attendant<sup>a</sup> that he should pass on ahead of us"—so he passed on—"and, as for you, stand still now that I may let you hear the word of God."

10 Samuel then took the flask<sup>b</sup> of oil and poured it out upon his head and kissed<sup>c</sup> him and said: "Is it not because Jehovah has anointed you as a leader<sup>d</sup> over his inheritance?"<sup>e</sup> 2 On your going away from me today you will certainly find two men close by the tomb of Rachel<sup>f</sup> in the territory of Benjamin at Zel'zah, and they will certainly say to you, "The she-asses that you have gone to look for have been found, but now your father has given up the matter of the she-asses<sup>g</sup> and has become anxious about you men, saying: 'What shall I do about my son?'"<sup>h</sup> 3 And you must pass on from there still farther and come as far as the big tree of Ta'bor, and there there must encounter you three men going up to the true God at Beth'el,<sup>i</sup> one carrying three kids<sup>j</sup> and one carrying three round loaves of bread<sup>k</sup> and one carrying a large jar of wine.<sup>l</sup> 4 And they will certainly ask about your welfare<sup>m</sup> and give you two loaves, and you must accept them from their hand. 5 It is after that that you will come to the hill of the true God,<sup>n</sup> where there is a garrison<sup>o</sup> of the Phi-lis'tines. And it comes about that at the time of your coming there to the city, you will certainly meet a group of prophets<sup>p</sup> coming down from the high place,<sup>q</sup> and ahead of them a stringed instrument<sup>r</sup> and tambourine<sup>s</sup> and flute<sup>t</sup> and harp,<sup>u</sup> while they are speaking as prophets. 6 And the spirit<sup>v</sup> of Jehovah will certainly become operative upon you, and you will certainly speak as a prophet<sup>w</sup> along with them and be changed into another man. 7 And it must occur that when these signs<sup>a</sup> come to you, do for yourself what your hand finds possible,<sup>b</sup> because the true God is with you.<sup>c</sup> 8 And you must go down ahead of me to Gil'gal;<sup>d</sup> and, look! I am going down to you to offer up burnt sacrifices, to render up communion<sup>e</sup> sacrifices. Seven<sup>f</sup> days you should keep waiting until my coming to you, and I shall certainly let you know what you should do."

9 And it occurred that as soon as he turned his shoulder to go from Samuel, God began changing the heart of his into another;<sup>g</sup> and all these signs<sup>h</sup> proceeded to come true on that day. 10 So they went from there to the hill, and here there was a group of prophets to meet him; at once the spirit of God became operative upon him,<sup>i</sup> and he began to speak as a prophet<sup>j</sup> in the middle of them. 11 And it came about that when all those knowing him formerly saw him, look! it was with prophets that he prophesied. Consequently the people said one to another: "What is this that has happened to the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?"<sup>k</sup> 12 Then a man from there answered and said: "But who is their father?" That is why it has become a proverbial<sup>l</sup> saying: "Is Saul also among the prophets?"

13 At length he finished speaking as a prophet and came to the high place. 14 Later the brother of Saul's father said to him and to his attendant: "Where did you go?" Upon that he said: "To look for the she-asses,"<sup>m</sup> and we kept on going to see, but they were not there. So we came to Samuel." 15 At this Saul's uncle said: "Do tell me, please, What did Samuel say to you men?" 16 In turn Saul said to his uncle: "He told us unmistakably that the she-asses had been found." And the matter of the

17 And Samuel proceeded to call the people together to Jehovah at Mizpah<sup>b</sup> 18 and to say to the sons of Israel: "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said,<sup>c</sup> 'It was I who brought Israel up out of Egypt and who went delivering you from the hand of Egypt<sup>d</sup> and from the hand of all the kingdoms that were oppressing you.<sup>e</sup> 19 But you—today you have rejected your God<sup>f</sup> who was a savior to you out of all your evils and your distresses, and you went on to say: "No, but a king is what you should put over us." And now take your stand before Jehovah by your tribes<sup>g</sup> and by your thousands."<sup>h</sup>

20 Accordingly Samuel had all the tribes of Israel draw near,<sup>i</sup> and the tribe of Benjamin came to be picked.<sup>j</sup> 21 Then he had the tribe of Benjamin draw near by its families, and the family of the Matrites came to be picked.<sup>k</sup> Finally Saul the son of Kish came to be picked.<sup>l</sup> And they went looking for him, and he was not to be found. 22 Hence they inquired<sup>m</sup> further of Jehovah: "Has the man come here as yet?" To this Jehovah said: "Here he is, hidden<sup>n</sup> among the luggage." 23 So they went running and took him from there. When he took his stand in the middle of the people, he was taller than all the other people from his shoulders upward.<sup>o</sup> 24 Then Samuel said to all the people: "Have you seen the one whom Jehovah has chosen,<sup>p</sup> that there is none like him among all the people?" And all the people began to shout and say: "Let the king live!"<sup>q</sup>

25 Upon that Samuel spoke to the people about the rightful due of the kingship<sup>r</sup> and wrote it in a book and deposited it before Jehovah. Then Samuel sent all the people away, each one to his house. 26 As for Saul himself, he went to his home at Gib'e-ah,<sup>a</sup> and the valiant men whose heart God had touched proceeded to go with him.<sup>b</sup> 27 As for the good-for-nothing men,<sup>c</sup> they said: "How will this one save us?"<sup>d</sup> Accordingly they despised<sup>e</sup> him, and they did not bring any gift to him.<sup>f</sup> But he continued like one grown speechless.<sup>g</sup>

11 And Na'hash the Am'mon-ite<sup>h</sup> proceeded to go up and camp against Ja'besh<sup>i</sup> in Gil'e-ad. At that all the men of Ja'besh said to Na'hash: "Conclude a covenant with us that we may serve you."<sup>j</sup> 2 Then Na'hash the Am'mon-ite said to them: "On this condition I shall conclude it with you, on the condition of boring<sup>k</sup> out every right eye of yours, and I must put it as a reproach upon all Israel."<sup>l</sup> 3 In turn the older men of Ja'besh said to him: "Give us seven days' time, and we will send messengers into all the territory of Israel and, if there is no savior<sup>m</sup> of us, we must then go out to you." 4 In time the messengers came to Gib'e-ah<sup>n</sup> of Saul and spoke the words in the ears of the people, and all the people began raising their voice and weeping.<sup>o</sup>

5 But here is Saul coming after the herd from the field, and Saul proceeded to say: "What is the matter with the people, that they should weep?" And they began relating to him the words of the men of Ja'besh. 6 And the spirit<sup>p</sup> of God became operative upon Saul on his hearing these words, and his anger got very hot.<sup>q</sup> 7 So he took a pair of bulls and cut them in pieces and sent these into all the territory of Israel<sup>r</sup> by the hand of the messengers, saying: "Whoever of us is not going out as a follower of Saul and of Samuel, this is the way it will be done to his cattle!"<sup>a</sup> And the dread<sup>b</sup> of Jehovah<sup>c</sup> began to fall upon the people so that they came out as one man.<sup>d</sup> 8 Then he took the sum<sup>e</sup> of them in Be'zek, and the sons of Israel amounted to three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand. 9 They now said to the messengers that had come: "This is what you will say to the men of Ja'bes in Gil'e-ad, 'Tomorrow salvation will take place for you when the sun gets hot.'"<sup>f</sup> With that the messengers came and told the men of Ja'bes, and they gave way to rejoicing. 10 Accordingly the men of Ja'bes said: "Tomorrow we shall come out to you people, and you must do to us in harmony with all that is good in your eyes."<sup>g</sup>

11 And it came about on the next day that Saul<sup>h</sup> proceeded to put the people into three bands;<sup>i</sup> and they made their way into the middle of the camp during the morning watch<sup>j</sup> and went striking down the Am'mon-ites<sup>k</sup> till the day grew hot. When there proved to be some that were left over, then they were sent scattering, and there were not left over among them two together.<sup>l</sup> 12 And the people began to say to Samuel: "Who is it saying, 'Saul—is he to be king over us?'"<sup>m</sup> Give the men over, that we may put them to death."<sup>n</sup> 13 However, Saul said: "Not a man should be put to death on this day,<sup>o</sup> because today Jehovah has performed salvation in Israel."<sup>p</sup>

14 Later Samuel said to the people: "Come and let us go to Gil'gal<sup>q</sup> that we may there make the kingship anew."<sup>r</sup> 15 So all the people went to Gil'gal, and there they proceeded to make Saul king before Jehovah in Gil'gal. Then they rendered up communion sacrifices there before Jehovah,<sup>s</sup> and there Saul and all the men of Israel continued rejoicing to a great degree.<sup>t</sup>

12 Finally Samuel said to all Israel: "Here I have listened to YOUR voice as respects all that you have said to me,<sup>a</sup> that I should cause a king to reign over you.<sup>b</sup> 2 And now here is the king walking before you!<sup>c</sup> As for me, I have grown old<sup>d</sup> and gray,<sup>e</sup> and my sons, here they are with you,<sup>f</sup> and I—I have walked before you from my youth until this day.<sup>g</sup> 3 Here I am. 6 And Samuel went on to say to the people: "Jehovah is a witness, who used Moses and Aaron and who brought your forefathers up out of the land of Egypt.<sup>o</sup> 7 And now take your stand, and I will judge you before Jehovah and recount to you all the righteous acts<sup>p</sup> of Jehovah that he has done with you and with your forefathers.

8 "As soon as Jacob had come into Egypt<sup>q</sup> and your forefathers began calling to Jehovah for aid,<sup>r</sup> Jehovah proceeded to send Moses<sup>s</sup> and Aaron, that they might lead your forefathers out from Egypt and cause them to dwell in this place.<sup>t</sup> 9 And

18 Upon that Samuel called to Jehovah,<sup>a</sup> and Jehovah proceeded to give thunders and rain on that day,<sup>b</sup> so that all the people were greatly in fear of Jehovah and of Samuel. 19 And all the people began to say to Samuel: "Pray<sup>c</sup> in behalf of your servants to Jehovah your God, as we do not want to die; because we have added to all our sins an evil in asking for ourselves a king."

20 So Samuel said to the people: "Do not be afraid.<sup>d</sup> You—<sup>e</sup>you have done all this evil. Only do not turn aside from following Jehovah,<sup>f</sup> and you must serve Jehovah with all your heart.<sup>g</sup> 21 And you must not turn aside to follow the unrealities<sup>h</sup> that are of no benefit<sup>i</sup> and that do not deliver, because they are unrealities. 22 For Jehovah will not desert<sup>j</sup> his people for the sake of his great name,<sup>k</sup> because Jehovah has taken it upon himself to make you his people.<sup>l</sup> 23 As for me also, it is unthinkable, on my part, to sin against Jehovah by ceasing to pray in your behalf<sup>m</sup> and I must instruct<sup>n</sup> you in the good<sup>o</sup> and right way. 24 Only fear<sup>p</sup> Jehovah, and you must serve him in truth with all your heart;<sup>q</sup> for see what great things he has done for you.<sup>r</sup> 25 But if you flagrantly do what is bad, you will be swept away;<sup>s</sup> both you and your king."<sup>t</sup>

13 Saul was [?] years old when he began to reign,<sup>a</sup> and for two years he reigned over Israel. 2 And Saul proceeded to choose for himself three thousand men out of Israel; and two thousand came to be with Saul at Mich'mash<sup>b</sup> and in the mountainous region of Beth'el, and a thousand proved to be with Jon'a-than<sup>c</sup> at

Gib'e-ah<sup>a</sup> of Benjamin, and the rest of the people he sent away, each one to his tent. 3 Then Jon'a-than struck down the garrison<sup>b</sup> of the Phi-lis'tines<sup>c</sup> that was in Ge'ba;<sup>d</sup> and the Phi-lis'tines got to hear of it. As for Saul, he had the horn blown<sup>e</sup> throughout all the land, saying: "Let the Hebrews hear!" 4 And all Israel itself heard tell: "Saul has struck down a garrison of the Phi-lis'tines, and now Israel has become foul-smelling<sup>f</sup> among the Phi-lis'tines." So the people were called together to follow Saul to Gil'gal.<sup>g</sup>

5 And the Phi-lis'tines, for their part, collected themselves together to fight against Israel, thirty thousand war chariots<sup>h</sup> and six thousand horsemen and people like the grains of sand that are upon the seashore for multitude;<sup>i</sup> and they went their way up and began camping in Mich'mash<sup>j</sup> to the east of Beth-a'ven.<sup>j</sup> 6 And the men of Israel themselves saw that they were in sore straits,<sup>k</sup> because the people were hard pressed; and the people went hiding themselves in the caves<sup>l</sup> and the hollows and the crags and the vaults and the waterpits. 7 Hebrews even crossed the Jordan<sup>m</sup> to the land of Gad<sup>n</sup> and Gil'e-ad. But Saul himself was yet in Gil'gal, and all the people trembled while following him.<sup>o</sup> 8 And he continued waiting for seven days to the appointed time that Samuel had said;<sup>p</sup> and Samuel did not come to Gil'gal, and the people were scattering from him. 9 Finally Saul said: "BRING near to me the burnt sacrifice and the communion sacrifices." With that he went offering up the burnt sacrifice.<sup>q</sup>

10 And it came about that as soon as he had finished offering up the burnt sacrifice, why, there was Samuel coming in. So Saul went out to meet him and

So I compelled myself<sup>g</sup> and went offering up the burnt sacrifice."

13 At this Samuel said to Saul: "You have acted foolishly.<sup>h</sup> You have not kept the commandment<sup>i</sup> of Jehovah your God that he commanded you,<sup>j</sup> because, if you had, Jehovah would have made your kingdom firm over Israel to time indefinite. 14 And now your kingdom will not last.<sup>k</sup> Jehovah will certainly find for himself a man agreeable to his heart;<sup>l</sup> and Jehovah will commission him as a leader<sup>m</sup> over his people, because you did not keep what Jehovah commanded you."<sup>n</sup>

19 Now there was not a smith to be found in all the land of Israel, because the Philis'tines had said: "That the Hebrews may not make a sword or a spear."<sup>a</sup>

20 And all the Israelites would go down to the Philis'tines to get each one his plowshare or his mattock or his ax or his sickle sharpened.<sup>b</sup> 21 And the price for sharpening proved to be a pim for the plowshares and for the mattocks and for the three-toothed instruments and for the axes and for fixing fast the oxgoad.<sup>c</sup> 22 And it happened on the day of battle that not a sword<sup>d</sup> or a spear was found in the hand of any of the people that were with Saul and Jon'a-than; but there could be found one belonging to Saul<sup>e</sup> and to Jon'a-than his son.

14 And it came about one day that Jon'a-than<sup>h</sup> the son of Saul proceeded to say to the attendant carrying his weapons: "Do come and let us cross over to the outpost of the Philis'tines who are across over there." But to his father he did not tell it.<sup>i</sup> 2 And Saul was dwelling at the outskirts of Gib'e-ah<sup>j</sup> under the pomegranate tree that is in Mig'ron; and the people that were with him were about six hundred men.<sup>k</sup> 3 (And A-hi'jah the son of A-hi'-tub,<sup>l</sup> the brother of Ich'a-bod,<sup>m</sup> the son of Phin'e-has,<sup>n</sup> the son of E'li,<sup>o</sup> the priest of Jehovah in Shi'loh,<sup>p</sup> was carrying the eph'-od.)<sup>q</sup> And the people themselves did not know that Jon'a-than had gone. 4 Now between the passages that Jon'a-than looked for to cross over against the outpost<sup>r</sup> of the Philis'tines there was a toothlike crag here on this side and a toothlike crag there on that side, and the name of the one was Bo'zez and the name of the other was Se'neh. 5 The one tooth was a pillar on the north facing Mich'mash,<sup>a</sup> and the other was on the south facing Ge'ba.<sup>b</sup>

6 So Jon'a-than said to the attendant, his armor-bearer: "Do come and let us cross over to the outpost of these uncircumcised<sup>c</sup> men. Perhaps Jehovah will work for us, for there is no hindrance to Jehovah to save by many or by few."<sup>d</sup> 7 At this his armor-bearer said to him: "Do whatever is in your heart. Turn where you wish to. Here I am with you in accord with your heart."<sup>e</sup> 8 Then Jon'a-than said: "Here we are crossing over to the men, and let us expose ourselves to them. 9 If this is the way they should say to us, 'Stand still until we make contact with you!' we must then stand where we are, and we should not go on up to them. 10 But if this is the way they should say, 'Come up against us!' we must then go up, because Jehovah will certainly give them into our hand, and this is for us the sign."<sup>f</sup>

11 With that the two of them exposed themselves to the outpost of the Philis'tines. And the Philis'tines proceeded to say: "Here are the Hebrews coming out from the holes where they have hidden themselves."<sup>g</sup> 12 So the men of the outpost answered Jon'a-than and his armor-bearer and said: "Come on up to us, and we will let you know a thing!"<sup>h</sup> At once Jon'a-than said to his armor-bearer: "Come up after me, because Jehovah will certainly give them into the hand of Israel."<sup>i</sup> 13 And Jon'a-than kept going up on his hands<sup>j</sup> and his feet, and his armor-bearer after him; and they began to fall before Jon'a-than,<sup>k</sup> and his armor-bearer was putting them to death behind him.<sup>a</sup> 14 And the first slaughter with which Jon'a-than and his armor-bearer struck them down amounted to about twenty men within about half the plowing line in an acre of field.

15 Then a trembling<sup>b</sup> occurred in the camp in the field and among all the people of the outpost; and the force of pillagers<sup>c</sup> trembled, even they, and the earth began quaking,<sup>d</sup> and it developed into a trembling from God.<sup>e</sup> 16 And the watchmen belonging to Saul in Gib'e-ah<sup>f</sup> of Benjamin got to see it, and, look! the turmoil swayed this way and that.<sup>g</sup>

17 And Saul proceeded to say to the people that were with him: "Take the count, please, and see who has gone out from us." When they took the count, why, look! Jon'a-than and his armor-bearer were not there. 18 Saul now said to A-hi'jah:<sup>h</sup> "Do bring the ark of the true God near!"<sup>i</sup> (For the ark of the true God proved to be on that day with the sons of Israel.) 19 And it came about that while Saul was speaking to the priest,<sup>k</sup> the turmoil that was in the camp of the Philistines continued to go on, getting greater and greater. Then Saul said to the priest: "Withdraw your hand." 20 Thus Saul and all the people that were with him were called out.<sup>l</sup> So they came as far as the battle, and there the sword of each one had come to be against his fellow-man;<sup>m</sup> the rout was very great. 21 And the Hebrews that had come to belong to the Philistines<sup>n</sup> as formerly and that had gone up with them into the camp round about, even they too were for proving themselves to be with Israel who was with Saul and Jon'a-than. 22 All the men of Israel also that were hidden<sup>o</sup> in the mountainous region of Ephra-im heard that the Philistines had taken to flight, and they too went pursuing closely after them into the battle. 23 And Jehovah proceeded on that day to save<sup>a</sup> Israel, and the battle itself passed over to Beth-a'ven.<sup>b</sup>

24 And the men of Israel themselves were hard pressed on that day, and yet Saul put the people under the pledge of an oath,<sup>c</sup> saying: "Cursed is the man that eats bread before the evening and until I have taken vengeance<sup>d</sup> upon my enemies!" And none of the people tasted bread.<sup>e</sup>

25 And all those of the land came into the woods, when honey<sup>f</sup> happened to be over the surface of the field. 26 When the people came into the woods, why, look! there was a dripping of honey,<sup>g</sup> but there was no one putting his hand to his mouth, because the people were afraid of the oath.<sup>h</sup> 27 As for Jon'a-than, he had not been listening when his father put the people under an oath,<sup>i</sup> so he stretched out the tip of the rod that was in his hand and dipped it into the honeycomb and drew his hand back to his mouth, and his eyes began to beam.<sup>j</sup> 28 At this one of the people answered and said: "Your father solemnly put the people under oath, saying, 'Cursed is the man that eats bread today!'"<sup>k</sup> (And the people began to get tired.)<sup>l</sup> 29 However, Jon'a-than said: "My father has brought ostracism<sup>m</sup> upon the land. SEE, please, how my eyes have beamed because I tasted this little bit of honey.<sup>n</sup> 30 How much more so if the people had but eaten<sup>o</sup> today from the spoil of their enemies that they found!" For now the slaughter upon the Philistines has not been great.<sup>q</sup> 31 And on that day they kept striking down the Philistines from Mich'mash<sup>r</sup> to Ai'ja-lon,<sup>s</sup> and the people got to be very tired.<sup>t</sup> 32 And the people began darting greedily at the spoil<sup>u</sup>

and taking sheep and cattle and calves and slaughtering them on the earth, and the people fell to eating along with the blood.<sup>a</sup>

33 So they told Saul, saying: "Look! The people are sinning against Jehovah by eating along with the blood."<sup>b</sup> At this he said: "You have dealt treacherously. First of all, roll a great stone to me." 34 After that Saul said: "Scatter among the people, and you must say to them, 'Bring near to me, each one of you, his bull and, each one, his sheep, and you must do the slaughtering in this place and the eating, and you must not sin against Jehovah by eating along with the blood.'"<sup>c</sup> Accordingly all the people brought near each one his bull that was in his hand that night and did the slaughtering there. 35 And Saul proceeded to build an altar<sup>d</sup> to Jehovah. With it he started altar building to Jehovah.<sup>e</sup>

36 Later Saul said: "Let us go down after the Philis'tines by night and plunder them until the morning lightens up,<sup>f</sup> and let us not leave a single one among them."<sup>g</sup> To this they said: "Anything that is good in your eyes do." Then the priest said: "Let us approach here to the true God."<sup>h</sup>

37 And Saul began to inquire of God: "Shall I go down after the Philis'tines?"<sup>i</sup> Will you give them into the hand of Israel?"<sup>j</sup> And he did not answer him on that day.<sup>k</sup>

38 So Saul said: "Come near here, all you keymen of the people,<sup>m</sup> and ascertain and see in what way this sin has come to be today. 39 For as Jehovah, who is the Deliverer of Israel, is alive, even if it is in Jon'a-than my son, yet he will positively die."<sup>n</sup> But there was no one answering him out of all the people. 40 And he went on to say to all Israel: "You yourselves will come to be on the one side, and I and Jon'a-than my son—we will come to be on the other side." At this the people said to Saul: "What is good in your eyes do."<sup>a</sup>

41 And Saul proceeded to say to Jehovah: "O God of Israel, do give Thum'mim!"<sup>b</sup> Then Jon'a-than and Saul were taken, and the people themselves went out.<sup>c</sup>

42 Saul now said: "CAST lots<sup>d</sup> to decide between me and Jon'a-than my son." And Jon'a-than got to be taken. 43 Then Saul said to Jon'a-than: "Do tell me, What have you done?"<sup>e</sup> So Jon'a-than told him and said: "I did for a fact taste a little honey on the tip of the rod that is in my hand.<sup>f</sup> Here I am! Let me die!"

44 At this Saul said: "Thus may God do and thus may he add to it,<sup>g</sup> if you do not positively die,<sup>h</sup> Jon'a-than." 45 But the people said to Saul: "Is Jon'a-than to die, who has performed this great salvation<sup>i</sup> in Israel? It is unthinkable! As Jehovah is alive,<sup>k</sup> not as much as a single hair<sup>l</sup> of his head will fall to the earth; for it was with God that he worked this day."<sup>m</sup> With that the people redeemed<sup>n</sup> Jon'a-than, and he did not die.

49 And the sons of Saul came to be Jon'a-than<sup>y</sup> and Ish'vi

15 Then Samuel said to Saul: "It was I whom Jehovah sent to anoint<sup>i</sup> you as king over his people Israel, and now listen to the voice of the words of Jehovah.<sup>j</sup> 2 This is what Jehovah of armies<sup>k</sup> has said, 'I must call to account<sup>l</sup> what Am'a-lek did to Israel when he set himself against him in the way while he was coming up out of Egypt.<sup>m</sup> 3 Now go, and you must strike down Am'a-lek<sup>n</sup> and devote him to destruction<sup>o</sup> with all that he has, and you must not have compassion upon him, and you must put them to death,<sup>p</sup> man as well as woman, child as well as suckling,<sup>q</sup> bull as well as sheep, camel as well as ass.'<sup>r</sup> 4 Accordingly Saul summoned the people and took the count of them in Te-la'im,<sup>s</sup> two hundred thousand men on foot and ten thousand men of Judah.<sup>t</sup>

10 The word of Jehovah now came to Samuel, saying: 11 "I do regret<sup>j</sup> that I have caused Saul to reign as king, because he has turned<sup>k</sup> back from following me, and my words he has not carried out.<sup>l</sup> And it was distressing to Samuel,<sup>m</sup> and he kept crying out to Jehovah all night long.<sup>n</sup> 12 Then Samuel got up early to meet Saul in the morning. But report was made to Samuel, saying: "Saul came to Car'mel,<sup>o</sup> and, look! he was erecting a monument<sup>p</sup> for himself, and he then turned around and went across and descended to Gil'gal." 13 At length Samuel came to Saul, and Saul began to say to him: "Blessed<sup>q</sup> are you of Jehovah. I have carried out the word of Jehovah."<sup>r</sup> 14 But Samuel said: "Then what does this sound of the flock in my ears mean, and the sound of the herd that I am hearing?"<sup>s</sup> 15 To this Saul said: "From the A-mal'ek-ites they have brought them, because the people<sup>a</sup> had compassion upon the best of the flock and of the herd, for the purpose of sacrificing to Jehovah your God;<sup>b</sup> but what was left over we have devoted to destruction.”

16 At this Samuel said to Saul: “Stop! And I will tell you what Jehovah spoke to me last night.”<sup>c</sup> So he said to him: “Speak!”

17 And Samuel went on to say: “Was it not when you were little in your own eyes<sup>d</sup> that you were head of the tribes of Israel, and Jehovah proceeded to anoint<sup>e</sup> you as king over Israel?” 18 Later Jehovah sent you on a mission and said, ‘Go, and you must devote the sinners,<sup>f</sup> the A-mal’ek-ites, to destruction, and you must fight against them until you will have exterminated them.’<sup>g</sup> 19 So why is it you did not obey the voice of Jehovah but went darting greedily at the spoil<sup>h</sup> and doing what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah?”<sup>i</sup>

20 However, Saul said to Samuel: “But I have obeyed<sup>j</sup> the voice of Jehovah in that I went on the mission on which Jehovah had sent me and I brought A’gag<sup>k</sup> the king of Am’a-lek, but Am’a-lek I have devoted to destruction.” 21 And the people<sup>m</sup> went taking from the spoil sheep and cattle, the choicest of them as something devoted to destruction, to sacrifice<sup>n</sup> to Jehovah your God in Gil’gal.”<sup>o</sup>

24 Then Saul said to Samuel: “I have sinned;<sup>a</sup> for I have overstepped the order of Jehovah and your words, because I feared the people<sup>b</sup> and so obeyed their voice.” 25 And now, please, pardon<sup>c</sup> my sin and return with me that I may prostrate<sup>d</sup> myself to Jehovah.” 26 But Samuel said to Saul: “I shall not return with you, for you have rejected the word of Jehovah, and Jehovah rejects you from continuing as king over Israel.”<sup>e</sup> 27 As Samuel was turning about to go, he immediately grabbed hold of the skirt of his sleeveless coat, but it ripped<sup>f</sup> away. 28 At this Samuel said to him: “Jehovah has ripped away<sup>g</sup> the royal rule of Israel from off you today, and he will certainly give it to a fellowman of yours who is better than you.”<sup>h</sup> 29 And, besides, the Excellency of Israel<sup>i</sup> will not prove false,<sup>j</sup> and He will not feel regrets, for He is not an earthing man so as to feel regrets.”<sup>k</sup>

30 At this he said: “I have sinned. Now honor me,<sup>l</sup> please, in front of the older men of my people and in front of Israel and return with me, and I shall certainly prostrate myself to Jehovah your God.”<sup>m</sup> 31 So Samuel returned behind Saul, and Saul proceeded to prostrate himself to Jehovah. 32 After that Samuel said: “BRING A’gag the king of Am’a-lek near to me.” Then A’gag went to him reluctantly, and A’gag began to say to himself: “Truly the bitter experience of death has departed.” 33 However, Samuel said: “Just as your sword<sup>n</sup> has bereaved women of children, in that way your mother<sup>o</sup> will be most bereaved of children among women.”<sup>p</sup> With that Samuel went hacking A’gag to pieces before Jehovah in Gil’gal.”<sup>q</sup>

34 Samuel now went his way to Ra'mah, and Saul, for his part, went up to his own house at Gib'e-ah<sup>a</sup> of Saul. 35 And Samuel did not see Saul again until the day of his death, because Samuel had gone into mourning<sup>b</sup> for Saul. As for Jehovah, he regretted that he had made Saul king over Israel.<sup>c</sup>

16 Eventually Jehovah said to Samuel: "For how long will you be mourning for Saul,<sup>d</sup> while I, on the other hand, have rejected him from ruling as king over Israel?<sup>e</sup> Fill your horn with oil<sup>f</sup> and go. I shall send you to Jes'se<sup>g</sup> the Beth'le-hem-ite, because I have provided among his sons a king for myself."<sup>h</sup> 2 But Samuel said: "How can I go? Once Saul has heard of it he will certainly kill me."<sup>i</sup> And Jehovah went on to say: "A young cow of the herd you should take with you, and you must say, 'To sacrifice to Jehovah is why I have come.'<sup>j</sup> 3 And you must call Jes'se to the sacrifice; and I, for my part, shall make known to you what you should do,<sup>k</sup> and you must anoint<sup>l</sup> for me the one whom I designate to you."

4 And Samuel proceeded to do what Jehovah spoke. When he came to Beth'le-hem<sup>m</sup> the older men of the city began to tremble<sup>n</sup> at meeting him, and so they said: "Does your coming mean peace?"<sup>o</sup> 5 To this he said: "It means peace. To sacrifice to Jehovah is why I have come. Sanctify<sup>p</sup> yourselves, and you must come with me to the sacrifice." Then he sanctified Jes'se and his sons, after which he called them to the sacrifice. 6 And it came about that, as they came in and he caught sight of E-li'ab,<sup>q</sup> he at once said: "Surely his anointed one is before Jehovah." 7 But Jehovah said to Samuel: "Do not look at his appearance and at the height of his stature,<sup>r</sup> for I have rejected him. the way man sees is the way God sees,<sup>a</sup> because mere man sees what appears to the eyes;<sup>b</sup> but as for Jehovah, he sees what the heart<sup>c</sup> is." 8 Then Jes'se called A-bin'a-dab<sup>d</sup> and had him pass before Samuel, but he said: "Neither has Jehovah chosen this one." 9 Next Jes'se had Sham'mah<sup>e</sup> pass by, but he said: "Neither has Jehovah chosen this one." 10 So Jes'se had seven of his sons pass before Samuel; still Samuel said to Jes'se: "Jehovah has not chosen these."

11 Finally Samuel said to Jes'se: "Are these all the boys?" To this he said: "The youngest one has till now been left out,<sup>f</sup> and, look! he is pasturing the sheep."<sup>g</sup> At that Samuel said to Jes'se: "Do send and fetch him, because we shall not sit down to meal until his coming here." 12 Accordingly he sent and had him come. Now he was ruddy,<sup>h</sup> a young man with beautiful eyes and handsome in appearance. Then Jehovah said: "Get up, anoint him, for this is he!"<sup>i</sup> 13 Accordingly Samuel took the horn of oil<sup>j</sup> and anointed him in the midst of his brothers. And the spirit of Jehovah began to be operative upon David from that day forward.<sup>k</sup> Later Samuel rose and went his way to Ra'mah.<sup>l</sup>

14 And the very spirit of Jehovah departed<sup>m</sup> from Saul, and a bad spirit<sup>n</sup> from Jehovah terrorized him. 15 And the servants of Saul began to say to him: "Here, now, God's bad spirit is terrorizing you. 16 Let our lord, please, command your servants before you that they should look for a skilled man<sup>o</sup> playing upon the harp.<sup>p</sup> And it must occur that, when God's bad spirit comes to be upon you, he will have to play with his hand, and it will certainly be well with you." 17 So Saul said to his servants: "Provide me, please, a man doing well at playing, and you must bring him to me."<sup>a</sup>

18 And one of the attendants proceeded to answer and say: "Look! I have seen how a son of Jes'se the Beth'le-hem-ite is skilled at playing,<sup>b</sup> and he is a valiant, mighty man<sup>c</sup> and a man of war<sup>d</sup> and an intelligent speaker<sup>e</sup> and a well-formed man,<sup>f</sup> and Jehovah is with him."<sup>g</sup> 19 Then Saul sent messengers to Jes'se and said: "Do send to me David your son, who is with the flock."<sup>h</sup> 20 So Jes'se took an ass, bread and a skin bottle<sup>i</sup> of wine and a kid of the goats and sent them by the hand of David his son to Saul.<sup>j</sup> 21 Thus David came to Saul and attended upon him;<sup>k</sup> and he got to loving him very much, and he came to be his armor-bearer.<sup>l</sup> 22 Consequently Saul sent to Jes'se, saying: "Let David, please, keep attending upon me, for he has found favor in my eyes."<sup>m</sup> 23 And it occurred that, when God's spirit came to be upon Saul, David took the harp and played with his hand; and there was relief for Saul and it was well with him, and the bad spirit departed from upon him.<sup>n</sup>
